MEANING OF OVERFAMILIARITY

Overfamiliarity has a lot of meanings and can be splited into different aspects. We are going to look at what it means "Overfamiliarity" but before then, let's look at what it means to be familiar. Once we know what being familiar means, we know that it's excess familiarity that causes Overfamiliarity.

What does "Familiar" mean?

1. It means to have personal or intimate knowledge about something or someone.

2. It means when you come across someone who looks like your family member or probably someone you know. This means the person you just saw looks familiar with someone you know.

3. To be familiar can also mean one who is often seen and well known.

Having had an idea of what familiar means, let's look at what happens when Overfamiliarity comes in place?

Overfamiliarity happens when someone or something is frequently seen, heard, or experienced as to seem dull or unoriginal.

It also comes in place when a person is excessively friendly or informal.

Overfamiliarity is one of those things that makes christians miss a lot of opportunities even in Christendom, it makes a lot of people walk past their helpers daily without being helped. Being overfamiliar with someone happens when the person is either intimate and close to you, friendly or frequently seen around. There is something common in life which is;

"Humans tend to place less value on what they easily have access to, they only give high priority to things they passed through fire to achieve or get access to"

Having such kind of notion and belief can cause Overfamiliarity and bring about its dangers.

Before we continue, let's look at our text.

Please, kindly follow carefully.

Matthew 13:54-58 KJV And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? [55] Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? [56] And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? [57] And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. [58] And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

Just because God had to come down in form of a man called Jesus, those who were in His country when He was born found it hard to believe in Him. Actually, it's not their fault, why? Because they saw His mother and the husband of His mother.

They saw His siblings and saw when He was given birth to, how He grew, how He played around as a kid, how He ate and drank and even how He made use of the toilet and bathroom since He was fully a man on Earth. They were so much deep into their unbelief that after Jesus had been doing miracles in other cities, He came to His own country but couldn't do much as He had done in most places. They didn't expect too highly of Him because He grew together with them, so when He taught in the synagogue, they knew He spoke words of wisdom and also did mighty works, but they kept wondering how and where He got it from, they believed He shouldn't have risen beyond their level and even got offended in Him. Who would imagine that the very own people of Jesus will get offended just because He spoke beyond their level if understanding and because He did what they couldn't do.

Such is life, when people see that they cannot reach a person, they tend to get angry at the person even when the person has not offended them. This is why witches and wizards try destroying glorious children who are in Christ, because their children are not destined to get to the point that person has gotten to it their children has not gotten to that point even though might later pass there, they get offended and try to pull such a brilliant child down. If the child does not have Christ or lacks godly parents who can intercede on behalf of their child, a brilliant child can just become a dullard in one night after being bewitched. When those in His country saw all He did, they started tracing where He came out from, to the extent that they described the occupation of the husband of His mother, Joseph. Meaning that they never expected somebody who was also brought up in the way of carpentry to speak with so much wisdom and do such works. They were degrading and looked down upon Him.

They didn't stop there, they went ahead to mention the name of His mother and even siblings to be sure that they really knew Him and where He came out from. They also wondered how He was able to say those things since His siblings were always with them and they know about His family so well without mincing words. When people see that a person is making it, they trace the person back to the place of birth and the person's family. This is a natural occurrence amongst humans, they will do their research themselves and know everything surrounding such person.

I pray for you reading this. That good thing that will happen to you and will make people open their mouths in wonder, and start tracing you to your family to know your parents and even your siblings. May it happen to you this week in Jesus mighty name! Amen

So, they started pointing out His family members because they could not fathom where He got the wisdom from and how He was able to do those wondrous things. They became offended in Him, why will people become offended in a person who is doing good? This really shows that it does not matter whether you do good, the devil and his agents will always hate you and get offended at you. You don't try to please people, only please God and do what He wants and the right thing! Leave others to hate and get offended for the good you do, as long as your God is happy with it, you are good to go!.They were overfamiliar with Jesus because they knew about His birth and how He grew.

He was often seen and known amongst them as He grew up, so they became highly overfamiliar with Him and doubted Him. This is how far Overfamiliarity can go. Jesus understood the dangers of Overfamiliarity and He said, "A prophet is not without honour, save in his country, and in his own house. This means a prophet does not have honour in his country and home because of Overfamiliarity. He is not respected because they knew His background, because they have always been with Him and the likes. Now, look at what happened because of the Overfamiliarity of the people. Jesus couldn't do many mighty works there just because they didn't see Him as a deliverer. They saw Him only as the son of a carpenter and a mere man and didn't honour and believe in Him. This would have hindered a lot of them from getting their miracles just because of being overfamiliar.

Hope we are following?

The issue of Overfamiliarity started right from in Bible and is so common even in this generation.

Let's look at biblical examples of those who got into the dangers of overfamiliarity and reaped the consequences. We will also relate it to this generation and how it's affecting christians in Christendom. Please kindly be patient and follow carefully.

Biblical Examples Of Those Who Reaped The Consequences Of Overfamiliarity And How It Applies To Christians In This Generation

1. David and Milcah: 2 Samuel 6:20-21,23 KJV Then David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovereth himself! [21] And David said unto Michal, It was before the Lord, which chose me before thy father, and before all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of the Lord, over Israel: therefore will I play before the Lord. [23] Therefore Michal the daughter of Saul had no child unto the day of her death. Michal was overfamiliar with David, the king and she spoke anyhow to him. Normally, no one would address the king in such manner but because she was the wife of the king, she became overfamiliar with him and spoke in a rude way when he was dancing to God. This brought about barrenness in her life till death. It relates to this generation, many wives do not regard their husbands who are men of God, either pastors, deacons, Evangelists, Apostles or even as the head of the home.

They are overfamiliar with their husbands that even when their unable to bear children, their husbands keeps praying for barren women who keep giving testimonies but their wives never got pregnant for once. Someone who is praying for barren women and God is answering the prayers, such person is living in their homes with them yet, it's difficult to tap from the grace of these men of God because they are like mere men to these women. A lot of christian wives can keep suffering from spiritual hardship and evil attacks while their husbands are anointed to deliver people from evil attacks and break yoke of hardship. But, because the husband sleeps on the same bed with his wife, wakes daily, they are intimate and joke with each as couples do. Such wife sees the husband as only a partner and not even as a deliverer or man of God. Whereas, other people come to the man of God for prayers, humbling themselves and respecting the grace of God upon the man of God, and these people keep receiving testimonies after the man of God had prayed for them, yet someone who stays in the same roof with the man of God keeps suffering and lacking.

It's as a result of overfamiliarity. I once heard the story of a woman whose husband was a pastor and kept praying for barren women to conceive and they kept sharing testimonies how God gave them the fruit of the womb, but this woman, the wife of the pastor was barren and had no children for many years, yet many kept receiving miracles through the grace upon this pastor. Not until the woman understood the law if honour before she got freed. Having understood this, she prepared the best food for her husband, served the table, took the food to her husband with respect and humility, after the husband had eaten and being surprised about his wife's sudden change of behavior. She knelt down In front of him and spoke to him, "Man of God, please pray for me to conceive and bring forth children", then the man prayed for her and after the next few months, she conceived. It wasn't that the husband made her barren at first, he only used the key God had put in him to proclaim fruitfulness upon his wife because something provoked it, Humility and the respect of the wife.

It was until the wife saw her husband not only as the husband and her partner but also as her spiritual head and her pastor before she received her children the way others have been receiving theirs. Many homes are like this, the wives are praying so hard for a particular thing, whereas it takes just prophetic declaration of the husbands upon them to receive the blessing, but due to overfamiliarity, they have always seen their husbands only as the breadwinners of the family and their partners, not as men of God.

2. Moses and Aaron with Miriam: Numbers 12:1-4,8-11 And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses because of the Ethiopian woman whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman. [2] And they said, Hath the Lord indeed spoken only by Moses? hath he not spoken also by us? And the Lord heard it. [3] (Now the man Moses was very meek, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.) [4] And the Lord spake suddenly unto Moses, and unto Aaron, and unto Miriam, Come out ye three unto the tabernacle of the congregation. And they three came out. [8] With him will I speak mouth to mouth, even apparently, and not in dark speeches; and the similitude of the Lord shall he behold: wherefore then were ye not afraid to speak against my servant Moses? [9] And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them; and he departed. [10] And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle; and, behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and, behold, she was leprous. [11] And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the sin upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, and wherein we have sinned. Miriam was the sister of both Aaron and Moses but Aaron was three years older than Moses. Due to their how overfamiliar they were with Moses, they condemned who he married and went ahead to speak against him.

They literally thought they could speak to him anyhow being their brother and being the youngest amongst the three. But God showed them that Moses was His servant and how did they dare speak against him in such manner. Because of their Overfamiliarity which led to them speaking rudely, God struck Miriam with leprosy but left Aaron so that he would probably learn from it and be wise enough to detect their wrongs. After Miriam had been stricken with leprosy, Aaron had to intercede and beg Moses, he humbled himself and became broken that he addressed his younger brother as "My Lord". He discovered how wrong they had been to have behaved and spoken anyhow to Moses because of being overfamiliar with him and not regarding him as the deliverer sent by God to deliver them. They reaped the consequences of overfamiliarity and learnt their lessons before Moses interceded on their behalf and Miriam became whole again after a week.

Same thing applies to this generation, a lot of siblings have no regard and respect for those whom God had called with a special calling in their family. Just because they are older than these anointed men of God, they speak to them anyhow and tend to disregard them. This can cause the anger of The Lord to arise against them if they do not stop and be humble and broken. It doesn't mean men of God cannot be advised or corrected but it must be done in total submission and with respect and humility. Not with pride, arrogance and command unless God instructs it to be like that to bring back such a minister to the right track. Some parents do not even regard their children who are men of God because they gave birth to them.

They believe they have the right to speak to them in the way they wish and anyhow they like, this is wrong and can bring about the danger of overfamiliarity. Even Mary, the mother of Jesus was not overfamiliar with Jesus and she didn't speak to Him rudely in any way. John 2:1-5 KJV And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: [2] And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. [3] And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. [4] Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. [5] His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. His mother didn't exercise her authority upon Him being His mother, she was broken to be calm and humble enough to understand Him. She only told the servants to obey whatsoever Jesus told them because she believed in Him. The belief she had in Him even shows that she wasn't overfamiliar with Him and we will see that the miracle she expected actually came to pass. Overfamiliarity is dangerous!

3. Elisha and Gehazi: 2 Kings 5:20-27 KJV But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but, as the Lord liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him. [21] So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well? [22] And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there be come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments. [23] And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bare them before him. [24] And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed. [25] But he went in, and stood before his master. And Elisha said unto him, Whence comest thou, Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither. [26] And he said unto him, Went not mine heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and menservants, and maidservants? [27] The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave unto thee, and unto thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.

After Naaman got cured of leprosy by God through Elisha, he offered some gifts to Elisha but he refused them. Now Gehazi, because of his greed and covetousness, he ran after Naaman and lied that his master sent him to collect something from him. Gehazi was highly overfamiliar with his master, Elisha that other people, even the king feared as a genuine man of God. But because Gehazi had been with him for some time and had been used to him, he didn't fear to even lie on his master. He reaped the consequences of his actions and became a leper because of his greed and covetousness coupled with being overfamiliar with his master pushed him into doing the wrong thing. That is how it is these days, those who are under their spiritual heads in churches no more have regards for their heads. Especially those who God has given grace to operate in spiritual gifts their spiritual head lacks, they become pompous, proud and highly overfamiliar with their spiritual fathers.

A lot of assistant pastors, head of groups in church, ministers and even workers, have spoken and behaved rudely to their pastors and unit heads because of overfamiliarity which has brought upon the wrath of God upon them. One has to be careful in dealing with one's parents in The Lord and those who bring us up in both Word and doctrine, according to them, the respect they deserve without compromise. It's deadly to keep seeing oneself better than one's head, just because a person is close to a particular pastor or minister and the pastor or minister keeps revealing the difficult things he is passing through does not mean he has lost his integrity. Overfamiliarity makes some people find it difficult to pray when some certain pastors or ministers drop prayer points. They will always mumble such prayers because the pastor or minister is a friend to them or because they are related and this makes a lot of people lose their blessings.

4. Ananias and Sapphira with Peter & The Holy Spirit: Acts 5:1-3,5,7-10 KJV But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, [2] And kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. [3] But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? [5] And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things. [7] And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. [8] And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much. [9] Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. [10] Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

Ananias and Sapphira went ahead to lie to Peter and to The Holy ghost indirectly. They saw Peter as one of those normal men who they could just override, even after Peter asked the wife if truly they brought the whole money, she still lied. She had no regard even for Holy Ghost talk more Peter. They probably thought they could just behave anyhow because of how Peter had been so close and frequently seen by the people, receiving things from people and sharing to the needy. They had no fear of The Lord in them, we can say they were too overfamiliar with The Holy Spirit because they knew Peter had The Holy Spirit, they should have known that The Holy Spirit would have revealed it to Peter, but they just waived that off or didn't even bother, probably thinking The Holy Spirit was gentle and wouldn't do them bad since they brought part of the money for the expansion of the kingdom.

This is the most dangerous aspect of the dangers of overfamiliarity, being overfamiliar with The Holy Spirit! The Holy Spirit has spoken to a lot of christians many times not to eat a particular thing or do a particular thing but they went ahead to do it, thinking in their hearts that they will plead for mercy and forgiveness. Overfamiliarity with The Holy Spirit! I heard of a highly renowned man of God who was so so overfamiliar with The Holy Spirit that he prayed a wrong prayer that destroyed his life. The man of God became too sure of His power in Christ, probably because of the signs and wonders he had done and told The Holy Spirit this, "Holy Spirit, just leave me for 5 minutes and come back again into me". He thought he had all those powers without The Holy Spirit, so he was so sure of himself that he told The Holy Spirit to leave him for just some minutes, thinking he would be able to deal with the forces of darkness. To summarize the whole story, immediately, The Holy Spirit left him according to his prayer and before the minutes ended, the devil struck him dead and he died.

What a grievous and wrong mistake! That is how far Overfamiliarity can push one to. For him to have thought he could keep living without The Holy spirit is even pride! He forgot how Job was covered by God to resist the devil from destroying his life, he thought the devil ever wants a genuine child of God to keep living. May you not make that great mistake that will abort and destroy your life on Earth and in hell in Jesus mighty name . We have to be very careful not to become overfamiliar with God and The Holy Spirit, a lot of christians refuse to observe their quiet time and keep postponing it saying The Holy Spirit will understands. Overfamiliarity! Overfamiliarity!! Overfamiliarity!!!

5. Peter and his wife: Mark 1:29-31 KJV And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. [30] But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever,and anon they tell him of her. [31] And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. A lot of people actually do not take note of this, Peter's wife's mother was sick of fever but yet Peter kept following Jesus all around and Peter's wife could not for once send for her husband to come pray for her mother. It's mostly possible Peter's wife didn't even for once tell Peter to pray for her mother probably because she didn't believe he could pray for her and that she would receive her healing.

It was when Jesus entered their home that they told him immediately which means it was an issue disturbing them in the home before. But yet, it was the home of one of the disciples of Jesus whose shadow later healed the sick, funny, isn't it! That is exactly how it is in homes these days, wives get sick but prefer calling pastors outside when their husbands are anointed men of God. They are overfamiliar with their husbands that even these men pray for them, the no faith of these women will allow the prayers not be answered upon them. It also applies to wives that are graced and blessed with healing spiritual gifts, because of overfamiliarity and pride their husbands will find it difficult to tell their wives to pray for them. Kai, whereas the prayers of one's partner is very powerful upon one's life. Please, no matter the level you have attained my dear brothers and fathers, never neglect the prayers of your wife. Do not ever think their prayers are useless, No! Look at a man who is successful in life, you will definitely see a woman in his life praying and interceding for him.

The prayers of mothers and wives are very powerful because women pray from the depth of their hearts when they love a man. If you are married and you have never deliberately told your wife to pray for you while you humble yourself before her, please do that today. Just tell her to decree words of prayers upon you and you will see things changing for good for you. But ensure you are not maltreating her and that you love her sincerely for her to pray from her heart for you. May God bless every praying woman out there.

We are about to round up, keep following please

The last one I want us to look at is just a random one which is;

6. Being friendly and jovial: There are many men of God that are very friendly and jovial when you meet with them, they play and joke with children, youths and even adults. That is their natural self, they are lively and lovely to be with. However, a lot of people take this as and advantage to disrespect them and speak to them anyhow, this is very bad and dangerous. No matter how friendly and accommodating a man of God is, do not ever try disrespecting him at all as it can bring about the dangers of overfamiliarity. Whether you are close to such a man of God or not, do not look down on him because he jokes and plays with you. I believe with these few biblical examples, you have really seen some areas where overfamiliarity can take over and the dangers. Now, let's look at how to deal avoid the dangers of overfamiliarity.

How To Deal With Overfamiliarity

1. Pray for brokenness and humility

2. Pray against pride everyday especially when you notice it in you.

3. See men of God, no matter the stature or age as servants of God. Reverence them and honour them.

4. No matter how close you are to a man of God or how friendly he is to you, never allow Overfamiliarity take over you.

5. Learn to respect every person

6. Study your Bible always, it will make you grow into becoming like Christ which will help you do the right thing at the right time.

7. Be sensitive about your situations to know if you are not suffering from the dangers of overfamiliarity.

Here is an 11 minute video produced by the drama arm of this ministry, you can also check it out. It also speaks about the danger of being too overfamiliar with children of God. Those who serve God faithfully, it's just a few minute video, you can try to watch it. To watch, use the link below👇👇

Question

How can someone adjust himself whenever he notice overfamiliarity in the family?

Answer

a, How you can adjust yourself if you are getting too overfamiliar with someone in your family is by bringing yourself down and breaking yourself down. It's by respecting the grace of God upon such a person and not taking it for granted. It's also by not seeing the person as only your family member but more than that, as the servant of God.

b, How you can adjust yourself if people in your family becomes too overfamiliar with you actually depends on the situation. If the overfamiliarity is actually making them go extra miles to do that which is unruly and rude, you can call them and explain how things should be to them. Or if you check your life and you see that you have really been so playful and so jovial with everybody, you can try minimizing it a bit so as to help them not to get into the dangers of overfamiliarity. That shouldn't stop you from being friendly and jovial tho but there should be alimit to it. It shouldn't be in excess.
