Jimma University
College of Law and Governance

Group Assignment (15%)

Logic and Critical Thinking, 2019/20 A/Y

Instruction

- attempt all questions clearly& critically.

I. True/False Items (5 Marks)

1. A term may have extensional meaning without having intensional meaning.
2. No extensional techniques can construct précising definition.
3. All functions of languages are important in logical treatise regardless of their type.
4. The very aim of stipulative definition is to replace a complex expression by a simple one.
5. Not all terms have intensional meaning, necessarily.

II. Choose the Best Possible Answer (6 Marks).

6. The most applicable intensional definitional technique is:
   A. Operational C. Synonymous
   B. Genius and differentia D. Etymological
7. For Karl Marx "religion is the opium of the people". This definition is a type of:
   A. Précising C. Persuasive
   B. Stipulative D. Lexical
8. Which one is ODD:
   A. Theoretical C. Persuasive
   B. Précising D. Stipulative
9. Which one of the following is wrongly matched?
   A. Stipulative---coin new words
   B. Precise ---reduce ambiguity
   C. Persuasive---influence the attitude of others
   D. Theoretical---provide scientifically use description
10. In the claim God means supernatural being, which can be the genius?
    A. Supernatural B. Being C. God D. None
11. Fictional work means either a poem, a play, a novel or a short story. Which kind of extensional technique best fit this above assertion?
    A. Demonstrative B. Enumerative C. Definition by subclass D. Operational

III. Identify which lexical rule is violated in the following statements unless write "No rule is violated" (4 Marks)

12. Logic means a science that evaluates good arguments.
13. Ethiopia means a landlocked country found in the Horn of Africa.
14. God means an Omnipotent Being.
15. "Medemer" means a book written by Ethiopian Nobel Laureate PM, Abiy Ahmed.