ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Holy Spirit is the one who cultivated my life as a well-watered garden and called others to eat succulent fruits of goodness to enhance the beauty of their own lives. You're the dearest to my soul. Thank you, Parakletos.

Next on the list is my late father, Mr. Godwin Edor. He sacrificed all to ensure that I become greater and better than him, but he died before the greatness became tangibly manifested. Your life is forever an inspiration to me. I love you, Daddy.

Mummy Blessing, thank you ma'am for not allowing me to settle for a life of mediocrity. You're the essence of a good and virtuous woman. Your lines of reasoning that delivered me from living like a mean man, will be felt throughout this book.

It's a great thing to be surrounded by excellent people. All my siblings are wonderful: Brother Henry, Angelina, Hope, Gloria, Favour, and Victor. I love you dearly, I'm ready to lead you all into greatness. Then, to my step mom, thanks so much ma'am, for raising us together and ensuring that the bond of love keeps us united.

Apostle Joshua Selman, your life theme: Jesus Revealed, Jesus Glorified; gives direction, purpose and meaning to my life. This book is a product of my ongoing tutelage under you. As a teaching priest, I will forever esteem you as a treasure from God, sent to enrich me and send me on the assignment that I was created for.

To every Emunahites, you mean a lot to me. For helping me hold unto and fulfill my divine assignment, I am really glad that God brought us together as a family. Mentioning names on this note is impossible, because we have already grown into a global family.

Bishop Oyedepo said that apart from attitude, another thing that determines one’s altitude is association. I want to mention a few of my friends that believe in me, refuse to give up on me, insist on my destiny attainment and gave their lives as the first hand specimens for the vision that the Lord has given me. Men like Eziokwu Ifeanyi, Pokubo Alex, Henry Sinclair, Adebiyi Adedapo and the host of other faithful friends turn brothers and sisters.

It's not everybody that has the gift of men as I have. I refer to this group of people as my Partners of Destiny. You give to me, in kind and in cash, just to ensure that my destiny is fulfilled; with the unrelenting purpose that your destiny has a special room for my fulfillment. Many of you even place me on a steady salary. Thanks so much ma'ams and sirs.

To the leagues of mentees that are always open to glean from the avalanche of the three dimensions of wisdom at work in my life. I acknowledge your dogged spirit of follwership. So, I will never hesitate to pay the price to see you become the leaders of great capacity that you so much aim at.

Finally to the editorial team: Precious Daramola (Liquid Fire), Delight Adelana (Delly), and Gideon Ajayi (4D Realm). For painstakingly making this happen, you'll always have a multitude of helpers to ensure that all you need in life is in place at the right time. Thanks so much.

DEDICATION

INTRODUCTION

Wealth is greater than riches. Riches primarily talks about having things in abundant, but wealth is having the mindset that makes a person productive, strategic, relational, fulfilled, succession minded, healthy and alert in his spirit.

In this book, productivity and wealth, my major aim is to help you reach a compromise on wrong believes and strengthen your right believes about wealth and help you rightly trace it to productivity.

Whatever you do consistently for 21 days becomes a habit. That is the major reason why I will be holding your hands on this journey in the next 21 days. My aim is to help you to cultivate a habit of productivity and wealth.

Approaches are not usually as casual as we used to believe that they are. A man does things in certain ways because of the default prompting that the brain gave the body. This also is a product of the set of information that the man have on that particular topic.

Again, like most of my books, this one is also broken down into daily nuggets; in a way that makes a 21-day goal of daily consistency possible. This is a resultant approach of the system of transformation that I have learnt over the years. So, I wish you a rapidly transformed mind. Goodluck!

#1 - PRODUCTIVITY AND WEALTH

Productivity and wealth are inseparable companions on the journey to success. Diligent hands, as the proverb says, make rich

Proverbs 10:4 simply stated that; "He becomes poor that deals with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent makes rich."

When you cultivate a habit of productivity, wealth naturally follows. That's the protocol, for; "The Lord will grant you abundant prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock, and the crops of your ground—in the land he swore to your ancestors to give you" (Deuteronomy 28:11).

Poverty, on the other hand, is the absence of productivity. When you fail to cultivate your resources, they lay fallow, and poverty takes root (Proverbs 24:30-34).

A paraphrased comment on Proverbs. 13:23 says: " a person is poor simply because he's lazy and has not plowed or planted his land, although the potential for his needs being met are in the land. Don't argue, just meditate on it.

The devil's strategy to make a man poor is to make him unproductive. But God's plan is to enlighten and empower you with resources that make you productive.

God teaches us how to make a profit. He gives us ideas, but it's up to us to process them into action, multiply our efforts, and progressively dominate our industry.

Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you in the way you should go." - (Isaiah 48:17)

Don't just seek ideas; stay with one that sticks, and nurture it into fruit.

Confession/Meditation: I cultivate diligent hands and a productive spirit, knowing that it is the path to wealth and prosperity.

#2 - MISSIONARY VISIONS

Don't just be visionary-minded, be missionary-minded. Transcend the realm of mere ideas to the superior realm of action and implementation.

"The kingdom of God is not just a matter of talk, but of power (ability to do work)", as found in 1 Corinthians 4:20. Ideas only transform the world when they become a running system, organization, or line of action.

God's blessings are first spiritual, but they must become flesh, productive, and tangible (John 14:12). Remember, "Faith without works is dead" (James 2:26).

There are three dimensions of lights in the life of a believer: 1. light of salvation, 2. light of transformation and 3. light of dominion. The first when you become light unto God, next unto yourself and then finally light of the world. Matthew 5:14-16

Being missionary-minded means being proactively productive. It means turning your vision into a mission, your ideas into action, and your faith into works. Your faith in God must eventually become flesh.

Results quietens oppositions. Yes, result is the end of all arguments. Live a productive life!

Confession/Meditation: I am missionary-minded, proactive, productive and purposeful person, living a life of tangible impact.

“Results quietens oppositions. Yes, result is the end of all arguments.”

#3 - DREAMS ARE RAW

I like to continue from where, I stopped yesterday. Don't just dream, wake up and work. Nothing works until you do.

Dreaming is fantastic, it's the spark of greatness, but it's raw and intangible until you put it into action (James 2:26). Strive to become a doer, not just a dreamer.

Dreams are the images of the future, but they don't come with a map. You need to find or create the path that leads to that destination and journey towards it.

Meditate on Proverbs 16:9, "A man's heart (mind) devises (dreams about) his way (destination): but the LORD directs his steps (actions)." The man is expected to walk towards it and work it out.

Mary Magdalene and other women couldn't roll the stone at Jesus' tomb, yet, they took the initiative of getting to the spot first. "In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre." - Matthew 28:1

Dreams beckon you towards your desired future, but reality happens when you journey towards it. Take action, and watch your dreams become a reality.

Confession/Meditation: I arise from deep slumber and actively strive to turn my dreams into reality.

“Dreams beckon you towards your desired future, but reality happens when you journey towards it.”

#4 - START LOCALLY, BUT KEEP AIMING AT SHINING GLOBALLY

Start locally with an eye for the whole wide world.

Productivity on a global scale matters, as it opens doors to nations that may be closed to the gospel but open to your business (Matthew 28:18-20)

"Then Jesus came close to them and said, “All the authority of the universe has been given to me. Now go in my authority and MAKE DISCIPLES OF ALL NATIONS, baptizing them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. And teach them to faithfully follow all that I have commanded you. And never forget that I am with you every day, even to the completion of this age.”

By being highly productive, you bring glory to God and make a tangible impact on the world. It provides you with the opportunity to proclaim Jesus from a higher and larger platform, that compels global attention.

Remember, "You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden" (Matthew 5:14). Let your light shine by being productive, and watch as nations take notice and acknowledge, Jesus' doctrine, wisdom and power.

As you start locally, keep your eyes on the global horizon. "Enlarge the place of your tent, stretch your tent curtains wide, do not hold back; lengthen your cords, strengthen your stakes" (Isaiah 54:2).

Be bold, be productive, and watch as your impact spreads globally. Whenever you gain influence, you have the ability to influence people's heart to worship Jesus.

Confession/Meditation: I choose to start locally with an eye for the whole wide world, and grow to the level of global relevance.

“Whenever you gain influence, you have the ability to influence people's heart to worship Jesus.”

#5 - HONOUR IS A KINGDOM KEY

Honour is your way up and staying there.

"The Lord says... for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me shall be lightly esteemed." (1 Samuel 2:30)

Never look down or dishonour people God has placed in your life. God is intentional about relationships, and so should you be (Matthew 22:37-40).

Relationships are crucial, as all good and perfect gifts come from above through men to men (James 1:17). You cannot afford to downplay you need for men (helps).

Concealed in earthen vessels are treasures (blessings) waiting to be unraveled (2 Corinthians 4:7).

Be excited about what God will reveal to you through the people around you. This level of gratitude and excitement will be your continual lifestyle, if you'll cultivate the lifestyle of seeing men as gifts.

Whoever you dishonour will soon be out of your life; only what you honour will grow unrestrictedly (Proverbs 27:10).

When God uses people to feed, accommodate, train, help, encourage, educate, guide, support, forbear and even reward you. They are people to speak highly of, not to look down upon. (Genesis 39:8-9)

When people contribute to your life, they deserve honour, not disdain (Psalm 78:70-72). Honour is a powerful kingdom key. (Romans 13:7)

By practicing honour, you create an environment for growth, support and success.

Confession/Meditation: I honour those that God has placed in my life, and cultivate a life of humility and gratitude.

“Whoever you dishonour will soon be out of your life; only what you honour will grow unrestrictedly.”

#6 - GOD'S ORIGINAL INTENT

God desires our progress and advancement in all areas of life, making us relevant in every sphere of influence, to deploy us for His purposes (Proverbs 4:18).

" ...the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day."

Embrace a life of continuous growth and development, shining brighter and brighter unto the perfect day.

Spiritual Maturity: Deepen your relationship with God, and experience spiritual transformation (2 Peter 3:18).

Personal Development: Be diligent, give yourself wholly, and trust God's plan, leading to continuous progress (1 Timothy 4:15).

Career Advancement: Strive for excellence, present yourself approved, and correctly handle your craft (2 Timothy 2:15).

Relational Growth: Nurture meaningful relationships, loving and respecting others as Christ loved the church (Ephesians 5:25, 33).

Community Impact: Influence your world, shining God's light in the darkness (Matthew 5:14-16).

Confession/Meditation:I embrace progress and advancement in all areas of my life, and press to become relevant in every sphere of influence.

“God desires our progress and advancement in all areas of life, making us relevant in every sphere of influence.”

#7 - MAXIMIZE YOUR DESTINY; DON'T DIE FULL OF POTENTIALS

Life is a precious gift, capable of being either squandered or maximized. I want to drive yesterday point of reasoning deeper into your mind.

Happiness is deeply rooted in physical growth and tangible results. God's design for humanity is one of continuous growth, advancement, and excellence.

That's why Jesus said: "Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be fulfilled" - John 16:24. It's alright to progress in life and destiny. It's not a sin.

Doesn't the Bible says continually in Daniel 11:32 that "... those that know their God will be strong and DO EXPLOIT."? I don't think Prophet Daniel meant something contrary to dictionary exploit. Simply put, exploit means to make full use of and derive benefit from (a resource).

You see, embracing physical growth is crucial, it fuels your body for optimal performance (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Excelling in your calling leverages your gifts and talents, making a meaningful impact in your sphere of influence (Matthew 25:23). Yes, pursuing personal development advances your knowledge, skills, and character, unlocking your full potential (Proverbs 9:9).

It gives you the firsthand opportunity to preach to certain top billionaires, footballers, fashionistas, doctors of philosophy (PhD), politicians (SANs) etc. that may never step into a church or crusade in their lifetime, except you preach to the in the Senate, stadium, seminars etc.

A key way to become this relevant in the world for the kingdom benefit, is to leverage on role models through which you can achieve constructive progress.

Observe those who have achieved success (even if they are unbelievers), gleaning wisdom and insight from their lessons, experiences and mistakes. The same way David learnt kingship from King Saul, without imbibing the king's mistakes.

Confession/Meditation: I will maximize my destiny, embrace growth, advancement, and excellence.

“Happiness is deeply rooted in physical growth and tangible results.”

#8 - RISING AGAINST MISTAKES

Many people agree that mistakes are inevitable part of life's journey. Well, that's a controversial statement, yet I want you to know that mistakes don't define your destiny.

Is it not written in Proverbs 24:16 that: " ...though a righteous man may fall seven times, he still gets up." You can still succeed in spite of them, because they are opportunities for growth and learning.

Don't let mistakes hold you back from pursuing your dreams (Psalm 37:24). " ...though he may stumble, he will not fall, for the LORD upholds him with his hand."

Learn from them and use them as stepping stones to success (Romans 8:28). " ...and we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."

When possible, avoid mistakes by seeking wisdom and guidance (Proverbs 11:14). "Where there is no guidance, a people falls, but in an abundance of counselors there is safety."

However, when mistakes happen, don't give up. Rise above them, and let them propel you towards greatness (Philippians 3:14). "I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus."

Never forget, every success story has a chapter of mistakes, but it's how you respond that matters.

Confession/Meditation: I will rise above my mistakes, learn from them and turn them into opportunities for growth and success.

“Don't let mistakes hold you back from pursuing your dreams. You can still succeed in spite of them, because they are opportunities for growth and learning.”

#9 - LIVING A LIFE OF PURPOSE

Don't settle for a life that doesn't align with your values and passions. If it's not something you want to do for the rest of your life, don't do it. Life is too short to waste on mediocrity.

The most important thing in life is relationship. Prioritize your relationship with 1) God, 2) your family and 3) your purpose, above any other thing. It will reflect in your legacy.

Pursue your dreams with purpose and passion (Luke 10:3-4). "Go your ways... Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way."

Don't let fear or doubt hold you back from living a life that truly fulfills you (2 Timothy 1:7). For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

Remember, the greatest risk is not taking any risk at all. Use is a core way to discover potential abilities.

Invest your time and energy in things that bring you joy and satisfaction (Ecclesiastes 3:12-13). I know that there is no good in them (material things), but for a man to rejoice, and to do good in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God.

Don't get stuck in a rut, doing something that drains your life (Psalms 127:2). It is vain for you to rise up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he gives his beloved sleep.

Confession/Meditation: I will pursue my dreams with purpose and passion, living a life that truly bring me fulfillment.

“The most important thing in life is relationship. It will reflect in your legacy.”

#10 - DESTINY DEFINING DECISIONS

Before making decisions that define your destiny, take a pause. Ensure you pray, think, and seek counsel, setting yourself up for success.

Pray for wisdom and guidance, seeking God's direction. James 1:5 instructs; If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

Think critically, considering the long-term implications of your choices. Matthew 1:20 narrates that, "...while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost."

Seek counsel from trusted advisors, gaining new perspectives and insights. Proverbs 11:14 remarks that; "...where no counsel is, the people fall: but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.

Psalms 37:23; The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he delighteth in his way. Allow the Lord, the Good Shepherd, to direct you in making these crucial decisions.

Don't be to hasty, yet not too slow. Psalms 32:8-9; "I (Holy Spirit) will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go: I will guide you with mine eye. Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto you."

Take your time, and make informed choices that align with your values and purpose. Patience have the ability to unveil deceitful plots against you.

Confession/Meditation: I will always pray, think, and seek counsel before making destiny-defining decisions.

“Think critically, considering the long-term implications of your choices.”

#11 - THE POWER OF GRATITUDE

Gratitude is the catalyst for a life of unstoppable progress. When sustained, it propels you upward, with no room for decline.

Gratitude, attitude of appreciation, to God and men keeps blessings in a man's life with multiplying effects. It multiplies financial blessings, as seen in the life of Isaac.

Psalms 67:5-6 says: "Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us."

It deepens relationships, fostering strong bonds and unity. Luke 16:4 shows how the resolution of the wise steward: "I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses."

Gratitude increases anointing, gifts, and relevance, making you a vessel of honour. 2 Timothy 2:21 reminds us that; "If a man therefore purge himself from these (ingratitude included), he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work."

It expands influence and patronage, causing your life to be a blessing to others (Proverbs 11:25). Proverbs:11:25 speaks expressly that: "those who live to bless others will have blessings heaped upon them, and the one who pours out his life to pour out blessings will be saturated with favour."

Sustain gratitude in your life, and watch your life soar to new heights.

Confession/Meditation:I choose to cultivate a heart of gratitude, resulting into a life of multiplying effects.

“The one who pours out his life to pour out blessings will be saturated with favour."

#12 - FOCUSED ON THE PROCESS

Your success is not defined by the immediate results you see, but by the efforts you put in every day. Understand the power of a planted (Mark 4:26-28)

Cultivate a mindset of hard work, dedication, and perseverance. Trust in God's timing and plan. Focus on the process, not the outcome.

Psalm 126:5-6 shows us that "Those who sow with tears will reap with songs of joy... They weep as they go to plant their seed, but they return with songs of joy, carrying sheaves with them.

Plant seeds of hard work, dedication, and perseverance, and trust that they will yield a bountiful harvest in due time. Remember, every great achievement starts with a single step, a single seed planted in faith.

A seed should never be looked down upon. There's a forest is a seed. Matthew 17:20: shows us that "He replied, 'Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you."

Plant seeds of faith, which will yield a bountiful harvest in due time. Experience growth and progress, even when immediate results are not visible.

Confession/Meditation: I let go of my strong desires for instant gratification. I choose to focus on the process, planting seeds that will yield a bountiful harvest.

“A seed should never be looked down upon. There's a forest is a seed.”

#13 - EXEMPLARY LEADERSHIP

True leadership is not about position or title, but about influence and impact. It's the combination of character, wisdom and power.

You cannot lead others further than you have gone yourself. A blind person cannot lead another blind person, and a company of fools led by a fool will ultimately be destroyed (Matthew 15:14).

To lead others, you must first become strong yourself - mentally, emotionally, character-wise, and spiritually (Daniel 11:32b).

This means developing a deep understanding of yourself and your purpose, cultivating emotional intelligence, building a strong character foundation, and nurturing a vibrant spiritual life.

When you lead by example, you inspire others to follow your lead. Stop forcing people to follow you, when you live a compelling winning life, people will follow you.

Mark 1:36-37 confirms that statement; "and Simon and they that were with him followed after him. And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee."

You must have something extra to contribute to the lives of those you're appointed to lead and direct in destiny.

This means continually growing, learning, and developing yourself, so you can pour into others.

Confession/Meditation: I choose to become strong in my mind, emotions, character, and spirit, so I can lead others with purpose and impact.

“Stop forcing people to follow you, when you live a compelling winning life, people will follow you.”

#14 - EXCELLENCE IS A MESSAGE

This end time of great darkness, is the time for us to shine our lights so bright, to the extent that kings, influential people and nobles should come to the brightness of our rising, individually and collectively. (Isaiah 60:1-3)

As the army of the Lord, the time has come for our spirituality to translate into tangible transformation in society. Productivity is key to transferring our convictions into real-life impact. Give your best, ensuring it meets the demanded standard of excellence. (Colossians 3:23-24).

Be a person of excellence, trustworthy and refined, whom God can send to speak for Him in various spheres of influence (Proverbs 22:29). Someone that God can send to speak for him in parliaments, kings council, meetings of professors per excellence etc... (2 Timothy 215)

God should be able to trust you with lives as teachers, nurses, doctors, farmers, drivers, lecturers, artisans, entrepreneur etc. Is the measure of excellence you are exercising right now, equal to the measure of excellence that God has deposited into your spirit? (Isaiah 43:7)

For our Christianity to become more impactful in our societies, most especially in civilized societies; we must give our very best, to the standard that God places demand on your skills, offices, talents, businesses, influence. Seek to refine your spirituality to become communicable in excellence in all ramification of life. (Romans 5:17 & Revelation 5:9-12)

Utilize your potential, and let your skills, talents, and businesses be a testament to God's glory (Matthew 5:16).

Refine your spirituality to become communicable excellence in all areas of life (2 Peter 1:5-7). Embrace influence as a means to spread God's glory, for when He derives profits from your life, He lifts you to receive greater glory (Matthew 5:14-16).

As the salt of the earth and light of the world, we must be relevant on earth, making a tangible impact in our communities and societies (Matthew 5:13-14). If we, salt of the earth and light of the world (not heaven, because Jesus is the light of heaven), are not relevant on earth, where are we meant to be relevant?

Confession/Meditation: I let go of all my excuses. I choose excel in all areas of my life, refining my spirituality to make a tangible impact in society.

“Productivity is key to transferring our convictions into real-life impact.”

#15 - THE LAW OF ATTRACTION

To attract positive friends who contribute to your growth and success, you must first become a positive influence yourself. The principle of giving and receiving is a powerful force - what you give out, you get back.

Give, and [gifts] will be given to you; good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will they pour into [the pouch formed by] the bosom [of your robe and used as a bag]. For with the measure you deal out [with the measure you use when you confer benefits on others], it will be measured back to you (Luke 6:46 AMPC).

Give freely of your time, advice, support, encouragement, and resources. Don't just focus on receiving; focus on becoming a blessing to others. When you stop giving, you start stagnating, like a body of water that becomes stale and dirty when it stops flowing.

To have productive people in your life, become productive yourself. To have loving people in your life, become loving. As Proverbs says, "He who wants to have friends must be friendly" (Proverbs 18:24).

Don't just wish for positive relationships; attract them by becoming a force that naturally draws people to you. Be the change you want to see in your life, and watch your relationships transform.

Confession/Meditation: I will press to become a positive influence, giving freely and becoming a blessing to others.

“Don't just focus on receiving; focus on becoming a blessing to others.”

#16 - UNDERSTANDING FAVOUR

A man's success is deeply connected to the force of favour at work in his life. God's promises and human well wishes often require the help of others to come to pass.

"The LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him" emphasized Genesis 2:18.

You need destiny connectors, men of influence, gifted men, and burden bearers to achieve greatness.

However, due to the fall of man in Genesis 3, humanity's natural inclination is self-centeredness, making it challenging for people to genuinely help others. Jeremiah 17:9 says that "the heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?"

That's why God introduced a system of favour, where He touches hearts of men to love and invest in others, helping each other reach their destiny.

You are responsible for the flow of favour in your life. To attract favourable men, be one yourself. Be willing to help others, and God will send people to help you (Luke 6:38).

Men that you honour are disposed to be favourable to you. It's a major plus to a productive individual, it attracts favour.

Never despise your need for prayers, impartation and human relationships. Men are the channels of favour. Every person you meet, is a potential force of favour in the journey of your destiny.

Confession/Meditation: I am a favourable person, helping others and attracting divine connections.

“A man's success is deeply connected to the force of favour at work in his life.”

#17 - THE RIPPLE EFFECT OF LEADERSHIP GROWTH

When a leader gets better, everybody wins. A blessing conferred on the fountain affects the streams, and a leader's growth has a ripple effect on their followers (Proverbs 4:23).

You can't overestimate your need to improve daily. As a leader, your growth inspires and challenges your followers to get better (Matthew 5:16).

When parents improve, their children adopt a better perspective and approach to life (Proverbs 22:6).

A warrior who gets better after each battle doesn't fight the next one with the same strength, tactics, and ideology. Instead, they lead by example and inspiration, challenging each follower to improve (2 Timothy 2:2).

That's how you change the world for the better - by getting better yourself. Embrace the responsibility to grow and lead by example.

Confession/Meditation: I prioritize growth and inspire others to do the same.

“You can't overestimate your need to improve daily.”

#18 - COVENANT FRIENDSHIP

Covenant friends are those who will go to great lengths, even to the point of "bleeding," to see you helped and lifted up. These are the relationships that can make all the difference in our lives. (Proverbs 27:17)

The phrase "covenant friendship" refers to a deep and committed friendship that is built on mutual trust, loyalty, and support. It's a relationship where friends make a conscious decision to prioritize each other's well-being, growth, and success, often with a sense of spiritual or emotional connection.

From the Scripture, we will examine three examples of covenant friendship: The friends who dug through the roof to get their paralyzed friend to Jesus for healing (Mark 2:1-5).

The friends who daily carried their friend to the Beautiful Gate of the temple, hoping for a miracle (Acts 3:1-10). The man who told Jesus he had been paralyzed for decades, and Jesus healed him (John 5:1-15)

These stories illustrate the power of having people in our lives who will stop at nothing to support and encourage us.

You cannot do it alone; acknowledge, covet, honour, cultivate and make sacrifices to sustain and grow these relationships, not just for what you can gain, but because they are a crucial part of your life.

If you're looking to cultivate or deepen a covenant friendship, focus on building trust, communicating openly, and prioritizing mutual support and growth.

Confession/Meditation: I repent from isolation and neglect of covenant relationships. I choose to prioritize and cultivate covenant friendships.

“You cannot do it alone; acknowledge… and make sacrifices to sustain and grow these relationships, not just for what you can gain.”

#19 - HOLD THE ROPE OF HOPE

Some days, it feels better to give up than to keep hope alive, but remember, with the pen in God's hand, your story continues. God never ends a story in shame; the end of every journey with Him is glory (Psalm 30:5).

You may have to grow through the valley of the shadow of death, but don't lose heart. It's just a season, and there's light at the end of the tunnel (Psalm 23:4). Keep sowing seeds, even in tears, and don't get weary in well-doing (Galatians 6:9).

Your yesterday doesn't define your today, and your today doesn't define your tomorrow. Both yesterday and today have the tendency of misrepresenting your tomorrow. Just ask the butterfly, who transformed from a caterpillar to a beautiful winged creature (2 Corinthians 5:17).

Many beautiful luxurious products went through ugly processes to become valuable. Don't let your current circumstances define your future. You are on your way to a promising destiny. (Jeremiah 29:11).

Surround yourself with the right companions, those who see your brighter future, not just your yesterday. Keep working on yourself, and trust God to write a glorious ending to your story.

Confession/Meditation: 'Lord, I release all despair to you. I choose to hold on to hope, trusting you to write a glorious ending to my story.

“Don't let your current circumstances define your future. You are on your way to a promising destiny.”

#20 - DO YOU RESPECT WISDOM?

Your respect for wisdom determines your level of wisdom and the amount of wisdom-borne results you'll experience in life.

Wisdom builds and founds a house, fills its chambers with good treasure, and is more rewarding than diamonds, gold, and choice silver (Proverbs 24:3-4, 8:11).

God created the earth with wisdom and understanding (Proverbs 3:19-20). No one can achieve exponential growth without wisdom; even the wealthy employ wise individuals to handle their affairs.

Recognize your urgent need for wisdom, because every problem is a wisdom-problem. There's always a solution to improve a situation, that's wisdom.

Principles govern almost all possibilities on earth; transgressing them makes possibilities seem impossible.

Listen to wise people, work with them, pray for wisdom, and become a thinker. Meditate on studied resources, and remember that God's desire is for you to become wise (Ephesians 5:17).

Confession/Meditation: I prioritize wisdom, and seek to apply it in all aspects of my life.

#21 - BUILD YOUR SUCCESSOR

Succession is crucial for continuity of impact. We children of God are ordained to lead in various areas.

"...and they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us, unto our God, KINGS and priests: and we shall reign on the earth." (Revelation 5:9-10)

Leadership is not limited to titles, but influence and impact. Whether as an elder sibling, father, mother, teacher, or class captain, you're a leader.

So, start building a systematic succession plan early, through methodological and systematic mentorship. We all know that many nations struggle with succession, leading to discontinuity of achievements, goals, and vision.

God will often place your successors under you. They may seem more gifted, but build them up. Don't envy, compete with, or suppress potential successors; instead, raise and empower them.

"...and the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be ABLE TO TEACH others also." (2 Timothy 2:2)

Remember, a leader's success ends with their tenure if they lack a well-trained successor. Succession ensures continuity, accomplishes unachieved visions, and creates a valid replacement for promotion.

Confession/Meditation: I will methodologically and strategically build a lasting legacy through the principle of succession.
