Worldliness, A Hindrance

So many Christians will be tied down by the world on the day of the Lord. One can be in sin and knows he is in sin. However, being in bondage of worldliness is not known to the captive because his eyes has being veiled, it takes the holy spirit to unveil his heart, this is why repentance form sin is necessary, it is the first criteria set up by God. Many Christians think they have gotten salvation, but they're lacking knowledge that being in bondage of the world is also being in bondage of sin, it is idolatry.

You see one calling himself born again but still engages in the world, in their songs, activities and all. One cannot be in the world and not be in sin and one cannot be in sin and not be in the world. One who just repented of his sin might think he has overcome sin, but still, entangled in the world, too much worldliness births sin, and when sin is fully grown, such a man becomes an embodiment of demons making it hard for his salvation.

Jesus knew this and so He had always wanted man to be free from sin first, that's the first reason he went in the cross. Worldliness keeps a man bound to sin, but you cannot be free from worldliness without having the holy spirit. It is the holy spirit birthed in a man's heart on genuine acceptance of the word that searches and reveals every worldliness in his heart, he then has to deal with it, he has to let go of it by spending time in God's word to allow the holy spirit sanctify his heart. Sanctification of the heart renews the heart, making it immune to foreign entities of darkness.

Salvation is like a video game, you cannot clear the boss stage without getting through several level of difficulty. Many are so focused on sin ignoring the fact that there is also a spirit that fuels the spirit of sin in a man, " the spirit of the world." That's why many struggle with sin, they are so focused on sin, trying to overcome on their own mental power when they deliberately fuel that sin with another spirit, how can you fight a giant when you're a babe. They have been blinded by the devil so they can't realize there is a spirit of the world where sin gets it's fuel also.

Unless you spend time in God's word to grow His spirit to maturity, your eyes will never be open to see. When a child is born, he is born with his eyes closed at first, but eventually his eyes opens as he feeds and grows, then he has also a discernment of identifying milk. that there is also a bondage of the world that keeps a man in sin.

A Christian cannot truly be free form sin without being free from the world, worldliness cuts him off from God, because worldliness fuels and also births sin. For example; many Christians are entangled in worldly songs which fuels the spirit of lust, anger, weakness, depending on the spirit of sin it wants to feed, even seductive clothing fuels the spirit of lust also.

Worldliness is idolatry and the most common is worldly songs, many religious Christians engages in this also, you cannot serve two masters at same time,
Matthew 22:21

" give back to Caesar what is Caesar's and to God what is God's."

And the world is littered and charged with this spirit of worldliness, it's one of the major fuel for sin in territories or in a man's heart. Men are the cause of these, because we are the ones who gives authorization for spirits entities to invade our realm. When you yield to the devil by charging the atmosphere with worldly songs or absorbing it into you heart, you're releasing spirit of all kinds into the earth realm and anyone who comes under that atmosphere will be influenced by any spirit of sin if he doesn't have a firm foundation in Jesus.

That's why to a man filled with the holy ghost, whenever he comes under the atmosphere of these, he doesn't feel at ease, because there is a supernatural war ongoing between light and darkness. These things are packed with spirits and spirits find expression through symbols, mediums. It is the spirit contained In body that is released.

For one to be free form bondages of the world he must first clear the first stage, he must be totally delivered from the bondage of sin. It is when you're delivered to live no longer in sin, then the holy spirit takes over, he searches the depths of the heart exposing and convicting the heart of whatever is not of God that'll eventually trigger in the end, this is why we Children of God need to grow, to be filled with the holy spirit, he teaches, he guides, he care about our relationship with the Father, he is the relationship adviser between us and the Father.

It is when a man is free from sin and the world he then need to be delivered form the flesh, he needs to dethrone the flesh to manifest the fullness of God. the spirit of sin and the world in a man will surely lead him to hell, but the flesh mostly hinders a man from manifesting the hidden dimensions of God. Still if not self controlled, the flesh can also lead a man to sin. Anyone who wants to manifest the power of God to be called and ordained by God to fulfil His kingdom mandate must dethrone the flesh. He must be a living sacrifice, he must subject his flesh to death everyday to be clothed with the spirit of God

God only use dead men, I'd want to talk about being dead in the flesh, but I won't. Only the few who have sacrificed and journeyed deep enough the holy spirit reveals this sacred. You must be possessed by the holy spirit his in this level, else you'll crash along the way, you must yield in obedience to his every command. Here there is no sin, because you've lived above sin already, however, there are though demands to be met, if the holy spirit tells you to eat once a day you obey, drop your ambition you yield in order for to get where God is taking you. If you fail to yield, you'll become irrelevant to him.

The flesh must be broken if you want to see God, if you're not chiseled and built by the holy spirit, if you don't dethrone the flesh, you cannot have authority over demons and retake the territory of darkness.

This is where fasting comes in, to deal with the flesh you must fast and make sacrifices, as led by the holy spirit, you can't fast without being led, if not it'll be in vain and you'll do it on your own strength, failing at the end without purpose.

The holy spirit designs fasting In different dimensions depending on the person to be transformed, he does any how he see fit, but it all points to the flesh being crush and neutralized to break forth the spirit of God. Yes, food must be involved, your lack of physical food will be replaced by spiritual organic food " the word " and then all other supplements or design he sees fit follows.

After rendering all sacrifices and scale through every trial successfully in the wilderness, then you wait. The Lord sets the time, you don't.
