

Bismillah Rahman Rahim

JAMUHURI SECONDARY SCHOOL - DODOMA

ENGLISH LANGUAGE 1

Series Special Test 4

Date 12th September 2019

Time 2:30 hours

INSTRUCTIONS

"Write your name and question number on every page of your answer sheets"

Answer total of Five (5) questions answer One question in each section. Question one (1) is compulsory

SECTION: A

1. a) With relevant examples briefly explain how human language differs from animal's form of communication. Use five major arguments

b) Define the term Communicative competence then analyse four aspects of communicative competence

2. a) Analyze the function fulfilled by each of the following utterances

- i. How are you doing?
- ii. I sentence you twelve years in jail.
- iii. Damn! What's wrong with me these days!!
- iv. One bird in hand is worth than two in the bush
- v. Our president will visit our school two weeks to come

b) Argue for or against the following statement "Kiswahili language will become the global language one day" provide your answer by using five points

3. a) By using five points with vivid examples explain briefly how a language can become standard language

b) Distinguish between the following words

- i. Frozen style and intimate style
- ii. Argot and jargon
- iii. Creole and Pidgin

Prepared by Mwalimu Kalamba Rainond - English Master

Kalambairainond@gmail.com

Phone number: 07657998350/679753193-DODOMA

- iv. Accent and mutual intelligibility
- v. Representational function and Imaginative function of language

SECTION : B

4. a) Briefly explain three types of library.

b) Analyse two classification of library

c) i) Define logical reading

ii) list two contrasts and two comparison between scanning and skimming

5. a) Jot down the format of writing postal letter. With example in each stage

b) Write a telegram to tell your best friend Called Odlin Ahmad Mtandi, inform him that, his lovely brother Brian Ahmad Mtandi that he got a fatal motorcycle accident, but glory to the Allah he is alive though he became a legless, tell your friend to come and he will meet his lovely grandmother, great grandfather, Aunt and his friend Janir Mavandiga also his cousin Shan he will be back. Sign your Name Agrey Shabari Kalamba

c) As a Supervisor of Environmental issues in Manyara Tanzania, write a letter to the newspaper on the negative impacts of loss of biodiversity in your village Use four points

SECTION: C

6. a) Differentiate with examples the following terms

i. Coining and blending

ii. Stem and base

iii. Morph and allomorph

iv. Clipping and Transposition

v. Open system and closed system morpheme

b) Change the following words into the word class in the brackets and use each word in the sentence

i. Length (verb)

ii. Generous (adverb)

iii. Electric (verb)

iv. Colonial (noun)

v. unlock (Adjective).

Prepared by Mwalimu Kalamba Rainard - English Master

Kalambairainard@gmail.com

Phone number: 07657998350679753193-DODOMA

7. a) Write three allomorphs of irregular past form of "be" with one example of sentence in each allomorph
- b) Briefly explain three types of Morph with two examples per each type
- c) Identify a word which can be dipped in each of the following sentences, give its word dipped form and then state it is under which form of dipping.
- We are in the zoological place this moment
 - Currently I am suffering from influenza
 - Juma bought moccasins last two years ago
 - She owns a Hungry's restaurant

SECTION: D

8. a) Outline four features of scientific translation
- b) Briefly explain the following terms with examples
- Transliteration
 - Targeted text
 - Intralingual translation
 - Sworn translation
 - Fidelity translation
 - Idiomatic translation
- c) Outline five attributes of skilled translation and interpretation
9. a) Describe five strategies involved in interpretation
- b) Transformation of ideas from one language to another through speech form and through written form have many discrepancies. By starting to define those two terms with concrete examples describe those discrepancies (four points)