Notice of Default

Notice to Agent is Notice to Principal. Notice to Principal is Notice to Agent

Dear

Whereas you have failed to respond to the two (2) previous Notices that have been served on you. It is now taken to mean that you and all interested parties agree entirely with the points of law that I previously stated and, that has no lawful claim against I, since you have provided your absolute tacit agreement to all said previous Notices and information contained within them.

Any hearing with regard to this matter must be heard within a properly established court de jure hearing under constitutional law. The law forbids me to consent to any other presumed jurisdiction or alleged authority.

I may seek remedy now, or at any future time for any torts that have been or may be committed against me or, if any more unlawful demands are made against me by with regard to threats of enforcement, or any other claims laid against me. A Counter-claim for damages may ensue against you personally .

You are now in default and dishonour as you have a duty of care, and by law to respond to the very serious constitutional points that I do refer to within said Notices.

I understand that you are doing business as and thus you have the responsibility to manage your affairs according to law. Any further action taken by you against I, whilst my lawful points remain un-rebutted without substance, shall now be accepted by all interested parties to be harassment and criminal coercion to aid and abet crime, of which shall be reported to the police whilst a counter-claim for damages will ensue.

Any reply must be made on your full commercial liability and on penalty of perjury, whilst also providing a legible full printed and signed name of the respondent.

Sincerely, without any admission of any liability whatsoever and, with no attempt to deceive or to be frivolous or to act with ill intent whatsoever.

with all my inalienable constitutional rights reserved and, and stated upon my full commercial liability and penalty of perjury.

All Notices served may be presented as evidence in my defence.

With Prejudice.
