UNIVERSITY • INTERNATIONAL

ENVIRONMENTAL AND RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

description

The ERM master’s degree is application-oriented. It follows on from the bachelor's degree in Environmental and Resource Management offered at the BTU Cottbus - Senftenberg and is also suitable for the further qualification of successful graduates from other relevant bachelor's degree programs.

The course serves to broaden and deepen technical knowledge and leadership skills in the focus on integrative environmental and resource protection. Graduates are enabled to evaluate and graduation

Master of Science (M.Sc.)

Normal period
4 semesters

Type of study
Full-time study

Teaching language
English

Start of studies
Winter semester

Place of study
Central Campus Cottbus

Pre-study internship

design technological, economic and infrastructural processes with the aim of sustainable production, planning and material flow management.

> “We can only recommend ERM. In addition to a great curriculum, we found a community and alumni network with friends, with whom we are now founding CQuest, in which sustainability comes first.”
>
> — Julian Kremes, Jakob Levin, Stephan Gönner, ERM graduates found the startup CQuest

Professional fields of activity

- Environmental and regulatory agencies at the local, regional and national level
- Environmental organizations of the European Union and the United Nations
- Universities and research institutes
- Engineering and planning offices
- Energy company
- Environmental management and environmental research institutions
- Sewage and waste disposal companies, recycling companies

application and approval

entry requirements

- At least a bachelor's degree in the subject or a comparable degree
- Proof of proficiency in English unnecessary

Semester fee
€ 321.03

Accredited by
ACQUIN

Admission process
admission-free

- TOEFL (min. 550 points, computer-based 213 points, internet-based 79 points)
- IELTS (min. 6.0)
- Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English (min. B)
- Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (min. C)
- UniCert (Level II)
- Only applicants from: Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, Great Britain (including Northern Ireland), USA, or students who have a first English-language degree from one of the above-mentioned countries or from Germany are excluded from these regulations. "