Title: CRACKED

Written by: Oluwatobi S. Adewuyi

Maxwell buys a new phone at a very high price, which screen gets cracked mistakenly and he gets so sad. His neighbor comes to him at that point, (waits looks at him and tries to observe him, then finally gets what actually happened)

Kingsley: I guess you are bothered about your phone because it got cracked, isn't it?

Maxwell: (looks at him, somehow, but finds it hard to say anything) yes

Kingsley: come on, you are a man, you shouldn't be this bothered about the phone, should you?

Maxwell: What are you talking about Kingsley, you are talking as if you do not know how much I spent to purchase this phone, you know how I accumulated money from different sources to get it, why wouldn't I be pained that it's gotten crack and refuses to operate, I don't have money to repair it not to talk of buying another one.

Kingsley: I understand what you passed through before getting it, I remember you told me how you had to inflate prices of items at your mums shop whenever you are there, to raise the money. You also said you added to your school fee and also told your parents that you were asked to buy some books that we were not asked to buy. (Maxwell looks at Kingsley somehow and faces his front) you told them that you where asked to buy encyclopedia dictionary which (Maxwell cuts in)

Maxwell: and do you think all these stories are necessary at this disparaging moment?

Kingsley: Sorry if it offends you, but do know that your phone can become new again?

Maxwell: how?

Kingsley: It can be swapped at the factory with a brand new one, with a little amount of money.

Maxwell: (interested, but later discouraged) wow, that will be cool, but I do not have money

Kingsley: (Smiling) don't worry I would give you the money.

Maxwell: really? (smiling) Thank you so much, I'm indeed grateful.

Kingsley: (clears throat) you see Maxwell, the main issue on ground now is not even about the phone.

Maxwell: What's the main issue?

Kingsley: It's not only your phone that's cracked, your life is cracked too and it needs swapping.

Maxwell: (Surprised) how possible?

Kingsley: (sits beside him, then continues) Yes, my friend, you are able to know that your phone is cracked because it's yours, but the phone it's self does not know about it's cracked state, but when you tried to operate it, it didnnot function correctly for what it was made for, which is why for it to function properly like a new one, it must be swapped with a new one fresh from the factory.

Maxwell: Yes, what are you trying to say? (Looking puzzled)

Kingsley: When God created man, man was perfect and without any crack, that was why He do come down in the cool of the day to enjoy His manufactured product. But when Satan deceived man and he disobeyed God, he received the crack of sin. That is was why God got annoyed with man, just the way you got annoyed, because of the crack(sin)

Maxwell: hmmm. And because of the first crack, every man born into the world became an already cracked product of God because of their evil ways, everyone has sinned and come short of the glory of God. He was not happy about this, He decides to create a swapping method where man can acquire an untempered life through His Son, anyone who then accepts this method would have his cracked life of sin swapped with a new one, therefore, having a new life that would always make God pleased with him. Such a person would then become new (2 Corinthians 5:7) because Jesus Christ has carried that cracked nature and has given us His untempered nature.

Maxwell: This is astonishing, how much does it then cost to swap to a new life.

Kingsley: (chuckles) It is absolutely free of charge because the sacrifice of the Son of God has paid for all debts, and nothing is meant to be paid to swap into His life, just the way you don't need to pay anything to swap your phone but I will pay everything.

Maxwell: (Looking speechless) But God's Son was not the one that caused the crack, he was not at fault, why would He then be allowed to carry such burden?

Kingsley: (Looking into his eyes) I was not the one who cracked your phone either, yet I would carry the burden to pay for it, it's love! Romans 5:8 KJV But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

Maxwell: (keeps quiet thinking)uhhh

Kingsley: (stands up) can you let us go and swap your cracked phone now?.

Maxwell: No, not until I swap my cracked life, although you've told me about Christ before, but now I understand better, my life is worth more than an ordinary phone.

Kingsley: (happy) Yes, just believe in your heart that Jesus died for you to take away your sins and confess Him as your Lord and Savior and you'd be saved.

Maxwell: (in tears) I believe, I believe, please accept me Jesus

The end

Are you not still living a cracked life? Without Jesus Christ you will remain cracked, Jesus Christ is the only One that has been provided by God to take upon Himself your cracked nature so that you can be righteous. 2 Corinthians 5:21 KJV For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

You need a new life, come to Jesus Christ now and you will be saved.
