2-minute actions

Animals exercise, just like us.

1 Roar like a lion, stretching your arms at the same time.

Roooar!

2 Waddle like a penguin round and round.

3 Stretch up high as if you are as tall as a giraffe.

4 Stand on one leg and pretend to be a flamingo.

5

Stamp your feet as hard as an elephant does.

6

Slide across the floor silently, pretending to be a crocodile.

7

Be a bird and flap your arms up and down.

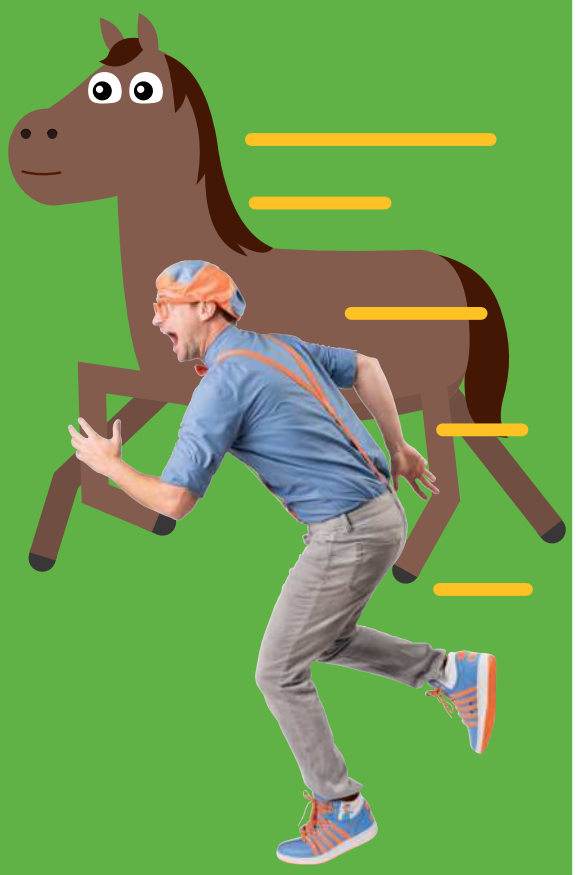

8

Beat your chest like a gorilla.

9

Gallop like a horse around the room.

10

Now, curl up in a ball like a kitten.

MAKING TRACKS

MEET LEAFY

Make a cute hedgehog out of leaves.

You will need:

- Template, opposite
- Scissors
- Glue stick
- Googly eye
- Fuzzy ball for the nose
- Leaves in different shapes and sizes

Ask a grown-up to help when using scissors.

What to do:

1. With a grown-up's help, cut out the template of a hedgehog, opposite.
2. Using the glue, stick on the eye and the fuzzy nose.
3. Next, decorate the hedgehog's body by gluing on the leaves. Mix up shapes and colors but stick the leaves on so they go in the same direction. All done, good work!

READ A STORY WITH Blippi™

THE LOST CAT

One day Blippi went for a walk. It was a cold day but the sun was shining. The leaves under Blippi's feet were crunchy and crisp. He jumped up and down on a pile, then kicked his foot so that leaves flew up in the air. 'Woooahhhh, that's cool.' thought Blippi.

Suddenly, Blippi saw a little boy looking very sad. 'Hello' said Blippi, 'Are you OK?' There was a lady with the little boy who said, 'We've lost our cat.' With a sniff the little boy added, 'She didn't come back for her breakfast this morning and we can't find her.'

Now Blippi knows that cats like to go out at night. They race around and have adventures then they sleep all day. 'Cats are so funny' thought Blippi.

'I can help you look for her.' Blippi said. 'What does she look like?' The little boy looked up at Blippi. 'She's very small, and has orange, stripy fur and a white patch on her head.' The lady, who was the boy's mum looked very worried, and said, 'Thank you, she's called Fluffy.'

Blippi and his new friends looked up the road, they looked down the road and they even knocked on some doors nearby to see if anyone had seen the cat. Blippi discovered that she liked to go for a treat at number 25, and she always got a cuddle and strokes from the lady at number 10 - but no one had seen Fluffy. 'Why don't we try the park?' asked Blippi?

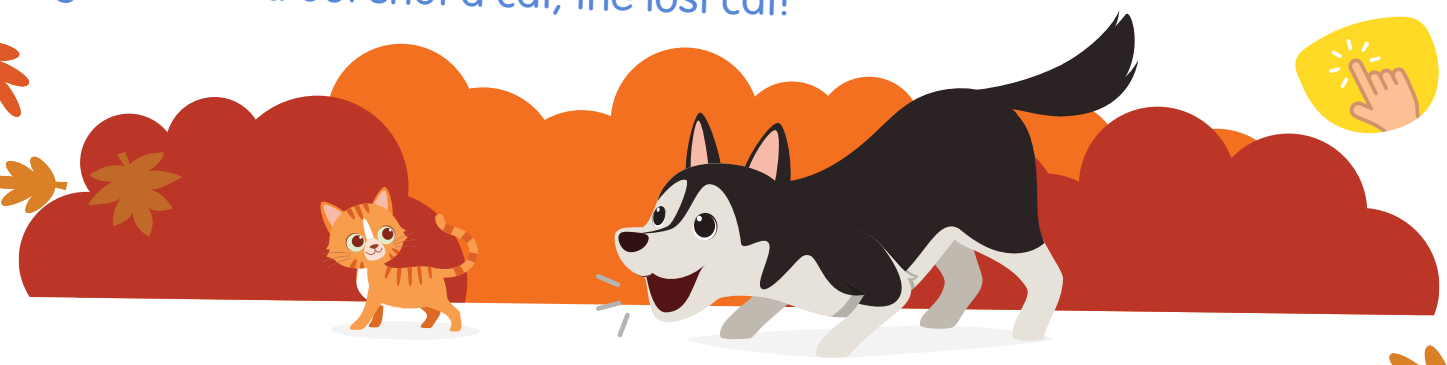

The park was full of children playing in the leaves like Blippi had, dogs chasing other dogs, people walking and chatting, but there was no sign of the lost cat.

They all looked everywhere. The park had a path all the way round the edge, so they walked along it, looking in the bushes and under the trees.

Suddenly, a dog bounced over. 'I'd love to play with you,' said Blippi, 'but I'm so busy, sorry!' The dog dived in the bush, and as he went in there was a big shriek and out shot a cat, the lost cat!

The little boy picked up Fluffy and gave her a big hug. 'Hooray' exclaimed Blippi. 'Thank you for all your help Blippi,' they both said.

'Anytime!' said Blippi and with that he gave the very cute, small cat with orange, stripy fur and a white patch on her head a stroke then headed off home kicking the leaves high in the air as he went.

MAKE YOUR OWN BLIPPI PUZZLE

You will need:

- Scissors
- The cover of your magazine

Ask an adult to help with scissors

1 2 3 4 5

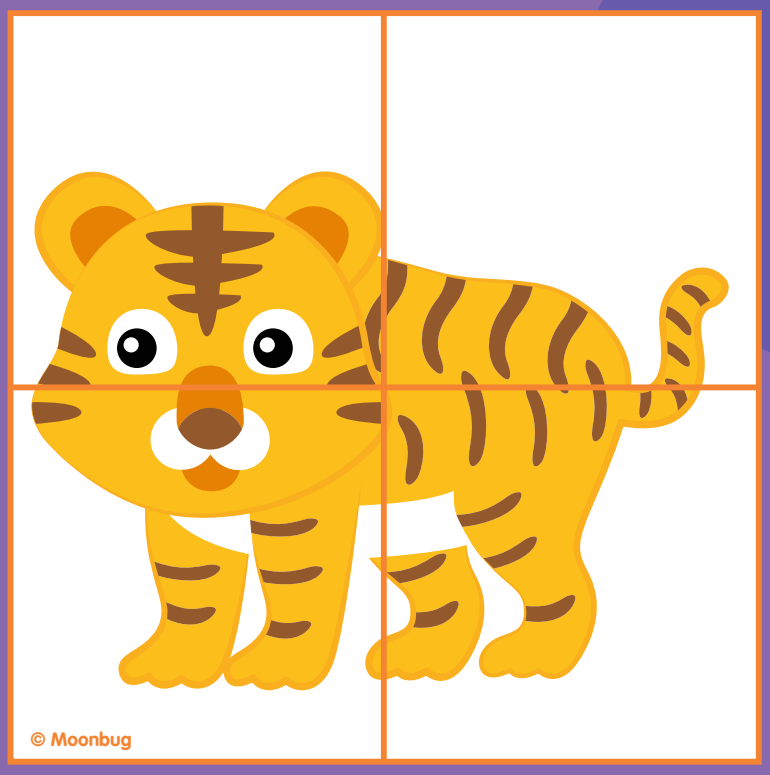

What to do:

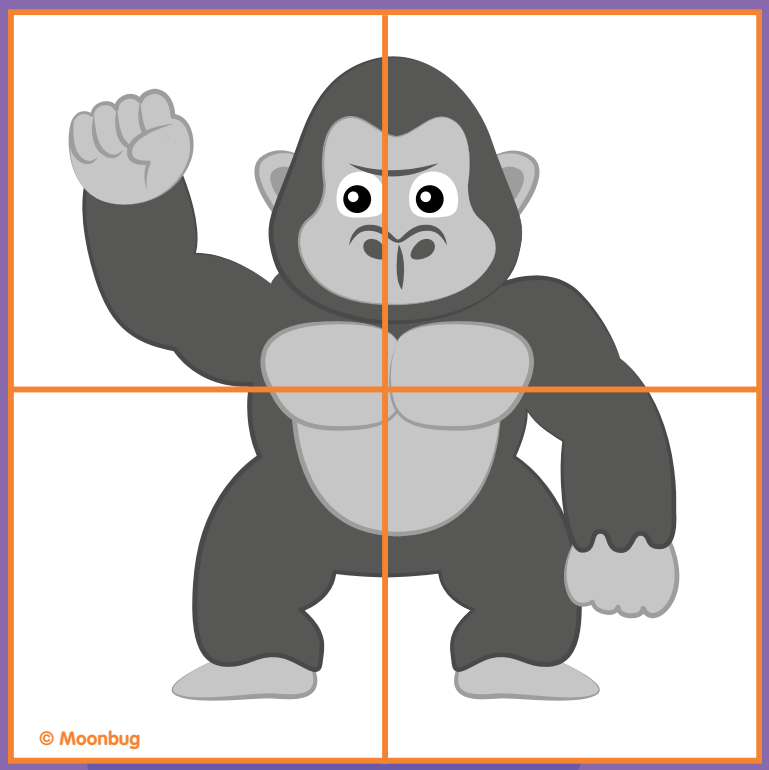

1. Cut out each big square. Ask an adult to help you.
2. Keep each set separate, then cut along the lines in the big square to make four smaller squares.
3. Now, you have three reversible jigsaw puzzles to play with.
