ADDIS ABABA CITY ADMINISTRATION

EDUCATION BUREAU

ENGLISH FOR GRADE 1

BY: MASTEWAL BIRARA

JULY, 2012/2020

UNIT 5 ANIMALS

WEEK 18

Topic : ANIMALS

Today we will learn about

- Name of different domestic and wild animals.
- The characteristics of different domestic and wild animals.

Objectives:

At the end of this lesson you will be able to:

- Name different domestic and wild animals.
- Identify the characteristics of different domestic and wild animals.

Week 18: Lesson 1

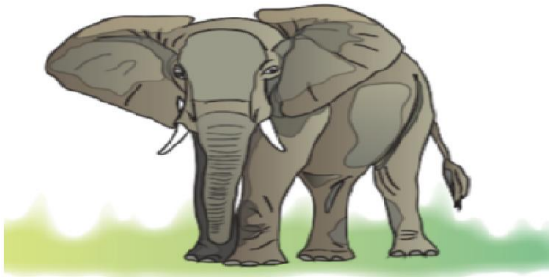

Describing Animals

Fox

Hippopotamus

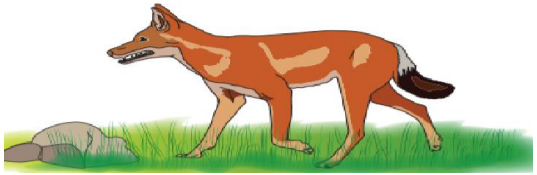

Elephant

Rat

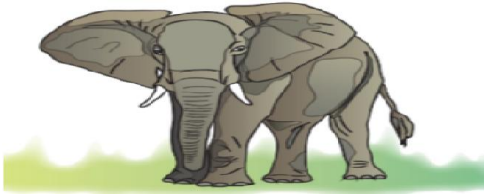

Crocodile

What is this animal?
It is a fox.

What is this animal?
It is a hippopotamus.

What is this animal?
It is an elephant.

What is this animal?
It is a rat.

What is this animal?
It is a crocodile.

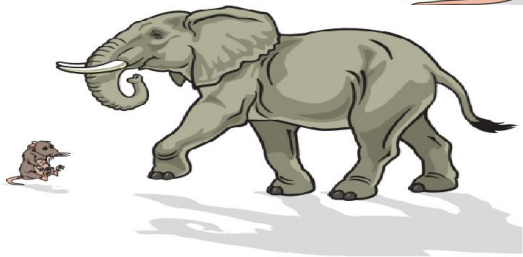

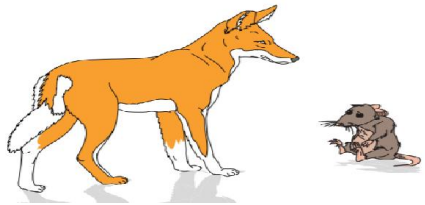

Con't…

- It is a rat.
- It is an elephant.
- It is a fox.
- It is a hippopotamus.
- It is a crocodile.

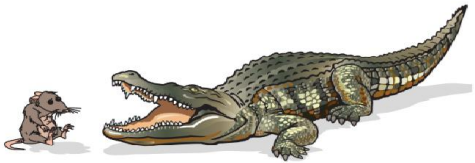

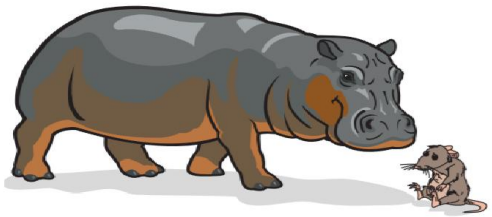

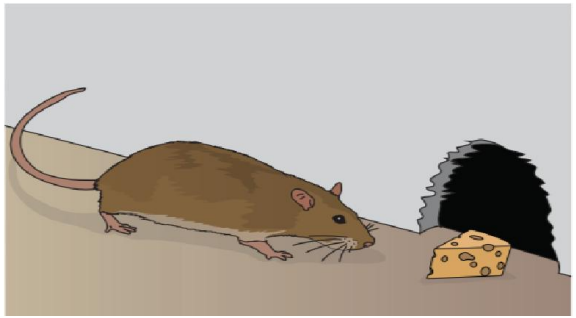

Copy these sentences on your exercise book from page 14 (you have 3 minutes)

Week 18: Lesson 2

What Animals Feel (I am going to tell you a story)

	There is a small rat. It has small ears, a small mouth and a short tail. It is sad.
	The rat goes to the elephant. It says, “I am sad.” “I have small ears. You have big ears.” The elephant says, “I am also sad. I am hungry.”
	The rat goes to the fox. It says, “I am sad. I have a short tail. You have a long tail” The fox says, “I am also sad. I am hungry.”

Con't

	The rat goes to the crocodile. It says, "I am sad. I have a small mouth. You have a big mouth." The crocodile says, "I am also sad. I am hungry."
	The rat goes to the hippopotamus and says, "I am sad. I am small. You are big." the hippopotamus says, "I am also sad. I am hungry."
	The rat sees some food inside a small hole. The rat is small enough to get the food. It eats the food. The rat says, "I am small. I have small ears, a small mouth and a short tail, but I am not sad. I am happy because I am not hungry."

Farm Animal Dialogue

Father takes his two children, Agar and Elsa, to their uncle's farm for a visit.

Agar: What animal is it?

Elsa: It is a horse.

Father: That's not a horse, Elsa. It's a donkey.

Agar: Does my uncle have any sheep?

Father: Yes, he does.

Agar: I like sheep. I don't like camels.

Elsa: Oh! I like camels.

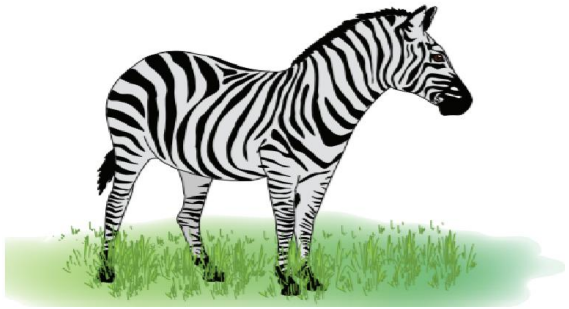

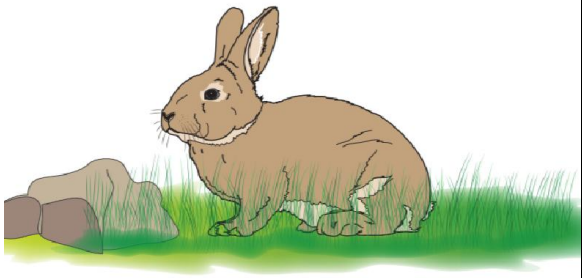

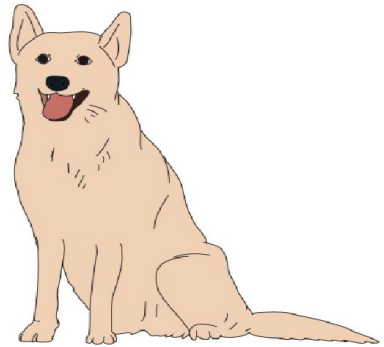

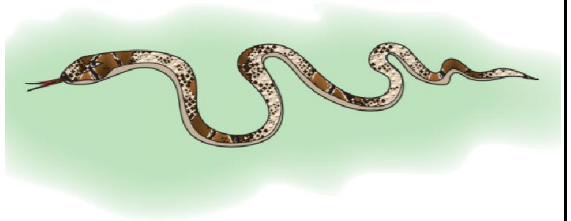

Con't…

- There is a small rat.
- I am sad.
- He is happy.

Copy these sentences on your exercise book from page 15 (you have 2 minutes)

Week 18: Lesson 3

Describing Animals

 Lion	 zebra	 Rabbit
 Dog	 Cat	 Snake

Con't…

- This is a dog.
- This is a cat.
- This is a rabbit.
- This is a lion.
- This is a zebra.
- This is a snake.

Copy these sentences on your exercise book from page 16 (you have 3 minutes)

Summary

Today we :-

- tried to name different domestic and wild animals.
  - ✓ Domestic animals – like donkey, dog and cat.
  - ✓ Wild animals - like lion, hippopotamus and zebra.
- tried to identify the characteristics of different domestic and wild animals.
  - ✓ The rat has a short tail.
  - ✓ The fox has a long tail.
  - ✓ The goat has a short tail.
  - ✓ The cat has a long tail.

This is the end of today's lesson. Thank you students and parents. We will meet in the next class.

#Stay@Home #StaySafe#

bye bye.