Christianity, A Relationship

Relationship actually, is what makes us Christians. Without being Immersed in the word, without the word dominating our hearts we cannot be filled with the holy spirit who helps in our relationship with God. Salvation restores our relationship, but it is the holy spirit that maintains and builds that relationship when we let Him. We cannot pray unless the spirit prays in us, we cannot spend time with God unless the spirit quickens us to. No one can do the things of God, only the spirit can, by acting on the word in our hearts.

It is the holy spirit that helps in our weaknesses to be in constant relationship with God. Unless we have the foundation of God's word in our heart, dominating and ruling us we cannot be completely influenced or taken over by the holy spirit to stay closely with God.

To be filled with the holy spirit, we have to be filled with the waters of life and then, like the sacrifice of Elijah, the fire will lick up the waters, consuming the sacrifice. In the new covenant, our hearts becomes the alter, the water, God's word, the fire, is the holy spirit. God revealed this in the old covenant through Elijah's sacrifice, now we have Jesus in our heart.

It is the fire of the holy spirit that consumes the fallen nature, sanctifying our hearts to become a place where God not only dwells but also, builds His home. I mean, to build in us His kingdom where He functions. in preparation for God to dwell therein and make His home, our hearts must be sanctified and put in order, straightening every crooked path for Him to dwell.

Be Immersed in the word and you'll be filled with the holy spirit. No one can live in holiness without being filled with the holy spirit, no one can think the thoughts of God without being filled with the holy spirit and no one can do the acts of God without being baptized in the holy ghost. It is a process. Immersion in the word, being filled with the holy spirit and then, being baptized in the holy ghost. To become filled is to walk in the nature of God. However to be baptized in the holy ghost, is to be empowered to become God's hands.

To be Immersed in the word, we must give to God our quality time feeding on His word slowly, attentively and repeatedly not for anything else but, to become filled with His very nature of Life. How much of God's word dwells in us is how much of Jesus actually dwells in us. To the extent the word dwells, dominates us, to that extent we have Jesus in us. Time with God is sacrifice, time with God is eternal Life.

If we truly are Christians, the holy spirit will testify to how much we are like Jesus. Without relationship built on the foundation of the word, being a Christian or rather being more like Jesus will be null and void. When I say “relationship,” I mean “sacrifice.” True love does not come with sacrifice, it is in reality “sacrifice.”

Relationship (love) is not forced, anything forced is not Faith. To the extent you're willing to love Jesus to that extent you're willing to sacrifice. God knows the hearts of men and will pour out Himself more only to those who desires to know Him. The desire to know Him comes from His spirit. Every step of Faith to build our relationship, He becomes our step to bring us into Jesus more and more. He moves in us only when we take steps of Faith.

A Christian is known by his love, how much love we give out will be a reflection of how much we love Jesus. Because without loving Jesus, there's no loving others, without loving others, there no loving Jesus. We begin to Love when we shut our eyes to this world and open them to a world of glory, only then can we become true Christians, because to be a Christian is to become Jesus.

Salvation brings us to Jesus, but relationship makes us more like Jesus and when we become more like Him, we experience more of Him. The evidence of Christianity is the evidence of Jesus in us, how much of Jesus is given out through us. Jesus was given by the Love of God to fulfil His will and so also, we are given by the Love of God to fulfil His will. The disciples were called Christians first in Antioch, because they were more of a reflection of Jesus.

Today many portrays us as mere religious, because many have the word of God but not the power of God, i.e. they have Jesus but Jesus cannot be seen in them, they have Jesus but without an in-depth relationship. If you're a Christian, the world will hate you as it hated Jesus, your depths of love for Him will only magnify the hatred of the evil one towards you, because you're building what He has destroyed. The difference between religion and Christians is selfish acts and relationship.

How much you know Jesus, I mean; when your love for Him begins to overflow, He'll not only entrust you with, but also, guides and flows through you on how to release His overflowing Love to others. The love of God you give out is the divine nature God made you before the dawn of creation. Like a unique color pencil in a color pack, I'd often say. You're your own color out of Jesus. The color pencil is your true divine nature, the color's lead is the dimension of Jesus In you, love rather.

When He colors through you, a different color is seen, but all for one purpose. When He colors in creation through you, a different manifolds of His glory (love) is released through you. No one's a copy, all is for one purpose, “His will,” drawing out His master plan for eternity.

We can only become true Christian when we become Christ like, by giving our all to draw His attention. That's love, that's sacrifice. Not what He can do for us, but what we can do for Him. In all, it is “Relationship.”

He brought us to being for His love and for His will. However, we're given free will to yield either to His or ours. His will although hard and unpleasant to the flesh, but to the spirit; for our glory to the glory of God. This is why we need to be filled with the holy spirit, so God's love won't become pain to us, because to the flesh it is. The flesh is a thorn to God's spirit, God's spirit also is a thorn to the flesh. It hurts Jesus when we fail to walk in His will, not because He's at loss, but because we are, we truly are. Unless we open our eyes of Faith we'll remain blind to see. Let's not wait till the last day before our eyes of faith are open. Relationship lost here can't be gain there.

Relationship is knowing Jesus, how much of Jesus we do have. To know Jesus is to lay down our lives just as He did. By laying down our lives, we become dead to self for Him alone to be seen, walking through us in a dying world, outpouring His love to restore that which was fallen. To be a Christian is to lose our fleshly identity for Christ to be seen.

“ Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.”
[John 15:13]

If we are ready to lose our lives, we'll gain it. To lose our lives is simply making Jesus visible as self gradually diminishes. Just as He laid down His life for the world, we ought to, by faith and love. Where faith and love so overflows, fears are shrouded and erased. Fear becomes a boundary that hinders us from knowing and experiencing the eternal and overflowing love of God. Where there's love, there no fear. When we are willing to lay down our lives, love overflows naturally, erasing all fears giving us Faith that God's in us and we in Him.

Fear hinders God in us, but when we love by acting Faith looking unto God and not to self, we trust Him that as we sacrifice and stay more closely with Him, He'll strengthen us to destroy the boundaries of fears that so hinders His love from overflowing In us.
God is love and Love is God, when we allow Him to remove our fears He gives us more of Himself to give out more of Himself. He fills us more to give out more.

Now I know It's natural to have fear wearing an earthen vessel. Jesus did also, when He was nearing the end of His assignment, His last days before the cross, He spoke out in fear;

“My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.”
[Matthew 26:39]

However, rather than looking unto self for security, He looked unto God, trusting and relying on His strength, on Him rather. Looking unto self for security actually is insecurity. In the end, hindering or pulling us farther from God (being more of a Christian).

Then He changed His confession both second and third time saying;

“My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done.”
[Matthew 26:42]

A many Christian have been hindered by hindering God with their fears. They look to self to save their own skin rather than risking the scars by looking unto God who has promised all is meant for His glory and to be with us always. Jesus is in us, there's no position we're in, He doesn't feel, we only need to turn it into a greater weight of glory when we pass. The answer is simply love. And so Jesus said;

“ For whoever wants to save their life will lose it, but whoever loses their life for me and for the gospel will save it.”
[Mark 8:35]

Fear becomes a boundary hindering the flow of God in us when we fail to look unto Him that is, trusting Him to make a way out, destroying the boundaries hindering His love in us. Such is those who have great love and faith; men who have fears, yet seeking God, trusting Him to displaced every fear by Love. When I say “by love,” I mean “to move forward.”

Just like the Israelites, when God descended on Mount Sinai. All He wanted was a relationship, yet only Moses loved enough to come closer to Him, the others remained at a distance. This they said to Moses;

“Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die.”
[Exodus 20:19].

Where love is lacking, fear lies therein. Many have failed and are failing to experience more of God all because of “fear.” Many fear, because the ways, the love of God is not the ways of men (the fallen nature). Fear is of the fallen nature, insecurity, self. When we walk in the love of God by Faith, all fears are dealt with to experience more of Him.

If anyone is simple, let Him believe and accept Jesus as redeemer. Or as Christians, are we willing to know Him as Lord just as He entrusted His Life in the hands of the Father? There are many Christians out there, but how much truly are we a Christian? How much of Jesus dwells in us? That's what spells the difference.

Jesus never called us for a religion, He called us for a relationship to become like Him, to become Christians, Christ-like.

Evidence of Jesus Christ is lives changed, first within and then through us. Christianity is a relationship not a religion, let us work on our relationship.

Basis Of Faith

Faith is heavenly currency to purchase heavenly resources. Deliverance, salvation, Healing, breakthrough, restoration… are all heavenly resources. Your Faith, your heavenly currency is determined by your spiritual progress [your relationship with Jesus]. Jesus always hear our prayers, but if our Faith [our currency] is not enough to purchase what we're asking for, then we cannot get it unless we join our Faith in one accord with one who can add to our currency or one who has greater currency to make purchase on our behalf or rather we work on our relationship to have more. Power, Faith... all are but manifolds of the rewards of our relationship with Christ Jesus. In all, the reward for our relationship with Jesus is Jesus Himself [more of Him]

Like Daniel, who increased in his spiritual position within twenty-one days in other to have sufficient power enough to destroy the prince of Persia who became his hindrance. So also, it is the will of God for all Christians to journey deeper in Love. Love is key. All Daniel did was simply increased his love for God. We must learn also to know the heart of God, because God's ways are not our ways and His silence also is an answer.

How much of Jesus we've become will determine how much we can purchase. How much Love [God] we've become will determine how much we can do in His name “Jesus.”

Jesus said;

“whatever you ask in my name ACCORDING TO YOUR FAITH”

I.e. Whatever we ask in His name in measure of His Spirit we've become by Love. The secret to greater Faith, the secret to asking and receiving in accordance to God's will, the secret to living the impossible, the secret in making the Word become reality is simply becoming Love [God]. In other words; “Relationship.”

Relationship is journeying to become Love [God] by relationship with the word and the spirit of God. It is journeying into Oness with God by giving our hearts attention to Jesus and to others [creation]. We cannot Love beyond our love, if we must Love beyond our love then we must;

- Abide always in the Love [Jesus Christ, the Word], talking always to Him in our hearts and by hearing and obeying constantly His voice; for His voice is our correction and restoration from darkness to Light, His voice is our sanctification. His voice [His word], it is Love, a consumer Fire, consuming all that is darkness.

- And then out of the measure of Love [God] we've become, Love [Jesus Himself] will be given out through us to others [creation]. Love begins first with God and then overflows to others through us. We cannot give what we don't have. If I love others then I must love Jesus, else I'll be nothing but a liar. We become Love by simply Loving Jesus and loving others [creation]

As we progress spiritually in Christ Jesus we'll have revelation of the main purpose for asking and receiving. The main purpose for asking and receiving; It is not for our sake, but for the sake of Jesus and others.

Knowing Jesus

People of God. If we know Jesus Christ as Saviour and yet do not know Him as Healer, Deliverer, Restorer... then we do not really know Him.

If you truly want to know Jesus, rededicate your life to Him, work on your relationship with Him then your life will be changed, your life will become Beautiful.

We do not know Jesus by mouth, emotions or human intellect. We know Jesus by Heart, and heart has to do with relationship. We know Jesus by becoming the very One [Jesus] we claim to know. The people of the world strive to know themselves by spending time to gain information; and so they often end up destroying themselves, because information is of outward, but the Heart [the spirit being] is the real person and only God knows the heart of men.

To know the hearts of men is to know the One [Jesus] who creates and knows the hearts of men. As the people of the world interact to gain information, we as Christians spend time with God through His word and by His spirit to know [become] more of Him. Becoming more of God is everything beautiful. As you begin to Journey in relationship with Jesus, you'll eventually discover your true identity [calling] hidden in Him. Then you begin to know God's opinion not only concerning yourself, but also that of others. He begins to see through your eyes as you see through His, you become God's Hands of restoration.

If we know this we'll feed on God's word slowly, attentively and repeatedly not for anything else but to become filled with His very Life. If we truly feed on God's word, we'll Become the very word we give our attention to. His word is His flesh, the bread of Life [Jesus Himself]. The more we feed on God's word, the more we become like Jesus as He builds Himself in us. And one of the prove of a true Christian is; having uncontrollable hunger for God's word and His presence not for anything else or self but to know [become] more of Him. As we become more of Him we'll spontaneously and naturally find ourselves thinking, speaking and acting as if it is God Himself “here.”

Jesus said to ask of anything in His name according to our faith and He'll do it I.e. If you ask anything in God's will, then In measure of your Faith [heavenly currency] or rather how much of Life Eternal [God] you've become, it will be brought into being. In other words; what we do in the name “Jesus” or the revelation [manifestation] of God through us will only be in measure of how much of Himself He can find in us. A two year old does not know what it means to be a Twenty year old neither can he do what a twenty can unless he grows.

All we're saying is this; if we know Jesus as Saviour, He must be able to save through us. If we know Him as Healer, then He must be able to heal through us. If we know Him as Deliverer, He must be able to deliver through us. If we know Him as Faith, we too must have become Faithfulness, if we know Him as Patience, we too much become Patience… Whatever manifold revelation of God's Divine attributes, we must become in fullness.

On that day, many will hear these words from Jesus;

“I never knew you; depart from Me, you who practice lawlessness!'”
[Matthew 7:23]

I.e. He cannot find more of Himself in them; Like a caricature pencil sketch drawing of a flower done by a two year old in comparison to the original flower, they'll be before God... A poor shadow reflection of God they're. These He'll be ashamed of.

Do you know God?

If we know Jesus, like Him, we'll do the work of the Father. We'll do only what we see the Father do. We'll Become like God. The very Word of God can make us into all of God, because it is God in written form and only by relationship can it be received to become reality in our heart. Feed on it. And abide [praying without ceasing] always in Him in;

- Hearing God's word to heart or by meditating, feeding on His written word slowly, attentively and repeatedly not for anything else but to know Him, [His will, His Heart] to become more of Him as you He builds Himself in you by taking in His very Life.

- And also constantly talking to Him in your heart in; Hymns, psalms, spiritual songs, making melodies in your heart, acknowledgement, thanks...

These are Anointed words for you;

- Take more of me and give me more of You
- Locate me in your mercy, Lord Jesus
- In the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus Or Just the name “Jesus”

Constantly saying these in your heart. You're not bound by these, Just talk to Him in your heart as a person. Relationship with God is simply knowing [becoming] God.

Prayer without ceasing, like a plant always deep rooted in the garden. The one often uprooted, will not grow like the one always deep-rooted, this is Relationship. As said; time with Jesus, relationship with the word and the spirit of God is knowing [becoming] God.
And you'll become like God.

Have you become Love [God]?

The way to the Father is by relationship with the word and His Spirit.

Jesus said;

“He who has seen Me has seen the Father;”
[John 14:9]

Life will be without meaning unless the Father has become evident in us. For this purpose Jesus laid down His Life for our salvation; That others [creation] may see the Father [God] in us.

If you have seen me, you have seen God.
This is God's desire for us.

Seek and you'll find
Become Love

Shalom

Love Everyone

Love Everyone;

“Give to him who asks you, and from him who wants to borrow from you do not turn away.

"You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.'

But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,
45 that you may be sons of your Father in heaven; for He makes His sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the just and on the unjust.

For if you love those who love you, what reward have you? Do not even the tax collectors do the same?

And if you greet your brethren only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the tax collectors do so

Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.”
[Matthew 5:42-48]

If we love only those who loves us, what different are we from the devil who is the Father of “self.”

As servants of God; if you in your heart hate, despise or do not have regard for others because of their faith or religious background, or for whatever reasons… if God has given you a people out of these whom you hate or disregard, He'll not use you to restore them, He'll use another who has a heart of Love to rescue them, feed them and keep them ready and prepared for the chief shepherd. The one who hates is the one at loss. Our opinions, our heart does not change who God Is but rather changes us either positively or negatively. The one who loves will become Love [God].

And to all Christians; if we despise anyone, it makes us no different the evil one [the devil]. If we love our enemies, it makes us more like our Father who causes the rain to fall both on both good and the wicked. Ponder over it. If we hate others, have we then become greater than Love [God] who gives both the good and the wicked breath to live.

Like Jesus; love everyone, but trust only God.
Like Jesus; Love everyone, but do not be friends with everyone.
Like Jesus; Love everyone, but be close friends only with those who have Heart for the Father.

Remember;
Love does not see darkness in others, but rather sees Jesus who is their Future and perfection.

However, compassion sees darkness in others only with a heart for their restoration. If we give our attention to darkness, weaknesses, pain or limitations in others without a heart for their restoration, it makes us no different than the evil one.

Love and compassion
Become Love

Basis Of Walking With God

One of the basis of walking with God is to be immersed in and dominated by His Word to become filled, overflowing in His Spirit. We must feed on God's word slowly attentively and repeatedly, a heart not concerned or anxious about “next” [future], a heart free of sin and offence, a prayerful heart, a heart of humility to visit God and a heart to become like Jesus as we take in His very Life.

If we must have relationship with God, then we must give our time to the word. Everything big starts little. If we truly love the word, we can find ourselves dwelling on less than five verses for about an hour to see clearly as God sees and to become one with the word. When we spend time in the word, time ceases to exist because it is becoming infused, immersed, merged, integrated into Life Eternal [God Himself].

Remember, the word of God also is mirror, revealing what we are and what we're not in Christ Jesus.

What more can we say? As the deer pants for waters, if we truly have a bible or if we truly desire God's word, it'll definitely change us increasingly into becoming like Jesus. And even when the bible is not there physically, the Word [Jesus Himself] has dominated and become real in our heart where we can constantly have relationship with the word [Jesus] and His Spirit.

Time is grace to become like God, give your every breath in relationship to God and then give back to God by giving others [creation].

If we truly read the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, it is like being amongst the disciples with Jesus. Take this to heart; all through whom the scriptures were written by the Spirit of God, they never had the bible before they wrote the bible, they just simply earnestly sought after and walked closely with God. There will be no Acts of the Apostles without relationship with the Word [Jesus] and the holy spirit. In all, work on your relationship with Jesus.

“All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every

[2Timothy 3:16-17]

Everything big starts little. Everything of God must be faced with opposition which makes it even more valuable and beautiful. I mean, gold is not gold if it is not tested by fire. The flesh always will be in opposition to the will of God; be faithful and give [sacrifice] more in satisfying God's Spirit within you rather than flesh. If we truly love, we'll make greatest sacrifice.

Discomfort of the flesh is but a reflection of the flesh gradually dying, do not be like the majority who resurrect the flesh. Death is painful, but temporary, and out of it comes Life. The Spirit being is the real you, bring it to life and live by the spirit. The real you is the one with peace, fruits of God's spirit. The real you is the one who is called to become like Jesus. And the real you will never have perfect peace untill God has made His Home in His Heart, dwelling in His fullness.

If we truly read the life of Jesus, we'll desire and also do like Jesus. If we truly feed on God's word, we'll become more of God “Therefore I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?

Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they?

Which of you by worrying can add one cubit to his stature?

So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; and yet I say to you that even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith?

Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?'

For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things

But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble."
[Matthew 6:25-34]

The Christian who's living these words of Jesus is the one who is willing or is walking with God. Unless we die to self, God's Word cannot become reality in our lives. The Word is given for us to become the very Word [God]. Do not take the place of God by holding your future in your hands. Do not become prideful by taking the place of God who Holds the future. The one who has ceased to exist, I mean; the one who like Jesus, lives only the will of the Father, is the one whom the Father will Beautify.

"In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you."
[John 14:2]

We are God's building. How beautiful are you before God? Have you discovered and are you living your Divine blueprint in God?

Like colour pencils in a colour pack we are, different colour, yet of one Spirit, one purpose

We all have two calling;

- To finish our Divine assignment
- To become Love [God]

Message Of Hope

Remember, words of Jesus;

"These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world."
[John 16:33]

The moment you accept Jesus, don't find it strange; satan often will come to test your Faith through your flesh, temptations, situations or through others. The moment you make commitment to live for Jesus, you become enemy of satan. Don't be afraid, he is defeated already, and he has no power over you unless you let him by refusing to grow spiritually.

We say this so that you will not be shaken when trials comes. Those who are not yet saved, they are not enemy of satan but rather his children, and the only thing satan can offer is gradual destruction. Anyone not of God already is dead spiritually. Do not be deceived by those who don't have Jesus but yet seems as though they have everything the world has to offer; deep within they are suffering greatly of which they cannot tell you of.

In Christ Jesus, peace of heart is our reward here on earth. One of the most important character a Christian should have is; a heart of contentment. When you're content at all time, then you're made fit, qualified to accommodate more of God. Having everything without Jesus is nothing. There is an emptiness in man which only Jesus can fill. Peace of heart is our reward here, but In Eternity, in heaven, how much of God we've become by our relationship with Him here becomes our reward, because He originally created us to become like Him.

In the Christian Journey, trials are but spiritual exams. Temptations and trials do not come from God, but they can be allowed by God for our spiritual growth. And if we know God allows it, then we should know it cannot destroy us but rather to refine us like gold, if we let it that is. When we pass the test, when we learn what Jesus wants us to learn, when He has kept us in preparation for the future and when He has built Himself in us, when the exam is over, the situation will be removed and then we'll be promoted to a new level in life and seat also for another exam.

Life is an exam, he who wants promotion must love exams. When we pass the test, God will promotes us not only in life, but above all "spiritually"; we become more of Him, our position in Him increases, we become closer and closer to Him.

If we are born of God and we know that Jesus is with us and His Spirit in us and He feels what we feel more than we do feel it yet He allows it, then we should know it is for a purpose; we should in humility and love depend more on Him, work on our relationship more, learn to see clearly and plainly as He sees and pass the exam.

Christianity is not a religion but a relationship. If you're born of God, now that you have become God's child, He desires you also to grow in spirit into His likeness, to become more of Him, just as a child grows into an adult. A young butterfly does not know what it means to be an adult butterfly unless it grows. So also is the Christian journey. Do not measure yourself with others, let Jesus [the word of God] be your standard, desire to become like Jesus. Examine every thing, every thoughts, words and actions by the Spirit of God. As one newly saved, the new testament of the Bible is best start;

- Matthew
- Mark
- Luke
- John

These are the life of Jesus, if we must become like Jesus, not only must we feed on His word to become filled with His life, not only must we feed on His word to allow Him build Himself in us but also, having knowledge of the life He lived here on earth also makes it easier to live for Him and to overcome.

In addition; just as It is best to begin with the first four books of the new testament. So also a chapter of book of proverbs in the old testament each day will help.

Remember, feeding on God's word is visit with God, it is letter of God to you. And as you know and walk in His ways, your life will become beautiful. As to spend time feeding on God's word, your feed your spirit being [the real you] just as you feed your physical body for growth. This is how we know Jesus, as you spend time with Him, He fills you with Himself, then you begin to grow in spirit into His very likeness. Then you begin to know Him increasingly.

Physical growth is a function of time, intellectual growth, a function of learning, However, spiritual growth in God is a function of Love for God; Obedience and Repentance.

Maintain and grow in your relationship with Jesus okay. Feed on His word, slowly attentively and repeatedly not for head knowledge or for religious act, but to know His Heart, to hear His voice and to become filled with His very Life and nature. As you become filled with His very Life, then His spirit in you begin to increase. The increase of His spirit in you is what makes it possible for you to spontaneously and naturally find yourself, thinking, speaking and acting more like Jesus.

And as you continue in your relationship with Him, desire also to know your purpose here on earth. God created us for a purpose, He placed our Spirit in this physical body for two reasons;

- To live our Divine purpose here on earth.
- To become more of Him

Man can become many things in life, but unless he begins to live in his divine purpose here on earth, unless he begins to live the pages of the book which has been written of him before the dawn of creation, he'll not have perfect peace and his life without eternal reward even though he is saved

We don't want you to live like the majority of Christians out there who are saved but don't know Jesus. Be one with a difference. Know Jesus personally for yourself. And whatever you hear from others, if it is not inline with the Bible, God's Heart, do not go for it.

As you grow in your relationship, and as you pray for Him to reveal your true identity [your purpose here on earth]. At the appointed time, in few weeks or months He'll reveal Himself to you and your True identity. Don't worry about living for Jesus. Your true identity is the real you, not this physical. A lion does not try to be a lion, it just be.

This is brief message for your salvation [restoration]

Thank you for your love for Jesus

Become Love

Knowing Your Purpose In Life

If you have desired so long for Jesus to reveal to you your true identity and He has not yet still, then something is wrong, because it ought to take few weeks or months for Him to bring that desire into reality. It is certainly not all up to God and also it is not all up to us. Our relationship with God, our heart for God will determine when the cup will be full, then Jesus will determine when and how He'll reveal Himself and our true identity hidden in Him.

To discover your purpose in Life also is same as discovering your true identity [your calling] hidden in Christ Jesus. And to know life's purpose is to know life's Creator. We must have an in-depth level of intimacy with Jesus for Him to reveal. Jesus will not give Himself out so cheaply; If we're born of God, by Him we were bought at a price, yet we have to pay the price to earn His Heart. Love is sacrifice.

This Jesus has done for us, what have we done for Him?
Jesus has done much for us, what have you done for Him? Meanwhile, what we do for Jesus does not change who He is but rather changes us.

Take note; knowing your calling through a prophecy given, doesn't necessarily mean you're called. To truly know your calling, I mean to be called by God is God's personal covenant with you, it is Divine Grace of God which reveals, brings out that part of your spirit being which has been hidden in God to begin functioning according to His will if you yield to Him that is. When this aspect of your spirit being is revealed, then it takes over your all, I mean; a lion does not struggle to be a lion, it just be, this is Parable. You then have to follow the processing of God's Spirit in the school of the spirit; running after God and walking closely with Him to bring the Divine blueprint of your building Into reality and into completion

We say your calling is a part of your spirit being, because it is your uniquely designed assignment fit specifically for you just as colour pencils are of different colours yet of the same purpose. Your Divine assignment given by God is Love [Grace] to enable you become more of God by your Obedience as He creates through you the future He desires to create "here."

We have two, yet one purpose on earth;

- To complete our Divine assignment
- And to become Love [God in fullness]

Divine assignment is a function of Obedience to God,
However, becoming Love [God] is a function of Journey of repentance, being constantly changed into the very Likeness of God as we Abide [behold] in Him

When we say “Divine assignment” we do not only mean, what God has predestined us before the dawn of creation to be fulfilled here, but rather we should also take note that every second, moment, every breath of our lives is an assignment from God. The first assignment is;

- To abide always in God [pray without ceasing] by;
  Hearing God's word to heart or by meditating, feeding on His written word slowly, attentively and repeatedly not for anything else but to know Him, [His will, His Heart] to become more of Him as you He builds Himself in you by taking in His very Life.

You must spend time with God, feeding on His word; not for head knowledge or religious sake, but rather to hear Him, to know His voice and to become filled with His very Life and spirit. And you also must pray without ceasing by constantly talking to Him in your heart in; Hymns, psalms, spiritual songs, making melodies in your heart, acknowledgement, thanks...

These are Anointed words for you;

- Take more of me and give me more of You
- Locate me in your mercy, Lord Jesus
- In the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus Or Just the name “Jesus”

Constantly saying these in your heart. You're not bound by these, Just talk to Him in your heart as a person. Relationship with God is simply knowing [becoming] God.

Apart from these, talk to Him often as a person just as you constantly talk to yourself in your mind, Involving Him in everything; to see what He sees, to know what He knows, His opinions. Just talk to Him, He is a person.

Unless you become more of God by spending time with Him and Living in obedience, He cannot use you. And Unless you spend more time with Him, you will not be close enough for Him to reveal Himself and your true identity. The people of the world, I mean those who love [lust] for selfish reasons spend time with others to gain information and access to certain things in their lives, Meanwhile, true Christian spend time with God to enable God constantly and increasingly unveil their original position in God. They spend time with God to know [become] Him.

And the other assignments;

- To depend on God as you involve His spirit in every thoughts, words and actions… To pass every test and trials [exams of the spirit] and to give love to others [creation]… What you do with your every breath, your ”Now” will define your tomorrow [Eternity]

Your Obedience to God "here" and your heart of repentance will determine how much of God you'll become in spirit, this is our Eternal reward.

Your spiritual prosperity, how much of God you've become also will influence your divine assignment, your "Now" and "Future" 'here.' Those who are wise have eyes to see that becoming Love [God] is the only solution to man's problem and the only access to perfect peace. All who are born of God have peace, take note; but only In measure of how much they've lived the will of God.

The grace to become One with God, to be Involved always with [in] Him whenever He's says "Let Us…," from the old to the new covenant, this grace is given to all, yet accessed only by the few whom have willingly chosen to reject the ways of the majority. The way of the majority is "self" rather than Love. They whom shall become Love, are they with a heart of Love for the Heart of the Father, for self to be constantly erased In other for God alone to be evident within, without.

If you truly desire, you shall have, it is promise of God; if you seek you shall find [in measure of how much you seek]. To the extent you seek God, to that extent He'll find Himself in you. We'll say again; To the extent you seek God, to that measure He'll find Himself in you.

There are two reasons why God does not reveal Himself to many who thinks about [not desire] knowing their purpose, calling [true identity] on earth.

- He doesn't because, He has seen the future and the Heart of the person, that they will not bear [live] the cross and walk with Him. That is, presently they half-heartedly desire to walk with God, this they know deep within. A half-hearted heart is of self [selfish reasons]. The present state of your heart will determine your future. Your "Now" is a revelation and will determine your Future. Jesus Will never reveal Love [Himself] or give to us beyond our love for Him, never!

- And also, Jesus does not reveal because, the person has not really earnestly sought God as if his or her life depends on knowing God; indeed our lives depends on knowing God. The moment you begin to live knowing that you can't live a breath without Jesus, then you truly begin to live…. Humility, complete dependence on God even for breath.

In all, if we truly desire to know our Divine purpose, we must seek God earnestly through His word and His Spirit in our heart just like the woman with the issue of blood who forcefully pressed in with determination to touch the hem of Jesus' garment as though her life depends on it and also like the woman whose daughter was demon possessed, yes of course; that very woman whom Jesus deliberately ignored severally for the testing of her Faith, to prove her Heart of love and whom He even gave a harsh word by saying "it is not right to give the food of children to dogs."

These instances from the scriptures should become parable, revelation enough for us to know the heart Jesus really desires of us and gives attention to "A heart of Love." [Selfless, sacrifice]

The more we seek Jesus, the farther He seems to be for the testing of our faith, to prove our love for Him and also to reveal how less of Him we truly are.

Faith is the only Voice Jesus responds to, and where Love is lacking, there's little or no Faith. For a sinner to be born of God, there is a little trace of love within, else there'll be no Faith to believe for salvation. If the unsaved does not love himself first for salvation, he'll never be saved. No one loved Jesus first, we all loved self first, in other words; such a selfish love, yet is the requirement for salvation. This is the only love for self that isn't lust and also the love to see oneself become the closest to God.

All who are in hell fire right now, awaiting their final judgement to be eternally separated from God and condemned forever in the lake of fire, they all willingly chose to hate themselves and reject Love [God]. Every man including those whom haven't heard of Jesus has grace to be saved, they don't just know when their grace will expire until they sent themselves to hell. If the ungodly does not know when his grace will expire, why then live without fear as though he or she is God who knows when grace will expire. God has given man free will, yes free will enough to choose eternal destruction and free will enough to determine the degree of their Eternal Beauty in Him. In this world of a dream, we can do all we do now, but Love [God] is awaiting us at the end as Judge

Faith is the Force that brings the Word, the Heart of God into being and without love faith cannot work. If you have faith you also must have works by expressing your belief. Your believe is your works, I mean; if you have faith you must also have love to see to it the very word becomes reality in your life. This love that makes the word become reality, is your believe; I e. your positive action in accordance to God's Will, to see to it that His word becomes reality. In other words, your believing is your love to see to it that Faith [Heart of God] becomes reality.

In summary;

If you want to discover your true identity, only few things are needed.

- you must have a willing heart that does anything, anything for the sake of Jesus.
- A heart like Jesus, willing to live only the will of the Father. Not My will, but Your Will
- A heart that earnestly desires to constantly hear the voice of God

- A heart of Humility, completely dependent on God
- A heart that earnestly hungers to become more of God

The first desire the holy spirit gives to every Christian is a heart to constantly hear the voice of God and a heart to become like Jesus and then to live only the will of God. This desire [burden] vanishes like mist if we fail to attend to it just as billions have been carried away by the cares of life, the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh and the pride of life... All these sums up to self [satan]. Grace is given all, but more grace will be given only to they who put to good use the measure of Grace given. No one can love God more unless he has put to use the measure of love given.

Speak to your heart; My heart, become fertile ground for God's word

Become Love
Shalom
