

JJU ACADEMY

CamScanner

INSTRUCTION: Attempt the following questions accordingly. (30%)

PART -ONE: Multiple Choices (24%)
Choose the best answer from the given alternatives and WRITE the letter of your choice on the ANSWER SHEET provided at the end of the exam paper. (1.5 pt. each)

1. One of the following statements reasonably explains about the field of anthropology?
   A. It is a broad scientific discipline dedicated to the comparative study of humans as an independent individual being in the social world.
   B. It is a discipline intellectually challenging and theoretically ambitious subject, which tries to understand culture, society and humanity.
   C. Its ultimate goal is to develop an integrated knowledge of human being.
   D. All of the above reasonably misconceived the field of anthropology.
   E. Except A & D, all of the above, at least reasonably, explain the field of anthropology.
   F. B & C at least reasonably, explain the field of anthropology.
2. The following statements are correct about the factors that contributed for the emergence of anthropology as a social science discipline, except, _____.
   A. The 19th century intellectual social movement of Enlightenment which emphasized human progress and the poser of reason contributed for its emergence of anthropology.
   B. The growth of the expansion of western colonial powers and their consequent desire to better understand the peoples living under colonial domination was a factor that contributed for the anthropology to emerge as an academic discipline.
   C. Early 19th century anthropologists' obsession and emphasis on studying communities advanced in technology contributed for its emergence.
   D. The works of an ancient Greek social philosophical thinkers' was a solo factor that was a benchmark for birth of anthropology as an academic discipline.
   E. A & C are answers
   F. C & D are answers
3. What do anthropologists mean when they refer to the concept of "integration" with regards to cultures?
   A. Different kinds of people should learn to live together in peace.
   B. Any successful behavior, strategy, or technique for obtaining food and surviving in a new environment provides a selective advantage in the competition for survival with other creatures.
   C. The best way to study another culture is by working with a team of researchers from different academic disciplines.
   D. All aspects of a culture are interrelated.
4. Inherent in the holistic approach to learning about humans is the realization that: _____.
   A. All people are fully and equally human.
   B. Ethnocentric beliefs are biologically inherited.
   C. People can be understood by studying either their biological makeup or their cultural background alone.
   D. It is necessary to take into consideration both genetically inherited and learned traits in trying to explain how we have become the people we are.
   E. All of the above are answers

CamScanner

5. One of the following is true about archaeological anthropology?
   A. It deals about the lives of ancestors of people by excavating the material and physical remains.
   B. It studies the lives of past people merely analyzing the cultural remains.
   C. It studies lives of past people purely examining fossil remains.
   D. "A" & "B" are argued true about archaeological anthropology
   E. "A" & "C" are argued true about archaeological anthropology
6. Think of the language Af-Somali, which is largely spoken by people of Somali including in Ethiopia, Somalia, Djibouti and Kenya, but with a dialectic variation within the Somali language. Which one of the following distinctive branch of linguistic anthropology studies about this variations with in a language?
   A. Ethino- linguistics
   B. Socio-linguistics
   C. Historical-linguistics
   D. Cultural linguistics
7. Culture is acquired through the process of learning or interacting with one's environment. Therefore, culture is _____.
   A. Genetically programmed
   B. Learned
   C. Associated with human instinct
   D. None of the above
8. Hindu followers practice a burial ceremony ritual in which that the dead body of a person is burned and the ash is thrown to a water body which is a burial ceremony distinctive for Hindu follower. This practice is an example for cultural unite and variations of _____.
   A. Symbolic feature of culture
   B. Particularity of culture
   C. Universality of culture
   D. Common feature of culture
9. In almost all societies, there is a most common form of prohibition on mating with certain type of kin that are being inappropriate partners. It is known as?
   A. Social taboos
   B. Cultural taboos
   C. Incest taboos
   D. "B" and "C" is true
   E. "A" and "C" is true
   F. None of the above
10. Mr. Abdi was born and lives in East London, United Kingdom for the last 25 years of his life; he established his private film making company. There are a large number of Abdi's instagram followers in Jigjiga city and they are following Abdi's hair cutting style. In this case, what cultural elements are borrowed through?
    A. Diffusion is direct
    B. Diffusion is indirect
    C. Diffusion is informal
    D. Diffusion is formal
11. Because of Boeing 737, Max 8 air plane crush, Mr. Kadar's wife Ansia died, six months later Kadar married a youngest daughter of his father's sister named Fatuma to cope with the loss of his deceased wife. This marriage is known as?
    A. The Lavirate
    B. Parallel cousin
    C. The Sororate
    D. Preferential marriage
    E. Cross cousin marriage
    F. B & D are answers
12. Which field of anthropology would most likely be interested in the marriage patterns and kinship systems of different societies around the world?
    A. Cultural anthropology
    B. Linguistic anthropology
    C. Socio-cultural anthropology
    D. All of the above are answers

CamScanner

13. Mr. Ali and his wife, Mrs. Hani, had four children, two sons and two daughters. Mrs. Hani passed away because of Covi-19 on February, 2021. The children loved and carried for their mother but stayed living with their father. This family is called?
    A. Good family
    B. Extended family
    C. Lovely family
    D. Nuclear family
14. Mr. Abdiraiman married Halima last Dec. 24, 2021 and the newly married couple decided to live in husband's mother's brother compound, they now share food and drink and close relations with that family. This is an example for the establishment of residence in, _____?
    A. Patrilocal residence
    B. Neolocal residence
    C. Avunculocal Residence
    D. Ambilocal residence
15. One of the following is specialty studies since the beginning of the art of writing and historical documentation began, which is called _____.
    A. pre-historical archaeology
    B. Historical archaeology
    C. Ethnography
    D. Historiography
16. Among the following, which statement is incorrect about the contribution of anthropology?
    A. Anthropology helps us understand that our culture represents just one way among many possible ways to adapt to a particular set of environmental conditions.
    B. Anthropology gives us an insight into different ways and modes of life of human social and cultural diversity which helps us to understand the logic and justification behind group behavior and cultural practices.
    C. Anthropology offers a unique perspective on how local cultural groups are engaging with the process of globalization.
    D. Anthropology helps us to be more sensitive to and appreciative of cultural diversity and variability.
    E. All of the above are correct
    F. None of the above are correct

PART-TWO: True or False (6%)

Write "TRUE" if the statement is correct and "FALSE" if it is incorrect, and write your answer on the provided answer sheet. (1 pts. each)

1. Through the norms of a society we get clear with the things that the society considers as good or bad, beautiful or ugly and how they influence the behaviors of the members of the society.
2. Folk ways are mores of the society that guides our ordinary usages values and conventions of everyday life.
3. Sororal polygyny is a marriage type in which when a wife dies, the husband gets to marry the sister or some close female relative of his deceased wife.
4. Bride service is the compensation given upon marriage by the family of the groom to the family of the bride.
5. In small scale societies family is a self-contained economic unit of production, consumption and distribution.
6. The family in that we were born to, reared us, socialized us, educated us and helped us survive in the society as an individual is called family of orientation.

CamScanner