

QUESTION 1

Complete the sentence with the correct adverbs.

Mark: The economy of my country has remained stable for years now.

The country is steadily ✓ ▼ developing, and the government has significantly improved ✓ ▼ the healthcare and education facilities.

QUESTION 2

Complete the sentence with the correct adverbs.

Reem: The government is struggling to close the gender gap in education.

The numbers have slightly ✓ ▼ improved compared to previous generations, but the change is happening slowly ✓ ▼.

I think it will take another ten years to see a significant closing of the gender gap.

QUESTION 3

Choose the sentence that uses an adverb of degree.

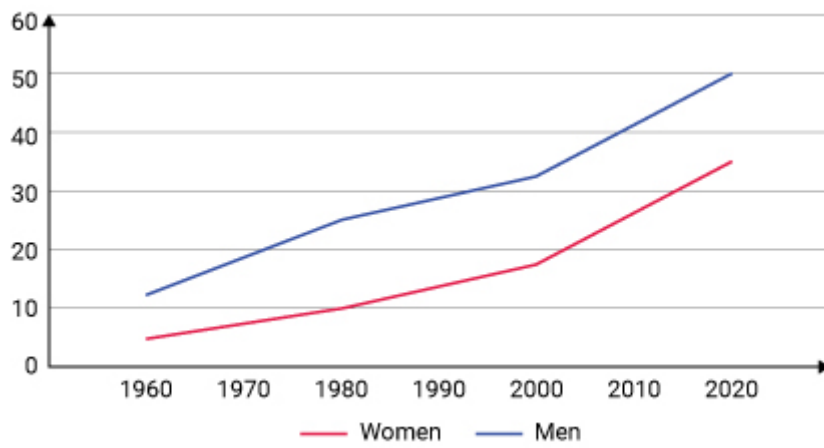

- ☐ Some countries are taking steps to reduce the gender gap.
- ☐ It is not fair that women are paid less in some organisations.
- ☐ It is interesting to see how some people are challenging the gender roles.
- ☒ The gender gap is still very obvious in some countries. ✓

QUESTION 4

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb.

The majority of highly educated people are men.

However, the number of women getting educated has been increasing rapidly ✓ ▼

since 2000.

QUESTION 5

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb.

After 2013, the number of students enrolled in higher education has increased rapidly ✓ ▼.

QUESTION 6

Complete the sentences with the correct adverbs.

After the war in 2010, the number of refugees had grown significantly ✓ ▼.

However, it took the economy several years to slowly ✓ ▼ recover.

QUESTION 7

Choose the sentence that describes the Death Rate graph correctly.

The death rate grew slightly after April.

The death rate grew slowly after April.

The death rate dropped steadily after April.

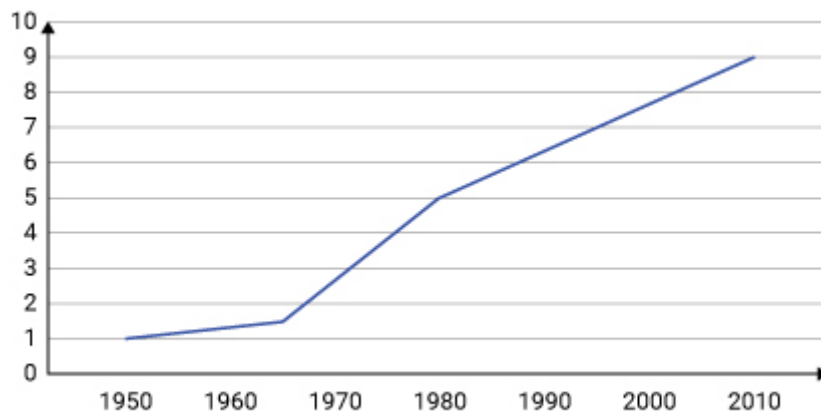

The death rate grew suddenly after April.

QUESTION 8

Choose the sentence that describes the graph about expatriates correctly.

The number of expatriates in the country decreased sharply after 1980.

The number of expatriates in the country decreased significantly after 1980.

The number of expatriates in the country decreased rapidly after 1980.

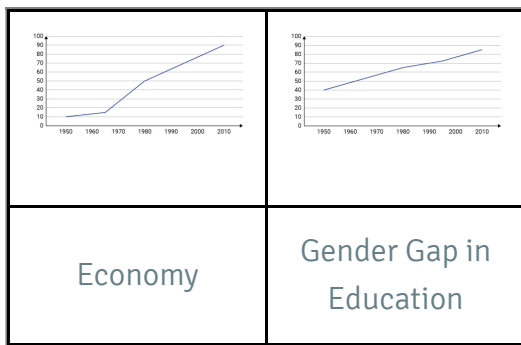

The number of expatriates in the country increased sharply after 1980.

QUESTION 9

Complete the sentence with the correct adverbs.

While the economy has improved significantly after 1970, the gender gap in education is changing slowly.

QUESTION 10

Choose the sentence that describes the graph correctly.

- ☐ After 1980, the quality of healthcare has slightly improved.
- ☐ After 1980, the quality of healthcare has significantly improved.
- ☒ After 1980, the quality of healthcare has dramatically dropped. ✓
- ☐ After 1980, the quality of healthcare has dramatically improved.

QUESTION 11

Complete the sentence.

Rose: The gender gap in my country has decreased slightly.
More and more women are now getting better work opportunities.

In the text, slightly ✓ is an adverb of degree.

↕ better

↕ getting

↕ decreased

QUESTION 12

Complete the sentence so that it means the same as the text given below.

There was a quick growth of expatriates in the city.

The number of expatriates grew rapidly in the city.

↕ only

↕ daily

↕ slowly

QUESTION 13

Choose the sentences that use adverbs of degree.

The Indian government is taking many steps to protect the tigers.

The tiger population has grown rapidly in India, which is a big achievement.

The national parks in India have slowly adopted new measures to protect the tigers.

☐

There are many reasons for this dramatic change in the population of tigers.

QUESTION 14

Choose the adverbs of degree used in the text.

The number of tourists visiting Dubai has increased steadily.

As a result, the number of people employed in the tourism industry has gone up significantly.

steadily

significantly increased

gone

QUESTION 15

Find the adverb of degree in the text.

Majed: The majority of the people in my city are quite old.

people

quite old majority

QUESTION 16

Complete the sentences with the correct adverbs.

Dave: Compared to previous decades, the population in my country has grown more steadily ✓ ▼ in this decade.

Only during the economic crisis, the birth rate suddenly ✓ ▼ dropped to 5%.

QUESTION 17

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb from the word bank.

Word Bank

probably	quite	maybe	slowly
----------	-------	-------	--------	--

The situation now is quite ✓ different from the past.

Compared with the previous generation, women now apply for more jobs as pilots.

QUESTION 18

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb from the word bank.

Word Bank

dramatically	quietly	slightly	possibly
--------------	---------	----------	----------	--

Rose: Many things have changed over the last 100 years. What do you think the future will bring?

Anna: Because of new technology, changes will happen even faster in the future. Our lives will change dramatically ✓!

QUESTION 19

Complete the sentence with the correct word from the word bank.

Reem: I think it is important that workers from different countries are treated equally.

Maryam: You are right! Accepting people from different cultures is very important for our country.

Word Bank

accepting	very	right	equally
-----------	------	-------	---------	--

Maryam is using very ✓ to describe the intensity of important.

QUESTION 20

Complete the sentence with the correct word from the word bank.

Ben: Many people in my city have changed their habits to avoid diseases caused by a busy lifestyle.

Therefore, the number of deaths due to heart attacks have decreased dramatically.

Word Bank

caused	avoid	busy	dramatically
--------	-------	------	--------------	--

Ben is using the word dramatically ✓ to describe the intensity of change in people's lives.

QUESTION 21

Choose the correct word from the word bank to complete the sentence.

The forest fire spread rapidly last night. Some animals were rescued by the firefighters. It was a difficult task.

Word Bank

task	rescued	rapidly	difficult
------	---------	---------	-----------	--

The word rapidly ✓ describes the intensity with which the fire spread in the forest last night.

QUESTION 22

Chris: The government has slowly introduced changes in its education policy. As a result, the number of students attending high school has increased steadily.

Choose the adverbs of degree in the text above.

steadily

result

education

☒ slowly

QUESTION 23

The knitting classes have been very popular with the students in the summer camp.
This year, we had an extremely high male ratio in these classes.

Choose the adverbs of degree used in the text.

☐ knitting

☒ very

☒ extremely

☐ classes

QUESTION 24

Alanood has written a report about the survey she conducted in her class.

Which of her sentences use adverbs of degree?

☒ It was extremely difficult for some students to clear the history and science exams.

Few students had worked very hard to write a newspaper report in English.

Many students prefer to study in the library over the weekend to avoid interruptions.

Some students like to play different sports when the school time is over in the afternoon.

QUESTION 25

The wages for men and women must be equal. In the past, men earned more than women. In modern times, some organisations are giving women the same opportunities and wages, but we have a long way to go.

Choose the sentence that is true.

The text talks about ways to encourage immigration.

The text talks about ways to close the gender gap.

The text talks about ways to reuse old clothes.

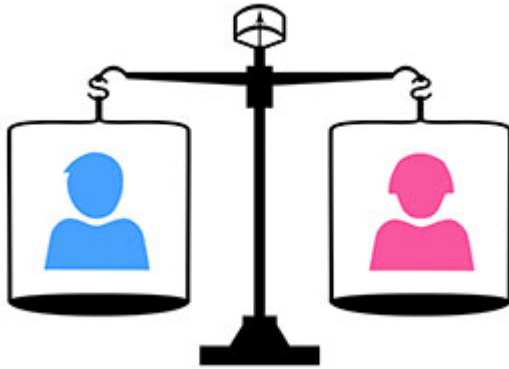

The text talks about ways to encourage higher education.

QUESTION 26

Identify the sentences that use adverbs of degree to compare two things.

☐

The times are slowly changing as now men also like to cook, wash clothes, and take care of the house.

☐

More and more women are joining professional colleges to learn the specific skills required to get a better job in the city.

☒

In this country, the enrollment of women for higher education has increased more rapidly than in other countries.

☒

The number of women working as managers has risen more dramatically in this decade than the previous one.

QUESTION 27

Choose the correct adverb to complete the sentence.

Thanks to the new immigration laws, there will be a major increase in the population of expatriates in the country.

The government is encouraging young people and skilled workers from other countries to gain experience here.

The number of expatriates will sharply  increase because of new immigration laws.

↕ almost

↕ extremely

↕ improve

QUESTION 28

Use the correct adverb to fill in the blank.

Research has shown that enrollment in higher education has many positive effects on society.

When enrollment goes up, people are treated fairly, women are offered better jobs, and there are lower death rates among the elderly.

Higher education increases positive effects on society.

↕ slightly

↕ probably

↕ almost

QUESTION 29

Choose the correct adverb to complete the sentence.

Three years ago, many refugees moved to the southern part of the country. They had no education and no money, so none of the refugees were applying for jobs. When the government gave them access to higher education, all of the refugees started applying for jobs.

The number of refugees applying for jobs in the country increased sharply

after the government gave them access to higher education.

possibly

slowly

sweetly

QUESTION 30

Choose the sentences that use adverbs of certainty.

☐ There has slowly been an increase in population growth.

☒ There has definitely been an increase in population growth. ✓

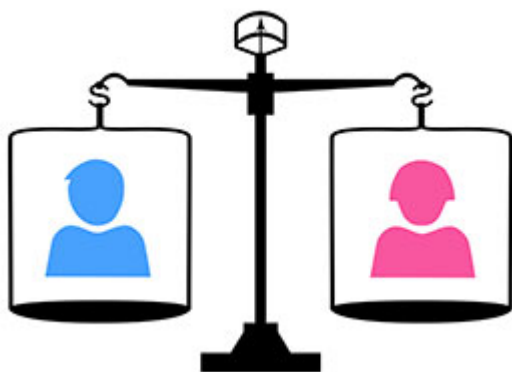

☐ There has rapidly been an increase in population growth.

☒ There has surely been an increase in population growth. ✓

QUESTION 31

Choose the correct adverb to complete the sentence.

In 1980, women were paid only half the salary that men received. Ten years later, the figure jumped to 75%.

For twenty years, women were paid around 80% to 90% of the salary that men received. Only recently, the wages for women were raised to be equal to men's wages.

The wages for women have been raised

slowly

↕ almost

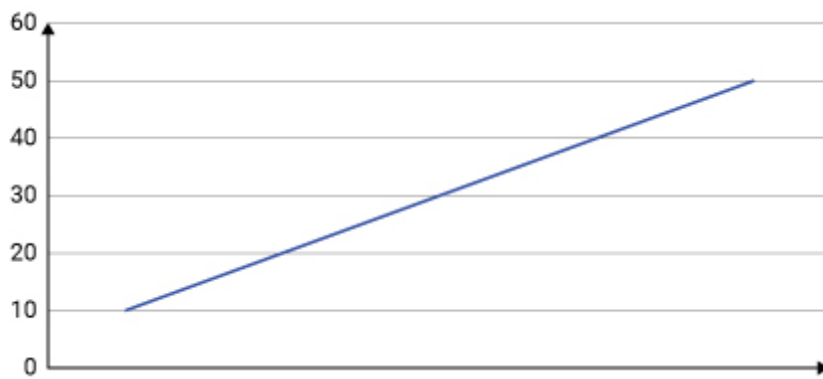

↕ never

↕ possibly

QUESTION 32

Choose the sentence that describes the graph correctly.

☐ The number of refugees attending school has increased probably.

☒ The number of refugees attending school has increased steadily. ✓

☐ The number of refugees attending school has decreased slowly.

☐ The number of refugees attending school has stayed the same.

QUESTION 33

Complete the comparison.

Despite the problems in the country's economy, the healthcare sector has grown more

steadily

than ever before!

↕ steady

↕ steadier

↕ steadiest

QUESTION 34

Complete the comparison.

Fares: There has been a gradual improvement in the birth rate in some parts of the country. However, the death rate has risen a lot.

Fares is saying that the death rate in his country has risen

more sharply

than the birth rate.

↕ very well

↕ most frequently

↕ too much

QUESTION 35

Complete the comparison.

Mona: The number of trees has grown more  sharply than the number of bushes.

 just

 often

 never

QUESTION 36

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb.

Daniel: Most people come to the Middle East because of a lack of jobs in their own countries.

Tom: Yes, their number has gone up significantly   in the last few years.

QUESTION 37

Complete the second sentence so that it means the same thing as first sentence.

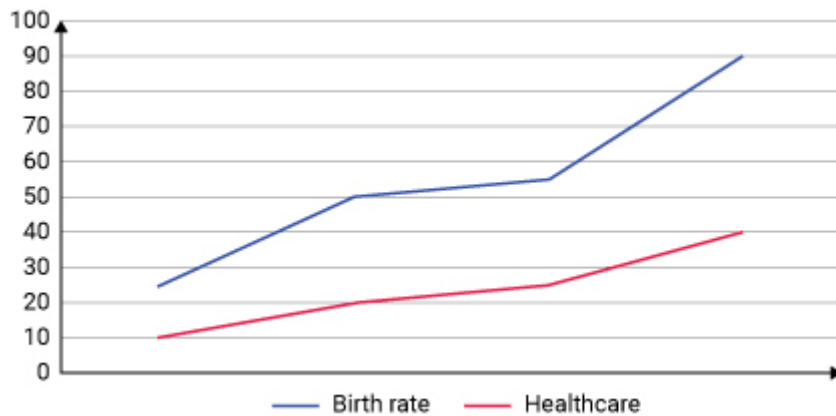

Last year, many malls were quickly and unexpectedly constructed in the city.

Last year, many malls were suddenly   constructed in the city.

QUESTION 38

Complete the sentence with the correct adverb.

The birth rate has improved significantly ☒ ☐ now that the quality of healthcare has grown.

QUESTION 39

Fill in the blank.

In the past few years, the number of refugees in the world has grown suddenly.

In the sentence, the word suddenly ☒ describes a trend.

↕ grown

↕ number

↕ few

QUESTION 40

Choose the sentences that use adverbs of degree.

☐

I am certainly nervous.

I am extremely nervous.

I am very nervous.

☐

I am definitely nervous.