100 Words Every Adult Should Know

1. Acquiesce – agree silently or reluctantly.
2. Acronym – abbreviation formed from initials.
3. Ambiguity – multiple possible meanings or uncertainty.
4. Analogy – comparison highlighting similarities.
5. Anachronism – something misplaced in time.
6. Andragogy – methods/principles of adult learning.
7. Antithesis – direct opposite or contrast.
8. Antonym – word with opposite meaning.
9. Articulate – express clearly and effectively.
10. Assonance – repeated vowel sounds in words.
11. Benchmarking – measuring performance against a standard.
12. Brainstorming – generating ideas in a free-flowing way.
13. Circumspect – cautious, considering all circumstances.
14. Clandestine – secret or covert.
15. Cognition – mental processes of understanding.
16. Collaborate – work jointly on a project.
17. Colloquial – informal, everyday language.
18. Connotation – implied or emotional meaning.
19. Contrived – artificially formed or forced.
20. Conundrum – difficult puzzle or problem.
21. Correlation – relationship between two variables.
22. Criterion – standard or principle for judgment.
23. Cumulative – increasing or growing in quantity.
24. Curriculum – structured course of study.
25. Deference – respectful submission or regard.
26. Developmental – relating to growth or progress.
27. Dialect – regional variation of language.
28. Diction – word choice and phrasing.
29. Didactic – intended to teach or instruct.
30. Dissertation – lengthy, formal research paper.
31. Divergent – differing or moving apart.
32. Egregious – extremely bad or shocking.
33. Eloquence – fluent, persuasive speaking/writing.
34. Emergent – newly appearing or developing.
35. Empathy – understanding another's feelings.
36. Enigma – mysterious or puzzling situation.
37. Epitome – perfect example of something.
38. Epiphany – sudden insight or realization.
39. Epitaph – inscription on a tombstone.
40. Erudite – having great knowledge, scholarly.
41. Existential – relating to existence/meaning of life.
42. Exponential – rapidly increasing or expanding.
43. Formative – shaping or influencing development.
44. Holistic – emphasizing the whole, not parts.
45. Homonym – word identical in form, different meaning.
46. Hubris – excessive pride or self-confidence.
47. Hyperbole – deliberate exaggeration for effect.
48. Incongruous – out of place or inconsistent.
49. Infamy – extreme dishonor or notoriety.
50. Initiation – act of beginning or introduction.
51. Innate – inborn or natural characteristic.
52. Intellectual – relating to mental or academic pursuits.
53. Interactive – involving two-way communication/engagement.
54. Irony – outcome opposite of what's expected.
55. Jargon – specialized language of a group.
56. Juxtaposition – placing contrasting elements side by side.
57. Malapropism – misuse of similar-sounding words.
58. Magnanimous – generous or noble in spirit.
59. Mentor – experienced guide or adviser.
60. Metaphor – indirect comparison without "like" or "as".
61. Meticulous – extremely careful, detail-oriented.
62. Mnemonic – memory aid or device.
63. Monologue – extended speech by one person.
64. Motif – recurring theme or element.
65. Myriad – countless or a great number.
66. Nemesis – formidable rival or persistent challenge.
67. Nominal – existing in name only.
68. Norms – standard or typical behaviors.
69. Obfuscate – make unclear or confusing.
70. Obtuse – slow to understand or insensitive.
71. Onomatopoeia – word mimicking a sound.
72. Ostentatious – showy or pretentious display.
73. Oxymoron – contradictory terms (e.g. "jumbo shrimp").
74. Paradox – seemingly contradictory but possibly true.
75. Paraphrase – restate text in different words.
76. Pedantic – overly concerned with minor details.
77. Pedagogy – method and practice of teaching.
78. Perusal – careful reading or examination.
79. Phonemes – smallest units of sound in language.
80. Phonological – relating to sound systems in language.
81. Plagiarism – presenting another's work as one's own.
82. Plethora – overabundance or excessive amount.
83. Posthumously – occurring or published after death.
84. Preposition – relational word (e.g. "in," "on," "by").
85. Pretentious – making an exaggerated show of importance.
86. Pseudonym – fictitious name, often for authors.
87. References – sources cited or consulted.
88. Reflection – serious thought or consideration.
89. Rubric – set criteria or guide for assessment.
90. Sardonic – grimly mocking or cynical.
91. Satire – use of humor to criticize.
92. Simile – comparison using "like" or "as".
93. Soliloquy – speech by a character alone on stage.
94. Superfluous – unnecessary or excessive.
95. Syntax – arrangement of words/phrases in sentences.
96. Thesis – main idea or central argument.
97. Validity – soundness or legitimacy of something.
98. Vernacular – everyday language used by ordinary people.
99. Virtual – existing digitally or conceptually.
100. Vocational – relating to skilled trades or careers.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
1.	Acquiesce	To agree silently or reluctantly.
2.	Acronym	Abbreviation formed from initials.
3.	Ambiguity	Multiple possible meanings or uncertainty.
4.	Analogy	Comparison highlighting similarities.
5.	Anachronism	Something misplaced in time.
6.	Andragogy	Methods/principles of adult learning.
7.	Antithesis	Direct opposite or contrast.
8.	Antonym	Word with opposite meaning.
9.	Articulate	To express clearly and effectively.
10.	Assonance	Repeated vowel sounds in words.
11.	Benchmarking	To measure performance against a standard.
12.	Brainstorming	To generate ideas in a free-flowing way.
13.	Circumspect	Cautious, considering all circumstances.
14.	Clandestine	Secret or covert.
15.	Cognition	Mental processes of understanding.
16.	Collaborate	To work jointly on a project.
17.	Colloquial	Informal, everyday language.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
18.	Connotation	Implied or emotional meaning.
19.	Contrived	Artificially formed or forced.
20.	Conundrum	Difficult puzzle or problem.
21.	Correlation	Relationship between two variables.
22.	Criterion	Standard or principle for judgment.
23.	Cumulative	Increasing or growing in quantity.
24.	Curriculum	Structured course of study.
25.	Deference	Respectful submission or regard.
26.	Developmental	Relating to growth or progress.
27.	Dialect	Regional variation of language.
28.	Diction	Word choice and phrasing.
29.	Didactic	Intended to teach or instruct.
30.	Dissertation	Lengthy, formal research paper.
31.	Divergent	Differing or moving apart.
32.	Egregious	Extremely bad or shocking.
33.	Eloquence	Fluent, persuasive speaking/writing.
34.	Emergent	Newly appearing or developing.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
35.	Empathy	To understand another’s feelings.
36.	Enigma	Mysterious or puzzling situation.
37.	Epitome	Perfect example of something.
38.	Epiphany	Sudden insight or realization.
39.	Epitaph	Inscription on a tombstone.
40.	Erudite	Having great knowledge, scholarly.
41.	Existential	Relating to existence/meaning of life.
42.	Exponential	Rapidly increasing or expanding.
43.	Formative	Shaping or influencing development.
44.	Holistic	Emphasizing the whole, not parts.
45.	Homonym	Word identical in form, different meaning.
46.	Hubris	Excessive pride or self-confidence.
47.	Hyperbole	Deliberate exaggeration for effect.
48.	Incongruous	Out of place or inconsistent.
49.	Infamy	Extreme dishonor or notoriety.
50.	Initiation	Act of beginning or introduction.
51.	Innate	Inborn or natural characteristic.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
52.	Intellectual	Relating to mental or academic pursuits.
53.	Interactive	Involving two-way communication/engagement.
54.	Irony	Outcome opposite of what’s expected.
55.	Jargon	Specialized language of a group.
56.	Juxtaposition	To place contrasting elements side by side.
57.	Malapropism	Misuse of similar-sounding words.
58.	Magnanimous	Generous or noble in spirit.
59.	Mentor	Experienced guide or adviser.
60.	Metaphor	Indirect comparison without “like” or “as.”
61.	Meticulous	Extremely careful, detail-oriented.
62.	Mnemonic	Memory aid or device.
63.	Monologue	Extended speech by one person.
64.	Motif	Recurring theme or element.
65.	Myriad	Countless or a great number.
66.	Nemesis	Formidable rival or persistent challenge.
67.	Nominal	Existing in name only.
68.	Norms	Standard or typical behaviors.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
69.	Obfuscate	To make unclear or confusing.
70.	Obtuse	Slow to understand or insensitive.
71.	Onomatopoeia	Word mimicking a sound.
72.	Ostentatious	Showy or pretentious display.
73.	Oxymoron	Contradictory terms (e.g. “jumbo shrimp”).
74.	Paradox	Seemingly contradictory but possibly true.
75.	Paraphrase	To restate text in different words.
76.	Pedantic	Overly concerned with minor details.
77.	Pedagogy	Method and practice of teaching.
78.	Perusal	Careful reading or examination.
79.	Phonemes	Smallest units of sound in language.
80.	Phonological	Relating to sound systems in language.
81.	Plagiarism	To present another’s work as one’s own.
82.	Plethora	Overabundance or excessive amount.
83.	Posthumously	Occurring or published after death.
84.	Preposition	Relational word (e.g. “in,” “on,” “by”).
85.	Pretentious	To make an exaggerated show of importance.

100 Words Every Adult Should Know

NO.	TERM	DEFINITION
86.	Pseudonym	Fictitious name, often for authors.
87.	References	Sources cited or consulted.
88.	Reflection	Serious thought or consideration.
89.	Rubric	A set of criteria or a guide for assessment.
90.	Sardonic	Grimly mocking or cynical.
91.	Satire	Use of humor to criticize.
92.	Simile	Comparison using “like” or “as.”
93.	Soliloquy	Speech by a character alone on stage.
94.	Superfluous	Unnecessary or excessive.
95.	Syntax	Arrangement of words/phrases in sentences.
96.	Thesis	Main idea or central argument.
97.	Validity	Soundness or legitimacy of something.
98.	Vernacular	Everyday language used by ordinary people.
99.	Virtual	Existing digitally or conceptually.
100.	Vocational	Relating to skilled trades or careers.