This pdf contains season two and season three of the seven men and the forbidden forest.

(Season 2)

Part 1.

This season two (2) we are about to embark on, please don't see it as a story. Read, Study, Pray and Believe in God's mighty hands.

Dele obtained God's mercy through the prayers and supplications of his fellow corpers, he came back to life.

Great contentions arose against the Corp members in Ologun village, it was highly severe on them but what happened next? We navigate to see what happens next to these youth corpers.

The Seven Men And The Forbidden Forest Season Two!

As they were clapping and singing a revival song, Dele's parents arrived. But later they discovered Emeka had removed himself from them

Where's Emeka?. "They asked one another"

They welcomed Dele's parents and the soldiers with them and Paul. Dele was weeping when going to meet his parents, his mother rushed to him and embraced him with tears.

They were all rejoicing, it was early in the morning. But as they were rejoicing the king's guards came and told the youth corpers to appear in the palace immediately

They wouldn't go alone, Dele's parents and the soldiers went with them to the palace. They greeted the king but the king was so furious

Goloto was there too, he wouldn't answer them when they greeted him, he was so embittered.

The king spoke... "So you people came all the way from the City to fight us with these soldiers? You don't know what is wrong with you all"

Dele's father..." Your highness, of a truth we were embittered having heard that our son was dead and his body would not be released, that made us pissed off."

The king..." You better thank your God because nobody on earth, I repeat it, no one under the sun dare change the tradition of this land.

Any stranger who dies in the forbidden forest is buried at the entrance of the forbidden forest. Now listen, talk to your children to stop disturbing the peace of the land."

Paul... "Your highness, how do you mean sir?"

The king... "If it were my great father, king Ologun himself on the throne no one would dare call on the name of your Jesus not to talk of preaching him everywhere in the land."

Paul... "Oh, sorry about that sir."

Dele's parents, Paul and the Corp members left the palace to their apartment, they talked for extended hours and encouraged them to be wise in the land.

Paul told the Corp members that he would come back to assist in the evangelistic work in Ologun village. They went back to the city

But treason and contention rose up against the Corp members, they thought all was well and the battles were won not knowing that war had just started.

The king and Goloto had planned against them, but some of these attacks fell on the Corp members as a result of secret iniquities they were engaged in.

We will fully enter into this story from part two (2), this is just a preliminary. But then, let's see what happened between Emeka and his fellows.

After Dele's parents had left, an hour later Emeka arrived with perfume smelling all over his body.

Ah ah, Emeka, but where have you been?. "Others asked him"

Besides, why is your body smelling for perfume, you just got that? Because it smells like Tola and Bimpe's perfume. "Chioma"

Guys, I'm sincerely sorry, I quickly went to give them home lessons. Besides, it's a normal thing that their perfume smells on my body, why? Because they sat close to me. "Emeka"

That aside dear brother, but you know how vicious these children are. Haven't we warned you not to teach these children personal lessons aside from the one we do take them generally in the school? I know they would even cook for you to eat. "Helen"

But you guys don't think that way, these girls need help, and this is one of the ways we can win them to Christ. "Emeka"

Wait Emeka, and what happened next between you and those girls?. "Christopher"

What kind of stupid question was that from you Christopher?. Dayo did you hear him?. "Emaka"

Others... "Ah ah!" (They were eating rice and beans with dry fish)

I'm sorry if that question was rude, but I perceived something is wrong somewhere, I could sense immorality all over you. "Christopher"

How dare you Christopher! (His countenance had changed, he was breathing profusely.)

What happened next? Season 2 just began...

Part 2

Emeka was angry at the statement Christopher uttered, he left talking with them and entered.

Maybe you shouldn't have attacked him that way, I just pray the Lord leads us. It is well, guys. "Mark"

For days Emeka was keeping malice with Christopher, he wouldn't talk with him or give a response to any of these words.

On the following morning they all went to school, Olabosun was taking SS1 students Economics, she never knew some of these girls had poured a demonic power into her seat.

After the classwork she gave them two exercise works and gave them assignments. She went back to sit down, immediately she sat down she was uncomfortable, she thought she needed to use the toilet.

Hey class, please continue doing your class work, I want to use the toilet. No cheating and noise. "Olabosun"

Okay aunty!. "The students"

The girls that poured demonic powder on her seat were mockingly looking at her as she walked out of the classroom, they knew the charm was reacting in her body.

Olabosun rushed into the toilet to defecate because her stomach was troubled.

What's happening? Is it because of the beans I ate before I left home this morning? (She was reasoning within herself)

But she was getting weak, her breathing was not going deep. Blood started to come out of her nose, she was vomiting blood as well.

Oh my God! What has happened to me? (She was saying this in her heart while her face was flooded with tears)

Who do I call? Who will help me? (She was in pain in the toilet)

The door was locked inside by her, after a few minutes like five minutes the girls who attacked her came knocking at the toilet door.

Olabosun couldn't answer, lots of thoughts were flowing through her heart. Those students actually came to mock her

They kept knocking...

Who is there please? "Olabosun asked"

It's us Olaide and Tinuke ma'am. "They replied"

Oh, it's you people?. "Olabosun"

Yes aunty Ola. "They replied." (They were laughing silently and mocking Olabosun)

Please Tinuke... "Olabosun called"

Yes aunty?. "Tinuke replied"

Please call me aunty Helen in Commercial class now, tell her to come it's urgent. "Olabosun" (She barely speaks)

Okay aunty. "Tinuke replied"

But both Tinuke and Olaide didn't go to call Helen for Olabosun, they went back to the classroom and continued doing their classwork.

They were saying one to another that no one must come to her aid, she should die in the toilet.

Olabosun thought Tinuke had gone to call her Helen while Olaide waited outside, she was calling on Olaide to confirm if Helen and Tinuke were coming but she didn't know both had left there.

Olabosun was vomiting blood, she was losing strength, she managed to come out. She struggled to sit under the mango tree beside the bathroom with the corpers' uniform on her

Thank God the principal was strolling around the school premises to see how tidy up it was

She saw Olabosun in pain, blood in her mouth and nose, she was afraid. What happened to you Miss Olabosun?. "She asked"

I think I was attacked ma'am. "Olabosun" (tearing)

Attacked? How?. "The principal"

Ma'am, I don't know, please just help me. I'm dying, help me call on Helen and Mark to take me to the Ologun's hospital.

(That was the name given to the hospital in Ologun village after the name of late king and warrior Ologun)

The principal quickly rushed to call Helen and Mark as Olabosun had requested, but before they got there she had fainted.

When those girls perceived the principal had been there to help Olabosun they mumbled and grumbled and were having it in their hearts to attack the principal

But thank God that principal too was a child of God and a praying woman, because she knew how terrible Ologun people were.

Olabosun... Ola... oh my God!. "Helen"

The principal had told her driver to drive the car down to carry Olabosun to the hospital.

Olabosun couldn't talk again, her fellow corpers were bothered, they were wondering what could have happened to her.

For days she was still in the hospital, she wasn't responding to any treatment neither did she open her eyes but she could hear everything they were saying.

The doctor carried out tests on her but nothing was found worrying her

Sir, I told you her case is not physical. She must have been attacked by some of those girls. "Grace"

Hmmm! I see. "Doctor"

But I believe she will be fine, we need to pray along with the treatment sir. "Grace"

Olabosun was admitted in the hospital for about two weeks in pain, that got her angry in her spirit, she promised herself to be more fervent in the Lord and be prayerful after her treatment.

Emeka had an appointment with those girls, they took him to their houses during the break, their parents weren't around.

All the Corp members did visit Olabosun at the hospital day and night but Emeka didn't visit for almost a week

They scolded him that he was wrong but he wouldn't listen to them, they were fed up with him, they left him on his own.

So, when the girls took him to their houses, (the girls were friends, not Tola and Bimpe this time.) They made indomie and egg ready for Emeka with a cold fanta

He ate and they were all making gist, laughing together. Later one of them said "Uncle Emeka, but we heard that you've refused to visit your sister who is down in the hospital, why sir?"

Emeka... "Don't mind those guys, they are too holy, could you believe they told me not to keep company with you guys?"

The girls... "Ehn? Is that so?"

Emeka..." Yes nah, they said you girls in the whole school are possessed with demons"

The girls..." Really?

Amope... "(One of them) ah! Can you imagine Toyin?

Toyin... "(The second girl) this life no balance at all"

Amope... "Shebi?" (Emeka busied eating indomie and egg with a cold fanta drink but he never knew his soul was been jeopardized)

Emeka.... "See, leave them, I've not been company with them ever since that stupid Christopher embarrassed me with fornication."

The girls... "Fornication? How uncle Emeka?" (They were looking for words at his mouth so as to attack the youth corpers)

Emeka... "That cowboy called Christopher said I committed immorality with you people, can you imagine?."

The girls... "Awwwnnnn" (They both looked at each other and smiled)

After the discussion Emeka said he wanted to relax before going back to school, the students and the teachers were outside for inter house sport practice.

Amope and Toyin told him to take off his clothes and be in underwear because of the heat, he did.

They told him to come along with them to the room, Emeka was following them like a sheep to be slaughtered.

{Author: Please pray these prayers. Lord Jesus, my soul will not be trapped by the wicked ones.

Holy Ghost fire, separate me from every unfriendly friend now. Father, grace to be watchful unto prayer please grant unto me and to my family in Jesus mighty name. Amen.}

His eyes were heavy for sleep, those girls must have used something on her, they manipulated him because they wanted to carry out their missions on time.

Those girls were in subgroups, the group of Tola and Bimpe separate, Toyin and Amope were another group and many more like that.

But they all had one goal, and that is to destroy destinies. Emeka slept on their bed, Amope and Toyin looked at each other and laughed.

Amope... "Big fool! So what next now Toyin?"

Toyin... "Mission accomplished!" (They laughed hysterically)

Amope knelt down at Emeka's head and was making incantations while both of them laid their hands on him Emeka woke up suddenly and was looking like a moron

Now young man, remove your trousers and underwear. "Toyin said" (Emeka did. Amope and Toyin undressed too)

Amope... "No one is at home, now lay with us." (Emeka was under great manipulation, he couldn't help himself, he committed immorality with Toyin and Amope.

They were just laughing as he was in the very act with them, in fact, these girls almost fought themselves because of Emeka.

They took his sperm and blood away, when the set time was over they stopped him. They told him to be going home and die {Author: Have you found yourself in a similar situation either in school, in your hostel, in your house or anywhere at all?

Some careless souls, after they'd mixed blood and water together with the agents of darkness, discovered something left in their body, hmmmm!

Were you a victim? See, the best and urgent step you need to take right there you are is to go on your knees and confess to Jesus Christ.

Tell Him, ask for forgiveness of sin, cry aloud, your soul is dying. The devil is on a mission to crack your back and to destroy your destiny, please open your mouth and pray until you feel the peace of God in your heart which is the sign of answered prayer.

For in Jesus' mighty name we have prayed, Amen.

Now, pray thou young man and young lady. I am writing these as the Lord is leading me, I see many young people out there in the shackles of sins and darkness.

Pray these prayers... Father in the name of Jesus, save my soul by Your mercy. Lord Jesus, redeem my soul by Your blood.

Father, flush out every satanic manipulation in my life, in my destiny, in my home and in every area of my life by Your mercy in Jesus name.

Thank the Lord because He has answered your prayers, for in Jesus mighty name we pray. Amen

I want to encourage you before we continue from part 3, please don't go back to sin again.

Get a bible and study everyday, if you don't have a church to worship or you've not been going to church, look for a bible believing one around you where Christ and His crucifixion is being preached.

The Holy Spirit will lead you. Pray everyday and be expecting the Lord's return

If you have been saved or restored to the Lord by these stories and you want us to help you in prayers and for counseling you are free to write to us. God bless you in Jesus name, Amen.}

Emeka rose up and dressed up, the visages of these girls had changed, they were looking like a hungry lion waiting for a prey to devour.

Emeka got home, it was only Chioma, Demilade that were at home taking care of Olabosun, she was back from the hospital but she had not resumed work.

When they saw Emeka staggering like a drunk man coming home, they both stood up and were staring at him.

That should be Emeka, what could have happened to him?."Chioma asked"

I don't know either, let's wait and see dear. "Demilade"

When Emeka got close to them he collapsed on the floor, vomiting blood and was foaming.

Jesus! What happened to you Emeka? Where have you gone? We warned you but you wouldn't listen to us. (Demilade and Chioma rushed him, they were lamenting.

Olabosun heard them crying, she managed to come out to see what was happening.)

Chioma, please pick your phone now and call Dayo to tell others to come home now. "Demilade"

What happened to Emeka? "Olabosun" (she couldn't stand for long, she sat on the stool outside.)

Emeka, please don't do this to us. Dear please talk to us, open your eyes and look at me, can you see me?. "Demilade" (She put his head on her laps

Emeka couldn't say anything, those girls had attacked his voice from speaking.

Dayo and others rushed down home while other teachers in the school continued guiding the students for the inter house sport practices

They all got home in panic, Grace had been informed too, she was on afternoon duty, she took permission from the doctor and rushed down to meet the Corp members.)

Dayo... "Emeka, please look at me, I know you can't talk now and your soul is dying. But please can you hear me, if yes please signify by nodding"

(When Dayo said that others wept the more)

Dayo... "Sorry dear, though they had your body but the Lord will save your soul by His mercy.

Please repeat these prayers in your heart, say Lord Jesus, I am sorry for all my sins, please have mercy on my soul. Save my soul and receive me back to Yourself by Your mercy in Jesus mighty name. Amen"

(Immediately Dayo led him back to Christ, Emeka looked at them all and smiled, he died.)

Noooooo....!. "The ladies screamed and wept" (Dayo and the other guys held them. They were all weeping uncontrollably Emeka's parents were sent for, his body was taken back to the city and was buried.)

The Corp members were filled with melancholy for days for the demise of Emeka, especially the ladies amongst them, they were shedding tears and wondering why Emeka had to change suddenly and was dead.

Though he received God's forgiveness and mercy, his life and purpose on earth was cut short because of sin.

How is your life? 1st Peter chapter 2 verse 11-12, 1st John chapter 3 verse 6-9. Please read these scripture references and meditate on them.

Part 3

(The Dark Midnight)

Great were the attacks that were fashioned against the Corp members. They were still mourning the demise of Emeka

The ladies couldn't sleep, they were missing him. Some of them fell sick, but Dayo had to encourage them in the Lord to be strong.

Emeka's family could not believe their first son was gone, the mother was diagnosed with a heart attack.

The Corp members knew the war was getting more fierced daily. Toyin and Amope were rejoicing because they fulfilled their mission on Emeka

In the coven that night, Toyin and Amope were honoured by their dark mother in the kingdom.

They were honoured and praised for the job done, their mother said to them... "But listen, your rank is not yet high, if you would bring the blood of Dayo, Christopher, Chioma and Helen, then you'd be promoted and granted more wealth in the kingdom.

But don't dare go near Grace the nurse, she is too hot for us. Ever since she had refused to go back to the city things have not been going too well.

But we've been planning in the high kingdom with the top leaders in the kingdom how to either bring her down or she goes back to her city

Nevertheless, don't go near her, she's always walking with twenty-one Angels with swords of fire in their hands.

We know and recognize every genuine child of the Most High, if sin is found in anyone's life that gives us an open door.

I am sending you now to bring us the blood of Dayo, Christopher, Chioma and Helen for now. Do all you could in the endowment upon you, go!."

{Dear reader, do you know that the devil knows you? Every child of God goes about with his angles. The bible says He would give His Angels charge over you

But sin will make them inactive, so desist from sinning. How is your prayer life?

Do you pray at midnight or do you sleep all through the night, even snoring and sleep talk? You've got to rise up in prayer and fasting.

Pray this one prayer before we continue... Holy Ghost fire posses my life now!... Pray till you've felt it, burning all over you.}

Thanks to God, ever since Grace has been in Ologun village she would always wake up everyday at 12am for serious prayer, because she knew how dreadful the kingdom of darkness is and as far as Ologun was concerned she needed to be prayerful.

Although, there were so many times she had been attacked by strange illnesses, sleep and lots of hindrances just to make sure she never prayed in the dark midnight but the grace of God had been helping her.

As the dark woman was commissioning Toyin and Amope, Grace was in her room praying on her knees as she normally does and the Lord was revealing all their secrets to her.

Dayo woke his fellows up for midnight prayer, they too never joked with midnight prayers again. Though it wasn't easy on their part, stress of the day.

They were praying fervently but their voices were not loud because the king had warned them to allow peace in the neighborhood (no noise)

Immediately Grace had this vision she picked her phone and called the Corp members, Evelyn picked it.

Evelyn, please put the phone on speaker as I speak to everyone. "Grace". (Evelyn did, Grace told them the next agenda of darkness conspired against them.

But after a week and four days the Corp members went to school as usual to teach the students

Olabosun was taking the SS1 Account, then she gave them exercise to do. She wanted to prove Tinuke and Olaide, the girls who poured demonic powder on her seat.

Immediately she wrote the exercise on board, she went back to sit, but she did something.

Olabosun... "Tinuke"

Tinuke... "Yes aunty?"

Olabosun... "Please, get a little cloth and clean my chair, I think it's dusty."

But ma'am, we've done that before you came. In fact, I personally cleaned your chair and table ma'am. "Tinuke"

Of course I knew, but please go clean it up again, they are dusty. "Olabosun"

(Tinuke wouldn't dare go and do that, she knew it would backfire. She and Olaide had been warned not to go near the chair after they've carried out their mission)

Aunty, I'm sorry, I can't do it. "Tinuke replied"

And why?. "Olabosun"

Because I have done that, like you don't believe me ma'am. You can ask Olaide, it was our turn to tidy up our classroom. "Tinuke"

Oh, I see. Okay then, Olaide, please come, go and clean up that chair again because it's dusty. "Olabosun"

(Olaide and Tinuke were shivering. The classroom was in silence, the students stopped working and were watching the drama.)

Ma'am, Tinuke has told you, we've done that already. "Olaide" (She was so blunt)

Oh, so you too can't do that right? I see.... But if you refuse to do what I told you be ready to face fire. "Olabosun"

Fire?. "Tinuke and Olaide exclaimed"

Yes, I repeat it again, if you girls refuse to do what I have asked you to do then be ready to face fire, hot one. "Olabosun"

(Tinuke and Olaide looked at each other and smiled, Tinuke said to Olabosun.)

"Ma'am, now we understand you better. But for your information, we can't do that. If your heart is clean you wouldn't have told us to clean the chair when it is done already"

We sincerely don't understand you ma'am, please we're done with the classwork, come and mark it. "Olaide"

(The students were surprised to see Tinuke and Olaide in such an action, the class was divided. Olabosun was standing at the back of the students folding her arms, smiling.

Some of the students who were innocent stood against Tinuke and Olaide, there were noises in the classroom.

The principal came and some of the staff, Tinuke explained all that had happened to them with fake tears.

Okay, Miss Olabosun, let's take things easy with these children. The Lord will help us, please let's see at break time. "The principal"

Okay ma'am. "Olabosun"

The charm Tinuke and Olaide did again on Olabosun's chair was destroyed.

>At Break Time

Tinuke... "Olaide, what really happened today? I don't understand"

Olaide... "It's nothing jor, she did not discover anything, she only guessed."

Tinuke... "You think so? What if she knows we were the ones that attacked her the other day?"

Olaide..."Mehn, anyone could guess. Is she an angel that would know? Forget!"

Tinuke..."But, she spoke with precision, I'm scared if we are in trouble. Besides, you know she has brothers and sisters, they must have known about it."

Olaide..."You are scared? or what did I just hear you say?"

Tinuke..." See Olaide, as she was arguing with us I felt something which I haven't recovered from."

Olaide..." And what was that?"

Tinuke..."I discovered that as Miss Olabosun was arguing with us, you remember she mentioned fire?"

Olaide..."Yes, I do. But it was just a threat jor"

Tinuke..."No, it wasn't."

Olaide..."And what do you mean? Hope you are not being spelled?" (She was looking at Tinuke with surprise)

Tinuke..."Immediately Miss Olabosun mentioned fire I felt it burning all over my body, you would notice that I staggered and quickly pretended as if I hit my leg on my chair."

Olaide..."Yes, and what has that got to do with the issue on ground.?"

Tinuke..."See, my mind is made up, I'm opting out."

Olaide..." I don't understand you, come, are you okay?."

Tinuke..."No, I am not."

Olaide..."Exactly! because someone with an active brain wouldn't have talked the way you did."

Tinuke..."See Olaide, whatever interpretation you give it's nothing to me but what I am saying is this, I am renouncing the dark kingdom."

Olaide..."You are doing what?"

Tinuke..."You heard me lady!" (she was blunt)

Olaide..."You wouldn't dare! Do you know the repercussion of what you are embarking on? Death! I mean hot death just like what happened to Ajoke and Tide"

Tinuke..."That is a story, see ehn, immediately when it's a closing hour I'm going to see Miss Olabosun and confess to her, I mean it, I want to be free, I'm tired of this blood shedding kingdom."

Olaide..."Bravo, bravo, good. I promise you dear, you won't make it."

{Great contentions arose between Tinuke and Olaide, Tinuke perceived the hand of the Lord on Olabosun, her heart was ready to receive the forgiveness and mercy of the Lord.

No matter how far someone reading this book might have gone in sin, Jesus can still forgive you. If only you humble yourself and receive His forgiveness and mercy}

Tinuke and Olaide parted ways, but Olaide was furious. Tinuke was shedding tears, she couldn't concentrate in the classroom after the break.

She went to the staff office and talked to Olabosun with all meekness and fear. Olabosun gladly welcomed her as if she had been expecting her to come

Olabosun..."Oh darling Tinuke, how are you?"

Tinuke..."Ma'am, I am sorry for everything that happened this morning."

Olabosun..."No my dear, that has gone. But your face is not fine, what happened to you please?"

Tinuke..."Aunty, we need to talk, it's a matter of urgency ma'am." (Her face was tearing)

Olabosun..."Common my baby, stop crying. Okay you know what? You go back to your classroom now and immediately when it's close hour we'll talk"

Tinuke..."Okay ma'am"

Olabosun..."So wipe your tears and promise me you'll stop crying?" (Smiling)

Tinuke..."Alright ma'am, I promise."

Olabosun..."That's my good girl, I love you baby."
(She smiled at her and pecked her on her cheek.Olabosun was compassionate to her, had it been the time she had not given her life to Christ, she wouldn't have taken it easy with her, she used to be so harsh.)

Something very strange happened to Tinuke in the afternoon. She had made up her mind to confess her sins and to follow the Lord

But immediately the bell rang for closing time, Tinuke picked her bag and was going to meet Olabosun in the staff office, but this happened to her...

She was so eager to see Olabosun, immediately Olaide left her, their mother wouldn't stop threatening her.

As she got to the entrance of the classroom the old woman appeared to her

The old woman..."And where are you going?"

Tinuke..."To see Miss Olabosun of course, I'm tired of you!."

The old woman..."You must be stupid!" (She stretched her right hand at Tinuke, she screamed and collapsed, holding her neck in agony.)

Some of her classmates who were around and saw what had happened (though they didn't see the old woman) screamed, some rushed to her aid, some rushed to the staff room to inform and some ran home out of fear.

The Corp members rushed down and helped, especially Olabosun.

Olabosun..."Oh my God! Tinuke, please look at me, what happened to you?

(Tinuke couldn't talk, she was pointing her hand at the entrance of the classroom then the Corp members understood that she must have been attacked by her mother.)

Tinuke struggled to say something, she said with tears flooding her face. "Aunty, please help me beg God to have mercy on me, I can't survive this."

Olabosun..."No, don't say that honey, you'll be fine. Please help me carry her." (She was crying bitterly)

What happened next?

Part 4 will reveal it...

The Corp members never knew Evelyn and Victoria had been kidnapped by some thugs. Where were they taken to? They searched everywhere for them. Hmmm!

Part 4

(The Power Of Prayer)

Everybody sympathetically rushed Tinuke, people were looking at Olabosun as she cried most. Some were asking if she was her biological mother.

Someone said "please let's take her to the hospital". Another one said "she's gone". But Olabosun said "no, she lives".

Tinuke's parents heard about what happened to their daughter. (please note that it wasn't Tinuke's biological mother that initiated her.)

They were on the farm, farming as usual. The father left the cutlass, the mother left the cassava she was packing and they both rushed down to Tinuke's school panicking.....

By the time they would get there, behold Tinuke breathed her last breath.

Oh, no God! This is Your heritage, restore her now Jesus. "Olabosun prayed". (She quoted Psalm 127:3-5)

She had carried her on her lap, she sat on the floor praying powerfully, binding and casting. Her fellow brethren were there too praying.

Dayo stood and was staring at the entrance of the classroom, he then began to speak in tongues. He saw the aged woman with a rod in her hand

He shouted fire after praying in tongues and behold the evil old woman was greatly attacked and she disappeared.

Olaide couldn't stay, she ran home immediately after Tinuke, her friend, was attacked.

Olabosun: I speak to you right now, Tinuke, live in Jesus mighty Name. (Immediately Tinuke was revived. Glory to Jesus!)

Olabosun: Oh, thank You Jesus!.

The Corp members: "Hallelujah"

The villagers who came visiting, (some came to mock the Corp members)... "Ehn! Ki l'eyi? (What's this?)

Before Tinuke's parents got there their daughter had come alive, they were very glad and appreciated the Corp members especially Olabosun.

Olabosun has now embraced Tinuke as her very own sister, she loves her greatly. Tinuke is very beautiful and fair in complexion. She is fourteen year old...

They told her parents to leave her for medical attention because she was complaining of constant headache.

As they were speaking with her parents, behold two ladies that are domiciliaries of Ologun village came trembling

Mark: "Ladies, what happened to you? Why are you shivering"?.

The ladies: "Sir, can we see you alone first?."

Mark: Okay, please hope all is well?.

One of the ladies responded: All is well sir.

"Sir, we saw Goloto's children kidnapping two of your sisters, they took them to Igbo Awele". (Awele's bush. Not the forbidden forest)

What?."Mark exclaimed! Others heard him and they walked up to him to know what happened.

As he was telling them what happened, the ladies ran for their dear lives because Goloto mustn't know they leaked the secret.

The Corp members: "But which one is Igbo Awele? (Awele's bush). They asked Tinuke's parents about it

Tinuke's parents: "Awele's bush is a place of strange sacrifice"

The Corp members: (the ladies were shivering) how do you mean please"?

Tinuke's parents: "It is a place where Goloto sleeps with any young lady that is caught for him, he does that once in a while. Perhaps it's time for him to do that again

He captured our first daughter two years ago and slept with her. We begged Goloto to have mercy but he wouldn't listen. After he was done with our daughter he told his children to throw her away

We saw her coming back home in pain, blood all over her body because she was a virgin. We rushed her to the hospital, but that same night she gave up the ghost". (Sobs)

The Corp members: "Oh Jesus Christ!"

Dayo: "And what was the king's verdict regarding the incident?". (He was angry)

Tinuke's parents: "The king said we are not strangers in this land. did we not know that that's how Goloto does once in a while?".

The Corp members: Oh God!"

Chioma: Please, let's leave this discussion about Goloto for now. We need to look for Evelyn and Victoria.

They sent for Grace, she came and they related everything to her.

Grace, is that how Goloto afflicts the innocent ladies in this village?. "They asked her"

Grace: "That son of perdition who stood against me many times.. I've told him face to face to stop that rubbish but he wouldn't listen to me.

I've been once captured and taken to that Awele's bush too by his children. It was a tough evening but the Lord delivered me.

He screamed and shouted at his children to take me out immediately, he was sweating and breathing profusely."

The Corp members: "Ahh! But what do we do now?"

Grace: "The Lord has spoken to me nothing would happen to Evelyn and Victoria. He said He is with them. Let us just join our hands together and begin to worship Him in the Spirit"

{They were worshipping God, the ladies knelt down. The Lord glorified Himself and miraculously delivered Evelyn and Victoria that same hour..

There was a great misunderstanding between Goloto's children...

After a few days Grace told the Corp members the third secret of Ologun village.

Grace: "At the four corners of this land were buried seven young virgins in each corner for the safety of the land, but they lack this knowledge that they watch over the city in vain if the Lord isn't watching over it...

The Holy Spirit told me this secret as I was praying for the deliverance of the innocent villagers. See, my brethren, these people are in serious bondage.

Almost all the students are possessed with witchcraft and with familiar spirits. One evening I gathered some of these children for the Word of God and for prayers.

But I applied God's wisdom, I told them that there would be competition and anyone who wins the first position would own five different textbooks, and a dozen of sixty (60) leaves exercise books...

While the second position would own just five textbooks and the third position would get a dozen of sixty (60) leaves"

The Corp members: "Wow! What a strategy for soul winning!"

Grace: "I'm telling you, if I had told them I wanted to tell them the word of God they might not have attended.

It was a great evening that day, one hundred and fifteen (115) children put down their names. I gave them a week of personal preparation to go and study hard...

That day finally came, the field was occupied. I only picked twenty students who did well in the test I gave them...

Hmm! The competition was sumptuous, it was announced in other village schools. When I was about presenting the prizes to the winners then I started preaching Jesus to them using parables and stories as the Holy Spirit was leading me..

Many of these children were shedding tears and they answered the call of salvation. Till now, I'm still following them up lest the devil snatches them away.

After the altar call I led prayers for just fifteen minutes., The power of the Lord was evident, deliverance happened. Some of them were confessing they were witches

Some belonged to the snake kingdom, marine kingdom etc.

They were delivered that day from the power of darkness, but I faced a serious attack."

The Corp members: "Wow! Glory to Jesus Christ". (They were laughing and rejoicing)

Victoria: "Grace, where did you worship while in the city before you were transferred here?."

Grace: "My parents are bonafide members of Mountain Of Fire And Miracle Ministry (MFM). I was born there, though being born into a christian home never means one is actually born again.

I gave my life to Christ when I was in the 100 level at the university. I was so stubborn and adamant but I have never defiled myself.

My mother led me to Christ, she really laboured on me. She did engage herself in prayer and fasting almost everyday that the Lord should encounter me. I can't forget that fateful evening when I met the Lord".

The Corp members: "Wow!".

{One evening, some of the Corp members were on call, their parents were glad to know about their wellbeing}

The old woman wouldn't stop threatening Tinuke, Olaide was always mad at her.

One day she said to her, "You've now become Olabosun's pet right? Both of you will smell hell".

Tinuke always told Olabosun every one of her encounters with the old woman.They would encourage her and pray for her...

Let's go and see Toyin and Amope, Emeka's friends. Are they still on the mission?

These girls feared Grace, they wouldn't go around the place where she was. But they were very vicious..

Toyin: "My own next target to receive the new rank is Christopher". (Smiles)

Amope: "Ehn! That guy is hot, we just need to apply wisdom."

Toyin: "But wait, how do we go about getting these guys?."

Amope: "We'll plan it succulently".

Toyin: "That's good."

On Thursday morning at the assembly ground Demilade was called by the principal to lead choruses. Something strange happened as some of these girls did something.

Demilade was leading choruses, after about five minutes she began to feel some strange operations going on all over her.

These girls were shining their eyes on her, but physically they were clapping and singing with smiles.

Demilade felt the movement of a spider and the web from her head.

Blood of Jesus... "She said that in her heart as she continued leading"

When she couldn't endure it any longer and the strange feelings in her spirit she beckoned on Helen to continue the choruses while she went to meet Dayo standing at the back of the assembly with other teachers.

Demilade: Dayo, please come. (She held him and they both walked down under the mango tree)

Dayo: "Demilade", are you alright?."

Demilade: "No Dayo, something is happening to me and I can't really fathom what it is"..

(While she was yet speaking Dayo's eyes were opened, she saw those girls controlling spider web in their hands against her and against Helen on the podium

Helen knew too while leading the choruses that conspiracies were going on against her but she kept pleading the blood of Jesus.

Dayo was angry in his spirit, after laying hand on Demilade he went straight to Toyin on the assembly ground and whispered to her ears... "You will run mad after three days"

That was the only statement he made and he turned back. Toyin was very shocked to hear that, she whispered to Amope who was standing before her.

Dayo had been a blunt christian, anytime he addresses spiritual cases he was always blunt.

Amope said to Toyin when she had heard what Dayo told her, "He was just bragging, empty barrel without value. We'll start from him"

What really happened next?

Dayo was reported in the kingdom that same night. We'll know what happened in the coming part 5

That same midnight Kundi in the forbidden forest stood up and came into the village, walking around the whole village, looking for prey.

He stood afar looking at the Corp members' house, smoke coming out of his nose. It was past 2am, everywhere was dark.

It was that time Maxwell was pressed, he woke up and on the touch light and was about to open the door. John was in the sitting room studying Where are you going to Maxwell?."John asked"

Maxwell: I'm seriously pressed.

John: But it's dangerous if you go out there to ease yourself, who knows if you did not even plead the blood of Jesus upon yourself before going out.

Maxwell: The Lord is with me, don't worry, I won't take time guy.

John: Wait, let me escort you please, at least to stay with you.

Maxwell: Ah ah bro, greater is He that lives in me than in even Kundi in the forbidden forest.

Maxwell opened the door and looked around and went out. Kundi was visibly standing afar off looking but Maxwell never knew

(Things are really happening at midnight, may the blood of Jesus always cover us, our families and loved ones in Jesus mighty name. Amen)

As Maxwell was urinating behold Kundi came in the air and stood at his back. He was first of all hearing a cat's voice, he thought it was a cat around yearning.

Immediately his head was swelling up. What's happening? I'm feeling strange. (He was reasoning in his heart)

Hmmm!
Something happened... please don't miss the next part

Part 5

(His Name)

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh.
For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds.

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. "2nd Corinthians chapter 10 verse 3-5"

There are lots of strange things happening at midnight. Even the bible says while men slept his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way. (Mathew chapter 13 verse 25)

The dark night is the best time for the kingdom of darkness to carry out their enterprises against believers' lives, homes, ministries and works because it is the dark hour.

In fact, God commanded the people of Israel not to walk in the night.

Many lives have been captured through the dark night. Many christians woke up and knew something had happened to their christian lives

The devil has dark anointing that he uses on careless and powerless christians. That is why the Word of God admonishes us to put on the whole armour of God

Some would wake up and see the signs of sexual intercourse. Through that evil is transferred into their lives. The dark hour!

Many people would just wake up suddenly at midnight, and, at times sleep would disappear from their eyes, and the whispering voice of the Holy Spirit would come and tell them to pray but they would be ignorant of His whispering voice.

Many whose lives are now upside down, their cases had been addressed in the midnight, but we have a name that is above every other name. Don't be a sleeping christian!

You've got to rise up and be strong in the Lord. Take away a lethargic lifestyle and be a praying christian, fasting and prayer, serious one are needed to fight the battles of life.

May the good Lord help you to fight and win in Jesus' mighty name. Amen

In this part five (5) we are going to see many things that will challenge us, as the Holy Ghost is ministering to you while reading, any prayer point that drops into your heart please pause and pray fervently.

>Toyin and Amope were at home, they were watching their time. Immediately when it was 11:58pm they appeared in the coven

Urgent meetings were carried out because of Dayo, because they knew he meant what he said.

He was summoned to appear in the coven but something happened. Immediately the leader called on his name three (3) times they saw him on his knees praying in tongues

What's this? "The old woman exclaimed!"

Mother, what did you see?. "Toyin, Amope and others asked."

The mother: "I see twenty-one (21) beings in white, swords of fire in their hands. But what really surprises me is that these twenty-one (21) beings have two wings each....

They folded their arms, they were standing round about Dayo as he prayed on his knees. Another thing is that fire, I mean thick fire surrounds them all."

Toyin: "Mother, who are they?"

The mother: "I don't know either, this Dayo is not ordinary. The beings around him are parading, watching over him."

Amope: "What do we do now?". (She was looking confusedly)

The mother: "We dare not attack him!"

Toyin: "But what about his fellows?"

The mother: "His prayer is covering them now.. others are sleeping, they are tired and weak because of the strenuous activities they had during the day. But they are more alive in the Spirit."

Amope: "But mother, these are the same beings you saw walking with Grace, but Grace was walking with seven but twenty-one (21) with Dayo."

The mother: "I don't understand either, but let's wait and give them a little more time. When they are weak then we'll be able to attack them"

Toyin: "But mother, this sumphish Dayo said I'd go mad after three (3) days, I'm scared. I think I am opting out"

The mother: "You said what?" I will kill you!

Toyin: "But I don't want to run mad!". (She gave an exasperation look)

>There was a great controversy amidst them that night, Toyin apologized and strengthened herself.

BACK TO MAXWELL

Maxwell knew an unclean spirit was around but he couldn't fathom where the spirit was... He was still a babe in the Lord, you remember in season one (1) Loveth his younger sister was telling him about Jesus before they traveled to Ologun village but he didn't listen.

But the challenges they were encountering in Ologun village humbled him before the Lord when Dayo was preaching in one of the morning devotions, he gave his life to Jesus Christ.

He knew someone was standing very close to his back, he was scared and because of the grip of the fear the touch light in his hand fell down.

He couldn't turn around because the fear stagnated him in that spot, he whispered... "John, is it you?".

He was turning around gently, lo and behold he saw Kundi standing. He was laughing hysterically, there were no teeth in his mouth. He looked so horrible, shabby and was stinking, Maxwell almost vomited.

Jesus!! "Maxwell exclaimed!". Others in the room heard his voice, they called his name and put on their touch lights and went out.

Strange miracle happened to Maxwell that shocked him and made him vow that forever and ever the Lord would continue to be his God, what was that strange miracle?

Immediately he saw Kundi at his back, great was the fear that inundated him, the power of the Holy Ghost came upon him like a rushing mighty wind.

Maxwell for the first time began to speak with new tongues powerfully immediately he called on the name of Jesus, but Kundi had disappeared.

His fellows saw him outside speaking in other tongues for the first time (some of them have not been baptized in the Holy Ghost.)

Kundi was one of the powerful territorial powers, very tall, chubby and ugly.

Others were surprised to see Maxwell in the great atmosphere of the Holy Spirit, they knew he had gotten something but were still wondering why he screamed Jesus.

While Maxwell was speaking in tongues, the power bent him on his knees, he didn't open his eyes. Dayo stood, he folded his arms smiling.

Others were thanking the Lord for that great miracle. The Lord spoke clearly to Dayo's ear "go pray for him"

He went and lay his hands on Maxwell and prayed for him as instructed. Maxwell was saying "Lord, I am yours, take all of me, I will do your will. Thank You Saviour". (He was shedding tears)

Dayo: "In Jesus mighty name I pray"

Others and Maxwell: "Amen". (Dayo and Dele lifted Maxwell up)

Helen and Olabosun: Wow!

Dayo: "What happened to you Maxwell? We heard you screaming the name of Jesus". (Maxwell was weak, they held him up.)

Maxwell: "All I could remember is that I was pressed, I woke up and on my touch light. I wanted to go out to ease myself, you know this is not a flat or self-contained house.

John was studying, he told me I can't go out alone, he would escort me but I told him I'd be fine by His grace.

Then I felt strange, I knew a powerful spirit was around but I couldn't fathom where exactly the spirit was. I turned back gently to rush in but lo and behold it was Kundi I saw

Others: "Jesus!"

Demilade: "How did you know it was Kundi or any other spirit?"

Maxwell: "As I saw him he mentioned his name and burst into laughter, then I called the name of Jesus. That's all I could tell"

Others: Wow! We thank God for the victory!.

Helen then jokingly said to Chioma "babe, come follow me, ease myself outside nah".

No, follow kor, folly ni. You better leave me, I'm scared. (Everybody was laughing)

Dayo: "We bless the Lord, let's pray brethren." (They were praying)

That same night Tinuke was being attacked by her fellows, she knew right from the day of her conversion the battle line had been drowned.

She couldn't sleep, she was always afraid of being attacked. Olabosun always tells her never to fear but to always call on the name of Jesus anytime they appear to her.

So that night, she was praying, she didn't really know how to pray. All she was saying was... "Lord Jesus, keep me away from every evil, save my life by Your precious blood and watch over my family in Jesus Name."

Immediately the old woman appeared to her in her room with a rod in her hand.

The old woman: "I have come to relinquish the covenant by eliminating you and taking your blood!"

Tinuke: "No, old woman! My aunty told me that it is written in the book of Colossians chapter 3 verse 3 that I am dead, and my life is hidden with Christ in God." (She was crawling backward)

The old woman: "Shut up! You dead rat! Have you forgotten the covenant? Are you so gullible and crazy?"

Tinuke: "I don't understand any covenant you are talking about you dying old woman, but my aunty also told me that it is written in the book of Philippians chapter 2 verse 14

For He "God" is my peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us. So I am His and not yours again"

The old woman: "You must be crazy Tinuke, you have eaten with us, you drank even blood with us in the coven, you made an unbroken covenant with the devil to always submit yourself under his lordship.

Aha ah, you are playing with dangerous fire. Not only you this time but your household, death is looming over you all."

Tinuke: "(Laughs) see this mama, mama Akande, you are shameless. You had seven children for God sake, glorious and wonderful children with dignity but you killed four to redeem your stupid covenant you made with the devil.

The remaining two ladies and the only man you've turned them to living corpses. Mama, why? Now listen to me, it is written I will fight with them that fight with thee and contend with them that contend with thee and save thy children

I rebuke you and your grip and manipulation over my life and family now by the blood of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, in Jesus mighty name..."

(The old woman fell down, the rod in her hand fell, she blocked her ears with her hands and was screaming. Tinuke was scared, her parents were hearing her voice but didn't hear the old woman.

So they had woken up too, praying that the Lord would grant them victory, Olabosun was the one who led them all to Christ. (Thank You Jesus).

Tinuke rushed out of her bedroom and was calling on her parents, they followed her to the bedroom and saw the old woman rolling on the floor screaming, shouting "fire is burning me".

{I pray for someone who is wholeheartedly reading this book, Holy Ghost will swallow you and make you uninterrupted fire in the mighty name of Jesus Christ. But please abstain from fleshly lust that war against the soul}

Tinuke's father: Mama Akande, our daughter had told us everything about you. Now you have only one chance tonight, will you surrender your life to Jesus Christ?

The old woman: No! You all shall die!

Tinuke's father: Ah! You don't know whose trap you have entered, the Lord of lords and the King of kings. You better surrender at His feet now before it is too late for you

The old woman: Stop it! Stop mentioning those names... (She was making incantations to disappear but couldn't)

Ahhh! Tinuke, you attacked me, I can't disappear. Okay, please lift me up and let me walk out of this place.

Tinuke: Ehn? I should do what? Na there you go dey (speaking pidgin)

The old woman wanted to rise up and walk away but she couldn't, the Lord had arrested her.

{I pray, any power on a mission to terminate your life shall be disgraced by fire in the mighty name of Jesus Christ.}

Mama Akande (the old woman) proved stubborn, she was saying she would kill Tinuke and her family. It was now past 3am

Tinuke picked up her small phone and dialed Olabosun's number, it rang...

Olabosun: Hello baby! How are you?

Tinuke: (She explained everything to her) please ma'am, what do I do?

Olabosun: You know what? Dayo, Mark and Dele said they would be on their way right now. just be at peace okay?

Tinuke: Okay ma'am..

Dayo, Mark and Dele decided to go to Tinuke's house that midnight not minding whatever thing they would encounter on the way

They prayed and left, they got to a place, a woman in black rapper was carrying sacrifice on her hands to the three junctions. They hid themselves and were watching her

She put it down and was chanting the Corp members' names for evil.

Dayo, Mark and Dele: Ehn! Jesus Christ of Nazareth!

Immediately the woman left, they went there and held their hands and prayed in tongues against it and poured it down with their legs. Before the woman got home she ran mad...

{Any power assigned against you my reader and your family, their lives shall go for it!.}

Dayo, Mark and Dele went to Tinuke's house and preached Jesus to the old woman but she wouldn't listen, the Lord spoke to Dayo "let her be". She rose up and went back to her house.

After some weeks Olabosun was seriously sick, the doctor said an operation was to be done on her, she had appendix...

She almost passed away before she was rushed to the hospital...
Olabosun knew she wouldn't make it.

OLABOSUN IN THE HOSPITAL

Olabosun: I think I have finished the assignments the Lord wanted me to do, now I am bound to go home.

Others: No, please don't say that again.

Her pastor: Dear, the Lord has promised to heal you and give you peace in abundance..(Jeremiah chapter 33 verse 6). yours is to believe.

Olabosun: Pastor, I know what I am saying. But I pray the Lord keep you all from every evil in Jesus name

They all said..."Amen".

Olabosun: Please call me Tinuke. (They quickly sent for her in school.) Tinuke came and knelt down beside her with tears running down her cheeks...

Tinuke: Aunty I'm here, please stop crying.

See my baby, the Lord will keep you. Please don't forget everything I have told you about Jesus, His Name, His Word, His kingdom and always forgive anyone who offends you, for this is the will of God to follow peace with all men and holiness.

Be holy, be ready for rapture and be a good girl always. You will continue from where I stop here in Ologun land.

Tinuke: No aunty, you can't leave me alone, you taught me about faith in Christ. Please be fine for me (she was crying bitterly, Dayo and others too were crying.)

Olabosun: I have seen heaven opened to receive me into glory, God brought me here for a purpose and it has been accomplished. I will see you all in heaven....

That statement got them all, they told her to stop saying it. They wept!.. Chioma, Helen, Victoria, Evelyn and other ladies also wept . Tinuke put her head on her chest and was weeping, Olabosun was shedding tears too.}

She sang a hymn in tears..."Rock Of Ages cleft for me, let me hide myself in Thee, let the water and the blood from the river side it flows, be of sin the double cure, cleanse me from its guilt and power."

They all wept, Grace couldn't stand and see the pain she was going through. She sat at the reception seat weeping. The Lord had spoken to her that He was taking her home.

Olabosun said her last words... "Father, please keep all Your children from every temptation, grant them the heart to always love and do Your will."

She turned to Tinuke and smiled at her and said... "I love you". Tinuke wept and said to her "I love you too and I will never forget you mummy, I will miss you." (Sobs)

Olabosun appreciated her fellow Corp members and encouraged them, she appreciated her parents for their parental care and love, she appreciated her pastor too. Then she said "Amen".... She slept in the Lord

Everybody wept bitterly, Grace heard the ladies and Tinuke'voices. She bowed her head and wept too

Helen said as she wept... "But we just lost Emeka, why Olabosun again? Lord, have mercy. (Sobs)"

{Author: Dr Myles Munroe quotes that it is not the years you spend in life that matters but the lives you impact....)

Do you just occupy spaces or you are up and doing for the Lord? Does your life tell people about Jesus?

Do you impact lives positively or are you rather a stumbling block to other people's salvation?

Olabosun has finished her course now in glory, I pray, may our end be more wonderful than our beginning.

The bible says the end of everything is better than the beginning, check your life, Jesus Christ is coming soon.

Pray these prayers, Father, please search me through and through and work upon my life. Let my life glorify You, make me holy Lord Jesus Christ. Please pray dear reader, in Jesus' Name.}

Olabosun's body was taken to the city, all the Corp members attended her burial. The school principal, Tinuke and her family also attended...

All her course mates came for her burial. Many testimonies were heard about this young and beautiful lady

She graduated with a second class upper, strong, hardworking lady with dignity and enthusiasm.

Good bye, Olabosun Olakitan Marvelous. "Her friends wrote"

She was buried at her parents' house. Before she died she converted eighteen students in Ologun village, Tinuke was her first child in the Lord.

Her parents and loved ones couldn't control their tears. It was a sad day as her body was being buried.

Part 6

(THE ENEMY WITHIN)

I welcome you to this wonderful story once again. I bless the Lord for all He has been doing in the lives of thousands of souls reading this book

Before we continue from where we stopped at part 5, I want to encourage you to never give room for spiritual slumber, laziness and disobedience to the whispering voice of the Holy Spirit.

Many who gave little attention to these, some are still paying the penalty for it. It's dangerous!

May the good Lord help you, establish you, make you rooted and grounded in the Word of God in Jesus' mighty name.

Thanks for reading, for sharing and for your patience with us. There was no post for the past two days, but now we continue to see the lives of other Corp members at Ologun village.

The Seven Men And The Forbidden Forest!

Ologun primary and secondary schools mourned the death of Olabosun for a whole week. They gave their last respect and honour.

All her converts wept greatly, Tinuke gathered them all and prayed for their mother in the Lord, for her family and for the remaining Corp members during the break period.

The sudden demise of Olabosun shook the Corp members, most especially the ladies amongst them. Almost all of them were admitted to the hospital

For days the ladies couldn't sleep, they were crying day and night, but the guys among them did encourage and comfort them.

Olatunbosun Olakitan Marvelous was the funniest and friendly person amidst them all. She loves cooking and she is good at leading choruses during morning devotions...

Toyin, Amope and other strange girls at Ologun high schools rejoiced over the departure of Olabosun.

One afternoon during the break time, Tinuke sat alone beside the field watching SS1 Commercial students and SS2 Art students match...

Although, almost all the students were around the field watching the match, some were parading in the school premises.

Tinuke sat down with her right hand on her jaw, she was in deep thoughts. She was remembering the way Olabosun forgave her, took her as her own blood sister and taught her the way of the Lord.

She was in deep thoughts then suddenly Olaide, her old friend, came.

Olaide: The mother of Jesus, good afternoon ma'am. (Laughs) I hope you are fine? Now that your back bone and strong tower is gone would you please come back to your seat in the kingdom?

Tinuke: Welcome Olaide, I think this is the best time to tell you the gospel truth. See, a life in the dark world is a miserable one.

Though aunty Olabosun is gone to be with the Lord in glory but the Holy Spirit is with me

Now listen to me attentively, you have one life to live and once your time expires you are done for.

Tell your people in the kingdom though the sudden departure of my mother in the Lord was a great loss to me , and I am in tough times but I am strong in the Lord.

I am never going to occupy a satanic seat again, if there's anyone amongst you that needs it, go occupy it. (Hisses)

Olaide: Wow! I love that action. (Laughs). See, I am not here to negotiate with you at all, I'm too busy for that.

Mother sent me to you, she said you are given seven (7) days to rethink and come back to the kingdom. If not, all your family members will be destroyed in your presence and you will run mad.

And for your information, the seven kingdoms in this Ologun land had urgent meetings against the Corp members and every student who gullibly accepted their doctrine.

Tinuke: Whatever! The bible says gather yourselves together you shall be broken into pieces. Whenever you people gather against us, the Holy Ghost will appear for our sakes and fight for us.

> Olaide was highly furious, she was shining her eyes on Tinuke to attack her but Tinuke's spiritual eyes could see it, she began to plead the blood of Jesus Christ.

She knew how vicious and cunning Olaide was. Olaide knew she couldn't attack her so she left promising her that her return would be fierce Immediately Olaide left, tears flooded the face of Tinuke. She mumbled and said with tears `Aunty Olabosun, where are you? If you were alive I'd have reported what Olaide told me to you, I felt lonely and rejected. I am missing you ma'am"

After a month that Olabosun slept in the Lord, the Corp members discovered strange changes from Dayo. He was not joining them for morning devotions as at before Anytime they called him he would say he was tired, day after day Dayo was going down in the Spirit.

Others called him and asked what had happened? He kept telling them he was okay and that he needed some rest

Little did they know that Dayo had been walking with the sinful fellows in the village. All these started secretly and unknowingly to his fellow Corp members

Until one day, A lady saw him dancing with the guys in the village, cups of alcoholic drink in their hands.

The lady was like "who am i seeing? Uncle Dayo? I can't believe this, let me go over there and confirm..."

She went there stylishly, greeting those who were there with fake laughter. She looked clearly at Dayo and was shocked to see him amongst the drunk guys.

She was highly perplexed and ran to tell his fellow brethren but they did not believe her. She persuaded them to follow her to see him under the tree where they were, drinking, dancing and playing ludo.

The Corp members wouldn't believe the young lady who came and told them. But because the lady persuaded them, Christopher and John with Chioma followed the lady...

When they were about to get there, the lady said "sir, please I won't go further with you, I'll have to stop here. But if you go that way, at your right hand side you'll see them under a tangerine tree.

In fact, before you get there you would be hearing their voices and noises. Thank you sir, I have to go." They greeted her and parted ways...

But could it be true?. "Chioma asked"

Let's go there and see. "John"

They got there and saw Dayo in the midst of sinners, drinking and dancing with them.

I can't believe my eyes! Jesus!! "Chioma whispered"

Christopher: But, wait, please let me go over there and look at his face if it's Dayo for real because I can't believe it.

Christopher: Dayo!

Dayo looked back, the guys stopped playing the drums and were all looking scornfully.

One of the guys: And what happened to you that made you shout like someone that dog bit?.

Christopher: I don't have your own time, young man.

Chioma: Dayo, what have you done? In the midst of sinners? You of all people, Dayo? (she wept)

John: Oh God! How the mighty are falling and the weapons of war perishes! Dayo, is this truly you?.

Christopher: Dayo, you are going home with us right now. (he dragged his hand but Dayo slapped him)

Christopher: What! You slapped me?.

Chioma: Dayo! What have you just done? You will also beat me.. The guys were laughing hysterically and shouted "up Dayo".

Dayo: You people should go home, I'll meet you. Nonsense!.

Chioma went to him and said... "Dayo, whether you like it or not you are going home with us." (She wanted to dragged him but Dayo strongly pushed her away that she fell)

Chioma: Dayo, you pushed me away?".(Sobs)

Christopher: Dayo, are you out of your mind? You pushed her away?

John: It's okay Christopher, please let's go back home. (Chioma was weeping seriously, John raised her up and held her home.)

They got home and told others that it was Dayo indeed.. They all stood up and were amazed..

Dele: Could it be as a result of Olabosun's death? This is very strange.

They joined their hands together and started praying for Dayo. "O Lord have mercy, we must not lose Dayo." While they were praying Grace knocked at the door

Helen opened the door for her.After the prayer, they greeted her. Grace was looking at them all and sighed

Grace, are you okay?. "They asked her"

Grace: Dayo has fallen from faith, all these started even before the death of Olabosun.

The Corp members: How? Grace, please tell us?

Grace: A week before Olabosun's death the Lord told me when I was attending to one of our patients at the hospital that Dayo has deviated from Him

The Corp members: Ehn? How do you please?

Grace: I also asked the Lord that same question, listen to what the Lord told me about him. "Dayo is My beloved son in whom My Spirit dwells

But he had allowed little foxes that destroyed the vine. I told him never to allow any female student to get him something or buy anything for him, especially food.

I was warning him over and over again, I warned him against overconfidence and negligence but he wouldn't listen.

One of the girls brought him food and they manipulated the food before giving it to him to eat, and Dayo ate it..My Spirit in him told him to pray on it but he said in his heart that he cannot be harmed.

He has committed whoredom and has eaten at the table of the devils. Tell him to take away his pride and humble himself before Me, before I judge Him.

He has Defied My Holy name before the gentiles, but I will get My honour and praise before all men. I am the Lord"

The Corp members: Oh Lord Jesus!. "They all went on their knees begging and asking for mercy on behalf of Dayo.

While they were still praying, Kundi was sitting on his throne expecting Goloto to appear. Goloto finally came Kundi: This is the best time to eliminate him, get me his blood.

Goloto: Yes my lord. (He bowed)

Two young men came to see the Corp members, they were knocking at the door...

What's the matter with you guys? Who's running after you?. "Mark asked"

The guys: It's Mr Dayo!

The Corp members: Dayo? What happened to him?.

The guys: He was being beaten by Goloto's children, he's dying over there at Aponle street.

The Corp members: Ahhh! Dayo?

They all rushed out to Aponle street, behold Dayo was dying, blood all over his body..He also had scars all over his body, he was lying helplessly on the floor. His eyes were turning him...

Dayo... what happened to you? Noooooo!!!. "They all screamed". people had gathered there...

Dayo: I am sorry for everything, please you guys should take care of yourself. The Lord will help you out of this terrible land...

I was never watchful, the Lord warned me but I was adamant. See blood all over me, I pray may the good Lord be with you all in Jesus Name."

Mark: Please Dayo, all you need right now is to ask for forgiveness of sin and for mercy.

Dayo: I see, my sins are great, I don't think I can still obtain God's mercy.

Grace: No, Dayo, don't let the devil whisper to you, you know the Lord is rich in mercy. Please ask for mercy

Dayo: We shall meet again. Ahhh, my heart!

What happened next?

Part 7

{His Power}

Great is the mercy and the power of God, He will not always chide neither will He keep His anger forever.

The temptations that befell the youth corpers at Ologun village weren't small. Many are the afflictions of the righteous but the Lord delivers him from them all

Dayo did not listen to the whispering voice of the Holy Spirit, that's how many children of God are. The gentle Spirit of God speaks when temptation looms around God's children but only few listens to Him.

There's no one fallen into sin that the gentle Spirit of God hadn't spoken to, He speaks through our conscience at times.

He warns through our feelings at times, through dreams, He speaks to us through the Word of God.

The Holy Spirit speaks to guide us through inner voice, conviction, vision, revelation and many other means just to guide us not to fall into temptations.

See, being tempted is not a sin but yielding to the voice of the tempter and the temptations leads to sin.

David said before I was afflicted I went astray. Has there been any way you've erred? Is there any way you are disobeying the small still voice of the Holy Spirit?.

This is a time to change from every form of disobedience to God the Almighty.

No one knew Dayo was backsliding in the secret, others were looking at him as their mentor who was still standing firm in faith but the warrior had dropped the sword at the war front.

Immediately sin was found in the life of Dayo, the whole witches of Ologun village and other powers quickly launched attacks against him just to kill him and make him lose eternal life.

In this part seven (7) we're going to see if Dayo survived or died. Please, if there's any iniquity in your life, take it away today and make your way right before the Lord when it's yet time.

The bible says in the book of Revelation chapter 2 verse 4 to 5 that "Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent."

Dayo was surrounded by his fellow corpers, he was in great pain, crowds of people were there too. Some were showing pity and concern while some were mocking the Corp members, especially their enemies.

But before then, you remember in one of the previous parts, Dayo whispered to Toyin on the assembly ground that she would run mad after three days.

Though Dayo erred from the Lord but the Lord honoured the word of His servant, that was before he erred.

Toyin couldn't go to school, she was afraid of what Dayo said. She travelled down to the next village just to seek for help

She consulted high powers in Ologun village, in fact, she ran to Goloto for help. All those people she went to meet comforted and assured her that nothing would happen to her

Goloto said to her "see my daughter, this case is very simple before me. Provided you pay the prize with your body for three (3) days with me in Awele's bush"

Oh, baba, that's nothing, if that's what will cost me to escape the evil pronunciation of that sumphish man, I never mind." Toyin"

Toyin did everything said to her, but all proved abortive. She thought everything was done and nothing would happen but immediately when it was 12am the third (3rd) day she ran mad

Her madness was high, there was no amount of clothes they used to cover her that she didn't tear. Seven strong men couldn't hold her, they had to chain her down.

She was barking like a weird dog. When her mates saw it they greatly feared God and Dayo

Before we continue from there, let's go back to Dayo and his fellow corpers.

They were all praying for him, Grace was there too. During the prayer, one of the witches in Ologun village, an aged woman transformed to one of the nurses and rushed to the Corp members.

She actually came for Grace... "Miss Grace, the doctor said your attention is needed right now at the hospital." She said,

Oh, okay! But what happened?. "Grace" (she was troubled)

One of the patients was shouting your name, she said she would see you before she died. It's a matter of urgency, please let's go, others would continue the prayer. "She replied"

Grace consented to follow her, she was inundated with trouble. Immediately she rose up from the ground beside Dayo to follow the evil woman in the likeness of one of the nurses

Her spirit was troubled the more, she knew the atmosphere had changed, she was under the power of the Holy Ghost. She closed her eyes and began to speak with tongues with a loud voice

Everybody was carried away, even the Corp members, but later they focused on Dayo. They thought she was still in the mood of praying to God for Dayo

As Grace was speaking in tongues, with her eyes closed she pointed at the strange woman in the likeness of one of the nurses and silently said "who are you?"

Immediately she said that, the Corp members looked back surprisingly. That old woman transformed to her real self

Almost all the people standing and watching were terrified and ran away.

The old woman was staggering and was making incantations. The Corp members stood up, but Helen was with Dayo, his head on her lap.

Grace opened her eyes, it wasn't her this time around, she was highly under the power of the Holy Ghost. She shouted and said "who are you?"

Immediately she asked the old woman, the old woman fell down and disappeared. She landed in her room, dead!.

Fear came upon others who were there, then, both Grace and the Corp members went back to Dayo and continued their prayers.

Immediately they started praying, Dayo who was dying in pain and couldn't talk again began to laugh sarcastically, his fellows were inundated with amazement and at the same time they were shocked.

Dayo are you okay?."They asked him"

Grace held his right hand and was speaking in tongues, fire met with fire, Dayo was speaking in tongues too powerfully.

His fellows and some of the people standing were surprised. Dayo by himself sat down and continued speaking in tongues, some of his fellows who had been baptized too were praying in the Holy Ghost and others too were praying.

{ Please pray this prayer with a loud voice in your spirit, especially if you are still thirsting for the baptism of fire.

O God my Father... arise and baptize me with the Holy Ghost and fire, in the name of Jesus.

Pray that prayer for five minutes, close your eyes and pray with faith in your heart.

The power of the Lord is coming upon you, pray, open your mouth and pray now!}

For in Jesus' mighty name we pray. Amen and Amen!

The atmosphere that surrounded the Corp members was bombarded with the presence of the Lord.

Humanly speaking, the way Dayo was attacked he ought not to live, not to talk of speaking and standing up by himself. But power changed hands, and mercy spoke for him. Glory to God!.

As they were all in the realm and under the power of God, strange things were happening.

Here, I'll tell you the interpretations of the tongues of Dayo and Grace.

Dayo was actually seeing the hosts of the forbidden forest, these are the interpretations of the tongues. "I stand in the authority of Jesus Christ, because I have obtained mercy and the Rock of Ages cleft for me.

I bind and cast into hell every spirit and power that is not of God. I break down the strongholds of darkness in this place

Let God of Elijah arise and win. Arise Oh God, arise, roar like mighty waters, shine the light and pull down strong towers by fire.

I loose all the oppressed in this land, fire of the Holy Ghost come down and break every bondage, in Jesus mighty name."

Grace speaks... "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, we set everywhere ablaze, fire for fire, earthquakes and terrifying noises from heaven.

Great God, show Yourself strong and powerful. Devil, I rebuke you and bind you. Fire of the Holy Spirit visits this land, now, now, now and everywhere!"

The first but strange miracle that happened in Ologun village was that the river, which late king Ologun turned to, dried up immediately.

When people went there, they saw python dead and native pots, twenty-four (24) with blood inside them all but broken

Immediately this happened the king held his chest and collapsed, groaning in pain.

Goloto's power room caught fire, he ran out and rushed into the forbidden forest half naked. Thank You Jesus!

Grace and Dayo's fellow corpers lifted Dayo up and took him to the hospital for medical attention too, but he was healed and was even saying funny words as they were all going that everyone was laughing.

But do you know that something strange happened after that great revival?

Many people came to the Lord, confessing their sins. Deliverances and freedom. But great battle against the Corp members

It was so severe that Grace almost lost her life, some of the Corp members had to leave Ologun village for the meantime, but to where?

To be continued.

But I hope the life of some of these corpers is challenging for someone reading this book, especially the life of Dayo, Christopher and Grace?

See, we are in a terrible world. The world itself is a mystery and battle ground, no weak christian can last at the war front.

Of course, many soldiers of the Lord are wounded just like Dayo and late Emeka. But this is the good news, the Holy Ghost will raise them up again, vibrant and victorious. In Jesus mighty name

We read how Toyin later ran mad, hmmm! Did she die in that insanity? How about other demon possessed girls, did they submit?

This coming part 8, you don't miss it. Please dear readers, don't joke with your prayer life, abstain from fleshly lust and be serious with your christian life.

Never forget to "be sober, be vigilant, because your adversary, the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour." 1st Peter 5:8. Amen

Part 8.

{The Terrifying Voices}

There was a great threat against the Corp members, Kundi told Goloto that he should do everything to make sure they were eradicated from the land.

Amope conspired together with her fellow girls to fight Dayo at all costs because of Toyin. This time around, the girls were having a strange meeting in one of the empty classroom.

A week after Dayo's restoration, Grace was getting set for night duty. She cooked beans and locked the door and went to the bathroom...

After she had finished bathing she opened her door and entered, lo and behold she saw old women sitting on her bed. When Grace saw them sitting on her bed, she was very angry.

And what are you doing here?. "She asked"

The old women: "Today makes it twenty-one days we've been fasting and consulting the gods to bring you down. Enough of your operations in this land.

You've almost converted all our children, now listen to us very clearly and well. "Today, you either die or leave our land."

Grace: "Oh God, Holy Spirit, this is ridiculous to me. Why would these old and dying women come into my room and even sit on my bed?"

The women: "You are crazy! You die today"
(They were making incantations)

Grace: (She was quoting Psalm 24) I command this room to turn to fire and burn you, in the name of Jesus Christ...

{The old women jumped up and were scratching their bodies, and disappeared.}

Grace: I won't eat these beans again, nor would I use this bed.

She poured the beans away and left for work. When it was 11:30pm, all the Corp members were inside, the door was locked.

Suddenly, Grace came knocking at the door. "Who's there?". They asked.

"It's me Grace". She replied.

Grace? "They asked"

Grace: Yes, please open the door. (They opened the door, she entered.)

Grace: "Guys, there's war now. I saw some strong men coming to shed blood, they were determined to defile the ladies amidst us and to kill.

Please, guide yourselves now and run. They came to my house too, but thank God, I was on night duty today. One of my neighbors ran to the hospital and told me they've bagged into my room and scattered everywhere"

The Corp members: "Oh Jesus Christ"

Grace:"See, we have to leave now!"

The Corp members:"Where to?"

Grace:"Anywhere! Just escape for your life, I suggest you go to the principal's house and hide yourselves for now."

Dayo: "They are here"

The ladies: "Jesus!" (They were shivering)

Grace:"Okay let's pray please"

Christopher: "But we need to apply wisdom too. Mark and I will lead the ladies out to the principal's house".

Chioma:"No, we are all going. Let's pass through the back door, please."

The strong men came knocking, pushing the door with force. The Corp members left through the back door, Dayo and Dele refused to go, others persuaded them but they stayed back.

They passed through the bush that night, the ladies were tired of running, they were shedding tears but weren't discouraged.

They got to a particular junction, they saw some strange people passing by with a red wrapper. They were looking strange...

Christopher: "Let's hide here till these ones have gone". They hid themselves, Grace's phone was vibrating, the doctor was calling her.

Grace:"Hello sir!"

Doctor:"Grace, please, where are you now?"

Grace:"Sir, I'm in the jungle with the Corp members. There's fire on the mountain right now"

Doctor:"Yes, I know, that's why I called. There is a problem here too.

Grace: "Problem? How sir?"

Doctor:"Some of those guys are here, looking for you. They have not come to my office, but I can hear them scattering everywhere, looking for you."

Grace:"Oh Jesus Christ!. Sir, I'll be on my way now." (She hung up the call with annoyance)

The Corp members:"What happened?". (She explained to them)

Grace:"I will never tolerate this nonsense in this land. I think as we are praying, we also have to seek justice. These people must be sued to court"

Helen:"But, Dayo and Dele are still in the house. We don't know what would have happened to them"

Those evil guys broke the door in, and were looking for the Corp members. Dayo and Dele were sitting on the plastic chairs with their hands joined together in prayer..

Gracefully, they weren't seen by the evil men. When they were about destroying things in the house they began to hear terrifying voices

The rooms and the sitting room were vibrating, though Dayo and Dele didn't hear the voices.

Guys, let's go!. (They left, Dayo and Dele were surprised that they were not seen.)

Christopher and others told Grace not to go to the hospital because it's dangerous, those guys came with weapons. And they came for Grace to assassinate her...

Grace wouldn't listen, she left. Dayo called Christopher on the phone and told him how the Lord had performed a miracle before them...

They were told to come back home, they did. So, Grace got to the hospital and saw those armed men, wanting to molest the nurses.

I am Grace you seek after!."She said"

The armed men were surprised at her boldness, their leader went to her and was staring at her. He saw a sign at her forehead which got his attention

Young lady, who are you?. "He asked"

I told you, I am Grace. "She replied"

The Armed Guy: What's the meaning of the sign on your forehead? It's strange.

Grace: "It's the Lord's Mark, and why are you here Philip?".

Philip: "Oh, you know my name?"

Grace: "Hear what the Lord said about you, Philip, Because you have shed the blood of my servant and have perpetuated this evil before Me, your corpse shall never be buried but burnt to ashes."

One of the armed men slapped her. How dare you talk to our boss like that! "He said".

Philip: "Common guy, calm down. Grace, where did you know me?"

Grace: "Your wife is a child of God, had it been she knew who you were, she wouldn't have gotten married to someone like you.

She is now regretting it, but hear me clearly and well, the Lord is ready to avenge the blood of His son you were paid to kill.

This one that slapped me, has only a few hours to live, now leave this place."

The guys were surprised and were asking who Grace was, Philip was scared of what Grace had said. He wanted to talk to her privately, but out of anger that same guy that slapped Grace shot Grace at her stomach. Grace collapsed on the floor

Philip: What! Who asked you to shoot her?

The guy: Her spell cannot catch us, she deserves it. (He hissed)

Philip: And I swear to God, your life will go for it too. (He shot him, he died immediately. But Grace was rushed, Grace's prophecy over him came to pass.)

The guys ran away and left Grace, the nurses and the doctor came out and rushed Grace toone of the wards.. She lost so many blood

Philip's conscience could not give him peace, he was bothered and troubled about Grace, especially concerning everything she told him.

In the morning, Toyin's parents came begging Dayo to forgive their daughter.

He followed them to pray for her, when he got to where she was chained. Toyin looked up and said "I am sorry"

Her parents were greatly surprised. But she was not okay before we left, how come?. "They were asking one another".

Dayo: "The Lord had shown her mercy before you even came to me, she's been made whole. "

Dayo led her to Christ, Toyin gave her life to Christ that morning. When Tinuke heard about it in school, she took permission from her class teacher and came to see her friend.

When Toyin saw Tinuke, she wept, Tinuke embraced her and wept too.

It came to pass, after two weeks Dayo got an sms on his phone that his fiance was kidnapped. He was bothered and couldn't think straight

He had to go home on Friday after close hour. The parents of his fiance told him that the kidnappers said they would collect fifty (50) million naira before she would be released...

His fellow corpers told him not to be depressed, that the Lord would glorify Himself.

Dayo was set for home, immediately he carried his bag. God spoke to him clearly in his spirit saying... "You don't have to disturb yourself, for the remaining five months you and your friends have here, I have a lot to do in this land.

Drop your bag and focus on my assignment, because I the Lord will be glorified again."

Dayo told his fellows what the Lord had told him, they praised God and encouraged him to believe in the Lord.

Dayo: I believe, but I don't know her condition now.

As they were encouraging him, his phone rang. "Dayo, she has been released. We got a call to come for her at the police station, nothing happened to her."

Wow! Thank You Jesus!. "Dayo and his fellow members rejoiced"

One fateful evening, the students were having lessons. Helen, Chioma and Evelyn took SS2 students.

Suddenly, they began to hear noises, they all looked back, behold a great storm rushing in. "Jesus!". They exclaimed.

The storm came with force and took away two girls and one boy. There was a commotion in the school...

What happened next?...

We'll discover it in the next part.

Paul came to Ologun village, he came as he promised the Corp members.

But on his way to Ologun village he encountered lots of challenges...

What happened to the Corp members?

Paul came and said he would go to the forbidden forest, did he go?

What happened to him?

To be continued in part 9.

Part 9

{Storm and Fire}

Great is our God who reigns on high. Great is His mercy and power, He has given us victory and praise over all our enemies...

I welcome you all to part 9, season two (2). I won't stop appreciating you all for your patience and prayers, thanks for sharing as well.

God bless you all in Jesus mighty name. Thanks be to God for all He has been doing in the lives of thousands of souls reading this revival book

It calls for personal retreat, revival, devotion and a disciplined life.

We see sin ravaging and overpowering many lives, but we can overcome sin if we take heed to the Word of God, prayer and fasting, coupled with self discipline.

In this part nine (9) there are some things we're going to see, what helped the Corp members, and what made some of them victims of the devil.

You may ask, did they face any temptation that made them fall into sin?. It remain just four months for them to finish their program.

We read in the previous part that a storm came in to the school while the Corp members were taking some of the students lessons.

The storm took a boy and two girls away, this caused great common in the land of Ologun. The parents fought the Corp members and insisted that their children be brought back...

They were saying a lot of accusing words against the Corp members. They said ever since they've been transferred to Ologun village strange things have been happening.

The Corp members were devastated, the parents of the lost children told them that their children must be seen latest tommorow morning....

The principal pleading with them and encouraged them that their children would be seen and delivered alive without any harm.

The Corp members went home with great burden and sorrowful hearts. Grace was going through surgery, the doctor removed the bullet from her body.

She almost gave up the ghost, but the Lord saved her. It was Goloto who sent storm, he wanted to destroy the Corp members' reputations.

That night of the incident the corpers held vigil, praying fervently to the Lord for signs and wonders. Prayer was going on for the release of the students

One of the three students who were taken away by the storm was one of Olabosun's converts, her name is Lola. Their hands and legs were tied..

Their faces were covered, the students were crying and begging for freedom. They were at Goloto's shrine...

When it was past 1am, there came in like a mighty wind a sound of voices, the voices were very audible to the extend that the shrine was shaking physically...

Lola, one of the students was praying in her heart with tears. Goloto was determined to dissipate them, but the voices were speaking unknown language....

Goloto came out of his power room and rushed in to the shrine, his children were scared of the voices. Even those students were scared too, they were screaming.

Suddenly the doors and windows were widely opened... The shrine were destroyed, All the idols there were broken, concortion pot got broken and many things were destroyed.

Goloto brought out his gun out of anger to kill those children but on getting there, he could not see those students again. Goloto's children too could not see the student....

Ehh! What's happening? Where are they?. "He asked"

Father, we don't understand either. But nobody came here, we were surprised the doors and windows are widely opened. Who could have opened it for them?. "His children"

Goloto: Ahhh! You opened your eyes till these children were gone?.

His children: We are sorry father, we couldn't withstand the terror of the voices, so we had to hide ourselves. We saw storm and fire too.

Goloto killed two of his sons out of anger because of that. Others fled to the palace that same night for refuge. Goloto was dangerous, he could kill anyone if he is angry.

The king received his children and told them to be at peace that he would call on Goloto the following morning.

How did those students leave Goloto's shrine? When the storm came and opened the doors and the windows, their chains were broken and they fled immediately.

They ran to the corpers house and were knocking the door. They opened the door for them and were surprised to see them

They explained all what happened at the shrine to the corpers. In the morning they went back to school together, their parents and everyone in the school were all glad to see them.

One day, on Saturday evening, at 11:45pm, Paul arrived at Ologun village. The corpers were surprised to see him because he did not tell them the date he was coming though they knew he would come as he had promised

Three days after the arrival of Paul, there was mid time break, Thursday and Friday, so everyone was at home.

Demilade was dressing up, others were outside because of the heat. Grace came to say hello, she was now okay and fine to the glory of God...

But as they were all discussing, two of them were playing ludo game. Suddenly they heard Demilade shouting "who are you?"

They rushed in to check up on her. Demilade, what happened to you?. "They asked"

Demilade: "I was hearing a voice of an old man calling my name, I did not first take it serious, thinking it was a thought that just came to my mind...

Then, it started getting more real, the voice was coming at my back, I turned back to look, behold I saw exactly an old man. He didn't put on clothes, he only tied black wrapper.

He was telling me to come, I noticed a force was backing up his voice, I was going to him slovenly, he was smiling, suddenly I regained my consciousness and shouted who are you, he laughed and disappeared."

Others: Hmmmm!.

Paul: "The old man didn't mention his name?"

Demilade: "No sir, he was with a rod at his left hand. As he kept telling me to come he was using one leg to tap the floor"

Helen: Oluwa o! (O Lord)

Paul: "Hmmm, okay, let me also ask, The man looked so thin and he is a bald man right?

Demilade: "Sir, exactly! Please how did you know?"

Paul: "He is one of the strong men in Afaro village, I had an encounter with him when I was coming. You know, I got here late in the night?"

The Corp members: "Yes sir!"

Helen: "You saw him?"

Paul: "Yes, it wasn't funny at all."

Chioma: "Chineke, biko, I dey fear already o." (Laughs)

Dele: "What did he say to you sir?"

Paul: "Humanly speaking, no one could see him except God opens his eyes."

The Corp members: "Hmmm!"

Paul: "Dayo and Grace would understand me very well, after all they are our prophet and prophetess." (Smiles)

The ladies: "Abi o, we dey hail o. Three gbosa for them". (Laughs)

Paul: "In that case, every child of God is entitled to seeing the things of the spirit. Some people say vision is meant for only the prophet and prophetess, they are getting it all wrong.

The bible made us to understand that, God promised to send His Spirit upon all flesh in the last days. And it was fulfilled on the day of pentecost

So, every child of God is entitled to the baptism of the Holy Spirit. So, seeing vision isn't meant for Mr Dayo and Grace alone.

I'm sure some of you can hear God and can see things of the spirit too, though it might be clearer than the another.

But the more we move closer to God in the secret place, the more clearer we see God's faithfulness, and the more we are filled with His presence."

The ladies: "Hmmm! Little pastor Kumuyi have come o". (Laughs)

Mark: "You these ladies, kilode?." (They were all laughing)

Demilade:"Sir, you were saying something the other time. About the old man"

Paul: "Yeah, before you people interrupted my conversation, calling me small pastor Kumuyi of deeper life." (Laughs)

The ladies: "We are sorry pastor". (Smiles)

Paul: "When I told the bike man I was coming to Ologun village, you know, one need to take bike from Agede to Afaro village first.

The bike men said they were not coming because it was late. So, the one that agreed to carry me summoned courage, besides, I noticed he was a child of God.

So, immediately we got to Afaro village, at that strange junction, I saw the old man walking away. He was entering inside the bush, I was looking at him.

I did not want to tell the bike man so he would not be afraid when going back to the bus stop

But do you know what? When we got to Igba Aruwe junction, I saw the same man walking inside one uncompleted building with a rod.

I was surprised, I kept it to myself. But the bike man heard me humming, he asked why, I told him all was well.

Finally, at Egungun street, I saw him again. But this time he was sitting on a stool, staring at us, you know the bike man did not know anything.

I told him to stop that I wanted to urinate, of a truth I wanted to, and also used that opportunity to look at the old man very well."

The ladies: "Ehn? You were not afraid?". What if he pour powder inside your urine? (Laughs)

Paul: "These ladies." (Laughs)
Well, as I came down from the bike, the old man rose up and was coming towards my direction.

The ladies: Eeeeeh!

Helen: "I would have wished the ground opened and swallow me". (Laughs)

Demilade: "What? I won't even bother to come down from the bike not to talk of urinating"

Evelyn: "I for don shout, kia, the bike man go know watin dey happen. (Speaking pidgin language)

That's why I am praying to God to baptise me with the Holy Ghost too." (Laughs)

Dayo: "Helen, Evelyn and Demilade, abeg make una keep quiet nah. Ewo!" (Speaking pidgin language) (Laughs)

Paul: "As I was saying the other time, I paused and was staring at him as he was coming. He moved close to me and said... arakunrin, jowo, se mole fi ito re se omi? Oungbe ngbe mi. (Meaning... young man, please can I use your urine as water? I am thirsty)"

The Corp members: "Chimo!." (Laughs)

Paul: "I started praying, the bike man knew I was praying, he was telling me to be fast so we move on. Things are happening especially in the night....

A child of God who jokes with his prayer life, I doubt if he hasn't been captured already.

I shouted Jesus! He disappeared, then the bike man knew that something was going on. I covered my urine with the blood of Jesus and left

As I was on bike, the Lord spoke to me that the old man walks about seeking for a sweet and happy home to cause mourning.

But I pray, they won't capture us and our loved ones in Jesus mighty name."

The Corp members: "Amen"

After a week, Paul and Christopher were passing by. They got to a particular place and saw a young pretty lady who was insane

They were very touched, immediately Paul was in the Spirit. He saw that the lady was the first person that would ever go to secondary school in her lineage

Immediately when she finished her WAEC the wicked ones in her family, who never wanted anyone to succeed attacked her.

Paul: "No! This nonsense must stop. Christopher, let's go meet her."

Christopher: "The mad lady?"

What happened next...

Part 10

Goloto went to the king in the palace, remember, the king was sick after the prayer of the Corp members for Dayo. He (the king) held his chest in pain when the power of the Lord came down during the prayer of the children of God

But Goloto had consulted the gods for his healing. You know, the devil does not have permanent miracle, rather, he'll either fake it or last for a time.

Only miracle and blessings from the Lord who sits on high in glory have everlasting blessings and eternal life, through Jesus Christ the Great Saviour. Amen and Amen

The king was managing himself, the hand of the Lord was mightily against him because his heart was full of evil all the time.

There are churches in Ologun village, in fact, many. But the king wouldn't stop receiving task from all the churches, he used to tell them that if any pastor wouldn't corperate he would demolish the building.

Further more, he said, if it were the reign of his great father, Ologun, no church was built in the land of Ologun.

And because the heavenly minded believers who wanted the gospel to dominate everywhere agreed to be giving the king monthly payment

Both the king of Ologun land and Goloto did share everything giving to him by the churches there. Hmmm!

The idea was not palatable at all, but with God's wisdom and help things began to change for good. All the genuine ministers there never stopped praying that the Lord would arrest the king with a mighty hand

It's an abomination before the Lord for an unbeliever to be collecting money from church before service could be hold

But what then happened? Goloto went to the king one afternoon and told him some strange things that needed to be done in his reign

Goloto: "Your highness, I greet you. The gods are greeting you, the spirits in the forbidden forest and Kundi himself sent their greetings.

They prayed for you and for your household and kingdom. They said you should not forget the deal"

The king: "Thank you Goloto, thanks to the gods of my father. I really do appreciate them all. But Goloto...?"

Goloto: "Yes, my lord the king? The second person in charge of power in the land after the gods, speak on please." (He bowed his head)

The king: "Something is bothering me a lot"

Goloto: "Something is bothering you? My lord the king, you have power over all the land. What is bothering you? Tell me, you know there's no assignment you ensure into my hands that fails"

The king: "See Goloto, two things are bothering me, and I want you to help me do whatever things you can do within your power to help me

If it will cost you to consult the gods and to visit the spirits in the forbidden forest, especially Kundi, please do."

Goloto: "Your highness, please speak on. I am here to always help you, my lord."

The king: "The first thing is that, I don't want any church again in my land. Although, they are giving me all my dues every month but I noticed that these days their prayers are disturbing me a lot."

Goloto: "Really? How my king?"

The king: "It's almost every day some of these churches are holding vigil, immediately when it's 12am I don't see peace.

They sings and prays dangerous prayers every night, and it's giving me much trouble. I want to stop every church in my land!"

{Is he the owner of the land? The earth is the Lords and the fullness thereof...}

Goloto: "My lord, what now do you want me to do about it?"

The king: "Stop all the churches! If any of them proves stubbornness, pull the building down and if possible destroy the watchman of the church"

Goloto "Consider it done, my lord. You'll hear from me"

The king: "Thank you, I trust you. Now the second thing is that, those government children that came to this land to serve their father's land, I want you to cause great trouble in their midst.

I want you to get some of them for the spirits in the forbidden forest, if it's by kidnapping, please go ahead and do it."

Goloto: "Your highness". (He bowed and left the palace)

Goloto went to his power room and he began to consult the gods for the operation. But then, let's go to see what happened when Paul and Christopher saw the young lady who was suffering under the attack of her household enemies.

Paul was persuading Christopher that he believed if they pray for her the Lord would heal her and that would also announce the name of Jesus Christ, and through that doors for soul winning would open.

Christopher agreed to follow Paul, as they were going. An old man met them and asked them where they were going to

Paul: "Baba, why did you ask?"

The old man: "Why did I ask? You lack manners!"

Christopher: "Really? We're sorry sir, we are going to pray for the young lady who was suffering under the attack of the wicked ones."

The old man: "And what's your business with that? Is she your sister that you want to go pray for her?"

Paul: "Baba, let me also ask you this question. Are you her father or grandfather?"

Christopher: "I wonder too"

The old man: "I am not her father, nor her grandfather but she belongs to us."

Paul: "Did we hear you saying us?

The old man: "Listen, she's my younger brother daughter. But her life is locked up, don't dare go and pray for her if you will not negatively affect your generation."

Christopher: "Mr Paul, it's me and you that listens to this old man, Dayo doesn't waste time for irrelevant negotiations."

Paul: "I see..."

Christopher: "Baba, please excuse us. Thanks"

They left the old man, but the old man had watered the ground with a demonic water, exactly the place Paul and Christopher would pass.

So both of them were going to the young lady, they saw the place, it's kind of narrow and that was where they would pass.

Paul: "The water might not be ordinary now. Blood of Jesus!" (He prayed)

Christopher: "Amen, in Jesus name." (They passed and nothing happened to them)

The old man was surprised and got angry, he went in and was invoking the demon behind the insanity of the young lady. Immediately she saw both of them, she was weird and acted ferociously.

She brought out an iron which she saw on dunghill and was so violent at Paul and Christopher

Christopher: "Sir, this one is violent. What do we do now?"

Paul: "Let's pray".

They began to pray, as they were praying the evil old man was increasing the violence of the demon in her.

She was coming to them with speed, raising up the iron, roaring. People who lives around stood in awe, they were scared and were telling Paul and Christopher to run.

Christopher was sincerely shivering. Mr Paul please, let's go. "He said"

The young lady was coming with a speed, Paul was looking at her as she was coming.

Immediately when she was close, Paul shouted with a very loud voice, pointing at her... "Let her go, in the name of Jesus!".

She stumbled and fell down, screaming. Immediately, fire exploded out of the native pot the old man was looking to control the demon in her.

It was as if when one poured fuel inside a little fire and it exploded with force. The fire entered his eyes and burnt his face down to his chest

He screamed and was running on ground, the eyes were consumed. The young lady was delivered that same hour

{I pray, any power assigned to waste your life shall die by fire, in the name of Jesus Christ.}

Remember that the king was with force collecting some things from the churches. It was not pleasant at all

The churches were planning, the leaders came together and were reasoning on what to do to stop that rubbish. Ecen the king was collecting charges on the land the churches were using

What an abomination!

We need to sue him to court. "Said one of the leaders in one of the churches"

So, after two days, Goloto made a huge sacrifice to the gods, to the spirits in the forbidden forest and to the demons in the rock in Ologun village, against the churches and the Corp members according to the request of the king.

God had revealed all these conspiracies to some of the leaders in the churches, they all held urgent meeting and organized prayer with fasting.

Dayo had been on three (3) days marathon fasting, yet he was going to school to teach the students. No one knew he was on fasting apart from the Corp members

When the Corp members were gathered together, Dayo said some things...

Dayo: "The hosts of darkness in this land are been summoned against the churches in this village. We will be attacked too, but the Lord said oneness must not be far away from us

I saw Kundi at his highest wrath raising up. The sacrifices offered to him by Goloto were very expensive that Kundi was summoned to destroy the churches and us

Listen, the spirit of anger will be sent into our midst, let's be guided please. They would come in to us through that anger and bitterness

The Lord said we should all be on fasting from this morning, thank it's 5:30am, no one have eaten."

They all consented to all he said, fasting and prayer began. The ladies were breaking their fast 3pm, they guys were taking it to 7pm.

Four days later they all went to school in the morning, but something happened.

Helen was making the assignments given to the students she teaches in the class room while the class captain was writing notes on the board.

What! Are you blind?."Helen reacted"

Who is blind? Me or you?. "The girl replied" (Other students were surprised. The class captain wanted to slap her but Helen told him never to try it because the girl was evil)

The girl said to the class captain in anger that... "You should have slapped me, and forget about your eyes. You fool!"

She was reported to the principal, she was beaten with twelve (12) strokes, and was told to apology, she did that in pride though.

During the break time Grace came to the school, she had heard about it. She sent for the girl, she came.

Grace: I heard about the drama you performed today, it's a foolish one. Now listen to me, anytime you try it again, embarrassing my sister or any of the Corp members, not only you am I talking too now.

I am also sending you to others, anytime you look into their faces, you will smell pepper and wished you never looked into their faces.

Moreover, they meeting you had last night was not concealed. You are empowered to fight Helen, Chioma and other ladies right?

If you don't go and tell those stupid mothers of yours that they are too hot for you to touch, your life will be endangered. I think you know who is talking to you, do you?

The girl: (She could not look at the face of Grace) I'm sorry ma'am. I won't do that again

Grace: Tonight, when you appear in your meeting, tell them that you are opting out. I mean it

The girl: Ahhh! Aunty Grace, they will kill me. I can't do that ma'am.

Grace: And do you want to face of God? Can you bear it?

The girl: Ma'am, I can't withstand the wrath of the Creator, but I can't come out of the evil society, my grandmother initiated me when I was ten (10).

Grace: And how old are you now?

The girl: I am fifteen (15)

Grace: So you have been destroying lives for the past five years? And where is your grandmother now?

The girl: She's late ma'am.

Grace: Oh! Late?

The girl: Yes ma'am

Grace: Listen to me, when you appear in the coven tonight tell them you are no more interested. What am I even saying? In fact, you don't go there again.

The girl: Ahhh! Please ma'am, I have missions to fulfill and if I don't carry out these missions as expected, my life will go for it. (Sobs)

Grace: Can you hear yourself now? If you don't carry out the missions given to you by these wicked old women you'll automatically die

Same thing if you die in your sin, God will judge you and cast you into hellfire. Would you be free today, girl?

The girl: I want to be free but I can't help myself. Sincerely, aunty Grace, I am fed up with everything. (Sobs)

Grace: Where are your parents?

The girl: They are late ma'am. (Sobs)

Grace: Since when and what happened to them?

The girl: They died three years ago ma'am.

Grace: What happened to them?

The girl: Ma'am, I can't tell you, it's a secret. Please don't let me say it, I was strictly warned not to tell anyone.

Grace: Look at me, what's your name again?

The girl: My name is Wura (Gold)

Grace: Such a beautiful name! Helen Ewan was a possessor of the Holy Spirit when she was alive, if I could remember vividly, she died in the year 1930 at age 22years.

Her life have been a challenge to those of us who read her biography, she was a child of God full with the presence of God.

When she died everybody knew someone had gone home. She got converted at age fourteen (14)

But here you are possessed with evil spirits when God's plans and purposes for your life is of good. I will want you to go and google Helen Ewan and read about her

Moreover, I recommend one of the books of Shanu Oluwatobi Caleb for you, Brother Durotoluwa And The Priest Of The Goddess.

There you will see a young lady possessed with the Holy Ghost and not with evil spirits.

Listen to me dear Wura (she laid her right hand on her shoulder) you have one life to live. If you live it for the devil you will die and go to hellfire

If you live it for the Lord your Creator, you will live and be filled with His Spirit just like Helen Ewan I told you to google and Jesuferanmi in that book I recommended for you.

The devil has nothing to offer you. Now let me ask you, how many lives have you destroyed?

Wura: (Gold) ma'am, if I am to count it, I must have killed like thirty persons. I have destroyed many destinies too, I have done a lot so I can't go back to stop doing it.

Grace: And do you think God will not kill you too soon?

Wura: Ahhh! Please, don't let God kill me, I don't want to die. (Sobs)

Grace: But you have killed too, the bible says he that kills with sword shall be be killed also with sword. The only option you have now is to run to Calvary for forgiveness and salvation. It's up to you, I have to go now.

Wura: (She knelt down and held Grace's legs with tears) Ma'am please, don't leave me alone. Your words are fire piercing through my heart

I want to be free, I am tired. I was told to donate my parents in the coven by my grandmother before she died.

I have three siblings, two girls and a boy. I had killed the boy and initiated the two girls too, and I was on a mission to kill aunty Helen.

You have been a great threat and hindrance to us, we fear your prayers, we fear your knees in prayer. I have made several attempt to kill you but I do see fire burning all over you

I want to surrender my life to Jesus Christ, I want my sisters to be delivered too. Please aunty Grace, help us ma'am. (Sobs)

Her tears and readiness to be free touched Grace, Grace also was shedding tears. She said... "But why? Devil why? Why do you want to wreck all our young ones?

Why are you so concerned about the young ones? Many of our young ones like Wura are under your control, using them to destroy lives.

God has destined these ones for His glory alone, it's enough! Devil, your work over our young ones is enough."

What happened next?

Three old women appeared immediately, Wura saw them and was highly scared. She stood up and held Grace tightly

Grace was staring at them in anger. We will know what happened next in the coming episode

Some, something happened too, Mark was embittered against Paul ever since he had been with them.

He didn't want to see him, anytime he heard someone calling on Paul or just mention his name in conversation, the bitterness in him got fueled.

Through that, he was highly attacked, the bitterness got increased in him. He shouted on Paul over one little matter

Others were surprised, and were begging Paul to forgive him. Mark went about disclosing all their secret prayers against the evil spirits in the land of Ologun to Goloto

This was a serious combat, he was highly influenced through that seed of bitterness. Something very havoc happened when he went to report others to Goloto

To be continued in season 3...

Watch Out For The Seven Men And The Forbidden Forest, Season 3, part 1 on the 6th of May 2021.

That's the final season, please don't miss out. It's a great combat and most tough time for youth corpers

Mark completely turned against his fellow corpers. But we'll see the full scence in season 3.

My sincere questions to someone reading this book is that?
Are you a genuine child of God?
Do your prayer on your knees terrifies the wicked ones and their kingdom as Wura confessed about Grace?

Is your prayer altar burning with fire or ashes on the altar instead of fire?

You've got to rise up and be serious with your spiritual life! We wrestle not against flesh and blood...

Pray this prayer... "Jesus Christ, help Thou my life."

The Season 3.

Part 1

{The Last Battle And The Victory}

I welcome everyone who has been following this book from season one (1). Thanks for your patience and for following..

This is the last season of this revival book, I am sure your christian life is not the way it used to be. The fire you've got, do not let it quench.

We've seen many disasters that befall the Corp members in Ologun village, The corpers never expected it...

But those who were true worshippers of God never regretted going to Ologun village. In the previous episodes, Grace was talking about some of the secrets of Ologun village.

She mentioned the bird with her children, she mentioned a river in which some evil creatures are, but the river is dried now when they prayed for the restoration of Dayo.

In the four corners of Ologun land, virgins were buried for protection and power. This is now the tenth months that the Corp members have been in Ologun village...

It wasn't easy, they went through a tough time. No healthy living, no constant network, battles within and without...

Grace had been doing a great, evangelising both in the hospital where she works as a nurse and the village entirely. The hand of the Lord was mightily upon her...

She never joked with prayer and fasting every week, at times she fasted for three (3) days without water nor food (marathon fasting)..

Everyday was her vigil, she prays for two (2) hours on her knees, except when she is on night duty...

Now, let's continue to see what happens next. We've seen how Mark was bittered against Paul

But some drastic changes occured, and a fatal incident happened to Mark. He thought he was working for the devil by supporting Goloto to oppose his fellow corpers.

Let's start from where Grace and Wura were talking. Wura was fed up of working with the devil by committing atrocities

Her mind was made up to follow the Lord, just as Grace was about leading her to Christ, the three old women appeared to them.

The old women: "How dare you, Grace!"

Grace: "What?"

The old women: "Are you blind? Can't you see she is our daughter? Oh, you want to snatch this also from us as you normally do right? It will never work this time"

Wura: "Old women! Now listen to me, the veil has been removed, I am now on the Lord's side for safety. I am forever done with you, leave me alone!."

The old women: "Ahhh! Your child did not know medicine, she calls it vegetable."(Proverbs)

Wura: "weather I know it or not, I am on the Lord's side. I am tired of wasting innocent blood, I am tired of drinking human blood and eating their flesh..

I am tired of turning to snake to bite innocent people, I am tired of having sex with glorious young men in their dream to manipulate their destinies.

I want to be free, I will rather die than to come back to you. You this shameless fellow!

You deceived me, you lured me to kill my parents. You made me kill them, they loved me, I loved them too. My parents suffered for me and for my siblings...

They laboured hard, from one farm to another just to gather money to sponsor us to become great in life..

But to hell with my grandma who lured me to kill them. just Imagine, she lured me to kill her own daughter just because her daughter which is my mother, refused to dance to her tune..

The old women: "You are a big fool! Your life will be dissipated woefully if you don't come back to us now and finish the assignment we've committed into your hands".

Wura: (She knelt down and raised her two hands to heaven, shedding tears, calling the Lord to have mercy upon her. She turned to Grace)

Aunty Grace, please pray for me, lead me to Christ. I am ready to surrender all to Him today, please. (Sobs)

Grace: "Thank You Father"

The old women: "No! Abomination! (They joined hands together and stretched it to Wura, they quickly wanted to kill her, they prefer to waste her than to see her giving her life to Jesus.)"

Wura: "My heart! Aunty Grace, please help me beg God to forgive me." (Groaning)"

Grace: "Wura, please, repeat these prayers after me. (She led her to Christ)

(Wura was vomiting blood, Grace stood up and was praying, rebuking the evil elders to take their hands off Wura.)

The old women: "No! She belongs to us, we would rather kill her than allow her escape from us."

Grace: "For it is written, whosoever the Lord has set free is free indeed.. Wura is free indeed!!!.. For the name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous runs into it and gets saved"

(While Grace was still praying, Dayo came.)

Dayo: "You these old women again?" (Grace was addressing them, Dayo raised Wura up and prayed for her, she regained her consciousness. Dayo rushed to Grace and held her hand)

Dayo and Grace: "We come against you, you these wicked old women troubling this land. Let fire consume you from heaven, in the Name..... of Jesus....."

(It thundered, the earth was shaking, the old women disappeared. Two died at home, the last one was terribly burnt, groaning in pain.)

Revival started amidst the students. The secondary school principal Mrs Johnson, gathered all the students on the assembly ground for fellowship.

She wrote to the junior secondary school as well, the Corp members were leading the assembly. Pastor Paul took the sermon....

The assembly was filled with multitudes of students, The assembly ground could not contain them, they moved to the field. The sermon Paul preached was a powerful one...

All the students raised their hands to surrender their lives to Christ. They all went on their knees, weeping...

The testimonies of Tinuke, Amope, Toyin, Wura and other students who got converted through the Corp members and through Grace, moved others who were still into evil society to confess their sins too.

All the students surrendered their lives to Jesus Christ.Tinuke, Toyin and Wura gave some speech...

Tinuke: "I want to tell you today my fellow students, that it pays to serve Jesus and Him alone. I was blinded but He opened my eyes to His wondrous love..

I used to be under the tyranny of sin and the devil. The devil has nothing good to offer, he who listens to him is just a fool. I am saved by His grace". (Everybody clapped)

Amope: "I have made a covenant that the God of these Corp members will continue to be my God. I used to be cruel like a monster but I obtained mercy...

I want to encourage you, if you are still indulging in sin please come out of it and believe the Lord Jesus Christ.

I was so surprised at God's mighty mercy, and I couldn't comprehend the wonder working power of God. It's so overwhelming!

I want to tell you that Jesus Christ loves you more than you think, He died for you. Come to Him today" .

(She was shedding tears when she remembered how many lives she had destroyed. Everybody clapped for her too, Helen patted her at the back, she leaned on her shoulder crying.)

Toyin: "Praise the Lord!

Everybody: "Hallelujah"

Toyin: "I used to believe that there was no power that could stop me from carrying out the assignments giving to me by the devil

I payed many sacrifices just to make sure I am well empowered and active. To shed blood is nothing to me, I just like when one is wasting water.

I loved shedding blood, especially that of christians who are careless. I was so wicked, if anyone offended me and begged me that would rather fuel the anger in me.

I would make sure I either kill the person or make him or her a living corpse.

I sold my destiny to the devil, I sold the destiny of my family to the devil. The devil promised me more wealth in the kingdom..

Of course, I was so rich in the kingdom, I had mansion and throne, I used to go about with special three maidens given to me in the kingdom.

Nobody can see them, except God opens his eyes. I used to summon them to carry out assignment with me.

But there was a time Mr Dayo was leading prayer on the assembly ground on a monday morning. Our assignment that day was to suck hundred destinies through sex, romantic play, giving of something eatable.

But as Mr Dayo was leading the prayer the Lord opened his eyes, he saw me in power, ready to strike, he opened his immediately and was staring at me.

He saw the maidens with me too but he kept it to himself, I did not know his reason though, perhaps the Lord led him not to tell anyone.

He began to speak in tongues, then Mr Christopher too and some other Corp members were speaking in tongues at the back of the assembly..

I couldn't withstand the burning fire all over the assembly ground, I used style and left the assembly ground. After the prayer I came back, my maidens too couldn't stay.

But the day the Lord would arrest me, one morning Miss Helen was the one leading the assembly. I was attacking her, but later, Mr Dayo came to me and whispered that after three days I would run mad.

Fellow students, I am telling you today that i was so intimidated, I shivered. I used to be bold, I don't fear anybody, but his whispering voice that morning was so powerful.

I knew it wasn't him talking, I did all I could to make sure his prophesy never come to pass over my life, but all was to no avail.

I ran mad according to his word, but i obtained mercy today. I am standing and telling you that it pays to serve the Lord Jesus Christ. Hallelujah!".

(The whole school was vibrating, everybody clapped for the Lord. Toyin went to Demilade, she took her as her mentor, she embraced her and peck her.)

Wura: (She sang) "You are the pillar that holds my life, 2×. Master Jesus, You are the pillar that holds my life, Master Jesus, You are the pillar that holds my life."

(She lifted up her two hands, worshipping God with tears. All the Corp members were speaking with tongues

The presence of the Lord filled the whole place. it was a wonderful moment in His presence.)

Wura: "I want to thank the Lord for saving me, I don't have much to say. I thank Miss Grace for her care, God used her for me.

Fellow corpers:, Jesus is more sweeter than honey. He loves you all, God bless you." (There was a shout of joy)

There was joy in the faces of everyone, but while they were praising God and dancing, Mark was coming.

They were staring at him, but the principal told the students not to be carried away.

He actually came on a mission, Goloto had given him diabolical ring to have an hand shake with his fellow corpers.

Demilade, Evelyn and Victoria continue the chorus on the assembly ground. Dayo was staring at Mark, Grace was there too.

Dayo: "And what is that in your hand, Mark?". (He was getting angry in his spirit)

Mark was looking like a moron, his looks were very strange. They discovered that he used eyebrow and painted his lips, stretching his hand to Dayo...

What happened next?

Part 2.

(The Last Battle And The Victory)

Now, that the Lord had started doing wonders in the midst of the students, the battle has subsidized. The students received Christ's salvation with the whole of their hearts

They went home rejoicing and burnt all their charms, diabolical rings, worldly and seductive dresses. They made restitution with those they have wronged.

They obtained great favour in the sight of the Lord, their testimonies got many converted too.

It was reported on social media that there are some youth corpers whom the Lord used for this great revival in Ologun land.

Press media came and interviewed the Corp members, the principal, the teachers and some of the students like Toyin, Amope, Tinuke, Wura and some others.

But the king had been seriously down, that attack he had through the prayer of the Corp members when Dayo was dying, got him paralyzed.

He first thought it was a joke, but the Lord had arrested him because of His children in the land of Ologun.

Besides, all the churches in Ologun village who had the mind of Christ, steadfast and holy, preaching sound doctrine have been praying in daily basics that the Lord would visit the king and the strong men in the way that pleases Him (God).

The king sent for Goloto many times but Goloto wouldn't answer him, why? Because the king's condition was getting worst..

Goloto had made a lot of atonements, sacrifices and had pleaded with the gods but instead the king situation was getting worst day by day.....

He sought for death but he could not find it. For it was the Lord who is at work, giving him grace to repent and believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

But then, let's go to see what happened to Mark the traitor, when he came to perpetuate evil against his fellow corpers.

Dayo was staring at him, asking him the reason why he turned against them. But Mark was just looking like someone whose brain had been affected....

Goloto, what have you done to Mark that made him an instrument against his fellow corpers?

Grace, Paul, Christopher and some were just looking at Mark as he was looking strange.. They knew that wasn't the Mark they used to know.

Grace: "Mark, what has come over you? Are you okay?". (She was looking at him sympathetically)

Paul: "Mark, do you know Goloto isn't your friend? He wants to just use you against us and later kill you. Would you at this time come back to the Lord, please? I am sorry if I had offended you over any matter."

Christopher: "Mark, we are talking to you. You are not responding, are you alright?".

(If anyone talks and calls his name, he would turn to the person and be looking like an imbecile)

Evelyn: "Oh my God! What has Goloto done to Mark? Mark, can you please say something please? Okay, we are so sorry for everything we've done to you." (Sobs)

>Mark speaks...

Mark: "I had made a covenant which I must fulfill, even now!".

(It wasn't his voice at all, it was Mark standing but another voice speaking through him.)

The ladies: "Jesus Christ! This is not Mark"

Grace: "Of course, it's him but he had been greatly manipulated."

The ladies: "What! Manipulated? But how?". (Sobs)

Grace: "Now, listen to me, you unclean spirit speaking inside this body, the One who sits in high and lofty places, who is a Consuming fire rebuke you. Come out of him now, in the name of Jesus Christ!".

Others: "Amen!".

Mark: (He blocked his ears) no! This is not the Mark you use to know, I am a strong man. And I am ready to destroy both him and you Grace: "Oh, you lie! Haven't you heard that He hath swallowed death in victory? And again, strangers shall hear my voice and run out of their hidden places..

In the name that is above all other names, you this dirty spirit, come out now by fire."

Ehn! Mark disappeared!! "The ladies exclaimed".

Evelyn: Or could it be that his image was used? What's going on brethren?

Dayo: The Lord will have His way. Please, let's go home, we need to rest.

Mark went on spoiling his fellow corpers, some who were ignorant, believed his report while some said he was sick.

The king was at his point of death, when he discovered that Goloto had let him down, he sent for the Corp members.

They prayed and sent Dayo and Paul, Goloto had not been at home for the past few days, he was with the demons in the forbidden forest.

Kundi knew power had been changing hands, he breathed upon Goloto and sent him back to fight the last battle against the churches and the Corp members.

Dayo and Paul went to the king, they told him about Jesus, after a while he confessed Jesus Christ as his Lord and his Savior. Glory!

The king said, if the Corp members can pray very well, the forbidden forest will be for the Lord. They can build a big church there or make it a campground where churches in Ologun land would be having their camp meetings.

Goloto had been warned by Kundi that immediately he left the forbidden forest, when it's 12am that same night he should kill Mark quickly because the effectual fervent prayer of his fellow corpers avails much.

But thanks to God, it has been revealed to the Corp members, they started praying for Mark.

The king sent his servant to Goloto for the last time, to tell him that "If golonto refuses to come with him, he should tell him that he shall be destroyed. I am the king of this land, and henceforth, this land shall be unto the living God, not to the gods again."

When Goloto heard that the king wrath was against him, he entered into power and matched to the palace, but he killed the king's servant.

When the king heard Goloto killed his servant he was very angry and commanded that immediately golonto get to the palace, he should be taken and be killed. But Goloto himself isn't an ordinary man.

When the youth corpers were praying at home, all these things were happening at night. Dayo got a revelation, he said "Goloto is on the mission to fight the king, myself and Paul and Christopher needs to go to the palace now"

They left, they got to the palace before Goloto arrived. The king was surprised to see the youth corpers, they told him it's necessary for them to come and pray for him.

While they were still speaking, behold Goloto was shooting guns outside, he had killed four of the king's servants. With anger he entered into the palace..

Goloto: "You fool! How dare you talk to me Goloto like that? Is it because you have received healing from these stupid children?

You know what I am capable of, I will ruin your kingdom and destroy the land." (He was breathing fast)

Dayo: Shut up! Who has spoken anything when the Lord has not commanded it? You are so bold, do you want to tell me you did not see me here?. (Dayo was angry in his spirit).

Goloto: Oh! It's you monster, tonight is your end. I am coming back to you.

Dayo: (He moved close to him and whispered with anger) In the presence of whom I stand, if you see tomorrow morning that means God wants you to be saved. If not, you're breathing your last breathe tonight.

Goloto: Ahhh! (Making incantations. Dayo was watching and Paul

Goloto raised up his hand to slap Dayo on his chest but the power of the living God arrested him as Dayo spoke in tongues to counter his power..

Paul was just laughing, the king was speechless seeing Goloto's hand hanged. He knew Goloto isn't an easy man.

Paul: Baba, would you at this time surrender all to Jesus Christ just as the king has done? (Laughs)

Goloto: (Making incantations) I will be back

Dayo: If you don't make a decision to accept Jesus Christ now, you are going to die at home.

Paul: Ah ah! Dayo, please, let's take it easy with him.

Dayo: No! This man is evil, he has tied down Mark into his power room with the intention of killing him.

The king: What!

Paul: Really?

Dayo: I'm telling you, so I repeat it again, if he would not make a decision now, your highness. He dies!

Goloto stopped and was looking at Dayo because he was so bold. What happened next?

Part 3

(War In The Forest)

The power of the Lord is more than great. His mightiness is beyond description. His excellency is unsearchable....

The throne of the Lord is exalted and it's surrounded with glory, honour, power, fire and it's mysterious. Who dare search His secret!

The great King who reigns on high, the King who makes kings to live. What do you think of God? The Almighty God!

The hands of the Lord is upon the Corp members in Ologun village, they had put all their hope on Him to help them fight and win the land for His glory.

Mark had been captured diabolically by Goloto for rituals. The Corp members were convinced that of a truth, it is the Lord who sent them to Ologun land..

Had it been they were not born again, all of them would have either been dead or disabled. Some see's the one year service as a time to flex.

They see it as a time of freedom and enjoyment. And so, they go there without the desire to propagate the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Their intention is "people must see the NYSC uniform on me. Oh I want to prove to the world I am the latest corper in town"....

Some went and lost the precious gift of their lives. Some met with the wrong guys and ladies, committed atrocities and many lost their salvation experience.

They say "it's a free world, after all, I am far from home." No, you are there for a purpose, and that is to glorify God with your body, soul and spirit.

And if you are a student, aspiring to go for your NYSC someday, have this in your mind that you are going for a purpose, it's the Lord who is sending you there for a particular assignment.

Don't lose your precious destiny on the table and altar of immorality. Agents are out there, be vigilant and careful....

As for these Corp members, they knew their God and trusted in Him. Although, their mindset was to go and finish their one year program, but the Lord had a purpose.

Of course, churches were there in Ologun village, in fact great prayer warriors. It wasn't only the Corp members the Lord was using there...

There are many of God's children whose names we don't even know that are selfless and spirit filled, doing mighty works for the Lord.

Even before the Corp members arrived at Ologun village these able children of God in some of the churches were also destroying the operations of the wicked ones...

But we are only focusing on the Corp members. Remember, Dayo was confronting Goloto at the king's palace, Goloto was scared and surprised at his actions.

Dayo was staring at him, telling him that he gives him five minutes to go and set Mark free or else thunder would strike again and dangerous things would happen.

Goloto: Now, listen to me young man, I've heard it and confirmed it myself that you are the most stubborn one amist your fellows. Tonight, your blood will be poured on the altar!.

Dayo: (Laughs) and if that truly happened, that means my God is dead. But hear me loud and clear, I give you just five minutes to release our Mark for us or else thunder would strike again!!

{Dayo tapped Paul and they left the palace in holy anger.}

Goloto: (Roaring and boasting) ahhh! Me? King, you stand there and watched that stupid boy talking to me like that?

The king: I believe you heard him well. As for me and my house hold, we are of the Lord.

(Goloto made incantations and disappeared to his power room)

He was consulting the gods to rise up and fight the final battle against their enemies. He used all his power to fight both the king, the churches and the Corp members.

Messages had been sent to the church leaders to gather for serious prayer, cos they've been seeing strange signs as a result of the consultations Goloto made to the gods.

Voices were being heard everywhere, the rivers were drying up, the crops the farmers planted dried up and many strange things were happening....

The church leaders were praying fervently, having seen the terrible things Goloto had done. The Corp members too were also praying...

In the night, they were praying that the Lord should arise like a Man of war. Mark had lost his consciousness in Goloto's power room

The ladies held themselves and were praying for Mark. "O Lord, arise and deliver Mark with Your mighty hands"

Power changed hands in the shrine, Mark regained his consciousness. He jumped up and was looking around with fear

What happened to me? Why am I here? "He said."

Goloto looked back, when he saw that Mark has gained consciousness, he brought out a little sword, chanting incantations to kill him.

Mark: (Stretching his right hand toward him) no, no, no. It is written, they overcame the dragon by the blood of the Lamb and by the words of their testimony.

And, he who wants me to go into captivity, shall be led to captivity. For the Lord God is my Rock and Shield.

I rebuke you this old man. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth fall down and lose your power, Let fire come down and consume this charms in Jesus mighty Name..

(Immediately, Goloto fell down, screaming. His children heard him and ran to meet him... Mark fled through the window. Hallelujah!)

He got home and knocked, they opened to him and received him gladly and joyfully.. God spoke to the Corp members that everybody should go out with a great noise and match toward the forbidden forest.

In the morning, they announced it in the school, all the students said they would go. The churches too followed the Corp members.

Grace was there and the king also..Almost all the villagers went out, shouting hallelujah. Making a great noise as they matched to the forbidden forest.

Something happened...

When they were almost at the forbidden forest, they began to hear voices and sounds of legs rushing out of the forbidden forest.

Hmmm! What happened next?

Part 4.

{Lightening}

The church leaders told the members and the corpers to wait for prayer. They gave warning, "if you know your lifestyle is not worthy of going with us, please stay back and pray along."

Many people stayed back, few went together with them. All the students went as well, Goloto was in pain, all his powers had disappointed him.

He was calling on his gods for help but they never answered him, he never knew the Lord had been doing wonders. He (God) has set ambush against them..

There was a great lightning that sparked into his eyes so he couldn't see anymore...

He told his children to open the dark pot for him which anyone in his lineage who is in his position must not look into, it was a taboo.

Anyone in the position must not open the dark pot, Goloto was the thirty fifth (35th) priest in his family anchoring that position..

His children told him that did he not know it's dangerous to open it? They were telling him that weren't you the one that told us it's dangerous to open it?

Goloto:Open it for me! I rather die than to let these foolish people see my end. But cursed be upon this land!.

His children: Father, you can't leave us alone. Can't you do something?.

Goloto: please my children, go to any other town u like, but leave this land immediately I open the dark pot. I will rain curses and calamities upon this land, both on the small and the great.

While he was still talking, Grace and Demilade came knocking at the door.

And who is that? "Goloto asked".

One of the children opened the door, behold it was Grace and Demilade asking after Goloto.

Father, it's Grace and one of the corpers. "Said one of his children"

Goloto: Why are they here? Cursed be upon them! Get me my gun.

His children: Father, let's listen to them first.

Goloto: To hell with you!.

His children: No, father, If you would not listen to them, I will. Then it will remain only you in this mess.

Goloto: Oh, I see you are a bastard! (He was making incantations)

When his sons saw he was making incantations, they understood what he was saying.. he wanted to make them run mad. The eldest son rushed out and knelt down before Grace and Demilade, telling them he didn't want to run mad.

They were three, when the two saw that their elder bro ran out, they also ran out....

Grace: "You don't want to run mad as how? Who wants to make you run mad?"

(The guy was explaining everything that happened to them, while he was yet speaking his two brothers came too, kneeling down and were asking for prayers. They knew the kind of evil father they had)

Their hearts were ready to be free, Grace told Demilade to lead them to Christ while she went in to talk to Goloto about Jesus for the last time before he dies...

She entered and saw Goloto in the pool of blood, groaning in pains.. He had located and opened the dark and covenant pot ..

Grace: "Oh my God! Baba, see what you have caused upon yourself now. Please confess Jesus Christ into your life so you'll be saved"

Goloto: "It is too late, get out of here now!". (He was groaning in pain)...

Grace: "Baba, the Lord has not given up on you, please accept him before death takes you away to life beyond."

Goloto: "You this girl, get out of here. I will go and join my ancestors....

Grace: "And do you know where your ancestors are?"

Goloto: "They are with the Creator, they are waiting for me. As for this land, I have rained curses, because they have betrayed the gods and the covenant."

Grace: "Who is he that speaks and it comes to pass when the Lord has not spoken it? I asked for the last time, are you ready to give your life to Jesus Christ for forgiveness and salvation?

All your fathers are weeping and gnashing their teeths now in eternal hell fire because they died as sinners. He who commits sin is of the devil.

If you also die now you are going straight to hellfire and not the Creator of heaven and the earth.

Jesus died for you, baba, please give your life to him before it's too late. Are you ready?"

{Goloto looked into Grace's eyes}

Goloto: "You mean Jesus can save me?"

Grace: "Yes baba, are you ready?"

Goloto: "No! I have made a covenant with my fathers never to disappoint them, it's a curse upon me and to all my generation."

Grace: "Baba, it's a lie, you have a choice to choose either death or life.

Will you disappoint your ancestors and let God forgive you and accept you into His kingdom or you die and go to hellfire because you don't want to disappoint your forefathers, choose one."

Goloto: "I can't see anything, I saw lightning sparkling into my eyes."

Grace: "Baba, Jesus will take care of that. Are you ready to give your life to Jesus Christ?"

Goloto: "I am ready, please pray for me, I am in pain."

Grace: "Oh, thank You Lord Jesus Christ."

(Grace was leading him to Christ, telling him to repeat after her the prayers and confessions... while she was leading him to Christ Demilade and his three sons came in too.

Immediately Grace led Goloto to Christ she prayed for him. After goloto said his final Amen to the prayers, he died.

Thanks be unto the Lord, Goloto obtained grace. Not every sinner sees that kind of grace

Some would say if they are on their dying bed they would give their lives to Jesus Death is inevitable, you might die at any moment Be prepared for eternity.

Apostle Paul said, having known the judgement of God over sin we persuade all men to be reconciled to Jesus.

We saw Grace persuading Goloto to accept Jesus Christ, of course we can't force sinners to accept Jesus Christ but we can persuade them.

Do you tell unbelievers about Jesus? Do you persuade them to flee from the wrath of God to come?

Do you have compassion on them? Or instead, your character towards them chases them far away from the cross?

Do you yourself know the Lord? Have you given your life to Christ genuinely?

If you have not, come to Him now and receive forgiveness and salvation. And the Lord will receive you in Jesus mighty name

Goloto died but made it to the kingdom of God. There's no sinner God can't save, Christ Jesus hath the power to forgive every sin.

His three sons wept when their father died.. Grace was touched too, tears were flowing down her cheeks,but she wiped them off immediately..

Grace and Demilade encouraged Goloto's three sons, Akin, Ogungbemi and Akorede.

Others were on their way to the forbidden forest, they could hear sounds of legs and voices rushing out but they couldn't see anyone.

They all stood at the front of the forbidden forest, shouting, ringing bells and tambourine.

The students were jumping, screaming and clapping while corper Victoria led the chorus.

This is how the Lord took over the land of Ologun. The demons in the forest fled because power has changed hands

The king ordered that the forest should be cleared..the forest was cleared, many dangerous things were found there. Human skulls, dry bones, native pots, dark water inside the pots, black and red clothes and many more.

But the most surprising part is that every place they stepped their legs to in that forbidden forest blood would come out, it's a land of blood.

The churches and the Corp members gathered together and seriously prayed on the land with fasting, redeeming and nullifying every evil on it with the blood of Jesus Christ.

After that great victory, the Lord caused the government to remember Ologun village after so many years.

The schools was renovated, new and beautiful buildings were built. Hospitals too were renovated, new ones were built.

Good roads from Irinwo village were constructed, and two great companies were built in Ologun village.

The king said the forbidden forest would be called "Ile Oluwa", that is, "The Lord's land."

Big and gigantic auditorium were built on it, great miracles were happening in Ologun village.

The Corp members were set to go back to their various houses, their one year service ended.

Part 5.

(Journey Back Home)

After the victory in Ologun village, that was exactly in the twelve months the Corp members would finish their NYSC.

They were encouraging the converts to be strong in the Lord, it was remaining just one day for them to return to their individual homes.

Paul had left before that time to minister in Lagos. Grace too was set for home, they had contacted a bus from the city that would convey them back to their various homes.

It was on Saturday morning, they corp members spoke with the church leaders and committed all the new converts and the king with his household into their hands.

The principal, the teachers and the students wouldn't wish to leave them, but they had to return home. Some would need to prepare for their masters.

The principal had told the students and the teachers to all come to school to celebrate the Corp members and to bid them farewell

Many of their parents came too, they brought gifts, in fact, lots of gifts for them. Some of the students had been contributing money to get some precious things for the corpers

They made surprises, they were highly celebrated and honoured by everyone. Their coming was a blessing to the land of Ologun

It was just like the missionaries that went to Koto Nkan village. Everybody celebrated them, they were prayed for.

There was no time to receive testimonies from the thousands of students who were there, but few given opportunity to speak.

The principal: "I really want to appreciate the corpers whom the Lord Himself sent to us this time, of course we used to have corpers every year but these ones are not only corpers but missionaries.

About two to three years ago, some corpers were here for their NYSC, some of them impregnated our girls that led to a serious war between the school and the parents.

While some were doing as they liked, some were rude and stubborn. I had to call one of them them one day and asked why they were like that

He said to me it's a free world, everybody is given the privilege to do as he likes and to enjoy himself. They were without focus and purpose

They thought going for NYSC is just for fun, they never knew that it's for a purpose. Some of them contracted disease, were taken back home, and two died later.

But these corpers today have lived a mark in the annals of history of this land, we want to thank God for their lives.

Though we lost two, Mr Emeka and Miss Olabosun. They died as children of God, may their souls continue to rest in peace."

Everybody: "Amen"

The principal: "Please, let's remain silent for a minute to honour these great warriors we lost."

(After that the principal prayed for the corpers)

The students sang for them, melodious songs. They were to leave Ologun village the following morning, very early. That was Sunday

The corpers took pictures with the principal, the teachers, the parents, the king, his household his chiefs and with the students.

It was not easy on the people seeing the corpers leaving them. Toyin, Wura, Tinuke and Amope wept the more. They wanted to follow them

Wura:"Aunty Grace, please permit me to follow. I can't hold it, how do you want me to cope when you leave us alone?". (Sobs)

Grace: "Dear, I promise to visit you people very soon. Besides, you'll soon be writing exams, you have to focus on your studies.

Don't forget everything I have told you, Jesus first in all you do. Have a quality fellowship with Him and face your study, I love you and I will miss you all, please stop crying."

Wura:"We'll miss you too ma'am, thanks for the wonderful time we had together. I will forever remember you, the Lord be with you in Jesus name.

We will meet again someday if Jesus tarries. I hope to see you soon ma'am."

Grace: "Amen, I am missing you already dear." (She embraced her, Wura wept.)

Toyin and others too were weeping, wishing to follow the corpers to the city. But they encouraged and told them they would be visiting them by His grace

When it was on Sunday, very early in the morning, around 4:30am the bus was set to go. The driver had been there on Saturday

Dayo and Grace prayed for some of the students who came that early morning to bid the final farewell

Tears flowing in their faces, even the corpers couldn't hide it, they all wept as they waved their hands.

THE END

We are created for a purpose and that purpose must come to pass. But it depends on individual to make it come to pass by knowing the Lord

We find ourselves in any place for a purpose, your going to school is for a purpose. Live purposefully!

Never befriend sin! Hate with perfect hatred because it's capable of destroying one's destiny

Does the life of the corpers challenge you? Any position you find yourself it's for a purpose

Choose to be a blessing to your and not a burden. That can be made possible if you allow Jesus Christ genuinely into your life as your Lord and your personal Saviour.

If you want to surrender your life to Christ and desire to be used mightily for Him in this end time, more importantly, you want make it to His kingdom, pray these prayers with a sincere and ready heart.

>Lord Jesus Christ, I thank You for Your grace. Please dear Lord, forgive all my sins today, accept me as Your child, use me for Your glory.

Write my name into the book of life and empower me to do Your will, help me to serve You in holiness.

Thanks You Father for the answered prayers, for in Jesus mighty name I pray. Amen

Congratulations...
