Mustafa Walid Khaled
Law of the first Stage - morning Study
Al-Amal University College
Article - English
Under the Supervision of Dr. Samch Sabry

Intellectual Property rights

Intellectual Property rights differ from other rights in that they have a financial and non-financial Side and therefore had to be distinguished and Placed in a Separate Sect which is mixed rights.
These rights are divided into:
Copyright, Patent right, trademark right.

first - Copyright
The author has financial and literary rights to this work:
1. financial rights: means the exclusive right of the author to license or Prohibit.

any exploitation of his work in any way such as copying or re-Publishing the entire work or part of it. The law Protects the financial rights of the author for a lifetime in addition to fifty years after his death.
2. Literary rights: it refers exclusively to the right to make the work available to the Public for the first time. The right to attribute the work to an author and the right to Prevent the amendment of the work as an amendment that the author considers deformation or misrepresentation of, and the law Protects the moral rights of the author eternally. It can be waived and civil and criminal responsibility arises for everyone who infringes the financial or moral Copyright. The aggressor is obligated to Civil Compensation for The damage to the author. He is also Sentenced to imprisonment for a Period of no less then a month and a fine of on less then five thousand Pounds.