A: And where is it? Is the location good?

B: Oh, yeah. It's near the train station, so it's more easy to get to work. And I like the neighborhood too. It has a lot of trees and is beautifuler. The neighborhood is also more cleaner.

A: How many bedrooms are there?

B: Well, there are three bedrooms. One bedroom is smaller from the other two. It's noisyer too. But the rest of the apartment is perfect. Why don't you come and see it this weekend?

A: That sounds like a good idea.

ANNIE: Okay. Grandma, are you going to visit us this weekend?
MARY: No, I'm not. I'm going to visit Uncle Steve.
ANNIE: Is Grandpa going to go with you?
MARY: Yes, he is. Why?
ANNIE: Because I'm bored. Mom has a new job, and we never do anything fun.
MARY: Let me talk to your mother.
ANNIE: She isn't here. She's going to be late tonight. Do you want to talk to Jeremy?
MARY: Why? Where's your Dad? Is he going to be late tonight too?
ANNIE: Yeah. They're both going to come home late.
MARY: Well, don't worry. I'm going to talk to both of them.

A: How's your new school? Do you have to follow a lot of new rules?
B: Oh, yeah. The worst is that we must be there early—at 8:00 AM. That means I have to leave home at 6:30, and my mother has to drive me. She's not happy.
A: Does she have to pick you up?
B: No, she doesn't. I take the bus home. The good thing is that I don't have to wear a uniform to this school. I can wear jeans and a t-shirt.
A: What about homework? Do you have a lot?
B: Of course. And I mustn't forget it, or I have to stay after school for two hours.
