JOB OPPORTUNITY AT E.A.E.P

East African Educational Publishers Ltd

East African Educational Publishers (EAEP) is one of the oldest publishing houses in Kenya. We are home to Africa's literary giants such as Chinua Achebe, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, Taban lo Liyong, Meja Mwangi, Yusuf Dawood among others.

We are looking for a KISWAHILI EDITOR to join the EAEP family.

JOB DESCRIPTION

This is a position responsible for developing, planning and project managing a strong list of Kiswahili titles that achieves market approval and sales to meet the strategic objectives of EAEP. The Kiswahili Editor will be tasked with project managing an allocated number of titles for CBC and general publishing.

KEY RESPONSIBILITY

The Kiswahili Editor will conduct market research and incorporate findings into new and existing products.

The Kiswahili Editor will build strong relationships with key stakeholders in the education sector and authors; providing guidance during the development of books that offer innovative solutions to learners and teachers.

KNOWLEDGE FOR KISWAHILI EDITOR

The position requires a relevant Bachelor's degree in Education with a major in Kiswahili or BA Kiswahili combined with at least three years relevant publishing experience. The ideal candidate should have at least two years' experience on a similar position managing own titles from conceptualization to press.

Teaching experience, with a proven track record of consistent high performance, will be an added advantage.

In addition, the individual must demonstrate a thorough understanding and knowledge of the dynamics of CBC with KICD approvals an added advantage.

HOW TO APPLY

If you are a results-oriented person with the stated qualifications and are passionate to provide high quality Kiswahili publishing solutions, email your application letter, curriculum vitae and copies of testimonials to: Human.resource@eastafricanpublishers.com

Before 26th November 2019.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.
