Chapter One

Bewitching Spirits

O FOOLISH CHRISTIANS

Individuals, families, cities and nations can be bewitched. Churches can also be bewitched: "Oh foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you. That you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been evidently set forth, crucified among you," (Gal. 3:2). Here, certain men had invaded the church, coming under false pretenses, appearing to be true servants of God. However, they used witchcraft to turn the entire church away from truth into false doctrines!

In (Gal. 5), Paul states flatly that his persuasion was not of Him who had called them. It was of Satan and demonstrates his subtlety. By infiltration he perverted and deceived the entire church into acceptance of false teachings. We err when we underestimate the effect of witchcraft for it certainly has powers that we ignore or a discount to own hurt.

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY BECOMES A DRUID

An ancient early morning ceremony yesterday saw the incoming Archbishop of Canterbury stepping into a circle of Pembrokeshire stones and into a controversy. [1] Rowan Williams donned a long white robe, stood inside the sacred circle in a mist shrouded field in Wales, and became a druid.

The Archbishop of Wales was one of 50 people to be inducted into the Gorsedd of Bards during the service at the National Eisteddfod, a celebration of Welsh culture this week at St David's, Pembrokeshire. The Gorsedd comprises Welsh-speaking poets, writers, musicians, artists and others who have made a distinguished contribution to Welsh language and culture. But the ceremony was seen by some as too close to paganism for comfort.

The Rev Angus Macleay, of the evangelical group Reform, said: "Even if to Welsh speakers it is recognized as purely a cultural thing, the appearance of it looks very pagan. You have folks calling themselves druids, dressed in white and going into a stone circle, reciting prayers which don't mention Jesus Christ."

Dr. Williams, who takes up his post in November, hit back at suggestions that the honor was linked to paganism. It was "one of the greatest honors which Wales can bestow on her citizens", he said. "Some people have reached the wrong conclusion about the ceremony. If people had actually looked at the words of the hymns and text used they would have seen a very Christian service."

CHURCH OF ENGLAND RECRUITING PAGANS

In the Fifties the British Parliament repealed an Ancient Witchcraft Act. After all, why have a law on the books that forbid something that really doesn't exist? Yet, witches in America, asked a few concerned Christians? No, witchcraft was just fantasy, fairy tales, movies by Walt Disney. He made rendered witchcraft acceptable by every American family in the Country. It became just harmless entertainment, fantasy for children.

The Church of England is trying to recruit pagans and spiritual believers as part of a drive to retain congregation numbers. As Crowds gather at dawn amongst the stones at Stonehenge in Wiltshire for the Summer Solstice, The church is training ministers to create "a pagan church where Christianity [is] very much in the centre" to attract spiritual believers. Ministers are being trained to create new forms of Anglicanism suitable for people of alternative beliefs as part of a Church of England drive to retain congregation numbers.[2]

Reverend Steve Hollinghurst, a researcher and adviser in new religious movements told the BBC: "I would be looking to formulate an exploration of the Christian faith that would be at home in their culture." He said it would be "almost to create a pagan church where Christianity was very much in the centre." The Church Mission Society, which is training ministers to "break new ground", hopes to see a number of spiritual people align themselves with Christianity. Andrea Campenale, of the Church Mission Society, said: "Nowadays people, they want to feel something; they want to have some sense of experience. "We live in reflective England where there's much more of a focus on ourselves. I think that is something we can bring in dialogue with the Christian society." [3]

The Church Mission Society's webpage advertising their pioneer training scheme states: "Wherever in the world the mission of Jesus goes on, the church needs pioneer mission leaders to break new ground." The news comes as spiritual seekers celebrate the summer solstice at Stonehenge today. Pagans and druids will gather to watch the sun rise following the longest day of the year, celebrating at the historic monument.

The new move could see famous druids such as druid leader Arthur Pendragon move to Anglicanism. More than 20,000 people gathered at Stonehenge today ahead of a £27 million transformation of the site. The huge gathering of people marked the event in a "positive, friendly atmosphere" as they waited for the sun to come up, but cloudy skies prevented them from basking in a beautiful sunrise.

Superintendent Matt Pullen from Wiltshire Police said: "Solstice 2013 has been a great success with approximately 21,000 people celebrating in the positive, friendly atmosphere as they waited for sunrise. "The weather held but unfortunately the cloud cover was too dense to see the sun come up." Loraine Knowles, Stonehenge director at English Heritage, said that although Stonehenge never failed to impress visitors, the setting of the stones had marred people's appreciation and enjoyment of the site.[4]

The Apostasy:

"Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders…" (II Thess. 2:9).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" (I Tim. 4:1).

GIVES UP FIGHT AGAINST GAY MARRIAGE

Church of England gives up fight against gay marriage. The Church of England has effectively accepted defeat over gay marriage signaling that it will no longer fight against a change in the law. [5]

In a short statement, the established Church said that the scale of the majorities in both the Commons and Lords made clear that it is the will of Parliament that same sex couples "should" be allowed to marry.[6]

The Bishop of Leicester, who leads the bishops in the House of Lords, said they would now concentrate their efforts on "improving" rather than halting an historic redefinition of marriage.

It represents a dramatic change of tack in the year since the Church insisted that gay marriage posed one of the biggest threats of disestablishment of the Church of England since the reign of Henry VIII.

And it comes despite a warning from the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev Justin Welby, that the redefinition of marriage would undermine the "cornerstone" of society.

The climb-down comes as the newest diocesan bishop in the Church of England said that support for gay marriage was "understandable" because of the way gay people had been treated in Britain in the past. [7]

"Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, 10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God. 11 And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. 12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any," (1 Cor.6:9-12).

WITCHCRAFT EUROPE

The rise of witchcraft is a worldwide movement. "The Sunday Mails" - London, article "The UK Witches to Get Grants, To Study Sorcery" reveals the following, "would-be witches are being offered Government grants to learn how to cast spells in Britain. The popularity of TV shows such as, "Sabrina the Teenage Witch," starring Melissa Joan Hart. These shows have led to hundreds of teenagers to become interested in spells and sorcery."[8]

The article goes on to explain that in England, only 2 percent of the people go to a Christian church. Now they can take up home study courses in the ancient art of Wicca, or 'white' witchcraft, run by the British School of Yoga, which qualify for the Government's individual learning accounts, where students get a discount toward course fees. But the subject list reads like the syllabus at Hogwarts School in the Harry Potter books including chapters concerning Spell Casting, Divination, Spirits, Gods and Goddesses, The Book of Shadows and Moon Magic. [9]

Witchcraft in Scotland is also thriving, with the Pagan Federation boasting around two thousand members north of the border. Glasgow is thought to have around 15 witches' covens, with around 20 in Edinburgh. And the forthcoming Harry Potter film is predicted to swell numbers even more. Followers believe in reincarnation and worship pre-Christian goddess figures. One of their most important principles is to wish no harm on others. Modern witches come from all walks of life, with an estimated 40,000 in Britain, including teachers, nurses and accountants. [10]

An estimated nine million women and girls met death by fire between the years of thirteen hundred and seventeen hundred for practicing witchcraft. In the eighteenth century, 19 suspected witches were killed in Salem, Massachusetts. Despite such extreme countermeasures, the occult rituals of witchcraft are widely practiced today around the world. [11]

WITCHCRAFT ENJOYS RESPECTABILITY

No longer threatened with death, witches enjoy a degree of respectability in America's lenient New Age society. Witchcraft is officially recognized as a religion by the IRS, which has granted tax exemption to the Church and School of Wicca ("seekers of wisdom"). At one Midwestern university, 500 students enrolled in a course in witchcraft. Because some witches are reluctant to announce their pagan affiliations, estimates of those involved in organized witchcraft in the United States today range from 100,000 to 600,000. Remember these figures were estimated in the seventies. [12]

BLACK AND WHITE WITCHCRAFT

In the world of witchcraft, white witchcraft is ruled by the same evil forces as does black witchcraft. Both movements are commissioned by Satan. Bewitching demons will draw its followers into the pit of hell. The history of witchcraft is sketchy, since ceremonies and beliefs are only orally communicated. Witchcraft rituals have been traced to worship of the Greek goddess Artemis, Diana of the Romans, the Egyptian moon goddess, and the fertility goddess of the Canaanite. Modern witches believe in two primary deities: Hecate, the Greek Goddess of ghost, and Pan (Lucifer), the god of the woods and shepherds. Witches insist their Pan, even though horned and cloven-hoofed, is not the same Lucifer condemned in Scriptures.

SINNED AGAINST GOD

> "For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment;" (II Pet. 2:4).

> "He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil," (I Jn. 3:8).

Chapter Two

THE RISE OF WITCHCRAFT

In the 1970's Sybil Leek the best known among the witches claimed that the witch population has exploded 50 percent in the past five years. She said, “There are more than four hundred covens across the country.” Timothy Green Beckly, publisher of the magazine “ESP” estimated that there are 5,000 witches in New York and perhaps twice as many in Los Angeles.[13]

In the seventies, Lewis Martello the author of the Weird Way of Witchcraft, assisted New York City sorcerers in drawing up a “manifesto” demanding that civil rights legislation be extended to protect witchcraft as a formal religion, urging descendants of witches executed in Salem nearly 300 years ago to sue Massachusetts for %100 million in “reparations.”[14]

An estimated nine million women and girls met death by fire between the years of thirteen hundred and seventeen hundred for practicing witchcraft. In the eighteenth century, nineteen suspected witches were killed in Salem, Massachusetts. Despite such extreme countermeasures, the occult rituals of witchcraft are widely practiced today around the world.

APOSTASY

"Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders…" (II Thess. 2: 9).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" (I Tim. 4:1).

SKEPTICAL – EXISTENCE OF DEMONS

Too often Christians and others are prone to be skeptical about the existence of spirits and demons. But they do exist and they are responsible to Satan for deceiving curious humans. Such is the case with the well-known clergyman, Bishop Pike, who was convinced that he was talking to his dead son! [16]

Baffling, incredible things happened in the apartment of Bishop James A. Pike after the suicide of his son, Jim Jr. Objects connected with young Jim moved around the apartment with no human help... a woman's bangs, which Jim disliked, were singed off while she slept... clock hands swung and stopped at the hour of Jim's death the thermostat moved up while the residents were away, to make the apartment as warm as Jim had liked it! Were these events the fantasy of Dr. Pike's mind? Were they a cruel hoax? Were they attempts by his deceased son to contact the father from the spirit world, as the renowned Episcopal bishop came to believe? They were none of these, but something more sinister and very real, according to Dr. Merrill F. Unger, biblical scholar and distinguished author. These experiences of the late James Pike were contacts with powerful spirits who are dedicated to misleading humanity about the way to life with God after death. They succeeded in deceiving Bishop Pike, Dr. Unger asserts, just as they are deceiving countless others in this psychic, occult Age of Aquarius. The Haunting of Bishop Pike is a chilling, sobering, and thoroughly scriptural expose of the satanic route to "the other side." [17]

Invoked and consulted:

"Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit that I may go to her, and enquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at Endor. And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, I pray thee, divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up, whom I shall name unto thee," (I Sam. 28:7-8).

CHRISTIAN SUBJECT TO OCCULT POWERS

Can a Christian be made subject to these occult powers? Some authorities believe they can! Dabbling in the occult and even reading books on the black arts can bring much distress. And one who wishes to learn should consult only books written by evangelical Bible scholars for their information.

"Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table and of the devils. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?" (I Cor. 10: 21, 22).

Christians should never seek service, direction or healing from an occultist or psychic. When any Christian pursues healing from these demons, they will be bewitched and guided by the devils. Many have discovered to their surprise and horror that Satan is the one who is willing to divulge supernatural affairs and give them momentary assistance. Often too late, they find that the real source of their advice and supernatural ability is demonic.

Confusion results and many end up going into insane asylums and never return! Occult powers come from Satan. When one uses occult power he or she opens a door for the devil to enter into their spirit. Once the door is opened, very few victims ever get it to shut again.

> Astrologers, numerologists, New Age Channelers, Palm readers, and other so-called seers are making millions of dollars playing the "game." They will plot your destiny or advise you on any matter for a handsome fee. Some will predict the outcome of the next presidential election or tell of the exact date the world will end!

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of Antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world, " (I Jn. 4:3).

Why are housewives, business executives and other Americans becoming so obsessed with the occult? Is it really "just for kicks" as some suggest or is there a terrible fear of the future and what is "beyond?" How does it all begin? What are the results?

"Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that he also reap," (Gal. 6:7).

HIDDEN KNOWLEDGE

The occult is defined as secretive-hidden knowledge or wisdom beyond human understanding. It could also be described as supernatural perception from sources other than God. "The secret things (hidden knowledge) belong to the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us," (Deut. 29:27).

A young girl says: "I was bored and unhappy. Then someone told me that I had telepathic powers. I became fascinated with ESP, witchcraft, and the likes. It wasn't long until I was hooked. I wanted power. But when I got it, I was terrified. I almost lost my mind before I found release through Jesus Christ."

If Jesus does not really occupy the highest place in our hearts, controlling all, something else does; millions are now serving other gods. "For thou shalt worship no other god: for the Lord, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God," (Exod. 34:14).

JESUS CHRIST OR SATAN

There are only two sources for supernatural power: Jesus or Satan. Seeking power beyond the Word of God and Jesus Christ finds one stepping into the world of the Occult.

The occult is very religious and many seeking it hope to find themselves, a reason for their being and to fill a void in their soul. Instead, they will enter a door that very few are returning back through. Once ensnared by the Devil, the person's mind, body and spirit is totally bound by the powers of darkness. The only way out is through the grace of God and the Blood of Jesus Christ!

THE OCCULT IS RELIGIOUS

The modernistic occult movement is a do-it-yourself religion. People are looking for a power of force other than the just-living God. They are seeking a supernatural experience that will require no change in their sin life. They want supernatural adventure without spiritual responsibility. Others participate in the occult through curiosity and knowing better. Even if a person does not know the demon power behind these activities and does not believe in them, they are still and sinful and have supernatural results over their lives. There is no such thing as innocent participation nor can you study occult materials to refute them.

Interest in the occult is idolatry and is a clear violation of the First Commandment (Exod. 20:3-5). The Bible warns that idolatry is "fellowship with devils and provokes the Lord to Jealousy." (I Cor. 10:20). Seeking help from the occult is the same as calling upon another god. It is insulting to God who made heaven and earth to consult with a demon inspired person for spiritual guidance and to participate is an abomination to God and will bring His swift judgment upon the person involved also their ancestors.

"Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them: for I thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquities of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation them that hate me," (Deut. 5: 7, 9).

Chapter Three

Dabbling in the Occult

CHRISTIANS AND THE OCCULT

Too often Christians and others are prone to be skeptical about the existence of spirits and demons; but they do exist and they are responsible to Satan for deceiving curious humans. Such is the case with the well-known clergyman who was convinced that he was talking to his dead son!

Can a Christian be made subject to these occult powers? Some authorities believe they can! Dabbling in the occult and even reading books on the black arts can bring much distress. Anyone who wishes to learn should consult only books written by evangelical Bible Scholars for their information.

"Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: Ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's Table, and of the devils. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?" (I Cor. 10: 21, 22.

Christians should never seek help, guidance or healing from an occultist or psychic. Yes, if any Christian seeks healing from these demons, they will be lured and lead by the devils. Many have discovered to their shock and terror that Satan is the one who is willing to disclose supernatural things and give temporary help. Often too late, they find that the real source of their guidance and supernatural power is demonic. They become confused, unable to pray, read their Bible and uninterested in Christian activity. They drop away from Church. Many fall away from the Faith and never return.

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils," (I Tim. 4:1).

Once a person knows God and turns away, Satan is always there to give them a false prophets or a false religious experience. Unfortunately, help is rare once one is entrapped. The workers are truly few and most churches are totally ignorant concerning the power they have in Jesus' name to set the captives free.

LAST DAY DEPARTURE FROM FAITH

The Scriptures prophesied of increased occult activity that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of demons. God's word states clearly and gives us graphic occult practices that God defines abominations. Christians and Jews will surely be without excuse when they stand before the Judgment seat of God because they have the Word of God.

"When thou are come into the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. There shall not be found among you anyone that maketh his daughter to pass through the fire or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord: and because of these abominations the Lord thy God doth drive them out from before thee," (Deut. 18:8-12).

DEVILS COPY GOD'S POWER

The occult according to the Bible was shown to Moses and Aaron in Pharaoh's courts. They witnessed that the devil's priest could copy their powers. (Exod. 7)! But God's power was greater. (Aaron's rod swallowed up the magicians' rods), but any spiritual power is greater than any human power and many people today need the greater power of Jesus to free them from the devil's powers.

Occult powers come from Satan. When one uses occult power, he or she opens a door for the devil to come into their lives. The Bible talks about demons; the King James Version calls them devils.

> "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty," (Rev. 16:14).

PASTOR DABBLING IN NEW AGE SPIRITUALISM

Once the Author ministered to a pastor; he was not born again and therefore was drawn by the Devil into a group that was operating in New Age spiritualism out of his church. They were channeling spirit guides to contact the dead. Eventually, this minister was bound by the powers of demons and began to lose his mind. He eventually lost his church and family. He found himself in a mental institution diagnosed as schizophrenic. He was put on heavy mind altering drugs and released.

When some brought him to me, he was doing odd jobs and totally bound by devils. This man had demons speaking out of his mouth saying such things as, "I am God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost and I hate your guts."

After prayer and commanding authority, using the name of Jesus, this minister was set free exactly like Mary Magdalene and the divination girl shown in Acts 16, The Name of Jesus has never lost its power to set the captives free, it's just that not many Christians are willing to do so. This minister is serving Jesus Christ today.

Free! To God be the glory.

AVENUES TO THE OCCULT

Demonology has become very attractive to Americans and the world. Everywhere you go, you can now witness occult activity.

It is blatant. Psychics and astrologers are using the 900 numbers. Occult themes are being worked into many television programs. Talk shows are featuring astrologers, divinators, clairvoyants, scientologists, Satanists, witches, psychics, crystal gazers, dream analysis, yoga meditator, reincarnations, hypnotists, fortune-tellers, spiritualists, parapsychologists, numerologists and New Agers.

"Many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh this is a deceiver and an Antichrist. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. If there come any unto you and bring not this doctrine receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds," (II Jn. 7).

Presidents, Senators, Congressmen and people in high places were influenced by Jeane Dixon, Shirley MaClaine, Ruth Montgomery, and other astrologers.

Occult movies and books, heavy metal rock music, fantasy role-playing games. These games have the attention of the young and the old. Books on magic, witchcraft, paganism, Satanism, gremoires cross the boundary lines of gender.

Objects used for spells, such as candles, incense, knives, pentagram, inverted cross, symbolic jewelry are being sold in great numbers.

"For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed ass the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works." (II Cor. 11:13-15).

Chapter Four

Don't Life up the Devil

REALITY OF DEMONS

There is no longer any doubt that witches are real and active in modern America. The author asked in her book Be Free that was written in the seventies "Do you believe that witches and wizards are real? At that time, Christians hardly understood that demons were real, let alone to think that there were people actually practicing witchcraft. "All one has to do is keep your eyes on Jesus," many said. Another thing, "We don't want to lift the Devil up or give him any credit," others would say. Meantime, right before our eyes on of the greatest occult explosions was taking place. Witchcraft was everywhere but somehow the Church people remained willingly blinded to it, as well as, its implications to Christianity.

"His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber," (Isa. 56:10).

WITCHCRAFT ~SUPERNATURAL

These Kundalini spirits and other spirits of eastern religions have sought to enter many revivals. In some cases the discernment of the leaders saved them. Jessie Penn-Lewis gives a report of this spirit in the Wales revival:

"The counterfeit of the Presence of God is mainly felt upon the body, and by the physical senses, in conscious 'fire,' 'thrills,' etc. The counterfeit of the 'Presence' in the atmosphere is felt by the senses of the body, as 'breath; 'wind,' etc., whilst the mind is passive or inactive. The person affected by this counterfeit will be moved almost automatically to actions and would not perform of his/her own will, and with all his faculties in operation. He may not even remember what he has done under the 'power' of this 'presence.'" [18]

"But another man had the same impulse, and fell down groaning and roaring, beating the floor with his hands and feet, and the demon entered into him as the angel of light, and got him to think that his conduct was of the Holy Ghost, and it became a regular habit in the meetings he attended. . ." [19]

"Nothing supernatural should be felt by the senses, but by the spirit. . .Counterfeits of today are generally wrought upon the soulish - or sense life - of believers who have not learnt to distinguish between soul and spirit." Jessie Penn Lewis, The Spiritual Warfare, pgs. 16-17

God's Word lifts the shroud of mystery from the phenomena of nature and their effects on man. God, who created the elements, uses them for deliverance, spiritual lessons and judgments. Satan also uses the elements for destruction. Look at the Scriptures concerning wind, lightning, and earthquakes.

Variable nature of:

"The wind goeth toward the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits," (Eccl. 1:6).

GOD CREATED THE WIND

The scriptures that speak of the "east wind": the Hebrew Word translated "wind" in scriptures is "ruwach," which is translated three times more often as "spirit" and "spirits." So when we translate the same Hebrew word as "spirits," a whole new understanding comes forth. There is a clear connection in the verses that use this word when preceded with the word "EAST."

The EAST SPIRITS causes the FIRE to burn up the apostate people of God and their fruit. The blinded pastors chant during the phony revivals that have recently replaced the Holy Spirit with Kundalini demons: "Fire! Fire! Fire"; or More! More! More; or Bam! These are the deceptive revival chants (mantras) to call up the invading eastern spirits or demons to come and manifest their power. What happened to the name of Jesus in the Christian Church?

"And Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, took each of them his censer, and put fire therein, and laid incense thereon, and offered strange fire before Jehovah, which he had not commanded them," (Lev.10:1).

And there came forth fire from before Jehovah, and devoured them, and they died before Jehovah. Also seen in these EAST SPIRITS scriptures is a cause for the destruction of America.

"For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false [gods]; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths (They are departing from the paths laid down by the scriptures), to walk in bypaths, in a way not cast up; 16 to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. 17 I will scatter them as with an east wind (spirits) before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. 18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet ,"(Jer.18:15- 18).

"Hath he smitten them as he smote those that smote them? or are they slain according to the slaughter of them that were slain by them? 8 In measure, when thou sendest them away, thou dost contend with them; he hath removed [them] with his rough blast in the day of the east wind (spirits 9 Therefore by this shall the iniquity of Jacob be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he maketh all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, [so that] the Asherim (Mariolatry) and the sun-images (false Jesus') shall rise no more.10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness, (Isa.27:7).

"For thou hast forsaken thy people the house of Jacob, because they are filled [with customs] from the east, and [are] soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of foreigners," (Isa. 2:6).

"Thy mother was like a vine, in thy blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. 11 And it had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches. But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind (spirits) dried up its fruit: its broken off and withered; the fire consumed them. 13 And now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. 14 And fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it hath devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation," (Eze.19:10 12).

Because of his rebellion against God, Jonah was smitten of the eastern spirits by Him and fainted, wanting to die. "And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind (spirits); and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live," (Jonah 4:8).

Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind (spirits): he continually multiplieth lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with Assyria (the beast kingdom), and oil (anointing) is carried into Egypt (the world). (Hos.12:1).

"For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name," (Amos 4:13).

RESTRAINS:

"To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure," (Job 28:25).

"He maketh the storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still," (Psa. 107:29).

Brings forth, out of his treasuries:

"He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings for the rain; he bringeth the wind out of his treasuries." (Psa. 135:7).

"When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures…" (Jer. 10:13).

"The Lord sent a strong east wind to part the Red Sea for Moses to defeat the gods of Pharoah," (Exod. 14:21); (Psa. 78:26*), an east wind to bring locusts into Egypt* (Exod. 10:11-13) and a west wind to drive them out, (Exod. 10: 19). He sent a wind, which brought quails from the sea, (Num. 11:31).

The wind and the sea obey Christ (Mk. 4:39); (Matt. 8:27). And the winds are held back by angels, (Rev. 7:1).

FEAR OF GOD

In the search for wisdom (Job 28), the question is asked "Where can wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding? The deep says, 'it is not in me,' And the seas says, 'It is not with me.' Abaddon and Death say, 'With our ears we have heard a report of it.' God understand its way [wisdom]; And He knows its place. For He looks to the ends of the earth, And sees everything under the heavens. When He imparted weight to the wind, and meted out the waters by measure, when He set a limit for the rain, and a course for the thunderbolt, Then He saw it and declared it; He established it and also searched it out," (Job 28:14; 22-27).

Job finally finds wisdom and the "place of understanding" and to man He said, "Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding…" (Job 22:28).

Job says God understands all about the wisdom of the elements of nature and that nothing happens by accident. He even sees a sparrow fall to the ground and knows the number of hairs on our heads (Matt. 10:29:30). God weights the wind, measures the waters, limits the rain and sets the course for the thunderbolt.

Raises:

"For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth up the waves thereof," (Psa. 107:25).

"And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.," (Jon. 4:8).

Changes:

"He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought in the south wind," (Psa. 78:26).

Assuages:

"And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm," (Matt. 8:26).

"And when they were come into the ship, the wind ceased," (Matt. 14:32).

Gathers, in His hand:

"Who hath ascended up into heaven, or descended? who hath gathered the wind in his fists? who hath bound the waters in a garment? who hath established all the ends of the earth? what is his name, and what is his son's name, if thou canst tell," (Prov. 30:4)?

Accomplishes the purposes of God:

"Fire, and hail; snow, and vapour; stormy wind fulfilling his word:" (Psa.148:8).

Theory of, above man's comprehension:
"The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit," (Jn. 3:8).

ROOTWORKERS

When drug agents kicked in the door of Minnie Pearl Thomas' trailer at 5 a.m. on March 12, 1999, in the tiny community of Allentown, they walked into an eerie scene.[20]

On the dresser in her dimly lit bedroom they found an altar and the altar burned several candles; and on the candles were fastened written notes, asking for the spirits' help with love, money and protection from the law.

The agents were not surprised. They knew that Thomas had been to a root doctor. It was root work.

Since the earliest days of settlers and slaves in this country, the practice, which is akin to voodoo, has flourished in the South. Even in the year 2000, when modern technology has superseded the old ways and Southern culture is becoming more homogenized, root work still thrives out of view from mainstream society.

The candles were not the only evidence of root work in Thomas' house. Peppers were scattered in space above the ceiling. Powder was sprinkled around the door. As they rousted the sleepy Thomas and arrested her for trafficking in crack cocaine, they learned about the powder.

"She said it was Law Stay Away powder," said Wilkinson County Sheriff Richard Chatman. But even that was not the end of the root work. From wiretaps and other investigative techniques, the agents knew that Thomas had buried a dead chicken on her property to protect her from harm.

"Minnie Pearl believed in it so much, she hid her dope outside where everyone could see it," Chatman said. "The people (nearby) believed in it, too. They wouldn't mess with her stuff."

The Ocmulgee Drug Task Force agents in Operation Four Corners had had cause to wonder whether Thomas' root work might have some hidden potency. "Some of the things we tried to do didn't work. The mojo was on us," said Jeff Duncan, a Milledgeville police officer attached to the task force.

Wilkinson County sheriff's investigator Heath Bache explained that mysterious glitches nearly derailed the investigation. Batteries died in two-way radios. Video cameras quit working. While doing surveillance one day on a drug deal across usually deserted train tracks, the agents got a surprise.

"A train came through right in the middle of a deal," Bache said. "Working that case, it had me wondering because everything that could go wrong did go wrong. She was a strange bird. But apparently her roots weren't strong enough to head off trouble."

Thomas, 44, also known as The Queen Pin, was a longtime drug dealer, responsible for moving four or five ounces of crack each week through the little town where Wilkinson, Twiggs, Bleckley and Laurens counties come together, said Wesley Nunn, a GBI agent who coordinates the task force. Thomas was convicted last month in U.S. District Court in Macon and sentenced to life in prison without parole.

Among the others sentenced in the case was a 35-year-old ex-preacher named Sam Rozier from Dublin. After pleading guilty in May to assisting Thomas in her drug trade, Rozier is now serving an 18-month sentence at the US Penitentiary in Atlanta.

Rozier had met Thomas in 1998 and moved in with her not long afterward. He told drug agents she must have put roots on him to make him join her drug scheme.

"If he'd had his way, the roots would have been his defense," Bache said. "He really, really believed that's what happened to him."

Rozier told the agents her spell entered him through the food she fed him. Full of remorse and shame, he told Bache: "I should-a left those biscuits alone."

The roots of root work.

Below are warfare prayers to fight against voodoo, root workers, and conjure men, root doctors, Haitian, African, Black Southern, and any other country Witchcraft.

Some people have been around or have been exposed to what is called roots, which is nothing more than African witchcraft brought to America during the slave trading years. The following scriptures and warfare prayers will help in Deliverance when someone is bound by these things.

"And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down out of the mount, the people gathered themselves together unto Aaron, and said unto him, Up, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we wot not what is become of him," (Exod. 32:1).

"And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and I will destroy the counsel thereof; and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards," (Isa. 19:3).

Grigri or gris-gris means to bewitch.

STRONGMAN PRAYER

In the Name of the Lord Jesus, I take authority over the strong man of the gris-gris or grigri and command them to come out now. Also I command the objects used or sorcery used to loose its control and power over this person, family or congregation to leave now in Jesus' Name.

"For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil," (Gen. 3:5).

I take authority over the familiar spirits of voodoo sent; bind their powers and command these violent spirits to go into a cage. We ask You Father to send your warring angels and take these demons to the feet of the Lord Jesus to judge them before their time.

We release Your power to us ward who believe to use Your power to attack all the power of the devils in Jesus' name.

Familiar spirits in voodoo is called Loa or myster-re.

PRAYER OF LOOSING THE POWER OF DEMONS

In the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I loose myself and my family from the ancestral or family line curse of the ruling Loa or spirit and I command it broken over us and I command all demons associated with it to come out now IN JESUS' NAME.

"Wherefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly," (Ezek. 13:20).

Chapter Five

The Destroyer

WHO IS THE "DESTROYER"?

Abaddon, is a supernatural being who personifies destruction, is currently in Sheol-Hades. He is the diabolical king of the demons centaurs that will be released during the fifth trumpet judgment of Revelation 9.

SPIRITS FROM THE SEA

Most Christians, who only see the world through eyes of the five senses, will miss the significance of the supernatural organization of the world in these times. The description concludes with the word that over these creatures is the angel of the abyss, called in Hebrew, Abaddon, and in the Greek, Apollyon, and the latter meaning "destroyer."

In the Septuagint the word carries this idea in (Job 26:2; 28:22); (Prov. 15:11, etc.); another form is the word translated "destruction" in (Matt. 7:13), and "destroy" in (II Thess. 2:8).9 The Spirit of God revealed to John in a vision that in the last days, demon spirits would be released upon the earth which would go forth to deceive the world.

"And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet," (Rev. 16:13-14).

This unholy diabolical trinity!

DEMONIC HIERARCHY

These are the spiritual demons' hierarchy of control of the world; these three spirits that John saw represent lying, deceiving, seducing demon spirits that are going to be released by Satan, the Beast, and the False Prophet: "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty," (Rev. 16:14). This Scripture reveals the true source of the Powers of Darkness that will control those demons.

About 95 C.E., while in exile on the isle of Patmos, the apostle John was given in vision a glimpse of the end of the age (Rev. 1:10), called the "Day of the Lord" in numerous Old and New Testament Scriptures. During this "day of the Lord's wrath" (Zeph. 1:18), God will punish humanity for their proud, sinful ways and their refusal to acknowledge Him as the true God. John recorded the visions he saw in the book of Revelation.

One of those punishments, chronicled in (Rev. 9:1-11), will be the release of the depraved demons and fallen angels currently locked in the Abyss. The Bible teaches that the Abyss is a spirit prison (Lk. 8:31); (I Pet. 3:19); (II Pet. 2:4); (Jude 6). In the Abyss, some of the fallen angels are now bound in "everlasting chains under darkness" waiting "for the judgment of the great day."

Since the "fear of the Lord is wisdom," then it stands to reason that those in the nether world of departed spirits do not have wisdom (they are represented by the sea, "deep," "Abaddon," and "Death").

The psalmist says whatever God pleases, He does; "In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps. He causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; who makes lightning for the rain; who brings forth the wind from his treasuries?" (Psa. 135: 5-7).

Early on, the author has experienced witchcraft working against her ministry. The first occultist that she ministered to called on the phone and while talking to her, the author's house caught on fire and burned to the ground. Another time while working in a heavy witchcraft area, preaching the gospel, they sent fleas to the house that she was staying in and she and her assistant, Max had to put their feet up on the coffee table. Max asked the worman, "Why don't you take your dog to the Vet and have these fleas killed. The woman said, "I have never had any problems with fleas until Pat Holliday came here."

Immediately, I could see it was witches working their powers. I bound the fleas and commanded them die. The fleas disappeared from the house.

At the same time my home in Jacksonville attacked by fleas and we did not even have a pet. Some would question that it was witchcraft power at work, however, when the author took authority over witchcraft powers, the fleas disappeared!

Mrs. Penn-Lewis wrote, ". . . when the existence of evil spirits is recognized by the heathen, it is generally looked upon the missionary as "superstition' and ignorance; whereas the ignorance is often on the part of the missionary, who is blinded by the prince of the power of the air to the revelation given in the Scriptures, concerning the satanic powers." [21]

WHAT IS THE OCCULT?

There are two sources for a person to be able to achieve supernatural power, Jesus or Satan. Seeking power beyond the Word of God and beyond the authority of Jesus Christ finds a person stepping into the world of the Occult. The occult is very religious. Many are seeking hoping to find for themselves a reason for their life. They want to fill a void in their soul. Instead, they will move into a door that very few people come back. Once ensnared by the Devil, the person's mind, body and spirit is totally bound by the powers of darkness. The only way out is through the grace of God and the Blood of Jesus.6

God tells us in (II Pet. 1:19), "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts." We are living in dark days: morally, spiritually, nationally, internationally, politically and economically. A prophecy gives light on the pathway that is set before us. The prophetic word is the only ray of light by which we can know the future. The coming outlook is pitch-dark but for Believers. It is bright.

SATAN AND JESUS

In the Bible, from Genesis to Revelation, we see the power of Satan and the results of his influence over people and their lives. Adam and Eve were driven from the Garden and all of its blessings by following his influence. This alone should tell all men that he is a power to be reckoned with. Jesus, while on earth, was confronted by the power in a physical as well as in a spiritual sense. Often he rebuked the Devil in people who were afflicted with deafness and dumbness, and in those who were violent and acted abnormally (Mk. Chapter 5), as well as in cases of what appeared to be epilepsy, out, devils; the seventy came rejoicing because the devils were subject unto them. In the final statement in (Mk. chapter 16), the casting out of devils shown as part of the preaching of the Gospel, and I find no place in Scripture where this was ever rescinded. There are many occurrences in life that even the medical world cannot explain. Only a knowledge as shown in the book of Job can explain these strange occurrences. We find a full onslaught of Satan's work and ability. His destruction of Job's wealth, family and total physical health reduced the man to a fragment of his original self.

Satan is man's enemy, as proven by the book of Job, and is a destroyer of all good things, but, every good and perfect gift comes down from the Father of Lights with whom there is no variableness. It should be easy to identify the source of what is happening by the results that are before us. God is a good and the giver of all good things; Satan is just the reverse of God. The influence of each is easily discerned by the end results.7

Author Corrie Ten-Boom says, “Someone asked my opinion of the missionaries in a certain country. My answer was, ‘They have given all, but they have not taken all. They have given homeland, time, money, luxury, and more, but they have not taken all the riches abundant that the Word gives us from the boundless resources of God’s promises.’ Many do not know about two precious weapons: The power of the cross and the blood of Jesus and every legal right of use of the wonderful name of Jesus.”8

Christians must never seek help, guidance or healing from an occultist. Yes, if any Christian seeks these powers, they will be lured and then bound by the powers of darkness. Many have discovered from their shock and terror that it is Satan that is behind these sources of powers. Sadly, they find out that the real contact of their guidance and supernatural sway is demonic. These victims become confused and unable to pray. They drop away from church and many fall away from the faith and never return. Deliverance ministries are hard to find in America.

The scripture shows God's attitude toward the occult and the dangers which face human beings who traffic in any of these evil arts and sciences. When entrapped by them and judgment comes there is none to help except God.

“But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments. 10 For thou hast trusted in thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me. 11 Therefore shall evil come upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not know. 12 Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail. 13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. 14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. 15 Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander everyone to his quarter; none shall save thee," (Isa. 47:9-15).

Many, Many people who are under a curse or a spell have gone to a practitioner of the occult sciences and instead of being helped they got worse. A witch doctor cannot cast out a demon. They call it exorcism, but what they say is, "My dear brother, my little brother, do this or that," but they can never cast them out. All they can do is transfer them.

For example, if someone with a heart condition due to witchcraft goes to one of these magicians or witch doctors for healing, all that practitioner will do is moving the demons to another organ in the body. When the demon moves from the heart into the liver, then the heart will begin to function normally. The person will believe he is healed but what has actually happened is transference of spirits to another organ in the body. Next the liver or kidney will begin to malfunction.

Another thing that they can do is to send a stronger demon into the body which subdues the weaker one. However, the bigger spirit will then create madness, epilepsy or something else worse than what was originally wrong. Still another technique used by the occultist is to transfer the demon from the parent to the child. When the evil spirit leaves the father or mother and enters their child it is still in the family and the victim will begin to have the same symptoms that the father or mother had before the transfer.

In other words, occult practitioners cannot cast demons out, nor can they send the demons away permanently; all they can do is to transfer them to another organ or another member of the family. The Bible clearly states that you can go to your occult practitioners but none of them will be able to help you when judgment comes because you have dealt in these things. The only thing drugs can do is quiet down nerves or symptoms but when a condition is caused by an evil spirit no amount of drugs will heal you.

DEMONS OF INFIRMITY

Demons will not come out with pill, X-ray treatments or surgery. Spirits of infirmity cause incurable diseases such as heart conditions, diabetes, epilepsy, cancer, etc., which doctors can only control, but cannot cure. These spirits must be cast out by the power of Jesus for any lasting relief. Is it any wonder the devil is so upset with the deliverance ministry or why he combats it so viciously? Demons get a great deal of mileage from the suffering, inconvenience, expense, tension, misery and grief induced by desperate resorts to medication, surgery, etc., in a vain effort to effect cures.

Christians today must totally commit their lives to Jesus Christ. They cannot swim in both pools. The Word says, (I Cor. 10:21), "Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's Table, and of the table of devils." Once a person turns away from God, Satan is there ready to give them a counterfeit faith, false prophet, psychic, or false religious experience. Unfortunately, help is rare once the victim is engaged. The Scripture prophesied that occult activity would be increased in the latter days.

Chapter Six

Sorcery

PERFORMERS OF MAGIC

Recently, a young man was saved and delivered from the powers of the Devil and Hell. He was deliverance from practicing magic! The young man immediately when to a SO-CALLED CHRISTIAN CHURCH; the spiritually ignorant pastor immediately polluted him by offering him as the magician of his church!

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites; for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves…" (Matt 23:15).

> Magician (paranormal), a person who performs feats using supernatural means
> Magician (fantasy), a character in a fictional fantasy context who performs supernatural feats
> Illusionist, an entertainer who creates illusions of impossible or supernatural feats (magic tricks)
> Escape artist, a type of magician who specializes in escapes from restraints
> A practitioner of ceremonial magic, a system of occult techniques for spiritual development.
> A mentalist is a performing art in which its practitioners, known as mentalists, appear to demonstrate highly developed mental or intuitive abilities. Performances may include telepathy, clairvoyance, divination, precognition, psycho kinesis, medium-ship, mind control, memory feats and rapid mathematics. Hypnosis may also be used as a stage tool. Mentalists are sometimes referred to as Psychic entertainers.1

This is interesting! The first deck of cards was invented by King Charles of France in the year 1392. King Charles was an insane man, by the way.

MENTALIST – MAGICIAN- WITCHCRAFT

Many magicians, however, mix mentally themed performance with magic illusions. For example, a mind-reading stunt might also involve the magical transposition of two different objects. Such hybrid feats of magic are often called mental magic by performers. Magicians who routinely mix magic with mental magic include David Copperfield, David Blaine and Criss Angel.

PARENTS SACRIFICING CHILDREN

"And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD," (Lev. 18:21).

It is NOT a mere coincidence that the world has become infatuated with the occult, Satanism, and Witchcraft. It is aimed at preparing people to worship the beast."… with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone," (Rev. 19:20).

DANGERS OF WITCHCRAFT

"What's wrong with joining the Vampire Club or attending a séance?" your child may ask. For some, exposure to the occult via fantasy games, the media, or music may lead to greater involvement in a dangerous world. Children are now seeing spooky spiritual things in their rooms. After feeding them with demonic imaginations, they call them unstable. The answer: Send them to doctors and fill them with drugs.

There are millions of children in this position in America today. Millions of children are in darkness. Recommended by their Christian leaders, millions are being entertained by puppets, Christian heavy rock bands, Hip Hop, cartoons, and now, magical fantasy, the occult filled movies. We live in the day and age where there has been such a growing proliferation of ways into the world of mysticism, by video games, DVDs and the Internet, leading children into what has become the accepted world of wizardry and imagination. Such playing with fire is a stepping stone into the mystical practices that will surely damn millions of young souls into raging fires of hell!

THE DEVIL WANTS OUR CHILDREN

My friend, witchcraft is an evil. The Bible is God's Word and expressly FORBIDS anyone from dabbling in witchcraft. See (II Chron. 33:1, 2 and 6-read); The Bible teaches that God became angry with King Manasseh concerning witchcraft.

The primary danger of the occult is that it is a path away from God brings one into contact with the demonic realm. Demonic forces seek to deceive and destroy individuals. Cult experts and psychologists have documented the connection between occult involvement and psychological and emotional disorders. Participants spend numerous hours studying, practicing, and playing games that involve conjuring demons, sacrificing creatures in cruel rituals, controlling sinister forces, and casting spells to disable and kill their enemies. This can affect a person's spiritual, mental, and emotional state.

CHRISTIAN SHAPE-SHIFTING

Shape shifting (metamorphosis change the shape of a body to that of an animal) is becoming very popular. I have seen it happen in Christian movies, as well as, secular ones. For instance, in a movie made by the Christian musician, Carman, "Carman 3:16," the ending of this violent DVD, he metamorphosed into a different person. In this very bizarre witchcraft-oriented scene, Carman appeared in "enemies' television building," and instantly changed himself the evil man's image. This witchcraft power enabled him to solve the problem of evil.

Young people cheered and not one minister noticed that they had just witnessed what is known in witchcraft as shape shifting! These Christian children were introduced to powerful witchcraft practice introducing them to an evil spirit that leads them away from Jesus shipwrecking their faith! A blinded Christian "star" with blinded Christian leaders cheering with the crowd will cause children to fall into the ditch, (Matt. 15:14)."

Shape-shifting is common in cartoons in television themes. Shape-shifting is one simply able to change into other beings, such as animals ~ human beings. In the middle Ages, many believed that shamans could assume the shape of animals . . . One such story concerned "A woman imprisoned on suspicion of witchcraft 'claimed to be able to transform herself into a wolf. The magistrate promised not to have her executed, [if] she would turn into a wolf before him. The witch rubbed her head, neck and armpits with an ointment and fell into a deep sleep for three hours. She could not be roused by 'noises or blows.' When she awakened, that she had turned into a wolf, gone a few miles away and killed a sheep and a cow, the magistrate investigated. He discovered that a sheep and cow in the location described by the witch had indeed been killed. It was evident that the Devil 'did that mischief' and that the witch had merely experienced the dreams and delusions created by Satan."

"In shamanism, shamans metamorphose (shape-shift) into their guardian animal spirits or power animals (animals from whom they derive their chief power). Shape shifting is done in an altered state of consciousness and soul traveling.

SHAPE-SHIFTING HAPPENS TODAY

Bishop Samuel Kanco's Testimony, a former witch doctor, describes his experience of transmigration in his book, The Witch doctor and the Man finds Christ. [22]

The Bishop said, "Satan gave me the power to change into five different animals: a snake, crocodile, butterfly, lizard, and crab. This ability means that I was considered to be a middle-class wizard. A demon told me that he had the power to affect transmutations with humans. I asked, "What does that mean? I can change humans to the forms of animals," the demon replied. All sudden, he changed me into a snake. I got so excited that I wanted to go and play in this new body form. I was able to go through walls and these new body forms were moved by my mind power. I became more and more intrigued with the powers of the demonic world. [23]

Webster's Dictionary definition of a werewolf: "... a person transformed into a wolf or capable of assuming the form of a wolf." [24]

This transmutation is not unique in Satanism, but it is done only at the highest levels of witchcraft. Severe demonic possession is also required. This spiritual process is also called "shape-shifting." Shape-shifting is done with the power of demons and they can assume forms other than just a wolf!

If you have been paying attention, you have noticed several TV shows and movies that have depicted shape-shifting such as, "Roswell" and "Werewolf" with Jack Nicholson, "American Werewolf" in London, "American Werewolf in Paris," "Buffy, the Vampire Slayer," "Charmed" "Teen Wolf" with Michael J. Fox and The Harry Potter books and movies. These same supernatural powers are shown in these films.

Satanic accessorial devils are working intently in America through abortion, kidnapping and killing children. Human sacrifices are also occurring in Satanic and Witchcraft covens across the nation. "And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the LORD," (Lev. 18:21).

Really what is the difference in an African witch doctor leading his son into the powers of demonology and an educated mother or father leading their children into demonology through occult, witchcraft oriented such as Harry Potter, C.S. Lewis' the Chronicles of Narnia pagan books and Disney World and Time Warner occult trash? Witchcraft is the "in" thing in American culture.

Communist revolutionary Lenin who said: "Give me one generation of youth, and I will transform the entire world."

FANTASY WORLD

Fantasy is the world to which a Satanist seeks constant access. A world filled with inflaming adventures with magic awaiting them at every step. A Satanist will consider his fantasy world to be more exciting, more fulfilling, than his real world.

Frequently, occultists deeply desire to spend much of their time in a strange phantasm world. They can travel there through what they call soul travel (astral travel) in which they claim that their soul actually leaves their body to go into another dimension. They also contend that a demonic spirit must remain in the body to keep it from dying, as it will when it has no spirit.

The Bible speaks to this fact most clearly in (Gen. 25:8). God describes Abraham's death in this manner when Abraham's spirit was released, and he died. (Gen. 25:8), "Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of years; and was gathered to his people."

As a matter of fact, any person that practices astral travel is positively demonically possessed. This means that a demonic spirit stays in the body to keep the human body alive while this diabolic practice happens. It is the demon's spirit(s) possessing this witchcraft maneuver.

The entry into this fantasy environment can also be enhanced through drugs, especially the hallucinogenic type. These drugs are so effective in transporting a person through the spirit world that they are highly sought after by occultists. However, these hallucinogenic drugs also weaken the mind so much that the Illuminati forbids any of its members from taking them.14

Another avenue that occultists can enter into the illusionary world is through psychotherapy hypnotic visualization. Children are being instructed through visualization techniques through public schools. This is being practiced starting from the first grade by teachers. These witchcraft practices are also being implemented during recess under the guise of relaxation techniques.

Do not be deceived. This spiritual work is the supernatural world of the demonic. While a person is drawn into this dimension, the spirit of the person can be thoroughly deceived by the demonic host. While under this hypnotic control the child is given a counterfeit experiences that makes' them feel phenomenal. The entire experience does not happen in the natural but it occurs in the supernatural [demonic] realm.

Regrettably, witchcraft comes about in the supernatural dimension and works metaphysically against its victim through the support of demons. A witch or wizard has to be very careful against whom they throw a curse, and under what circumstances. If the magic power of the intended victim is stronger than the originator of the curse believed it to be, or if the curse is not correctly cast, the curse will rebound back upon the person who threw it in the first place. 15

Chapter Seven

Bewitching Children

"…. Thou shalt know that I am Lord: For they shall not be ashamed that wait on Me. Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith Yahweh, even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children," (Isa. 49:23b-25).

GUARDING THE CHILDREN

Husbands are often the most effective are commanding spirits to leave their wives with the support of others. This is true with his children also. (Sit together as families during deliverance. A husband has special power and authority over his family that even I don't have as a deliverance minister.)

Children must be disciplined by their parents (Prov. 13:23) the prayerful and judicious application of the rod can act as a deterrent to childish and foolish behavior (Prov. 22:15). Parents many times prepare the way for deep-seated spirits of Fear, Rejection and Conditional Love to enter. God will turn the heart of the father (not the mothers) to the children (Mal. 4:6); (Col. 3:21). A child left to rear himself is a disaster going somewhere to happen, (Prov. 29:15);

Indwelling demons can be present because of inheritance, curses, habitual sin, or legal holds or grounds from other sources. The punishment should equal the offence. We provoke our children's wrath when we punish more severely than the offence justifies. The offence should be explained. Other ways to behave should be explored. Ten show love; give a hug, approval, complement on good behavior or improvement of conduct. Scripture warns us to have nothing to do with fairy tales, fables, enchantments, charmers or such like; (Tit. 1:14) (fables turn one from truth) and (II Pet. 1:16) (declares importance of truth).

Children at a susceptible age may well be opened up to spirits of fear, error, perversity, lying and fantasy. God as fantasy causes most of our young people's problems; ultimate truth and there is no fantasy in God or in His Word. (Drugs, drink, sex, etc.) The truth is important to God and many ignorantly cause children to believe a lie in the guise of a friendly, jolly, phony, called Santa Claus. This lie caused our daughter to doubt that her parents would tell her the truth. All lies come from the Devil (Jn. 8:44). (God taught us to tell her the truth in love).

Everyone, adult as well as child, loves to copy, to emulate, their heroes. This fact is why you see so many men wearing a sport shirt of their favorite team. This fact is why so many super hero toys and costumes are sold every year.

GOING MAD

The world has gone mad with J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter series. Although these books are full activity of demons, death, mysteries, strange paranormal powers, casting spells, death by voodoo activities. The devil and his evil demons, along with the witchcraft ideas out of his evil characters are quickly becoming the highest ideal of intellectualism. [25]

Children in more than 30 countries are just wild about Harry, bespectacled hero who discovers on his 11th birthday that he is a wizard. For the few who don't know: Harry Potter inherited his magical powers from his parents, who have been slaughtered by the evil wizard Lord Voldermort.

Harry, who bears a lightening scar on his forehead (also Voldemort's handiwork); (This is the very same mark found on Hitler's SS soldiers). Harry has a series of white-knuckle adventures at Hogwarts School of Witchcraft and Wizardry. This school is housed in a remote Scottish castle where mail is delivered to pupils by their owls.[26]

Harry Potter has sold over 41 million copies of the book! On July 8, the day Goblet of Fire was released in the United Kingdom, the book sold 372,775 copies in hard back. In America where Rowling has held the top four slots on the New York Times best-seller list of children's books since the list was created in July, a nation of bleary eyed children stayed up for the midnight launch to snap up 3.8 million volumes.[27]

What is so amazing about these Potter books is the excitement that the world has for this king of entertainment. The unconverted human heart is a dark place where anything of the same level of darkness is relished and loved. Adults, as well as children find great obsession with scary ideas that speak of the forbidden realm. The devil and his demons, along with the witchcraft ideas out of his evil characters, are quickly becoming the highest ideal of intellectualism. It is Satan's day to say the least.[28]

The largest single group within the Church today is that of “the ignorant brethren!" And he used as his text (I Thess. 4:13), where the Apostle Paul wrote, "But I would not have you to be ignorant brethren!" The Bible warns, “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron,” (I Tim. 4:1).

HARRY POTTER —FANTASY OR FACT

It all began on a train ride in which the whole idea just dropped in Rowling’s head. The very manner that the series came to her would suggest “spirit influence,” she stated, “Harry, as a character came fully formed as did the idea for his sidekicks, the character of Ron and Hermione, who is the brain of threesome. She goes on to say, “It started with Harry, then all these characters and situations came flooding into my head.”[29]

Her description of herself certainly suggests a person open to “inspirations” from mystical influences. She said, “I have a very visual imagination. I see it, and then I try to describe what is in my mind’s eye.” Such language is familiar in the occult world. 22 “Magic has a universal appeal,” Rowling’s begins. I don’t believe in magic in the way that I describe it in my books. But I’d love it to be real,” she continues . . .[30] you have to wonder where she got her information, since it comes out witchcraft books.

Witchcraft is being sold to parents and children in a charming visionary package making every child to read these books. However, once they are ensnared by the spirits of witchcraft, the children want to imitate Harry Potter and enter the school of witchcraft. Still, once caught in this dark web of witchcraft, there is hardly a way of escape. The only way of breakout from this entrapment of evil, is through the blood of Jesus Christ. Even so, very few Christians know how to deliver the captives out of the power of the devil.

The Apostle Paul challenges the Church to remain estranged from the world. (Rom. 12:2) “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and the perfect will of God.” The word “world” here means the world system that is now under the control of Satan. “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not . . .” (II Cor. 4:4).

The Bible teaches that a Christian is to be distinct and separate from the course of this world.

Derek Prince reveals this truth when he writes: “Today, by divine providence, the veils of convention and carnality are once again being drawn aside, and the church of Jesus Christ is being confronted by the same manifest opposition of demon power that confronted the church of the New Testament. In these circumstances, the church must once again explore the resources of authority and power made available to her through the truth of the Scripture, the anointing of the Holy Spirit, and the Name and the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.” [31]

So what has Rowling got that other writers haven’t? “Potions, intrigue, magic, and what happen next,” says Anne Williams. “Exactly the same formula Shakespeare used.” Rowling may write about wizards, ghosts, elves and the hippogriff (half horse, half eagle), but her books are driven with all the suspense and twists of detective novels. [32]

In the Harry Potter books, attending the Hogwarts School, successful students are awarded a Diploma in Wicca/Witchcraft of the New Age Foundation. The course brochure says: "Many myths still exist about witches and those who practice witchcraft. However, it's a gentle practice, full of love and joy, peace and balance. Many people are turning again to the old religion and beliefs in witchcraft as a way of giving their lives new meaning." [33]

Title: Harry Potter — Hogwarts’ School of Witchcraft and Wizardry’s required Book List for Start of Second Year.

Subtitle: Public Schools are now including Harry Potter books on their required reading lists; therefore, we find it highly interesting the types of books students at Hogwarts are required to read. What kids love they copy, so the type of subjects Harry Potter is learning is what your child will be interested in learning.

Harry Potter Chamber of Secrets — Sophomore of Witchcraft and Wizardry — Required Reading List.

List of Books a Second-Year Student Will Require — the Standard Book of Spells, Grade 229

Break with A Banshee - Dictionary Definition of a Banshee: "A female spirit in Gaelic folklore [Witchcraft] believed to presage a death in the family by wailing outside the house."

Gadding with Ghouls - Dictionary Definition of a Ghoul; "One who delights in what is revolting, macabre, or loathsome; A grave robber; a malevolent [evil] ghost; an evil spirit or demon who is supposed to plunder graves and feed on corpses."

The word, "gadding," once defined, casts even more revealing light upon the truth of Harry Potter. The dictionary definition is "to roam about aimlessly or restlessly; to go about in search of pleasure or entertainment." Therefore, Harry Potter and his friends were in Hogwarts School to learn how to "roam about restlessly in search of pleasure or entertainment in the company of demons who plunder graves and feast on the corpses This is the overall theme of the entire Harry Potter books, and Christians are supposed to allow their children to read this stuff straight out of the Pit of Hell?

Holidays With Hags - Dictionary definition: "An old woman who is repulsive in appearance of manner; a crone; a witch, a sorceress; a female demon. "God forbids His people from contacting a witch, a sorceress, and a demon, under the penalty of the Death Penalty!

Travels with Trolls - Dictionary definition: "A supernatural creature … variously portrayed as a friendly, mischievous dwarf or a dangerous giant that lives in caves, in the hills, or under bridges."

Voyages With Vampires - Dictionary definition of a vampire: "... a reanimated corpse that rises from the grave at night to bite and then suck the blood of sleeping persons." Therefore, Harry Potter and his schoolmates at Hogwarts are attending a class that will teach them to take voyages with such satanic creatures as these! Do you really want your child to develop an interest in subjects such as these?

Wanderings With Werewolves -- Dictionary definition of a werewolf: "... a person transformed into a wolf or capable of assuming the form of a wolf." This transformation is not unique in Satanism, but it is done only at the highest levels of Witchcraft. Severe demonic possession is also required. [34]

This procedure is also called "Shape-shifting," and is done with demons that assume other forms than just a wolf. If you have been paying attention, you have noticed several TV shows and movies that have depicted Shape-shifting: Roswell TV show, Werewolf with Jack Nicholson, American Werewolf in London, American Werewolf in Paris, Buffy the Vampire Slayer, Teen Wolf with Michael J. Fox.

We are definitely being conditioned to accept beings that shape-shift, and Christians had better get prepared. I have been told by a former Illuminist that the people who will be manning the prisons and execution chambers of dissidents during the Tribulation Period will be shape-shifters that change from human to Reptilian. Let us only pray the Rapture occurs first.

Year With the Yeti -- Dictionary definition: "Abominable Snowman".[35]

When the fourth Harry Potter book, Goblet of Fire, was about to be introduced at retail, people all over the world flocked to buy it; many bookstores organized Harry Potter parties, and encouraged youngsters of all ages to come to the party dressed in a costume described in one of the Potter books. Youngsters by the many thousands flocked to these parties, dressed in witch's costumes. However, the most striking pictures I saw were of the youngsters who were standing in line to have the lightning bolt tattooed in the middle of their foreheads. These kids couldn't wait to have a Mark tattooed to their forehead in exactly the place the False Prophet is going to demand it be placed in a very short time. We fear that CONDITIONING to take the MARK OF THE BEAST is THE most important goal of the Harry Potter books.

Parents and Teachers Who Will Not Make a Stand

The bottom line decision is yours about your children and Harry Potter. Are you going to follow Scripture to limit your child to taking into his or her mind that which is wholesome, pure, lovely, and of good report? Or, are you going to allow your child to go to Hogwarts's School of Witchcraft and Wizardry with Harry Potter and his friends, to discover -- among other things -- how to wander aimlessly with ghouls, plundering gravestones and eating the flesh of corpses?

Now, when your child comes home from public school with an assignment to read a Harry Potter book so they can write a book report, you will know more what to say and how to argue against your child carrying through this assignment.

Since the conditioning to accept the satanic values and attitudes the Antichrist has reached a new level with the Harry Potter books, we should recognize that this entire Harry Potter phenomenon is helping prepare the entire world to accept his values.[36]

Books such as the Harry Potter series are more, much more than reading material, entertainment and making money. The cultures of the world must be merged to accomplish the "One World Order." Louise Derman-Sparks says, "Good stories capture the heart, mind, and imagination are an important way to transmit values." 36 Anyone that tells you that it is okay to read sorcery or witchcraft material just for fun is playing with your soul and mind.

PERSONAL EXPERIENCE

Twenty eight years ago before finding Jesus, the author turned to reading occult books. In a short time, the demons grabbed the mind. I became ensnared by the webs of the occult through reading books. My mind became darker and darker, more confused while my actions became insane. My husband stopped traveling to be with me and to watch over the children. Fortunately for me, Jesus rescued me from these destructive powers of darkness. Believe me, reading witchcraft materials just for can capture your mind, body and soul.

FANTASY AND WITCHCRAFT

Mel Tari wrote in his book, Like a Mighty Wind, in the early seventies: "I realize that America's greatest problem is that the Church doesn't realize that demonic power is real. Satan has blinded your eyes that you cannot even see the problem."[37]

Teri, who was speaking in the seventies, goes on to say, "America is full of white witchcraft but if the church fails to awaken to the reality of the powers of darkness, America will soon see black witchcraft everywhere." Teri's prophecy has come true. It's everywhere!

The Potter books are actually manuals that teach young children nuances of witchcraft. Children eager to learn are going on the internet and looking up the chapter titles of the Potter books to learn more about witchcraft. The proponents say that these novels are not harmful! They ignore the blatant, arduous and bodacious advanced witchcraft that literally feels these novels are not harmful, because it is just a story. Potter books are not reality, they are fantasy. As fantasy, they pose no threat to anyone who reads them, even to the most enthusiastic. Because the stories are just fantasy, they will not cause anyone to actually go into witchcraft.

In Africa, people put their children on the streets because they cannot afford to feed them. Witches and wizards pick these unfortunate, throw-away children and take them home. They feed them human flesh and snatch their souls for Satan. These children become wizards and witches and believe me; they become just as powerful as the adult witches. They practice casting spells, destroying life through ritualism's, and are even sent into churches by demons to destroy them! In America, ignorant parents take their children to buy books at midnight which will invade their spirit to turn them toward witchcraft! You cannot play games with the devils and get away with it.

Further, the occultist believes the Fantasy dimension is more exciting, and more adventurous, than the real world. This fact is depicted best in the extremely occultism [and Satanic] movie, "The Wizard of Oz." When Dorothy is in her real world in Kansas, the picture is a bland black and white; however, when she steps into the next dimension, her Fantasy World, the picture is a vivid color, and everything Dorothy does is far more exciting than in her real world. While Dorothy, who is a white magic witch, has to battle with the black magic witches whom she encounters, she is shown to be triumphant. You see, this entire television and movie concept of "good always triumphing over evil" is nothing more, nor less, than the Satanic concept of white magic witchcraft triumphing over black magic witchcraft. [38]

PORTAL TO A METAPHYSICAL DOOR

J.K. Rowling makes use of a very simple device to describe the portal (metaphysical door) into which a Witch and Wizard can leave the Muggles world of reality, and enter the fantasy world of Witchcraft. Let us turn to the second book of the series, Chamber of Secrets to see how entering the portal into the fantasy world is accomplished.[39]

"Harry had caught the Hogwarts Express the previous year. The tricky part was getting onto platform nine and three quarters, which wasn't visible to the Muggle eye. What you had to do was walk through the solid barrier dividing platforms nine and ten. It didn't hurt, but it had to be done carefully so that none of the Muggles noticed you vanishing."

" Percy first,' said Mr. Weasley, looking around at the clock overhead, which showed they had only five minutes to disappear casually through the barrier. Percy strode briskly forward and vanished. Mr. Weasley went next; Fred and George followed."

Just like that, these witches and wizards of the Weasley family, plus Harry Potter, vanished into the portal separating the real world from the fantasy world. They literally traveled astrally, and spent the next nine months in the fantasy world, in which Hogwarts School of Wizardry and Witchcraft was located. The only "poetic license" Rowling takes in this scenario is that she does not leave the physical body behind while the spirit is moving and living in the fantasy world; she takes the entire body and soul into the fantasy world. But, this is the only differentiation she makes. Every other detail is perfectly in sync with the occult practice of entering into the fantasy dimension. Therefore, more than 90% of any Harry Potter book occurs in the realm of the supernatural.

"But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils." (IICor. 6:14), "Are ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness," (Eph. 5:11)? "And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them." Deceivers are to be avoided, (Rom. 17-18). Believers are to be wise but harmless, (Rom. 19-20).

May God have mercy over the spiritually blinded churches and news media that are promoted this poisonous material to children. They will walk into a place of religious blindness from which most will never return.

Chapter Eight

The Devil's Pentecost

SPREAD OF HERESY

The Apostle Paul warns of the spread of heresy from the Christian faith. The word Apostasy means: falling away, a withdrawal, a defection from the faith. Paul goes on to say in the scriptures, "Let no man deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there comes a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition," (I Thess. 2:3). The Bible shows in (II Thess. 2) that in the last days, that a spirit of "strong delusion" is to overtake the whole world in the last days.

Martin Luther had many personal encounters with Satan, whose existence was as certain to him as his own. More than once Luther threw the inkstand at Satan. Luther's own doubts, carnal temptations, evil thoughts, and external enemies convinced him that he was a marked man, singled out by Satan for destruction.[40]

Luther reported that Satan assumed visible form and appeared to him as a dog, a hog, a goat, or as a flame or star; and sometimes as a man with horns. Luther said, "He is noisy and boisterous and he is at the bottom of all witchcraft and ghost trickery."

Luther also believed the devil has no real power over believers. Satan, he said, hates prayer, sacred music, the Cross, and the Word of God. He flees as from a flaming fire. If the Scripture will not expel him, jeering and taunting will, "the devil," Luther said, "will bear anything better than to be despised and laughed at." [41]

PERSONALITIES OF SATAN

Satan has been preparing the world to enter into an international occult revival. Remember, he uses human vessels to accomplish his goals. One of his "anointed" characters was Aleister Crowley 1875-1947--Aleister Crowley is the occultist and Satanist that is maybe the most well known in the shadowy world of witchcraft and Satanism. His works The Book of the Law; Magick in Theory and Practice and The Book of Thoth are broadly used in occult circuits. Crowley himself didn't take much credit for having written them, as he stated they were written by automatic handwriting, being channeled from a higher being called Aiwaz (or Aiwass).

Aleister Crowley- Born in 1875. After leaving Trinity College of Cambridge he was introduced to George Cecil Jones, who introduced him to the Golden Dawn. Crowley was initiated into the GD in London in 1898. - Soon the GD was split into two competing camps, one headed by Florence Farr in London and the other by MacGregor Mathers in Paris. When Crowley was denied access to the Second Order in London he went to Paris and was initiated by Mathers. Yeats and other members of the London branch then had Mathers and Crowley expelled. [42]

"In 1903, Crowley married Rose Kelly, and they went to Egypt on their honeymoon. After returning to Cairo in early 1904, Rose (who until this point had shown no interest or familiarity with the occult) began entering trance states and insisting to her husband that the god Horus was trying to contact him. As a test, Crowley took Rose to the Boulak Museum and asked her to point out Horus to him. She passed several well-known images of the god and led Aleister straight to a painted wooden funerary stele from the 26th dynasty, depicting Horus receiving a sacrifice from the deceased, a priest named Ankh-f-n-khonsu. Crowley was especially impressed by the fact that this piece was numbered 666 by the museum, a number with which he had identified since childhood."[43]

Crowley divorced Rose in 1910 after she succumbed to alcoholic dementia and was placed in an asylum. Crowley's second wife also went insane, and five of his numerous mistresses committed suicide.

Crowley was given the nickname of "The Beast" by his mother, and promoting this title himself he is commonly referred to as "The Great Beast," and was well known as "the wickedest man in the world."

After splitting with the Golden Dawn cult, he formed the AA, or Astrum Argentium, with G. C. Jones in 1906 to further his occult studies.

In 1910 Crowley was contacted by the head of the O.T.O., the Ordo Templi Orientis, Theodore Reuss, and joined their order. Crowley took over in 1921 when Reuss suffered a stroke.

The foundation of Crowley's belief was the slogan, "Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law," supposedly passed to him by his spirit guide Aiwass.

Crowley was the tutor of Aldous Huxley, who was a champion of LSD and one of the greatest promoters of the social upheavals in America in the late 60's. Crowley's philosophy became reflected in the mantra of "If it feels good do it."

Curiously, a picture of Crowley appears on the cover of the Beatles "Sergeant Pepper's" album, and Led Zeppelin guitarist Jimmy Page bought Crowley's estate in Scotland.[44]

Crowley wrote an account of his spiritual progress in magic and Satanism under the title "The Temple of Solomon the King."

Another infamous personality was the late Anton Szandor LaVey (1930-1997) [45] who had a tremendous impact on the Satanist movement in America. Anton LaVey was born on April 11th, 1930.54 during his high school years, he came to believe that the mighty, not the meek, would inherit the earth. And outside of school, he began to study about the occult. Bored with regular studies he dropped out of school and joined the circus, where he worked as a substitute animal trainer. Later, he joined a carnival and continued to study the occult. He came to believe that youth, vigor and strength were to be worshiped because those who grew old and weak were soon discarded.

Later, as an organ player in the carnival, he was able to view human nature at its base level: “I would see men lusting after half-naked girls dancing at the carnival and on Sunday morning during the time that I was playing organ for tent-show evangelists at the other end of the carnival lot, I would see these same men sitting in the pews with their wives and children, asking God to forgive them and purge them of carnal desires. Then the next Saturday night they’d be back at the carnival or some other place of indulgence. I knew then that the Christian church thrives on hypocrisy and that man’s carnal nature will win out no matter how much it is purged or scourged by any white-light religion. [46]

After turning 21, LaVey studied criminology and became a policy photographer for a time, but returned to entertainment as an organ player in nightclubs and theaters. But all the while he kept studying the occult and accumulated a vast library of books about occult practices. LaVey came to believe that Satan was the force responsible for all human desires. He even began to teach others in weekly classes. Student were attracted as much to LaVey as to the subject. Soon a “Magic Circle” evolved from this group. [47]

He was and still is known as the “Father of Modern Satanism” and also recognized as the creator and high priest of the First Satanic Church in San Francisco California. The Church of Satan was established on April 30th, 1966 to celebrate man's carnal beast that lived in the cosmos, motivated by the dark force known as Satan. He shaved his head, declared the dawn of the satanic age and founded the Church of Satan— with himself as its high priest. He developed rituals for special occasions such as satanic weddings and funerals. The most popular was a destruction ritual that enabled participant to curse their enemies and proclaim victory over them. “God is dead and Satan lives” became a pass-word for rituals in LaVey’s church. [48]

He wrote several books including The Satanic Bible. This “Satanic Bible” became a bestseller and has been found at the scenes of crimes suspected of being perpetrated by satanic cults ad self-styled Satanists. From the outside, the book appears harmless; but its teachings, if believed and followed embody a threat to Christians and their faith in the crucified and risen Savior.[49]

The cornerstone of LaVey’s beliefs are found in his “nine satanic statements,” they attract intellectual from every walk of life:

1.Satan represents indulgence instead of abstinence.

2.Satan represents vital existence instead of spiritual pipe dreams.

3.Satan represents undefiled wisdom instead of hypocritical self-deceit.

4.Satan represents kindness to those who deserve it instead of love wasted on ingrates.

5.Satan represents vengeance instead of turning the other cheek.

6.Satan represents responsibility to the responsible instead of concern for psychic vampires.

7. Satan represents man as just another animal, sometimes better, more often worse than those that walk on all fours, who, because of his “divine spiritual and intellectual development,” has become the most vicious animal of all.

8.Satan represents all of the so-called sins, as they all lead to physical, mental, or emotional gratification.

9.Satan has been the best friend the church has ever had, as he has kept it in business all these years.

LaVey did not intend to found a new religion as such. Although he established rituals, there is no literal worship of Satan, since Satan does not literally exist. LaVey merely organized humanity’s ancient rebellion against God. [50]

He left the Church of Satan under the commanding powers of the church's current high priestess: Blanche Burton (his consort and mother of his third child Satan Xerxes Carnacki LaVey.

MICHAEL AQUINO

The late Michael Aquino, U.S. Army Lieutenant, was known as the High Priest, Temple of Set. He was successful in introducing Satanism into the American Military, see: Satanic Subversion of the U.S. Military.[51]

Aquino broke from LaVey's satanic church to form the Temple of Set. Set is the Egyptian name for Satan. He became the high priest of this church. As a member of the U.S. Army Reserve, Aquino has been regular member of the U.S. Army Reserve. He was regularly promoted and received top-secret security clearance. Since the Constitution guarantees freedom of religious expression, he was open about his beliefs. He claimed that the Christian church is responsible for placing Satan in a bad light. "Satan is evil," he said, "Satanists are good people."

When Aquino appeared on The Oprah Winfrey Show, February 17, 1988, someone in the audience asked, "If you believe in the devil, do you want to go to hell when you die?" Although he effectively dodged the question, Aquino made it clear that his belief about the devil and hell differs from the more literal interpretation of Christianity.[52]

JAMES CARVILLE

Bill Clinton's chief campaign advisor James Carville was pictured in People's Magazine, wearing a pentagram in the middle of his forehead. Bill Clinton in his inaugural speech said, "This ceremony is held in the depth of winter. But, by the words we speak and the faces we show the world, we force the spring. Clinton repeated the words "we force the spring" later in the speech. That expression is a very unusual expression. To "force the spring" is witchcraft language in witchcraft and Satanism. [53]

Lucifer (Baal) rises from the underworld on May 1st (also known by the following list of names Beltaine, a major European holiday, Communism and the Illuminati's chief holiday, and Walpurgis). The May 1st rising brings forth the season of fertility, which the witches each year take credit for, by claiming that their magic rituals "force the spring." The ritual magic that "forces the spring" is done on three Sabbats-the first is Imbolg (also known by names: Candiemas by the Catholics and Ground Hog Day by common dupes); the second is the vernal equinox (March 20) in which blood and sex rituals are carried out and the third is Beltaine (May 1) in which fire festivals are done. This is one of the fire festivals which people around the United States tell me they have witnessed from a distance. Witches believe that on May 1st, the female force completes her takeover from the male force.[54]

America is showing a steady course in a descending downward fall into witchcraft. In the Autumn of 1963 a man was released from an evil spell that had bound him for eleven years. He confessed to a minister that he had been baptized as a Satanist in May 1950.

On being received into membership he was given the devil's mark -- a tiny star-shaped tattoo on the right forearm. According to this man, witchcraft was being practiced openly by businessman, civil servants and artists. About this matter he said, "the less said about these ceremonies the better, because there is something inexplicable about witchcraft when properly practiced. There is some unknown force or power which does work for evil."

Chapter Nine

Satan is Alive

THE SOCIOLOGY OF SATANIC CULTS

Dr. Edward J. Moody studied satanic cults in California from 1965 to 1969. He heard rumors of an Allhallows Eve (Halloween) celebration in a haunted house in San Francisco. His conclusions are worth noting. "Those who eventually become Satanists are attempting to cope with the everyday problems of life, with the here and now, rather than with some transcendental afterlife"[55]

Moody goes on to say, as pressures increase, people choose many things to cope with life. Many seek answers from supernatural sources. Curiously, some shun God but seek Satan. They want and get immediate answers as well as the satisfaction of some physical desire. Compare this with what Paul said long ago: "For although they knew God, they neither glorified Him as God nor gave thanks to Him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened" (Rom. 1:21). The result of shutting out God are not pleasant; Three times Paul reminds us that God "gave them over" to the desires of their flesh, (Rom. 1:24, 26, 28*). As enemies of God, they will be "thrown into the lake of fire,"* (Rev. 20:15).

A MODERN SATANIC GROTTO

Local satanic groups are called "grottoes." Their rituals and ceremonies are little more than a mockery of Christ. Following is a sample of what a typical ritual might include, as suggested the Moody article.

Every first day evening just before midnight, a group of men and women gather at a home in San Francisco. There, under the guidance of their high priest, a sorcerer or magus sometimes called the "Black Pope of Satanism," they study and practice and ancient art of black magic. Precisely at midnight they perform satanic rituals that apparently differ little from those allegedly performed by European Satanists and witches at least as early as the seventh century. By the dim and flickering light of black candles, hooded figures perform their rites upon the traditional satanic altar . . . the naked body of a beautiful young witch calling forth the mysterious powers of darkness to do their bidding. Beneath the emblem of Baphomet, the horned god, they engage in the indulgences of flesh and sense for whose performance their forebearers suffered death and torture at the hands of earlier Christian zealots. [56]

SATAN IS ALIVE

Author, Merrill F. Unger has written: Although demonic activity in human history has always been undeniably great since the sin of our first parents exposed mankind to its grave attacks. Yet, the full fulfillment of its destructive powers upon the world is restrained for the end of the age. Demonism bears a striking relation to the doctrine of the last things. All classes of human beings Jews, Gentiles and the Churches of God, (I Cor.' 10:32), will be soundly affected by the last-day upsurge of evil supernaturalism. [57]

All Satanists are not witches or wizards, but most dabble in black magic. Their altar, often a naked woman, is symbolic of a primary goal: to satisfy any physical desire.

Moody began as an observer but was drawn in as a willing participant. He was impressed by their sincerity. "They firmly believed in what they were doing!" At the same time, they wanted their activities to remain secret in order to prevent ridicule, censure, and even prosecution. They felt isolated by their bizarre behavior, but they continued anyway, since Satanism provided a sense of identity and seemed to provide answers to their problems.[58]

In San Francisco, 1966, the Church of Satan was founded by Anton LeVey and Satan Worship is activity being practiced throughout the world. Churches are being broken into and its equipment stolen while cemeteries invaded for black masses held in mockery of the Lord's Supper.[59]

The police called me to ask questions about someone robbing a grave in several counties away. A young man's grave had been robbed. The grass and plants on grave was put back in place. The boy's grave site appeared normal. However, his wallet was found on the ground. When the authorities contacted the family, they said that they had buried the wallet with their son. They exhumed the casket and discovered that the boy's body was missing!

Witches and Satanist began to seek for their sacrifices eighteen days before their rituals. These strange people meet at grave sites. I told the police that if they would watch the cemetery about eighteen days before each and every Christian holiday, such as Christmas, etc., they could possibly catch these Satan worshipers. They took my advice and did catch them!

There is a great spiritual revolution that is emerging throughout the world. This large-scale revolution has occurred without the Church of Jesus Christ hardly noticing that people are being ensnared by the powers of darkness. Christian families are being torn apart and children are being carried away into other demonic lifestyles. Teenagers are full of rebellion and bitterness, caused in part by the spiritual emptiness found in many homes. Many parents have failed to give their children spiritual hope. No one can live in a spiritual vacuum. The Devil is furnishing many alternatives to Christian life today and many of our youth are grabbing the wrong options.

MORAL LANDSLIDE

The moral landslide has surpassed everything that the human mind could have imagined. Demonic spirits of lust have blossomed across the world, unequivocally unopposed. It has brought a bombardment of nudity, perversion and filth.

This revival of spiritual wickedness and deception is also taking place at a time of the most serious moral decay. People have claimed the right to believe anything they choose apart from old established morals. Our permissive, society no longer adhere to moral absolutes.

Some of the modern teenagers are raised to the position of being worshiped as gods and goddesses. They are drug-takers and flagrantly promiscuous. There are no rules or standards. Sex is safer outside the boundaries of marriage, because modern marriage does not last.

Homosexuality and lesbianism grow and broadcast their freedom. Homosexuals in the United States claim to be the second largest minority after Blacks and have achieved a protected status in the United States by the government. It is amazing, to see our former First Lady, Senator Hilliary Clinton marching in “Gay Parades” and speaking at “Gay conferences,” without fear of any reprisals from the voters. The morality of former President Bill Clinton and others in leadership positions has caused a gigantic slid perversions.

It has caused a gigantic dirt bath to happen over minds to the point that even church going Christians have become hardened to its serious effect over the spiritual well-being of people.

All who reject Christ the Creator will still feel a spiritual thirst. They search hungrily for meaning and curiosity about God and some hope of an afterlife.

Millions are being drawn into occultism seeking a rationalization of truth. Looking for spiritual enlightenment, millions are find darkness and death. Others seek after the astrologers, psychics or cults. One thing for sure, multitudes believe in a "higher power" as Nancy Reagan expressed it on Larry King Live. However, apart from Jesus Christ, there is no salvation in any other name on the earth. Our nation has left its spiritual mores, the Genii is out of the bottle and it like Pandora's box, it's impossible to close the evil up again.

MESSAGE OF DELIVERANCE

American churches seriously need the message of deliverance. We have wonderful churches in our country, but so many of our churches have become materialistic, cold, and religious while others, self-centered. We must return to the basics of the Bible.

WITCH DOCTOR FROM AFRICA

In Africa, it's a different story. Bishop Vagalas Kanco, former 4th generation witchdoctor West Africa; It was such an incredible thing to see the church. It was packed out with thousands of members. I was very amazed at the Bishop's ministry. The devils scream and tremble at the sound of his voice. The spiritual atmosphere is charged in his church.

Miracles, signs and wonders are common. The blind see. The lame walk and cancers are healed as easily as a cold. He ministered the first night that we were there, about twenty witches were spiritually making evident demonic possession by screaming and jerking. When the Holy Spirit's anointing came, they fell out in their chairs and foamed at the mouth. Then, the forty men and women that had been trained in the deliverance ministry by the Bishop, met them. They were freed by the power of God!

When my team arrived in Africa, we were met by some of the friendliest people in the world. They were dancing, singing and praising the Lord. I was amazed that the atmosphere was very peaceful in the city and shocked to see so many businesses with biblical names. I saw no one smoking or drinking on the streets of the city. "We are in a great revival," Pastor Evelyn Kanco said.

Bishop Kanco told me. "After Jesus delivered me out of the powers of darkness, He called me teach His Church about His power to save. He told me, 'Tell My people how I delivered you." He told me that His Church was blinded concerning reality of demonology and how their powers work against His people. He wanted to prepare me to, “go and tell them because I want to awaken them because I am coming soon.”

The Bishop said that after he was saved and delivered, he began to cry out to God about his city. He said that he met with other ministers began to pray for the city. “We fasted and laid on the floor on our bellies until we broke through to God. He answered and gave us a revival of deliverance.”[60]

THE SATANIC ROOT OF COLOMBIA’S VIOLENCE

Organized Satanists in Columbia reportedly are on a campaign to kill all Protestant pastors. In October 1998, four men dressed like typical Colombian businessmen showed up at a three-story building in Cali, Columbia and asked the owners if they could rent some rooms.

When they were told that a group of pastors rented the second floor, they asked the owner, “Are you a Christian?”

“We are Satanists,” said one of them: “We will stop the work of Christian pastors in the city and curse them.”

We are Christians,” replied the owner. “There’s power in the blood of Jesus, and there’s nothing you can do to us.”

The men told the owner they were assigned specific pastors to curse, openly stating that their mission in October was to kill all the Protestants’ pastors in Cali.

This scene is not the only evidence of satanic activity in Columbia. IN the city of Amentia and in the surrounding Andes region known as “the crib” hellish horrors have been committed or endorsed by a satanic high priest known as the Black Pope. This area was the epicenter of devastating earthquakes that rocked Colombia last January.

“Hundreds of children have been kidnaped and sacrificed to Satan every year,” says missionary Randy MacMilan of the region. Police recently found a common grave with 48 freshly sacrificed children from 5, 50, 12 years old, he said. Last year alone, 150 children from two to 15 years old were reported missing from his region.[61]

A former Colombian high priest of Satan who later became a Christian, told

MacMillan that during satanic rituals, the Black Pope pleads with the demons to kill those who refuse to join their ranks. He also asks Lucifer to spread suffering, sickness and disease throughout Colombia. [62]

Colombian pastors who have been threatened or cursed by the Satanists were never injured or killed. MacMilan and others who have been involved in prayer efforts there believe God has intervened on their behalf. [63]

The Bible says that Jesus Christ came in the flesh for a specific purpose. According to (I Jn. 3:8b*),"For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil." Jesus wants souls.*

Chapter Ten

The Goal is Souls

WITCHCRAFT WANTS SOULS

Charles Williams wrote in Witchcraft, "It is cold, it is hungry, it is violent, it is illusory. The warm blood and intercourse at the Sabbat do not satisfy it. It wants something more . . . It wants souls." [64]

The most successful witch in the Bible is a woman, Jezebel. She was able to capture a kingdom for her pagan gods. Jezebel can be called a territorial witch. Ahab's marriage to this witch Jezebel which is shown in (I Kin. 16:31), these scriptures' showed her evil influence was more powerful over Ahab than his commitment to his own God and religious experiences. Jezebel was able to kill the prophets of the Lord. "For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the Lord, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water . . . "

Jezebels' influence caused and an entire nation to cease worship of the true God; Witchcraft held the people under a diabolical bondage while the prophets who were not killed hid in terror of their lives.

Jezebel in fact, had no authority of her own. She was merely the wife of the king who had authority. Nevertheless, she regularly assumed the king's authority when she wanted too so. She used the spirit of witchcraft to control her husband Ahab. Then, she used these powers to gain control of the entire nation. Her rebellion spread like an evil yeast throughout the land. The people fell under her spell and also served her gods.

After Elijah warned king Ahab of the coming drought, the curse became extremely visible over the land. King Ahab, knew that the problem was linked to his rebellion against God. He said, ". . . when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said unto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" [65] Notice Elijah's reply, "And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim."

Elijah challenged the king to bring the prophets of Ba'lal, four hundred and fifty and the prophets of the groves four hundred, which eat at Jezebel's table to a spiritual demonstration of power on the Mount Carmel. And then he challenged the people, *"Then said Elijah unto the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If God be God follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word."*7Then Elijah went on to prove that God was more powerful than Baal, Jezebel's witchcraft gods, and the people responded, killing her prophets.

This powerful Old Testament story demonstrates how destructive the powers of witchcraft when practiced by entire nation. Great darkness spreads across a land under these demonic powers. The leaders and people become cowardly, only the power of God can transfer people.

NOT ALL POWERFUL WOMEN ARE WITCHES

Deborah, was a territorial warrior used for the glory of God. There are many places in the Old Testament Battles that required territorial taking faith. Deborah was a prophetess and judge of Israel at a time when Israel was oppressed by Jabin, King of Hazor, and Sisera, the general of his powerful army. Deborah commanded Barak to gather men to engage Sisera in Battle. Although reluctant, Barak carried out his mission, but only with Deborah at his side. He routed the army of Sisera. Sisera himself escaped but was slain by Jael, the wife of Jeber the Kenite, who put him to sleep with a glass of milk and then drove a tent peg into his temple.

The fact of this testimony is that another powerful woman, Deborah, had the anointing of territorial taking power. Her submission to God had elevated her to the position of prophetess and judge over the nation. The anointing of God knows does not know gender barriers.

Many people today equate every woman who may have spiritual Godly power, as “having the spirit of Jezebel.” Not so! It all depends upon what power the woman is submitted! If she is working for Satan, then she has a Jezebel spirit. If a woman of God is working for Jesus, then she is a royal, noble woman! However, the Christian woman must not try to handle the spiritual realms alone. She should find a Godly ministry that will recognize her gift and submit to the authority of that ministry.

SPIRIT OF REBELLION

The Bible says rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft. When a person turns from God they will walk into rebellion and witchcraft. Witchcraft is the use of every evil spirit in the world to use all Satan’s arsenal to destroy any chance of a human being coming into the full power of God.

The word occult means, “powers hidden, unseen”; So all these bewitching practices are concealed snares to entangle a human being in Satan’s world. The spirit of rebellion is working in the world today. It can be identified everywhere. There is a great conspiracy of Satan to control your mind reaches into the entertainment field through television and movies. We also see it working in some churches, medical science, government, business, dying and aging seminars, education, entertainment, lodges, religions, recreations, law indorsement, psychology, mind control, magazines, and rock music, etc.

The spirit of rebellion can be seen in the lives of Absalom, (II Sam. Chapters 15-18). Sheba, (II Sam. 20), Revolt of the ten tribes (I Kin. 12:16); (II Chron. 10:13:5-12). Then we see this spirit as taking over Saul - first, anointed by God but rebellion brought him to witchcraft and death. He was the first king of Israel, (I Sam. 10:23). When Israel clamored for a king, Saul was privately anointed by Samuel in Ramah and later elected by a popular assembly at Mizpah.

He was people's choice: (1Sam. 9:2), "And he had a son, whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier person than he: from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people. "He was the people's hope and was hailed with enthusiasm because he stood head and shoulders above any of the people.”

God appointed him to be a ruler over His people. (1Sam. 10:1), "Then Samuel took a vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the LORD hath anointed thee to be captain over his inheritance?" He used Samuel to prophesy over Saul”. (1Sam. 10:7), "And let it be, when these signs are come unto thee, that thou do as occasion serve thee; for God is with thee. " Then God's direction was given, (1Sam. 10:8), "And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and, behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: seven days shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and show thee what thou shalt do." The Prophet Samuel was also impressed by him. It was well for Saul, (1Sam. 10:9), "And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs came to pass that day.”

Saul's official acceptance of his leadership seems to have come at Gilagal after he had delivered Jabesh-Gilead from the Ammonites. With the aid of his son Jonathan at Michmash he climaxed a series of encounters which resulted to the successful overthrow of the Philistines, Israel's constant foe. It is said of Saul that "he fought against all his enemies on every side . . . whenever he turned he put them to the worse," (I Sam. 14:47). Then rebellion entered when he disobeyed God concerning Aga the king of the Amalekites by allowing him to live and not destroying all the livestock. When he fell, the people agreed with him in his rebellion. (I Sam. 15:79). "God said to utterly destroy all."

Saul's rebellion turned him into a coward. After God lifted His divine anointing from the king, Saul trembled when he met a real giant. Saul turned out to be a poor choice for a king. The state of spirituality of the leader of the country always reflected in the success or failure of the nation.

Saul began to challenge the priest and even offer his own sacrifices. He rebelled against spiritual authority and did not need any priests in his life. In (I Sam. 1:5), Saul is reproved by Samuel for usurping the priestly functions. He received a religious spirit which led him away from the true presence of God. He grew so cold and embittered that he refused to allow the prophet minister to the soldiers before entering battle. He grew so bewitched that he even referred to himself as the sacrifice for God. "And Samuel said, When thou was't little in thine own sight, was't thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel?" (I Sam. 15:17).

Aside an encouraging beginning, the better part of Saul's reign was a disheartening and catastrophic matter. He seems to have been quite close to insanity toward the end of his life. Clearly, a breakdown began with his breach with Samuel, arising over his assumption of the priestly privileges at Gilgal, before the battle with the Philistines (I Sam. 13), and becoming complete with his sparing of Aga king of the Amalekites in opposition to the laws of Holy Warfare. His strength was derived mainly from his success as a warrior and commander, (I Sam. 14:47).

The spirit of Jealousy developed his unbalanced behavior toward David. (1Sam. 18:7), "And the women answered one another as they played, and said, Saul hath slain his thousands, and David his ten thousands." (1Sam. 18:8), "And Saul was very wroth, and the saying displeased him; and he said, They have ascribed unto David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands: and what can he have more but the kingdom?"

He was filled with insane jealousy. This spirit was joined by a spirit of murder. He spent his last years in persisted quests to track down and kill him. His obsession with David caused him to neglect other affairs of the new kingdom. First place among these was the Philistine problem. They strengthened their forces and were awaiting the opportunity to strike back at Israel.

Notwithstanding the prediction of tragedy received through the medium at Endor, Saul encamped against the Philistines at the foot of Mount Gilboa. Saul lost the battle and his three sons were slain and the king took his own life, after being wounded.

Notice David's reaction to Saul's hatred. He spared his life (I Sam. 24:1). "And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee." The David arose, guiltily and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily. David was reacting in a good spirit. He wanted to restore King Saul to his right mind. Saul's deranged mind was the result of a fallen spiritual condition. A person that is walking under the anointing of God will have compassion for the sinner.

David wanted to protect the state of the office of God's appointed king. In (I Sam. 26:7), "And David said to Abishai, Destroy him no; for whom can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be blessed? David said furthermore, As the Lord liveth, the Lord shall smite him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall descend into battle, and perish. The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed: but I pray thee, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go. So David took the spear and the curse of water from Saul's bolster; and they Gath them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither awaked; for they were all asleep; because a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them."

The Bible alluding to his personality we are told that Saul was privately anointed by Samuel in Ramah and later elected by a popular assembly at Mizpah. Despite an auspicious beginning, the greater part of Saul's reign was a disappointing, and tragic affair. His fall seems to begin with his break with Samuel arising over his assumption of the priestly privileges at Gilgal, before the Battle with the Philistines (I Sam. 13).

David had become an extremely popular figure with the people of Israel.

Filled with insane jealousy, Saul spent his last years in repeated efforts to track down and kill him, despite David's repeated expression of loyalty. Despite the prediction, of tragedy received through the medium at Endor, Saul encamped against the Philistines at the foot of Mount Gilboa. The Philistines scored a complete victory; Saul's three sons were slain and the king took his own life after being wounded. The Philistines cut off Saul's head and hung his body along with sons, on the wall of Bethshan. The men of Jabesh-Gilead, still loyal to Saul, removed the bodies, burned them and buried the bones in Jabesh.

The Bible tells us that Saul stood head and shoulders over the people in (I Sam. 10:23). The people shouted their approval. The people saw him by the attractiveness of his flesh. We can see how confounded Saul was and could not believe that he was going to be Israel's first king when the news was told him, (I Sam. 9:20). Look at how self-conscious he was in (I Sam. 10:21-23). Humility is commendable, but bashful or inferiority is not. It is a stumbling block.

Saul's initial actions began with great promise, (I Sam. 13). This entire incident revealed that Saul would not have faith in and obey God. How spiritually bankrupt he was, (I Sam. 15). Because his disobedience, Saul lost the kingdom. How depraved he was, (I Sam. 17). He was spineless, imagine Saul, a king and a former great warrior, allowing a teenage lad to go and fight Goliath for him! He became one of the most foremost cowards in the Old Testament.

After David became a champion and deliverer of his people, the king became extremely bitter and jealous, (I Sam. 18:6-9); David acted as a deliverance minister to Saul by playing anointed music for him. The evil spirit would lift and Saul would get relief. However, each time, the king would return to his iniquity and the spirits would multiply and become stronger. They totally bound his judgment. His resentment and envy of David soon blossomed. Jealousy consumed his heart, (I Sam. 18:8-9) and then one day he threw javelins and wanted to kill David, (I Sam. 20:33). The Spirit of God had departed from him and he became a law unto himself. Notice how his nature had changed and how brutal he was, (I Sam. 18:11-15), etc. He sought in every way to accomplish David's murder.

Murder was dominating his heart and he killed priests because they wouldn't join up with him. (I Sam. 22:19). How rotten he was, (I Sam. 18). He was possessed by an evil spirit of religion. This evil spirit penetrated his home and his daughter despised worship to the Lord. He lashed out at the prophets, (I Sam.

15:27-28). Saul illegally stood in the office of a priest for a day, (I Sam. 13:27-28). He took over God's holy altar and preformed an unholy, sacrifice because he became impatient when Samuel was late in arriving.

Then he fell into the greatest darkness. He broke one of the strictest commandments of the Law. He resorted to witchcraft for guidance. (I Sam. 28:1-9). When the door of heaven was closed to him, he knocked on the door of Hell for protection. This final terrible sacrilege cost him the lives of his sons and all his men. Saul committed suicide, (I Sam. 31:4-6) and his armor bearer committed suicide. His life of rebellion brought him step by step to the bows of Hell.

The Saulish spirit promotes rebellion. This spirit invariably works on God's chosen ones and their family members. This spirit operates in division to cause a person to come against his/her helpers. This person will feel jealous of others' successes and disobey God and not realize it. This spirit will try to destroy the prophets and ignore correction. This person desires spiritual position that God never ordained and play priest harming God's mantle and His priests. Like Saul, this spirit will cause loss of humility and handle God's holy sacraments and become arrogant and right in this person's own eyes but will fear the people.

Chapter Eleven

Conflict of the Church

SPIRIT OF WITCHCRAFT

We are living in a time where Satan is pouring out his spirits of as well as Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit are releasing their Spirit. The Book of Revelation shows the activities of evil spirits are foretold as part of the total conflict of the Church with the powers of darkness. Chapter 9 gives a terrifying vision of the shaft of the bottomless pit being opened to release "locusts" that swarm over the earth, deceiving and destroying. But most of the world does not repent, but continues to worship demons (verse 20)

Later in the same book, there is a vision of the dragon, the beast and the false prophet, and from each of their mouths there comes, "foul spirits like frogs, for they are demonic spirits, performing signs . . . " (Rev. 16:13). Then we discover that the other powerful agency of evil in the Revelation, Babylon, is under the same influence. We see that this symbol of affluence "Has become a dwelling place for demons, a haunt of every foul spirit . . . " (Rev. 18; 2). 80

The Church has largely abdicated its authority and blandly disbelieves in such things. The enemy has come in like a flood, and few have resisted it.

The FULL GOSPEL is a balanced Gospel which includes the ministry of Jesus. "The spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES, and recovering of sigh to the blind, to SET AT LIBERTY THEM THAT ARE BRUISED," (Lk. 4:18). A great percentage of Jesus' ministry was deliverance. "He went throughout all Galilee preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons," (Mk. 1:39). Jesus cast devils out! Jesus is our example!

"The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil; who goeth about to kill thee," (Jn. 7:20.)

SOURCES OF THE SUPERNATURAL

What does the First Commandment say? (Exod. 20:2-5), God says, "He is the Lord our God and we are not to have any other gods before Him." The first commandment also warns us that God is jealous and won't tolerate our seeking power or guidance from any other god. "Thou shalt have no other gods before Me," (Deut. 5:7). Involvement in the occult is breaking the first commandment (2Cor. 4:4), "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

God loves us and has forbidden it to us for it so very dangerously. (1Tim. 4:1), "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils . . . " (I Tim. 4:2), "Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron." Whatever we have seen, or heard, or touched, or experienced through any of our senses has an effect on us, no matter how long ago.

It is recorded within us for we are like computers; thoughts fed into our subconscious minds effect us, for good or for evil. Paul warned us what to think on in (Phil. 4:8), "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things." For our own good, we need to heed this warning in the scriptures and rid ourselves of subconscious contamination.

If one seeks after another god, then one would be cursed, the children are cursed, grandchildren are cursed, and great grandchildren are cursed.

Webster's definition of a god [66], the (supreme or ultimate reality) Being perfect in power, wisdom, and goodness, whom men worship as creator and ruler of the universe, "a being or object believed to have more than natural attributes and powers and to require man's worship; one controlling a particular aspect or part of reality; (eg. Neptune, god of the sea)."

God and Satan are the only sources of supernatural power, power, hidden information, guidance, healing, knowledge. (Acts 8:9), "But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one,"

Man cannot live in a supernatural vacuum. Will have either Christ or Satan; but cannot tolerate an empty soul.

SPIRIT OF DIVINATION

The Bible warns against using divination: (Deut. 18-12).

Definitions by Webster. DIVINATION: The art or practice that seeks to foresee or foretell future events or discover hidden knowledge, usually by interpretation of omens, or by the aid of supernatural powers.

A major problem that is producing such darkness in America is that the Christian Church has ignored the witchcraft revival that has been taking placed for the last thirty years. Also, the Church has ignored the reality of devils and the Church's power over them.

The Bible warns against using divination, (Deut. 18-12.

DIVINATION: The art or practice that seeks to foresee or foretell future events or discover hidden knowledge, usually by interpretation of omens, or by the aid of supernatural powers.

SORCERY Use of power gained from the assistance or control of evil spirits, a sorceress witch.

WITCHCRAFT: Use of sorcery or MAGIC — Use of means (as charms or spells) believed to have supernatural power over natural forces.

CHARMS To affect as if by magic, compel, or something worn about a person to ward off evil and ensure a good fortune = amulet. (Josh. 7)

SPELL A spoken word having magic powers.

BEWITCH Baskaino Greek. Primarily to slander, to prate about anyone, then to bring evil on a person by feigned praise, or mislead by an evil eye, and so to charm, bewitch (English, fascinate is connected), is used figuratively in (Gal. 3:1), of leading into evil doctrine. Existemi Greek, is rendered "bewitch" in (Acts 8:9, 11), A. V., concerning Simon the Sorcerer; it does not mean to bewitch, as in the case of the preceding verb, but to confuse, amaze.

ASTROLOGY (OBSERVER OF TIMES) The divination of the supposed influences of the stars and planets on human affairs and earthly events, by their positions and aspects.

ENCHANT Influence by charms and incantation bewitches; to cast a spell over.

NECROMANCY Conjuration of the spirits of the dead for the purposes of magically revealing the future of influencing the course of events; (The medium or psychic is the person who is a channel of communication between the earthly world and the world of spirits).

TRANSFERENCE OF GOOD SPIRIT

Transference of Good Spirits

The word for “armor” is a fusion of two Greek Words, ‘all’ and ‘weapons’. The phrase ‘armor of God’ refers to the full combat equipment of a soldier. It is used figuratively to indicate the total resources which God makes available to those who enlist under his command. . . . through the prayer of total dependence, God’s power over Satan in every situation where the believer encounters (in his own heart) the craftiness of primal evil.”

Spirits of good or evil can be transmitted through people who have influence over other people. The spiritual influence over followers comes from the spiritual anointing (either God or Satan) upon the leader. Examples of transference of good spirits, Cornelius, a Roman centurion, or commander of basically one hundred men in the Roman army stationed in Caesarea. He is described a“a devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people and prayed to God always,” (Acts 10:2), and “of a good report among the Jews,” (Acts 10:11). His search for religious truth, he was instructed in a vision to send servants to bring Peter from Joppa to Caesarea.

Peter himself had also received a vision, revealing the Christian religion no distinction between Jew and Gentile. The centurion described the vision which he had received. Moving Peter to speak the famous words, “Of a truth perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him,” (Acts 10:34-35). Then, after the Holy Spirit had come, “On all them which heard the word,” Peter baptized Cornelius and his household. In later years, this event was accredited as having set a precedent for the admission of Gentiles to full Christian fellowship.

The laying-on of hands is shown by the Scripture. It is a means of setting apart men to particular offices or ministries. (See Num. 8:20); “And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Lord; and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites: And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord for an offering of the children of Israel that they may execute the service of the Lord.” Then we see in (Num 27:18*), “And the Lord said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him; And set Him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation: and give him a charge in their sight. And thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.”*

This transference of the anointing for service is shown in (Acts 7:5), "And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them." Then again this spiritual transference of God's power is shown in (I Tim. 4:14): "Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbytery." Another corresponding Scripture in demonstrated in, (II Tim. 1), "Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands."

The power of God rest in the Spirits of God — good spirit consists of:

Fear (AWE) of the Lord, (Isa. 11:2).

2.Glory - God the Son, Jesus. I Peter 4:14.
3.The Lord - God the Father. (II Cor. 3:17).
Angels are Good spirits:

1.The Angel of the Lord, (Exod. 14:19).

2.Delivers from prisons, (Acts. 12:7).

3.Charge over Thee, (Ps. 91:11).

4.Keep thee in all thy ways, (Isa. 63:9. Dan. 3:28).

5.Shut the mouths of the Lord, (Dan. 6:22.)

6.Stands by you, (Acts 27:23).

7.Ministering to you, (Heb.1:14).

8.Appear to men and women, (Gen. 32:1; 32; 31; Judg.2:1; Zech. 1:9; Matt. 1:20; 2: 13; 28: 2; Jn. 1:11; 28; Jn. 20:12; Acts 8:23; 10:3).

Anointing

7.The application of unguents or oils to the body and head.

8.Anointing as a religious rite was found in application both to persons and things.

9.Kings and priest were set apart for their office by the pouring of consecrated oil on their heads.

10.This was believed to impart to them a special measure of the spirit of the Lord; persons receiving this anointing are sometimes referred to as “the Messiah or Christ.

11.It was also a custom among the Hebrews to anoint sacred stones and various articles used in worship, (Lev. 8:12, Aaron; I Lev. 10:1, Saul; I Lev. 16:13,David; I Kin. 1:39; Solomon; I Kin. 19:16, Elisha and Jehu; 2 Kin. 9:6, Jehu; 2 Kin. 2 Kin. 11:12; Joash; Matt. 26:7; Mk. 14:3; Lk. Jn.12:2; Jn. 7:37).

12.Jesus. Anointing of objects set apart sacred use, (Exod. 29:36; 30:26; Lev. 8:11; Num. 7:1).

Examples of Persons Anointing in Consecration, (Lev. 8:30; 1Lev. 10:1; 16:13; 2 I. 19:16; 2 I. 9:3; 11:12; 23:30)

1.Application of oil to the body, (Ruth 3:3; Ps. 92:10; Ec. 9:8; Isa. 57:9; Am. 6:6).

2.As a remedy, (Isa. 1:6; Mk. 6:13; Jn. 10:34; Jn.5:14; Rev. 3:13).

Anointing in Everyday life, (2 Lev. 12: 20).

3.David arose from the earth and washed and anointed himself . . . (Job, 2 Lev. 14:3).

Sign of Honor to Guests

Satanic anointing:

(Gen. 32:18; Exod. 30:29; Exod. 40:9).

Witches and Occultist also use articles to use the power of their spirits.

They also put blood of animals and humans upon their jewelry and amulets.
They send powers of darkness with these articles.
The spirit upon Moses transferred to the 70 Elders.

“And the Lord said unto Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation that they may stand there with thee. And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee that thou bear it not thyself alone," (Num. 11: 16, 17).

Great of anointing of Moses was placed upon 70 men and they prophesied.

1.Judges
2.Deborah, a prophetess.
3."Barak said to her, "If you go with me, I will go; but if you don't go with me, I won't go. Very well, I will go with you," (Judg. 4:8).
Notice - the anointing knows no gender.

1.Deborah's anointing covered Barak and gave victory.
2.Noami and Ruth.
3.Ruth bonded to Noami “ . . . Your God shall be My God,” (Ruth 1:18).
4.David
5.“. . . Judah has anointed me king over them," (2 Sam. 2: 7).
6.Elijah
7.“. . . Anoint Hazael king over Aram. Also anoint Jehu son Nimshi King over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet,” (1 Kin. 19: 15-16).
8.Nehemiah.
9.Nehemiah was to provide political and administrative stability.
10.In spite of harassment of the most persistent and troublesome sort led by Sanballat, Tobiah, and Geshem, the work was finally brought to completion.
11.Nehemiah brought about a number of desperately needed reforms; political, social and religious. His advocacy of strict Jewish purity doubtless proved helpful in enforcing the reforms which took place under Ezra.
12.Jesus gave the apostles power to cast out devils and heal the sick. (Jn. 9:1; Mk. 6:7, 12,13; Matt. 10:1, 7, 8)

13.“An when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. (Matt. 10: 7, 8). "And as ye go, preach, saying, the kingdom of heaven is at hand, Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, Cast out Devils, freely ye have received, freely give.”

Jesus gave other disciples the power to do supernatural works.

1."The Lord appointed seventy,” (Jn. 10: 1,17).

2.“Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbyters," (I Tim. 4:14).

3."Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God," (I Cor. 2:12).

Chapter Twelve

Ignoring the Problem

TRANSFERENCE THROUGH DEMONS

A major problem that is producing such darkness in America is that the Christian Church has ignored the witchcraft revival that has been taking placed for the last thirty years. Also, the Church has ignored the reality of devils and the Church's power over them. In every area of our society, occult activity is being promoted to the young and old through every possible medium.

From Ouija boards, toys and games, cartoons, TV shows movies and music. Satanist films include: Rosemary's Baby, Halloween 13, The Exorcists, Poltergeist I and II, Ghoulies, all the episodes of Friday the 13th and the Star Wars trilogy. You can call a psychic by dialing a 900 number and don't forget the witch "Cleo," that gives reading advice from Tarot Cards. Occult soap operas and talk show hosts that promote witchcraft. Magic spells and other rituals are promoted in colleges, high school, junior high and elementary levels.83

Jesus said, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10).

We can see two personalities in this Scripture, activity working in the affairs of human beings. A tremendous transference of spirits has occurred in the last thirty years due to people becoming blinded to spiritual realities.

WHAT IS PAGANISM?

Mortimer J. Adler, in his book, How to Think about God: A Guide for the 20th Century Pagan, writes: "The dictionary meaning of the word 'pagan' identifies a large section of the population – all those who do not worship the God of the Christians, the Jews or the Muslims. [67]

The revolution for the America culture was raging in the seventies and eighties. It was being fought from Washington, D.C. to the state and cities assemblies. It was motivated by politicians, news media, college professors, student, business women and housewives.

The battle was won by the women' liberation movement. The American culture was changed and the spiritual winds were changed during this great cultural war. The 1986 National Organization of Women, N.O.W. Convention, was held in Denver, June 13-15. Workshop topics included the usual promotions for prostitution, lesbianism, global feminism, abortion, stopping the right wing, and a new addition, "Coping With AIDS." Most amazing, however, was a workshop entitled "Feminist Spirituality - the Goddess Returns."86

An attractive, dark-haired woman named Grace, who introduced herself as a "recovering Catholic," opened the meeting, describing her pilgrimage through Zen, holistic health, astrology and finally into the "goddess religion," or "witchcraft. Showing slides of snakes, the Ankh, a witch with a cat, Tarot Cards, and Pan (half-goat god, whom she described as "the natural loving male"), she spoke glowingly of the "wisdom of our heritage." It all ended with the audience swaying to a drum beat and chanting "We will serve you. We will love you."

The observer described the workshop as a fanatical religious, evangelical outreach to promote the "Old Religion," and ancient fertility cults. The speaker Cindee Grace, is an author and seminar teacher headquartered in Boulder, Co.

Derek Prince says that "Witchcraft is the universal, primeval religion of fallen humanity. When the human race turned from God in rebellion, the power that moved in was witchcraft. As the Bible says, "Rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft" (I Sam. 15:23). Prince goes on to say, "There four levels of Modern Witchcraft. The Westernized, "modern" practice of witchcraft contains the same elements . . .

4. Open, public. "Respectable"
5. Underground" - covens
6. Fifth Column, disguised with society and the Church.
7. A Work of the flesh. 87

Under the title Fifth Column, Disguised, Rev. Prince list Rock Music as one of the main channels, and its potential for harm is fearsome. He writes about a 33-year-old man that had become demon possessed through listening the album by Black Sabbath.88

This account reminded me of a young Christian man (I'll call him Jeff) who attended a rock concert. He said he was sitting about the middle section of the arena when suddenly his spiritual eyes opened. He saw a giant demon who was sitting behind the band. This demon seemed to be orchestrating the band. Jeff described the demon waving his hand over the audience and the people would sway in the direction of his waving hand.

Jeff said that he stood frozen and terrorized. His hair stood up on his arms and heart beating rapidly. He began to pray for protection. As he prayed, he noticed a man dressed in a white suit close to the front. This man began to move toward Jeff. However, Jeff's eyes caught sight of the giant demon and he felt himself falling under its spell. He stopped praying. The man in white stopped moving in his direction. Jeff forced himself to pray. The man in white started moving in his direction again. Finally the man in white took Jeff by the hand and led him out of the concert.

Just imagine. One giant demon was directing the band and holding the entire audience in a weird trance. The transfer of evil spirit was successful over every person in the place! By exposing himself to the forces of satanic inspired music, Jeff was almost captured.

Witchcraft and Satanism are being spread through rock music, movies, television. Young people and old are being enslaved by the powers of the devil.

RECOGNIZING TRANSFERENCE OF SPIRITS

Churches wake up and see that this can by your finest hour or your worse. Will you rise to meet the problem or will you continue to sleep?

You see, Jesus died for everybody’s sins. How horrendous those sins may be doesn’t matter. Christ died a very painful death.

To both the victims and their families, and to the Satanist and witches, the only solution to your situation is the love of God through Jesus Christ and the power of His blood. He is sufficient to meet your every need. There is nothing so evil you’ve experienced that He can’t heal: there is nothing so wicked that you’ve done that He can’t forgive. Jesus Christ is not a respecter of persons.

Sin is sin to Him and His blood washes away all sin, (I Jn. 1:7). His call to you is to draw near and be cleansed, (Heb. 10:1-22).

To those investigating Satanism or the occult the crimes related to them, know that first, you must be equipped with God’s Holy Spirit in order to deal with this area of spiritual battle, which is what Satanism actually is. The spiritual realm cannot be dealt with only on a material level safely, or in any other way, (See Acts 19; 13-16).

Second, it is important to understand that there is no power strong enough to aid you against or protect you from the onslaught of demonic powers that will confront you except for the name and blood of Jesus Christ. You are stepping onto Satan's playing field and he will come against you with all the evil at his command; without Christ, you cannot be win! 89

The author has personally talked too many Christians from Melbourne, Florida areas who all testify that they have first-hand knowledge of America's most famous witch of the seventies, Sybil Leek's profession of repentance and confession of faith in Jesus Christ. You may remember that Mrs. Leek, best known among the witches in the 60s, and 70s, who popularized witchcraft in America. Her books are still being used in many college witchcraft courses.

Rev. Arlene Coulter, Resurrection Ranch Ministry, told me that Sybil Leek was on her death bed at a local hospital. About fifty Christians linked arms outside the hospital and prayed for her soul. She said two women went in and Mrs. Leek allowed them to pray for her. Mrs. Leek prayed for Jesus Christ to save her. Another friend of mine, Rev. Irene Park, author of The Witch That Switched related to me how those women from Melbourne called her out of a meeting, she was ministering in Texas to ask her what to do. Jesus Christ had supernaturally translated both these witches, Sybil Leek and Irene Park, out of the kingdom of darkness into His wonderful light. However, I was told that Sybil's family took her from the hospital and isolated her from the praying Christians. She soon died.

Another former witch, Roberta Blankenship writes in her book, Escape from Witchcraft, "Why did this happen to me . . . me of all people . . . with powers like mine? If that man knew what I could do, he would have been afraid to abuse me, afraid to touch me. He will pay! 90

"He will pay. I called Josie and told her that I planned to put a hex on him. I returned to the park with the pack of cigarettes and the brick with which he had tried to hit me. Then I went back home to look for anything which might belong to him. I found a carton to prepare and perform the incantation."

Mrs. Blankenship goes on to write, "I dressed myself in black, cursing like a made woman, He will die for that. I'll destroy him. He'll suck the wrath of hell." I ran around my house chanting, ‘Give me powers, Draw it up out of my soul from the very roots of hell." Suddenly I fell on my knees. Blackenship tells an amazing story about her discovery of the realization poured over her. The powers that she had just called though, what she thought was her own gifts, were really the devious tricks of the devil. Tricks used to trap her. She said, "My powers were produced by and rooted in evil. For almost three years, I had blindly claimed these powers as my own, never realizing whose puppet I had become." Then she heard a sound of thunder echoed within the walls of her mind and a force crackled, a demonic voice spoke, "You stupid fool. Where did you think, you got your power from?" Then the evil thing laughed again shrieking, " I am not through with you."

Ms. Blankenship was shocked and wanted to end her life after discovering that her wicked powers were coming from Satan. She writes with pointed horror, "I screamed aloud, hoping I could hear my own voice above the other. "I'm crazy. I'm crazy. Kill me. I'm crazy. I ran to the Kitchen and grabbed a butcher knife, ready to slash my wrists."

Suddenly she froze as the diabolical voice continued, "I'm not through with you. You've just begun. So do as I say." It commanded her to bow down and worship Satan. Blankenship writes, "I Roberta Blankenship, bowed down on my knees, raised my arms into the air and said, "Satan, you are my master and prince. I know you are my source of power. Use me as you will, I am yours." With that statement, she fell flat on the floor and cried, "The devil is real." 91

High Places

SPIRIT WHITE WITCHCRAFT

Many modern witches, claim to be heirs to an unbroken religious tradition stretching back into primeval history. They worship the Great Mother, Gaia, the earth mother, the symbol of fertility and the oldest and most elemental of the ancient gods. White witchcraft insists that it is a religion and not an evil cult.

White witches believe there is a distinction between white magick and black magick. But the source of power for white witchcraft, white magick is the same as that of black witchcraft and black magick. It is all from the same Devil. Remember any supernatural power that is not association with Jesus Christ and His Word is of Satan.

Vice President Gore wrote a book in the eighties, called, Earth in Balance, which challenges' Christian to worship mother earth. He says that they are ignorant if they keep their minds closed to other forms of religions. He claims to be a Southern Baptist.92 What a shame. What a deception! Wicca is a cult of neo paganism, or white witchcraft that has been flourishing in the west since the 1960s. The group maintain that their "old religion" is not connected to Satan worship The gods of Wicca are Mother Goddess, who ruled the Harvest god who ruled fishing and hunting.

William Schnoebelen, a former high priest in Wicca, explains that there are many differences between Wicca groups. In his book Wicca: Satan's Little White Lie, he descries some of the variations he found. Some groups perform their ceremonies nude, while others wear robes. In some groups, members are scourged with a whip during a ceremony, but most groups do not use ships. Some groups practice ritual sex and sexual orgies; others abstain from sexual ceremonies. There are, however, a few common elements in all Wicca and neo-pagan practices. 93

During the witches' high days, October 18, 31, Halloween, 1989, a strange middle-aged couple moved into a rented house in a Jacksonville neighborhood. A friend noticed different dogs in the yard every day. The people were more than fifty years old, yet, they had a young child that called them "mother, and daddy." A huge rental truck set in front the home for many days, and a Harley motorcycle was also parked in the front lawn.

Candles flickered at night and each passing day, the neighborhood buzzed over their fences about the strange happenings with the unconventional couple. Sometimes, they saw other cars visit the couple. Then, they noticed the young child was no longer in view. Suspiciously, they called the landlord with their peculiar views.

The landlord arrived on the scene and opened the garage doors. Stacked in the garage, was about fifteen cages with dogs and another fifteen with cats. The landlady called the police.

The people in the house moved everything out the house into a moving van. When the police came, they were fully packed and ready to leave. “What’s going on here,” the policeman asked? “Nothing the strange couple replied, “We are just moving. Why?”

The policeman answered and told them that he was there because some “nosey” neighbors had complained. He just let them go without searching the moving truck! Remember. The truck was packed with animal cages.

SEPARATE FROM THE WORLD

The word, “Ekklesia” is used 115 times in the Greek New Testament with primary reference to the local congregation of believers. At lest 90 times the word refers to a local church. Three times the word has an institutional meaning. The term is in the plural 35 times. The Apostle Paul challenges the Church to remain estranged from the world. (Rom. 12:2), “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect will of God.” The word “world” here means, the world system that is now under the control of Satan. “In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not . . .” (II Cor. 4:4). The Bible teaches that Christian is to be distinct and separate from the course of this world.94

The Christian is to refuse to be cut after the pattern of the unsaved in dress, speech, attitude, or any other way. A clear example is shown according to the Atlanta Journal, March 3, 1970, how evil fads can produce an acceleration perversion “After the miniskirts were introduced in 1964 forcible rapes increased 68 percent in the next five years in America, and 90 percent in England” Little girls use to want to dress like their mommies. Today mommies want to dress like their little girls.95

The Barbie doll has been very successful in transferring the power of evil fads to young girls. For example recently a Barbie doll was created, dressed like a sun goddess. Then, Barbie was made with a tattoo on her stomach. These ungodly things will carry their ungodly influences into the future of young girls’ minds and lead them after the powers of darkness. This called transferences of spirits.

“The world” is the system of things that you and I use to belong to before we were saved. (Eph. 2:20), “Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world . . . ” Our standards were the standards of this world, and our pleasure and satisfaction came from the world. When we trusted Christ as Savior, we received citizenship in Heaven, (Phil. 3:30:21), so that we do not belong to this world system. We are in the world physically, but we do not belong to the world spiritually.

Chapter Thirteen

Another Jesus - Another Gospel

SEDUCTION THROUGH HERESY

The Apostle Paul wrote with a grieved heart to the Galatians Church that he had lovingly labored with the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. He wrote*: "O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been 'evidently set forth, crucified among you,"* (Gal. 3:1)

Paul inquired, "Who had bewitched the believers to draw them away from the truth." Effects upon them were not just the effects of wrong mental impressions conveyed by false teachers but were the effects of evils spirits imposing false doctrine through false teachers, (Gal. 3:1.)

References do not suggest that believers enjoy an easy exemption from the activities of devils but are particularly targeted by them. In (1Tim. 4:1 and 2) - how wicked spirits attack the spiritual believer by deception beguile him away from the faith through the use of false prophets.

"Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils." Most believers have adopted the fallacious idea that if they ignore Satan, he will ignore them. Scripturally, such a position is indefensible," (I Pet. 5:8,9; Jam. 4:7; 2 Cor. 2:11).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron," (I Tim. 4:1).

In searching for answers to their problems today, Satan has devised many heresies and he has opened many old religious pathways. These heresies and old religious pathways are converging into The New Age Movement and many Christian ministries talk about a revolutionary shift of concepts. The Neo-Pentecostal preachers claim new, direct revelations from God which free them from the chains of tired old doctrines. A paradigm shift is a distinctly new way of thinking about old problems . . . The problem is, you cannot accept the new paradigm unless you abandon the old.

APOSTASY

According to the Scriptures, heresy regarding the Son of God is any doctrine or teaching which does not remain true to the doctrine of Christ as set forth in the Word of God. There is truly an increase of Satanic activity presently in the world that is hastening it to the edge of the tribulation period foretold in the Word of God. This throws light upon the present time in a remarkable way. How rapid has been the spread of apostasy of the professing Christian Church?!

"Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variances, emulations, wrath, strife, sedition, heresies" (Gal. 5:19).

Through the book of Leviticus God institutes a difference between the clean and the unclean, God has a distinctive purpose for this difference. One is the primary reason is that in the world there are two forces or two spirits. There are two battle lines, and two persons who are deadly enemies. The two are God and Satan, and all the forces have one goal. That mission is to reach the souls of men with their message. The outcome of the battle will save or damn that soul eternally. Therefore, so that the message of salvation will be a clear signal, God wants a difference between His people and the people of the world.

The absence of a difference in many circumstances it is one of the greatest cause of confusion in the world and there are those who should be the benefactors of the Gospel seem more confused by the lack of difference than if they had never heard the message. The prophet Ezekiel lamented this point in (chapter 22:26), and then later, in (chapter 44, verse 23), Ezekiel said, "men should be taught the difference." As surely as there is a difference between light and darkness and righteousness and unrighteousness, there is a difference between the Christian and the unsaved person. In (I Pet. 2:9), we see that the people of God are a special people in comparison to the people of the world. God's people are a chosen people, made royal and holy and called out, of the worldly atmosphere of ungodliness.

Spiritual security comes by carefully watching where you go. If you find yourself in the wrong place, then respond by using your spiritual weapons for divine protection. You must bind the devils according (Matt. 18:18) and place yourself under Jesus' blood. This is the reason that a person has to choose the places they may go and their friendships very carefully. When choosing spiritual fellowship, it is important to seek the approval of the Holy Spirit. It is also very necessary to seek a biblically based church that is teaching the truth of God's Word. Bible believing churches will encourage spiritual growth and sanctification. These types of churches will emphasize building Christian character and bringing a person into a relationship with Jesus. Jesus must be the central issue of the Gospel. Many will teach about "God" not featuring Jesus. He must be revealed as the Lord of Lords as the only pathway back to God!

SPELLBINDING SPIRITS

Astoundingly, even Vice President Albert Gore in his book, Earth in the Balance; Ecology and the Human Spirit, reveals himself as a person who believes we should have a "mother goddess," (his words) that we can worship The VP point back to ancient religions and Hinduism and says that they have something good in their worship of "mother earth," and he claims that our modern slogan should be "the worship of mother earth," that man and natures are one, and that God is part of nature, and nature is a part of God. 96

Gore goes as far to show his Antichrist bias to depict Christians as, "Ignorant Christians who are afraid to open their minds to teachings first offered outside their own system of belief." The VP continues, "By refusing to accept that the earth is our sacred mother, Christians have become a dangerous threat to the survival of humanity . . . " Christians are, according to Mr. Gore, " . . . blights on the environment." He continues, "To believe in Bible prophesy is unforgivable, not only is this idea heretical, it is an appallingly, self-fulfilling prophesies of doom."

Shocking? Especially coming from a man who claims membership in the Southern Baptist Church! Also shocking, since he recently made a run for President of the United States!

TESTING THE SPIRITS

Is it unloving to "test the spirits?" Is it judging to discern ministers' doctrines? It is imperative that Christians know exactly what they believe and why they believe it. Indeed, Satan's greatest objective is to deceive, as Jesus warned, even the elect, (Matt. 24:24). In the Second Epistle of Peter, we read: ". . . There were also false prophets among the people, just as there will be false teachers among you. They will secretly introduce destructive heresies, even denying the sovereign Lord who bought them bring swift destruction on themselves. Many will follow their shameful ways and will bring the way of truth into disrepute. In their greed these teachers will exploit you with stories they have made up. Their condemnation has long been hanging over them, and their destruction has not been sleeping . . . " (II Peter 1:3).

The Word of God explicitly warns that just prior to the return of Jesus Christ, great apostasy, or "falling away" from the true Gospel, will occur on an unprecedented scale with the Christian Church. Jesus also prophesied that many false prophets, such as those that plagued the Israelite nation would arise, men commissioned by Satan himself to seduce the unwary into the worship of false gods. These deceivers, as we have already seen, will not only look like true believers, but even the message they bring will superficially sound like that of the Bible. And yet, as the Apostle Paul stated so clearly in (II Cor. 11:4*), theirs is a "different Jesus . . . a different gospel . . . and a different spirit."*

Thank God for the many Christians that took time to discern the truth from error concerning Jehovah Witness, Mormonism, Christian Scientist and the multitudes of so-called Christian cults. Millions of souls have been rescued due these Christians' research into the beliefs and lack of true biblical doctrines. However, today, heresies are running ramped because popular ministries are propagating unbiblical messages that surely damn souls to hell. These sermons are devoid of Jesus Christ's Deity, His blood sacrifice for the sins of the world, His victorious resurrection to His seat of power and most other mainline Christian tenants.

The results, many ministries are very rich financially, but extremely spiritually poverty-stricken. Many people, don't know what they believe nor do they know why they believe anything. We have many teachers who have need of being taught.

The Church is being taught to be self-centered and materialistic. Whoever gains the most finances are the ones who are being "blessed" by God. Is it any wonder that the Gospel of Self-esteem is being preached devoid Jesus Christ as its central communication?

Chapter Fourteen

Forbidden by God

CAN CHRISTIANS HAVE A DEVILS?

No one can dabble in the occult and walk away unshackled. It is not really fun and games. Occult involvement is forbidden by God. When they ignore God's Word, they will pay a price.

Once the Author ministered to a pastor who was a pastor of a very large church; He considered himself a Christian. A group of people within his church was following spirit guides to contact the dead. The pastor was drawn into these occult practices.

Eventually, he lost his mind and was placed into an insane institution. The doctors put him on heavy psychological drugs. He lost his wife and friends. His life was being destroyed by devils. Someone brought him to me for deliverance. At the time he was doing odd jobs. Demons were actually speaking through this man's lips. When I laid my hands upon him, he became extremely agitated. His eyes became glazed. He spoke in an extremely religious voice, "I am God the father, god the son and god the holy spirit I hate your guts." After I prayed, his renouncing, his occult activity, and commanding prayer authority in the name of Jesus, he was released by the power of God.

ENTRY POINTS FOR DEMONIZATION

If occult involvement invites demonic invasions, or at least makes is far more likely, it makes great sense to avoid, as one would avoid the plague, such involvement. What sort of activities should be voided? Or put it another way, what is the passageway which spirits from the dark world utilize to move into human lives? What kind of activities and practices create doorways for demonization?

MIND-ALTERING DRUGS ---

John the apostle writes of a group of people whom he foresees as experiencing the awesome judgments of God. However, rather than changing their lifestyles, they are described as not repenting of "of their murders, their magic arts, their sexual immorality or their thefts. Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts," (Rev. 9:21). The word "sorcery" is very significant. It comes from Greek pharmakeia which is the word from which we get our English word "pharmacy," or drugstore. It means a drug-related kind of occult worship or black magic.

SATANIC MUSIC

Increasingly over the years, many rock musicians have, both in their music and their proclamations, shown themselves to be openly satanic. Music is unquestionably, is a major potential entry path for demonization.

SATANIC GAMES AND TOYS

An avalanche of such toys and games has descended upon the shelves of stores today. There are the old standbys such as Ouija boards, tarot cards, Dungeons and Dragons, etc. Added to these video games, computer games, are with a high percentage of which has occult and even demonic overtones. These games are addictive. Then there are the numerous truly bizarre figures and toys, ranging from the trolls to grotesque, completely unnatural creations. These occult toys are doorways to witchcraft.

SEANCES AND ASTROLOGY — These “parlor games” are not harmless. They are powerful doorways to demonization. These practices deliberately open invitation to spirit beings to manifest themselves. Astrology is seeking personal guidance by applying the use of horoscopes.

OCCULT BOOKS, MAGAZINES AND COMICS — Included in this group the reader finds “sacred scriptures” of Eastern religions, such as The Tibetan Book of the Dead, The Bhagavid-Gita, Three Ways of Asian Wisdom and Hinduism, etc.

MOVIES, TV, VIDEOS AND THE INTERNET— Rosemarie’s Baby, The Amityville Horror and The Exorcist were some of the early movies produced that focused on demonization and the paranormal. A flood of TV programs, movies and video, etc., which pleasantly present the occult, the spirit world and the New Age as harmless entertainment. These are avenues of overt Satanism, witchcraft or New Age/Eastern religions.

Researcher McCandlish Phillips is most instructive: Canada and the United States are filling up with . . . new gods . . . coming in from the East as fast as Satan can import them . . . The satanic forces of darkness are not deployed uniformly among the nations, and demonic activity is by no means equal in all areas of the world. Some nations are under far heavier demonic occupation than others, and in those areas the activity of evil spirits is far mor pronounced. There are places in which Satan and his demons have had great influence, precisely because of the extend of idolatry, false religion and occultism in those places . . . The rising indulgence in idolatry, false Eastern religions, occultism, spiritualism and immorality gives Satan the occasion he needs too loose more and more demons upon our population.

Any involvement with witchcraft (whether it is called “white” or “black,” Satanism or Eastern religions, in which demonization invariably plays, a role, opens one to the possibility of demonic attack or demon possession. 97

Chapter Fiveteen

Casting Out Devils

A very important gift in the Christian Church is the ability to discern and cast out evil spirits when they are operating within the Church. We are not supposed to cast out the people, only the evil spirits! The American church must seek God for the gift of discerning of spirits both, good and bad. It is vital to the church because The Word of God says, “for many have crept in unawares,” (Jude 4). Jesus told us that “You shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free,” (Jn. 8:37). Then He explained, “If therefore the Son shall make you free, you shall be free indeed,” (Jn. 8:36).

The essence of the Christian ministry is personal service. The earliest ministry of the church was that of the Apostles. As the meaning of the word “apostle” indicates, they were men “sent out” The Bible never told us to cease their beginnings.” Jesus was a devil-driving Minister. Jesus set the people free and we must do the same. Casting out demons is a very specialized ministry which, when properly understood, involves unusual qualities of faith, prayer and fasting (Matt. 17:19-20). If we do our part, God will perform His Word.

A prophecy is an incentive to holy living and service to God. We read in (1 Jn. 3:2-3), "Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is. And every man that hath this hope (of Christ's coming) in him purifieth himself, even as He is pure."

The blessed hope for every believer is a call to godliness and holy living.

SIGNS AND WONDERS

The Lord said signs and wonders should follow them that believe. He gave an example of these signs when He said in (Mk. 16:17), “They shall cast out devils.” What happens when you deny the Word? It is most important that we have, in the Body of Christ, the power to discern evil spirits. The Word of God says, “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness . . . ” (Eph. 6:12).

SEDUCTION THROUGH HERESY

Behind problems of the world and every evil which manifest is a hierarchy of evil spirits that are motivated by Satan and his demonic servants. The Apostle Paul teaches about an organized kingdom of principalities and powers that control hierarchy of evil spirits. They rule at various levels of authority, as rulers of this present darkness. These are spirits in high places. Unfortunately Christians are not totally immune to the influences of these powers. Victory comes through Jesus Christ, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4:7).

DEMONS AND EVIL SPIRITS

The rise of witchcraft and Satanism can be closely associated with the outpouring of demons upon the earth. Also it can be placed at the feet of the multitude of humans who have strayed away from God. Many in the Church of Jesus Christ have been blinded to the reality that there is a spiritual warfare between good and evil. The Body of Christ has not responded to the Lord's instructions concerning "casting out devils."

Clearly the Word of God states that in the last days before the return of the Lord Jesus Christ sorcery, spiritism, and various lying wonders of demonism shall prevail. (I Thess. 2:9-10) says, "Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved." While this will come to its true climax in the Tribulation period, nevertheless, such manifestations of Satan's working will be prevalent in the last days. This is what we find today. The Devil works as an angel of light in resenting his powers and signs and lying wonders. Magazines and books are already in the increase dealing with psychology, theosophy, fortune telling and foretelling, and all such crooked thinking results in unrighteous living. The main idea behind the angels is that they were here to serve or destroy humans. The holy angels are the messengers of their Creator, while the fallen angels are the messengers of Satan who is "the god of this world," (II Cor. 4:4). (Heb. 1:14) tells us of the good angels who minister to man's well-being, while (Eph. 6:12), shows that the evil spirits who war against that in man which is wrought of God.

The Bible clearly exposes angels that dwell in the heavenly spheres. They appear in numbers beyond our count. These powers are gathered in groups which are identified as "thrones," "dominions," "principalities," "powers," "authorities," and "heavenly host" (Col. 1:16); (I Pet. 3:22); (Lk. 2: 13). Yet, the Bible unmasks the truth that all these authorities are wholly subject to the Lord Jesus Christ. He created the universe and all it contains, including the angelic beings. He created "things . . . visible and invisible," (Col. 1: 16). Peter says that "these beings are subject to Christ," (I Pet. 3:22). Jude verse 6 discloses the fact that angels have their own dwelling places. They had an estate given to them.

This host of Satan in the Bible is called 'devils' but the word also suggests 'demons'. Demon possession means that the demons enter the body and exercise control over it. Demon influence is set forth as warfare from without (Eph. 6) which is carried on by temptation and influence.

INVISIBLE BUT PERCEPTIBLE

These demons of Satan are bodiless spirits. Notice (Mk. 5:12*), "And all the devils* (demons) besought Him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them." (Read also Matt. 12:43-45). "As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a dumb man possessed with a devil. And when the devil (demon) was cast out, the dumb spake . . ." (Matt. 9:32, 33); Read also (Acts 8:6-7; 16: 16); (Mk. 5: 1-13).

The Bible also instructs that these demons are wicked and unclean. Let us read (Matt. 8:28), "And when He was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way." (Mk. 9:20), "And they brought him unto Him: and when he saw Him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming." Read also (Matt. 10:1); (Mk. 5:2-5).

Jesus taught that these spirits have various spiritual degrees of wickedness. In (Matt. 12:43-45*), He says that the demon will return to his house,. . taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself."* Now the question comes before us, "Is demon possession possible in our age?" Many missionaries in so-called pagan countries will answer to this question in the affirmative. American ministers are beginning to acknowledge the factuality of demon possessions.

The Word of God confirms that demons can appear as "angels of light" the same as Satan. Christians must have God's Holy Spirit to give us discernment. (II Cor. 11:14-15), "And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works."

The target of Satan and his demons is to hinder God's purpose for this age. Satan’s intention is to extend his authority to his own kingdom on the earth. His demons are instructed to carry on a definite warfare against all believers according to (Eph. 6).

One technique of the demons is to present a form of godliness but to deny the power thereof. And the multitudes that are withdrawing from the biblically based faith in God, is the best evidence that we have today of the influence of demons. The Bible describes this departure in the following Scriptures. "Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron," (I Tim. 4: 1, 2).

These seducing spirits promote the doctrines of demons. These evil spirits are active in seeking to turn men and women away from the faith. They are in rebellion against God and seek to hinder God and His truth.

DISPOSITION OF THE ENEMY

The ultimate destination of demon spirits is destruction (Great White Throne, (Rev. 21:11-15); (Matt. 15:41).

We have, in conflict with the enemy called in angels to wreak havoc on the enemy with their swords, (Psa. 18:37-42). Transference speaks of pursuit of the enemy until he is consumed or destroyed. The root word used in Hebrew (Strong’s #3615) means to utterly destroy, consume away, make a clean riddance and quite take away. At the end of the verses it is stated, “beat them fine as dust before the wind; I emptied (cast — KJV) them out as the mire of the streets,” NAS). These passages seem to indicate that they can be crushed into virtual nonexistence until the final judgment of God.

In verse 41, “They cried for help, but these was none to save, even to the Lord, but He did not answer them.” Perhaps this indicates they can no longer complain to God that they have a legal right to be where they are. Verse 40 states, “That I might destroy them that hate me.” Again the word for destroys (Strong’s #6789) means t consume, cut off, destroy, vanish.

When the children of Israel were sent into the land they were commanded to “devote” certain things to Him, literally to destroy them, (Deut. 13:15, 17); (Num. 18:14); in Deuteronomy, God says that if idolatry is proven in another town, its inhabitants must be put to the sword. Since the worship of idols is nothing more than the worship of demons, the order to "destroy it (the town) completely" (NIV and KJV) has a reference to spiritual forces as well. The Hebrew word her (Strong's #2754) means to make accursed, utterly destroy, etc. (Deut. 13:17), there is a stern warning against holding onto these "devoted" things (Num. 18:14). 98

Perhaps using the Hebrew word "Charam" on the demons could be effective because it means to hand over to the Lord often by utter destruction. See Strong's 3089) translated destroy or "dissolve."

Deliverance workers experiences have, in recent years, have indicated that we can have wide latitude of what to do with the foe once he is vanquished and broken. they fear the abyss, which is described as full of screaming, tormented beings who all and fall with no help possible, filled with horrible loneliness. The pit and Tartarus are also destinations which fill the enemy with fear and dread; our advice to workers to just listen to what the Lord says and do this to the enemy. 99

"Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me. Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple. The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me forever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God," (Jonah 2:1-6).

The Bible says that there was a day when the sons of God came before the Lord and Satan came with them. In the discussion that followed between the Lord and Satan, the Lord said, "Have you considered My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth, a blameless and upright man? Satan then accursed the Lord of putting a hedge about Job and all that he owned. "But put forth thy hand now and touch all that he has; he will surely curse thee to thy face," Satan said.

The Lord answered, "Behold, all that he has is in your power, only do not put forth your hand on him," (Job 1:12).

Job testimony reveals how a supernatural being works. He never comes out on front stage and says, "Here I am, folks; watch me do my act." He always works in accordance with natural laws or through individuals:

First, Sabeans attacked and took Job's animals, (vs. 15).
Second, fire burned up the sheep and the servants (vs. 16).
Third, Chaldeans raided the camels and killed the servants, (vs. 17).
Fourth, a great wind blew the house down, (vs. 19).
Fifth, boils covered Job's body (vs. 2:7).

While some may attribute these incidents to mere natural phenomena, it is plain that all of these "physical" and "natural" disturbances were done by a supernatural being) Satan.100

"And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power." In the fifth trumpet God loosens demon scorpion horses to string men for six months; these horses come up out of the bottomless pit under the sea," (Rev. 9:1-11).

Chapter Sixteen

You Can Be Free

SETTING PRISONERS FREE

Now has come the time for setting the prisoner free. It is glorious to know the power and authority given to us to do this. We must remember that we do not ask God to resist the devil, or too loose the captive; God has told us to do this, and has given us the authority to do it in the name of His Son Jesus. This is not a prayer to God, but a command to Satan to flee or to give up the captive he has bound.

Jesus said, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10). We can see two personalities in this Scripture, activity working in the affairs of human beings. A tremendous transference of spirits has occurred in the last thirty years due to people becoming blinded to spiritual realities.

The Bible says we can bind and loose spirits in the Name of Jesus. From the scriptures we can be sure our anointing is backed up by Jesus and the Word. In Acts 8 shows Simon the sorcerer or magician. His occult powers were so great that the entire city of Samaria was under his control. From the least to the greatest all believed he was a true servant of God because he had bewitched them with sorcery. Philip had a tremendous deliverance ministry in Samaria because where witchcraft is practiced or tolerated there will be widespread demonic activity.

THE CHRISTIAN'S POWER OF ATTORNEY

Jesus did not leave His Church powerless. He gave us authority in (Lk. 10:19). This authority covers all the power of the can hurt a Christian unless the believer simply receives defeat! It is essential to believe the gospel and everything it teaches to enable believers to achieve victory.

(II Tim. 3:14-15*), "But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus."*

The Word assures enough power to win!

"That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. 13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. 15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, 16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; 17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: 18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, 19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, 20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: 22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, 23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all," (Eph. 1:12-2:1).

These Scriptures reveal Jesus Christ and His majesty, sitting in heavenly places ruling and reining the universe. But it shows more than that. We see our Lord God giving his authority and power to those who believe and receive His power. Remember His power is above all power and He freely shares His power to those who believe! He reveals Himself here as activity involved with His people making everything they need to be victorious. He is in a partnership with the people in His Church and we can make a difference when we believe and know these truths.

For true deliverance, the victim of witchcraft and Satanism must repent and renounce all sin and wrong that they have done and change their lifestyles (go and sin no more). It is an absolute requirement, see (Acts 26:18); (II Cor. 6:17).

Look at Ephesians chapter two. (Eph. 2:1-7), "And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; 2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: 3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. 4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) 6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus . . . "

Then the person must learn to walk in obedience to God and His Word. Obedience to the gospel brings supernatural power according to (Lk. 11:13; 24:49); (Acts 1:4-15; 2:28:39; 5:32). After these steps to spiritual freedom, the victim must be taught their authority through using the Name of Jesus and the cover of His blood in accordance with the Word of God as shown in (Acts 3:16; 4:12); (Jn. 14:12-15; 16:23-26); (Col. 3:17); (Jn. 15:7-16; 13:25). The person must surrender to God and His authority, His Church authority, and walk in the Spirit, (Rom. 8:1-2; 8:10, 13-16); (Gal. 5:16-26); (Col. 3:17).

If a person is being delivered by a deliverance minister, they must submit to the minister until they are free. They should continue to submit to that minister until they learn how to protect themselves from the "wiles of the devil." After deliverance, the occult victim is helpless. The devils know this and will try to confuse them and return. The victims must have the fellowship, compassion and prayers of the Church!

GUIDELINES FOR DELIVERANCE

The Word of God says in (Eph. 6;12), "For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the dankness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places," and coupled with, "My people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge," (Hos. 4:6).

Deliverance minister, Rev. A. Rex Shanks of Crown of Life Ministries, Inc., writes: every evil spirit has their assigned position. To recognize this level of attack, we must see and know their position and their influence over people's lives. Principalities are evil forces and have dominions over nations and government. Their position is to influence the government's economy, ie., trade, the military, etc. We must discern the lever of attack over people's lives. Just as the natural army knows skillfully to use its weapons so they can strike by night, we must be skilled in the use of the sword of the spirit (the Word of God) and know what spirits of devils are operating over nations, countries, cities, and individual lives. Just as there are rank and file in the natural army, so there are also rank and file in the spiritual realm. [68]

The high-ranking spirits are very smart and they watch and report what you say, ranking spirits are very smart and they watch and report what you say, where you go, and what you do. There are also demons of lower rank. They are dumb spirits and they can only bother us if we allow them to do so. Just as the natural military does, they go back with their information to their generals and plan a strategy against you. Remember the devil is not omnipresent, so he has many spirits working to carry out his evil plans and wicked assignments against working to carry out his evil plans and wicked assignments against your life. When you do not recognize the attack, your very life can eventually be destroyed, for this is Satan's plan for you, "the thief cometh not for but to kill, steal and destroy," (Jn. 10:10).103

SIGNS OF SPIRITUAL ATTACK

One of the most common is that our spiritual hunger for the things of God is sucked out of us. We begin to lose the hunger for God's Word. We do not have a desire to pray or be with God's people in the house of the Lord to hear His Word goes forth through his anointed servants, i.e., pastors and teachers. (Matt. 5:6), "Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled."

When your desire leaves, it is time to read, pray and seek after God, for you are giving place to the enemy. People who are under an alcoholic spirit have an overwhelming taste for the alcohol and keep on drinking. When under an attack, you must make yourself hungry for the Word of God, i.e., bringing your flesh under submission to the Word of God and to the Holy Spirit.

According to (Eph. 6:10), "Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might." We fall prey to the devil mentally. (II Cor. 10:5*), "Casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ."* And then, "physically: (Psa. 103:3), and emotionally: (Isa. 53:5), "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities : the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed."

CONDITIONS FOR DELIVERANCE

A number of conditions must be met by an individual if prayer is to bring permanent deliverance from demon bondage. The victim must be completely honest with God, self and the minister. They must show humility, which means to trust Jesus. It is important that they confess all sin and contact with evil spirits and forgiveness of all person and complete surrender to the Lordship of Jesus Christ in every area of the individual's life.

The individual that is in need of deliverance can follow a methodical plan of freedom by doing the following:

Verbal confession of faith in Jesus Christ
Verbal confession of the sins of word, mind, body or occult involvement which gave Satan legal access to his/her life
Break Satan's legal right to his/her life by renouncing each sin and its effect upon the person's life as a lie of the devil.

(II Cor. 4:2) and claiming the truth from God's word concerning the situation. For "Fear" and claim (II Tim. 1:7). "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind."

Command the demons to go in the name of Jesus!

SEVERE OPPRESSION

When oppression is severe, it is advisable to have several present to come against these powers of darkness. Prayer for deliverance should be made only by born again Spirit filled believers. In (Acts 19:13-16), the unbelieving seven sons of Sceva experimented and met with disastrous results. "Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. 14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. 15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye? 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded," (Acts 19: 13-16).

A practical and necessary style of casting out devils you must learn to use the blood of Jesus in the presence of demons. Plead the blood of Jesus over all the people that are present, sing choruses about blood of Jesus. This spiritual practice is for preparation and protection for the deliverance, as we to stop the demons from attacking all present. There is nothing like a freshly applied blood line. Believers have nothing to fear because demons cannot come through the blood.

Demonic manifestations may occur when you begin to press them through the name of Jesus and the power of his blood. (Lk. 10:19-20), "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven."

During the deliverance session, the demons may speak to you, writhing, yelling, great yawns, tears, spitting up foam or blood. Incredible isn't it? Tell the victim not to suppress these manifestations because only demons leaving the body. If the individual suppresses these exhibitions of demons leaving, they may stop the process of their deliverance.

Demon spirits are supernatural beings with wicked intelligence that seek a body in which to express themselves. They are Satan's angels, (Rev. 12:9). When they leave the person, evil afflictions leave such as, addictions, perversion, cancer, apparitions go!

After deliverance, freedom can be sustained by the person totally committing to Jesus Christ. Everyone that has been through deliverance, must also submit to a strong, Bible-believing church. It is best to surrender to a church that understands the ministry of deliverance. A newly delivered person must be carefully taught Biblical defensive tactics such as, the power of the name of Jesus, the blood, the Word. Freedom is possible and permanently healed when the person learns Who Jesus is.

Our Lord Himself gave a very solemn warning when He said in Matthew's Gospel (Matt.12:43-45*), "When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man he findeth it empty Waketh with him seven spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell here: and the last state of that man is worse than the first."* Jesus is teaching that when person is born again and delivered from an unclean spirit that it will try to return. The Lord said that the man was empty. He had not done his part of being filled with he wonderful possessions of God.

You must be born again, filled with the Holy Spirit and the Word of God. You should be attending church, reading the Word of God and commit to Jesus. You simply cannot return to your old lifestyles. Be careful what you allow your mind to think, your eyes to see, your ears to hear, your mouth to speak and our body to do. It is no sin to have an evil thought or to hear an evil word. However, he sin comes if we choose to dwell upon it or obey it rather than take the 'way of escape' by resisting Satan with the Word of God.

Break your silence often, praising God, singing hymns, quoting scriptures and praying in tongues. You may have to do this dozens of times a day until Satan sees you mean business. It is important to pray in tongues as God's word tells us in (I Cor. 14:4), these 'edifices' us, or builds us up in the Lord. (Jude 20) says "praying in Holy Ghost builds up our faith!" This is praying in the perfect will of God for you, (Rom. 8:26-27). Memorize the (23rd Psa.) and repeat it often aloud. "Resist the devil and he will flee from you," (James 4:7*). "And they overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the lamb and by the word of their testimony,"* (Rev. 12:11).104

WARNING TO FORMER WITCHES AND SATANIST

Author Ruth Brown advises in her book Destroying the Works of Witchcraft through Fasting & Prayer an important principle. Jesus said that we are to not only do the same works that He did, but also greater works. We know that He defeated the enemy at Calvary; however, evil works are still occurring in our land. Jesus gave us the power to walk and tread upon serpents, and also to destroy the works of our enemy. Churches should not have to be defeated by evil works, neither should individual Christians. The finances of the body of Christ should also not be in a state of defeat; Remember, we have already worn through Christ Jesus!

She goes on to warn, "Many witches and warlocks have come to the Lord Jesus without getting grounded in the deeper things of God and been placed in positions of leadership in the church. The Word of God says, "he that has a ministry, let him wait upon it," (Rom. 12:7).

Rev. Brown counsels us to wait on the Lord before going into the ministry. "You have to be made and molded for your ministry. You also have to be tested and tried, and go through the fire. So I would caution pastors to wait upon the Lord and to really seek God before ordaining people and putting them into responsible positions shortly after getting saved. Many souls have been destroyed because they were advanced too quickly. "Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride, he falls into the condemnation of the devils," (I Tim. 3: 6).105

"And when they shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God; For the Living to the dead," (I Sam. 8: 19)?"

GOVI VOODOO DEMON

Govi is the jarred souls of parents or grandparents in clay pots.

No one can dabble in the occult and come away unshackled. It is not harmless games and fun. Occult involvement whether done innocently or not, is disobedience to God's Word. When people ignore God's warning and enter a forbidden realm, they witness spiritual phenomenons. The Devil does have supernatural power. However, everything he does for people, he requires payment. The result of occult involvement causes oppression, depression, confusion, delusion, and physical ailments of all sorts. We are warned not to be ignorant of Satan's devices in (II Cor. 2:11).

The Author ministered to a young man I'll call Danny about 19 years old. He had simply gone to a movie called "The Serpent and The Rainbow." This was a Voodoo movie. Danny was not a believer. However, when he came out of the movie house, he was spiritually entrapped by the powers of darkness. He said that it was as if someone had stolen his soul. The experience also had an influence on his emotions. He was so devastated that this family placed him under psychiatric care. Danny saw some people standing in front of a church. He pulled his car over and began to talk to them. They instructed him in the doctrine of salvation and he got saved. It was months after, he came to me. He was still in a state of confusion and needed further ministry. He was totally demon possessed and needed deliverance.

This man was one of the fortunate ones. He is free today and functioning normally.

Many pastors will read this and just excuse this true testimony as false because they will reason that "a Christian can't have a demon." However, if you will read your Bible, you'll see that Jesus always drove the evil spirits out before the person could follow Him, and He gave His followers the power to do the same! (Matt. 10:8) (Lk. 9:1) The disciples did the same thing! The millions who have now been infected by the spiritual Aids can be free if the Church will obey the Lord and cast them out!

"The Spirit of the Lord Jehovah is upon me; because Jehovah hath anointed me to preach good tiding unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; to proclaim the year of Jehovah's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn; to appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of Jehovah, that he may be glorified!" (Isa. 61: 1-3)

The truth is, neither the Christian or the unbeliever can safely cross over the forbidden line and remain free.

"The Serpent and the Rainbow" was inspired by a book by Wade Davis, a Harvard scientist who investigated the voodoo society of Haiti and identified two of the drugs used for "zombification" - drugs that lower the metabolic rate of their victims so much that they appear dead, and are buried, only to be dug up later and revived.[69]

Resurrected zombies apparently appear somewhat lobotomized, a not unreasonable result of being turned into the living dead and buried alive. Although Davis did not become a zombie - at least not more so than any other doctoral candidate - his adventures inspired this thriller in which a Harvard researcher, played by Bill Pullman, ventures into the heart of voodoo and witnesses strange and gruesome realities.

In the movie, Pullman plays a cross between William Hurt and Indiana Jones. He's a tall, good-looking, sensitive intellectual who is called upon to wrestle leopards, battle corpses, confront an evil voodoo leader and eventually be buried alive along with a deadly spider that makes itself cozy on his paralyzed eyeball.

Pullman's mission in going to Haiti is to isolate the active ingredient in secret voodoo powder, so that it can perhaps be used as an anesthetic. His contact in Haiti is the beautiful Marielle Celine, played by Cathy Tyson in her first role since "Mona Lisa." She runs a people's clinic, as the sexy heroines in these movies always do. Other local experts include Paul Winfield, as a well-connected local leader, and Brent Jennings, as a man named Mozart who knows all of the secrets in the secret ingredients.

In most voodoo movies, voodoo itself is taken only as a backdrop, a gimmick. This movie seems to know something about voodoo (it knows more than I do, anyway), and treats it seriously as a religion, a way of life, and an occult circle that does possess secrets unexplored by modern medicine. One of the most convincing elements in the movie is the way the more "modern" Haitians nevertheless regard voodoo as something not to be taken lightly.

As Pullman slowly enters the voodoo society, penetrating first one level of concealment and then another, we get the sensation - unusual in a horror film - that his discoveries are genuine. The movie was shot on location in Haiti and the Dominican Republic, and unlike most voodoo movies it attempts to look and sound realistic - even including TV clips of the overthrow and flight of the dictator "Baby Doc" Duvalier.

The visual look of the movie is stunning. There's never the sense of sets, of costumes, of hired extras, but more of a feeling of a camera moving past real people in real places. Even the obviously contrived scenes, including some of the hallucinations and voodoo fantasies, have an air of solid plausibility to them.[70]

A serpent:

"And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him," (Rev. 12:9).

"And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years…" (Rev. 20:2).

Chapter Seventeen

Occult Bondage

HOW TO RECOGNIZE OCCULT OPPRESSION

Some manifestations can suggest occult bondage by occult demon spirits. However, causation must be used for some of these symptoms may originate from other causes.

> Mental confusion, extended periods of gloominess, depression, unpredictable behavior, stealing, sexual lust, perversions, appetites, temper tantrums, uncontrollable hatred or suspicion, jealousy resentment, delusions, compulsive lying, gambling, obsessive thoughts of self-destruction, Blasphemous thoughts against the blood of Christ, God or Kundalini spirit, speech and behavior abnormalities, religious delusion, seeing apparitions, hearing spiritual voices, chronic physical ailments that do not respond to medical treatment and fear of dying.

LIBERATION

Liberation can come only through Confession of Faith, Jesus Christ. Jesus is the only deliverer from the powers of darkness. Confession of Occult involvement and repentance (Godly sorrow) and a merciful God will not abandon His children to Satan. Confession means to agree with God and the Sin. Renounce Satan and command him to depart! It is imperative when a blood pact or agreement has been made with the powers of darkness to renounce all agreements.

You have invited Satan in by occult activity and you must boot him out! It is best that you ask the Lord to lead to a Christian to pray with you. Satan may well have pretended to be a gentleman when he entered, but you will have to kick him out like a trespasser to get him to leave. He leaves by direct command to Satan himself to depart in the Name of Jesus (not a prayer or request, but a command).

You must be firm and choose too forever to take back the place that you once gave to him! Associate yourself with Christians who will pray for you and stand with you. Fill yourself with the things of God and you will stay free.

Never go back! Because if you do, you'll be seven times worse!

HOW TO BE BORN AGAIN

“Ye must be born again." (Jn. 3:7).

Unless you are born again, you have no hope of enjoying the glories of heaven or escaping the terrors of Hell. "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God," (Jn. 3:3).

Salvation is a free gift of God granted to lost and undeserving men who trust in the righteousness of Christ and humble themselves in submission to his will.

Accept God's Word that He loves you and wants to give you an abundant life.

“For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life," (Jn. 3:16).

"I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10).

REGENERATION

Regeneration is a subject which lies at the very basis of salvation, and we should be very diligent to take heed that we really are "born again," for there are many who fancy they are, who are not. Be assured that the name of a Christian is not the nature of a Christian. Also that being born in a Christian land, and being recognized as professing the Christian religion is of no avail whatever, unless there is something more added to it--the being "born again," is a matter so mysterious, that human words cannot describe it.

“The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, we speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God," (Jn. 3:8-21)

HOW TO BE SAVED

The most important questions of life concerns your well-being or your sorrow throughout eternity depends upon your answer to the questions: Are you saved? Are you sure you will go to heaven when you die? This matter has nothing to do with how good you are, but are you saved?

No one can enjoy the blessings of God or go to Heaven without being saved. Jesus said, to Nicodemus in (Jn. 3:7*). Ye must be born again."* God gives us in His Word the only plan for Salvation! You can be saved today.

First, you must realize that you are a sinner. "There is none righteous no not one: for there is no difference. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God…" (Rom. 3:10:22, 23).

There is no chance to be saved unless you come to realize that you are a sinner. Pray for God is eager to save you.

"Sin bringeth forth death," (Jam. 1:15). This is spiritual death, separation from God forever and spending your eternal life in Hell. How terrible! Yes, my friend, but it is true. However, God loved you so much that he gave his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, as your substitute, who bore your sins and died in your place. "He hath made Him (Jesus) to be sin for us who knew sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him," (II Cor. 5:21).

Jesus said, "For whosoever, that includes you, shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (shall be, not might or can but shall be saved," (Rom. 10:12).

Jesus Christ died for you! "Who His own self bore our sins in His own body on the tree that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness by whose stripes ye were healed," (I Pet. 2:24).

SALVATION

The Philippian jailer asked the Apostle Paul and Silas, "What must I do to be saved and they said, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved and thy house," (Acts 16:31).

You simply believe on Him as the One who bore your sin, died in your place, was buried and was raised for your justification.

What is salvation? It is the act, plan, or result of deliverance or protection from danger, bondage, or sin.

Man is seen as universally in need of salvation which he is unable of himself to bring about. His lost condition may be variously described as corruption, disease, death, fall short of the glory of God, bondage to sin and its consequences, alienation from one's fellow men and from God, rebellion against God, guilt, anxiety, etc. His own unaided efforts to solve his problems through intellectual, economic, political, social, or psychological skills and techniques are doomed to futility.

Be sure you are saved. You need salvation above everything else in your life. If you lose your soul you miss Heaven and lose all. "If thou shall confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved," (Rom. 10:9).

GRACE

Do not trust your feelings. Thy change. Stand on God's promises in the Bible. They never change! "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out," (Jn. 6:37).

The supreme manifestation of God's grace, the focal point in the history of salvation, is the cross of Jesus Christ. The significance of this act is viewed under several figures of speech in the New Testament (see Atonement); whether it is spoken of as a ransom paid to redeem enslaved man, an acquittal before the divine bar of justice, or a victory over sin and death, it is clear throughout the effective powers in salvation belongs to God and not to man. Salvation is a free gift of God granted to lost and undeserving men who trust in the righteousness of Christ and humble themselves in submission to his will.

Just pray, “O Lord, I am a sinner, I am sorry, and repent for my all my sin. Have mercy on me and save me for Jesus’ sake. I ask You to forgive me and come into my heart and be my personal Savior. Help me Jesus to forsake my sin life. Please Lord Jesus, increase my faith and confidence in You.

- Now that you are saved, there are four things to practice daily for spiritual growth.

- Pray. You talk to God in Jesus Name.

- Bible. God talks to you!

- Witness. You talk for God to your family and friends.

“Whosoever, therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in Heaven,” (Matt. 10:32).

You should unite yourself with a Bible believing church and be baptized.

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY OF GOD!

PRAY – READ THE BIBLE – AND FAST

"Father be merciful to me a sinner and receive me now for Jesus Christ's sake; cleanse me from my sin by Your precious blood that was shed on the cross for me; fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Teach me to pray each day; to read Your will for my life from your word, the Bible; and help me to worship and serve You in the fellowship of your church. I thank you Lord Jesus Christ. AMEN!

Chapter Eighteen

Against Witchcraft Bondages

DELIVERANCE AND LIBERATION

CONFESSION OF FAITH IN JESUS CHRIST: Victims of occult dominion must, with all sincerity, trust Christ and confess Him as Saviour. Jesus is the only deliverer from the powers of darkness (demons). You must call upon the name of Jesus and be reconciled to God before dealing with the problem of occult involvement. You must be determine because Satan does not let people go easily. It is only through the blood of Christ and you're open and honest confession of Jesus as Saviour and Lord and that liberation will come.

CONFESSION OF ALL OCCULT INVOLVEMENT: By confessing the specific sins of occult transgression, you unmask the enemy and expose the strategy by which you were held in bondage. Confession means to agree with God about the sin.

RENOUNCE THE DEVIL AND COMMAND HIM TO DEPART: Satan has a right to enter when a pact or agreement has been concluded with the powers of darkness because you have opened the door for him. You have granted Satan access through occult involvement. All agreements must be annulled and can only be dissolved by a conscious verbal act of repudiation on the part of the one subjected. One can say, you must depart in the Name of Jesus (Not a prayer request, but a command. Make it clear once and forever that you are taking back the place, the agreement, the lease, the pact, that you gave to Satan.

TO BE LIBERATED: You must realize that deliverance is a walk as well as experience. The ground taken from Satan must be safeguarded for Jesus. After deliverance, it is necessary to walk in the will of God according to the Word of God. The riddance of all occult objects, charms and literature is indispensable to a sustained freedom. All objects are to be done away with and destroyed, (Acts 19:18,19). "Put on the whole armour of God that you may be able you stand against the wiles of the Devil." (Eph. 6:10-18). Study and stand on the Word daily. Above all, do not rely on feeling or appearance. Satan knows he is defeated and because God's Word says it . . . You believe it and that settles it!
