

I. Underline the correct prepositions in the brackets.

1. I sat down (between, among) ten students.
2. He got (in, into) the bus quickly.
3. I will arrive there (in, at) two o'clock.
4. Brush your teeth (after, before) going to school.

II. Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunctions from the given tables.

but	As	and	nor
Although

1. Blue-black is the mixture of blue and black colours.
2. Although he is thin, he is strong.
3. I like fruits but I do not like sweets.
4. Neither my father nor my mother are doctors.
5. As the weather was so hot, she took an umbrella.

III. Turn the following statements into negative and interrogative sentences.

1. He is my teacher.

Negative: He is not my teacher.

Question: Is he my teacher?

2. She can ride a horse.

Negative: She cannot ride a horse.

Question: Can she ride a horse?

3. Sitra likes lemon.

Negative: Sitra does not like lemon.

Question: Does Sitra like lemon?

4. She saw him.

Negative: She did not see him.

Question: Did she see him?

IV. Underline the correct answers in the brackets.

1. She walks (slow, slowly).
2. Aymen reads a book (silently, silent).
3. Abir (comb, combs) her hair.
4. They (recite, recites) Qur'an every morning.
5. I am (writing, wrote) a note.
6. Inas (eats, ate) cake yesterday.
7. Firdows has (be, been) here since morning.
8. Adil will (give, gave) me his car if I pass the exam.

GOOD LUCK!