Geography in Education Universities

Education Universities are universities who educate and train mainly Teachers of different disciplines.

For example geography was given as Education and the nomenclature of the graduates was Bachelor of Education (BEd) degree in Geography and Environmental Studies. The graduates are Geography Teachers.

GeES courses given in Education Universities are given below:

1. Introduction to climate 2. Introduction to Economic Geography 3. General method of teaching 4. Cultural and social geography 5. Geomorphology 6. Geography of Natural resources 7. Subject area methodology I 8. Communicative English skills 9. Action research 10. Cartography 11. Geography education practicum I 12. Subject area methodology II 13. Education psychology	15. Population and settlement 16. Quantitative methods in geography and environmental studies 17. Educational measurement and evaluation 18. Special needs education 19. Map reading and interpretation 20. Geography of third world development 21. Environmental education 22. Regional and urban geography 23. Biogeography 24. Geography of Africa and middle east 25. Educational organisation and management 26. Information and communication technology 27. Civics and ethical education 28. Geography education Practicum

14. Curriculum study	II

Note: The above educational geography courses are from the previous curriculum. In the present curriculum, they are modified. Some courses removed and others added. Moreover, the common courses for applied science universities are also given to the educational universities.

Geography in Applied Science Universities

Applied Science University is a university that gives applied courses.

Particularly after 2008 GC in most universities it has been given as Applied Science and the nomenclature of the graduates has been Bachelor of Arts [BA or BSc in some universities] degree in in Geography and Environmental science. The graduates of applied science universities cannot be teachers unless they re-trained in the Educational (pedagogical) courses.

GeES courses given in applied universities are given below:

Common courses	Major courses
1. Critical Thinking & Logic 2. Economics 3. Communicative English Language Skill I 4. Geography of Ethiopia and the Horn 5. Math for Social Sciences Math 6. General Psychology 7. Physical Fitness 8. Introduction to Emerging Technologies 9. Social Anthropology 10. Entrepreneurship 11. History of Ethiopia and the Horn 12. Communicative English Language Skills II 13. Moral and Civic Education 14. Global Trends 15. Inclusiveness	1. Introduction to Geographic Thought 2. Introduction to Computer Applications in GeES 3. Introduction to Climate 4. Geomorphology 5. Economic Geography 6. Quantitative Techniques & Spatial Analysis 7. Cartography and Map Reading 8. Applied Climatology 9. Environmental Hydrology 10. Agroecology and Farming System 11. Cultural and Social Geography 12. Development Geography 13. Geography of Population and Settlement 14. Introduction to Surveying 15. Introduction to GIS 16. Geography of Natural Resources Analysis & 17. Management 18. Soil Geography	19. Terrain Analysis and Land Use Planning 20. Applied GIS 21. Fundamentals of Remote Sensing 22. Geography of Transport and Development 23. Urban Geography 24. Research Methods in Geography and Environmental 25. Studies 26. Urban and Regional Planning 27. Geography of Tourism and Development 28. Land Administration and Registration 29. Environmental Policy, Ethics and Governance 30. Biogeography 31. Project Design and Management 32. Seminar on Contemporary Geographical Issues 33. Political Geography 34. Livelihood and Food Security 35. Environmental Hazard and Risk Management 36. Environmental Impact Assessment 37. Senior Essay

Geography in Research Universities