ADDIS ABABA EDUCATION BUREAU.

ENGLISH FOR GRADE FIVE.

July 2020.

How to avoid danger?

Week 21 Day 2.

Vocabulary

Speaking

Grammar (Imperatives)

Objectives of the day's lesson:

After this class ,students will be able to:

- work out the meaning of new words from the given text and apply them to different contexts ;
- identify obligations and necessities .
- listen a text and identify the main and specific points .

Vocabulary

Match the words under Column A with their meanings under Column B.(50) [2min]

A	B
1. juicy	A. cried
2. enjoying	B. collected
3. quickly	C. full of juice
4. gathered	D. reached the ground
5. landed	E. in a hurry
6. wept	F. taking pleasure

Vocabulary

1. juicy: C/full of juice
2. enjoying : F/taking pleasure
3. quickly : E/ in a hurry
4. gathered : D/collected
5. landed : D /reached the ground
6. wept: A /cried .

Speaking

Talk about what you must and mustn't do when you are going to school. Choose from the given activities in the box. (51)(2min) play football –.

you mustn't play football

cross street -

you mustn't cross the street.

look right and left-

you must look right and left.

walk on zebra marks-

you must walk on zebra marks.

play with fire or/and electricity-you mustn't play with fire or/and electricity.

climb trees- ___

you mustn't climb trees.

throw stones-

you mustn't throw stones.

throw trash-

you mustn't throw trash.

Grammar(Imperatives)

Imperative sentences are used to give instructions or commands .In imperative sentences ,the word you is avoided .Because it is already known that the subject is you. Imperatives are also used to give warnings and advice .

Examples : Don't play on streets .

Use zebra marks to cross the road.

Look right and left before crossing a road.

Sleep under a mosquito net.

Imperatives

Rewrite the sentences in imperatives. [2min]

Example:

A. You mustn’t step on the grass.

Don’t step on the grass.

B. You mustn't play on the street.

Don’t play on the street.

C. You must check the traffic light before you cross the street.

Check the traffic light before you cross the street

1. You must take a shower after playing sports.

Take a shower after playing sports .

2. You mustn’t stand too near the fire.

Don't stand too near the fire.

3. You mustn’t drive that car. You are too young.

Don't drive that car.You are too young .

4. You must be careful. You mustn't climb too high.

Be careful .Don't climb too high.

5. You must take care. You mustn’t touch that electric wire.

Take care.Don't touch that electric wire .

6. You mustn’t walk in the bush alone. There are snakes.

Don't walk in the bush alone .There are snakes .

Write five commands you hear every day from your teachers.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Write five commands you hear every day from your teachers.(page 53)

1.Take out your exercise book.

2.Don't fight each other .

3.Stop taking .

4.Don't forget to do your homework .

5.Sit properly .

6.Turn on page 53.

7.Listen to me attentively.

8.come in or get in.

The End

ADDIS ABABA EDUCATION BUREAU.

ENGLISH FOR GRADE FIVE.

FACILITATOR:- Bazezew Yigzaw.

July 2020.

Week 21 Day 4.

Reading fluency
Vocabulary
writing .

Objectives of the day's lesson :

After this class ,students will be able to:
.construct imperative sentences; and
. read the given reading text fluently

Week 21 Day 4

. Reading Fluency

Form a group and read the previous reading passage accurately and with appropriate speed.

Ayele's Bad Day (page 49)[4min]

One day, Ayele was alone at home. He was bored. He decided to go to his neighbour's house to meet his friends and eat mangoes. He met his friends and they went to the backyard. As usual, they climbed the tree to pick the ripe juicy mangoes.

As they were enjoying the mangoes, Ayele saw a snake on one of the branches. "A snake!" he shouted. All his friends quickly climbed down the tree. Unfortunately, Ayele did not climb down fast enough. The snake started moving towards him.

His friends gathered stones and helped by throwing the stones at the snake. But, as they did so, one of the big stones hit Ayele on the head. Ayele wept helplessly. It was painful. When he realized that the snake was about to bite him, Ayele simply jumped down and landed on sharp thorns. What a bad day it was for Ayele!

Vocabulary (page 54)[4min]

Choose the correct word to complete the sentences.

1.The old man is our---------- . His home is close to ours. He usually advises us, but he is not our relative.

A. Father C. merchant

B. neighbour D. uncle

2.Alemnesh and her friend _____ to go to Nekemte next week.

A. decided C. throw

B. Went D. jump

3. I never share _____ instruments with anybody since they could be cause for the transmission of HIV/AIDS.

A. house C. sharp

B. school D. kitchen

4. I was _____ because, I had seen the film many times.

A. bored C. running

B. sick D. strong

5. He _____ when a big dog ran towards him.

A. smiled C. bit

B. helped D. shouted

6. Why did you _____ your baby? Babies need protection.

A. run C. sleep

B. hit D. study

7. I _____ that I lost my keys when I reached home.

A. realized

B. want

C. go

D. inform

8. Moving in bushes needs care because _____ can hurt us.

A. flowers

B. grasses

C. thorns

D. leaves

Writing Conventions (Page55)

Write five sentences about common dangers. Use exclamation marks in your sentences.

Example:

A. Hot liquids must be kept away from children.
Keep hot liquids away from children!

B. Remember to handle sharp objects with care.
Handle sharp objects with care!

C. Acid and poison must be kept away from children
Keep acids and poison away from children!

Writing convention

1. Keep medicines out of reach of children!
2. Keep sharp instruments away from children !
3. Don't touch sockets !
4. Don't play with fire !
5. Don't play on the street !

The end.

THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR YOUR ATTENTION .