NOTE

The Resurrection Bible Study Ministry produced the study material you are about to read. This is an online Bible study forum. (Send "add me" to +2347067511039, WhatsApp Only) to take part in our FREE Online Bible Study Program.

Our Mission

The Lord Jesus Christ commissioned us to prepare His church for His second coming through His Spirit made available to us in this End-Time. We are committed to preaching and teaching Church leaders, Ministers, and the body of Christ as a whole the true gospel of Holiness and Righteousness, which is Christ's doctrine and the only prerequisite for making Heaven, re-erecting the already broken altar of true worship in sanctification to producing Saintly pilgrims.

All messages in PDF, VIDEO, and AUDIO formats are given for free and must not be sold for any reason without the prior written permission of the Ministry. They can be used by anyone all over the world for the sole purpose of spreading the gospel of Christ and also for building the body of Christ in this End-Time.

If you have been blessed through these teachings and would like to support this work prayerfully, broadcasts, or sharing of these messages through different means in order to prepare souls for the coming of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, please contact the numbers at the last page. May you not lose your eternal rewards, even as the Lord increases you abundantly as you do so. Amen.

God bless you,

CHRISTIAN CONDUCT

Bible Text: Ephesians 4:17-32

Prayer

Father, we thank you for the gift of being alive. We ask for mercy in any way we might have Sin. We commit today's bible study into your hands, come and begin with us that at the end of today's bible study we will have the full course to glorify your name. In Jesus' mighty name I pray. Amen

Introduction

I welcome you all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. I hope you are all still strong in Christ as we continue to prepare for the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, please let's endeavor to keep ourselves pure, clean and holy before the Lord.

Ephesians 4:17-32

[17]This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

[18]Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

[19]Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

[20]But ye have not so learned Christ;

[21]If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

[22]That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

[23]And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

[24]And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

[25]Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

[26]Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

[27]Neither give place to the devil.

[28]Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

[29]Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

[30]And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

[31]Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:

[32]And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

The Apostle Paul continues in his letter to the Ephesian church, and at this time, he began to tell them the fruits of Christian doctrine. He began to talk about the principles of manners and actions, comparing those who are God's children with those who are not, making the difference clearly known. He insisted on this as one who is speaking in the presence of the Lord, for he teaches that we are not birthed out of the flesh but from the Spirit of God. He says we should not live our lives like the Gentiles anymore; from these, we know that there is a way Gentiles live that is of unbelievers. They have their own ways of life and patterns of living. He says these unsafe people are blind and hopelessly confused, their minds set on vanity—the vain things of this world that contribute to their perverseness, leading to their destruction. Their minds, which are the control room of their thoughts, continue to think of things that keep them in corruption, basing their lives on pointless thinking. He goes further, quoting Ephesians 4:18 (KJV), "Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart."

Paul says those who are not saved around us have their reasoning darkened, their moral understanding darkened, and their reasoning beclouded. This is so because of the activities of the god of this world upon their minds; he does not want the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, to shine into them because he knows this would bring them into freedom (2 Corinthians 4:4, KJV). And because they work in vanity, they are alienated, estranged, and self-banished from the life of God.

This nature of theirs is one that started since they were born, and Satan continues his work on them; therefore, they automatically have no share in the ways of Christ because of the ignorance that is in them. They are far from knowledge; therefore, they are rejected and perishing. What brought about their destruction is ignorance, which is simply the blindness of their hearts (Ephesians 4:19, KJV), "Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness." It is said here that, because of spiritual apathy, they have surrendered themselves to promiscuity, living for lustful pleasure and are so eager to practice every kind of sexual perversion with a constant desire for more. These are suggested to them by their depraved desires because they are far from the life Christ offers (Ephesians 4:17, KJV), "This I say, therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind." This is the kind of life Paul warns us not to live anymore, saying we should not be like them.

From the word "henceforth," it means that there was a time when we, too, were living like them. There was a time when our minds were darkened, having no understanding and separated from the life of Christ to live in the pleasures of the flesh in its corrupt nature. We were freely living immoral lives, not minding its consequences. We were disobedient to God and enjoyed pleasing the devil because we were all born in sin and sinners by default. Psalm 51:5 (KJV) Behold, I was shapen in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Everyone is born through the Adamic nature of their parents; as such, they are sinners. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only One who was not born in the order of men, which is why He was not a sinner. Even if one's parents are saved before birth, one must still bear the body of sin right from birth because they are still in the flesh, and the flesh is still liable to falling and corruption. John 3:6 (KJV) That which is born of the flesh is flesh, and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit. That was the case with our birth as humans and Christ's birth as God. He was born through the Spirit, for it was the Spirit that overshadowed Mary, and she brought forth the child Jesus. The semen that brought forth flesh, which is humans, is of the flesh and not the Spirit; in that wise, something clean cannot come out from what is unclean. Job 14:4 (KJV) Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

Paul says, since we had at one time in our lives lived according to the passions of the flesh and the ways of this passing world, we should now stop living like that because we are now saved. When Apostle Peter talks about this matter, he said 1 Peter 1:14 (KJV) As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: That is, those who are obedient will live changed lives, which are not in accordance with their previous lives when they were ignorant. From this, it means that it is expected of those who are now in Christ to gain knowledge of how they are to conduct themselves and should no longer live in ignorance, for they have been purchased by the blood of the Lamb. Everyone who professes the name of Christ must diligently think about his former conduct, how he had been living in ways that do not please God, and then begin to adjust to God's standard and will. The unsaved live their lives recklessly, insane not minding the eternal consequences of such things; they are well-rooted in all manner of godless living. They do not care about what is right or wrong, as long as it favors them, they go after it and are thus much corrupted. Paul then continues, quoting Ephesians 4:20 KJV But ye have not so learned Christ; from this, he says that this is not the way Christ taught us to live. Christ Jesus did not in any way teach those who have come to believe in Him to live sinful lives. Those who claim to have heard Him, that His word is worthy of life and have been drawn near to Him through their faith and confession, and not only that, have been taught by Him (that is, instructed by Him through His Holy Word) must reflect the truths which are in Jesus Christ in their lives. Ephesians 1:13 (KJV) In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise. By putting off the old man, that is, their old nature in which they conducted themselves before they came to Christ. Ephesians 4:22 (KJV) That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

The old nature is the one in charge of all manners of lifestyles alien to God. Hence, the command is to cast that old nature of sin away and also your former way of life, which is corrupted by lust and deception. From this, we see that patterns of life controlled by the old man are filled with unrighteousness; we must strip ourselves of that old nature, which is also the body of sin. Colossians 2:11 (KJV) In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:

We already have the old man crucified with Christ so that the body of sin might be put off. Romans 6:6 (KJV) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. Since we have been empowered by Christ, we should make use of the grace supplied to us to live without sin. Ephesians 4:23 (KJV) And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; We must be renewed in the Spirit of our minds. That is, how we think must change; we must no longer think as the people of the world think, like how we thought when we were lost in the world. Putting off those things which have to do with the nature of the old man that is corrupt. Colossians 3:8 (KJV) But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

Colossians 3:8 (KJV) But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

From this, we see that it is the responsibility of everyone to do away with the ways of life that do not speak well of Christ. This is not what one's parents would do, for no pastor would do it, and neither would one's wife or husband. It is the responsibility of each person to do so by themselves. It is in the care of each one to sit down and look at one's formal conduct and then begin to correct things that negate the ways and patterns of life clearly seen in a regenerated life. It is important to give care to one's separation, consecration, and sanctification if indeed one has learned Christ and must prepare for God's holy Kingdom. One must give oneself over to renewing the mind daily, giving careful attention to correcting the way it thinks and the mindset concerning the things of temporal values and eternal values. Therefore, comes a further instruction of what the new man should put on (Ephesians 4:24 KJV And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness). The old nature, which is corrupt, must be put off for the new man to be put on; you cannot put the new man on the old man. With the way self-proclaimed Christians lead their lives today, it appears as if they have put the new man on the old man, which is why they are able to freely exhibit the old nature even as they associate with believers in Christ. It is important that we put off that corrupt nature and take on the uncorrupt one, which is created according to God. The old way is of Satan, and the new is of Christ, which is in true righteousness and holiness. Not a false righteousness and holiness celebrated by men that are secretly corrupt and polluted, not the holiness that is half-baked but that which is genuine. What Paul was saying is that since we have given our lives to Christ, then we must stop walking in accordance with the ways of the flesh. Righteousness and holiness are direct opposites to our old nature, which we walked in before we met Christ. The works of that old nature must then be intentionally put off (Ephesians 4:25 KJV Wherefore, putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another). Telling lies has eaten deeply into the hearts of many; consciously and unconsciously, they love it and enjoy it.

One of the major pieces of evidence that shows that a person is not saved is lies because Satan is the father of lies. There is not a single iota of lie in Christ. This is why Jesus Christ rebuked the Pharisees and said they are of their father the devil who would not speak the truth. The old nature loves to tell lies, but the new one speaks the truth. This is why if we claim to be joined to the family of God, we must do away with all kinds of lies—telling our neighbors, friends, families, relations, co-workers the truth. There is no justifiable reason to tell lies. Lies said unintentionally must be repented of and restituted; we must be careful not to put ourselves in situations that will warrant telling lies. Half truths, also, are lies. To know deep things about lies, read our precious teaching ( The Mystery Of Lies).

Colossians 3:9 KJV Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old man with his deeds;

"Lie not" is the instruction since the old man has been put off with his deeds, except if he has not been put off. Justice must be executed in truth; false witnessing must be done away with. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: This simply means that you should not let anger control you, just the same way it was controlling you before you got saved. In short, it is better to keep quiet than to tell lies. Zechariah 8:16 KJV These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates: It is beautiful to see some who claim to be saved telling lies and using the scriptures to back their lies up, saying Abraham lied, that there are times one has to tell lies to cover up. This is not the truth found in Christ but in the devil.

Ephesians 4:26 KJV It is possible to get angry about something or with someone, but that anger should not lead to sin. That's why you must put anger off. The moment you get angry, bridle it; do not wickedly put what you have conceived in your heart into execution. Paul says, "Do not let your anger push you to sin." For those who have put on the new man, there is no justification to let anger control us because it can tarnish our Christian image before unbelievers. If anyone is not able to control their anger, it can lead to many catastrophic things capable of harming the soul. It can lead to grudges and cause bitterness, hatred, and conspiracy. When a man gets angry with his wife and refuses to settle it, Satan can come between them. When some people get angry, they can destroy things; we have heard of cases where a wife got angry and destroyed the TV and other valuables in the house. Anger is a very dangerous spirit that can gradually ruin a person. Whenever you get angry, don't let it linger; get over it quickly and avoid reacting angrily where you are not pleased. Anger is capable of breaking a home, scattering a church, and pulling down what a person has struggled to build for years.

Many women have destroyed their husbands' ministry through anger. The truth is that burning anger has no good thing to offer anyone; it only leads a person to do evil. This is why David says in Psalm 37:8 KJV Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in any wise to do evil. It is good to run from anger if one does not want to harm oneself and others. Read the previous teaching on (The Mystery of Anger). Ephesians 4:27 KJV Neither give place to the devil. With this, Paul is saying one can give Satan an opportunity to manipulate if one is not careful. Anger, lies, and other things open doors for a free entry and foothold for the Devil to operate. The devil is always seeking a chance to work in the lives of men. So, he waits to see a loophole not quickly covered to sneak in. This is why we are commanded to submit ourselves to God. A life that has also submitted to God will not let anger control him because the Holy Spirit will not be comfortable in him. Satan goes about like a roaring lion seeking whom to devour. 1 Peter 5:8 KJV Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: This is why you must resist him at all costs, shunning his evil counsel, inspiration, and ideas immediately when they come and commanding him to depart from you. The truth remains that if you give Satan a little space to operate, he will hijack your life totally. This is why under no condition should you allow him at all. He is a deceiver and will continue to be so no matter what because that is his nature. But as a child of God, you have put off that evil nature, so you can no longer live that kind of life anymore. Ephesians 4:28 KJV Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

Paul goes further now to make a juxtaposition of a life controlled under the influence of the old man and that which is now recreated through righteousness and holiness. If anyone has truly encountered Christ; then they must stop stealing in every way. This was the way we lived our lives back then, but now there must be a change. You should no longer steal from your parents; you should no longer steal from your husband. You should stop stealing from the government, the church. Many are even guilty of stealing God's money because they have refused to pay their tithes and offerings, and before God, they are thieves, and God is not pleased with them. Whatever thing you take without the consent of the owner amounts to stealing. Stealing requires restitution; you must restitute what you stole, like Zacchaeus, and stop stealing. Helping the needy is now proof that you have been translated from darkness into the kingdom of light. Before, when you were stealing, it was an unlawful nature of a corrupt mind. But now that you have turned to God, you must be merciful in showing concern and helping the needy, not taking forcefully from them anymore. Luke 3:11 KJV He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

If you followed the teaching and understood it, please attempt the following questions.

1. According to the teaching, what responsibility does each individual have regarding the ways of life that do not reflect Christ?

2. How does the teaching emphasize the importance of submitting oneself to God in relation to avoiding the influence of anger, lies, and other negative behaviors?

3. In the context of the teaching, what significant change is emphasized in putting on the new man and putting off the old nature, particularly in relation to behaviors like stealing and speaking the truth?

Ephesians 4:29 KJV Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Paul the apostle continues by making the patterns of the new life known and telling us the things that must be put off which are in accordance with the ways of the old man. “Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth” he says. It is the duty of all those who are saved to guide the doors of their mouths taking caution to see that the words of their mouths are well filtered. This is why those who are filled with the Holy Ghost do not talk too much for every word that is said must be well filtered. There are many ways many people speak corrupt words today, many are fond of saying slangs, using abusive words and playing with curses and swears. Lies are also categorized under corrupt words (see our previous teaching on "idle words") . We must not let such words come out of our mouths. Some are fond of calling their children nonsense, evil names and other things. There are men of God who even threaten to lay curses on people if they make them angry. This is uncalled for. Matthew 12:34 KJV O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. The Lord Jesus Christ Himself made it clear that it's only those who are evil that speak corrupt words because they are speaking from the abundance of what is in their hearts. If you want to know the kind of person you in are, be careful to take note of the words that comes out of our mouths constantly both intentionally and unintentionally, through this you will know what is mostly contained in your heart and this is a summary of the person you truly are, if you have put on the new man who is recreated after Christ or you are still in the old, aged and dying body of the old man which is set to pass away into eternal damnation. We are further told about what corrupt words are in Ephesians 5:4 KJV: Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. Foolish talking is that which brings no sense or is said merely for talking's sake, empty words without purpose. Jesting can take various forms, such as joking or mocking remarks about something or someone, or pranks intended to make fun of others. It is saying things intended to be humorous but are not fitting or convenient. Apostle Peter calls it evil speaking in 1 Peter 2:1 KJV: Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil speakings. Colossians 3:8 KJV states: But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Furthermore, it is emphasized that filthy communication should be far from the mouths of regenerated people.

Every desire to cause pain, injury, or distress to another should also be put off, along with every act of revenge and desire to cause pain to animals without justification. When we were still in our old nature, we were ferocious, violent, and obnoxious, but these traits should also be put away. Ephesians 4:22 KJV: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts. That nature is corrupt according to deceitful lusts; its lusts may appear good, helpful, and sweet, but they deceive and lead to destruction. If corrupt words should not come out of the mouths of those who have seen and come to Christ's light, then what should come out of their mouths? Words that are good, pointing to their good hearts. Good words proceed from a good heart, and their essence should be in ministering grace to those who hear them. 1 Thessalonians 5:11 KJV: Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do. Words from those who have put on the new man should be comforting and edifying, building up others instead of tearing them down. Our words should bless and not curse; they should strengthen and instruct in the right way, not mislead, break, or make others useless. Our words must be sincere, not to flatter but to encourage. Colossians 4:6 KJV: Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. And this must be done always so that we will know how best to answer and interact with everyone. We must give careful watch to these things, focusing our minds on them so we can live by them. Ephesians 4:31 KJV states, "Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice." All bitterness should be done away with; this involves a mindset marked by intense severity, harsh reproach, or anguish against someone. Husbands are specifically commanded not to harbor bitterness against their wives, as expressed in Colossians 3:19 KJV: "Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them." Avoiding excessive offense-taking without addressing it can lead to bitterness, hindering marriages from fulfilling their divine purpose. This is not in line with the true love demonstrated by Christ. There is also a command to put away "wrath," referring to vengeful anger or indignation accompanied by fury and madness. This goes against the meek nature of Christ and is not a fruit of the Spirit; such intense and unbridled anger can lead to destructive outcomes. In our former state, separated from God, we were clamorous, engaged in noisy shootings that disturbed others. This could involve loudly singing worldly music and insistently speaking unpleasant words. However, with the new nature in Christ, clamor should be put away, replaced by a Spirit of quietness and gentleness, reflecting the nature of Christ.

It is emphasized that clamor should be avoided, especially during worship in church, as it disrupts the solemnity of the occasion. Noisy shouting, whistling, or various sounds during preaching. When a minister is called to the altar, it is wrong to be shouting huuuuuu!!!, ohhhh!! Making different kinds of sounds, that's clamor, reminiscent of behaviors in the world. So even go to the extent of raising their chairs. As believers in Christ, these should be discarded and not be done by us. Failure to put off these behaviors has caused some to resemble people of the world. This pattern must cease in the body of Christ. This behavior is more prevalent among youths today, and men of God are encouraged to correct such behavior in love immediately when observed, even though compliance may be challenging for those still in the way of the world but being silent about it most times could mean approval. Many have come to think that making a joyful shout to the Lord involves making noisy shouts. However, God does not accept uncoordinated shouts, howling, or even whistling. Such behaviors are not learned from Christ. The admonition to be kind to one another requires possessing a helpful nature, forbearing one another, being gentle towards others, and forgiving one another, just as God forgives us in Christ Jesus. These are the characteristics of the new man, and believers are encouraged to exhibit this nature to highlight the clear difference between them and those who still wear the old man. Forgiveness should be readily extended among believers, acknowledging that offenses will inevitably occur due to human nature. The encouragement is to be prepared to forgive others, recognizing that we too have received forgiveness from God. As members of the same family, the household of God, believers should relate to one another with love and forgiveness.
