Note 1: The link is for advance registration for the workshop. After registering, you will receive a a confirmation email containing information about joining the workshop

The aim of the workshop, among other things, is to inform ourselves about the state of research in the Department. The workshop would dispose and encourage us to always prepare adequately for examinations and also embark on more fruitful research.

The workshop is mandatory for all postgraduate students in the Department. Students are expected at the end of the workshop to send a report to the Department via email religions.research@noun.edu.ng. The content of the report should reach the Department on/ or before Thursday, the 1st of September 2022. Students are equally advised to follow strictly the Workshop Report Template as provided by the Department (see the attached). The report should not contain more than 2,500 words.

Note 2: Academic staff and facilitators in the Department are not expected to submit any report. The Department may engage some of them to assist in assessing the reports submitted by the students.

Thanks, and remain blessed!
