From Love [God] And His Servant

You do not have love that's why you cannot Hear Me.

You do not have love that's why you're slow to Hear

Love your neighbor as yourself. How can you love your neighbor when you too destroy yourself also

Your neighbour could be your enemy, someone who does not share the same Faith with you, love them all

If you have love you'll not fight flesh and blood

Love does not allow me to fight others, rather I'll pray for you and the whole world. If God answers all our prayers, many of us will cease to exist, because In actuality, we are our own enemy.

Reactive your Love

Shalom
