STANDING STRONG IN THE EVIL DAY
Bible Text: Ephesians 6:10–20

Words Of Exhortation

We are in the last days, and because of Satan's hard work, many has lost sight of the kingdom of heaven and when talking about it, it has little or no relevance to them

There's nothing that inspires many or gears them up to seek for the kingdom of God anymore, their spiritual life is dying

Many have been carried away already by their daily needs and even wants

And Satan is glad because he knows that when a man no longer seeks for those things above, he'd certain seek for the things below

And he wants everyone to be distracted, for the things of this world is just for a temporal time, and they can never satisfy eternally

The rate at which he is tempting those in the faith in this delicate period of the end time is so alarming and many soldiers have fallen on the battle field

Those whom we do not expect are falling too, oh how are the mighty falling and the weapon of war are perished!!!

The spiritual state of many as at now is nothing to write home about, everything has become cold... Cold prayer life, cold Bible study life, cold worship life, cold fasting life... Everything cold.. the altar has become so cold that Beelzebub has found it comfortable and his flies are already laying eggs on these altars

Oh! That we can have someone here tonight who would cry to the Lord for revival

Someone who would weep and say Lord, I want a rekindling

Set my altar on fire again

Do I have people here who are tired of powerlessness, prayerless, wordlessness, fastlessness, worshiplessness and faithlessness???
It's time to arise, soldier!!! The battle is tense, hot and only the weak whose strength is made perfect in weakness that can survive!!!
Those that wait upon the Lord, shall renew their strength... It's time to wait on the Lord beloved
The Father is counting on you

The Son is counting on you
The Holy Spirit is willing to work through you
The creation is waiting for your manifestations
Arise and take your position O dying man, O dying woman
Don't let heaven down, you are one of the last hope God is counting on, God has embedded a treasure in you that is unique to you for the purpose of conquering Satan's kingdom for Him but you are not yet sure and ready
Arise o mighty man of war, enough of you belittling yourself in the face of battle
What are you still doing??

Your position is laying vacant in the realm of the spirit
When you are supposed to roaring in prayers to scatter the conspiracy of hell,
You are snoring to disturb the neighborhood
You can't continue like this o man of war and woman of war
What is is lipstick still doing on your lips when they are supposed to be vibrating in tongues for your territory to be delivered from the strongman that has laid souls captives. Your lips are heaven already for they are painted with human blood in the realm of the spirit...

Arise o daughter of Zion...
Your country is waiting for you

Your city is waiting to see you burn for God

Your town is waiting to see the kingdom of Satan put to flight

Your community is waiting to see the power of God through you

Your compound is waiting to be free from demonic influence

Your family is waiting for you the deliverer who is to deliver them from the grip of the enemy
What are you still waiting for??
O man, where is your spiritual authority???
Lost???
On the laps of Delilah???
Ohhh, the heavens are ready to restore you
The hair of your Samson might have been shaven but don't remain in Delilah's laps, they can still grow again
Arise SAMSON, your hair is growing back, don't die with your enemies
Take your consecration seriously, retrace your steps SAMSON like the prodigal son, Jesus Christ is waiting to receive you
It does not matter how far you have fallen or gone, a step back to the Father is a step towards spiritual freedom
Don't lose sight, don't lose focus. This is the time to seek the Lord with reckless abandonment for a refiring!!!
You are getting that fresh fire 🔥 back now in Jesus Christ's name!!!

Prayer

Father we thanks you for keeping our lives safe and in good health for more than a decade. We appreciate your goodness, mercy and loving kindness in our lives. We give you all the glory, honour and adoration. We ask that if we have fallen short of your glory that you will have mercy on us that your anger won't consume us. As we are about to study your word let your spirit of understanding and retentive memory teach us. And at the end of the day we will practice all what you have thought us and be good ambassadors of chirist. May your holy name be praised both now and forever more amen.

Introduction

Today's study is one that we all desperately need in this end time. It is not just another Bible study; it is a divine instruction on how to position our lives so that we will not be defeated in this Christian race. Because of its critical importance, today's teaching will be systematic — carefully explained, step by step. I want to especially encourage everyone, including those who may not have been consistently participating in previous studies, not to overlook this one or treat it lightly. The knowledge and understanding you will gain from this teaching can serve as a life saver later in life — if not immediately, then certainly at a crucial moment in the future.

Therefore, let us not approach this study with the attitude of, "I already know those verses," or, "There's nothing new to learn."

The Word of God is ever new and alive! There are depths and revelations waiting for the humble heart. Let us humble ourselves before the Lord Jesus Christ and open our spirits to receive what He has for us today. May the Holy Spirit grant us wisdom, understanding, and strength, in Jesus name.

Bible Text: Ephesians 6:10-20 KJV

Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. [11] Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. [12] For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. [13] Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. [14] Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; [15] And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; [16] Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. [17] And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: [18] Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; [19] And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, [20] For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

Study

After Apostle Paul had finished addressing children, fathers, masters, and servants, he then turned his attention to individuals. He says, "Finally, my brethren." That is, to round up all my words, brothers and sisters, please take note of these final things, for they are also of great importance. Although Paul was a leader, we see that he still regarded those he wrote to as brothers and sisters. Unlike today, when many leaders view themselves as superior to others in the body of Christ, Paul demonstrated humility and true servanthood. This same attitude was also clearly exhibited by Apostle Peter, and it is a standard every leader in the church must follow. Now to the heart of Paul's admonition: "Be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might." This statement reveals that it is possible for a man to be weak in the Lord, and in the power of His might. Although God is all-powerful, and although the Spirit of God within us is powerful, yet it is still possible for the believer to be spiritually weak. In fact, if we carefully observe the body of Christ today, we will find that those who are weak among the brethren are more in number than those who are strong. This is a serious matter. Therefore, as Christian soldiers, we must be strong:

- Strong for suffering

- Strong for service

- Strong for fighting

We are on a battlefield. We must be stout-hearted, courageous, and even stubborn in the spirit against the forces of darkness. Those who possess these qualities will reveal their firmness in the spirit. Our strength in the Lord must be proven by:

- Being strengthened by Him and for Him

- Overcoming temptations

- Doing what is pleasing to Him in all things

However, those who are standing strong must not trust in themselves. For the best of every man's strength is still a perfect weakness before God. Our faith must be firmly rooted in Christ, not in man or in ourselves. His strength is made perfect in our weaknesses — and this is why we must be strong in Him. Therefore, for us to be strong, Paul goes further to tell us exactly what we must do

Are you following carefully?

Ephesians 6:11: Put on the whole armour of God, that is the instruction. God is willing to do that which should make us strong in Him, only if we are ready to play our own part. It is our duty to put on His whole armour. Today, many complain of spiritual attacks and lack of peace spiritually, whereas they are the main cause of their problems. Many suffer afflictions they should not be suffering. They suffer spiritual oppression that should not be, and they run helter skelter, not realizing they are the cause of their own problems. The enemy has no power over the children of God unless we allow him. Paul says, for you to be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might, put on the full armour, but not parts. Many only put on parts and forget the full, then begin to complain of spiritual defeat.

What is an armour?
It is a defensive covering for the body, especially a covering of metal used in combat. It can also refer to a quality or circumstance that affords protection. From this definition, it is clear that an armour is worn by a soldier, and it is very necessary for the protection of the body. Since we are not fighting physical battles as Christians, then our armour is spiritual. As such, we must put on a spiritual armour that can protect us from our spiritual enemies. Paul says, Make full use of this spiritual armour, which would help us to stand against the wiles of the enemy, the devil. From this, it is clear that Satan has tricks or strategies he uses to ensnare and deceive Christians who would not make use of the full armour. The moment we recognize that the devil has his schemes, which he uses against the children of God, we will not be taken off guard in flippancy, but will be readily available to fight him and not give room for his tricks. We are to make use of all the proper defences and weapons for repelling the temptations and strategies of Satan. Get and exercise all the Christian graces, the whole armour, so that no part should be naked or exposed to the enemy. We must know that it is God who has prepared this armour for us, and it is ours to put it on. We do this by praying for grace, for we must make use of the grace given to us. This armour is important to us as children of God because, when we consider the enemy we have to deal with, we know that it is not one who is out to play or joke with our souls. This, the apostle explains, telling us the kind of enemy we wrestle against, which is far beyond those that can be seen with the physical eyes.

Invitation

If you know that you are still living in sin and you are ready to repent and begin to live your life in strict obedience to God so that you can overcome every sin in your life to make heaven, please place your right hand on your chest and say this prayer with your mouth.

Say,

"Lord Jesus, I accept You as my personal Lord and Savior. I believe that You died for me and took away my sins so that I will not face the penalty of them. I surrender my life to You today, and I make a decision to obey and follow You. Come into my life now and accept me as Your child. Thank You for saving me, in Jesus Christ's name I pray, Amen."

Congratulations, now you are saved. If you prayed this short prayer, please WhatsApp +2347067511039 and let me know that you have just been saved. I want to have a word with you. God bless you!
