3 a) Introduction (2mks)
Candidates must know their understanding of the term "racial prejudice". Racial prejudice refers to unfair unjustified distorted... opinion held about a group of people belonging to a certain race. It is normally an unfavourable opinion based on predetermined attitudes towards certain races.

There are numerous illustrations of racial prejudice against black people in Honwana's short story. Accept any other relevant introduction

- Black people were slow in evolving from animals to homo sapiens – "the palms of the blacks' hands are much lighter... because only a few centuries age they walked on all fours" (P. 116) mention the sun

- Black people are dirty, but God made them to serve white people as their servants. To protect white people against the dirt of these servants, "God made their hands lighter like that so they wouldn't dirty the food they made for their masters, or anything else they were ordered to do that had to be kept clean" (P. 116).

- Black people are "creatures" (P. 116) not humans.

- Black people are scum; there was no room for them in the heavenly kilns so they were hung in the chimneys – "smoke, smoke smoke – and there you have them, black as coals (P. 116).

- Blacks are not people in the sight of God – when God made people He told them to bath in the heavenly lake "the people were nice and white" (P. 117).

- This could also imply Blacks are not beautiful – they are dirty and ugly – when they were told to bathe they only wet the palms of their hands and the soles of their feet. (P. 117)

The author's attitude

- Blacks are beasts of burden – their hands are like this because they spend their time gathering cotton and washing (P. 117).

- He is against black people being exploited / he is against prejudices which are used to justify exploration of black people.

- The mother's explanation is the author's voice – God had no purpose for blackmen

- That there is no justification for white people to exploit black people, therefore there is no justification for white people not to work for themselves
    - White people have white hands like black people, therefore there is no justification for white people not to work for themselves.
      Black people have white hands, just like white people; therefore black people are equal to white people before God.

Father Christianos version
Blacks were even better than us, their hands were lighter. Their hands were bitter...

3 c) Introduction

Many immigrants from the Caribbean to the Americas and England especially, soon discover that they do not quite fit in the lands of plenty. The case of David and Edith is typical of this category of emigrants (Accept any other valid introduction)

H i) Greener Pastures

They sell off what they owned in the Caribbean and set out to seek prosperity in England. Edith quits her teaching job and trains as a nurse in anticipation of the plentiful jobs. She, indeed, lands one immediately they arrive. David who was a carpenter back home finds it a little more hard going. He settles for factory jobs (P. 5, 6, 7).

Contrast: Warm reception from friends / David even opens up to charley and even agrees to go to milk River / There is laughter and joy: "It was enough to be in Jamaica… drinking coconut water on a Sunday morning with her long-time friend" (P. 11) / Ease with which they do their work at home (community service). (P. 33, 35, 112 – 115).

H ii) Healing Process

The healing at home psychologically and physically is faster e.g in England the baths were not meant for blacks and did not seem to be effective (P. 15, 16, 45). The working environment and the people were also very hostile. Contrast: The baths in England. David therefore enjoys the baths at home and he heals faster/ the friendly and relaxed working environment which is also voluntary makes David heal faster even to the surprise of Laura (P. 16, 17, 32, 45). Hostile people P. 30 – 31.

H iii) Friendship and relations

In England they do not have friends or relatives to make their lives comfortable. David workmates are pretenders (P. 20, 31) Contrast. In Jamaica there is friendship and warmth / "Charley is the best thing that could happen to David, better than any doctor medicine."/To the milk River with friends: (P. 9, 10, 11, 34)/ The get-together party organized by Laura (P. 46, 47).

H iv) Scenery

The beauty of the landscape and attractive sites: The milk River / The canefields / Mt Ranges / Cashew trees / (P. 12, 13). Contrast. England is cold and grey (P. 7, 16). Mountain = scenes, Mango tree, lining the wad – England = cud and grey = rad and cold

H v) Homecoming and attachment

In England when he fell sick, he was dependant on Edith on everything / and even before the situation was hard (P. 4, 7) Contrast He never forgot his background: always sent money back home to take care of his parent's grave. (p. 22) / when he fell sick he says that when he died they should use his savings to send his body home (P. 31) / when he went back home alive he felt so stronger and even heals faster "…almost as if just being back in this country was medicine…." (P. 31) / they never sold their house (P. 45).

H (vi) Restoration of their Marriage

In England their relationship was estranged because of pressure of worm, weather, etc (P. 7) Contrast: In Jamaica it is restored e.g they are happy together like the restopection on Brother Stramm/ reading and sharing jokes (P. 26, 27, 31 – 32, 33, 42 – 44).

H (vii) Lifestyle

SAMPLE SYNOPSIS

Dr. Stockmann, the Medical Officer of Health, having noticed an increase in the incidence of waterborne diseases among visitors coming to the medicinal spas in the city, institutes a scientific investigation and discovers the water is contaminated by effluent from the tannery nearby. He recommends to the Municipal authorities he serves closure of the Baths and the relaying of the entire piping system. This sets him on a collision course with the Municipal authorities who wish to downplay the issue on account that publication of the issue would scare away the tourists and kill the economy of the city that was dependent on the Baths. Besides, they argued, closure and the works would take too long and would be too expensive for the shareholders.

This sets the stage for the confrontation between Dr. Stockmann who believes the safety of the populace and of the tourists is paramount and the Mayor who leads the political and business fraternity. The ensuing battles form the conflict in the play An Enemy of the People. The Mayor uses intimidation, sacks Dr. Stockmann, distorts the information and blackmails the public into supporting him by claiming the taxpayers would have to foot the bill should Dr. Stockmann succeed. This makes the public to denounce Dr. Stockmann as the enemy of the people.(204 words)
