Alters, Rankings And Authorities Full Chapter

Before we climb higher, let's lay the simple and domestic purpose of prayers very shortly. We must first lay a foundation for we as children of God ought to pray, it is a life habit given only by the holy Spirit, because He's the one who prays in us, if you don't have the holy spirit you can't have the ability to pray.

You can't have the holy spirit if God's word isn't dominating your heart, it is the word that fills and saturates the hearts of a man that births the manifestation of the holy spirit that enables a man live and walk with Jesus, no longer in the world, all he has done before well be replaced with a new culture of heaven, a culture of sacrifice.

It is on the alter of sacrifice, the alter of prayers we ascend unto God, that is; we bring the presence of God down to dwell in our tabernacle, affecting lives and homes, and territories. Unless the presence of God dwells, there'll be chaos, because you'll still be trapped within the atmosphere of darkness even though you're born again.

Many believers lack alters, they don't attend to alters, that's why they're faced with unnecessary troubles and the weight of it crushes them. We children of God ought not to face unnecessary troubles, we only face necessary trouble to build us more in God to become more intimate with Him and to manifest His life and authority as sons of God.

When you're engaged in prayers, you're being clothed by His spirit and shielded in the presence of God, His glory covers you like a shield. However, the more consistent you are in prayers and the word, the stronger and wider the coverage of His shied. When God's presence dwells in your life, even if you're the only light in your family you become a channel of light, all who are connected to you, your family, or even your friends, you can add to your bones, and when they become part of your bones, nothing can happen to them. Even if you slack off in spiritual balance and before you recovered evil happened, you can reverse it, your bones shall not be broken.

How hard is your bone? How much do you consume the word to have enough calcium to fortify your spiritual bones? How much do you pray to generate antibodies to fight off the invasion of foreign bodies of darkness in your blood that comes to fight off and take the holy spirit from you. If you're left without the holy spirit, you're left exposed. As you fortify your bones your family is fortified, and all related to you, angels are dispatched on your behalf.

As you pray to keep the presence of God down, the presence of God, the life of God, will be seen in you and expressed through you, Which can lead to salvation of the others. It's not all about the words we speak, after all people have been hearing the word for a long time, it is the life transferred, then you saturate that atmosphere with life so that they too can have life.

However, there are alters of darkness that must be removed before you can save your family. You then, who have been elected by God needs to spend time In His presence, detaching from every contamination and all that hinders in order to harness and generate power and authority to destroy alters.

It all depends on how much incense you can harness from your alter, the greater the density of the incense, the stronger the presence of God upon you. If there lies any evil, it becomes like a poisonous gas, the higher the concentration, the more effective and deadly it becomes. However, the one releasing the gas will be immune to it, he's immune to it, because it comes out of the spirit of God in him.

It is the presence of this gas that kills sin, break curses and devours evil in a man and his environment. It only affects a man who has made a pact with witchcraft, occult, and so on. These are the classified set God's presence In a born again exercising authority can kill, because they deliberately made a pact with the devil. That's why you can curse a witch to death by the authority of Jesus. Suffer not the witch to die.

That's how family alters are destroyed, it only takes yielding in obedience to grow in intimacy to manifest the power of God, so that His presence through you can suppress…, at times you won't even pray directly and you'll see revelations of victories won. Note that you can't do anything in a revelation, it's just like a television to portray the state of your spirit man. That why we ought to pray without ceasing.

We pray without ceasing in hymns, spiritual songs, thankfulness, and also few words or declaration constantly in our heart, every second, you can interchange them. As long as you're consciously talking to God in your heart, you're in an act of prayers, praying without ceasing, serving as a priest, sacrificing unto God from your alter (heart). It is this constant sacrifice that keeps us in the presence of God at all time.

God's alter is built in our heart, the alter is the composition of our hearts, it is our heart. We mortals are alters, however, we children of God are alters of God, a mobile alter, we no longer need to go to or face Jerusalem to pray. Your heart is the alter, God's word dominating your heart is the substance sacrifice, the fire is the holy spirit in you. The fire is always there being born again in the holy ghost, you just have to be filled with the word to increase the sacrifice.

The greater the word substance filling your heart, the greater the fire, the holy spirit is just like a spark of fire in us, until when ignited upon the substance word, it generates a blazing fire. The fire of the holy ghost in you depends on how much word substance you have, some Christians might have fire as little as a candle light, others can also be engulfed in a pillar of fire burning fiercely.

How much word substance do you have? When you speak, you speak with fire, you're clothed with fire, you angels wields fiery swords to dispatch any evil. Now you see how relevant God's word is, you've now realized why the devil will do everything to stop a man from feeding on God's word, because he knows the activation power sealed therein.

For the ungodly, your heart is evil and so you'll have to serve as a priest unto darkness to harness sin and evil into the world instead of holiness. There are only black and white in this life, you have the choice of decision, a priest of darkness or of light? When your alter and sacrifices generated are of greater density it clears the atmosphere of every darkness in order for the presence of God to comes down strong.

When all is said and done, when all cords of darkness are broken, then vison to advance God's kingdom is given. There is need for the first wave of battle, the first wave is to gain victory over every old foundation and alters of darkness that has had you bound. If these battles aren't won, you won't have a part in establishing God's kingdom, our true purpose in life. If you don't set yourself an alter your old foundation will tie you down.

You think is all about you! No, It's all about the kingdom of God. Your situations are just designed and allowed by God to build intimacy with him, it is those who build an in-depth of intimacy with Him He invest on.

The Lord allows the devil to get you so bad, and He allowed trials, to build and not to destroy you, He allowed sin so that you'll recognize Him and be saved. He did all this so that you can become relevant in His kingdom, if only you choose to function in His kingdom mandate. It's not all about salvation, salvation is just a ticket of where the Lord wants us to be.

On that day we shall see the Lord, well be judged and ranked differently in accordance to how much we yield our hearts to be of service under the government of God while on earth. Men will be ranked differently, many of little worth and few of greater glory. Like the parable of the ten Minas, the one who was trusted with ten, was given charge over ten cities. You don't know will be crowned kings? Just as we'll be enthroned, we'll be kings of different rankings and authority, it is a civilization over there.

It is also the perpetual servicing of alters that keeps us connected to God, to receive from Him revelations, live updates from heaven concerning the times and seasons set by God for a generation, so that vision will be triggered for the advancement of God's kingdom, His true and eternal purpose for us all. Every other thing is vanity, there is that which last for eternity, your sacrifice for God. Every registered citizen of heaven will be rewarded according to his sacrifices made to meet the demands of God, this is our judgement.

There is more to life than we ought to know, in fact there is no life if you don't have Jesus, and even if you do, you won't have a life lived if you're not aligned to the kingdom mandate of God. Vanity upon vanity so is the flesh. However, eternal is your reward when you invest in the kingdom.

The kingdom of God doesn't necessarily need sons for it's advancement, but rather priest and kings. Every kingdom needs priests and kings, even the kingdom of darkness does also. Surely you've heard of shrine high priest a lot and their services, but little on the priest of God. The shrine priest or the priest of an alter of darkness performs rituals and sacrifices to invoke and maintain the presence of demonic entities, they make the necessary sacrifices to do so for the devil. Why can't we children of God make same sacrifices to become high priests unto God.

We are weak, we Christians are weak and that's why this world is governed by the powers of darkness. You hear of evil everyday, it's not because there is no God, it's because we have made God irrelevant, it's because we refuse to pray to invoke the presence of God to reign over every territory. If we can shift the authority balance for God to have the higher ratio, then there'll be less evil and God's kingdom will advance even more. Still we left such duty in the hands of the few, and still depreciating. God can do greater works through just a man, but still, much greater work will be done if we all choose to yield to the holy ghost to be consecrated as priests.

What do you think will happen if the remnants priest are gone? God will have to destroy the world instantly, it's because there are still priest and kings who enforces the kingdom and will of God on earth, that's why God is still letting us be, but I tell you, soon the time will be up, any moment form now.

In God's kingdom we are all children, but we are not all children, because we are of different rankings those who chooses to sacrifice more will be ranked higher, oh! you think you'll be ranked the same as everyone, it doesn't work that way. A man born again is born as a spiritual babe, he can choose to remain a babe. Babes don't get rewards, they only get food and shelter and they have restriction and limitations in God's house. Sons of God however, have duties to fulfil in the house of God, still with limitations also, they don't have access to the deep things of the Father.

The sons have duties to be fulfilled, but they're like house shores to him. Untill he grows by making sacrifices, then he's given revelation by God which triggers visions to propel him for the move of God's kingdom. It's like a son who has vision to please the Father, but not yet fulfilled, because he has not yet come of age. Untill a son of God grows and sacrifices to become a priest or king, only then will he be entrusted the kingdom blueprint for God's project.

Using physical reference, a son, in the flesh has attain maturity and stops growing in height, he'll then venture to grow in maturity and status, or it's like a seed that has grown into a tree, the tree has attain maturity, but it's has little relevance until it begins to bear fruit. That's another dimension of growth where height is no longer needed. The tree is called a mango tree when it grows into a tree, but has it bore fruits? It is when it has fruits, it then can become of relevance for feeding and even producing other mango tree like itself.

That how God designed His kingdom, interrelating with men, it's not all about salvation. If you think it is, you'll remain a seedling. Those who can discern the true purpose and move of God and the urgency of God to feed the nations through His word will do everything to mature in spirituality and bear fruits.

Without a priest there is no king, it is the duty of the priest to pray down a king, either he becomes the king ordained or God ordains another king apart from him. The reason we still have great men of God is because of the alters of God that has been erected by great generals of God, alters still lasting from generation to generation, you how much can your alter last, one day? No alter is useless, every prayer is useful, but still, alters are of different grade. It is the remnants of alter that creates a breach between the earth realm and the dimension of God to allow heavenly being to invade the physical in order to function in God's will.

Men ignorantly and foolishly live in sin to increase alters of darkness for demons to invade the earth realm. You think when you sin and say " Jesus, forgive me " it's all over, you think you've done no harm to the body of Christ, you've just set a decline in the advancement of God's kingdom, and a decline In the advancement of God's kingdom keeps men In deeper bondage to darkness. You must compensate for the scars you've caused.

Every of your sin is a yielding to a spirit that erects and services an alter giving authorization to demons to invade and dominate the earth realm by possessing and influencing the hearts of men. In order words the earth realm is filled with a thick cloud of darkness, not because the devil has been casted down, rather, because we choose to yield as priest of darkness at one point In our lives. It's so easy to yield to become a priest of darkness than of light, because the very nature of man has been corrupted from birth, this is where the blood of Jesus finds relevance. It is more than just repentance.

Let an ungodly man not call a shrine priest a high priest, because he also is a priest of darkness as long as he is in sin, his heart is an alter rendering offerings to the spirit he is bound to. All men are living alters to spirit entities, the question is which spirit?

The only difference between a shrine high priest and an ungodly man is that, the ungodly man is a low level ranking priest of darkness. Just as we born again live our lives as a living sacrifice holy and acceptable unto God, so also those in sin live as a sacrifice unto demons. We all are priests.

Untill men arise and discern the move and purpose of God they'll remain functioning as priest of darkness. The reason why you think a sinner is not a priest of darkness is because there are high ranking priest like the occult grand masters, shrine high priest, as long as you service an alert you're a priest, just that your level of authority in darkness is low, still little drop of water form an ocean. So also, there are also priests of God of different ranking and functioning.

The prayers a child of God offers aren't useless, neither is the holy lives lived every second of his life, it is a constant offering, a living sacrifice unto God, a true and intimate act of worship. They fill the tabernacle with the presence of God through alters. Still there are priest of different rankings, the difference is in the level of intimacy with God. If you're merely born again, your just a babe priest of low ranking and little relevance, you won't know you're a priest until you begin to grow in stature. That's why men always ought to pray, it is a business of sacrifice.

The reason we preach the gospel, the reason we win soul is to litter the earth realm with alters of God, it is to litter the earth realm of darkness with light bearers, an increase in light is a decrease in darkness. When men are risen in Christ Jesus, they become mediums, there hearts becomes alters that resonates into the heavens to allow God presence to invade in the dimensions of men and alter the affairs of men and darkness. The reason a sinner will have a revelation of rapture is not because he is holy, it's because of the alters littered that keeps invokes and traps God's presence in that territory.

When there are traces of God's presence, God begins to move in a territory to invade and interfere in the lives of men, these causes men to see revelations of an impending danger to give them chances of repentance. So also, evil is made manifest, because of men who yield to sin to function as alter of darkness.

Men give authorization to spirit beings, without our authorization they can't invade our realm. It is a law and a design put in place by God, even He, the ALMIGHTY is subjected to His laws. That how God created man, a tripartite being that functions in a three dimensional realm, it's no wonder the angels would always marvel at man; " What is man."

The reason, the gospel advances so slowly is because we have lost kings and priest, men who prays and men of authority, to seize territory of darkness. The priest and kings of old had God, but we refuse to inherit the doctrine of the kingdom, the doctrine of building and coronating priests and kings by God.

The little prayer you pray matters a lot, even if all you say is; " thank you Jesus," as long as you're consciously engaging in communion with God. Even the little children becomes priest, if only we teach them the ways of prayers, the ways of alters.

Priest and kings, the highest ranking in any Kingdom, this is the height where God desires everyone of us to attain, this is where our true purpose in life is made manifest, God's agenda in our lives. A place where men are ordained Into different offices under the government of God, be it as an apostle, prophet, teacher, pastor and evangelist.

You know there is a difference between a teacher and an ordained teacher by God, the ordained operates under high level authority, still God really wants us to operate the Apostolic and Prophetic, more on the apostolic actually, because they advance with authority, taking over territories of darkness, they are given authority beyond reach of the other offices. We should know the offices are just offices, what matters really is our relationship. We've gone far in the message without giving a brief introduction on who priest and kings really are.

Priests are men of prayers, men of sacrifice, how do I do this without going off track again. Priest are men of prayers who prays down heaven to connect with God. Prayer is a journey unto God, it is intimacy with God, when you pray, not on your demands, but as a sacrifice to meet the demands of God, you venture into His dimensions by allowing your incense to crack open the dimensions of this realm. When your offering reaches the throne of God, He then brings down His glorious presence upon you. Being in God's presence enables you walk the dimensions of heaven on earth, you're of the world but not a part of it. You can then receive updates and revelations easily from heaven.

A priest also allows the presence of God to invade the earth in order to retake territory of darkness so that men can be saved and also called to align with the move of God for a generation. There'll be no revelation of raising a prophet if there are no alters raised to trap breaking news from heaven to deliver to such a man. If you're not a priest you'll remain a local ancient man locked out form God's affair.

Kings are legislators. When a man has sacrificed all, yielding to the holy ghost, he's then drawn into the wilderness to be enthroned king by God and handed over a scepter of authority to judge, and the crown of authority to seize and govern over territories. The earth realm is just a practice ground for a grand civilization in heaven. Everyone will be judged in accordance to how much they've sacrificed here on earth for God's kingdom. If a child of God lived as a babe, he'll be crowned of little worth, but If you sacrificed to become a vessel of honor unto God then, you'll have much relevance for all eternity, you'll be crowned and ranked amongst the highest, much will be entrusted unto you.

How do we become priest of high rankings? We become priest of high ranking through prayers, we pray. Unless you pray without ceasing you cannot be ranked a high priest. Many have designated time of prayers and they've been managing those hours of prayers, fine. However, still men ought to pray always without ceasing in; hymns, psalms, spiritual songs, making melodies in you hearts unto the Lord, always giving thanks to Him. Here are some scripture references;

1 Corinthians 14:15
" What should I do, then? I'll pray with my spirit, but I will pray also with my mind; I will sing with my spirit, but I will sing also with my mind."

Colossians 2:6-7
" So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in Him, rooted and built up in Him, strengthened in the Faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness."

Ephesians 5:18-20
" Do not be drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery, Instead be filled with the spirit. Speak to one another in psalm, hymns, spiritual songs, sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord, always giving thanks to God for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18
" Be joyful always, pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus.

Even as I am writing this message, I am saying thank you Jesus in my heart, always pray without ceasing before you get to your designated time of protracted prayers. You might say " help me Lord," "thank you Jesus," continually in your heart, as long as you're consciously talking to God it is prayer. You won't know the effect of this until you start engaging in it. Those who wants to be free form sin, it sanctify the heart constantly to be free of every invading sin.

From my own experience, this is what I've been doing that made me connected to the heavens to trap the presence of God down in my life. I wasn't aware of it then, until I was shown the mysteries of alters by the holy spirit recently. Praying without ceasing was what enabled me raised the alter of God in my heart to saturate my being with the presence and glory of God, being in His presence subjected me under His government to spend time with Him through His word and prayers also.

Our hearts need to be put in order, because it is the alter of God. God's word is substance offering to be sacrificed unto Him, without it you can pray, even if you did pray with little substance of God's word in you, you'll only generate an offering of low standard unto God. Our prayers goes up as fragrance offerings unto God. Therefore, the more God's word dominates your heart, the greater the sacrifice, your offering will go up unto God as a thick cloud of fragrance offering, a rare and special fragrance.

It is God's word and prayers without ceasing the Lord took interest and gave me revelations to have vision for His kingdom. Even though I don't pray for certain things, still I'll be given news highlight from heaven and revelations of battles won, alters and foundations destroyed and also my spiritual growth. Revelations also of God's building for me, It also relates to my heart, we'll save that later.

So these are just a few of my testimony of why we pray without ceasing. The apostles did this and look at the lives they gave, we still feed of that life, why? Because they chose the way of sacrifice and intimacy with God to become high ranking priest, they left all behind to be enthroned kings to advance the gospel without faltering. No wonder Peter said, you don't need to pray for power, power is harnessed, the core is already there, then harness it. It is only through constant prayers and the word you can maximize the power of God. At warfare where men will throw grenades, you'll come with a nuclear warhead.

" we give ourselves to ministering and the word."

Sacrifice your comfort, you've lived comfortable for too long, who sleeps on a couch in a war zone. Sacrifice not only the comfort of the flesh, but also your heart, don't let your heart wonder too far, always engage it in prayers. Praying without ceasing, you can only flow in this when your filled with the word to harness this capability by the holy spirit. You might decide to pray without ceasing, but you can't if you're not yet filled with the holy spirit, it is the maturity of the holy spirit in you that make you a perfect conduit for prayers to course through.

If you're not filled, it'll weary you. Still, everything starts little until you grow in persistence and faithfulness, then the Lord Jesus Christ will assist you and it'll become natural as breathing.

How is the way of alters? You know last time, as a foundation we talked on prayers as just a way to overcome and a little on it's relevance. However in the kingdom prayer is a relationship and are accompanied with sacrifices. You'll know the way of sacrifice by the holy ghost if you want to reach a high level of intimacy with God, only high ranking priest gets there.

Firstly, for one to pray, he must build the holy spirit that prays in a man, he is the spirit of prayers and this can only be achieved through constant devouring of God's word, we can't do anything without the word, we must devour God's word as food, for it is life. The more you're filled with His life the more His spirit grows in you to enable you walk in line with him at ease, prayer then becomes a breeze. You must eat the bread of life and drink the wine (holy spirit) to become more like Jesus. Jesus is a man of prayer, not " was " but rather " is," because he still prays, if not we'd be dead by now.

However, even as we pray to render sacrifices as priest, there is a hindrance that need to be neutralized, " the flesh." Unless the flesh is neutralized, your prayers won't ascend fully unto God and it'll be of poor fragrance. This is where sacrifices comes in, when the holy ghost sees the time has come, He takes you to a whole new dimension of dealings and burdens to dethrone the flesh.

The flesh is physical flesh and still this physical flesh (limitations of man also) is interwoven with it's spiritual entity called " the spirit of the flesh." This spirit of the flesh creates spiritual barrier that hinders the manifestation of the God's glory in a man, it suppresses most or all of God in him. unless you put the flesh to death, detaching from it by sacrificing it's pleasure and comfort for God's agenda, then it's spiritual barrier that limits the manifestation of God in a man won't be broken.

The flesh is the most important sacrifice to be cast into the fire, we sacrifice the flesh by living in defiance to the comfort of the flesh, here the holy spirit becomes your coach or dietician. It is a spiritual diet plan, to thin the fleshly barrier in order for the spirit man to be built rapidly as he spends time on God's spiritual organic diet. The holy spirit might suddenly tell you commence eating once per day, replacing your earthly diet with God's word. At times after you've finished downloading lots of movies, he'll say " drop them all." You'll have no choice but to delete it all. The fleshly barrier broken makes a man porous to any spirit entity be it of light or darkness. The holy spirit will have to search the heart and go ahead to find out what ever will contaminate the process, He'll put in your heart restriction orders from certain things, that corrupts.

The greatest sacrifice of the flesh casted into the fire is the ambition of a man. Immediately you obey and do this, you've entered into a new dimension of priesthood, and authority even though you're not yet a king. You must be led by the holy ghost to do this, when the times comes, the holy spirit lays burdens in your heart to attend to, you just have to yield.

Can you drop your certificate and follow Him, because He'll demand of it if you have one, He'll demand of your most priced achievement. Our lives is not our own, we live as pawns in the hands of spirit. Whatever spirit you've yield yourself to, whatever they send you to do, you do. We are living for a kingdom.

The reason why the power and glory of God is sealed shut in us is, because we've not broken the barrier of the flesh completely. You can finally harness the life and power of God through His word, but still not manifest it because the flesh is a barrier that hinders. You'll be full of God, ready to explode from within, but because of there is a barrier only little of God's life will pour out of the cracks in the barrier and it is that leakage of anointing you'll manifest. Untill you're led into the wilderness, a course designed by the holy ghost to dethrone the flesh in order to enthroned king with unrestricted access to God's power and authority, then you'll be ordained to manifest t the fullness of God.

Priest are intercessors, be an intercessor, you might end up not going far proclaiming the gospel, but when you pray, when you saturate the atmosphere with the presence of God, when you tear down the alter of darkness and erect the alters of God, then men will be broken, that wall that hinders a man from receiving the word will be broken completely. People will find it easy to walk with Jesus. You operate behind the scene, unknown to men but recognized in heaven.

That's why we ought to pray for the church, you don't know what your prayers are doing, that's why you take it as joke. Just pray without ceasing, when fully charged, just make declarations and they'll be registered and attended to immediately by the angels.

It's not all about preaching the gospel, there are alters of darkness erected that fuels the heart of men with evil. These alters fortify walls that must be destroyed, unless we sound the trumpet, that wall won't come crashing down. Only the life of God that carries the appropriate amount of energy to destroy walls of any kind is needed to break the wall that hinders the heart of a sinner. This life can only be generated and maintained by high ranking priest. You must become a man of alters, sacrifices. Without the life of God overflowing out of you, you cannot speak weighty words. It is the weighty words of a high ranking priest that shake the foundations of darkness.

Before there is salvation, the wall that blocks the hearts of men needs to be removed. There must be a tilting of the scale of powers, before the God's can advance, there must be a priest to tilt the balance of power, the job of the priest is to pray and stay connected to God, building a more intimate relationship with God to manifest power and authority. It is this authority that suppresses functionaries of darkness for light to prevail.

At times the pastor might not be the one God is using to birth life, it might be the intercessors in the corner. To others it might look as if he's wasting his time, but when you journey into eternity, he is ranked higher than the pastor. He might not be know but he is relevant in heaven.

When the Israelites went for wars, they'd carry the ark of God ahead of them. it is when the Lord's presence went with through the ark they conquered. So it is with the kingdom warfare. The Lord raises priest who shall carry His presence ahead of the warriors who shall proclaim the word, delivering men from captivity. Unless there are high ranking priest praying always God's kingdom will not advance.

Priest are the mobile ark of God.

Kings, as I said earlier, are being ordained by God, vested with authority for forwarding the advancement of God's kingdom, they are commonly the apostles of God. It takes a great deal of sacrifice to get here, you must first become a priest before you become a king. You must have gone through the order of priesthood and dealings with the holy spirit before being enthroned king, because without alters you cannot generate the presence of God to discern the times and season in order to walk in alignment with God, His dealings of the holy ghost for the dispensation of time set by God for a generation.

You must pray in order to get revelation and understanding of the move of God, where the wind blows, you follow, it doesn't matter what men or your church pastor says, you know he holy spirit ministering to your heart, now, you discern the time. The revelations given by God is enough conviction to make you say you're ready to die here and now, no matter what people say. The moment you lack the slightest but of conviction, the holy spirit will go look for another vessel, He doesn't deal with faithless unserious people, men who are still swayed by men. The revelations given of the kingdom makes your vision focused.

This is why we pray, this is why we journey through the path of priesthood to stay connected to God at all time. As we grow from faith to faith new revelations are given to fortify and quicken our vision in following God's movement else we'll be weary in faith. Without revelations you can't make sacrifices, because you don't know where you're going, if we as priest don't pray without ceasing, it'll affect our authority level when we shall be ordained kings. The Lord is good, he'll delay your time if you refuse to pray, because if he calls you when you're not prepared, demons and principalities will crush you.

A priest might be called by God to function as a priest only, whereas a king can also function as a priest, no all kings must function both as a priest and a king, he is a priest even before being enthroned in the wilderness to become king. One cannot enthroned king without being a priest, and one cannot sustain his throne without operating as a priest.

When you grow in rank your spiritual energy, your jurisdiction increases over territories. You're given authority to cast out demons, judge, legislate laws, when you speak the word, it is registered as life anywhere, bringing men unto salvation, there no longer stand a barrier to hinder the hearts of men, because of the authority of life vested in you, when you speak, every walls crumble, principalities recognizes who's in charge and will give way, then the territory will be clear for the Lord's taking.

We don't needs babes, we need men who arise to become priest and kings to advance the kingdom of God. Sacrifice to become of relevance, only those of royal blood or his high ranking royal personal guard are of relevance.

Kings are rewarded greatly, all they do is move in the authority of God, and in eternity they'll be given charge over much to govern, even on earth, they still live as kings. But it all comes at a price of death.
