This notice requires a response within 14 days and should include confirmation of one of the following:

1. If there is a law which you believe states that a man or woman must be included on the electoral register and open register please provide evidence of the fact.
2. If there is a law which you believe states that a man or woman must be included on the electoral register and open register and can not provide evidence of the fact then the names given must be removed for the address listed.

In advance of your response, please give special consideration to the following information:

Representation of the People Act 1983

<https://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/1983/2>.

Parliamentary and local government franchise

[F¹ Parliamentary electors.

(1) A person is entitled to vote as an elector at a parliamentary election in any constituency if on the date of the poll he—

- (a) is registered in the register of parliamentary electors for that constituency;
- (b) is not subject to any legal incapacity to vote (age apart);
- (c) is either a Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland; and
- (d) is of voting age (that is, 18 years or over).

Registration to vote is a right to which the people are entitled, not a requirement of any enforceable law.

The people are governed by consent. Acts, Statutes and Regulations therefore require consent.

I/we do not consent to inclusion on any electoral register and forgo entitlement to vote or for any information previously included to be removed.

I/we make a formal request to have my/our personal data erased from the electoral register and open register under Article 17 of the UK GDPR individuals have the right to have personal data erased. This is also known as the 'right to be forgotten'.
