PROLOGUE

It was on a faithful Sunday morning while I was sitting in my father's brother's house, who was a pharmacist at the time, and I was eating yam. All of a sudden, I heard the footsteps of a man walking into the house. At that time, everyone else had left the house, but I was alone in the house, and I was enjoying my morning meal. It was a left-over yam from the previous night, and I didn't joke with left-over food. I must make good use of it. So while I was sitting down and enjoying the food, I heard footsteps entering the house, but I saw no man. I was afraid and suddenly lost appetite all of a sudden. I wanted to run but I couldn't, and also I wanted to get up, but it looked like all the strength in me had disappeared, and I was so weak that I couldn't even stop shaking my hands.

A man walked to me and said, "My son David, get up and go to church." This voice sounded three times louder with authority which no man in his right senses will dare ignore or disobey. Remember, at that time, I was a Muslim and was practicing and praying as a Muslim, but the voice was irresistible. So, I got up and began to look for a church to attend. I got to one church and the pastor was preaching, I wasn't even listening to him because I was angry. I was in the church but couldn't help myself either, I couldn't go out, though, I wanted to, because I was seriously against Christianity. But after the pastor was done preaching, he asked, "Is there anyone here who want to give his life to Christ?" I stood up with my angry face and heart, and walked to the front, and he said, "Do you want to give your life to Christ?" I didn't answer him which he asked again, three times.

On the third time, I heard a voice in my ear saying, "Take this opportunity or you will lose it," and I said, "Yes I will give my life to Christ," and many people clapped their hands to God. So the pastor led me to Jesus, and after that, I went back and sat down. Beloved, this was the beginning of my journey with the Lord Jesus.

Five years after this experience, He appeared to me again at night one day and told me that He wants to use me as a prophet to the nations and that I owe Him. That story is for another day. After that night, I had an experience where a bright light entered my room, it was ten times brighter than the day light, and it shone so bright that my neighbors had to rush to my room because they couldn't understand what was happening in the room. Inside that light was a voice that spoke to me, saying He wanted to use me as a prophet. He said, “I have made you a prophet of prophets, and I want you to replicate yourself in multitudes in the order of Samuel so that my kingdom on earth may be established.”

The following day, my eyes opened, and the first person I saw, I knew her name, address, her problem, and everything that concerned her. Beyond that, I know things about the prophetic I had never learned from anywhere; but it just driven intelligence. And that has continued up until now. God has been using me to save many lives and restore many destinies.

Introduction

Joel 2:28 - And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

Joel 2:29 - And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

Joel 2:30 - And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.

These scriptures were fulfilled in the book of Acts when the Holy Spirit came upon the apostles and they began to speak in different languages.

From that day until now, God has used many men and women of God in the prophetic ministry. Men have walked on the surface of this earth, showing that God is a speaking God. There is nothing impossible in the realm of God. And these men, who demonstrated that God is still speaking, heard God in different ways and methods. God doesn't speak using one method but He uses several methods, and among them are prophetic codes.

In the past years, I have listened to a few people on the topic of prophetic codes, and I was saddened by the erroneous teachings that are going on about this topic. It is sad that the one teaching these codes knows nothing about the codes or has any experience, but they are just teaching because they want to gain popularity and some cheap access to people's pockets. You can't give what you don't have. It is not possible. Most of them can't even see a fly in the Spirit realm, yet they are teaching people how to see in the Spirit. That's funny.

Luke 6:39 - And he spake a parable unto them, Can the blind lead the blind? Shall they not both fall into the ditch?

No wonder many are falling into the ditch with their colleagues. I know many of you have been to different prophetic schools, yet nothing is happening. A blind man cannot lead a blind man. The one who organized the school himself needs to be schooled.

The Lord has shown me 66 ways we can hear from Him, and I keep discovering more every day because there is no limit to the ways through which God can speak to us. There are uncountable ways through which God speaks to men, and among these many ways, we have vision, dreams, intuition, messages, an audible voice, and PROPHETIC CODES.

However, I will be focusing on prophetic codes in this book. I will limit my light to only prophetic codes while we move into higher dimensions later.

What is the prophetic?
It is accurately predicting what will happen in the future.

Another meaning could be having the nature of prophecy or a prophetic utterance.

What's a code?
It is a system of words, letters, figures, or symbols used to represent others, especially for the purposes of secrecy.

What are prophetic codes?
Prophetic codes predict the future, events, and lives of people using an encrypted system of words, letters, figures, or symbols to represent others, especially for the purposes of secrecy and diversity.

So your understanding of these prophetic codes means you have been given light to understand the secrecy that governs these methods the Lord uses to communicate with men.

Some prophets see in the realms of the spirit, like newspapers, and others sees in a video form or a movie, and the person will be describing whatever they're seeing to the individual, the information that has been revealed. For example, I was listening to the late man of God, TB Joshua, and he said he sees things like a torch light. That light normally comes upon the people, and their problems will show on their chests and he will tell them. I have more than 35 ways I see and hear from God, and every day I am growing.

A prophetic code is just one of the many ways and methods the Lord uses to speak to me, and after understanding this method so well, I decided to also share some of the secrets and truths that govern it so that many who desire to see and hear can take advantage of this method.

It is simple and easy to understand, just like the other methods, but this is different and needs more attention.

PROPHETIC CODES

Code 1: Code of Preparation

Which involves the preparation of every man of God to hear from God. Every man must learn how to stand on top of a mountain and wait for the voice of God. This is where we wait patiently for God to give us instructions so that we may carry out those instructions. It is the prophetic code of waiting.

Habakkuk 2:1-2

I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it.

In this code, we wait patiently for the Word of God to be communicated directly to us before we take any steps. So we stand our watch here, we stand on top of the mountains. In other words, it is talking about the time and season of prayer and waiting. Prayer is necessary at this stage. Before I started ministry, I remember spending 40 days and nights at the mountain just to hear the voice of God, concerning my ministry and the next thing to do. I remember those moments as some of the most amazing moments of my life. I went 11 days without hearing the voice of God and I never gave up on God. I was always available and determined until the 32nd day, when the LORD appeared to me in glory and gave me some instructions concerning my ministry.

Code 2: Code of Music and Art

In Revelation 15:2-3

Revelations 15:2 - And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.

Revelations 15:3 - And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.

From the verses above, you see the saints singing and praising the Lord with harps and musical instruments. Music brings down God's glory on earth.

If you read the Bible, both the Old and New Testament you will find out where men and women of God used musical instruments to gain access to the realm of God.

In 2 Kings 3:15

2 Kings 3:15 - But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.

In this verse, Elisha was asked to prophesy, and the Man asked that they bring him a musician, and you will realize that when the musicians played, the hand of the Lord came upon him. What you need to know is that the hand of the Lord came upon him while the musician was playing, not before or after. So the playing of music can activate your spiritual dimensions.

There are times when I will instruct one of the choristers to lift a song for me, and while they are singing, the Spirit of the Lord will come upon me, and I will begin to see and prophesy.

Sometimes I will just ask the keyboardist to play, and while the keyboardist is playing, my eyes will open and I will begin to see.

If you're a growing prophet, try to add music to your spirit. After prayer, just try to listen to the sound of a piano in a silent and quiet environment. Allow your spirit to soak up the music, and you will be surprised at the dimensions and levels God will take you to.

I sleep with the sound of a piano, and this puts me in control of my dreams. Music has a way of opening our prophetic portals and connecting us to the realm of the spirit. So this is one of the secrets of some prophets. I know some prophets who don't prophesy until someone sings for them. This is the way they get access to the realm of God. I use this code often too, especially when the environment is very hard for me to breakthrough. I switched to worship, and as I continue to worship and praise, the realms will open for me. Hallelujah!!!

Code 3: The Code of Gazing

By definition, the word "gazing" means to look at something attentively, without distraction. It is to look steadily and intently at something. In the Greek context, this word is "atenizo," which is translated in English as, "to strain or stretch your sight towards a certain object of interest."

"And he fixed his gaze and stared at him until he was embarrassed. And the man of God wept."

2 Kings 8:11(ESV)

The Bible says Elisha fixed his gaze, which is his eyes, to a level whereby the person whom he was staring at was now getting embarrassed. Indeed, in any circumstance, having someone stare at you for a long time can be somewhat uncomfortable. It could make you think of many things. By looking intently, the Bible tells us that Elisha received a prophecy concerning the man. He told him that, "You will set free to their fortified places, kill their young men with the sword, dash their little children to the ground and rip open their pregnant women"(2 Kings 8:12).

What you need to understand is that, just as your physical eyes are used to see what is in the physical, God has given you spiritual eyes that can also see what is in the spiritual. The question merely lies in whether or not you have managed to activate them. Almost every person can recall past events that took place in his life. For example, as you are right now, you can decide to think back five years ago and you will see images of all that took place in your life. Given a chance, you would describe in particular detail the things you saw and felt at that time. You can look at the scenery and all that surround you. This ability that you have to see visual memories is what prophets use to see in the spiritual realm and even future events. When you can be so spiritually sensitive and open up your mind to receive mages, the Holy Spirit can deposit images concerning the future into your spirit. You just need to be taught how to do this, and you will succeed. If you can see the past, then it is easy to see the future as well. Anyone who can remember the past can equally grow in their ability to remember the future too.

In the book of 2 Kings 6:17, Elisha made a prayer for his servant Gehazi.

'Oh Lord, I pray, open his eyes that he may see.' And the Lord opened the servant's eyes, and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha."

Being surrounded by a huge army, Gehazi feared for his life and the well-being of the city. But Elisha comforted him by telling him, "Do not fear for those with us are more than those that are with them" (2 Kings 6:16). In the physical sense, they were indeed outnumbered and overpowered, but there was another army that was surrounding Elisha and the city, a spiritual army. It was this heavenly knighthood that was going to ensure that no harm came to them.

When talking about the act of gazing, it goes beyond merely looking with your physical eyes. You ought to look with your spiritual eyes to see beyond what your physical eyes can see. This code is effective when the prophet can learn how to look beyond the physical sight and travel to the spiritual and see things. Gehazi could only see in the physical until the Lord opened him up to see beyond the physical by gazing spiritually.

Gehazi had been gazing, but he was not gazing with his spiritual eyes, but rather with his physical eyes, and that is why he saw defeat instead of victory. When you look at something with your natural eyes that is not a prophetic code. This only allows you to access the natural happenings, while the gazing of spiritual eyes allows you to access the spiritual realms.

Abraham also proves this to be true. He serves as an example of gazing spiritually:

"Then Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son."

Genesis 22:13 (NIV)

He looked up and saw a ram behind him. How can a person look up, but see behind him? This can only happen through using the code of gazing. When you gaze, you begin to see beyond the physical, and you can now see into the spiritual. Hallelujah!!!

I pray that the Lord will begin to give you secrets to this code so you can use it to his glory. I know many prophets who used this code to prophecy and they have been accurate and detailed in this prophetic code. I used this code, but not often.

Code 4: Code of Rest

This is the foundation for the prophetic. It is not just the prophetic but also for preaching, prophesying, singing, and all Godly related activities. If you do not have rest, you will not be able to do much in the spiritual realm.

1 Samuel 3:21 And the LORD appeared again in Shiloh: for the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

Shiloh is a place of rest. Rest is a reliance on God, where you rest on God and do not allow the burdens of this world to weigh you down. You allow God to sort out your problems.

Any man who enters a place of rest enters an atmosphere where he can hear from God. A prophet who has rest in life can enter any realm, you want him to enter. No prophet can do much in the absence of rest, and that is why it is important that we encourage rest. Not just physical rest but spiritual rest and psychological rest as well.

A man who is not at rest may die without accessing the voice of God.

The Garden of Eden was a place of rest. God used to come to Adam for the end of the day to talk with Him, because Adam was at a place of rest. Immediately Adam fell, he couldn't hear from God because he was not at rest. When he heard the voice of God walking in the garden, he ran to hide himself. What sin does is that it makes you unrest. And even it is scientifically proven that when a man lies down, his heart beat changes. When a man lies, even his heart becomes unrest and begins to beat faster and more abnormally.

You must be at rest all the days of your life. It is good for your health and also for you to hear from God.

Code 5: The Code of Confessing your Calling-the job Code.

This is the code we used to create something out of nothing. I call this code the code of creation because, with it, we can create anything. You can determine the climate conditions of atmospheres and nations.

1 kings 2:10

And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

11Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.

12And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.

Elijah simply said, If I were a man of God and fire rushed down, killing the men there, It was not God who killed them, but Elijah, he did that from a particular night in the realm of the spirit. There is a prophetic code we use to create, and that code is code number 5. It was the same code the Lord used to create the world, and in the Bible we see that God used it and even instructed some prophets to equally use that same code. Not just anyone uses this code and gets results. You must know who you are and where you stand in the realm of the spirit. Elijah said, "IF I BE A MAN OF GOD," and fire came down because he was one and he was also standing in the right position in the realm of the spirit. You must be standing well with God before you can use this code to get results.

Ezekiel 37:1-10

[1] The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones,

[2] And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.

[3] And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest.

[4] Again he said unto me, Prophesy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD.

[5] Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live:

[6] And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

[7] So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone.

[8] And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them.

[9] Then said he unto me, Prophesy unto the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.
[10] So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army.
This talks about prophetic positioning.

This is God teaching Ezekiel how to prophesy, and He was the one who was telling Ezekiel what to do at which stage, in reality, the prophet was supposed to know what he was supposed to do. He was already a prophet and the title prophet means, he was speaking on behalf of God. So whatever he said happened, would have happened because he was speaking as a prophet. When we say I am a Man of God that means you are putting your call as a prophet on the line, and the Lord will definitely show up. Know who you are whether as a prophet or a believer, use your tongue and begin to create. This code is not for prophets but for everyone in the kingdom of God. Sometimes when things are not working and moving the way we want, what we need to do is use our mouth and restructure things. We use the words and create, we were created in the image of God to continue creating whatever He started. Hallelujah!!!!

The Barren Muslim couple at Nalerigu

In 2022, I ministered at the Nalerigu Nursing Training College in the North East region of Ghana, and I saw a Muslim couple who had been barren for a long time. I gave them a challenge that if they give their lives to Christ, by this time, next year, they will be carrying their baby in their hands. In fact, I had told them that if they do not have their baby by next year, I will resign from the ministry.

After they gave their lives to Christ, and I prayed for them. They came to give a testimony of being three (3) months pregnant during the crossover into 2023. This March, they are six months pregnant and still healthy.

I made that declaration not because I heard a voice, but because of my faith and my office as a prophet.

Barren for 22 years

I was invited to Kintampo in the middle part of Ghana, to minister. During the three-day service, I prophesied to almost everyone, and the atmosphere was charged. When I was about to end my ministry and hand over the mic to the host pastor, I could see the disappointment in the faces of the host pastor and the associate pastor because the associate pastor was married, and for 22 years, he didn't have a child.

He was very expectant of a prophetic word from me, but I usually do not prophesy to the elders of the church in public except under certain circumstances. I know this pastor had fasted and prayed and was trusting God for a breakthrough, but it seemed as if all hope was lost.

When I noticed the disappointment, I pointed to him and said, "Sir, Next year, by this time, you will have a child. And if you are not holding your child by next year at this same time, I will close down my church."

The pastor was thrown by the power of God to the chairs, and the whole congregation cheered. They were happy of the words from their pastor because they had been with him and knew his plight.

They gave birth according to the prophetic word, to the Glory of God.

Elisha was in Samaria, while they were eating each other because of the hunger, he was quiet. He was building himself to create things in the realm. He wasn't quiet because he wanted to be quiet, but because he was building himself up spiritually and repositioning himself.

My unserious sisters

One day, I visited the village to see how my parents were doing, and upon my entry to the house, I saw my four elderly sisters sitting in the yard, eating, cracking jokes, and laughing. I was surprised because they are all married and supposed to be in their husbands' houses, but here they were. I inquired to know why they were home, and one jokingly said that they had been beaten and chased out from their husband's house. The rest of them laughed and clapped their hands, while I was troubled in my spirit because I knew that it was not normal. I knew an altar was speaking against their marriages, but they didn't seem to know or bother.

I went home and made a declaration that they should be well settled in their husband's houses. A few weeks later, their husband's came for them and returned them to their various married homes.

I don't need to see or hear to make that declaration.

I used to make declarations about building an ultramodern church. I made those faith declarations, and some of my church board used to get worried, to a point that they thought I was joking about it. We got a tent with a 400-seat capacity, but the rains ransacked it.

We laid the foundation for a thousand seats, and Glory be to God, we have built it, and are currently worshipping in it.

I recently came up with another project worth 10 million USD. The church project will include, a hospital, a Bible school, and a lot more. If you look at my church members, you would say we cannot come up with that amount, but in the Spirit realm, we can have it.

Code 6: The Code of Emotions

In John 13:21, the Bible tells us that Jesus was troubled in His Spirit and because of this, He was moved into a dimension of releasing prophecy. He said, "Very truly I tell you, one of you is going to betray me."

When you are prophesying, you need to always pay attention to what the Spirit of God communicates to your emotions. There are many times when I can be ministering in church and then, all of a sudden, I will feel a sharp, piercing pain in my back.

There and then, God makes it known to me that there is someone in attendance who has a problem with his back. I oftentimes call this code, the code of the evangelist. Because most evangelists especially healing evangelists use this code to do wonders and signs. When prophesying, watch out for emotional communication from God. If you're happy for no reason, it means that there is a message God is trying to communicate. If you are also troubled for no reason, that also mean there is a message God is trying to communicate.

Jesus was troubled in His spirit, and all of a sudden, He picked up information that someone wanted to betray him. Sometimes, when I am in front of people, I feel my heart gets very heavy, as though I have just received bad news concerning somebody or something. What many people do not know is that emotions play a huge role in prophecy. There are times when I could be in church, and all of a sudden, I will look at a person and feel an extreme, sharp pain in my stomach. In most cases like that, the Spirit of the Lord will reveal to me that the person in question has been suffering from a problem in the stomach. It could be from cancer or even kidney diseases. This code works hand in hand with the code of gazing. You can only get your emotions tantalized or invoked after you look at someone and begin to feel what he feels. It is as though God takes you out of yourself and places you in the shoes of the person who is before you. And until you can feel to that individual suffering from that problem, you may suffer that pain for a long time, because you are now living in the person's body. So the code of emotions puts you through what the individual is going through for you to be able to discern and attend to the problem.

Be very alert when ministering. Pay attention to sudden changes in your mood and some immediate pains you experience in your body. It could be God speaking to you.

Code 7: The Code of Giving

It is surprising how men of God even relate to giving.

When we talk about giving, people become uncomfortable, suspicious, and a whole lot more.

Giving is your way out. Don't be a prophet who only receives. It will limit your voice beyond certain dimensions. Some spirits give way to people who knows how to give and sacrifice.

In Genesis 14, we see how Abraham gave a seed to King Melchizedek.

He gave him bread and wine, which represents a covenant, just as Jesus did. The bread and wine represent the anointing. Abraham honored the anointing by giving a tithe to the king of Salem, and it worked for him and his descendants.

Never receive an anointing and walk away. It is a transaction, however you are not buying the anointing.

As a man of God, you should be able to tell your church members everything. It might be uncomfortable, but tell them. If you hide it from them, you are not helping them.

You make your way out of poverty; you do not pray out of poverty.

It is wrong to decline an offering or a seed. Some of you are blessed that you do not take offerings. Solomon was blessed, but even the Queen had visited him with plenty of gold and all that. Many kings and queens traveled to him and gave him gifts.

It came to a time when the Queen of Sheba gave Solomon because of that she became very blessed, and they were even competing. She sowed seeds, and the seeds were manifesting for her in both wealth and wisdom.

Proverbs 3:9 Honor the Lord with your substance.

Genesis 14:20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.

The angels never told Abraham, the agenda of God as they were passing by, but after Abraham fed them with the fattest calf, they ate, and as they were about to leave, one said, How can we hide this from Abraham?.

Anytime you give, God allows you into his secrets.

Don't just pray, prophesy and leave. Raise seeds and take offerings. DO NOT MANIPULATE THEM. Do not tell them to bring this or that before God can bless you.

Code number 8

This is the highest code among all the prophetic codes. This code gives you the ability to travel into the future and also into the past. With this code, you can see way back to the time when God created the heavens and the earth. So it is the highest and also the most dangerous code because it's not just about traveling back, but you must be able to travel back to the present. There are some happenings you can travel back to witness that might break you and make your life miserable because of those experiences.

Moses and code number 8
The Pentateuch was written by Moses.

The Pentateuch includes the first five books of the Hebrew Bible: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy. The literary category of the Pentateuch reflects the traditional Jewish grouping of these books together as the Torah. The thematic design of the five books of the Pentateuch can be divided into two unequal parts: Genesis and Exodus-Deuteronomy. Genesis traces the ancestral origins of Israel.

It is composed in narrative form, with no single character dominating the story. Genesis narrates the creation of the world (Genesis 1–11) and the ancestral origins of Israel (Genesis 12–50) through a series of genealogies that narrow from all humanity (2:4a, heaven and earth; 5:1, Adam; 6:9, Noah; 10:1, Noah's sons; 11:10, Shem) to the Israelite ancestors (11:27, Terah; 25:12, Ishmael; 25:19, Isaac; 36:1, Esau; 37:2, Jacob). Exodus through Deuteronomy recounts the Israelite salvation from Egypt, the wilderness journey, and the revelation of law at the divine mountain. These books are a mixture of narrative and law, with Moses emerging as the central character.

The story is framed by his birth (Exodus 2) and death (Deuteronomy 34) and recounts his leadership of the Israelites over two generations. Moses liberates the first generation of Israelites from Egypt (Exodus 5–14), leads them in the wilderness (Exodus 15–18; Numbers 11–21), and mediates divine law at the mountain of God. He repeats the revelation of the law to the second generation on the plains of Moab (Deuteronomy).

Now you need to understand that all these were written by Moses, but the miracle here is that Moses was not there when God created the beginning and all these things, yet he was able to travel back in the realm of the spirit to pick up that information and write it down as instructed by God. What he used here was prophetic code number 8. With this code, you can travel back to any year of your choice and experience events as if they're happening in real time. So a person who is not strong in the spirit but also emotionally strong can be affected by these past bad experiences he may witness. This is why you can see that a prophet will be prophesying, and all of a sudden, he will start to cry. The past is affecting him.

How I Traveled Back to 1845

One day, during a program in Accra at the Cedar Mountain Assemblies of God headed by Rev. Dr. Yennusom Wengam, I was in the realm of the spirit prophesying, and all of a sudden I saw myself in 1845, and the atmosphere was very different from the current atmosphere. I could see years folding up like pages of a book until it got to 1845 then it stopped, and I knew God wanted to say something about this individual. I saw his father's father standing there as a child in the realm of the spirit, he was initiated into some occultic practices, and those practices had really destroyed his children and they were also destroying his grandchildren. Nothing in that house was working, and no one lived beyond the age of 54 because of that covenant that took place, but the Lord led me to those times to stop him from doing what he wanted to do.

The angel had asked me to break the altar that had been raised at that time, to which I did. Their lives have opened and I am glad to announce to you that about 3 of them have married now after that prophetic travel using code 8. So it is possible to travel in the realm of the spirit, and we can easily do that using prophetic code number 8.

Isaiah Traveled into the future.
Isaiah 7:14 - Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.

Isaiah 7:15 - Butter and honey shall he eat, that he may know to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

Isaiah 7:16 - For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land that thou abhorrest shall be forsaken of both her kings.

Isaiah saw the birth of the Savior using prophetic code number 8.

With this code you can travel to the future as well. I have traveled to the future several times in my ministrations. I have several examples of traveling into the future. In fact I do that every single day.

The resurrected soul
Genesis 2:7 - And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

1 Corinthians 15:45 - And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

Revelations 16:3 - And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

The word living soul means a soul that was dead before but now living after the breath of God. If the soul was dead before God's breath, that means we have dead souls around us, it was the breath that gave life to the body. So what makes us extraordinary is the breath of God. What makes us supernatural is the breath of God. The breath of God contains the spirit of God, and that Spirit can help us access information that is beyond the reach of ordinary men and women.

Wherever God breathes, part of Him enters us. God is a cluster of spirits, and those spirits are normally man wherever he breathes.

So that Spirit in you is from a source that can easily travel back to its source when empowered.

Jeremiah 1:4 - Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

Jeremiah 1:5 - Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

How did you know a man before that man was formed?
It is a sign that the man was from God. Jerimiah came out of God. He was God. God knew him because He was referring to His Spirit and the Spirit here is God.

So God prepared the Spirit of Jerimiah to come and now live in the flesh of Jerimiah.

The spirit that was going to occupy the body was prepared.

God is a cluster of Spirits. Whenever a child is to be born, a Spirit from God normally comes out of God and gets prepared to be lowered down into the lower heavens and into the body of man. The spirit that comes from God must go through schooling to be taught how to live in a body. Which means the Spirit is from a source and should be able to travel back to his source.

When the angel appeared to Abraham in Genesis 18,

Genesis 18:10 - And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and, lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah heard it in the tent door, which was behind him.

I noticed that the angel said that by this time, next year, he said that because there needed to be time to prepare Isaac, to be lowered down on earth. The angel could have said in 9 month time because it takes 9 months to give birth and not 12 months. Remember, Isaac is coming from God, and the Spirit coming from God must be prepared and taught how to live in a mortal body.

When you remove a stone from a fire while that stone is still hot and you immediately put the stone inside water, the stone will break into pieces because of the sudden change in environment and atmosphere. The same way, when the Spirit comes from God and enters the mortal body, immediately that body will die, because of the presence that the spirit will come with. So the Spirit that left God needs time to be trained on how to live in the mortal body before he enters that body. Some believed the spirit needed one month, but I believe it needs three months based on the message of the angel to Abraham and also to Zachariah and Elizabeth.

In the case of Adam, it is because he hadn't fallen yet, so the Spirit was not affected by the body. So when God breathed straight into him, he was acting like God and had the same intelligence as God.

THE SAME THING HAPPENS WHEN A MAN DIES.

Abraham's bosom is an incubator.
Dead souls go to Abraham's bosom to be schooled and fathered before they are sent to heaven. Before they go back to where they came from, they must go through Abraham's bosom to be trained on how to live well and purified from all the pain and bitterness they went through while they were on earth.

So Abraham is the father of those souls.

So the cycle goes like this:

FROM GOD-ADAPTATION-MORTALITY-ABRAHAM-BOSSOM (INCUBATOR) - BACK TO GOD.

ABRAHAM IS MANAGING THAT REALM.

Atmosphere where he conditions individuals for supernatural encounters.

Bosom connotes part of fathering.

WHAT DETERMINES YOUR STAY IN ABRAHAM BOSSOM IS WHAT HAPPENS TO YOU ON EARTH.

Remember Lot.

2 peter 2:8

For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds ;)

Imagine you are in Abraham's bosom and seeing souls coming into the place with different experiences.

Some tired, some frustrated, some angry, and some are bitter and hurt. Some disappointed and full of vengeance.

Your soul can be vexed by hearing and seeing.

And staying longer depends on your earthly experience.

YOUR SPIRIT CAN MULTIPLY.

CHILD that have DNA physically and spiritually, have spirit too.

YOU ONCE EXISTED AS YOUR FATHER.

INHERITING EXISTENCES

LEVITES PAID TITHE WHILE THEY WERE IN THEIR FATHERS LOINS. (ABRAHAM)

Why do you go through what your father had gone through? Because you once lived with your father. You once existed with your father.

The lustful desires you pursue can sometimes be traced to your father and your grandparents. Spiritual DNA is real and can be transferred as well. Like Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Abraham lied (Genesis 20:2).

Isaac lied (Genesis 26:1).

Jacob lied (Genesis 27).

Code 9: The code of discernment

"Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the Lord hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me."

Isaah1:2

The passage above declares that heaven and earth can hear. However, the earth was commanded to pay attention. This means that the spirit hears, but the vessel or organ that gives attention is the physical ear. Therefore, you only need to take note that you give attention to the voice of God with your physical ear, but you hear with your spiritual ear.

The scripture could not have stated that the earth was supposed to pay attention because earth refers to that which is physical. This means that there was something physical that God was addressing. If people do not pay attention to their physical ears, they might not hear the voice of God. One might ask how I can hear the voice of God with a physical ear. It is not only about opening your physical ears. It also takes spiritual alertness. This is when both the physical ear and the spiritual one are open and very attentive, and are working hand in hand.

"But the Lord of hosts revealed Himself in my ears, This sin absolutely will not be forgiven you until you die, says the Lord God of hosts."

Isaiah22:14

The revelation of God in Prophet Isaiah's ears means that he was spiritually alert and his ears were open. Many people have missed the voice of God because they were not spiritually attentive, hence, God did not reveal himself in their ears. The fact that one cannot hear God does not mean that He does not speak. The Bible says that in every matter, God speaks.

"For God does speak—now one way, now another—though no one perceives."

Job 33:14

If you aspire to hear the voice of God, you need to be in a position where you can discern and distinguish his voice from the other voices. Sometimes the enemy is very cunning; he can also speak to the people of God. For those who do not know the voice of God, they can mistake it for the voice of the evil one. Now, the Spirit of discernment plays a major role because sometimes one can mistake the voice of God as one of the evil ones because He might be speaking something that one does not want to hear or that is contrary to what one believes.

That is why, in the book of Matthew, Jesus made it clear that His sheep hear His voice, and they know it without question.

The moment that your spirit is in constant fellowship with the Spirit of God, you will never mistake His voice for another. You will be able to clearly discern when it is God speaking or when it is the enemy speaking. Take note as well that God does not only speak in an audible voice. Thus, there is what we call the Rhema word and the logos. The spoken word (logos) also contains the voice of God. I always mention that no prophecy exceeds the voice of God. He does not change; He stands by His Word. Every prophetic word that is uttered should be based on the Word of God. There is a prophecy for everyone in the Bible. In most circumstances, the answers that you might be looking for are just engulfed in the Scriptures, God is still speaking, and his voice can also be heard audibly in the Scriptures.

Apart from the Word, God can also use situations to speak to us. This is common. Many predicaments that mainly befall Christians are because they cannot interpret situations.

Naomi is one good example of someone who failed to interpret God. She left the land of abundance and went to the land of frustration. Hence, she changed to Mara (bitterness)

(Ruth 1:14). When her husband died, she could have interpreted that she was supposed to go back to her land. She stayed, and later on, her two sons passed away too, without leaving any heirs. However, when she went back to Bethlehem, where God wanted her to be, she became a grandmother, and she was restored.

Many people live a life of misery because they do not hear what God is saying through their situations. Jonah was told to go to Ninevah; God spoke audibly. When he went to Tarshish, God spoke to him again through a raging storm. In other words, God spoke to Jonah twice (Jonah 1). First, it was audible, and secondly, it was through a situation. In the case of Jonah, God was quite audibly, as He was not silent. Pray, therefore, for the spirit of discernment, that you may be able to detect instructions carefully whenever He speaks to you, where they are audible, through a situation, or through His Word.

Code number 10

This code deals with numbers, ages and so many other details in the realm of the spirit.
Where you begin to see numbers, ages, and dates of birth in the realm of the spirit. 0123456789
And these numbers carry prophetic meanings, in the spiritual realm, and they speak to the prophet. So, any prophet who has an understanding of these numbers will be able to use them and prophesy. Numbers carries prophetic meanings even in the Bible, we have different numbers that communicate different meanings to our realms.
The first time I saw these numbers, this was the communication I received from the Holy Spirit. Though this does not become a doctrine, because it was my experience and that should be a doctrine but for learning purposes, I want to share it with you so that you better understand what I am communicating.
1 1 means father is alive and mother is alive.
1 0 means father is alive and mother is dead
0 1 means father is dead and mother is alive.

0 0 means father is dead and mother is dead.

The Meaning of Numbers: The Number 888

The profound meaning of the number 888 is directly linked to the manifestation of God in the flesh to save mankind from its sins. As Joseph ponders whether to divorce his new but pregnant wife, Mary, an angel appears in his dreams to alleviate his concerns. This messenger informs him that his wife ". . . shall give birth to a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus" (Matthew 1:21).

Jesus' name, in the original Greek language from which the New Testament was written, is spelled I (Iota), η (Eta), σ (Sigma), ο (Omicron), υ (Upsilon), and σ (Sigma) or Ιησουσ (Strong's Concordance #G2424). Their numeric equivalents of 10, 8, 200, 70, 400, and 200 add up to 888.

Surprisingly, other 888 related Bible names used for Jesus also have a factor of eight within them when we add the numeric equivalents of the Greek letters. These include Christ (1480 or 8 times 185), the Lord (800 or 8 times 100), the Messiah (656 or 8 times 82), and others.

The Meaning of Numbers: The Number 999

The meaning of the number 999 centers around God's Holy Spirit, the power (not person) through which he accomplishes his will. It can symbolize the prophetic spiritual glory of the Godhead and the expression of its perfect character in the life of every called and converted Christian.

To a much lesser extent than above, 999 can also represent the manifestation of spiritual power from either a good or an evil source. It can also symbolize God's righteous judgment.

The first nine of number 999 reveal the primary gifts of God's spirit as delineated by the Apostle Paul in the book of Galatians. Note below that Paul says that these are the fruit, not fruits, of the spirit. This singular form of the word means all the characteristics he lists are available through the unifying power God generously offers to all true believers.

The Meaning of Numbers: The Number 555

In Scripture, there is insufficient use of multiple number fives, such as 555, to determine an overall meaning. It is used, however, in relation to Moses and to Israel's wilderness tabernacle. 555 can also be found in Abraham's attempt to save Sodom and in God's judgment for lying to him!

The fifth book of the Bible is named Deuteronomy, a name that means "fifth book." Its fifth chapter and fifth verse (555) state the following about Moses and his role in God's plan:

I (Moses) stood between the Lord and you at that time to show you the word of the Lord, for you were afraid because of the fire, and did not go up into the mountain . . . (Deuteronomy 5:5, HBFV).

The Meaning of Numbers: The Number 222

The possible meaning of multiple number twos (e.g., 222, 2222, 2:22, and so on) in the Bible is derived from the creation of Eve and Jesus return to earth. It is also linked to the Jubilee Year, a joyous time when land was returned to its original owners, and to the Psalms.

Both Luke 22:2 and 22:22 (a use of 222 and 2222) are linked to the murder conspiracy against Jesus. The second verse of Luke 22 is one of the only places where it is recorded that people were actively seeking to kill him (see also Matthew 26:4, John 5:18, 7:1) before his arrest. Verse 22 of the same chapter reveals that Christ, at His last Passover, knew all along who was the person who would betray Him to the religious authorities.

Same-number appearance consistently for some time can also mean the presence of angels around your environment or when angels try to speak to you.

Code 11: The Code of Obedience.

"If you are willing and obedient, you will eat the good things of the land." Isaiah 1:19
This is where the Lord begins to speak to you because of your obedience to the things of God. There are some dimensions you cannot access in the realm of the spirit until you are ready to obey the voice of God. Yes, you can access the voice of God because you are obedient.

A relationship is built on two pillars: Love and trust. You cannot love someone deeper than you can trust them. Trust is built on the truth. Paul states in 2 Timothy 3:7 that in the last days people "are always learning but never come to the knowledge of the truth." This describes our culture. There has never been a time in history where there was so much learning going on and so little truth. In John 14, Jesus declares that He is the truth. (Inserted at the bottom of the message.)

To love, you must have trust. Trust is based on the truth. The truth is revealed through action. Talk is cheap. Words are not to be trusted. Action reveals the heart of a person. Action validates love. This is true in all relationships, including our relationship with God.

Five times in John 14-15, Jesus says, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." He then lays out for them the 5 benefits of walking in obedience before God.

Benefits of Obedience
Obedience leads to power in the Holy Spirit -14:15-17.
1. Jesus begins with this recurring theme statement: "If you love me you will keep my commandments." Then He introduces the first benefit of walking with Christ.

2. "I will ask the Father and He will give you another"- there are two possible meanings of another. One is another that is not of the same kind. The Greek word here, though, means "the exact, identical kind." Jesus says that He will ask the Father, and the Father will give us a clone of Jesus.

3. "Advocate or counselor"- the Greek word literally means "one called alongside to help." The Holy Spirit is given to us to come along with us and help us live out our faith. How does He give us help? He leads us into all truth. We will always have access to the perfect truth in all situations.

4. He will never leave you. The world does not have access to the Holy Spirit. He is a gift to believers from God to empower them to live by faith and walk in truth. He lives in us. He will never leave us.

5. When we were saved, God gave us the gift of the Holy Spirit to live within us until we see Jesus face to face. He gives us the strength to obey God. The more we walk in obedience to God, the more powerful the work of God is in our lives. However, when we begin to walk in disobedience, the power of the Holy Spirit is lessened within us. He doesn't leave us; He just goes quiet. This is the cycle of obedience and disobedience. Don't miss the importance of this truth. The more I obey, the more power I have to obey, the less I obey the less power I have to obey. There is a reset button. It is called confession and repentance.

6. Take a few moments and think about the value that the Holy Spirit brings to your daily life. Now look at how the Holy Spirit validates your obedience. He does this by pointing us back to God's Word and revealing truth.

Obedience leads to revelation.

1. Jesus tells His disciples that He will see them again after the resurrection. He is not abandoning them as orphans. Then He gives the same refrain again. "Those who accept my commandments and obey them are the ones who love me."

2. Jesus gives the second benefit of obedience- "I will reveal myself to the obedient." Obedience leads to revelation from Jesus. Jesus says that when we authenticate our love for God through obedience, we will receive the revelation of Jesus. Obedience reveals my love and allegiance. It is not the reverse. We don't obey our way into loving God. Obedience without love is legalism. When we fall in love with God, obedience becomes a natural response. When we walk out of obedience based on our love for God, Jesus promises to reveal Himself to us.

3. How does Jesus reveal Himself to us? The Word, friends, circumstances, prayer, and intuition. Obedience opens the pathway to communication between God and me.

4. Matthew 7:3-5. Once I remove the log from my eye, then I can "see clearly." What enables me to see clearly? Obedience.

Obedience leads to intimacy with God.

1. Judas asked, "Lord why will you reveal yourself only to us and not to the world?" Jesus response: "All who love me will do what I say. We (my father and I) will come and make our home with each of them."

2. This is a beautiful word picture painted by Jesus. God wants to make His home in the hearts of the obedient. Home is the place of family. It is comfortable. It is where we go at the end of the day to enjoy those who love us most and "kick our shoes off." It is a place of safety and security. It is a place of intimacy and love. That is where God wants to live. He wants to live in every part of our "house."

Obedience leads to peace.

1. Jesus wants to leave us a gift- peace of mind. It is a gift the world cannot give. His (He who is love), coupled with His peace, has enabled us to live in freedom from fear.

2. It is the peace that passes all understanding (Philippians 4:7), and it is a gift of obedience.

3. There are two rulers: the ruler of this world (Satan v.30), and the ruler of the universe (Jesus Christ). Jesus has all authority over everything. Satan has no power over Jesus. When we walk in obedience, Satan has no power over us either. The result is peace. The first thing we lose when we sin is our peace.

Obedience leads to fruitfulness.
The fruit of obedience is the fruit that comes from remaining in Christ. Obedient Christians are fruitful Christians. We have fruit in relationships. We have spiritual fruit. We have the fruit of the Spirit (Galatians 5:22-23). The fruit of obedience is an incredible blessing that God gives those who walk with Him.

So the prophetic code of obedience is a code we use to access the voice of God. It is impossible to obey God, and you will not have access to his voice.

Code 12: The code of signs

God sometimes uses signs to relay important messages to His people, and for this reason, one has to have the capability to interpret what one sees. God can give you a sign, and you might fail to depict the meaning of the sign and end up missing Him and what He is saying. The code of signs requires an inter coordination of both a physical and spiritual sign. You can see some things physically, but they might not have the same meaning spiritually. In the prophetic ministry, there is the use of signs and wonders. These are the things that pinpoint and showcase the presence of God in a specific area or provide confirmation that God has spoken. Many times, people tend to get off-guard or stray away because they hear something and think that it is God who has spoken when it is the enemy. Signs, therefore, distinguish the voice of God from the other voices, and they erase any doubt that a person might have.

"Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold; the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel."

Isaiah 7:14

There was a time when Jerusalem found itself in the middle of attacks from King Rezin and King Pekah. The people panicked and ran away for their safety, while some took shelter in trees. Then God spoke to Isaiah and told him that the people were not supposed to be afraid, as He was going to protect the city of Jerusalem and its inhabitants. Imagine that they were in a crisis and God told them to calm down; that could have been a bit controversial.

Thus, the Lord told Ahaz to ask for a sign so that God could prove that indeed it was He who had spoken. God insisted on giving Ahaz a sign, even though he had refused to ask for a sign from Him. The sign that He gave them was a prophecy. This implies that there are spiritual signs in the Spirit that, if interpreted, can give one prophecy. Many have been led to think that signs are only the physical activities that happen.

However, in the prophetic, prophecy is a sign that God is present. Many times, people Miss God because they wait for only the physical signs.

Prophecy is a spiritual sign in the sense that when it comes to pass, one will know beyond doubt that indeed God spoke. The fact that God told Ahaz that a virgin was going to bear a son means that His Word never fails, as it happened just as the prophecy narrated. As a prophet of God, every time that God gives me a prophecy, I do not even doubt it because I know that it is a sign that God is with me. Many people go to church and miss the move and presence of God, they keep praying and asking for Him to show Himself so that they know that He is with them. The main problem is that they do not know that the fact that there is a prophecy means that God is available and present. However, there are times when the spiritual signs are accompanied by the physical ones that are visible to the human eye.

"The Lord answered, 'I will be with you, and you will strike down all the Midianites, leaving none alive. Gideon replied, 'If now I have found favor in your eyes, give me a sign that it is you talking to me'."

Judges 6:16-17

When the Israelites were under the oppression of the Midianites, God sent an angel to tell Gideon that He was going to use him to deliver Israel from the Medians. Gideon was puzzled. He was from the weakest clan in the whole of Israel (Manasseh's tribe). On top of being from the weakest tribe, he was also the last in his family, so to him, the prophecy that he was going to be used by God needed a physical sign to accompany it. Yes, there are instances where people can ask for signs so that they can confirm prophesies.

The signs that usually accompany prophecy can either be primary or secondary. Primary signs are those that take place with immediate effect after a prophecy is given.

For example, I could be ministering in the church and locate a woman who is having a problem with her sight. I could prophesy the origin of the problem and immediately declare healing. If the woman regains her sight immediately, then it is an assurance; a sign that the prophecy has been confirmed.

On the other hand, secondary signs, refer to those signs that will take place in moments, days, weeks, months, or even years, after the prophecy is given.

For example, I prophesied to one woman who was barren for about 24 years of receiving a baby, and I told her what would happen before she conceived the baby. And whatever I said came to pass. She finally conceived after 7 months and gave birth to a baby, as she had prophesied.

"Therefore the Lord Himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin shall conceive and bear a Son, and shall call His name Immanuel."
Isaiah 7:14

This is when God begins to speak to us using signs and symbols. God speaks most often using signs.
God sometimes uses signs to relay important messages to His people, and for this reason, one has to have the special ability to interpret what one sees. God can give you a sign, and you might fail to depict the meaning of the sign and end up missing Him and what He is saying. The code of signs requires the inter coordination of both physical and spiritual signs. You can see some things physically, but they might not have the same meaning spiritually. In the prophetic ministry, there is the use of signs and wonders. These are the things that pinpoint and showcase the presence of God in a specific area or provide confirmation that God has spoken.
Many times people tend to get off guard or stray because they hear something and think that it is God who has spoken when it is the enemy. Signs, therefore, distinguish the voice of God from the other voices, and they erase any doubt that a person might have, for example, three years ago that I gave a prophecy concerning some of the political issues that are currently taking place in our surrounding African countries. At that time, to the physical eye, it may have seemed too far-fetched, but God has confirmed the prophecy through the various signs that we witness today. God is a God of many abilities, and in His timing, He uses signs and wonders to confirm the Word that He speaks for you and through you. Always be on the lookout, therefore, to see his mighty hand moving.

Code 13: The code of testimony.

Isaiah 8:20
To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them.
21 And they shall pass through it, hardly bestead and hungry and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward.

Revelation 19:10
And I fell at his feet to worship Him. And He said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

In this prophetic code, we use the testimony of Jesus to prophesy. Any prophesy outside of Jesus is not prophecy. Any prophetic word given must agree with the person and the character of Jesus, and it must also agree with the Word of God and what has already been communicated.

Code 14: The Code of Fearing the Lord.

I am sure you are familiar with the verse, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of all wisdom.” (Proverbs 9:10) Wisdom is a helpful insight into reality. Thus, it is also, in essence, prophecy. You cannot talk about being used in the prophetic if you do not utilize the gift of wisdom.

Prophecy, in Greek, is a word that means a discourse emanating from divine inspiration that declares the purposes of God, whether by reproving and admonishing the wicked, comforting the afflicted, or revealing things hidden, especially by foretelling future events. But this cannot be communicated anyhow, and the parables given cannot be interpreted anyhow. It takes the wisdom of God to ensure that prophecy is dished out without any unnecessary complications.

Proverbs 9:10 says, “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.” This verse teaches that the fear of God is the foundation of true wisdom. All other types of learning are worthless unless built upon a knowledge of the Lord Himself, which brings me down to the center of this chapter - the fear of the Lord. When we talk about fearing the Lord, we talk about having and keeping in mind “the continual awareness that our loving heavenly Father is watching and evaluating everything we think, say, and do” (Psalm 139:2). Fearing the Lord means having severance from the creator of all creation. Acknowledging that He alone is God and, in His wisdom, there can be no searching or understanding. As Jesus told each of the seven churches in Revelation 1-2, “I know your works,” nothing escapes His attention, and that alone should make you aware of who He is. It is when you fear the Lord that He can trust you with information concerning His people and the church.

God knows that if you fear Him, you will not only have the wisdom to execute what He requires you to, but you will also be careful enough to keep secret the mysteries He entrust to you.
Romans 1:21-22 speaks of those who "neither glorified Him as God nor gave thanks to Him, but their thinking became futile, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Although they claimed to be wise, they became fools." This is a description of people who try to obtain wisdom while ignoring God - not fearing Him. It cannot be done for the simple reason that God is the source of wisdom. If you want to remain wise, do not ignore or overlook the role that God plays in your life as a minister of the gospel.

The link between the fear of God and wisdom means we cannot possess wisdom even if we recreate God in our image, making Him into someone who has no power or authority over us. When the reality of God's true nature causes you to fall in worship, you are then in the right position to gain wisdom. Wisdom is merely seeing life from God's perspective and responding accordingly. Wisdom is a priority, and we are told to seek it above all (Proverbs 3:13). Do not get me wrong, without the fear of the Lord, we may gain knowledge of earthly things and make some practical choices for this life, but we will be missing the one ingredient that defines a wise person. Even the rich man had a "wise" and practical plan for his profits, but God said to him, "You fool!" because the farmer's plans were made with no thought of God and eternity (Luke 12:16–21). When we incorporate the fear of the Lord into every moment of our lives, we make decisions based on His approval. We live with the knowledge that the Creator of the universe is intimately involved in our every move. Let me just take it a step further and narrate that the fear of the Lord is directly proportional to your operation in the Spirit. The greater the fear, the higher the prophetic elements that will be entrusted to you.

Code 15. Invoking the consciousness of the angel.

This is the prophetic code where you begin to travel with an angel of the Lord to places. The angel of the Lord will show many places and details. This is where you are able to attract the attention of the angel.

Code 16: Code of facing one direction

Genesis 2:8

And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

“Now when Daniel learnt that the decree had been published, he went home to his upstairs room where the windows were opened towards Jerusalem…”

Daniel 6:10

When Daniel was captured with the other Israelites and they were made captives in the land of Babylon, he did not stop receiving the grace of God and tap into the prophetic because when he prayed, he always faced the land of Jerusalem. If you take a closer and more detailed look at the world map, you will discover that Jerusalem is geographically in the east.

In simpler terms, Daniel was just strategically positioning himself so that he could tap better into the prophetic. He had mastered the concept of facing in a perpendicular direction towards the east.

I once spoke on the subject of the four winds of God. However, I would like to elaborate more on the eastern wind because it comes from the eastern direction. The east wind brings judgment. However, judgment requires discernment.

One cannot pass a correct judgment if one does not have discernment, so I will emphasis on discernment.

“And all the Israel heard of the judgment that the king had rendered, and they stood in awe of the King because they perceived that the wisdom of God was in him to do justice.”

1 Kings 3:28

Solomon was very young, but he was known as the wise judge who managed to solve the dispute between the two women who came to him with the issue of maternity. In those days, there were no hospitals or laboratories to perform a DNA test on the child. However, discernment helped him recognize the birth mother of the child. Likewise, as a prophet of God who has mastered the prophetic code of facing the perpendicular direction, I can precisely tell whom the parent of the child is in any given circumstance.

To perform what I call spiritual DNA, I use the prophetic code number eight. Hence, we can pass precise DNA results to mention the actual duration of pregnancy.

The wise men were some of the first people to see Jesus when he was born, and no one told them that there was going to be a king in Bethlehem. These men were from the east, and they saw a star. They were guided by what they saw while they were in the east, and that was the star.

Prophetically, one can also see things that no one has heard of or seen because they are strategically positioned towards the east. Using the prophetic code number eight, one can see the things that no one else can.

Imagine that, the wise men from the east were the first ones to see Jesus and gave Him gifts before the priests could see Him through strategic positioning.

There is direction when you face it becomes east to access the voice of God.

You hear the voice of God from the east, and then you talk to the person. The person will not stand to your east but rather in front of you, and then you will hear from your left ear.

Code 17: The Code of Colours

The moment you start to notice multiple colors and their meanings, as well as being able to use them and prophesy, is when you reach Code 17. Different colors have their own distinct meanings, and when they appear to us, they are communicating something to us. Given that you are a prophet, you ought to be aware of the fact that colors are utilized for our benefit.
The point at which you start to perceive colors and how they are interpreted. The prophetic meanings of the colors green, yellow, white, and red are also discussed.
Geographical features and color spectrums...
The essential colors

- Red represents blood.
- The color yellow represents faith and glory. Anointing oneself. The trials.
- "Gold" refers to everything that is useful.

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanched.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

Code 18

The point at which you take your consciousness and divide it into two parts is bilocating. The situation in which you are present in the church as well as at your own home at the same time happens here. Either you have used this prophetic code yourself or you have witnessed someone else using it. I am aware that a great number of prophets are familiar with this code.
Additionally, there are instances in which the individual will travel to the residence of another person and then proceed to describe the residence of the individual. Using this prophetic code, certain prophets would sometimes go to the extent of invading people's homes and even unlocking their refrigerators and bedrooms, as well as a great deal of other information that is contained within the house.

In the second king 5:20

Yet, Gehazi, who was a servant of Elisha, the man of God, made the following statement: “Behold, my master has spared Naaman, this Syrian, by not receiving at his hands that which he brought; however, as the LORD lives, I will run after him and take some of him.”
Consequently, Gehazi followed Naaman's footsteps. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him and asked, “Is everything all right?”
22 And he stated, “Everything is fine.” My master has dispatched me with the following message: “Behold, even now there are coming to me from Mount Ephraim two young men who are the sons of the prophets; I pray that you will give them a talent of silver and two different garments.”
In addition, Naaman advised, “Be content, and take two talents.” “And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, along with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him,” he said.
24 And when he arrived at the tower, he took them from their hands and placed them in the house. After that, he released the soldiers, and they went their separate ways.
25. However, he entered the room and stood in front of his lord. And Elisha questioned him, “Gehazi, from what source do you originate?” And then he added, “Your servant did not go any further.”
In addition, he addressed him by saying, “Was not my heart with thee when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee?” It is a time to receive money, clothing, olive yards, vineyards, sheep, oxen, menservants, and maidservants. Is it also a time to receive olive yards and vineyards?
As you can see, the prophet Elisha, who was a man of God, was present in the home. However, he stated that his heart went with you when you went there. He witnessed everything that was taking place there, and he described it in great detail.
Bilocation is the ability to be in two different places at the same time, and this is what we refer to as his ability to bilocate. Elisha was able to see everything, including the information that Naaman had given him. Look, this code is not only interesting but also has the potential to be quite effective.

Code 19

You begin to ask angels to run errands for you and also to transfer money and arrange favorable circumstances for you. And relay messages. In this prophetic code, we rely more on angelic assistance. Angels are ministering spirits that are sent to minister to us. So any prophet who understands the ministry of angels can easily master this prophetic code and do marvelous things. You can send angels to run errands for you and to carry out some assignments in your life.

Exodus 23:20

Behold, I send an angel before you to guard you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared.

God said behold, I will send an angel. We can equally assigned angels to run errands for us because they are our ministering spirits.

Hebrews 1:14
Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?
So angels are supposed to minister to us because that is what they were created for, so man of God, feel free to ask them to carry out some important assignments if the need arises.

Code 20

This is the point at which you start to hear names, conversations, and words that have been said in the past.

The prophetic code number is 20. This is the point at which the person starts to go to different places and is able to recognize conversations that took place in the past. In addition, God is the one who has spoken the words that have been spoken in the past. As a result of the fact that God spoke to them, they are still present in their surroundings.

In the realms of God, there is no such thing as timing; therefore, if God were to speak fifty years ago, it would be as if he had spoken fifty years ago today.

Therefore, there are occasions when prophets can go to a place and pick up some communication in the realm of the spirit, leading them to believe that it took place at that particular time. However, God had already spoken many years ago, and the prophet is only now gaining access to the knowledge.

The Prophet is able to travel into the past, which may be five years ago, twenty years ago, or fifty years ago, and pick up knowledge that the Lord has said, even though there was no one present to pick up such information. This is exactly what happens in prophetic code 20, which is where the Prophet has the power to travel.

Furthermore, because the prophet is now in that environment, he is able to pick up the information and then relay it to the person whom the information specifically belongs to. I recall that there was a day when I traveled to Tamale, and when I entered the house of the person who had invited me, the person actually invited me to pray for him since he was going through some difficulties in his life. I did so. Consequently, as soon as I walked into the residence of that individual, I realized that I was hearing voices, and I had no idea where the voices were coming from.

Nevertheless, all of a sudden I became aware of the fact that the Lord had already spoken about their home and that the voice had been said in the past, approximately fifty years ago. So I asked them who their father was, and they mentioned the name of their father. At the same time that they mentioned the name of their father, the Lord also gave me a name. The name I mention is in fact their grandfather, as they have confirmed. The Lord started to tell me that he had already told their grandfather that he was going to prosper the house, and the voice that I am hearing is not the voice of today but rather the voice of fifty years ago. However, I was still able to hear the voice in the air, as if God were speaking on that particular day; therefore, this is the twenty-first prophetic code.

You have the capacity to travel back in time and listen in on conversations that took place between God and other people who were not present at the time. There are moments when I have the ability to travel into the past, and when I do so, I will be able to listen to the conversation that took place between God and Moses, as well as the conversation that took place between God and another individual. The discourse that took place between God and the prophet Isaiah before the world began. I was not present at that meeting, but I was able to pick up on the talk that took place because I employed the prophetic code 20, which allows me to travel back in time and listen to conversations and discussions that took place many years ago, even before I was born.

Therefore, the prophetic code 20 is considered to be one of the most potent codes in the realm of the prophets. In this context, prophets make use of the code in order to retrieve knowledge and conversations from the past. Through repeated application of that prophetic code, I have been successful in achieving my goals. Praises to God.
