APPRECIATION

My appreciation goes to my dedicated wife, MRS NGOZI OLAYERI, who typed the manuscript of this book and designed the cover page. My darling wife I say thank you. My appreciation equally goes to my lovely children, MISS IBUKUN, DAVID, MICHAEL, COMFORT and MERCY. They encouraged me day and night as I write this book.

Respect and honor should be given to who is due. Favor comes from God and men as well. My calling (writing evangelism) met timely support of a man of God, preacher, teacher, prophet and General Overseer. He awakes my inner man and gave me sound spiritual support. Without his earlier support for my first book, Fire for Fire Prayer Book and subsequent ones, I may not be where I am today in Christian literature writing. He gallantly stood by me in fulfillment of my calling.

This book you are holding is a testimony of my claim. This book wouldn't have seen the light of the day, if not for the spiritual encouragement I gathered from my father in the Lord who served as spiritual mirror that brightens my hope to explore my calling.

I am talking of no any other person than the General Overseer of MOUNTAIN OF FIRE AND MIRACLES MINISTRIES WORLD WIDE, DR. D. K. OLUKOYA.

Once again, I say thank you sir. Your support has yielded yet another earth shaking book.

THANKS
Evangelist Tella Olayeri.

PREFACE

This prayer book, prayer to locate helpers, and helpers to locate you, trace the origin of help to the Almighty God, the creator of heaven and earth. Basically, without support of God, nothing good can be realized. Helpers are in position to help one to climb the rung of ladder to success, and or, pave ones way to the Promised Land. This can be achieved by supernatural help or divine intervention. This book establishes God as last solution to our problem in terms of help, true security and protection, true joy and breakthrough, good health and healing. Our God is a living God who sees our plight, and know what people say

This book teaches how you can locate and recognize helpers around you. The book means, enough is enough the door that kept you in bondage from locating helpers is wide open, march forward and locate helpers. Hence, you are set free, therefore remain free, walk out free and enjoy freedom to pursue God's divine purpose for you. Every instrument you can use to equip yourself, are enumerated in this book. It is like a self-discovery book with banner of freedom, once you know the existence of our Super-Helper, Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth, concerning your situation. At the end, joy and victory shall be your portion.

The connecting link to help is favour. With it, you will not only survive the race to breakthrough but experience permanent smile and laughter. Anointing for favour is deeply narrated here, to connect you to helpers. I pray you shall be connected to right helpers at the right time.

Help is not one way traffic, it is like telephone link, speaking to people and people talking with you, so is help. This book elaborates your usefulness to the society at large. It gives sound encouragement to all. The fact is, you are useful to the society and created to help it. It elaborates the fact; you are a package of signs and wonders. There are elements of greatness in you, summarizing the fact; you are an asset to human race. The deposit of wonders in you shall manifest as 'factory of help' to others. This book is loaded with voice of encouragement to lift you to higher realm, you never expect. It is time you discover yourself. The time is now.

Help is a daily affair. As you seek help from others, so they need yours as well. The mystery behind help is give and take. As you receive helps, others seek help from you as well. It is therefore good to create good atmosphere for help to flow.

We all are soldiers of Christ, ready to use our time, energy and resources within our disposal to check mate acts of darkness against us. This book treats in detail the importance of intercession concerning our situation. We will learn how to pray on behalf of others, under the power and direction of the Holy Spirit, to get result.
As you shall find out in this book, it tells how dangerous it is to stand in warfare alone. We must know one thing; enemy will exploit and take advantage of our weakness. We must therefore pray and act wisely to stop enemy's access to our life. This book elaborates how to come together in unity and faith with one purpose, to destroy the work of the devil and set free the captives.

The syndrome of promise and fail people complain of is given good attention. Promise and fail has robbed many of good opportunities, that make them believe helpers are scarce. When you go through this book, how to handle such issue becomes easy.

I advise you buy two allied books to this book. They are 100% CONFESSIONS and PROPHECIES to Locate Helpers; and ANOINTING FOR ELEVENTH HOUR HELP

I welcome you to palace of helpers that recognize and give helping hands you need.

God bless, as you read on.

We must not fold arms in the midst of battle. The life is battle itself. We need to pray and cancel decisions of darkness against us. We are born to win not to lose. Many times we lose out because we don't know how to pray or go about challenges we face.
Also, you must know how to claim and retain what God gives you, called destiny. You must not be robbed!
Brethren, your case is not close until you decide to close it. Don't give up, fight on in faith, you are born to win. Be violent in prayer. The degree of your violence in prayer determines the victory that awaits you. It is time you count spoils not loss, triumph not defeat.
I have some free books for you to put fire to your prayer zeal. Pick them and inform others. Try and share your experience with five to ten people. You may be the one God sent. Don't leave them outside prayer war room.
Be your brother/sister keeper. Good-luck

CHAPTER ONE

A CRY FOR DIVINE HELP

"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth" Genesis 1:1. The history of mankind is hand work of God. The only fundamental source of help to mankind is therefore God Himself, as every other source is subject to God. Help starts and end with God. He is the Alpha and the Omega; the beginning and the ending.

It is good to start by defining what is meant by divine help. To say something is divine means it has heavenly connection. It is help that comes from God, our creator. It is a help that cannot be explained ordinarily. It means supernatural help that happens unexpectedly. It is when God made available all he has, available to you, so that you can achieve in life. Thus, He gives you assistance you need to achieve what you want.

It will be of help to ask question, who is God? As said earlier, God is the creator of heaven and earth, and what is in it. He is the uncreated creator. No one created Him. The book of John 1:1, 3 says, "In the beginning was the Word, and the word was with God, and the Word was God… All things were made by him, and without him was not anything made that was made"
Who is God? He is omnipresent and omnipotent. He is present everywhere and every time. He is all powerful. Unto Jeremiah, He said, "Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me?" There is nothing too hard for God that is why we look unto him for help. With him nothing is impossible. He is the only one you can run to for help where you will not experience failure. The book of Psalm 91 says among other that, God is our refuge and our fortress. He can deliver us from the snare of the fowler and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover us with his feathers, and under his wings shall we trust for hope, for safety, for joy and breakthrough. When one is under His cover, no other power can molest or defeat us. This is the reason we cry for divine help from the Most High God.

If God refuses to help, who can do it? When he says NO, it remains NO, and when He says YES, it remains YES. If He decides to look elsewhere, who can challenge Him? He is the last solution to our entire problem. In Him we find true security, and, protection, true joy and breakthrough. In Him we find good health and healing. This is the reason one should not put hope on men but God. The Psalmist says, "Do not put your trust in Princes, in mortal men, who cannot save. When their spirit departs, they return to the ground, on that day their plans come to nothing" Psalm 146:3-4.
When you are in search of help, freedom is expected. Divine freedom comes from God. When God dealt with your problem and challenges, it will be as if it was a dream. The fact is, those who oppose you shall be as nothing and perish. The promise of God to you in the book of Isaiah 41:12-13 says, "Though you search for your enemies, you will not find them. Those who wage war against you will be as nothing at all. For I am the LORD, your God, who takes hold of your right hand and says to you. "Do not fear, I will help you".

The Lord Almighty is ready to help and set you free from every form of captivity. Verse twelve above says, "Though you search for your enemies, you will not find them" the Bible talk about your enemies. Your enemies here do not mean persons per see, but every challenge you face. It says, you shall find them no more. This is a divine assurance from the Most High God. What this mean is, you shall be set free from every form of captivity.

I pronounce it into your life that you shall receive freedom from every challenge boasting against you and molesting your existence. Such freedom include, among others, freedom from poverty, freedom from disgrace, freedom from insanity, freedom from sickness and diseases, freedom from arrow of untimely death, freedom from spiritual and physical robbery, freedom from demons, freedom from bareness etc. By this, every contrary challenge against your breakthrough shall fail, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

But then, when do we need divine help? We need divine help every day, every time and everywhere. Divine help should not be seasonal; you must look unto God always. But there are times, you think within yourself that the type of help you need is not human but divine intervention. At such time, one is hopeless only waiting for divine intervention. The question is, when do we seek divine help? We seek divine help when any of the under listed situations occur.

1. When you need divine help from evil pursuers. The book of Exodus tells how the children of Israel were impregnated with self-defeat as they approached the Red Sea. Moses knew, the only one who can help was God. As a leader of the team, the children of Israel cried to Moses, while he cried to God. The Lord Almighty, creator of all things, dramatized his power by dividing the Red Sea for save pass of the Israelites. This is divine help from evil pursuers.

2. When individual effort could not yield result. A striking example of this, was the man who sat near the pool by the Sheep Gate called Bethesda. He was there for 38 years looking for how he will enter the water when the angel of the Lord troubled the water. Before he does it, someone else will rush inside and be healed. This made him to be by the side of this water for 38 years unhealed! But the day he set his eyes on Jesus, his problem which took him 38 years expire less than, 38 minutes. I pray, every problem holding you down for years, holding you captive for time past, holding you down now, shall expire, in the name of Jesus.

3 . When at tight financial corner. In this situation you will be mocked by enemies and detractors. To pay your children school fees become almost impossible. To feed becomes a nightmare. You are hooked and trapped in financial mess. Government came calling demanding tax from you in the like of Jesus and his disciples. In your situation, you have no one to meet to save you from financial molestation except Jesus. Hence, I pray whatever you lay your hands upon first as you read this book shall be used by God to lift you high, lift you out of financial bondage and set you before kings. Amen.

4. When specialist could not even help. We are told of the woman with an issue of blood. She was a sick woman with bleeds of blood for 12 years. She went from one doctor to another for several years without result. The bible says, not only that she was under the trauma of going about after doctors, but had spent all she had. The situation here is, she is sick and had spent all she had. She is hopeless, even the so called specialist could not help. Anyone in this situation will resign his faith to God. When this woman saw Jesus she thought within her and said "Only if I can touch his garment, I shall be made whole". To God he resigned her hope, to God she received her healing. I pray, all hopes you lost as a result of one infirmity or other, shall receive answer today, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

5. When people ask, 'where is your God'? There are situations, when question like, 'where is your God? is asked. This is when you apply every human connection within your reach and it failed. People saw you as prayer warrior, but nothing works for you. You fasted, nothing works. You went for deliverance, no answer. You are now on the cross road, asking, "Does God exist anymore?" People talk to you and ask 'where is your God'?

Your God is living and sees your plight; He knows what people say of you. This situation is likened to when the children of Israel murmured to Moses asking for water and at other time for meat. It was as if they asked Moses, where is your God? Where is the God that says we should worship Him in the wilderness? Shall we worship him in hunger and in thirst? "Moses, provide us water and meat so that we don't die". But divine help came and they were satisfied. I prophesy to your life today, that people who ask, "Where is your God?" shall see His mighty hand upon your life for good. Amen.

6. When spirit of death boast at you. There are times spirit of death boast to consume a person. The only power that can save one from spirit of untimely death is God. When the storm rose to consume the disciples in the boat with Jesus, they cried for safety. Jesus appeared in their situation and said "Peace, be still: And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm" Mark 4:39. I pray, spirit of death shall not consume you before your time. Every storm troubling your soul shall cease. Great calm shall locate your business, your career, your home and life, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

7. When there is nothing anyone could do to help. In such situation, nature is against them, what they need is supernatural intervention. The bible tells us of a man who was blind from birth. His situation was unique in that he was not blind after birth, but was blind right from his creation in his mother's womb. This was not a matter of surgery, provision of eye glass or drug. Even, if doctor provides these, it won't work, neither could he see. What he needs is divine intervention that will erase his birth predicament. That, which was missing in his life, Jesus provides. I prophesy into your life today, what is missing in your life, God shall provide for you in the name of Jesus. Amen.

8. When the battle is too overwhelming for you to bear. There are occasions you feel you are bombarded all around, or surrounded by numerous enemies, or swallowed by deep pit, with no way of escape. There was the case of a man in the Bible, Mark 5:1-20, held by thousands of demons. He was helpless. He cried from mountain to mountain, from one tomb to another. He cried for help but could not find one, not until one day he came across Jesus. The battalion of demon in him surrendered to simple command of Jesus. "Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit" Mark 5:8. And the spirit obeyed. I pray every legion of unclean spirit troubling you from harvesting your breakthrough shall die, and rise no more, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

9. When God goes to your future to reverse that which is irreversible. The book of Genesis tells us that Sarah has Isaac at her old age, 90 years. God can bring to possible what man concluded is impossible. He is God that can make impossibility possible. The book of Genesis tells how God visited Sarah and gave her a son at old age of 90 years. The law of menopause could not hold her captive to bareness. Those who labeled her barren soon realized it was a mistake. Sarah who laughed and said, "Can I bear children at my old age?", soon said, 'So this is my child at last'. Doubt vanished in her life, while faith of Abraham sharpened, brightened and revived. I pray, anything in your life that you label 'cannot be possible' because of one obstacle, or the other, shall become possible in the name of Jesus. Are you tormented with bareness? That spirit shall remove its grip upon your life by fire in Jesus name. Amen.

It is natural with human being to ask questions like the Psalmist when faced with challenges of life. We ask questions as if God is not all in all. We ask questions as if God can't save. Such questions raised in the book of Psalms are:-

(A). "Why, O LORD? Do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?"
Psalm 10:1.

(B). How long, O LORD? Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
How long will I wrestle with my thoughts and everyday have sorrow in my heart? How long will my enemy triumph over me?
Psalm 13:1-2.

(C). "Will the Lord reject forever?
Will he never show his favour again?
Has his unfailing love vanished forever?
Has his promise failed for all time?
Has God forgotten to be merciful?
Has he in anger withheld his compassions?
Psalm 77:7-9.

(D). How long O LORD? Will you be angry forever?
How long will your jealousy burn like fire?
Psalm 79:5.

Helps are far from people under witchcraft attack and from self-undoing of people when they dip hands into sin and are prayer less. It is such people you see that labour without result. They struggle and cry for help without attention. They apply all manner of breakthrough formula but hit the rock. They are seen and noted for hard work but with nothing to show for it.

What makes situation worst is, while the prison doors are wide open, the prisoners were still sitting inside. Why is this so? It is because they are either too proud to walk out or unaware that the prison door is open. Prison doors are spiritual jail that kept many in captivity. The proud knew the door is open by getting job, but felt they should have better job than what is on hand. They reject it and remain where they are. Some look for contracts or financial helps, but turn down contract of low value, waiting for contract that worth millions, without realizing one starts from somewhere. When people in this shoe beg for financial help, they reject what is offered them, thinking it is too small. These are the proud that sit tight in prison doors, even when the doors are open.

The un-aware prisoners are most hit. Helpers they cry for are just by them, but they don't recognize them. They pass by them, often discuss with them, but because they are spiritually veiled, they lose out. They waste away as prisoners in their own cells. They sat in their cells with doors wide open, and are held bound in the spirit.

Enough is enough. The jail door is open; you must choose to walk out. You are set free by Jesus. Therefore, remain free, walk out free without fear and enjoy freedom. As you do, watch who you hang out with. Keep far from people with mind of mediocrity. Also, avoid keeping company with, or listening to people that speaks evil of others, talking how they were oppressed in the past. Forget the former things; do not dwell in the past. But then, this doesn't mean we are to pretend that the past does not exist. We mustn't allow it to control, inhibit or condemn our future.

At this junction we shall ask and know TWO major areas open to seek the face of God. The first is what God made available to us to reach Him. The second is, what we shall do to reach Him. Let's take it one after the other.

1. Believe in His Name . The name of God super cedes every other name. He is the creator, who created everything in the beginning. What assistance can one need that He cannot give? He is the Lord of light. He won't allow darkness or power of darkness to harass you, if you believe and call on Him. He is the Great Judge. Our God is upright in His judgment. The Lord is our Redeemer. He is the God of Glory. He is the Fountain of living Waters. He is our Deliverer. He is the Righteous God. He hates seeing evil. He won't allow evil befall us.

He is the living God. The Lord is our Refuge. He is the Beginning and the Ending. He is the forgiving God, ready to forgive our sins. Our God is Holy. The Lord is our Defense. He is Emmanuel; God with us, so He is with us all the time. He can't forsake us and look elsewhere. He is the merciful God. He is the Chief Provider of our needs. He is the Chief Shepherd. No wonder the psalmist says the Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. When you look unto him, you shall not lack, but live an evergreen life. This is God for you, and this is the reason you must use His name all the time for whatever you need. He shall provide for you. Hallelujah!

The name of Jesus is available to us at time of need. It is made available to solve any problem all the time. He has a name above every other name, that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow. Are you faced with problem? In as much the problem has a name; it shall bow before the name of Jesus, because the name of Jesus is above every other name, your problem inclusive.

The book of Mark 16:17, makes us to understand, that the name of Jesus is powerful to drive out demons. "… in my name they will drive out demons". Are you harassed by demon? Jesus name shall drive them out. The book of Mark 14:14, says, "You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it". Jesus promised us to use his name to achieve and conquer Satan. But the question is; Do we do it? Are we up to the task? Do we believe?

2. Jesus made available His blood. By his blood, we shall be saved. The book of Leviticus 17:11 says, "For the life of the flesh is in the blood…" The blood of Jesus contains his life. He made the blood available for you to conquer the enemy. You can use his name to deliver, to heal, to protect, and to save etc. The book of Revelation made us to understand we can overcome Satan by the blood of the Lamb. Who is this Lamb? It's Jesus. Revelation 12:11, says, "They overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the lamb (Jesus) and by the word of their testimony."

You can use His blood as cover over all your needs and property. Soak your prayer in the blood so that enemies will not swallow or scatter it. When you have property, cover it the blood of the lamb. Cover your business with the blood of the lamb. Cover your career with the blood of the Lamb. Cover whatsoever you have with the blood of the lamb.

3. You can use the Word. Wash yourself in the fresh truth of God's Word. Nothing changes until the soul changes. You can't play the old wilderness game in the land of Canaan. What you feed your soul determines your quality of life and degree of freedom.

The fact is, when you immerse yourself in the word, press in deeper and deeper. There you will know its power. You will love His word like a love letter that you read over and over because you desire to be close to the one who wrote it. You will love to connect with and remember everything about that person. You will want to understand how he thinks and yearn to hear his voice again in your mind. When you hunger for those same things from God, learn to appreciate His love letter- the Bible – in that exact way.
The Bible is God's map of principles that will get us where we want to go; both in day-to-day living and eternity.

Marry yourself to the Bible. People who say the Bible isn't relevant today obviously don't know the Author. They read it like a story book or a history lesson, having no idea of the power behind it. They don't hear the shepherd's voice because they have not become one of His Sheep.
The book of Ephesians 6:17 call it the sword of the Spirit. The word of God is what you can use as sword against the devil. In the book of Mathew 4:1-11, when the devil tempted Jesus, the only weapon he used as defense is, 'It is written' The devil was confuse and was defeated because he can't change what is written.

Therefore you shall use the Word to bless, guide and deliver yourself from the grip of the enemy. Hence, say these:-
It is written, I shall be the head and not the tail
It is written, the Lord is my shepherd.
It is written, I am the seed of Father Abraham
It is written, no weapon fashion against me shall prosper

It is written; I shall not die but live
It is written, no arrow that flies by day shall consume me
It is written, no pestilence that stalks in darkness shall consume me.
It is written, my God shall cover me with His feather.
It is written; my God shall deliver me and honour me
It is written, I shall flourish like the palm tree
It is written, every gang up against me shall scatter
It is written, gate of death shall not hold me captive
It is written, I am like a tree planted by streams of water
It is written, my God is a shield around me.

4. Accept Jesus as your Lord and Saviour. We are in care of a Super Helper. He is Jesus Christ of Nazareth. When he extends his hands unto us, lack disappears. When Jesus comes into our life, he calls us to a glorious life of abundance. Imagine, when Jesus goes fishing, it is a net breaking, boat sinking load of fish! (John 21:4-6). When Jesus hold a luncheon, He feeds 5,000 people with two fishes and five loaves of bread, and twelve baskets left over (John 6:7-13). So where do we get this sense of rejection, stagnation or small-living mentality? Where do we get this poverty-stricken mind set?

Your town or family background may not favour you as a result of evils perpetrated in the past. You should not be bogged by this. Remember, Bethlehem was first remembered as cemetery. It held the pillar of Rachael's body, Genesis 35:19. The story of Bethlehem changed when our Lord Jesus was born there. The history of Bethlehem changed overnight. The wind that blew in Bethlehem changed. A star was born; laughter and joy filled the air. Heaven went into ceremony. The story of Bethlehem home birth of Jesus cannot be compared to when Rachael was buried years back.

I prophesy into your life, as you are born of Christ Jesus today, your story shall change in the name of Jesus. Your foundation shall be healed. You shall locate helpers, while helpers shall locate you. Every door of goodness that hitherto close against you shall open by fire, for glory of God to shine upon you. Amen.

Our Great helper is beside us, yet we search around hopelessly. It is time, to live in abundance. The Greek word for abundance is "perissons", and it carries with it the sense of being beyond. It means, "Super abundance in quantity and superior in quality". God is ready to give you this in excess.

Our God is great. He is the possessor of heaven and earth. The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof. The book of Haggai 2:8 says, "The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the Lord of hosts." This means the wealth of this world is in His care. Therefore it is not our portion to beg before we feed. We are born to be the head and not the tail, a lender to nations and not a borrower. Jesus is ready to lift us up.

5. Reverence the Prophets. The Bible says , "And Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground" I Samuel 3:19. A true prophet of God tells the 'mind' of God. He is God representative on earth. God wants us to listen to prophets and carry out their words, because they are inspired by Him. They speak message from God to the people as God commanded them to speak. They serve as watchman for the people. They point out the sins of King, in the order prophet Nathan and David. They predict the future, either near or distant future. It is therefore necessary for everyone to have a prophet.

But how far can one know true prophets? It is as if fake prophets outnumber genuine prophets this day. This has given great concern to people that needs spiritual help. You can know true prophet through discerning spirit. Don't rush to home or offices of prophets, without caution. If you fall prey of fake prophets, the damage may be too much.

Our Lord is ready to give us helping hands, but we have roles to play to quicken and draw God nearer to us. To do this, be a born again Christian. You must re-new your mind to Jesus for good. It is when you renew your mind; you walk out of oppressive chain. You shall not be born again alone, but should pray to uphold it. Pray and embrace spiritual transformation. Be rescued from dominion of darkness and fit in to Kingdom of God. Forget past did that may hurt you, as you decide to follow Jesus, hold on to him tight and be married to him. By this, you shall be ordered out of the prison of darkness of captives, and be strictly warned not to come back. Why, because Jesus is in charge. I prophesy unto your life, that you shall be liberated unconditionally, and shall be free forever. Amen.

It is high time you pray prayer of liberation. Pray against spiritual slavery and oppression. Many souls languish in the spirit under the yoke of spiritual slave masters. They are forced to carry out laborious task in the spirit without dividend. They are afflicted and tortured in the spirit and couldn't challenge order of their master. They fall prey of prince of darkness. Alas, today is your day of liberation. You shall challenge every attempt to limit, control, hinder, restrict, inhibit, prevent or stop fulfillment of God's purpose in your life.

To expect help from the throne, ensure you cleanse your home of occultic books, magazines, music, and artifacts before you became a believer. The Bible says, "Do not bring a detestable thing into your house, or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction" Deuteronomy 7:26. Get rid of anything that is offensive to God. When you do, you will hear his voice speak to your heart.

Lastly, ask for the grace of God upon your life. You can go to places if grace of God is upon you. The book of Genesis 6:8 says, "But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord" It is grace of God that takes you to palace of love and care of God. When you have grace of God, He moves with you. It is such time you enter into His covenant. His grace upon you accelerates His kindness and love for you. Even though you are mocked by men, God will wipe the reproach. Even though you are suffering, God shall replace it with joy. Ask for grace of God, not favour of men.

Whatever the challenge, God is able. He is ready to welcome us into his open hands. God does not want sinners to perish.

CHAPTER TWO

POWER OF UNMERITED FAVOUR

The Psalmist says, "As the eyes of slaves look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the LORD our God, till he shows us mercy" Psalm 123:2 . Mercy of God is equivalent of favour. When God shows you mercy; He favours you.

We need favour to survive. The world population is over 6 billion people and each one of these people battles for survival. You need to distinguish yourself among this population before you can be known. Here, favour comes to play. The question is, how can you perfect this; to distinguish yourself for greatness and acceptance in the midst of billion people? How do you stand out without being crushed? Where will you start? And when will you get there? These are questions that beg for answer.

The fact remains, you can't do it all alone. It will take more than your natural effort to be known. It is not in the power of the flesh to excel except God allows it. You must be supernaturally connected and assisted to be anything worthwhile in life. For you to exploit the earth and escape loss in the sea of life, something supernatural must be at work in your life. This supernatural visitation is what I call unmerited favour or anointing for favour. It is heavenly favour.

Brethren, with anointing for favour, all protocol are broken for your sake. Protocol was broken, when Modecia a Jew by birth rode on horseback like a prince, while Hamman a native, was made to walk before him hailing Modecia without apology. The King's favour located Modecia. Also, protocol was broken for the sake of Joseph in Egypt where he was once a slave, boy. He became Prime Minister in Egypt even as a foreign boy!

With divine favour, you are attracted to men and women like magnet. You are a reference of good wherever you go. Favour gives cheap publicity. It is the announcer of men. With favour on your side, you can't be hidden. It is a virtue that enhanced your value anytime, any day and everywhere. People that once reject you, shall scramble for you. With anointing for favour on your side, hope rises, while you will be too anointed to be ignored. Suddenly, everywhere shall become your land of triumph.

Favour is presence of God upon a life. When God is with you, good things happen within you, around you and through you. Hence, I pronounce unto your life, favour that will advertise you for good shall locate you today. Amen.

At this junction, we shall ask question, what is meant by anointing for favour? Primarily anointing for favour, means presence of maker of destiny in one's life. Favour affects destiny for good. You are a carrier of emptiness if you are not favorably connected with God. Favour guarantees your future and makes you walk even in the shadow of death un-hurt. Its price is far above rubies. It's above riches, gold and silver. Divine favour attracts wealth of life. It is a loving favour that can never finish. It makes a supernatural out of a natural man. It lifts you from being an ordinary man of yesterday to extra-ordinary man of today. Darkness gives way to light while story changes automatically.

What is divine favour? It is that which brings peace of mind, peace in the home, peace in career, peace in every undertaking. The word peace in Hebrew is Shallom. It means peace, prosperity, health, completeness, soundness, and safety. There are many rich people today who does not have peace of mind. Their health could not bring peace.
In Hebrew the word favour means ratson . This word ratson, is close in meaning to goodwill, delight, acceptance, pleasure or will. It is a word that represents blessings of God upon a person; what a King can do, or willingly do for his subject. It is a voluntary decision to help, assist, support or bless another, by a superior. When you receive favour, helps shall abound, close doors of greatness shall open, while smiles shall locate your face. I prophesy that God shall visit you with His favour today in the name of Jesus.

Unmerited favour is more powerful than men's favour. The father of Joseph loved him more than others, but God's favour was upon him. His father made for him, 'garment of colours' called KETHONETH PAC in Hebrew language. It is a dress of distinction. It is a dress that announces your presence and advertises you.

The cloak is a long tunic with sleeves worn by young men and maidens of the better class. Joseph's dress was skillfully woven from fine, high grade linen. The meaning of this is, Joseph was set apart from his brother in terms of responsibilities in the family. Joseph doesn't work in the fields or tend flocks. All he had to do was to attend to his father and bring him pleasure. By standard, he is a spoilt child.

But alas, the story changed for him. Favour of men, mostly favour from his father, ceased. It was favour of God that saw him through in the wilderness of life to the peak position of a Prime Minister. Throughout this period, he knew no one, neither did he have human connection. Favour of God lifted him from grass to grace.

What do we mean by anointing for favour? It is a supernatural connection with God. It will make people to be interested in you without you begging or lobbying for it.

What is anointing for favour? It is the announcer of men. Anywhere you go, people will focus on you, for assistance and acceptance. You will get what people say is difficult, in a simple manner.

What is anointing for favour? It is divine power that causes men and women, young and old, to locate you and deliver your rights into your hands. It stops every form of complaints about life.

What is anointing for favour? It means where you have been forgotten and neglected for so long, anointing of favour announces your presence for remembrance and acceptance. Hope rises and you get what you want. Don't think God has forgotten you, it is anointing for favour, you should pray for. When God remembered Joseph, and men forgot him, anointing for favour sets him free. Anointing for favour waits for right time to operate in a life. That day you are waiting for is now. Unmerited favour shall locate you. It shall be so in the name of Jesus. Amen.

But then, what do we mean by unmerited favour? Unmerited favour is a treasure of success. It is unmerited favour in the life of Joseph that makes him a success. When he was sold into slavery, he was naked and poor. Here he was alone in the hands of strangers. He was completely naked. He had nothing. He was sold without shoe on in the slave market he found himself. He had no bank account. He had no educational qualification to see him through. He had no natural connection with people of influence. Above all, he was in cold, shivering with no one to care for him. Only one thing he had was high faith. It was unmerited favour he enjoyed from God.

What do we mean by anointing for favour? It means what is valuable than riches any man can give. Favour of God makes you have riches without end. It terminates a life time struggle. Favour is the mother of all riches. It opens doors and windows of heaven unto men. No wonder, it is said, "A man plus divine favour makes him somebody, out of nobody".

What is favour? It is a powerful instrument displayed on the cross to save, to heal and to deliver. It is said, by his stripes, we are healed.

What do we mean by anointing for favour? It is a divine power that makes you a flier. As a flier, you can be found wanting anywhere you go. You are known and accepted to experience a forward match. Helps may come from all directions of life unbargained. The fact is, you remain on the ground. Are you on the ground? You need to be lifted up. To be on the ground means lack of favour from men and God. Victim meets failure and dwell in penury, people belittle you and mock you. Hence, overcome failure by seeking God's favour.

What is anointing for favour? It is the power in a life that attracts goodness. It is as good as the air we breathe to live. It is essential for our daily need. This is why, it is sometimes called, the breath of progress and surprises.

What do we mean by anointing for favour? It is a power that brings good success not bad success. Bad success are those who made it in financial terms but suffer in critical areas of life. For instance, while they have plenty of money, their lives could be scared by broken home or other occurrences. Many actors and actresses are in money but suffer marital tsunami. They experience constant marital break down. Beloved, being a public success but a private failure is not good success at all. Their children often turn out to be drug addicts and urchins in the streets. They are rich but don't enjoy their marriage, their children grew up without knowing joy in marriage.

What do we mean by unmerited favour? It means, what is divine. Before Jacob was born, he had divine favour over his twin brother Esau. Twelve tribes that made up Israel today came out of Jacob. God said, "Esau I hate Jacob I love" Malachi 1:2.

Brethren, it is high time you speak favour to your life. Learn the habit to live and swim in favour to become a success. When God put favour on you, things become easy. Anyone you approach for help yields to your request. You will think that is how it is easy for everyone. It is not so, but for favour upon you. With favour on your side, your call shall make your helper too ashamed to refuse your request.

Favour comes naturally from God not by acts. Favour, means in the area of weakness, God supplies strength. Moses was a stutterer; God used him mightily to set the Israelites free from bondage of 430 years in Egypt. God does not look at your strength before He stretches His hand of favour. Peter was a poor fisherman; he became leader of the Apostles. The widow was waiting for time her two sons shall be taken away as slaves, as a result of debts incurred by her late husband, but God through Elisha delivered her. 2 King 4:1-7.

Men are not source of your blessings, but God. You receive harvests through people but not from people. They are only made as channel to you. It is help of God that is paramount, without which you became stranded in market square of life. With favour of God, you experience uncommon lifting, that makes you rise into position of honour and power.

Divine favour is not ordinary but extra-ordinary, not natural but super-natural help you need to ascend in life. It is the capital you need to start off in life. Forget short-comings of the past, favour will lift you out of the pit. With divine favour darkness shall disappear. It will enable you bounce back from lack to plenty. It provides you with more than what you need and makes men overlook your past. Your past mistake is forgiven, errors are written off as bad debts in financial account balance sheet.

Favour of God is a heavenly flow from one person to another. It can flow from men to men, from men to women, from women to women and from women to men. It is a spiritual statistics that works like fire. God won't come down from heaven to favour you directly. He did it through angels or men. Manna came through Moses intercession on behalf of the children of Israel to God. The favour Mary, mother of Jesus had was announced by an angel. Also, God can influence anyone to favour one another. Really, he can favour your hand-work, but it is men and women that are available will carry out the favour. I pray, right men and women assign to favour you, shall locate you by fire. Amen.

One sterling point of favour from men is, their favour imprison the receiver. What I mean is, it makes helper boast and assume himself as thin god. He will say within himself, “If not for me, he won’t make it in life”. This is the effect of men’s favour. Favour of men don’t last, nor accomplish much. It can be retrieved or used to embarrass a person. It may eventually turn to tea of shame. Favour of men is a trap in disguise. In this wise, don’t settle for less, settle for BIG. What do we mean by to settle for BIG? It means going for DIVINE HELP or FAVOUR, which is favour from God. Such, terminates shame and sorrow of life.

Whatever you may be passing through today is a challenge not a problem. Some people often say, “I have problem”. You don’t have problem but challenge; you need to walk over with God’s grace. When you look at challenge as a problem, Satan will be interested to add more. But when you look at it as a challenge and address it, with hope coming from God you shall succeed.

Stop asking questions like, how will I get out of this? Where do I turn to? Who will help me out? With faith, turn to God for infinite answer. It is with faith Abraham walked with God. Challenges of life are designed by God for a change in life. Embrace challenge as it arises, rather than be scared by it. When favour of God is upon you, you shall make progress where others stagnate. You shall laugh where others cry. You shall be celebrated where others are humiliated. The simple reason for this is, because favour of God is upon you.

Unmerited favour is not by power or might. It is favour from God. It saves one from killer habits like wonders. Do you know, it is favour of God that saves drunkards from alcoholism and sudden death, such might have caused him? It is Jesus who can break addiction and set you free. It is favour of God that saves smokers from smoking. It is favour of God that saves one from spirit of immorality. Favour of God builds, it doesn’t destroy. It reshapes life, it doesn’t scatter. It strengthens you, never to weaken you or your morale. Hence, I pronounce upon your life, you shall not die in old habit enemies apportion you, in the name of Jesus

When you are favoured, whatever you touch is blessed. The circumstances around you may appear bleak. Your bank account may be empty, you may lose source of income or be in financial dark, yet with favour of God on your side, things will suddenly change. Not only this, you may have negative medical report or seems the world is crashing down around you and feel crushed or frustrated, divine favour shall write it off like a flash. I pray, as you are reading this book, and believe in God, all financial trauma or medical failure written against you or anyone in your family shall expire today, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Favour of God, makes champion out of a man or a nation. By favour, Israel became a chosen nation of God. Abraham who came from idolatry home was called by God. This is divine favour for you. You don't struggle for favour of God. He gives and showers it on who He pleases. This is why, it is called unmerited favour. You don't merit it. He feels like giving you, and that is all.

Spirit of champion was recorded in lives of many in the Bible. Joseph was favoured, he became Prime Minister in a foreign land. Abraham was favoured, he became father of nations. Noah was favoured, be built the Ark and saved lives that formed the next generation. David was favoured, he was but a shepherd boy that occupied the palace. Esther was favoured, he rose from orphan hood to be a queen. Mary was favoured, she was not the only virgin in Israel, she gave birth to our Lord Saviour.

You need anointing of favour to excel in life. Favour is a road map to success. With God on your side helpers shall locate you. Favour nullifies disappointment. With favour of God on your side, heaven is the limit, because God is on your side.

When God visits you with favour, it is like fulfilling a covenant. He showers you with surprises and do what others find difficult to do. The book you are reading is written under favour. God favoured me to write it and others in the past. It is not by power or by might.

There are over a thousand and one people who can write better, but God only favoured me to do it. Hence, I pray, favour of God shall locate and distinguish you in the midst of thousands, in the midst of millions and in the midst of billion and trillion people that occupy the surface of the earth. Amen.

Do you want to forget pain of the past? Ask God for favour that makes one special before people. Favour commands attention in the like of David, who God referred to as, "A man after mine own heart" I Samuel 13:14 . It is favour that can earn you this. When you are like a man after God's heart, you shall secure His attention. His eyes shall be upon you, guide you from falling, make it possible for you to locate helpers, and helpers to locate you.

Unmerited favour defends one from harm of wicked winds of the day. It is favour of God that preserves life. It is favour of God that saved Daniel in the den of Lions; he could have been a cool lunch for them. It is favour of God that saw Moses through in the hand of Pharaoh; he wouldn't have survived to be called freedom fighter. Job had favour of God, even in the midst of adversity; God was with him when evil winds blew against him. Favour doesn't mean you won't experience ups and downs of life. Job said, "Thou has granted me life and favour and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit". Job never succumbed. Favour of God saw him through.

It is with favour of God you walk and work right. It is not hardwork that makes a man but right work. You may work all day without result because the work you engage with is wrong work. It is not what God destined you to do. But when God's favour is upon you, you shall locate right work that gives fruitful result.

Divine favour gives one unprecedented forward march to glory. When favour of God is upon you, every side attraction, weariness, faint in the heart etc, are well taken care of. It was divine favour that helped Joseph. It took him through the horrible pit, terrible and unfriendly wilderness, temptation of higher order in Potiphar's house and unbearable prison unhurt. God gives him spirit to sustain it and above all, harvest uncommon dividends at the end of the tunnel. I pray God shall connect you with helpers that shall usher you to fruitfulness.

Anointing for favour opens great door of opportunities in a flash of time. When a man gives you what will make you survive without asking for it, it is favour. You may not have idea of it at all, yet he comes telling you to do it. Further enquiries you made from different sources open you more to it. When you embark on it, it is like jackpot. This is favour of God for you.

With favour of God, what you say is accepted with good disposition. Your thoughts become thoughts of men. People shall be at peace with you because the spirit of favour is powerfully in force. Even as a stranger in a strange land, fruitful strange attention is accorded you. You suddenly become their toast.

More doors open when you get things done in a better way. It is with wisdom you do things better. That wisdom is from God. He sets you apart from trillions of people on earth and crowns you with glory. It teaches your hands, fingers and mind to produce and do things every man will admire. With favour of God on your side, your product or service becomes beautiful and attractive for demand. Writing is favour of God. It is divine favour that directs the mind. If you are an author, it tells you do this, write about this, write it this way, arrange it this way etc. If you are a producer, it tells you the product-mix to adopt, market mix to apply to push the products to consumers. As you do it, your product or service is accepted without question. Whatever you do prospers. This is favour for you. It is un-merited favour. You don't struggle for it.

With divine favour, you speak before kings and accorded respect. Favour of God enables you to provide answer to every question asked. It is favour of God that makes you rise above your knowledge or skill. Favour adds more to what you have before men. When you go for contract, ask for divine favour to enable you win attention of people in charge to favour you and award you the contract. When it is time to attend interview, you need favour of God, to sell you to prospective employers. It is favour of God that gives you preference above others. When going for financial help, you need favour of God to make you acceptable before your benefactor. It is favour of God that draws his attention to you and assist without collateral or guarantor. When you need help, ask for favour of God to be with you.

Forgiveness of sin is based on his grace (unmerited favour) alone, and we have access into his grace by faith. Our part is only to believe. This is why New Testament is called “Gospel” or “Good News”.

You are forgiven not according to the riches of your good works, but according to the riches of God’s grace. Colossians 1:13.

Let’s look at grace at work. When King Saul, the first King in Israel sin against God he wasn’t forgiven. When David became king he sinned and was forgiven by God. David was spared, while Saul received punishment for his wrong acts, when he spared Agag, the King of Amalekites and the sheep for sacrifice. But David, who shed blood and took possession of another man’s wife, was spared. This is grace for you.
Unmerited favour gives permanent mark of recognition. You are blessed, and blessed forever. When you receive unmerited favour your body will be full of life. Abraham’s natural seeds the Jews experienced unmerited favour. A tiny nation, Israel produced some of humanity’s greatest investors, thinkers, musicians, entrepreneurs, scientists, doctors, academics, philosophers etc. Below, are few of them.

1. The Rothschild of Europe who revolutionized banking were Israelites.
2. Albert Einstein , whose theories resulted in numerous inventions and breakthroughs, and whose famous equation $E = MC^2$, revolutionized the scientific world, was an Israelite.
3. Alan Greenspan , who was the chairman of the Federal Reserve of the U.S.A from 1987-2006, was an Israelite.
4. Steven Spielberg, who is easily Hollywood most successful director and producer, is an Israelite.
5. Levi Strauss, whose company is now probably the most recognized jeans manufacturer in the world, is an Israelite
6. Paul Allen, who co-founded Microsoft with Bill Gates, is an Israelite.

The accomplishment of Jews in other fields are enormous. It is unmerited favour of God. They are the chosen race. For a small population of people, they have also produced high number of Nobel Prize winners.

It is on record, out of 750 Nobel Prizes that were handed out between 1901 and 2008, at least 163 recipient or over 21% are Jews!

This is favour of God in action. The favour God showered on father Abraham, on blessing and greatness still water to this day.

Question one may ask is, how can unmerited favour locate one? Really, you do not struggle for it, yet you need to seek for it, and not just fold arms. Take under-listed steps and welcome unmerited favour into your life.

1. Pray for divine transformation. Hannah prayed herself into it, and Samuel was the product.
2. Pray for power to sin no more and quit sin. You can't stop birds from flying over your head, but you can stop birds from making nests over your head.
In the same way, you can't stop temptations, sinful thoughts and desires from passing through your mind, but you can certainly stop yourself from acting on these temptation, sinful thoughts and desire.
3. Confess you are the righteousness of God every time you are tempted. It is not by power or by might. Refuse to accept the condemnation for your past mistakes and for your present temptation.
4. Listen to messages and read books of men of God
5. Meditate on the Word.
6. Pray for internal peace
7. Improve on your attitude
8. Surrender everything to God.

37. To the glory of God, I shall laugh and laugh to testimonies of God upon me in the name of Jesus
38. O Lord, let me enjoy strange attention that will favour me, even in strange land in the name of Jesus.

CHAPTER THREE

YOU ARE BORN TO BE A HELPER

It was an American president John F. Kennedy who admonished, "Ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country". Though he gave the admonition during his inaugural speech on January 20, 1961, it still holds water for all sundry, including you.

You are a package for signs and wonders. The Bible says you are unique and wonderfully made, meaning you have deposit of wonders in you. You weren't born to be a beggar but born to be a giver. You weren't born to be a liability but a capital human asset to the society. The Bible says, you shall be a lender to nations, not a borrower. As you expect helps from others, be of help to people as well.

When you help others, they choose to live or die with you as friend because of relationship. Your help to them is like providing home for them in their hour of need. You gave them back their lives, offered them a new beginning. Their loyalty is unquestionable. They are now ready and prepare to help. Most importantly we should pray, may God make us good friends to others; ever faithful, true blood; and not only willing but well endowed.

In this wise, you can be of help if you develop yourself. The word to develop self, means to put things right; and or, to be seen and be recognized. The Yoruba speaking in my country will say, “He who raises his shoulder is helped”. “Eni ti o gbe apa re soke lan ranlowo”

Many years back Thomas Edison told how he became point of help to millions across the globe. The story goes thus.

Thomas Edison was the guest of the governor of North Carolina one day. As they discussed, the governor praised Edison on his inventive genius.

Edison Quickly replied, “I am not a great inventor”
“But you have over a thousand patents to your credit, haven’t you?” queried the governor. “Yes, but about the only invention I can really claim as original and super is the phonograph” said Edison.

In perplex the governor said, “I’m afraid I don’t understand what you mean, Mr. Edison”.

“Well”, explained Edison, “I guess I am an awfully good sponge. I absorb ideas from every course I can, and put them to practical use. Then improve on them until they become of some value. The ideas which I use are mostly the ideas of other people who don’t develop themselves”
The mistakes of others not developing their ideas open great doors to Edison. From the work of Edison come joy to millions this day. Borrow a leaf from the wisdom house of Edison.

Help is a mystery. The extent it operates is a mystery. You can’t forecast the person that will help you. When you aim at a particular person to help you, you may eventually end up helping him instead of him helping you. This is the reason you should develop yourself. The word help operate in circle. A circle is made up of 360 degree. If we divide circle into two equal parts, we have 180 degrees on each side. You are expected to operate in one part of the 180 degree while others operate in the second 180 degree. Really, you are not separated but joined together at the cut point. This point is what I call, point of understanding. It is this understanding that generates spirit of help. What you cultivate in your territory will eventually affect other party in his territory.

INVEST IN HUMANITY

The biggest investment we may invest is to invest in our neighbour. Human investment transcends love, joy, peace and progress. It builds bright and better society. But do we realize this in Africa? Our character and that of our leaders in Africa shows we need surgical operation from deep rooted selfishness. At the end, we shall be judged by what we invest on people. Our Lord Jesus Christ spent 33 years on earth, did wonders and was referred to as Ancient of Days. Methuselah spent 969 years on earth without trace of human investment.

Above all, home front is paramount in human investment. Your home front is your FAMILY. When you build good family, you shall definitely invest on humanity. Home front is paramount to national building as well. You should try as much to focus on what your family should be. It is therefore an unwise investment to pour ourselves into our work more than into our family. Do you know what the word FAMILY means? This is it. (F)ather (A)nd (M)other (I) (L)ove (Y)ou.

To this, show love and appreciation to your family. Your immediate territory is your family. Invest in it. Do you know, if we die tomorrow, the company that employ us could easily replace us in a matter of days? But the family we left behind will feel the loss for the rest of their lives. It is therefore important to invest on your family so that it can as well invest on humanity. By this, help goes round.

The attitude of waiting on people for help all the time can be liken to captivity. God created us with lots of creativity, wisdom and knowledge, but at times we choose to look elsewhere for helps while what we scout is in us. There are certain questions we need to ask ourselves. “If I find myself lonely in a place what shall I do?” “Does it mean if I can’t find helper, I won’t forge ahead?” “What can I do to excel, or find solution to my present dilemma?

To this we shall borrow a leaf from Zacheaus. Learn from Zacheaus the man of short stature. Really the crowd was his problem. He realized this by climbing the sycamore tree making him distinct. Be distinct in your office, in your calling, and in your relationship with people. You can only help yourself when you get away from the crowd at the bottom. Zacheaus knew this and did so.

Brethren, at times, crowd is symbolic of negativity. It may not do you good. Where sins are committed is a crowd. Where evils are planned against the authority is a crowd. Moses wasn't called out of the crowd, but in a bush where only him was. David was called from the bush. He was lonely as a shepherd boy taking care of his father's flock. The two men mentioned were not in the crowd. Crowd is the abode of low thinkers. They are sparrows not eagles, crawlers not runners, sleepers that never wake, they sleep while walk.

A CASE STUDY

In the midst of danger where no one is available you must find a way of escape, so is help, you must help yourself. Help doesn't mean stretch of hand from second party alone, your contribution is vital. Take this life story as an example.

In the winter of 1995, a fishing boat began to sink in the rough, cold waters off Vancouver Island, west of British Columbia, Canada. The two men on board quickly moved to a life raft that was tied to the sinking boat by a nylon rope. Unfortunately, the rope was tied so tightly, they could not untie it.

As the fishing vessel began to sink and take on more and more water, the men smelt danger. They knew they couldn't re-board it. At the same time, neither had brought a knife into the life raft with which to cut the raft free from the sinking ship. The danger is, if the ship eventually sink it will pull the life raft under the water, including them!

They have foreseen severe danger ahead unless they could find a way to cut the rope. Here they are no help, no knife, and no hope, except wisdom to address the situation. They need to help themselves out of the situation. The two men decided to chew the rope so that it might give way. They began chewing the rope, alternating as each man's jaw become exhausted. One man lost a tooth in the process. They worked steadily and feverishly for more than an hour, and minutes before the fishing boat sank completely, they chewed through the rope! They survived to be rescued later by another fishing vessel.

These two brave men can be said to win golden medal of the day from what I call "The power of Help yourself". If they had waited longer crying or lamenting, they may sink before rescue team arrived. They never blamed each other, or blame the weather or sea; neither do they blame the ship builder. What was paramount to them was help, which they don't find from any other person but themselves. They don't allow panic keep them from taking action in an adverse situation. It was as if they adhere to the word of Sir. Winston Churchill; "Never, never, never, never give up"

There is this attitude we must build, it is non resilience. Success comes when we don't quit but help ourselves. When we see successful people, we often assume, they were always in the right place at the right time, that they never failed or never experience rejection in life. If the truth are known, they build attitude of never quit, but helped themselves in the course of their pursuit.

A CASE STUDY

There was this true life story of a man who weathered the storm and the other who didn't. In Washington D.C, a man sat in a wheel chair with a tin cup and a bunch of pencils in his hands, gaining a meager living by begging. The excuse for his begging was that he lost the use of his legs, through infantile paralysis. His brain which serves as power house of reasoning was not affected.

In another part of the same city was another man who was afflicted with the same handicap infantile paralysis. He lost the use of his two legs at infancy but never relent efforts to forge ahead in life. He applied self-discipline and courage. His reaction to the loss of his legs was far different from his counterpart that begs for a living. His reaction to turn incapacity to capacity (self-help), led straight to the occupation of the White House; the highest position within the gift of the American people. His name? Woodrow Wilson.

Fabulous success awaits you through self-help. Scores of people got to the top through self-help. Their struggle and weathering the storm brought millions into palace of help even after their death. Their contributions to humanity were loaded with helps. Imagine these personalities.

John Carson. He was a failure in his effort at his own network show; today he is the standard by which all T.V. personalities are judged.

Glenn Cunningham. He was a world record holding spinster. He ran the world fastest miles! Had legs badly burned in a school fire?

Franklin D. Roosevelt was struck down with infantile paralysis.

Benjamin Disraeli was subjected to bitter religious prejudice.

Abraham Lincoln was raised in abject poverty

Itzhak Perlman , concert violinist was paralyzed from the waist down at age four.

John Bunyan was imprisoned but wrote earth shaking books while there.

Martin Luther King, Jnr., and George Washington Carver were all born into a society filled with racial discrimination.

Nelson Mandela was imprisoned for 27 years, with self discipline and hope, he came out to contest and became first non-racial president of South Africa.

The list is on and on, for those who with goodwill fought adversity of life and conquer, not relying solely on people for help. The spirit in them caught fire and propels them to the top.

Margaret Thatcher the Iron Lady of Britain, once said, “You may have to fight a battle more than once to win it”

A person who wants to help doesn’t look at their age or where they occupy in the rung of the ladder of life. Your age shouldn’t discourage your zeal to help others. When you help others grow, more vision shall come your way.

Let's look at this famous man of history.

A CASE STUDY

From beginning, Will Kellog was shy man with few friends, limited interests and no definite talents. He worked for his older brother, a prominent yet stingy Medical Doctor who never paid Will Kellog more than 87 dollars per month.

In other to reduce running overhead costs, the two brothers discovered wheat flake, in an experiment to produce cereal for Dr. Kellog's patients. Will Kellog tried to convince his brother to produce it in commercial quantity, but Dr. Kellog refused

In 1906, at age forty six, Will kellog made up his mind to set up a business. He exhibited extra business genius into it. His marketing aggressiveness earned him, one of the first advertisers to use colour magazine advertisement, test marketing, and widespread sampling. Can you guess, what was his product?

It was CORN FLAKES

What do we learn from this? He didn't only employ more hands in his business, spreading hands of helps to the unemployed, but became one of the nation's richest men.

WHAT GOD WON'T ASK AND WHAT GOD WILL ASK

It is both natural and biblical to help. God wants to know how you manage your daily activity. He wants to know how you manage your talents. He wants to know how you fair well with your neighbour. The Bible says, love thy neighbour. Love here implies help and the allied.

God won't ask what kind of car you drove, but He will ask how many people you welcome into your home.

God won't ask about clothes you had in your closet, or how many material possessions you owned, but He will ask how many owned you.

God won't ask how many promotions you received, but he will ask how you promoted others.

God won't ask you how many friends you had, but He will ask what you did to help others.

God won't ask you how many friends you had, but He will ask how many people to whom you were a friend.

God won't ask what you did to protect your rights, but He will ask what you did to preach the rights of others.

God won't ask in what neighbourhood you lived, but He will ask how you treated your neighbours.

God won't ask about the colour of your skin, but He will ask about the content of your character.

Jesus taught us how we should treat our neighbors, in a way He needed to be treated.

"Then the King will say to those on his right, come, you who are blessed by my father, take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger and you invited me in. I needed clothes and you clothed me. I was sick and you looked after me. I was in prison and you came to visit me" Mathew 25:34-36.

This is what the King of kings need from you and me. He wants us to be our brother and sister's keeper. Therefore, help your neighbour without season, with wisdom and prayer. I say good-luck.

CHAPTER FOUR

A NEED FOR HELP

Every creation of God seeks help. Nation seeks help, state seeks help, and community seeks help, so are individuals. To seek help connotes assistance, support, need, to depend upon others, to do part of the work of other, to do something for the benefit of somebody in need. Needs are sought when challenges or problems arise.

Problem comes whether you are righteous or not, whether you are short in stature or tall, whether you are coloured or white. The dead only, don't have challenge. From the day of creation God demonstrated the need for help, when He said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness…" Genesis 1:26. The two words 'let us …' signify plural. It means, God with someone or others in the spirit created Adam before Eve was created. Others here are most likely to be Jesus, the son and the Holy Spirit. First man, Adam was created in conjunction not in solo.
In the early ministry of Jesus, he ministered in conjunction with his disciples. He realize the need for able hands, so he called the twelve apostles. They went all out with Jesus, carrying out one role or the other in his ministry. When the multitudes were fed, the disciples participated in the share of the food to the multitude. When Jesus was to pay tax, he sent his disciples to catch the fish that provide money for the tax. When Jesus was to ride on ass, his disciples went and provide it in accordance with Jesus instruction. His disciple went out as one person for evangelism outreach. After the death and ascension of Christ, his disciples went to preach the good news. That good news is what makes you a Christian today. The works of the disciples in those days became spiritual catalyst that liberated us from the works of darkness. This is how 'help' works!

The need for help cut across strata in the society. Help can be likened to a flow event. It starts from the day of our conception to the day we pass on. It may sound funny in the ear, but it is true. Need for help starts from the very day you were conceived. Before conception, your parents look unto God (divine call) for a baby. At conception both parents prepare their minds towards the day of delivery.

During pregnancy, an expectant mother visits clinic for medical care (help), while close associates and people she doesn't know give her moral and financial support (help). As delivery is close by, an expectant mother searches round for clinic that gives quality service. From everyone she seeks advice, it is help she needs. Help is therefore, a continuous process.

At infancy, babies are groomed not by parents alone, but by friends, housemaid, neighbours, teachers and guardians. Their concern for the baby is demonstrated with help. When the baby grows, he reciprocates by going on errands for elders, give help hands to peers and the unknown. At adulthood, his leverage of help expands.

At school and after graduation help is needed. During apprenticeship and thereafter helps are sought. In ones calling or career the need for help sounds like trumpet. Every minister of God need helps before he can accomplish his ministry. He needs support of members to put structures on ground, he needs moral support, intercessors etc. to propel the good news. On the other end, the minister preach, counsel and intercede on behalf of people and nations. This is spiritual help. Ministers give financial helps as well.

When one establishes company or a venture, he needs hands (help) to operate it. Employees can either reciprocate by giving positive or negative hands to operate it. Positive hands are loyal workers while negative hands are non-loyal workers that defraud or contribute negatively to the organization. Government needs the support (help) of the public and staff to survive. Hospitals need drugs (help) from pharmaceutical companies. Power sector supplies public and government agencies electricity to survive. Every service rendered is a help while every payment is a 'help' for recipients to survive.

Help is a daily affair. As you seek help from others, they need your help as well. The mystery behind help is give and take. As you receive helps, others seek help from you. It is therefore good to create good atmosphere for help to flow.

A CASE STUDY

As said earlier, help is a mystery. It is like a seed. There are helps with seeds that are sowed and will germinate and harvested same day. Can't you see, it is a mystery? How can one plant seed for it to germinate, mature and harvested same day? We shall answer this as we read through below true life story.

Sundar Singh was a famous Indian preacher who each year journeyed into Tibet. One year, he and two friends were travelling through the high mountains and were caught out in a severe snow storm. As they marched on, one of Sundar's friend was exhausted, fell down in the snow helpless. Sundar looked at him with pity, but the third man discouraged him from lifting him up. He said, "Sundar we must leave him otherwise we all will perish. I'm going on". He left.

At this point, it was as if Sundar's mind was caught by the book of Ecclesiastes 4:10, which says, "If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up!" He looks with compassion at his dying friend, lying in the snow. He stooped down picked up the man and threw him over his shoulder and staggered on.

As he did so, heaven opened, the law of nature took place. Is it not written in the Holy Book? "Also if two lie down together, they will keep warm. But how can one keep warm alone?"

As Sundar carried the dying friend on his shoulders, they exchanged body heat, preserving them both. But the third man was alone as he journeyed along. Soon after, Sundar came across the lifeless form of the other man. He had failed to make it. Sundar and his friend made it. They didn't die on the way. They got to where to preach. What helped Sundar was the helping hands he gave his dying friend. The heat in his body went to the man, while that of the man went to him. This made both warm and then, made it. The help he gave brought immediate result. The seed Sundar Singh planted, help to a friend, germinate and was harvested same day. They were alive. The third man who refused to give help hands died.

Help is reciprocal. Learn a lesson from this. I told you.

WE ARE HELPMATES

God ordained marriage because a man and a woman aren't complete without one another. They each need a helper to make it possible to survive the rough attacks life brings.

The first man Adam needed help. The reason being because he was alone. "Two are better than one … if one falls, the other pulls him up, but if a man falls when he is alone, he's in trouble … And one standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back- to- back and conquer" Ecclesiastes 4:9,12.

This describes what God intended marriage to be, one pulling up another and each helping the other. The Lord formed Eve from Adam's rib. She was taken out of the man. When God made the woman from the man, it was so she would be a helper. As it is in marriage, so it is with others. The Lord can send helpers to you in your ministry, calling or profession to help in time of challenges. In your ministry, they will be people saved, healed and delivered through your ministry. They will come out of your ministry and join you as Eve was joined to Adam.

NEGATIVE HELPS

When God made the woman for the man, it was so she would be a helper. Unfortunately, instead of Eve helping Adam to fulfill the purpose of God, she helped him to fail

The devil found help in Eve. The devil couldn't destroy Adam directly so he walked through the woman "to help". Eve was to be Adam's helpmeet, but she helped devil's purpose rather than of God or Adam.

This is negative help. This day there are many Eves in the home. The home of many General Overseers, ministers of God, Born again Christians are expected to be God's vineyard, a modern Garden of Eden. But is it so? Have their wives learnt from Eve in the garden with the serpent? It is as if they knew nothing and learned nothing. Many are semi-devil at home, angels outside home. Most men of God and born again Christians have taken the situation as a cross they must carry. When their wives laugh and joke in the church or with people outside, they felt relieve, praying inwardly for such to be at home. Alas! It is the reverse. It is war at home. They don't respect their husband at home, but pick quarrel to frustrate the ministry.

What do you think of minister's wife that luck up her husband when he is set out for ministration? What help is in a minister's wife who fails to prepare food for her husband at home? Or of a woman who curse her husband even before visitors? These are the attitude of most women at home, including a number of minister's wives. It may sound funny and unbelievable, but it is real. I am not here to castigate minister's wives, but I witnessed it years back when I was young.

Let's share this story, so close to truth that we may conclude as, true life story. It is about a great evangelist who was mentally tortured by his wife before he passed on at fairly old age.

This man was a great revivalist in Nigeria in the nineteen thirties to fifties. His revival shook the nation, yet his helper was not helping matters. The story we heard was, whenever he dressed in white garment (not the cherubin or celestial type) common in those days and take his bell in hand for crusade, his wife will 'raise hell' with him, and at time pour red oil on his dress! Instead of this man to pick quarrel, he calm down. He knew Satan was at work.

I say again, this topic is not meant to castigate women or paint them bad. We only draw attention to helpmeets that are not. But then are men left out? Does it mean only women should be helpmeets? What about men? The behaviour of some men is full of apology. They are crowned with envy, to frustrate their wives from worshiping God or excel in life. They frustrate their wives to accomplish their ministry. Sometimes, they bully their wives to submission and threaten divorce, if she steps out for ministration or support works of God. Are men in this shoe helpful? The answer is no.

I wonder how often husbands neautralize their wives ministry, and wives neautralize the ministry of their husbands, by unwittingly becoming "helpers" of Satan for selfish reason.

In summary, and to all; your spouse is not the 'competitor'; he or she is simply God's provision to help you become a success in life. Trying to diminish your assistant or any 'rising star' in your company or ministry, turning against or fighting any new anointed, or gift in your church or group, maligning, persecuting and making things hell for any subordinate seen as a threat to your position, are all Satan's strategies to one's self destruction.

Ironically, it is a fact that some simply do such things because they don't want their inefficiencies to be exposed, outshined by the brightness and creativity of any new person around. To such persived insecurity, I pray you shall not fall into it; because it is satanic trap to drive or destroy God's very answer to your prayer.
Negative help goes beyond this; it includes activities of public to degenerate co-existence and love, or to accumulate financial impropriety. Negative helps include among others as follows: -

1. When people recruit girls for commercial sex overseas. The girls are promised help at home but the kind of help they receive is appalling when they get to overseas. They introduce them to commercial sex, while the proceeds go to madam, the woman behind the evil trade.

2. When one is introduced to illicit trade or act like drug pushing, stealing or robbery. These trades and allied are bad, and shouldn't be seen as help. It is negative help.

3. When a person is initiated into witchcraft to fight a cause or avenge on another. This is witchcraft and negative help.

4. When lured into cult to acquire power or wealth, it is nothing but negative help.

5. When directed or taken to herbalist or men of God of questionable character for help. Helps rendered by people in this shoe are Satanic because they don't base their power on Jesus.

6. When lured to take side, for evil purpose, before help can be rendered, is a negative help. This is an act of conspiracy.

Everyone is an asset of help; you are born to help and others to help you as well. Help is not one-way traffic. No one is born into the society as a liability. Discover yourself, develop yourself, and refine yourself for signs and wonders.

We are manager of one thing or another. God created us to have dominion over all creation. He empowered us with creativity. Heaven is open to everyone. When it rains or sunshine's, it affects everyone. Rain and sunshine connotes we are entrusted with resources, if developed, it shall affect others positively as well.

The late, President Ronald Reagan of the US on his inauguration on January 20, 1981, had said, "We must act today in order to preserve tomorrow. We are going to begin to act, beginning today". You need to act now. In the course of your act, you shall help others, while others shall help you.

It is therefore paramount we enhance the resource in us to add value to life. When you look around, you shall conclude, 'there is a need for help! Shalom.

CHAPTER 5

PRAYER FOR INTERCESSION

Intercession is a word used often but in vague form. Intercession has been of help to many at a time without knowing. It is a prayer weapon with two edged sword. It was used to deal with the cruel and clever deed of Satan who is opposed to God and God's purpose.

How then can we define the word intercession? Broadly, intercession can be defined as: "Praying on behalf of others, under the power and direction of the Holy spirit, knowing there will be divine results".

It is dangerous to try to stand in warfare alone. The enemy will exploit and take advantage of our weakness. When spiritual help is strong in an area, the enemy has no access and is destroyed through the spirit of unity. The corporate anointing manifests strongly as we come together in unity and faith with one purpose, to destroy the works of the devil and set the captives free.

Intercessors are helpers in the war. Every person needs helpers of the war. They are people that will strengthen and support you as you go forth and destroy powers of darkness. They are people that will deliver you from danger or strengthen you to overcome all odds. Intercessors are mighty men, helpers of the war. Intercessors are strong and expert in spiritual warfare. They are trained for battle. They are men and women of one heart and one spirit. They know how to follow orders and keep rank.

Intercessors, (spiritual helpers), provide spiritual helps for one by labourig in prayer. The result of intercession is walking perfect and complete in all the will of God. Intercession will help break the limitations caused by spiritual resistance. Intercession will launch you to greater height.

Prayer of intercession clears clouds of non-understanding, when you are interceded for, your wisdom doubles. Key to understanding is handed over to you without you participating in the prayer. People that intercede on your behalf may know one or two things about you. They may understand areas of your weakness or limitation as well. Weakness here does not mean sin but areas where you need spiritual or natural assistance. It may include among others, lack of skill, lack of power or ability to function effectively in certain area. It may also be a danger demolishing prayer help. By this, the person may be thousands of miles away from where intercession is made on his behalf. Intercession makes him escape from attack or death.

Intercession means praying for somebody besides yourself. Now the "somebody" may be someone who is near and dear to you. You care very much about his or her present welfare, and his eternal well-being. So you earnestly and urgently pray for him.

The "somebody" may be someone you don't even know personally, someone who lives in a far, foreign country. Maybe the "somebody" is a missionary in that country. The basic idea in intercession is that it is a prayer on behalf of someone else.

CASE STUDY

A missionary told this true life story while visiting his home church in Michigan. It is a story of an incredible example of how the spirit of the Lord moves in mysterious ways.

He said, "While serving at a small field hospital in Africa, every two weeks I traveled by bicycle through the jungle to a nearby city for supplies. This was a journey of two days and required camping overnight at the half way point.

"On one of these journeys, I arrived in the city where I planned to collect money from a bank, purchase medicine and supplies, and begin my two day journey back to the field hospital. Upon arrival in the city, I observed two men fighting, one of whom had been seriously injured. I treated him for his injuries and at the same time talked to him about the Lord Jesus Christ.

I then traveled two days, camping overnight, and arrived home without incident. Two weeks later, I repeated my journey. Upon arriving in the city, I was approached by the young man I had treated who told me that he had known I carried money and medicines. He said, 'Some friends and I followed you into the jungle, knowing you would camp overnight. We planned to kill you and take your money and drugs. But just as we were about to move into your camp, we saw that you were surrounded by 26 armed guards.

At this, I laugh and said, “I was certainly all alone out in that jungle campsite”

The young man pressed the point, however and said, “No sir, I was not the only person that saw the guards. My five friends also saw them, and we all counted them. It was because of those guards that we were afraid and left you alone”

At this point in the Sermon, miles away from Africa where the incidence happen, one of the man in the congregation jumped to his feet and interrupted the missionary, asking if he could tell him the exact day this happened. The missionary told the congregation the date, and the man who interrupted told him this story.

“On the night of your incident in Africa, it was morning here, and I was preparing to play golf. I was about to putt when I felt the urge to pray for you. In fact, the urging of the Lord was so strong that I called men in this church to meet with me here in the sanctuary to pray for you. Would all of those men who met with me on that day stand up?”
The man who had met together to pray that day stood up. The missionary wasn’t concerned with who they were, he was too busy counting how many men he saw. There were 26.

The help of the Holy Spirit triggered the man to pray for the missionary. It worked like fire. Many matters are far beyond our understanding. At such times it is a comfort to know we have a Helper, Who will direct our prayers according to God’s will.

There are times when God will bring certain people to our mind. We should take such thoughts and impressions seriously. It is the voice of the Spirit saying, “Pray for this person, and pray for him now!” This is divine call to intercede. Don’t put it off.
We see, therefore, that in intercession the Holy Spirit tells when, how and for whom to pray for. That is God’s part. Our part is to obey and pray.

MODESTO MANIFESTO

There is what is called joint help intercession. This is coming together to intercede for one another and sometimes together to boost relationship, ministry or revival.

Back in 1948, four friends came together in Modesto, California, to pray and plan. They wanted their evangelistic ministry to be God-honouring and above reproach, so they agreed to hold one another accountable to principles of integrity that would guide their organization, and their personal lives. They called their agreement the "Modesto Manifesto". You may recognize their names: Billy Graham, Grady Wilson, George Beverly Shea, and Cliff Barrows.

APPRECIATE FRIENDSHIP

Intercession connotes help, and where help lacks, danger is invited. The book of Ecclesiastes says, "If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up"

This passage summarizes the need for help and the consequence of not having helper when the need arises. Helpers are persons known or unknown to us. They are good friends of circumstance, and or, of long term. Who are good friends? They are like stars. You don't always see them, but you know they are always there.

Most people walk in and out of your life, but only friends' leave footprints in your heart. Friends are quiet angels who lift us to our feet when our wings have trouble remembering how to fly. Most times your helpers have heart that beat as one. This is the reason; you should make friends before you need them. Friends are those who speak to you after others quit. They are like cement that hold the world together. No wonder it is said, the best mirror is an old friend.

A FRIEND

A friend is worth a fortune. He is like a diamond, precious but rare; false friends are like autumn leaves, found everywhere. A friend won't find faults in you every time, he is eager to help. He is someone who thinks you're a good egg even though you're slightly cracked. He makes himself responsible for your faults.

The law of friendship is, if you want to have friends be friendly. Good friends though may not be present with you, will continuously look out for your best. They are not 'men's pleasers', but they are the ones that have your back! They will defend you, represent you and continuously be loyal. These are the 'eyes' behind your back.

They will defend your honour, not only because they believe in your call, but see themselves as called by the same God alongside you and positioned with counsel and resources to help you. Everyone needs such friends to cover their blind spots.

Your net of friendship should spread above board. In the wake of Absalom's rebellion against his father, men of thought of different origin gave David both moral and financial supports.

The book of 2Samuel 17: 27-29 has the record; "Now it happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the people of Ammon, Machir the son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim, brought beds and basins, earth vessels and wheat, barley and flour, parched grain and beans, lentils and parched seeds, honey and curds, sheep and cheese of the herd, for David and the people who were with him to eat. For they said, "The people are hungry and weary and thirsty in the wilderness"
These are influential confederates, leaders and captains in their 'territories' (business), using their wealth and substance to serve God through partnership with God's chosen one. They know exactly what kind of help that is needed, and came ready in spite of age, distance or denomination! These are David's friends even at critical period.

I pray in our 'darkest days', may we never lack the help of true friends whose hearts are as deep as their pockets and use it as a platform to help. Amen.

Above all, a friend is someone we turn to when our spirit need a lift. He is someone to treasure, for friendship is a gift. He fills our lives with Beauty, Joy and Grace.

I pray, you have good friends to rely on in time of needs. Amen

CHAPTER 6

HELPS OF MINISTERIAL GROWTH

Ministerial growth is a spiritual matter that needs both physical and spiritual hands to propel the ministry to a higher realm. Every believer should be involved in the ministry of help. Members should be rooted and grounded in love, and see themselves as one. The anointing of help flows strongest in an atmosphere of love. In the atmosphere of hatred, the spirit won't move. Love will always seek to bless and help others.

There are people who are blessed with anointing of helps. They can sacrifice whatever to bless. This anointing is a special grace given to individuals to function beyond that which every believer can do. Anointing of help is supernatural and gives a person ability to function beyond the natural realm. Apostle Paul dramatizes the need and use of anointing of helps. He doesn't overlook people but genuinely and sincerely praise them. He knew how to properly relate to helpers. Doing this, arouse spirit of workers in the vineyard. Then, the church moves forward.
The word help is from the Greek word antilepsis which means relief. To relief is to reduce pains of another. It means to reduce burden and break yoke. Relief encompasses financial relief, mental relief, social relief, spiritual relief etc. The anointing of helps upon givers will relieve the ministry of strains, and free them to give themselves to prayer and the ministry of the Word.

The church should have abundant hands to move forward. The church is a ministry established for prayer and to receive answer. It is both spiritual and welfare gathering to see to the welfare of people. Primary aim of a church is to gather souls for prayer. It is a spiritual government on earth to wage war against the vile of the devil, and to seek the face of God. It is not an avenue to build empire of wealth. Once a Pastor or General Overseer believes wealth as ultimate, he will surely derail. Whatever he preaches or does will be centered on money. Even on his bed, while down, he thinks money.

CHURCH GOVERNMENT

The church being a ministry represents government on earth. It must be steered right with good focus. As it is known, a government without focus fails, so is with church. Government is from the Greek word Kubernesis meaning to steer, or one who steers a ship. Those who steer the ship must be sincere and worthy. Helps may come within or from outside. Helps are used to undergird ships into a higher realm of supernatural manifestation of the Holy Spirit. Helps are meant to strengthen and support the church. Helping hands in the church includes various groups in the church, ushers, janitors, catchers, park attendants, choirs etc. Each person or group makes the church to move forward.

Helps provide the spiritual support and strength the church needs to weather the storms of opposition and spiritual resistance. Every effort put together navigate the spiritual traffic of the church to safe landing. Helps are needed to avoid spiritual shipwreck and disaster. In the midst of this we need intercessory help to intercede on behalf of the church, prophetic helps to give spiritual direction, musical helps to launch ministers into higher spiritual realm, natural helps to steer the ship of the ministry etc. When all are put together for good, the church moves forward.

Those who organize and give sense of direction represents the government, helpers are mostly members. Yet leaders are not left out in help. The two help to keep the ship on course. Governors steer the ship, helpers give support to the ship. The fact remains, without steering and support, ships will get stuck or go off course. The two have to work hand-in-hand, helping each other to help reach the goals and destination the Lord purposed for the church.

BURDEN LIFTING HELPS

Anointing for help, flows to leaders as well as members. Leaders receive the anointing for helps and receive the people God sends to them to help. There are people God send as helper in the ministry. They are sent by God. They have anointing in this area. But it doesn't come easy, the enemy will fight your ministry and try to destroy you. Here, faithfulness plays vital role. To excel and be fruitful in this area of help, you must remain faithful to the call of God. Helpers will come from every direction to help fulfill your needs. He will help you and give you more than enough.
When helpers troops into the church or surrounds you, don't look down on them, or use flesh to relate with them. Sooner or later, they shall be of greater help in position of authority in the church. You may look at them for advise, finance or moral help. They are men and women equipped to help and operate in certain positions of authority.

The lift of burden from shoulders is the work of every one. No one is left out. Leaders are anointed by the Spirit of God to lift the burden from the shoulders of the people, while people are expected to do same to leaders. The load becomes so much that he is confuse. He needs helps that is supernatural to launch him into supernatural realm. Thus, leaders should crave for people anointed to lift natural and spiritual burdens from the shoulders of people.

Jesus is set to remove every form of yoke and burden from the life of believers. He said, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light" Mathew 11:28-30. When God arise, both natural and spiritual helps shall abound and burdens lifted out of shoulder. Members shall arise to relieve others of burden. Joy and relieve shall fill heart of brethren because the storm is over; burdens are gone while yokes are broken.

NATURAL HELPS

Natural helps are unique in ministry. They are helps attached to leaders in the course of moving the ministry forward. Such helps re-engineer spiritual values of leaders to greater height. Natural helps is in tune to natural needs. Natural helps prepares one for higher office. A good number of natural helps to leaders in the ministry involve, cooking the meal of a master, washing his clothes, driving man of God to meetings, setting up the book and tape table etc.

Let's look at an example in the Bible. "But Jehoshaphat said, is there not here a prophet of the Lord that we may inquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, which poured water on the hand of Elijah" 2 King 3:11.

It is recorded; Elisha the son of Shaphat poured water on the hands of Elijah. Elisha knew he must learn to walk before he could run, so he bends to learn from his master. Elisha must have done more than this to his master in their closet. He never one day ask his master how to be a master but served him diligently. He was unlike this day learning pastor who wants to be a master on their own. They are in haste to set up ministry, or gather members around to frustrate their master out. Some went further for dark power to outshine the boss. They scramble for pulpit saying, "Give me the pulpit, I want to minister"

Natural helps bring promotion and open heaven if done with faith. Climb the ladder with wisdom and faithfulness. You will never be faithful in your ministry or receive faithful hands if you are not faithful in that which is another.

SPIRITUAL HELPS

Spiritual helps makes one flow in the spirit and hear the word of the Lord. Spiritual helps is a spiritual catalyst that prepares mind for ministration. It is a powerful instrument of open heavens. Voices are heard, actions follow when one is caught into spirit realm by spiritual helps.
Musicians and choirs provide spiritual helps to ministry gifts. Spiritual helps will launch ministry gifts into another realm. The Lyrics and songs of spirit provide help ministry needs to enter into prophetic flow. As a leader you need to flow in the spirit and see far beyond human knowledge. The prophetic flow will change you into another man.

There was a time Elisha needed the assistance of the minstrel to flow in the spirit. He ordered for one and the situation changed. This is the account. "But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him" 2 King 3:15. In a twinkling of an eye, Elisha prophesied victory of the three kings against Moab. His prophecy came to pass.

In the spirit, spiritual helps draw the hands of the Lord upon ministry for deep mystery. It may be difficult to get into certain realms without help. Spiritual helps will launch ministry gifts into higher realms through anointed music. Songs of the spirit launch believers into higher realms of the spirit. Miracles and healings come as a result. The prophecies will become stronger; the Word preached becomes storm breaker, healings become total and miracles greater and genuine, because of spiritual helps.

PROPHETIC HELPS

Prophetic helps are the works of prophets in the ministry. Prophets shed light in disputed issues or matters that seems blurred. Prophets will tell what may happen soon or in years to come. They minister confirmation on issues, rebuke steps that may bring disaster, correct and give unreserved advice. They also edify goods to come, exhort what is at hand or yet to come and give comfort.

Prophets have encouraged believers for centuries. They have ministered strength to millions to forge ahead. They prophesied by the spirit of God, and the word of God is in their tongue.

The book of Ezra records the story of God's people coming home from the captivity in Babylon to the Promised Land in order to rebuild the temple of God and establish their homes. They were certain they were not on their own, for God was guiding them by his prophets. Haggai and Zechariah provided spiritual helps to the leaders of Judah. They provide spiritual helps to build the Lord's house. The hands that were weak as a result of adversaries became strong. Their hearts came together as one. They became unmovable pillar.

Spiritual help is what should not be brushed aside. They are needed when there is opposition or resistance in the spirit. Leaders need help to break through every opposition that may rear their heads. Prophetic helps silence every discouragement and frustration.

Prophets of God are agents of God on earth. Many ministry would have remain stagnated if not for the gifts of God; the prophets in their midst helping them. The words of the mouth of the prophets are mountain movers. Their words overturn the mountain by the root and clear barriers before they appear. Their words are laws of God. They have authority to loose and to bind. They are helpers in the ministry. With prophets you will no longer have any secret cry again. Prophetic helps bring about quick recovery of gifts, visions and great projects.

FAITH HELPS

There is need for faith helps in our ministerial daily activity. Faith helps come from one person or group to the assistance of someone in need of help. It is the faith built to help that brings result. There are many people who need helps in order to receive miracles. They are in dear need of help but someone do the push. They help another with their faith. Faith helps is not just spoken faith but one backed with action.

Let's look at the Bible to buttress our point on faith helps ministry. "Some men came, bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four of them. Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus and, after digging through it, lowered the mat the paralysed man was lying on. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Son your sins are forgiven" Mark 2:3-5. The faith of these four men launched the paralytic man into deliverance, healing and forgiveness of sin. There are people that need our help in order to receive salvation and healing. They are either too physically or spiritually weak to receive miracle. They need help to launch them into miracle. The help is called faith helps.

Those who flow in this administration of faith helps, move in supernatural compassion for the lost, the sick and the bound. They will go the extra mile to help the faith of another. They knew the man needs help and stretch to him helping hands.

FINANCIAL HELPS

There is anointing in the ministry called anointing of financial helps. It is the help of giving out your substance for the smooth running of the ministry. Just as giving strengthens the hands of leaders, lack may weaken the hand, that doesn't give. It is therefore, of necessity, to strengthen weak hands. Finance is said to be the blood stream of business. This should extend to ministry as well. Money is needed to carry out many activities in the church.

There are times ministry look for finance to expand or go into viable welfare project. The first acid test is mainly focused on church members before search light is applied outside for help. It is good to give but it takes the grace. It is therefore necessary for leaders to pray for members that will put the church in mind for financial helps.

The Bible records how three women, Mary called Magdalene, Joanna and Susanna gave generously to the ministry. (Luke 1:2-3) They served the Lord by giving to Jesus ministry. They provided help to his ministry from time to time; leaders need financial assistance in order to complete the work of the ministry. Anyone who supplies financial need should do so from a generous heart. The motive must never be to hijack the ministry or have overwhelming control.

To give to ministry mean giving it financial strength to reach and fulfill the vision given by the Lord. Leaders should pray for strong givers who will flow in the anointing of helps. They will cultivate the habit to help and assist the servants of God through giving.

Unless a man is helped, he gets nothing done. When he is unable to get resources to carry out his vision, he will be bitter and angry. His mind becomes negatively affected. So it is with leaders in the church. They need finance to navigate affairs of the church.

IMPARTATION HELPS

Impartation is a spiritual transfer of power, the laying on of hands on a person. The person that transfers is often leader or one with superior gift. Apostolic helps provide spiritual help to others that will give fresh strength. Impartation is a help in the ministry.

Most impartations are done by men of God, prophets, apostles and leaders. Apostles have the anointing and ability to help establish things in the lives of individuals and in the church. Apostle Paul knew the importance of impartation in his epistle to the Romans. "For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established" Romans 1:11. To impart here means to transfer anointing upon believers in Rome. In the book of Timothy, it was recorded twice, the value of impartation in his life, (1 Timothy 4:14 and 2 Timothy 1:6) Timothy received spiritual help through the laying on of hands of the Apostle Paul.

Impartation of help is a spiritual energizer, and catalyst that broaden spiritual helps in ministry. It provides spiritual strength to launch ministry gift into greater spiritual realm.

WISDOM HELPS

Wisdom is needed to steer the ship of the ministry forward. Without wisdom failure will be recorded. Wisdom brings the best out of a person. Wisdom is God given ability to judge or discern correctly and to follow the best course of action. Wisdom is priceless, it's more than gold.

Leaders need the help hands of people loaded with wisdom in the course of the ministry. Happy is it, for leaders that found men of wisdom. They become invaluable assets in the ministry. They move the ministry forward. Without helps one may wear out as you can't bear the burden of people alone.

As leader, only you can't do it alone, you need helping hands. When Moses judged Israel he did it alone, not until his father-in-law, Jethro advised him to seek for able hands; men full of wisdom. He took to the advice and eventually lightens the burden. When you overload yourself with burden that needs to be shared with others, it becomes false burden. It is false burden because it isn't the real picture.

When people loaded with wisdom surrounds you in your ministry, the yoke becomes easy and your burden is light as said by Jesus . "For my yoke is easy and my burden is light" Mathew 11:30.

WARFARE HELPS

The church apart from imparting the Word has a lot in stock to address. Churches address welfare of people and engage in spiritual warfare to see it through. Pastors that give assistance are called helper in the war. They are intercessors and armour bearers.

Every leader needs helpers of the war, to push further and claim territories for God. Helpers of the war will strengthen and support you as you go forth and destroy powers of darkness. They should be men of integrity and valour in prayer and counsel. They must be filled with wisdom, strong and expert in warfare. Their hands must be trained for battle and fingers for war. They must be of one heart and one spirit with their leader.

The fact is, leader can't fight the battle alone, he needs help hands. There are people anointed in helps to help leaders fight in spiritual warfare. What they see, you may not see, and what you see, they may not see. When they oil the wheel of prayer, the church keeps moving. It is therefore dangerous to fight or stand in warfare alone. The enemy will exploit and take advantage of your weakness and dealt heavy blow on you. But when you wrestle in battle with one faith under corporate anointing, it takes less time to win.

Warfare helps strengthen spirit of unity to destroy works of the devil and set the captives free. Church is enveloped with peace when understanding and love prevails. These come about as a result of warfare helps. Leaders who are alone will often fall victim of Satan's schemes.

SACRIFICIAL HELPS

Sacrificial help is help one can give to steer the ship of the ministry even at the cost of lives. People that believe in a cause die for the cause, come rain or sunshine, they are there for you. They are willing and ready to do the work. In ministry, leaders need capable hands willing to sacrifice anything within their reach to move the church forward. Also, the anointing of helps will cause you to be willing to give your life for another.

Every leader needs helps. A person may have vision from the Lord, but he may not fulfill it done. He needs helping hands to execute his vision. He needs the ministry of helps to help him make the vision a reality. In this wise, as a person you need divinely connected people to usher you to palace of purpose and achievement to make the vision a reality.

As the ministry match forward, the Lord will cause intercessors to give their lives in prayer into your ministry. The Lord will join prophets to you for clear vision to edify, exhort, comfort and to take timely decision. The Lord will join psalmists and minstrels to sing with spirit of God to launch believers into higher realms of the spirit. Every church needs this administration of helps it launches one into greater dimension of the anointing.
As a leader, you should value the lives of those called to minister unto you in the capacity of helps. Don't take advantage of help they give as foolishness. Honour and value them, rather than use and hurt them. The gifts of God are not to be abused, but honoured and appreciated.

APOSTOLIC HELPS

Apostolic authority is proportionate to apostolic responsibility. The church needs the help of the apostolic anointing. The apostolic anointing will launch the church into higher realms of the spirit. Apostles can come into a local church by invitation of the pastor and provide spiritual helps. Apostle Paul during his time was called and sent to the Gentiles. He was never called to have authority in the Jerusalem church. Apostles are not called to control, dominate, or Lord it over.

Young ministry gifts need the help of the apostle. They make young ministry grow and strengthen them with impartation, prayer and counsel. They will help you develop and come forth in your gift. When we look at the works of Philip in Samaria (Acts chapter eight), he baptized those who believed his teaching and were baptized. However, none of these new believers had received the Holy Ghost.
At this point in time, Peter and John were in Jerusalem with other Apostles. They were sent to Philip in Samaria, who needed apostolic helps to complete what God had started through him. Philip was able to get them saved, delivered and healed, but not filled with the Holy Ghost. When the apostles laid hands upon them, they received the Holy Ghost.

As a pastor, there are times when your anointing will only carry the work of God so far. When you reach your limit, you need spiritual helps to take you further. Philip knew he needed apostolic helps to get the Samaritan filled with the Holy Ghost. They were sent to him and the Samaritans received the Holy Ghost. This is apostolic helps in the ministry to launch ministry into higher realms of the spirit.

ANGELIC HELPS

Angelic helps arouse the spirit for greater exploits. If the spirit is divinely touched signs and wonders follows in ministration. The ministry of Daniel was propelled by the appearance of Arch angel Michael in his situation. Once the angel fought and defeated the powers hindering Daniel's prayer, his heaven opened. So is with Church ministry. Many ministries remain still because they lack angelic helps.
Angels are ministering spirits, sent to minister unto us. At no time leaders are left alone. When they look around and felt alone, the angels of God are much around. They minister and encourage ministry to forge ahead. When ministry gifts become physically and spiritually drained, they need supernatural helps. If no man is available, the Lord sends and provides angelic helps.

When Jesus went out as usual to pray at the Mount of Olives, his disciples followed him. His disciples could not match in prayer, they slept. "An angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him" Luke 22:43. Angels are real; they provide supernatural help for those who are heirs of salvation. Angelic helps are spiritual helps that strengthen the spirit.

The overall helper in the ministry of help is the Holy Spirit. Jesus told his disciples, "After I leave, I will send a comforter to you". The Greek word for comforter is parakletos which means an intercessor, consoler, and advocate. It means someone called along-side to help. The Holy Spirit is always available and by us to comfort and strengthen us. He is the promise of the father to us. He comes in anytime to comfort us even in the midst of confusion, only if we can listen to Him.

Above all, leader should value the lives of those called to minister unto him in the capacity of helps. Leaders should never take advantage of them or abuse them. They are sent as helpers. Many leaders bite the fingers that fed them when they hit fame and wealth. They drag people that toil with them on the ground calling them names; frustrate then and show them the way out.

They forgot the cucumber of yesterday, only to remember the manna of today. They hurt and damage the heart of helper of yesterday, as millions of cash is now in the bank.
The fact is, those who operate in helps need to be commended. They should not be looked down upon. They were with you when the tough gets going. Do not take them for granted. Don't preach to people that they should not expect the praise of men, but look to God for rewards. This is half-truth.

Surely, the God shall reward the faithful, but then, don't discourage them. If you honour people, they will operate in a higher level of anointing. If you dishonor them they will not operate in the fullness of their calling.

CHAPTER SEVEN

EFFECTIVE NETWORKING

It is said, united we stand divided we fall. Help goes round; it is not peculiar to a particular person, group, race or nation. Help is give and take; help is a chain event. Networking involves chains of people. Imagine this scenario. You know someone who knows someone who knows another person, who actually knows the person you want to meet or want something from. With this it is like you need four relationships away from anything or anyone in life. Thus, you need to pass through one or two persons or more before you get to a helper. Imagine the hurdles you may pass through.

To be involved, cultivate long lasting relationships. If you treat people well, and help enough other people get what they want, you will end up getting what you want. If you well represent people in office, most of your advert and campaign will be put together by people who believe in you. With relationship networking you can connect yourself with the world around you. Today over 85% of the successes you enjoyed is centered on relationships. This means, most of the things you achieve are possible only because of the kind of people God has allowed you to relate with.
One major key to effective networking is to initiate and cultivate every relationship primarily based on what you want to give as opposed to getting. The chances are very bright that the pay off on the long run will be very beneficiary to you. The fact is, each time you do something for someone without necessarily asking for anything in return, that person would always be on the lookout on how to help you in return because he feels obligated to you.

It is said, it is not what you know; it is who you know. The best hands don't always get the best jobs, but you can use people around you to achieve your goals. If you know how, it is only possible when you understand and treat them right. You do it better when you apply Platinum Rule which states, "Treat people the way; THEY want to be treated".

Helpers exist to bring turning point of laughter into life. This is why you endeavour to locate helpers. Learn to be a fighter before you are thrown out of the ring.

The Bible says the Kingdom of God suffereth violence and the violent taketh it by force. There are powers that keep on building walls of separation between you and helpers. There are powers that enter covenant to deal with you. There are powers that say over their dead body shall you succeed. They will ensure your helper looks elsewhere or chase you from their presence. These powers rage when they see good things coming your way.

Effective networking is incomplete without information. It is the pillar success in which it is built. Information breaks barrier of uncertainty and impossibility. When uncertainty becomes certain impossibility disappears, there after you experience wind of help blowing your way. Information is vital in everyday activity. Information leads to transformation. When you are not informed, you are deformed. Take action when you know what to do, Before information network is built you may ask a number of questions like, how can I know my helpers, and where can they be located? When can I know when helpers are close by? Am I a saleable "product" to helpers ready to sell me (help) to people that really need me? Do I have track record that can sell me? These are salient questions you need to ask yourself.

As said earlier, to locate helpers is a chain event. Your helper may not be directly connected to you. Your character may be one of the ingredients that will lead to connections you need. The network is statistical, knowing someone who knows someone that knows someone you need.
Effective relationship speaks volume of one, that is, your character. It is your character that pushes forward and opens next door of opportunities. Smiles come your way with the way you sell yourself through your character.
As said before now, treat people well, help enough other people get what they want. By this, you shall end up get what you want. This is the way you connect yourself with the world around you. This is what relationship networking is all about.

Ask people on the top either in business or in office how they fair, they will confess, relationship with people matter most. Sound relationships with sound minds bring sound result. Hence, you pray for right people at right time of need. Most things are possible because of the kind of people God allow you to relate with. Above all, pray that Satan shall not double cross you.

Spiritual darkness is one vital limitation to pray against in network relationship. Darkness debars; darkness slow down operation, darkness frustrates, it can separate one from helpers. Darkness can introduce reckless style of living into a life. Darkness represent veil at times. It covers the face of would-be-helpers, stopping forthcoming helps. By this heaven darkens and close against one. All efforts exerted become nothing. Prayers never ascend. It is as if helpers are dead.
You need only one thing, which is, light of God. Cry unto God to shine His light upon you and your undertakings. With this, powers that may hold you captive are paralyzed from carrying out evil activities. The foundation of life (creation) started with light, "Let there be light and there is light". You have no reason to romance with darkness. I pray, in all your relationship, darkness shall not overtake you, Amen.

There are occasions your helpers need help from another source before he can help you. If he fails to get help from that source, it may be imperatively impossible to help. This is the reason you should help pray for the upliftment of your helper. Praying for him is a signal of good things to come.

Pray for clear coast of landing for him. Pray against trouble shooting agents and occurrence that may deter him from helping you. Pray against every spirit of disagreement enemies may introduce in the course of looking unto him for help. Really, you look unto God for help, but He shall send someone to do it. In the light of this, check your dream life, addressing it rightly to save situation.

A man once phoned me, saying, Evangelist, I dreamt fighting a man that likes me so much in the physical in the dream, and started to wonder when I wake what must have went wrong. My simple reply was, he should pray fervently against antics of the enemy, so that helpers won't turn against him. To this, he shouted, "Thank you, I can understand".

The fact is every step you take can be read by monitoring powers. Once you are on good course to progress, they will know. Hence, they look for one way or the other to scatter fruitfulness coming your way.

In the course of help network, don't look down on who helps you on the way to achieve what you want. Your helper may be a woman, a man, a boy or a girl, a maid or someone at the point of death. The person that helps David on his way to conquer and recover kinsmen and women in captive with Amalekites was a dying Egyptian slave boy in a field, I Samuel 30:11-16. It was a slave girl that saved Naaman of leprosy. Naaman was a Syria military commander, who by standard superior to this slave girl. He listened to the slave girl advice to go to Israel so that Prophet Elisha may heal him. Although, he would have narrowly missed his deliverance out of pride, if not for the slave girl that advised him to take the instruction given by the man of God. At last his flesh was restored and became clean like that of a young boy! Help against leprosy came through the slave girl.

A CASE STUDY

It is said, what you sow, is what you shall reap. It is difficult to sow maize and pluck orange from that same seed, your character can earn you luck or otherwise. A servant can become a master by his character. Law of karma operates. Let's look at the story below.

In the late nineteenth century, a member of parliament travelled to Scotland to make a speech. He travelled to Edinburgh by train, and then took a carriage southward to his destination. On his way, the carriage found its way into deep mud. Rescue help is needed. From nowhere a Scottish farm boy came to the rescue with a team of horses and pulled the carriage to safety. He cleaned the carriage and dusts the parliamentarian, not knowing who he was.

The parliamentarian looked with surprise, and asked the boy, "How much do I owe you"? The boy replied with affirmative, "Nothing". He wasn't sure of the boy's reply and asked again, "Are you sure, I own you nothing?" yet the boy declined payment. Then the parliamentarian asked the last question, "Well, is there anything I can do for you? What do you want to be when you grow up!" The boy responded, "A doctor". The aristocratic Englishman offered to help the young scot go to the university, and he followed through on his pledge.

More than half a century later, Winston Churchill lay dangerously ill with pneumonia stricken while attending wartime conference in Morocco. A new "wonder drug" was administered to him, a drug called Penicillin that was discovered by Sir Alexander Fleming. Who is this Fleming? He was the young Scottish lad. Who was his benefactor? Randolph Churchill, the father of Winston Churchill.

Look at the situation; Randolph helped Fleming to become what he is, Fleming's discovery revived (help) Winston Churchill the son of Randolph Churchill who helped Fleming to become a doctor! What a chain of help! It is wonderful.

CHAPTER 8

WHEN HELPERS ARE FAR AWAY

There are times you earnestly seek for something or someone, when your soul thirsts for it and your body longs for it, yet you can't achieve it, simply because helpers cannot be found. There are signs that foretell reasons, helpers are not found. Such signs are unfolded to people who cares to know them. When they know it, another thing is to take necessary step to ensure the problem is addressed. Let's look at a number of signs that tells when helpers are deemed far away. The signs include among others:-

1. When opposed without a cause, either by friends, in public or while carrying out daily activities.
2. When you don't arrive at right place at the right time, only to be seen late for good events. Your helper may see you as unserious and may decide to avoid you.
3. When bad things happen to your helper at point of helping you; caused by sudden death of children, spouse or close relatives. This can make him/her lose interest in your matter.

4. When those who use to be friendly suddenly ignore your calls.
5. When helpers decide not to see your face again. Seeing you suddenly turns to abomination.
6. When you experience promise and fail continuously from helpers-to-be.
7. When helpers refuse to chart or discuss with you
8. When blackmailers surround your helpers against you.
9. When you are avoided based on racial or tribal sentiments.
10. When ignored anywhere you go.
11. When all struggles hit the rock
12. When you experience any of the bad dreams stated below.
a) When you dream being in filthy rags, you may be rejected by would – be helpers.
b) When you dream being chased from helpers you know in real life, it may lead to rejection in the physical.
c) When your hands are handcuffed in the dream, you may find it difficult to communicate in writing.
d) When your hands are chained or tied in the dream, you may fail to do well in what you are good at.
e) When your legs are handcuffed in the dream, procrastination shall take over your spirit. You may arrive late all the time at point of help.
f) When your legs are chained or tied in the dream, it stipulates late arrival at places that may profit you.
g) When you dream of being imprisoned it means you are spiritually cut off from helpers.
h) When you have sex in the dream, it means lost of virtues that may lead to promise and fail or ill-luck.
i) When your certificate or credentials are stolen, burnt, damaged, or seized in the dream, it means your connecting power is eroded.
j) When your hair is shaved in the dream, it means your glory is tempered with; helpers may lose interest in you.
k) When excreta are poured on you in the dream, it means helpers may develop hatred at you.

Dreams speak volumes in respect of one's life. Develop interest on how to interpret dreams so that you may take right step in the right direction. To this, I advise you to buy my book titled DICTIONARY OF DREAMS . It has about ten thousand (10,000) dreams and interpretations. With it, you shall be a master in interpreting dreams.

The fact is, powers that cause separation between one and his helpers are daring and wicked. They make one perpetual beggar and wanderer in the market square of life. They perfect their acts by planting seed of disfavour and hatred in one's life. Once this is done and victim fail to pray himself out, he will be spiritually buried from seeing greatness. It is said, a bird at liberty flies as it wishes, but once caged it can't fly anymore. It lost its freedom, so is with man as well. Once caged in the spirit, one shall experience stalemate, stagnation and backwardness in real life. I pray you shall not be caged or stagnated by dark powers. Amen

HOW CAN I LOCATE MY HELPERS?

Many are in anguish, crying in pains as helpers couldn't be found. They compound issues running after people and worthless powers that won't help. Their agonies multiply with heavy heart. Their heart pounds within them. They are at cross road. They ask questions in the like, Where are my helpers? How long will I search for helpers that will bail me out of this dilemma? What more? The situation graduates from hopelessness to nothingness. Disaster crept in. It is disaster after disaster.

With such people, failure is always their harvest. Ruin surrounds them at all times. He hardly heard sound of trumpet or horn beside him. It is as if he is deaf. But it wasn't so; it is because of the situation he finds himself. He looks round but couldn't see who to whisper to, concerning his dilemma. No hope, no helper. He is all alone. Even birds in the sky are nowhere, they are gone! Sky above grew dark. Hope is lost, as heart faints. This brother is confused. He shouts in loud voice in the manner of Jeremiah, "Alas! I am fainting; my life is given over to murderers" Jeremiah 4:31.

Brethren, it is high time you locate your helpers. Arise; incubate words of your mouth with fire. Convert words in your mouth to fire, and problems you face the wood it consumes. Now is the time to pull down dark warriors that confront your destiny. It is time to silence powers that destroy with dark swords and devour harvests in the spirit. These powers are wicked. Wicked spirits dwell in them. As well pours out its water, so they pour out wickedness. They don't think before they strike. The only thought in them is wickedness and how to carry it out. They are violent and destructive in nature. When they roar against victims, helpers are driven away.

Many are afflicted thinking they cannot be healed. Weeps house their eyes with flowing tears. They languish in wilderness of life as helpers are not found. They run after helpers that couldn't be found. They look pale as joy can't be found in their face. Problems took them by surprise, with credentials and connections needed to survive, yet helpers are not found.

Yet his mind pounds and unstable. He is loaded with varieties of thoughts. He can't sleep at night; neither could he feed without bad thoughts. He is like a woman in labour crying for help with no one around, gasping for breath, stretching out hands for anyone who could be of help. He searches his mind every moment with thoughts of what might have gone wrong with him. He is like a man chased to wrong corner of life. He is like a man chased to a corner accosted with faces not ready to help. Their hearts are stony, their faces harder than stone.

TONGUE OF THE ENEMY

Most times, questions that come to mind when surrounded by blackmailers are, why do enemies surround me? Why are tongues lashed at me? Why do they destroy me all about with evil tongue? The bible says, there is life and death in the tongue. Tongues have done much havoc in the life of thousands. Many destinies have been destroyed by wicked arrows that flieth from the tongue. Many destinies are destroyed and truncated with evil tongue. When one is destroyed before helpers he hardly gets helps. If Satan use tongue destroyers against a person he becomes a living corpse. He is forgotten and hopeless.

Enemies are fond of using sharp razor tongue against fellow men and women. They are professionals at it. They are cunning and loaded with falsehood. They love doing harm as one licking honey. They quietly compound victims with problems and tear them with lips. Their aim is to bring victims down to everlasting ruin.

Nothing brings more pain than a word uttered in hate. One sentence can cut like a knife into your confidence, your mind and your heart. One word can bring you down from the mountain top into a state of dejection. It leaves your stomach in your mouth and your brain shocked and disorientated.

This slow-release poison can even stay with you for years, affecting your life, your work and your deepest sense of faith. That trusted friend or unfriendly friend, who releases sudden word of jealousy quickly throws you off in balance, and ruins the joy you felt. He frowns at the verse in the Bible from the New Testament that says, "Let us encourage one another…" Our creator intended words to build up, not to knock down.

It is a pity, many fell victim before they knew it. The fact is, enemies may laugh and dine with you, but speak ill of you in your absence. They are enemies of progress with no regard to well-being. They do evil with laughter. They possess voice of enmity, loaded with instrument of wickedness. They bring down suffering upon men through arrow of hopelessness. It is in the like of hand of Esau, voice of Jacob.

YOUR FACE IN THE DREAM

A helper is scared when your face is used to attack him in the dream. The personality involved becomes you and the helper will be made to understand you are the one. Fear will grip him, and will ensure he distanced himself from you. If you make phone calls, he may not pick it. If you persist, he may tell you not to call him again. He may tell you or refuse to give reasons for his action. What you notice is, he changed his attitude and refuse to communicate with you.

Most times, use of face by witchcraft personality happens when you discuss your matter with a possessed person. Once he knows who you want to meet for help, he will use your image to attack the would-be-helper. There after your helper may decide not to help again. It is therefore advisable to desist from telling your plans to people, as you don't know who is who. Many fell victim of unfriendly friends this way.

BUILD SOLID HOPE

In the midst of battle you need instruments of war and techniques to win. When helpers are scared, apply spiritual warfare and wisdom. In no situation should you accept defeat. Even when the battle is hot, don't concede defeat. If you think you lose out, take another strategy. A man is not finished when he is defeated. He is finished when he quits. Rather summon courage for a victorious match. In this wise, liken yourself to olive tree or the palm tree that attracts favour, peace and longetivity.

As "Olive tree", pray for peace to reign in your life. Peace attracts, it never subtracts. You are created to be of assistance and live well as an asset; you are not created to be a liability to the society. With peace of mind, your coast shall enlarge, and receive favour of God and of men. Peace enables you pray to attract heavenly attention paramount to your situation. I pray peace shall reign in your life. Amen.
Prayer of palm tree is synonymous to long life, fruitfulness, success and all round miracles. As every part of palm tree is useful, so shall you be attracted and useful to humanity. Wherever your helpers may be, they shall locate you by fire. They shall develop special interest in you. Every closed door shall suddenly open for greatness in your life. Amen.

It is good to have hope in God than men to defeat antics of conspirators and detractors. The psalmist says, "Surely God is my help, the Lord is the one who sustains me. Psalm 54:4.

YOUR SITUATION NEEDS PRAYER

Strange behaviours are common from close associates when dark powers are furious at one. Your best friend can suddenly become your worst enemy. They may turn against you without reason. Your best friend in office may champion the course to write epistle of petition against you. Why? Because of reasons they can't explain. It is not ordinary, there are powers behind it.

When situation happens this way, there are prayers you need to pray to nullify activities of enemies against you, and prayers that shall move you to the next level. Therefore pray in this manner.

- Pray for heavenly power to arrest watchers of your destiny.
- Pray for God Almighty to disgrace agents of darkness assigned to pull you down.
- Pray for God's hands to lift you up.
- Pray for helpers that will not sink your destiny
- Pray for helpers that shall strengthen you

- Pray for good dreams and its manifestation
- Pray for your head to be above debt
- Pray for divine angels to direct helpers to you.
- Pray for divine visitation.
- Pray for power that will announce you to the world
- Pray for multiple breakthroughs
- Pray for fair hearing from God
- Pray for earthquake helps of multiple surprises
- Pray for helpers that will be divinely connected to you.
- Pray that your helper shall not fall victim of sudden death.
- Pray that your helper shall not be demoted for your sake
- Pray for helpers that turn their back against you, to have change of mind.
- Pray for divine fruitfulness
- Pray to occupy high rock higher than your enemies
- Pray to locate people that will link you with right helpers
- Pray for keys that open right doors of your needs
- Pray to win heart of helpers.

As you pray the prayers above, it will be of great help if you can kick against, scatter, and destroy wicked moves of the enemy. Hence:-

- Pray against powers that limit or terminate joy
- Pray against powers that kill glory
- Pray against powers that fire evil arrows to achieve evil
- Pray against wicked fire assigned to devour you
- Pray against tempest raging at you
- Pray against powers that hotly pursue you.
- Pray against tears assigned for you in the spirit
- Pray against accusers of your soul
- Pray against every hindrance and obstacle on your way
- Pray against dark voices of evil command.
- Pray against powers that baptize souls with cry and agony
- Pray against spirit of promise and fail
- Pray against spirit of effortless efforts
- Pray against spirit of untimely death
- Pray against spirit of sickness and diseases
- Pray against spirit spouse that harass one in the dream
- Pray against giants that boast to pull you down.

- Pray against powers assigned to turn your life upside down.
- Pray against doors of darkness that hold you captive
- Pray against chains of darkness assigned against you
- Pray against evil observers assigned to monitor you.
- Pray against powers of your father's house holding you captive
- Pray against power of your mother's house holding you captive
- Pray against powers of your In-Law's house holding you captive
- Pray against every form of evil dreams.

WAYS TO IMPROVE RELATIONSHIP WITH HELPERS

1. The first way is to make you likeable by helpers. Anyone that wants to help should develop interest in you. It is interest that makes him like you. Pray to have flesh that attracts favour and love. When people like you, they will show it and do it. They will do everything possible to enable you accomplish your goal, and realize your vision. To be liked by others is invaluable on your success journey. On your side, you have role to play. To be likeable, you must like yourself. You must speak goodness to your life and project it to others. The Bible says, "A man that hath friends must show himself friendly, and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother" Proverbs 18:24.

2. Build attitude of remembering people's names. Remember personal details of people you meet. The sweetest sound we like to hear is our name, especially when it is called by someone we admire, respect, or do not expect to know. You should make a habit to remember names, faces, special dates and other personal details of the people. When you remember people's name, they love it. Therefore, when you meet a person for help ask his name and let it stick to your brain. Name attracts attention of the bearer. That of your helper is paramount at this material time because he is a vessel of help and honour. To call him by name makes him feel special in your hand.

3. Another strong point is, win the heart of your helper by expressing appreciation for help he rendered to you last. When you appreciate him this way, you give value to and validate his efforts. He will be happy and will want to do better next time.

4 . The Psalmist says, "Praise ye the Lord, Praise God in his sanctuary, praise him in the firmament of his power… Praise him with the tambourine and dance. Praise him with stringed instruments and organs" Psalm 150:1, 4.

The fact is, helpers expect praise. They are not your God, but they are God sent. As you praise them they feel happy and know they are special. This is the method musicians use to get money from public figures that attend party. When musician spots rich men in party, he rains praises of recognition on them. In a twinkle of an eye, the rich man sprays money on him.

Praise expresses your approval of what others do. It uplifts and makes them happy, and inspires them to do even more. With praise you open doors of blessings. With praise people that castigate you about are silenced. With praise on helpers, they feel high and accepted. They pay back by accepting you with better deals.

5. Good communication skill with helpers is paramount in relationship. If you approach someone for help without a mention of your needs, it is like not going to him at all. You must not pretend of what you need before helpers, come out of shell, speak out, mention what you need and let him know it.

If possible, tell the role you want him to play. It can be moral or financial support or both. There is this wrong attitude of people that their helper should know what they need. This is a wrong assumption. Even if he knows, you should mention it because, he is not in your mind and he doesn't know if you've gotten help elsewhere.

In your discussion, with would-be-helper, define and elaborate on your needs. He wants to know why you need help, when you need it, how you want to go about it, etc.
To achieve this, you should know techniques involved in communication. To win the day, know the time he may give you audience. When you discuss, listen intently, comprehend, understand and react with sense of intelligence.

Communication is mostly the practice of two people, each waiting for the other to finish talking so he or she can start talking again. Very few people really listen to other person. They are too busy thinking about what they are going to say next. The basic fact is, how you listen is often more important than what you say. Don't rush to answer, rather listen to the other party whole story first before you formulate your response.

6. Another way to establish good relationship with helper is to make him feel important. Recognize and acknowledge the importance of helper. Be conscious of his needs and do your best to meet those needs

7. It is said, when you throw dirt, you lose ground. Build spirit of love and understanding with people. Don't criticize others before helpers in other to be accepted. Acceptance comes from mind not until you murder characters. Live above petty criticism.

8. Help is not hit and run approach. The first help you get may be just an eye opener to multiple helps coming from that source. It is common, when some people get help, they run away. They don't look back to say, 'Thank you', or pay back cash or interest on the money they collect.
The fact is, to seek and receive help is a continuous exercise, in as much you are living. Do all possible, to nurture and develop long term relationship with mutual benefit.

9. Use right words of appreciation. There are words or phrases you can use to gain minds of helpers. They expect them from you, whether you know it or not. The word(s) or phrase can be used during or after relationships. They are arranged below from highest number of five words, to lowest number of one word.

The FIVE most important words:
I am proud of you.
The FOUR most important words:
What is your opinion?

The THREE most important words:
If you please
The TWO most important words:
Thank you
The SINGLE most important word:
Congratulation!

The words or word go deep into mind of helpers. It encourages them to do better, act better and give better. God bless you. Amen.

CHAPTER NINE

WHEN HELPERS ARE DEAD

There are people I call helpless helpers. They come as helpers but are deficient, false, cunning and are thieves. They promise what they don't possess and end up robbing you of virtues and glory. They make you belief they are masters and professionals in the area you need help, but they are liars. They tell you testimonies to believe they are real, while they lie.

Striking examples are herbalists. They make you believe they can solve all problems, both spiritual and physical. At the end of the day, it is failure and regrets one reaps. They are doctors to all treatments. They are willing to give solution to all problems. They don't turn clients back. Their service is 24 hours a day. The overall of their service is loaded with condemnation.

In the Holy Bible, there is one particular helpless helper. He is the chief of them all, genesis of fake helps. His name is Satan, Lucifer, Devil or Serpent in the garden. He was a fallen angel with other angels with him after the great battle in heaven, when he lost to King of kings and Lord of lords. He came to tempt Jesus, after forty days and forty night fasting. In one of the three temptations, Satan promised to give Jesus the whole world if only he can bow down to him. Jesus never did. He knew Satan is a liar and a thief. Jesus knew God was the creator and owner of all creation, not Satan. How then can Satan give what he doesn't have? Jesus is God the Son. Can a servant give his master what belong to his master? The King has the voice, servant has none.

How can Satan give Jesus what belong to Jesus? The mere fact that Satan was thrown down into the earth disqualifies him as owner of the world. His time here is but for a moment. He shall soon be chained on the last Day of Judgment.The truth is, Satan has nothing to offer. He is a liar and a helpless helper. He can't help you. Turn to Jesus.

Another striking example of helpless helper can be found in the life of Saul, the first King in Israel. This was when Saul gave his warfare garment to David for a duel against Goliath. Really, David needed help to overcome the giant. Saul provides David with his spear, sword and iron cloak, but a little stone did it. God is saying, "Look unto me, not unto men". David realized this, and went to battle against Goliath in the name of the Lord. He won the battle.
Are you at cross road of life? Turn to God. Are giants standing between you and helpers? Strike them down in the name of the Lord. Are you filled with fear of defeat in your heart? Turn to God. Is battle of life pressing hard against you? Turn to God.

He is ALL in ALL. He is Alfa and the Omega. The I AM That I AM, The Great Shepherd, the Chief Provider, the Mighty Man in battle.

NOW SING THIS SONG

YOU ARE THE MIGHTY
MAN IN BATTLE JEHOVAH!
YOU ARE THE MIGHTY MAN IN BATTLE
JEHOVAH NISSI.

Yes, the Lord is the Mighty Man in battle. He is immortal meaning he can't die, unlike men that are mortal. We shall pass away very soon. We are like flowers or plants in the field that wither and die in season. But the behavior of most people is as if death won't come.

Their actions and pronouncements are fearful and discouraging. They wield so much power to themselves with little understanding that those who did so years back are dead, and, are remembered no more. They don't but cause sorrow in the heart of men.

They fail to realize people shall ask how they live their dash while on earth. What does it mean by the word 'dash'? It is the gap between the day you were born and the day you shall die, e.g. 1901 – 1999. The dash is between 1901 and 1999. This dash summarizes how men spent their lives and what they do on the planet earth.

It starts counting the day you were born. From infancy to adulthood, and when you advance in age till the day of death. You are under watch of men throughout this time. Even at old age, your statesmanship in your locality, country or world is noted. On your last day on earth, people will gather at your tomb to pay last tribute and listen to how you spent your dash on earth.

The cleric that gives account of your sojourn, tells much of your worth to mankind and God. His speech is the value attached to your dash.

Years back, I saw a man who stood to speak.
At the funeral of a friend
He referred to the dates on his tombstone
From the beginning to the end
He noted that first came his date of birth
And spoke the following date with tears.
He said what matter most of all

Was the dash between those years (1901 – 1999)
For that dash represent all the time
That he spent alive on earth
And now only those who loved him
Know what that little line is worth
For it matters not how much we own
The cars, the house, the cash
What matters is how we live and love
And how we spend our dash
So think about this long and hard.

My question is, are there things which you would like to change? For you never knew how much time is left. Brethren, always try to understand the way other people feel. My advice is, less quick to anger, and show appreciation more. Love the people around you, like you are never loved before. Treat neighbours with respect and more often wear a smile.

Remember, this special dash only last a while. Very soon you shall bid the world bye, while people you left foot print in their lives shall say, "One of our helpers is gone" "Our helper is dead"
Brethren, thank you for this token word of knowledge.

SACRIFICAL HELP

There is what I call sacrificial help. It is help given at the cost of helper's life. Can you do this for your fellow man? Really, in wartime soldiers sacrifice their lives defending the nation. Self-suicide bombers sacrifice their lives when they believe on a cause, or do it out of ignorance. But then, these two examples above are not my priorities. The type of sacrificial help I want to discuss is that of a person who die for others to exist, either out of sympathy or love. A case study below shall give clearer understanding.

A CASE STUDY

Some years back, a young mother was making her way across the hills of South Wales, carrying her tiny baby in her arms. Suddenly, the winter winds blew stronger than anticipated and her journey took much longer than planned. Eventually, the woman never reached her destination, while people she promised a visit waited in vain. When the blizzard had subsided, those expecting her arrival went to search of her. After hours of searching, they finally found her body underneath a heap of snow.

They need to take her frozen corpse. One thing amazed them. They saw that she had taken off her outer clothing. With curiosity, they dig further. When they finally lifted her body away from the ground, they discovered why she did so.
Alas! This brave and self-sacrificing young mother had wrapped her own cloak and scarf around her baby and then fenced herself over the baby.
Surprisingly, a miracle appears on the scene. It was unbelievable, when the searchers unwrapped the baby, they found to their amazement and joy that he was alive and well! Later in year this tiny baby boy became Prime Minister of Great Britain and is regarded as one of England's greatest statesmen.

Guess his name. He was David Lloyds George!
His helper died in the process of saving his life! Yes, his helper died!

It is pathetic to experience sudden death of helpers. Root of help starts from home. Your immediate help come from your parents, siblings or guardian. They nurse you as a baby, pet and give you education. They provide your needs at all times, until you can fend for yourself.

Parents play role of small god to children, as children look unto them for daily needs. Parents ensure children excel in life and give caution when necessary.

I remember one time when I stumble on a program in the television. I use the word stumble, because I hardly have time for it. This day, writing and reading have taken better part of my life.

What drew my attention was a small boy of bracket age 9-10 years, sitting on hot seat of a program, 'Who wants to be a millionaire'. What fascinated me wasn't the money he may win, but the boldness to face crowd and answer quiz. I called my first son of same age bracket with the boy to join me for an impromptu test. I gave him the rules. He should answer the question from alternatives given on the dash board before the boy makes an option. I told him, I only want to know his intelligence quotient, nothing more.

With curiosity and opt attention, he listened to each question and gave answer. To my ultimate surprise, he performed. The question he couldn't provide answer, I provide. After the show, I encouraged him to upgrade himself better than the boy who stopped half way. What I want to bring out here is, it is not the money the boy won that matters, but his intelligence quotient.

Every parent lingers for brilliant children. Every parent wants his children to be first class material. Every parent wants to have Medical Doctors, engineers, lawyers, educationists, pharmacists, and technocrats etc as children. Children with flying colours make parents happy. They help parents while it becomes almost impossible to use strength at old age.

By and large, we seek for help of one another. Helps come from our biological family, neighbor, unknown faces and organization that recruits staff. People that come together to establish companies helps the society from grip of unemployment. Workers on the other hand help the company to grow. The help here is parri passu.

A CASE STUDY

The story was told of ten technocrats in a village who came up with an idea to set up two giant companies. Villagers held meetings with them in an open field. Everyone in the village was present to hear what the technocrats would offer.

From brainstorming and deep discussion without prejudice, the technocrats meant well. They promised to build two industries to address issue of unemployment and poverty ravaging the people. They set out immediately; acres of lands were allotted to them without paying a dime.

The site was cleared and construction began. Everything were placed right, four big generators to power the two industries, roads were constructed, people were recruited only to resume, when the companies will officially open.
Everything was in advance stage and a day was picked by the technocrats to visit home as one man for the takeoff. There is rise in hope in the village; at least prospective candidates knew where they belong. Job vacancies are more than what the village can fill. Any one that wants to work will have where to be fixed. The technocrats decided to give permanent job to everyone.

The language, 'casual worker' was an abomination in their ears. They rose as one man against it. They want every worker to be treated well.

They said, it is another language to slavery abolished in Britain in 1827. They were technocrats that place value for life. They knew in time past human lives were sacrificed in the name of freedom. They knew the French Revolution of 1789 was born out of desire to throw off yoke of monarchical oppression. They knew, the Russian Revolution was ignited by the same spark. They knew, the breaking away and formation of the Republic of the United States of America was fueled by the hope for freedom.

They reasoned deep and knew that the death–wish commitment of notable men like Mahatma Gandhi to see the great nation of India to throw off yoke of colonialism was propelled by cry for freedom to determine ones destiny. They never stop at these, but have deep thought of great Civil Rights Movement of our generation inspired by the likes of Martin Luther King, Jr., Nelson Mandela etc were also conceived in the womb of the desire to build industries to salvage souls of many from yoke of poverty.

Loaded with ambition to help, the technocrats set out good plans for old and young in the village. It was time to do final come together of the technocrats. They move with one spirit and chartered one helicopter. They took off to the village, as one man in one helicopter. They chat and sang, talk of past experiences as they flew, but then something suddenly happened. There was fog in the air, the pilot couldn't see clearly, the helicopter hit a giant tall tree, and exploded. No one survived it! What a calamity.

Those waiting in the open field in the village were hit by the news. Everyone in the village was confused. There was great outcry. It was a day of mourning. The whole village couldn't believe what happened. But the worst had happened there was uproar everywhere.

Really, these technocrats wanted to setup industries to bring hope into the lives of their kinsmen and women. Their motives were truncated by unexpected and rude shock of death. In one voice, everyone shouted in the village, "Our helpers are dead", "Our helpers are dead". This was the voice that rents the air.

This is the type of situation many pass through today. They saw hope coming but suddenly it crashed like pack of cards. Their hopes sank. They were like fish picked out of water, thrown on bare ground. It can't survive it. It scouts for air, but the only air available is hot!

There are times one may conclude his helper is dead, even though the helper is alive. This happens when the person you relied on can't help either as a result of refusal on his part or is under duress of higher power. The one seeking for help will say, 'My helper is dead'. The statement may look crude, close to curse but the man knew what he meant.
Many reasons make people declare, their helpers are dead, while the helper is still alive. In general, when one or two of the under listed happens, such statement may be pronounced by a victim.

When a helper-to-be is in position to help but couldn't do it
When enemies went behind to rubbish your name before your helpers
When the person expected to help you is spiritually caged. He can't even help himself, not to mention helping others.
When a suppose helper is afflicted with incurable disease.
When helper-to-be suddenly develop hatred for you
When helper-to-be is suddenly transferred from position he could help to a different department.
When helper-to-be is suddenly sacked or demoted in office

When helper-to-be unconsciously refuse to help you. He believes the help you need is not necessary or too low compared to your academic status, but eventually realized he was wrong.
When you are spiritually veiled from recognizing your helper or your helper didn't know he should help you.
When your helper die before he could help

To every point above, one can safely say, 'My helper is dead'. But, I pray, your helper shall not die in the name of Jesus. Amen. You shall live to know your helper and your helper to know you. Every cloud of darkness separating you from your helper shall fade away, in the name of Jesus. Amen.

For people without helpers the world is but a wilderness. It is difficult to describe how one feels when his loved ones or helper dies. We all want to be loved and helped. The Bible tells of a particular woman who was loved by all as a result of her good work and help to others. The book of Acts of the Apostles 9:36, records Dorcas as a woman that shows love and help hands to many. She was a woman who lived in Joppa, a city next to the Mediterranean Sea; Jerusalem was only 56 kilometers inland from Joppa. It is in this town Dorcas did many good things. She gave fine gifts, made nice clothes for widows and spoke to many about God. She was one of Jesus, 'early disciples".

To her loved ones, she was an asset, a human capital asset. This is what everyone knew her for. No wonder, when she became very sick and died, they felt bad and wept uncontrollable. With prayer, Peter revived her to life. Imagine how they felt when Dorcas came back alive. Hope was restored, love was restored, and help was restored as well. Hence, I pray, your helper shall not die at time of need. Amen.

From what we said of Dorcas above, no one wishes his/her helper dead. The effects of losing a helper are heavy, accompanied with sadness and agony. The fact is –

- When helpers are dead, darkness may take over the life of a person
- When helpers are dead, hopelessness and helplessness takes over the day.

- When helpers are dead, one may be surrounded by enemies.
- When helpers are dead, one may be treated as nobody.
- When helpers are dead, slave drivers take over the day.
- When helpers are dead, one's family may scatter.
- When helpers are dead, the obituary of bread winner is announced.
- When helpers are dead, enemies may triumph over your life.
- When helpers are dead, friends flee and avoid you like a plague.
- When helpers are dead, one groan in anguish of heart.
- When helpers are dead, the heart pounds, while strength fails.
- When helpers are dead, hands are heavy upon victims
- When helpers are dead, shout of joy suddenly seizes in a life
- When helpers are dead, destiny is shrouded with uncertainty.
- When helpers are dead, burden becomes too heavy to bear
- When helpers are dead, bones are dead and dry
- When helpers are dead, pit of ruin may swallow one's destiny
- When helpers are dead, enemies may brandish spears and javelin against one.
- When helpers are dead, doors are open to mockers
- When helpers are dead, crown of pure gold are replaced with nullity.
- When helpers are dead, candidates are brought to their knees
- When helpers are dead, lamp of glory is put off
- When helpers are dead, victims are confronted with snares of death
- When helpers are dead, murderers are let loose from ambush as groan fill the air
- When helpers are dead, eyes grow weak with sorrow
- When helpers are dead, endless ruin may overtake a life
- When helpers are dead, one can be replaced by another
- When helpers are dead, one can be banished from his father's house
- When helpers are dead, protection is replaced with adversity
- When helpers are dead, it is like the roof of the house is blown by evil wind.
- When helpers are dead, it is like God's face refuse to shine in one's life.

The tragedy of the death of a helper is much; it can't be described by words of mouth. This is the reason men are scared to hear the obituary of their helpers. They cry uncontrollable because what gives joy to their heart is gone, what gives light to the eye is gone, and gone forever. It is like loss of what is more precious than gold, or sweeter than honey. To this, the psalmists cry in a loud voice, "Arise LORD! Lift up your hand O God. Do not forget the helpless" Psalm 10:12.

CHAPTER 10

PRAYER AGAINST SPIRIT OF PROMISE AND FAIL

Anyone in search of helps but found none is filled with anguish and frustration. It is as if rumours of war and terrors of death are heard. He's occupied with fears and trembling's. He often says, "Oh that I had the wings of a dove I would fly away and be at rest" Psalm 55:6.

Questions that fill heart of help seekers are, "Who can I approach for help?" "Who will listen to me?" Even when moves are made, help seldom comes. They meet brick walls and stubborn barriers separating them from helpers. When they eventually find one, it is promise today, promise tomorrow. Such promise is never fulfilled. They spend what they should feed with on transport, going to helpers that never be. They bribe people in office to gain favour yet they harvest failure. Time and energy that should be expended in other areas are wasted and uncounted for.

Promise and fail from helpers may be to punish a person or done unaware. Most such actions have spiritual undertone. Promise and fail is frustrating. Promise and fail can be likened to the parable of the sower who sowed seed on bare ground, birds of the air came and picked it. The seeds never germinate.
People troubled with promise and fail attack may come across genuine helpers willing to help, but are later forgotten as a result of attacks of power of darkness. It is not until he shows up again that helpers remember or develop interest again. This may go on for some time with help not coming forth.

There are cases where helpers only listen but don't absorb what is said. In such situation, ears of would be helpers are spiritually 'padlocked' against helps. Their ears are turned against the person. Victims hardly come across listening ears. Whatever they say is offensive to the ear of helpers. Really helpers know their complain is genuine, but won't help even where resources and ability to help are available.

It is said, the destiny of a man is attached to another person, nation or state. No one lives in isolation. A tree cannot make a forest; neither can a river become an ocean. You must mix with people for good; you are born to help, and others to help you as well. Most time, it is as if you are alone; " The birds of the air have fled and the animals are gone" Jeremiah 9:10.

How do time change? You who is expected to be like a watered garden, or spring of water whose waters fail not, now beg before you can feed. Imagine, you that is expected to be a landlord, finds it difficult to pay for your tented apartment. At times you squat about, with no home address. You sleep here today, far away tomorrow. You don't have money to rent a room. You that should be an employer now search for job. You that should be a lender turn a beggar. Even if you want to borrow money you can't be trusted of paying back.

The fact is, if you locate helpers you will move from the least to the greatest. Right now things are tight. What more, when helpers are not found, even the wise are put to shame. This is the simple fact, laughter is empty in the face of candidates of promise and fail; sorrow, anxiety and poverty are found in their faces. It is a pity; the head suddenly becomes the tail. A prince now walks on foot, while slave rides on horse.

It is time you rise against this syndrome. Arise by fire, dress up and heal your wounds with all seriousness. Don't fall among the fallen, or dwell in the midst of those brought down by circumstances. Don't allow others take your sit, or harvest what you labour for.

There are people who have good projects to execute, but because they don't have what it takes to finance it, they go for helpers. Once would-be-helpers see the usefulness of the project and the dividends attached to it he hijacks it from the poor fellow. All labour of the initiator hits the rock the moment the 'Big Man' study it well, double cross him and execute the project on his own.

Anyone expecting fulfillment of a promise is like a thirsty man that needs cold water after trek of many kilometers. The moment he arrives, first thing he will seek for is water. When he sees the person with the water, his mind sticks to him. He may faint if he is denied.

This is the situation with promise and fail that is why it is often said it is bad to experience it. It makes spirit fails. It causes dejection, rejection, stagnation and poverty. It makes mind filled with sorrow and fear, always with the thought, what shall I do now? Who caused it? Who do I offend? Why is my situation different? What is the next step I should take now? These and many questions fill the mind of people affected with promise and fail syndrome.
But the book of Isaiah 29:8 describes it all. It describes how victim of promise and fail feels.

"As when a hungry man dreams that he is eating, but he awakens, and his hunger remains; as when a thirsty man dream that he is drinking, but he awakens faint, with his thirst unquenched".
In such situation, windstorm and tempest command the day. It is like life exposed to contrary flames of devouring fire that trouble mind. If affected this way, you need to pray fire prayer that opens closed doors of success. Pray with thunder and fire spirit. Be like an earthquake before forces troubling you.

Without fear or apology, equip yourself with prayer; attack the fortress of the enemy, take the battle to their gates. Besiege their camp and destroy it. In prayer, beat them like fine dust; let them become chaff that can't withstand test of time.

It is time you pull them down before they pull you down. Attack them! I say attack them! Pull them now, bring them low; reduce their height to nothing. Let them speak from the ground, out of dust they shall whisper.

Let great voice of victory fill your mouth. Your voice must sound loud and clear above theirs, you are meant to rise and shine. You must occupy your mount Zion. I pray you are delivered. You shall not cover your head in shame. Your vision shall come to pass. People that promise you shall fulfill their promise in the name of Jesus. By the power of the living God, you shall be stunned and amazed with surprises; signs and wonders, in Jesus name I pray. Amen.

IS OUR GOVERNMENT BETTER?

Pray not to be a candidate of 'fake political helpers', like modern day politicians, who never fulfill promises after election. Countless bags of promises and lies are handed over to electorates, feeding them with disappointments and failures. Change, which is their slogan at campaign rallies never see the light of the day. Sadly enough things remain the same after elections.

Promise and fail is robbing us good things of life. Our national woes are increasing, societal problems are worsening. We witness and fed with insecurity, corruption, deficient infrastructure, acute poverty, massive unemployment, social dislocations, pains and tears without end. It is so sad that faces of the ruled are full of hopelessness, anxiety, fear and agony.

It is like people are walking through the valley of the shadow of death. Their walk resembles disasters that occur across the globe. There are natural disasters of unprecedented proportions like earthquakes, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, floods and tornadoes, wreaking frightening damages across Asia, Europe and North America. Revolutionary hurricanes of political turmoil are also claiming lives and destabilizing governments across the Middle East.

Perhaps, God knows about our acute leadership deficiency in Africa in handling basic existential problems that He won't allow graver calamities of other parts of the earth. We thank God, for His infinite mercy upon us.
If all those earthshaking woes were to happen in my country Nigeria and such countries baptized with promise and fail leaders, how shall we cope? We shall swim and drown in ocean of doom unless fire revolution that knows no sacred cow comes to stay.

SMOKE THAT CAUSES FIRE

It is good at this junction to ask, why do most people experience promise and fail in the walk of life; or fail at the edge of breakthrough? When they believe all is well, they meet bricks of wall, that read "Thou shall not cross over" on their way. Despite they concluded, all is well, they fail at eleventh hour of deal. Injury hour doesn't favour them. They experience failure at the last moment. The fact is, there is no fire without smoke. I advise you buy my book titled, ANOINTING FOR ELEVENTH HOUR, to get keys to apply at crucial period of help.

The question that may be asked now is, what are the causes of promise and fail, and what are the ways out? Let's treat the causes first before we go into the ways out.

MURDERERS OF JOY

There are people I call 'murders of joy'. Their aim is to truncate joy of people on the way. There are people who complain thus, "Any time I discuss my matter with people, it won't work" This complain is common. Once they discuss or mention plans to take with friends or family, no matter efforts they put in place, it won't work. If you are in this shoe, I advise you don't discuss your progress matter with people until it clicks.

A CASE STUDY

There was this brother who decided to travel to the U.S. for green pasture. He has been on fasting and prayer for some time and went for interview. He succeeded at the interview and was told to come back at a specific day.
Before he went back to the embassy, he went for a retreat at a camp along Lagos-Ibadan expressway. After the retreat, as he stepped out of the camp, he stood by the road waiting for bus or lift to Lagos. A car raced towards him and he waved it down. The person in the car recognized him and stopped.

As he bent down to say, 'Please sir, I am going to Lagos', the occupant of the car called him by name. Alas, he was a distant relative of this gentleman. As he sat in the car, he opened up. He told this man he will be going to America Embassy the following day to pick his visa as was promised.

He revealed every step he took to obtain it. To him he thought he was talking to a friend not knowing the man was not happy. According to him, after he alighted from the man's car, the man drove straight to the embassy and give details of false information given by the man to the consulate. To the surprise of this man he was denied the visa, and was told how a man he saw and discuss with told them everything. He was told, the consular just pity him, he should have been arrested!

This man voiced his mission into wrong hand and paid dearly for it. There is also the problem of 'personality nailers'. These are people that speak ill of you before would-be-helpers. They are people who boast one will not succeed in life. They go far to know who your next helper would be and blackmail you before him. They are there ready to destroy your personality. They sharpen their tongue like razor to bring you down. Deceit is their food, it is in their heart. They laugh with you as friend but are foes. You thought they are neighbours but are goliaths. They love evil to good, false hood than truth. Their mouth is full of harmful words that can send destiny to untimely grave.
The psalmist knew how far they can go. No wonder he cry to God and said, "Rescue me, O LORD, from evil men, protect me from men of violence, who devise evil plans in their hearts and stir up war every day. They make their tongues as sharp as a serpent; the poison of vipers is on their lips" Psalm 140:1-3.

In fact, there are powers and personalities like these that strive hard to hold you captive. They are angry at your meeting helpers. They use every means to block you. They are like giants that give you or your helper wrong signal. You shouldn't address this issue with kid's gloves but be stern with holy madness.

Cry to God; report your case to Him. Say what you need and be firm with what you say. Cry warfare cry this way; "O LORD of Israel, bring my foes down to everlasting ruin; release them to wind of destruction. Let evil recoil on those who slander me. Let terrors of death pursue them. Let them hand's off my case and turn back".

Arise fast and deal with anyone that wants to take your place. You are not created to feed on left over, but original destined for you. To achieve this, go into warfare prayer. Whatever evil they meant for you shall be their portion.

It is high time you change your prayer pattern. Pray back to sender prayers. They must bend down by fire and carry their evil loads. Pray that no one shall extend kindness or help to them; this is their plan for you. Pray that no one shall extend favour to them; this is what they impregnate in mind against you. Pray, for their names to be blotted out of remembrance, they hate you seeing face of God. Pray for iniquity to find them out, they want you to die as a sinner. Pray, that accusers shall stand against them; they want you to be defenseless before God. Pray, for their heads to be covered with shame, this is their mission for you. Silence them, I say silence them, before they silence you.

DRUNKENESS AND SMOKING

To build habit of drunkenness and smoking is bad. It will reduce your status quo in society, as people shall look down on you as an unserious person. These two awkward habits go hand in hand with victims. Most drunkards are noted to be smokers, while most smokers indulge in taking alcohol. There is a spirit behind this attitude. It marks candidate for destruction and isolation.

It is an attitude that cannot be indulged in secretly. Once loaded with alcohol, odour emits from the mouth, while body of smokers emits odour of cigarette. Smell and odour puts off helpers. A smoker or drunkard is labeled unserious, immature and irresponsible. It is believed; irresponsible person smokes, or takes alcohol.

Every helper wants to associate with responsible people. Once you are negatively labeled chances of help becomes slim. Any time you approach helpers he is likely to dribble you with “come today, come tomorrow”, or out rightly turn you down.

Drunkenness and smoking gives one a bad name. Since it is known, good name is better than gold, it is apparent to desist from smoking or consume alcohol. Once helper makes up his mind against a person, door of help may close. At such time promise and fail becomes the order of the day.

To avoid promise and fail in your daily pursuit, you are advised to quit smoking and alcohol. It hardens your way to secure contract, job and good relationship. Health hazard is there as well to cope with. It adds no value to life rather it shortens life expectancy as a result of damage done to liver and heart.

EVIL MARK IN THE BODY

Evil mark is a terrible weapon applied by enemy against one before helpers. The effect of evil mark on victim is distraction, rejection and hatred from helpers. It doesn't add value to life but subtracts. Anyone with evil mark finds it difficult to gain favour of people. Helpers develop unexplainable hatred while victim is seen as odd person anywhere he goes. His labour doesn't commensurate with harvest.

Evil mark can either cause multiple or solo damage in the life of victim. Evil mark that cause multiple damage is called multipurpose evil mark while one that causes one damage is called solo evil mark.

Multipurpose evil mark attracts multiple hatred and general misfortune. Anyone so attacked hardly find help or succeed in life. He experiences all round failure in education, career, marriage, apprenticeship or in office. Helpers always stay clear of him.

Solo evil mark is demonically designed for a purpose. The purpose of such mark may be to cause helpers to avoid victim like plague. For example, a victim may have good grade in academics, or be a first class product, but finds it difficult to secure job. He may do well at interviews but won't be offered the job. It will be a matter of come today, come tomorrow, meanwhile someone who is not as good as him will be selected.

There is nothing wrong with him, but the evil mark placed on him, specifically to be unemployable in the labour market. This is one of the reasons you find good academic materials in city without job.

WHEN ONE IS UNDER CURSE

It is a tragedy for a person to be under curse or spell. Once under curse, helpers look elsewhere. Help will stop coming in one's direction. It is as if all roads are blocked. It is a tragedy as well if someone destined to help you is cursed. One thing you should know is that your destiny is attached to someone at least. By this, if the person assigned to help you is not positioned rightly, as a result of curse pronounced on him, you may experience series of problems.

Anyone under curse shall experience promise and fail from helpers. As a cursed person, he is monitored by evil powers. He shall experience ill-luck and failure from people. The curse upon him will make people hate him. On the other hand, if your helper is cursed, hope may go to the wind. An insane or cursed person cannot extend helping hands to you. His situation is pathetic, he needs help as well. If such person promises you, help may not come.
Every curse introduces darkness into a life. If it is not cancelled or nullified, such life may not experience open heaven. Personal curse may affect your helper from locating you. A man under curse is helpless before helpers. The reason is, demons have access to him. He is pierced with evil arrow that causes delay, unfruitfulness, obstacles and failure.

To overcome promise and fail from helpers as a result of a curse, it is advisable to pray it out and reverse every curse back to sender. Pray for anointing that breaks the yoke, to nullify and break every curse you may be passing through knowingly or unknowingly. I pray every curse that causes promise and fail in your life shall break. Amen.

ATTACK IN THE DREAM

One major cause of promise and fail is dream attack. Many that receive in the dream always miss there goodness in the physical. They lose good contracts and laudable connections that may take them to places. To some, they lose good job opportunities and access to fruitfulness of life. Stars are hijacked or replaced with emptiness while some lost their lives through dream attack.

Dream attack is a terrible blow to life. Evil plantation is planted in the life of victims in the sleep. The Bible says, “While men slept enemy came and sow tires in his life”. Tire makes life uncomfortable and unbearable. It makes life worthless and reduces it to nothing as a result of dream attack.

Dream attack is embarrassing. Once attacked, promises will fail. One will experience failure at the edge of breakthrough. Helpers that promise heaven on earth shall suddenly disappoint.

People under dream attack experience disappointment all the time. They labour but hardly harvest. They go to bed with assurance, loaded with hopes, but wake into waiting hands of disappointment and failure. It is disheartening to experience attack in the dream, as promise and fail becomes the order of the day.

There are signs and dreams to watch. One needs to understand how to interpret dreams, so that he can pray out an upcoming disappointment. For a better understanding on dreams, I advise you buy my book titled DICTIONARY OF DREAMS. It is a book loaded with dreams and interpretations. It has about 10,000 (Ten thousand) dreams and interpretations.
To buttress this, whenever you dream any of the underlisted dreams or allied dreams, know that enemy is at work against your success. Pray and nullify them and claim what you are pursuing.

- When your certificate is seized in the dream
- When your file is missing or burnt in the dream
- When you roam about aimlessly in the dream
- When you climb but couldn't make it before you wake in the dream
- When you wear tattered dress in the dream
- When naked in the dream
- When tied down to a spot in the dream
- When your hair is shaved in the dream
- When you see yourself crying in the dream
- When your hands are amputated in the dream.

EVIL HOUSEMAID ATTACKS

Many homes are in disarray today as a result of attack of evil housemaid. Many use their hard earn money to employ hands that close gates of opportunities against them. Many housemaids are demonic and are possessed. They attack their masters and mistresses unabated. They blow evil winds against comfort and finances of their masters. They bring ill-luck rather than good luck.

It is common to hear confessions of “I am responsible for the woes of my master” “I place evil mark on my master not to see favour anywhere he goes” “My master cannot see good face of people” etc. How is it possible for someone robbed with excreta in the dream to experience warm reception with would-be helper? It is impossible. Helpers will avoid such person with perfect hatred without reason. It is such time the person experience promise and fail. He may not know reasons behind his woes, unless heaven intervenes.

It is pathetic and spiritually imbalance to take housemaid for a little child. They should not be underrated at all. You need to pray for them before and after you employ their service. It is advisable you take them for deliverance once in a while.

This is necessary because when they attack, good things are affected at home. What looks prosperous suddenly goes down the drain, contracts will seize, children delinquency will set in; promise from people suddenly seize, people develop hatred at you without reason while payment of bills become difficult. All these eventually sum up to promise and fail.

It is time you pray and rebuke evil housemaid spirit in your home and destiny. They are servant in the day but master at night or in the spirit. Many of them are agent of darkness. I pray you shall not be swallowed by them. Amen.

WHEN FIRED WITH EVIL ARROW

Evil arrow is a weapon fired to cause havoc in the life of unsuspecting victim. Evil arrow is not what should be treated with kid’s glove. It endangers and destroys lives. Anyone fired with evil arrow hardly knows peace. It is a tragedy to be a victim.

When fired with arrow of darkness, destiny is under attack. Loved ones suddenly become enemy. Open doors suddenly disappear, good understanding with friends and people becomes strange, places one is accepted with open hands suddenly stops. All is because strange arrow is fired against the person. Evil arrows are many, with different missions to fulfil in the lives of victims. Such arrows and their effects include:-

Arrow of untimely death that causes premature death
Arrows of sickness and diseases that cause health problem
Arrow of insanity, that causes madness and insanity
Arrow of backwardness, that causes stagnation in a life
Arrow of failure that causes failure in a life and ventures etc

Many destinies are apology as a result of persistent failure. When one is fired with arrow of promise and fail, he hardly sees good face of helpers. Because of arrow of failure in his life, helpers will only promise but never fulfill their promise. Evil arrow that leads to promise and fail may introduce spirit of procrastination in a life. Such person will choose to defer time of seeing helper even when he knows it is dangerous. By the time he shows up, it is late and he is turned back. It is then he realizes the fault was his, but the harm (failure) is done.

Pray against every arrow that may discourage helpers from fulfilling their promise to you. Pray against arrow that will make you look different and unacceptable by helpers. Therefore, cancel and return to sender every form of evil arrow that causes promise and fail in a life.

SPIRIT OF PRIDE

Pride is an attitude and instrument of destruction in a man. Pride makes you value yourself above your worth. Pride makes you think you are "wise" than everybody. It makes you look down on everyone around you. Pride makes you have "I know it all" attitude. It is on this premise, helpers are scared. When you go for help or counsel, you don't arrogate pride to yourself. The person you approach for help watches as you speak.
In the process of going to someone for help, avoid unnecessary argument. The Bible says, "He that is of proud heart stirreth up strife" Proverbs 28:25. "Only By pride commeth contention" Proverbs 13:10 . When you make your discussion argument all through, helper may see you as someone that doesn't tolerate or is difficult to control or advise. Anyone that helps should have proprietary interest in helps he gives. So if you plan to dictate terms, helpers may bow out. Once this is done, every promise before now is jettisoned, leading to promise and fail.

Anyone who is proud is in a dangerous position. You shouldn't exalt yourself before helpers, be liberal with your presentations. Avoid boast; let him understand realities on ground. Follow what the book of Proverbs says, "Let another praise thee, and not thine own mouth" Proverbs 27:2. If a helper sees what is on ground he may rise to your aide. How you present yourself sells you to helpers.
My word of advice is, if you want to live above board, and gain hearts of helpers avoid pride. The rule is simple. God hates pride, so hate it. People hates pride, hate it as well. By this, you shall win the hearts of helpers and sail through life.

PROBLEM OF MARITAL TURBULENCE

It is common to hear stories of spouse pulling each other down in the ladder of life. What started like petty jealousy suddenly develops to arch rivalry at home. I have heard cases of men trying to pull down their wives that excel in their chosen career or business. Such men believe it is a taboo for a woman to excel above her husband at home. When women in her shoe excel, their husband roar like lion at home. They challenge their wife as if the woman commits crime. They ask questions like, 'Is it because you are rich that is why you want to take over my house'. 'Why are you so arrogant this day'?

Men who jealous look for ways to pull down their wives. They may stop her financial growth and connections, and if possible kill her. They believe the woman is using their star to grow. To achieve this, such men apply witchcraft powers to pull down and scatter the finance of the woman.
Once this is done, the woman may find it difficult to see good face of people that would be of help to her. No matter what she does to please her helpers, she will meet rejection and brick walls. Helps that flow like rivers before, suddenly seize while promise and fail become the order of the day.

Is this peculiar to men alone? The answer is no. There are cases of women who out of impatience, because they ask for one thing or the other from their husband but weren't given on time, pick quarrel and scatter whatever her husband laid hands upon. Such women visit herbalists, satanic pastor or go for evil people to pull down their husband. Once the man is afflicted, his business and career goes down while he experience promise and fail wherever he goes.

Really, no marriage is wrong until you shepherd it into palace of confusion. It is you that unmake or make your marriage. The breakthrough or otherwise of a marriage resides with both parties. If misunderstanding is allowed in a marriage, turbulence that leads to hatred and eventual failure takes control.

POWER OF EVIL HOUSE

Evil house have destroyed many lives and destinies. It is a tragedy that most houses have robbed people of their wealth and opportunities. There are people who should be big time men and women but for the house they rented or live. Such house introduces failure and demotion into their lives. They experience bewitchment of highest order, and are afflicted with wickedness and retrogression.

Evil house have swallowed certificates of many, while night caterers fed many with evil food that bring ill-luck with effects that drive helpers away. Many are spiritually caged making it impossible to locate helpers.

As soon as they pack to such house, they experience disappointments in their daily pursuits. They dwell in terrible nightmares and spiritual agony that breeds hatred and persistent demotion at place of work. Effects of living in evil house are many both at home and in office. It is sure when one is opposed in office, helping hands become a mirage.

It is high time you wrestle yourself from the grip of strongmen holding you captive from locating your helpers as a result of evil house you live. Pray fire prayers that will liberate you from spiritual enslavement. Pray for total restoration of goodness lost to evil powers. Pray, I say pray, for helpers to locate you, and you to locate your helpers.

The fact that a house is big doesn't mean Jesus is living there. That a house is neat does not mean Jesus is there. Cloud of darkness can spiritually overtake a house. There was this man who built a big house, who decided to sleep their just for a night before he finally pack in. To his surprise, in the middle of the night he heard strange voices in the house. Dark power has taken over the house.

Many houses have altars to appease smaller gods while many are filled with shrines. Such powers will generate cloud of darkness over the house and its environ. A house that accommodates demons and its agents bring negatives to life. In such house hatred and quarrel prevails, brotherly love is absent while filthiness of mind propels cloud of darkness. Closed heaven is paramount in this environ while spirit of almost there functions unabated. Good stars are hijacked at will, as enemies refuse them to shine. For better understanding of this topic buy my book titled Victory over Satanic House Part One: Ridding Your Home Of Spiritual Darkness

Helpers refuse to show up, as those who dare to show interest to help are either killed or attacked in the spirit. In such house big dreams suddenly expire as solutions to ideas disappear. In such house, destiny becomes commodity for sale while strange hands place evil loads on peoples' heads. It is in such house complains of tragedy and temptations that swallow goodness prevails. The summary of it all is, law of backwardness is in place.

In the midst of confusion, hatred reigns. Where there is no love, helpers may not be found as everyone try to undo one another. Occupants of many houses are enemies of God and of men. A house where husband has his pot of soup, wife has hers, not due to medical reason, but for lack of trust is dangerous. Most homes hate changes. They don't want change in their prayer life, neither do they read or understand the Bible. Many Christians don't read at all. Where shall helpers come when you refuse to help yourself to grow? It is high time you fight hard and be right with God where every trouble, worries and problems disappear.

CHAPTER ELEVEN

WARFARE AGAINST SPIRIT OF STAGNANCY

It is pathetic, the sun of many is set while it is still day; while their moon refuses to shine at night. Hope is lost as skies are void of showers of help. They live in darkness with disgrace and in humiliation. They complain in regrets and rebuke the day they were born. But with promise of God, there is hope. The book of Jeremiah 15:21 says , "I will save you from the hands of the wicked and redeem you from the grasp of the cruel" Helpers which you think can't be found shall locate you for help.

In the era when millions enjoy a degree of material prosperity many are unable to escape what Austrian neurologist, Viktor E. Frank describes as a "sense of meaninglessness and emptiness". They live in unbelievable wretched, heartbreaking conditions. Each day, they wake up to poverty, wake up to sickness and diseases, senseless violence and oppression, unexpected financial setbacks and bitter tragedies that shatter treasured hopes and dreams. Poverty is a monster we need to confront and defeat.

When a man is stagnated, it is believed that oppositions, barriers and obstacles are stronger than him. He experiences strange manifestations that bury destiny. Things suddenly change in opposite direction. What he finds doing with ease before becomes difficult? Business slows down or folds up abruptly. Helpers disappear at the corridor of his life. He meets insurmountable problems in office that eventually leads to sack. Environment becomes hostile to him. He is rebuffed and rejected anywhere he goes. He expends his resources and finds no source to re-vamp it. Stagnation has set in.

What do we mean with this monster word called stagnation? It means to be inactive, to be still and stale, unchanging, without current. It means to revolve round a point for several years. It means to live a life with no sign of change. Anyone that found himself in this state lives from hand to mouth. It becomes impossible for him to save but incurs debt. To pay up his bill becomes difficult.

What do we mean by stagnation? It means when things suddenly change for bad, or when bad season takes over good season without end sign. It means when surrounded by enemies that pull one down and ready to stand by it. At this point, what you need is divine favour that release divine presence into life. When divine favour comes, mountains and obstacles melt away. It is therefore necessary to ask for dose of favour to nullify spirit of stagnancy in your life. When divine favour locates you, it will introduce progress and success into your life. It will enable you take profitable steps that ushers you into a marching order of breakthrough.

Many become victim of stagnancy because they failed to oversee their resources with intelligence. They indulge themselves in misplaced priorities, mismanagement, distorted ambitions and personal agendas. If individuals are opportune to approach International Monetary Fund (I.M.F.) for loan, they will go for it. They will call it help and eventually misappropriate it.

Misappropriation of resources led many into wilderness of hopelessness. Instead of rising from the point at which they borrowed money, they sink. They borrow money for something specific but spend it on other things. They go for shopping, groceries, parting or take a trip. What they don't realize is, they block avenue of expansion before God because next time they ask, God will remember what they did with what was given them last time. Such is the attitude with men as well. They are happy when you spend money given to you wisely.

When people come to you for financial assistance, ask them to whom they owe. Ask them to be sincere. If nine out of ten are sincere, they will count two or three people they owned, which they never pay back. The fact is, they never ask the person they own for more money. They go elsewhere as innocent person with promise to pay back in two weeks' time. They never pay back in six months or one year, sometimes they don't pay back at all. What more, they create bigger problems by going to new people with same old problem and story again.

When you seek help, don't envelope yourself in sea of debt. When indebted you are one, unless you pay up. The fact is, debt doesn't go away by avoiding it or hoping your debtors don't call. If you know you can't pray your phone bills out of existence or cast light bills out in Jesus name, or being filled with the Holy Spirit doesn't cancel any debt, you must pay what you owe.

What are the signs to tell us stagnancy is close by or is hitting one badly? It is good to know the signs so that we can adjust our self. The signs will make us wake from slumber and wrestle from grip of stagnancy. When you experience or see any of the under listed signs coming, know you need to act fast.

- Where others are making it, you often experience failure.
- When it is your turn, you are denied or things got finished.
- When hated by people without reason.
- When attacked in the dream in the like of; having sex in the dream, wearing rag in the dream, or when your head is shaved in the dream etc.
- When attacked by cobweb spirit.
- When strange signs are experienced in your body, e.g. you feel pep perish signs in your buttocks or any part of your body.
- When you take wrong step at every critical decision taken.
- When spirit of brokenness is not found in your dictionary.

To every point mention above is leakage to prosperity and greatness. They are signs that may refuse one to grow, or held one stagnant. When you refuse to address them as they appear, it is as if emptying your treasure or you unplug yourself from socket of glory.

What then can one do? From beginning you will notice one thing is certain to know, which is, your life needs a change. It needs a change from good to better and from better to best. Build creative ideas that flow in you. Let it flow in your veins. Let it flow in you on daily basis. Dream BIG to generate greatness. Creation and creativity are twins' words. God did creation and left creativity to men. Creativity is built into every one of us. It is part of our thought; it is part of our design and what we struggle with on daily basis. It is therefore part of us.

When you notice a person at the same place today as he was five years ago, know he is desperately in need of one help or the other. Such person still has the same dream, the same problem, and the same opportunities yet to be tapped. He can be referred to as being stagnant.

It is time to speak against swamps of destruction fashioned against your destiny. It is high time you command goodness into your situation. As a child of God, call in the Great Commander, the Lord Almighty to take control of the situation. You are born to rise and shine, and not to struggle in vain. You must reap the fruit of your labour.
How bad it is, when hope for light turn to thick darkness, when you sow wheat and reap thorns, or wear yourself out and gain nothing? You must not fold your arms but speak with authority, for helpers to locate you and you to locate your helpers. Therefore

- Command every situation to favour you
- Command your star to rise and shine
- Command every obstacle and barriers against you to scatter
- Command testimony swallowers assigned against you to vomit your testimony
- Command open heavens to appear in your favour
- Command evil hands fashioned against you to wither
- Command light of God to shine upon you as against powers of darkness
- Command sincere helpers to locate you by fire
- Command evil plot fashioned against you to scatter

- Command chains of captivity fashioned against you to break by fire
- Command laughter and joy to locate you in streams
- Command spirit of wealth creation to locate you by fire
- Command your dream life to receive power of revival and victory
- Command snares of the enemy against you to expire
- Command every form of gang up against you to scatter
- Command heavenly wisdom to locate you by fire.
- Command grip of fear against you to expire in your life
- Command mercy of God upon your life

- Command forces of darkness against you impotent
- Command satanic trees fashioned against you to wither to the root
- Command every satanic gate fashioned against you to catch fire and roast to ashes.
- Command fire of God to consume evil altars fashioned against you
- Command fruitfulness and prosperity upon your life
- Command agenda of darkness to scatter by fire
- Command dark covenants assigned against you to break
- Command high-flying benefits to locate you by fire
- Command your coast to enlarge by fire
- Command original plan of God to be established in your life, and so shall it be, Amen.
