Chapter One

Giants in the Bible

Notice that the giants, according to (Gen 6), were already living on the earth before those false ministers claim that the giants on the earth came from “the Nephilm, fallen angels,” because the Bible clearly says, “And also after that the sons of God came unto the daughters of men and bare them children.”

“There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown.” (Gen. 6:4).

NEPHILIM (FALLEN ANGELS)

They believe the ‘Nephilim’ (called fallen angels) that are exposed in these extra-biblical books were the hybrids of fallen angels & women as they falsely interpret in (Gen. 6); (these hybrids are not capable of "being saved"). The word Nephilim does not appear in the King James Version of the Bible but is inserted in Gen 6), in all the perverted Illuminati published bibles. Also, you’ll find them in the extra-biblical perversions that most of your modern heretic use to promote another Jesus, another gospel by another spirit.

There simply is not one scripture that reveals that God’s Creation was ever mixed with “fallen angels.” This false teaching actually comes from the Book Enoch and the Book of Jubilees. A careful reading of these scriptures never mentions angels but it does mention “the sons of God,” which I believe were the seed of Adam and Eve after the Fall of men. They were the called out ones to followed Jehovah to be redeemed through His promised Messiah,.

JOHN GILL’S EXPOSITION

“That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair,” (Gen 6). [1]

Or "good" [F11], not in a moral but natural sense; goodly to look upon, of a beautiful aspect; and they looked upon, and only regarded their external beauty, and lusted after them: those "sons of God" were not angels either good or bad, as many have thought, since they are incorporeal beings, and cannot be affected with fleshly lusts, or marry and be given in marriage, or generate and be generated; nor the sons of judges, magistrates, and great personages, nor they themselves, as the Targums of Onkelos and Jonathan, and so Jarchi and Aben Ezra; but this could be no crime in them, to look upon and take in marriage such persons, though they were the daughters of the meaner sort; and supposing they acted a criminal part in looking at them, and lusting after them, and committing fornication with them, and even in marrying irreligious persons; yet this could only be a partial, not an universal corruption, as is after affirmed, though such examples must indeed have great influence upon the populace; but rather this is to be understood of the posterity of Seth, who from the times of Enos, when then began to be called by the name of the Lord, (Genesis 4:25) had the title of the sons of God, in distinction from the children of men; these claimed the privilege of divine adoption, and professed to be born of God, and partakers of his grace, and pretended to worship him according to his will, so far as revealed to them, and to fear and serve and glorify him. [2]

According to the Arabic writers [F12], immediately after the death of Adam the family of Seth was separated from the family of Cain; Seth took his sons and their wives to a high mountain (Hermon), on the top of which Adam was buried, and Cain and all his sons lived in the valley beneath, where Abel was slain; and they on the mountain obtained a name for holiness and purity, and were so near the angels that they could hear their voices and join their hymns with them; and they, their wives and their children, went by the common name of the sons of God: and now these were adjured, by Seth and by succeeding patriarchs, by no means to go down from the mountain and join the Cainites; but notwithstanding in the times of Jared some did go down, it seems; (See Gill on Genesis 5:20) and after that others, and at this time it became general; and being taken with the beauty of the daughters of Cain and his posterity, they did as follows: and they took them wives of all that they chose; not by force, as Aben Ezra and Ben Gersom interpret, for the Cainites being more numerous and powerful than they, it can hardly be thought that the one would attempt it, or the other suffer it; but they intermarried with them, which the Cainites might not be averse unto; they took to them wives as they fancied, which were pleasing to the flesh, without regard to their moral and civil character, and without the advice and consent of their parents, and without consulting God and his will in the matter; or they took women as they pleased, and were to their liking, and committed fornication, to which the Cainites were addicted; for they spent their time in singing and dancing, and in uncleanness, whereby the posterity of Seth or sons of God were allured to come down and join them, and commit fornication with them, as the Arabic writers.[3]

GOD'S JUDGMENT UPON MEN

God does not pronounce His Judgment upon "fallen angels" in Genesis 6; He releases His judgments upon "men."

"And it repented the Lord that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart. 7 And the Lord said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them," (Gen. 6: 6, 7).

Also, Satan is a created being and God's angels were never created to procreate. The power of life is in the hands of God. Where would 'angels' get life-giving seeds to give birth to what they are calling "hybrids"?

BIBLICAL GIANTS NOT HYBRIDS FROM ANGELS

"And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way southward, and go up into the mountain: 18 And see the land, what it is, and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many; 19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad; and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds; 20 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the firstripe grapes. 21 So they went up, and searched the land from the wilderness of Zin unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath. 22 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt…)23 And they came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs. 24 The place was called the brook Eshcol, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence. 25 And they returned from searching of the land after forty days. 26 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land. 27 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whither thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. 28 Nevertheless the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover we saw the children of Anak there. 29 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south: and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites, dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan. 30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it. 31 But the men that went up with him said, we be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we. 32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature. 33 And there we saw the giants, the sons of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight,(Num.13: 17 33).

Which also were accounted giants, as the Anakims; but the Moabites called them Emims," (Deut. 2:11).

(That also was accounted a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in old time; and the Ammonites call them Zamzummims;" (Deut. 2: 20).

"For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants; behold his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbath of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man," (Deut. 3:13).

"And the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants," (Deut. 3:13).

"And the coast of Og king of Bashan, which was of the remnant of the giants, that dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei," (Josh. 12:4).

"All the kingdom of Og in Bashan, which reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, who remained of the remnant of the giants: for these did Moses smite, and cast them out," (Josh. 13:12).

"And the border went up by the valley of the son of Hinnom unto the south side of the Jebusite; the same is Jerusalem: and the border went up to the top of the mountain that lieth before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley of the giants northward:" (Josh.15: 8).

"And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood country, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee," (Josh. 17:15).

"And the border came down to the end of the mountain that lieth before the valley of the son of Hinnom, and which is in the valley of the giants on the north, and descended to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of Jebusi on the south, and descended to Enrogel,." (Josh. 18:16).

SLOPPY RESEARCH MIXING PERVERTED BIBLES

Modern heretics are very busy to present the gospel according to doctrines of devils. They twist the Bible to say whatever they want it say and then intermix extra-bible interpretations such as the books shown in the Catholic Bible; plus, movies, TV and many other secular sources.

THE WORD NEPHILIM

DOES NOT APPEAR IN THE KING JAMES VERSION OF THE BIBLE.

The Pulpit Commentary gives the definition that the giants were the descendants of Anak and the word "fallen angels" in connection to the genealogy of human beings is not mentioned either.

Verse 22. - And came unto Hebron. This and the following details of their journey are appended to the general statement of verse 21 in that inartificial style of narrative still common in the East. On the name Hebron, and the perplexities which it causes, see on Genesis 13:18; 23:2. Where Amman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were. יְלִידֵי הָעֲנָק "Anak's progeny." Septuagint, γενεαὶ Ἐνάχ (as in verse 28 and Josh. 15:14 b.), means simply "descendants of Anak." The Beni-Anak (Beni-Anakim in(Deut. 1:28); Anakim in Deut. 2:10, &c.) were a tribe whose remote and perhaps legendary ancestor was Anak son of Arba (see on Josh. 14:15). These three chiefs of the Beni-Anak are said to have been expelled from Hebron fifty years later by Caleb (Josh. 15:14; Judg. 1:20). The gigantic size which the Anakim shared with the Emim and Rephaim, other remnants of the aboriginal inhabitants, may have been accompanied by remarkable longevity; or they may have been quite young at the time of this visit; or, finally, they may not have been individuals at all, but families or clans. Now Hebron was built seven years before Zean in Egypt. Hebron was in existence at the time of Abraham. Zoan was Tanis, near the mouth of the eastern branch of the Nile (see on Psa.

78:12, 43). If it be true that the Pharaoh of the Exodus had his royal residence at Zoan, Moses may have had access to the archives of the city, or he may have learnt the date of its foundation from the priests who gave him his Egyptian education. That there was any real connection between the two places is not extremely problematical, nor is it possible to give any reason for the abrupt insertion here of a fragment of history so minute and in itself so unimportant. There is, however, no one but Moses to whom the statement can with any sort of likelihood be traced; a later writer could have had no authority for making the statement, and no possible reason for inventing it." [4]

The Emites (/ˈɛmaɪts/ or /ˈiːmaɪts/; Hebrew: אֵמִים) was the Moabite name for one of the tribes of Rephaim. They are described in Deuteronomy chapter 2 as having been a powerful people, populous and having a successful kingdom. They were defeated by the Moabites, who occupied their land. The Emim are also mentioned in Genesis 14:5 and according to Rashi, the name is translated as "the dreaded ones" (Hertz 1936) and the singular Ema/Emma (Hebrew: אימה) means "horror" or "terror".

"The Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and tall, as the Anakim" (Deut. 2:10-11).[5]

NO MENTION OF FALLEN ANGELS

Gill's Exposition of the Entire Bible

And they ascended by the south,.... When they returned, after they had searched the land, then they came into the south country again, which was in their way to Kadesh, where the camp of Israel remained; they are said to ascend, because of the hill country they again came to; for their coming to Hebron, and carrying a cluster of grapes from that place, not far from thence, was upon their return:

and came unto Hebron; which was in the hill country of Judea, in the tribe of Judah afterwards, which before was called Kirjatharba; in the original text it is, "he came" (s), Caleb, and he only, according to Jarchi and the Rabbins in Abendana; and certain it is that he was there, and he had this place on which his feet trod given him for an inheritance, Joshua 14:9; and it is very probable that the spies did not go together, but perhaps singly, and at most but two together, which seems to be the case here by what follows:

where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were; where Anak, and these his three sons, dwelt, who were giants; and perhaps from thence

Hebron before this was called Kirjatharbah, "the city of the four"; or from Arba, the father of Anak:

now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt; or Tanais, as the Targum of Jonathan, whence one of the nomes of Egypt was called the Tanitic nome: it was the metropolis of that country, and may be observed, to abate the pride and vanity of that kingdom, which boasted of its antiquity. Josephus says (t), that the inhabitants of Hebron not only reckoned it more ancient than any of the cities of the land, but than Memphis in Egypt, accounting it (then in his time) 2300 years old; but who it was built by is not certain; Jarchi thinks it is possible that Ham built Hebron for Canaan his younger son, before he built Zoan for Mizraim his eldest son; which does not seem likely.[6]

—Biblical Data:

A pre-Canaanite tribe, dwelling (according to Josh. xi. 21, 22, and Judg. I. 10, 20) in the hill country of Judah and in the Philistine plain (Hebron, Debir, Anab, Gaza, Gath, Ashdod). Three clans are mentioned: Sheshai, Ahiman, and Talmai (Judg., I. 10; Num. xiii. 22). These names seem, from their form, to be Aramaic; but what this fact signifies is not clear. The Anakim are said to have been conquered by Caleb (Josh. xv. 14; Judg., I. 20), who received their territory. In Deut. II. 11, the Anakim are called a branch of the Rephaim, which is perhaps a generic term. The Hebrew of Num. xiii. 33classes them also with the Nefilim; but the clause is not in the Greek, and is probably a late gloss. In Judg., I. 10, the conquest is ascribed to Judah. How far the Anakim had been absorbed by Canaanites and Philistines is uncertain; on the genealogy in Josh. xiv. 12-15 and xv. 13, see Hebron and Kirjath Arba. [7]

“And the Lord God said unto the woman, what is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, the serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. 14 And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: 15 And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel.16 Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception; in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee.17 And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; 18 Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field;19 In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return," (Gen. 3: 13-19).

ASTRO THEOLOGY

Satan's Tools

Many Christians have now fallen away from serving Jesus or His Christian Church and His Word. Some are talking about UFO's Aliens and hybrids; people being half fallen angels and half humans; others are opening the star gates of a place they are calling the Third Heavens. They claim that they are talking to Jesus; angels; the dead apostles and dead relatives; which the Bible clearly forbids Believers to do; many false preachers are teaching extra-biblical doctrines of devils and mixing Christianity with Judaism; Cosmic Star wars gospel, Cosmic Jesus, New Age occult and pure witchcraft.

"The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light," (Rom. 13:12).

Many Christian writers such as Chuck Missiler, Steve Quayle, La Marzulli and many other so-called Christian leaders who build their entire paranormal gospel based around the Book of Enoch and the Book of Jubilees about these unscriptural views revealed: the Pseudepigraphal. (The Bible (from Koine Greek τὰ βιβλία, tà biblía, "the books") is a canonical collection of texts considered sacred in Judaism or Christianity).

Some are going on talk shows claiming that the "aliens and hybrids" are getting saved! It is very interesting how their teachings are flowing in agreement with the Vatican's theology concerning the "Cosmic gospel."

Some of these Christian Urologist's are not teaching and writing to expose these doctrines of devils and point humanity to the only world's Savor, Jesus Christ. They believe these books are a spiritual fact that can stand equally with the Bible, God's Word. They are selling these books to raise finances for their ministries. Rather Christians are rushing to endorse, accommodate, and adopt ungodly teachers and thoughts to their own detriment and ultimate demise. God's people everywhere need to be called back to the truth, indeed the Truth, before it is too late.

In the name of "unity," Christians are called to unite and believe, "that all pathways lead back to God." Yes, we are supposed to walk in unity with our Christian brothers and sisters. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me," (Jn. 14:6).

God is a great God; omniscient (knowing all things), omnipotent (unlimited in power), omnipresent (present everywhere). "For the word of God is quick, and powerful and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do," (Heb. 4:12, 13).

GOD IS THE JUDGE

Since the Lord is going to judge our thoughts and attitudes of the heart, He surely is not going to overlook taking Him and His Word lightly, jesting, and foolish talking. Taking the name of God in vain, cursing, profanity, fornication, adultery, stealing, murder, idolatry, and witchcraft are sins that abominations to God. And furthermore, all hypocrisy, indifference, anger, hatred, reveling, drunkenness, emulation, uncleanness, lasciviousness, strife, sedition, heresies, envying, disobedience to parents, love of self, ungodliness, covetousness, boasting, pride, blasphemy, thankfulness, unnatural affections, truce breaking, false accusing, incontinence and fierce; these sins God will judge. Also, included are these: despising of those that are good, high-mindedness, loving pleasure more than God, denying the power of God, counting the blood of Christ as an unholy thing, sorcery and dishonesty, (Gal. 5:19-21; II Tim. 3:2-5; Rev. 21:8).

The names of activities that are listed above are motivated by devils. The Church has the answers through the deliverance ministry and the teaching of the Bible and Christian character. However, the Church of Jesus Christ must have spiritual eyes to discern the spirits involved in a person's life. Ministers must ask the Lord to let them see which spirit is operating. Is it a devil? Is the human spirit controlling the person's flesh? Is it an emotional spirit controlling the nervous system? Is it a mental spirit in control? Is the Spirit of the Holy Spirit in control or is it a religious spirit of the Devil?

WHERE'S THE DNA?

Isn't it interesting that for the past few decades we have had science exploding in the area of DNA and genetics. Anyone old enough to remember the first test tube baby, and what ever happened to cloning? It made front page news and then dropped out of site for the most part. Oh you hear a story here or there about cloned meats, cloned puppies. [9]

The History Channel interviewed scientist that traced the human gen back to the original man and woman. They did not find one thing concerning the mixture of Angels, Hybrid, with human beings.

SEARCH OF THE FIRST HUMAN

"For many of us, the word "genetics" conjures vague thoughts of disease, the human genome, and genetic engineering.

Spencer Wells thought "genetics" and forged a unique career that combines his love for history with his passion for biology. A geneticist, adventurer, author, filmmaker, and historian—the man adds new dimension to the term multi-tasking—he is using the cutting-edge of technology to explore human history.

He has traveled the world, collecting blood samples from people of far-flung cultures: Aborigines in Australia, the Chukchi tundra dwellers of Siberia, farmers in the hills of Afghanistan, and nomads in the deserts of Africa. By studying the DNA of modern humans, he seeks to learn who we are, where we traveled to populate the world, and how closely we are all related.

"Each drop of blood is essentially a historical document," Wells said. "Our DNA tells the story of the journey of our species."

New DNA studies suggest that all humans descended from a single African ancestor who lived some 60,000 years ago. To uncover the paths that lead from him to every living human, the National Geographic Society launched the Genographic Project, headed by Spencer Wells. The quest for "Adam" is the subject of a new television documentary that airs on the National Geographic Channel in the U.S. this Sunday.

The project is a five-year endeavor undertaken as a partnership between IBM and National Geographic. It will combine population genetics and molecular biology to trace the migration of humans from the time we first left Africa, 50,000 to 60,000 years ago, to the places where we live today.[11]

Spencer Wells, did not report one person in his research of a person being a hybrid or part angel!

WHERE'S THE BEEF?

A Special Report on Texe's newest book. What DNA Science and the Jewish Bloodline has discovered about the people who erroneously call themselves Jews." The scientist who did the research concerning this book, they did not fine one hybrid DNA code linked to the Jewish bloodline.

Who are the Jews? What is their ancestry? Are the Jews a homogenous race? Are Jews descended from Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob?

Today, DNA science reveals that almost all the Jews in the world come from Khazaria. They are not of the blood lineage of Abraham and the prophets, but of King Bulan and the pagan peoples of the Caucasus. The ancestors of today's Jews are not Israelites but are Khazarians.

Khazaria's people, in the 8th century, converted from paganism to Judaism. In the 10th century, these Khazarian "Jewish" converts emigrated to Eastern Europe, and especially Poland and Lithuania.

In 1948, the Khazars, erroneously believing themselves to be "Jews," arrived in the territory of Palestine and set up the state of Israel. The people of Israel today are virtually all of Khazar (Turk/Mongol stock) extraction. The "Jews" have no genetic claims to the land of Israel and no family connection. [12]

This scientist did not report one case of angelic or alien DNA blood!

JEWS A RACE

Israeli Scientist Challenges Hypothesis of Middle East Origins 'Jews a Race' Genetic Theory Comes under Fierce Attack by DNA Expert, Scientists usually don't call each other "liars" and "frauds." But that's how Johns Hopkins University post-doctoral researcher Eran Elhaik describes a group of widely respected geneticists, including Harry Ostrer, professor of pathology and genetics at Yeshiva University's Albert Einstein College of Medicine and author of the 2012 book "Legacy: A Genetic History of the Jewish People." AGAIN FOLKS, NO ONE HINT OF FALLEN ANGELIC - ALIENS FROM OUTER SPACE, DNA …

Friends listening to false teachers and prophets will cause God to judge your souls to die… Realize, it is a total denial of the Mission of Jesus Christ! Repent and return to the Jesus and His Word.

We are not corrupted creatures. We are made in the image of God.

BOOK OF JASHER

The Book of Jasher is mentioned in the King James Version of the Bible two times. However, it does not mean that the Book of Jasher that is being quoted to prove the UFO Cosmic gospel that is being preached.

"And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day…" (Josh. 10:13).

(Also he bade them teach the children of Judah the use of the bow: behold, it is written in the book of Jasher.) [19] The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places: how are the mighty fallen!" (II Sam. 1:18-19).

Jasher 4: 18 And their judges and rulers went to the daughters of men and took their wives by force from their husbands according to their choice, and the sons of men in those days took from the cattle of the earth, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the air, and taught the mixture of animals of one species with the other, in order therewith to provoke the Lord; and God saw the whole earth and it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted it's ways upon earth, all men and all animals. And the Lord said, I will blot out man that I created from the face of the earth, yea from man to the birds of the air, together with cattle and beasts that are in the field for I repent that I made them.

So, therefore, many of these heretics are teaching people they are humans who are now corrupted by mixture of blood and DNA with supernatural beings or aliens from outer space. The problem is that very few who have understanding of the Word of God and Who Jesus is and His purposes for dying on the cross are pushing back the darkness.

ANGEL CHAINED IN UNDERWORLD OF DARKNESS

Spiritually blinded Christians are entertaining fallen angels and are being entrapped by the powers of darkness because of a lack of scriptural knowledge.

SLEEPING GIANT

The Christian Church has slept through the great occult witchcraft revival of the seventies, eighties, and nineties. Communion with God is a participation in eternal life by grace through by faith. Such communion is not achieved by imagination, visualizations, solitude, or mystical formulas. To purport any other communion with God apart from grace through faith is to attempt to overthrow the Gospel. False teachers have attempted to supplant the Gospel by seducing multitudes with doctrines that can damn their souls for eternity.

"For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps," (I Pet. 2:21).

The Body of Christ is facing the most horrendous, Satanic and demonic greater confrontation than at any other time in history. It will be a time of intensified spiritual warfare where demons will manifest themselves and will fight in direct confrontation with God’s people.

The Lord Jesus told us in (Matt. 10:22), "And ye shall be hated of all men for. My name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved." And then in (Matt. 6:33), He said, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness . . ."

CONFUSION OF FALSE TEACHERS

Jan Jansens appeared on Patricia King’s program testified that she had seen a large angel with chains around its neck look up at her. The spiritual being spoke to her claiming that he was “the Angel of Records.” Jansens described seeing a hole in the ground and could see a room filled with books. She asserted that the angel was being released from this prison place wherein he had been buried for centuries because of the works of men. “This is a time to re-dig the wells,” she stated. Just as some of these “mystical Christians are opening Star gates to a place they say is the “The Third Heaven” and inviting Christians to astral project into that paranormal dimensions; others are “digging wells to open wormholes to dig wells into the earth’s mystical veils of fallen angels.[14] (I am not making this stuff up).

Chapter Two

God Breathed on them

SATAN CREATES LIFE?

"We do have clear and plain teaching regarding the demons themselves Demons in vast numbers constitute a part of Satan's hierarchy and fight in his army. They are spiritual beings without bodies of their own, hence they seek embodiment; they have supernatural power and strength. They are not omniscient, but are creatures of cunning intellect and given to deceits and wiles. They are unclean, corrupt, and bent on destruction and ruin. They degrade the bodies they invade and possess, whether of animals or men. They tremble at the Word of God and have to bow to the authority of Jesus Christ whether exerted directly by Him or by those to whom He has delegated authority to subject." Frances Manuel "And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul," (Gen. 2:7).

Does Satan have the power to create life (human)? If so, does he need to gain souls of those opposing him? If Satan or Angels can create life, especially human life, there is no need for him to go all the trouble to wrestle from God the souls which supposedly his. Satan can produce as many souls of humans who would follow him as he wants. There would certainly be peace in the spiritual realm and so the human world will be at peace as Satan who is known as evil will not have to cause humans to rebel against God who is good. In fact, Satan can has his own earth of people he create and God his. What do you say? [15]

JESUS SAID THAT ANGELS DO NOT PROCREATE

Satan and the Angels were created by God and they were not given the power to procreate. "Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her. 29 Jesus answered and said unto them, ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven. 31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying," (Matt. 22:28-31).

"And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven," (Lk. 10:18).

CHOSEN GENERATION

"But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: 10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. 11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; 12 Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation, " (I Pet. 2:9-12).

Wake Christians reject the lies and stand fast on God's Word. Jesus Christ is Lord!

DECENDED FROM GOD

That the godly are a distinct race appears evident, since they are descended from God. They are a heavenly race, and they are derived from above. The heathen were wont to feign that their heroes and great men were descended from the gods, but God's people are descended from the true and living God, without any fiction. [16]

"A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation." That is, a seed, posterity, shall serve him, and it shall be accounted to the Lord for his posterity or offspring," (Psa. 22:30).

Now the people of God may be considered as descending from God and as being His posterity, (future generations) either remotely or immediately.

They are remotely descended from God. The church is a distinct race that originally came from God. Other men are of the earth, they are of earthly derivation, they are the posterity of men, but the church is the posterity of God.

Thus it is said, (Gen. 6:2), "That the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were fair; and they took them wives of all which they chose." The sons of God were the children of the church, of the posterity of Seth. The descendants of Seth were the Believers in Jehovah that promised in Genesis 3:15, to send them a redeeming Messiah to rescue their eternal spirits from Hell.

The daughters of men were those that were born out of the church, and of the posterity (later generations) of Cain, and those that adhered to him.

It was God that set up the church in the world, and those who were the first founders of the church were of God, and were called specially the sons of God. Seth was the seed that God appointed, (Gen. 4:25), "And Adam knew his wife again; and she bare a son, and called his name Seth. For God, said she, hath appointed me another seed instead of Abel, whom Cain slew."

Adam, in Luke's genealogy of Christ "Which was the son of Enos, which was the son of Seth, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God"), (Lk. 3:38), is called the son of God, possibly, not only because he was immediately created by God, but also because he was from God, and was begotten by him. As he was a good man, and was the founder of the church of which Christ himself became a son. He was the first in line of the church, and as such he was from God.

When the church was almost extinct God called Abraham out of Ur of the Chaldea's, and afterwards out of Haran. Abraham was one immediately from God, and all God's people in all succeeding ages are accounted as the children of Abraham.

ABRAHAMS SEEDS

God promised Abraham that his seed should be as the stars of heaven, and as the sand on the seashore, meaning primarily not his posterity according to the flesh. John the Baptist said, God is able of the stones to raise up children unto Abraham. Those are the seed of Abraham, as we are taught in the New Testament that is of the faith of Abraham. Christians, as well as Jews, are the seed of Abraham, (Gal. 3:29), "And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

So the church is the seed of Jacob, who is called God's son, (Hos. 11:1), "When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt." All God's people are called Israel, not only his posterity according to the flesh, but proselytes of old, and Gentile Christians now under the gospel. The sincerely godly and they only, are the true Israel."

Subsequently, the people of God are descended from God the Father originally, as they are descended from Christ the Son of God.

Christians are called the seed of Christ, (Gal. 3:29), "And if ye be Christ's," etc. They are, as it were, his posterity (heirs) Christ calls them his children, (Heb. 2:13), "Behold I and the children which thou hast given me."

CHRISTIAN PEDIGREE OF GOD

So that if we trace the pedigree of God's people up to their original, they will be found to be descended from God: they are of heaven, they are not of this world. Other men are of the earth, and are earthly but these are heavenly, and are of heaven.

The wicked are called the men of this world, (Psa. 17:14), "From men which are thy hand, O Lord, from men of the world which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes."

The first beginnings of the church were from God, the great founder of the church. Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and those men, who under him have been founders, were of God were of him.

God chose them, called them, and created them for this purpose. Since which, God's people are descended one from another; the church is continued and propagated, as it were, by generation. If there were no ordinary and stated means made use of for the continuing and propagating the church, it would not be so. But God's people are made the instruments of one another's conversion, by begetting one another's souls. [17]

The church is continued by itself instrumentally through all generations, the people of God are begotten through the education, instruction, and endeavors of those who were God's people before. Therefore the church is represented in Scripture as being the mother of its members, (Gal. 4:26), "But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all."

We have a new and better Covenant. More about this later.

Chapter Three

EXTREME SHIFT OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Something very strange is going on in the United States, and the spirits that are hard at work are now bringing forth a power that is designed to captivate the entire world. The United States of America seems to be currently under a spell and a curse. The people of the country have a voracious appetite for the occult, and their souls are feeding on the books and movies that are training courses on the occult in both philosophy and actual working of the craft. The most publicized psychic activities in America and the one which people in great numbers are embracing today is divination. This goes under the names of: telepathy, ESP, clairvoyance, hypnotic trance, spiritualism, psychic research, etc. Although the term "psychic research" has a respectable sound, it involves the same old witchcraft referred to many times in the Bible. Sorcery or traffic in familiar spirits is strictly forbidden in the Scriptures, (See Lev. 20:6; Lev. 20:27; Isa. 8:19.) We have become A 'Bewitched Nation'!

As a result, they have become victims of Satan magic tricks who "as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour" (I Pet. 5:8). The occult and witchcraft are the most dangerous thing that the church is facing today. Just reading books can cause you to open to witchcraft and its demons. When you tell parents and pastors these things, they don't believe you. In a popular TV show, the heroine calls upon spirits, spells, and magic to defeat demonic beings. In another show, teen-age witches use their white magic to defeat evil warlocks and spirits. Such popular shows deal with the world of the occult. The occult has thrived since the beginning of civilization. Throughout the Old and New Testaments, the prophets of God confronted the problem of the occult.

Times have changed and Western morality continues to decline into deeper and deeper depravity. The social indicators reflect a continual rise in violent crime among youth; physical, sexual, and drug abuse; homosexuality; teenage pregnancy; abortion; suicide; and lately a significant rise in employing witchcraft and the occult as a way of acting out rebellion.

The term occult is derived from the Latin word "occultus," which means to cover up, hide, or those things which are hidden or secret. A brief definition of the occult is the practice of attaining supernatural knowledge or powers apart from the God of the Bible. Through these practices' occultists seek to influence the present or future circumstances, of their lives or the lives of others. No one can dabble in the occult and come away unshackled. It is not harmless games and fun. Occult involvement whether done innocently or not, is disobedience to God's Word. When people ignore God's warning and enter a forbidden realm, they witness spiritual phenomenon.

The Devil does have supernatural power. However, everything he does for people, he requires payment. The result of occult involvement causes oppression, depression, confusion, delusion, and physical ailments of all sorts. We are warned not to be ignorant of Satan's devices in (II Cor. 2:11).

WHY SUCH INTEREST IN THE OCCULT?

Experts point to several factors. Witchcraft is being promoted by secular demonic powers. There is disillusionment with the church and organized religion. The lack of the power of God being exercised by leaders and believers in the Church; another factor is curiosity in the supernatural of the occult. There is an attraction to the occult that appeals to the interest in the unseen. Many begin with "harmless" dabbling, but this can often lead to more. There is the quest for power. People want control over the future, spirits, or over other individuals.

There are three primary categories of the occult world: witchcraft, divination, magic, and spiritism. Divination is the attempt to foretell the future and thereby shape our lives accordingly. The divination arts include astrology, zodiac charts, crystal balls, tarot cards, palm reading, psychics, numerology, and horoscopes.

The delusory category is magic or paganism. Those in magic, attempt to control the present by ceremonies, charms, and spells. The magic arts include witchcraft, white magic, black magic, sorcery, Satanism, black mass, and witch doctors.

OPENING STARGATES AND WORMHOLD

SUPERNATIONAL BEINGS

"And the residue thereof he maketh a god, even his graven image: he falleth down unto it, and worshippeth it, and prayeth unto it, and saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god," (Isa 44:17).

Who are these aliens; what are these UFO's; where did they come from; what do they want? Could these strange looking beings be fallen angels/watchers shifting dimensions?

They want your soul; they are just demons.

Many political and so-called Christian leaders are opening star gates and wormholes to invite supernatural beings (fallen angels) to come through the spiritual veil into our visible world. The demonic teaching goes something like this: A group of Master Souls (called aliens, angels) have made themselves known to the world that they may give guidance to those who, in these troubled times are seeking Enlightenment. We are seeing the end results of communication with these illumined ones (demons); motivated by the New Age to 'point the way' to self-realization, godhood through the inner mysteries of the teachings of their coming Christ.

"Therefore rejoice ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiter's of the earth and of the sea, for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time," (Rev. 12:12).

TRANSFORMATION CHANGE YOUR FAITH

Transformation means a shift, or a qualitative change, a transfer from the original spiritual tenets to a switch over to a new religious belief system.

Spiritual transformation is still building its avenue into the Christian Church.

Astrology, reincarnation, higher planes of being, expanded consciousness; we all are God, pantheism, Angelic communication, CHRISTIAN MYSTICS ~ The Glory Generation: Angelic Visitations ~ Latter Rain Movements, Joel's Army/Kingdom Now/Dominion Theology; Angels may also be called Spiritual Guides, Wisdom Guides, Helpers, Guides, Protectors, Guardian Angels, Spirit, Wisdom Beings or Ancient Companions; please use whatever name is comfortable for you. There are also Masters, Healers, and Archangels and beyond. The Creator, UFO's and other nutty things. If you like your life guided by the demons out of hell, go New Age! Satan and the Third Wave Movement will love you.

"And the angels who kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day" (Jude 1:6*).*

[The angels which kept not their first estate] Teen heautoon archeen; their own principality. The words may be understood of their having invaded the office or dignity of some others, or of their having by some means forfeited their own; this is spoken of those generally termed the fallen angels; but from what they fell, or from what cause or for what crime, we know not. It is generally thought to have been pride; but this is mere conjecture. One thing is certain; the angels who fell must have been in a state of probation, capable of either standing or falling, since Adam was in Paradise. They did not continue faithful, though they knew the law on which they stood; they are therefore produced as the second example. [But left their own habitation] This seems to intimate that they had invaded the office and prerogatives of others, and attempted to seize on their place of residence and felicity.

[He hath reserved in everlasting chains] That is, in a state of confinement from which they cannot escape. [Under darkness] Alluding probably to those dungeons or dark calls in prisons where the most flagitious culprits were confined.

[The judgment of the great day.] The final judgment, when both angels and men shall receive their eternal doom. (See the note at II Peter 2:4). In Sohar Exod., fol. 8, c. 32: "Rabbi Isaac asked: Suppose God should punish any of his heavenly family, how would he act? R. Abba answered: He would send them into the flaming river, take away their dominion, and put others in their place." Some suppose that the saints are to occupy the places from which these angels, by transgression, fell. (Jude 6). [18]

LEAVE CROSS ~ REPLACE WITH MYSTICAL PARANORMAL TRANSFORMATION

The Body of Christ is facing the most horrendous, Satanic and demonic greater confrontation than at any other time in history. It will be a time of intensified spiritual warfare where demons will manifest themselves and will fight in direct confrontation with God=s people. The Lord Jesus told us in (Matt. 10:22*), "And ye shall be hated of all men for. My name's sake: but he that endureth to the end shall be saved."* And then in (Matt. 6:33), He said, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness . . .@

The Apostle John forewarns, A*Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know we the Spirit of God, every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ is coming in the flesh is of God, and every spirit that confesses not that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is not of God and this is that spirit of antichrist whereof you have hear that it should come and even now, already is in the world,@* (I Jn. 4). Certainly, as we look at this text, we see that Christians should be discerning the times and seasons.

Here are some of false doctrines;
"We are our own gods . . ." philosophy
There are many paths to God . . .
Witchcraft
Unification of all religions
Rejection of the Bible as Truth
The "Da Vinci Code" fiction
Evolution theory promoted as "truth"
Aliens, female angels, worship of arch angels
Astral projection into the Third Heaven to meet another Jesus
Opening stargates and wormholes to another dimension Seeking God for wealth instead of souls
Materialism

The Book of Daniel, chapter 11, says that the willful king (Antichrist) will honor a "strange god" -- a god whom his father's knew not . . . a "god of forces."

SPIRITUAL BLINDNESS

There is a great spiritual blindness the covers the earth today. Many Christians seem to be caught in a web of deceit. Why have so many so often been so blind to the meaning of the great event often been so oblivious to the meaning of the great events transpiring in our time?

Is it because we have not bothered to relate the Word of God to those affairs of life which lie beyond our personal interests, our families, and our immediate circle of Christian friends? As much of Europe rids itself of all traces of biblical Christianity, it has chosen to degrade Jesus to merely a man and mock the bible and in turn embrace a new vision for their future . . . a vision that will usher in the coming of the antichrist on the world stage.

Look at (I Jn. 2:18), who is this antichristos, Antichrist? Is he the Emperor Domitian, the Gnostics, Nicolaitans, Nazareans, Cerinthians, Romish pontiffs, etc., etc.?

Answer: Any person, thing, doctrine, system of religion, polity, etc., which is opposed to Christ, and to the spirit and spread of his Gospel, is antichrist. We need not look for this imaginary being in any of the above exclusively. Even Protestantism may have its antichrist as well as Popery. Every man who opposes the spirit of the Gospel, and every teacher and writer, who endeavors to lower the Gospel standard to the spirit and taste of the world, is a genuine antichrist, no matter where or among whom he is found. The heresies which sprang up in the days of John were the Antichrist of that time. As there has been a succession of oppositions to Christianity in its spirit and spread through every age since its promulgation in the world, so there has been a succession of antichrists. We may bring this matter much lower; every enemy of Christ, everyone who opposes his reign in the world, in others, or in himself, is an antichrist; and consequently every wicked man is an antichrist. But the name has been generally applied to whatever person or thing systematically opposes Christ and his religion.

CHANGE AGENTS

"Webster is aptly describing the transformation occurring in American spirituality today, “millions of devout followers of Jesus Christ are repudiating tepid systems and practices of the Christian faith and introducing a wholesale shift in how faith is understood, integrated, and influencing the world. Because human beings become what they believe, and practicing what they believe is the swiftest and surest means of generating lasting change, this revolution of faith is the most significant transition you or I will experience during our lifetime."

For the past 30-40 years, there has been a massive undertaking to indoctrinate and train evangelical pastors and leaders through various entities such as, (Leadership Network) and para- church organizations to become "change agents" for "transformation." This leadership training, even though often done in the guise of "servant leader" (to make it more palatable), utilizes corporate business and marketing models. [19]

It may be true that some Christians do not realize that they are promoting and following witchcraft philosophies. Many Christian leaders have believed that by ignoring the Devil will make him disappear. The biggest problem in the Western Church is that they do not take the powers of the Devil seriously. They generally believe that his power is not real or just fantasy and make belief. Others believe that if witches and wizards were real with demonic powers, it could not have any affect upon them because they are Christians. Actually, they are right. Witchcraft can only have power over a Christian only if he or she has open doors. These are doors of sin in their lives or doorways of stepping onto Satan's territory. Supporting people who are pushing doctrines of devils and witchcraft practices places you into Satan's territory.

Most distressing of all is the fact that during this time of polarization, while black is so clearly black and white is so clearly white, many Christians are adopting aspects of the evolutionary/occultic/New Age world view, consistently choosing to come down on the "dark side of the gray." [20] For example, leaders are trained to develop a company "vision" and then, by using sophisticated group marketing techniques, persuade the "customers" (people in the pews) to "buy into" this vision. This approach is top-down, not laity-initiated.

GROUP OPERATIONS

Much of the subtle power of the new movements, theologies and agendas of neo evangelicalism relies upon this basic fact of human nature, (NOT JESUS AND THE BIBLE). The leaders of these movements have been well-trained in the arts of human manipulation. The social scientists and psychologists have researched this aspect of the human personality for decades. They developed tools with which to manipulate behavior that rely upon the fear of rejection, ostracizing, alienation, ridicule, and scorn. They conducted experiments which told them that humans would engage in behaviors to avoid these types of stressful situations. They discovered that humans would compromise their beliefs and values and activities just to fit into a pressure-filled group situation.

The nature of man is such that he would rather "go with the flow" than risk suffering rejection. The scientists learned that people would want to fit in, to be accepted, to feel normal, and to adapt to a group; and that this group could then hold sway over people, exercising a power over them, causing them to make changes in their life. The business psychologists incorporated a philosophy of change into these methods. They learned that if people came to believe that every aspect of life is in a state of constant fluctuation and inconstancy, they are easier to manipulate in groups.[21]

The terminology is important because the following words and phrases are used interchangeably to describe the same phenomena in the modern evangelical

Reformation Restoration Revolution
New Reformation
New Apostolic Reformation Transition Transformation
Second Reformation
Renewal
UFO Stargates
Nephilim
Hybrids
Aliens
Cosmic Christ

They are moving the Christian faith into a new world religion. Many Christian churches and leaders have fallen under their spells through brainwashing techniques. Christian terms that the New Age has twisted and perverted, along with a few terms unique to the New Age lexicon are used to capture the minds of those teachers who have need of true Christian teachers.

Noah Webster explained, “The moral principles and precepts contained in the Scriptures ought to form the basis of all our civil constitutions and laws. All the miseries and evils which men suffer from vice, crime, ambition, injustice, oppression, slavery, and war, proceed from their despising or neglecting the precepts contained in the Bible.”[22]

MAGICAL THINKERS ARE RANSFORMATIONAL THINKERS

Transformational thinkers are then able to justify to themselves why they are no longer bound to Biblical moral absolutes. You see, people are saying that the Biblical message just doesn't apply to today's (humanistic) culture – that it must be interpreted in light of the culture of the day. [To some degree this is true – (i.e.-slavery was common then, etc.).] However, this movement takes it much further, and through the process of continual incremental “change” (using the Hegelian dialectic over and over with the last synthesis becoming the new thesis – the “new fact” base, or “new reality’), the Word of God is gradually incrementally changed from its original intent, and eventually it is interpreted to mean something contrary to its original intent. This is the process that all sinners use in attempting to justify their rebellion to themselves and others. The rebellion is subtle at first – simply moving away from the traditional way of "doing" church; later, the ordaining of female "pastors"; and eventually it gets to the point of ordaining lesbian "pastors", etc...

This is the end result of the process of "continual change." In Germany, the Hegelian dialectic process was utilized in order to reorder the thinking process of the society, and the result was the extermination of 6 million Jews.[23]

COSMIC CHRIST TRANSFORMED CHRIST

The Other Jesus, Metatron, the False Christ~ the Book of Enoch and Jubelees:

The Babylonian Talmud mentions Metatron in two other places: Sanhedrin 38b and Avodah Zarah 3b. Yevamot 16b describes in the Amoraic period the duties of "prince of the world" being transferred from Michael to Metatron. He is also mentioned in the Pseudepigrapha, most prominently in the Hebrew Merkabah Book of Enoch, also called 3 Enoch or Sefer Hekhalot (Book of [the Heavenly] Places). The book describes the link between Enoch, son of Jared (great grandfather of Noah) and his transformation into the angel Metatron. His grand title "the lesser YHWH" resurfaces here. Metatron says, "He [the Holy One]... called me, 'The lesser YHWH' in the presence of his whole household in the height, as it is written, 'my name is in him.'" (12:5, Alexander's translation). The narrator of this book, supposedly Rabbi Ishmael, tells how Metatron guided him through Heaven and explained its wonders. Here Metatron is described in two ways: as a primordial angel (9:2–13:2) and as the transformation of Enoch after he was assumed into Heaven.[6][7] [24]

"PRINCE OF THE WORLD THE DIVINE PRESENCE

Shekinah (alternative transliterations Shekinah, Shechinah, Shekina, Shechina, Schechinah, שכינה) grammatically feminine Hebrew word that means the dwelling or settling

The Shekinah enters the Tabernacle. In traditional Judaism, unlike in some Christian culture, Divinity is not personified in visual imagery. This accords with Maimonides' philosophical ruling of Divine incorporality, and the stress by Kabbalists of the metaphorical nature of their anthropomorphic concepts. The Babylonian Talmud mentions Metatron in two other places: Sanhedrin 38b and Avodah Zarah 3b. Yevamot 16b describes in the Amoraic period the duties of

"prince of the world" being transferred from Michael to Metatron.[25]

PARADIGM SHIFT~TRANSFORMATION COSMIC CHRIST

Metatron is also mentioned in the Pseudepigrapha, most prominently in the Hebrew Merkabah Book of Enoch, also called 3 Enoch or Sefer Hekhalot (Book of [the Heavenly] Palaces). The book describes the link between Enoch, son of Jared (great grandfather of Noah) and his transformation into the angel Metatron. His grand title "the lesser YHWH" resurfaces here. Metatron says, "He [the Holy One]... called me, 'The lesser YHWH' in the presence of his whole household in the height, as it is written, 'my name is in him.'" (12: 5, Alexander's translation). The narrator of this book, supposedly Rabbi Ishmael, tells how Metatron guided him through Heaven and explained its wonders. Here Metatron is described in two ways: as a primordial angel (9:2–13:2) and as the transformation of Enoch after he was assumed into Heaven.[6][7]

While this identification of Metatron with Enoch is not to be found in the Talmud itself, the connection is assumed by some of the earliest kabbalists. There also seem to be two Metatrons, one spelled with six letters (מטטרון), and one spelled with seven (מיטטרון). The former may be the transformed Enoch, Prince of the Countenance within the divine palace; the latter, the Primordial Metatron, an emanation of the "Cause of Causes," specifically the tenth and last emanation, identified with the earthly Divine Presence.[9]

The Zohar calls Metatron "the Youth", a title previously used in 3 Enoch, where it appears to mean "servant".[7] It identifies him as the angel that led the people of Israel through the wilderness after their exodus from Egypt (again referring to Exodus 23:21, see above), and describes him as a heavenly priest.

According to Johann Andreas Eisenmenger, Metatron transmits the daily orders of God to the angels Gabriel and Sammael. Metatron is often identified as being the twin brother to Sandalphon, who is said to have been the prophet Elijah.

VM Samael Aun Weor imagines Metatron as the Prophet Enoch, the Angel who provided humanity with the 22 Hebrew letters and the original Tarot, stating that the Angel lives in the superior worlds in the region Aziluth (The Initiatic Path in the Arcana of Tarot and Kabbalah).[26]

This mythological being, Metatron shown in the Book of Enoch and the Book of Jubelees replaces the Lord Jesus as Lord and Savior! No, pseudo - intellectual that claims to be a born again Christian has any spiritual authority to present this Kabala garbage as truth to the Body of Christ. (Kabala - mystical Jewish teachings based on an interpretation of the Hebrew Scriptures as containing hidden meanings) We have to call these Christians what they are HERETICS! Jesus calls them blind guides. Friends no amount of popularity is worth losing your soul. I doubt anyone that is giving Jesus lip service and sitting Him equal to a Jewish fantasy is going to heaven without repenting and hopefully being forgiven by Jesus. My advice; flee from these promoters of lies, throw away their books and turn them off… Only Jesus is Lord!

Chapter Four

RADICAL SHIFT OF PERCEPTION

The New Age Movement and many Christians talk about a radical shift of perception. The Neo-Pentecostal preachers claim new, direct Revelations from God, which free them from the chains of tired old Biblical doctrines. A paradigm shift is a distinctly new way of thinking about old problems . . . The problem is, you cannot accept the new paradigm unless you abandon the old. "The largest single group within the Church today is that of the ignorant brethren!" We use the text (IThess. 4:13), where the Apostle Paul wrote, "But I would not have you to be ignorant brethren!" Ungodly people must steal you away from the Bible in order to bring you into fables."

In our time, there has been a mass exodus from the true Christian faith. The most alarming thing is that millions attend church but they do not know what they believe. Many sermons never speak the name of Jesus. Many teachers have need of teachers. The church must go back to the basics of the gospel if it is to survive. Hardly anyone attends the Christian Church in the Common Market area. Only two percent go to church in England. The church must quickly awaken from its self-appointed slumber or America will soon join those countries of empty churches. The Devil is no longer looking into the church; he's arriving inside and stealing the children with the help of Disney and Time Warner and church leadership.

"Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul. . . . And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up," (Deut. 11:18-19).

There is an alarming onslaught of deceiving spirits attacking the Church of Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul reveals these special manifestations of evil spirits through prophecies that point to the deception of Christian believers in the latter times. These deceptions are showing up in the supernatural spheres and manifesting in the physical realms. Many are following teaching ministers that are sending forth an army of teaching spirits that are leading people away from their biblically based spiritual knowledge of Jesus Christ.

Nevertheless, due to spiritual blindness and through lack of knowledge, many are not able to carry out a full war against this army of wicked spirits. Many are shrinking from the subject of demons and call the war against them not credible. They believe that if Jesus Christ is preached, it is not necessary to give attention to the existence of the devil. If you try to teach them about spiritual warfare, they say that you are giving the Devil glory. They think that they can ignore him but the Bible says otherwise. (Jam. 4:7-8), "Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

MIXING CHRISTIANITY WITH POP CULTURE OF CURRUPTION

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you? 2This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith? 3Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh? 4Have ye suffered so many things in vain? If it be yet in vain. 5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith…" (Gal. 3:1)?

"For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor; [For if I build again the things which I destroyed] If I act like a Jew under the law, and enjoin the observance of the law on the Gentiles, which I have repeatedly asserted and proved to be abolished by the death of Christ, then I build up what I destroyed, and thus make myself a transgressor, by not observing the law in that way in which I appear to enjoin the observance of it upon others, (Gal. 2:18). [27]

"For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live unto God," (Gal. 2:19)

"Ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus" (Gal. 3:26).

THE ANTICHRIST SPIRIT

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of ANTICHRIST, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world," (I Jn. 4:3).

The spirit of ANTICHRIST is already at work. As these Last Days approach, more and more, we are witnessing people abandon the bible in favor of the New Age Movement, witchcraft, and Unitarian beliefs.

NEW AGE RELIGION

The New Age religion is the next transition stage. Satan has progressed with his plan in America to the point that we will not be able to put the true and living God back in the classroom or on the public throne. If we are successful in putting religion or prayer back into education, who will sit upon the throne?

The angel of light, the real deceiver, Satan;" "And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light," (II Cor. 11:14). For instance, for years there have been some drives to put prayer back into the public schools."

The Bible says (Eph. 6:11*), "Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil."*

(Eph. 6:12), "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." (Eph. 6:13), "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand."

DOUBLE SPEAK

Here are their definitions of this New Age Religion that is rapidly capturing the hearts and minds of the Body of Christ.

God: An impersonal energy force, immanent in all things. To the New Age, "God" can be referred to either as she or he, mother or father, god or goddess. Most New Age teachers hold that Mother Earth, the sun, the moon, and the stars - indeed all of nature - can be worshiped as "God."

Christ: A reincarnated avatar, Messiah, or messenger sent from the "hierarchy" (see Angels below) to give the living on earth spiritually advanced revelation. The New Age contends that Buddha, Mohammed, Confucius, Jesus, and many others were "Christ's," but one greater than all of them will soon come to usher in the New Age. To the Christian, this coming New Age "Christ" is, in fact, the Antichrist.

The Bible says, (Jn. 10:36), “Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God ?”

ANGELS

Angels: More frequently called "Ascended Masters, masters of Wisdom, Ancient masters, spirit guides, inner guides, spirit counselors, one's Higher Self, the Self, super beings, muses or walk ins," collectively called the "hierarchy;" whichever term is used, the discerning Christian will recognize these shadowy entities not as "angels,” but as demons.

(The Bible calls these entities as follows: Mrs. Jesse Penn-Lewis defines the satanic forces described in (Eph. 6:12) as: “Principalities - force and dominion dealing with nations and governments; Powers - having authority and power of action in all the spheres open to them, World rulers - governing the darkness and blindness of the world at large; Wicked Spirits in heavenly places - the forces being directed in and upon the Church of Jesus Christ in wiles, fiery darts, onslaught, and every conceivable deception and about doctrine which they are capable of planning.)

“The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; 42 and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth,” (Matt 13:41-42).

Born Again (Rebirth-New Age): Personal or Planetary transformation and healing; the point at which a New Age believer "let’s go" and allows his Higher-Self or Inner-Guide (translated: demons) to guide and direct his life. Some New Agers describe this as Kundalini, a Hindu term meaning "serpent power."

Christians that are born again cannot bring about this experience about themselves. It is a supernatural act that given to them by God. (Jn. 3:3), “Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

The Second coming: It is claimed that at the Second Coming a New Age believer achieves "Christ consciousness," an exalted, higher state in which he is spiritually transformed into a divine being. This phrase also can mean the appearance on earth of the New Age messiah, or "Christ." and his hierarchy of demons.

Jesus is not a Christ consciousness. He is God in the flesh according to the first chapter of John. He is coming again to take dominion over the world after the tribulation period.

HEAVEN/KINGDOM OF GOD

The New Age, or Aquarian Age, is expected to be the era when heaven and the Kingdom of God are realized on earth. The reincarnated "Christ" (the Antichrist) is to reign over the new Age, bringing in a One World Religion and consolidating all nations into one monolithic government.

The Bible teaches that Heaven is a different place than earth. Jesus is now sitting at the right hand of God. "Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, 21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come," (Eph. 1:20-21).

"In the beginning God created the Heaven and the earth," (Gen 1:1).

Hell: New Agers deny the existence of hell and a judgment. They also deny that sin and evil exist. God is alleged to be beyond good and evil.

"I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death," (Rev 1:18).

NEWSPEAK

Notice how the New Age Movement have incorporated Christian terminology into their messages but have skillfully changed the original Christian language into new spiritual meanings. We call this double-speak. It is an irrefutable indictment of those who subvert language to distort the truth. In the above cited New Age definition of their belief system, I have cited a comparison of the Christian concepts of these double-speak words of the New Age and revealed the original meaning according to the Bible.

They use of double-speak also called New Speak by the New Age is not a slip of the tongue, or language used out of ignorance, but is instead a very conscious use of language as a weapon or tool by those in power to achieve their ends at our expense. George Orwell saw so clearly when he wrote, "the great weapon of power, exploitation, manipulation, and oppression is language. It is only by being aware of the pervasiveness of doublespeak and its function as a tool of social, economic (religious), and political control that we can begin to fight those who would use language against us."

SPIRITUAL DISCERNMENT

A great man of God, Howard Carter, said: "If one was informed about a spirit but had no vision of the spirit, he would not discern it. but, by the discerning of a spirit we see beyond the sphere for which we have been created since we are a natural being. The discerning of spirit is only by the revelation of the Holy Spirit that we can perceive the things that live in the spirit world."

The Church, in many instances has no spiritual discernment. Many believe if you ignore the Devil, or if you don't believe in him, he can have no effect over you "because you are a Christian. Wrong; you're dead wrong. The Christian Church is being taken over by seduction and deceivers who are using mind control and eastern religious techniques. It is truly the case of the blind leading the blind.

The New Testament was written for the believer. It shows a definite spiritual warfare of defense for the Christian. "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded," (Jam. 4:7-8).

UNCOMMITTED CHRISTIANS

"Christians can't have demons," so the leaders teach. Yet, when one looks at the problems facing today Church, you see demons everywhere. A basic problem in the Church today is the indwelling demons, which have not been dealt with in deliverance. The Church is full of uncommitted Christians Full of rebellion, spiritual and sexual perversion, adultery, lust, incest, fornication, oral sex, whoredoms, homosexuality, hates and forgiveness, and every bondage under the sun. Church members are entrapped in sin while many ministers are discovered to be in compromising situations. Meanwhile, American pastor are saying, "Christians cannot have demons." Then the entire subject is dismissed.

The answer to demonic invasion is deliverance and then commitment. Serving Jesus is worth it all. (1 Cor. 15:58), "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord." Then, (Gal 6:9), "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." Trust in the Lord and hide the Word in your heart. Have conviction and know what you believe. Receive correction and reproof and confess your problems and sins.

The big three sins that are destroying people involve sex, money, and power. One is sufficient to destroy. Jesus warns of the Devil's power. "Simon, Simon, Satan has demanded to sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, Simon that your faith not fail. When you have turned back, strengthen your brothers." (Lk. 22:31-32).

Many Christians are content to live with demon powers controlling their lives and their families. Sin has become a companion. Preachers are not preaching about sin and the people have not been taught to resist temptation. ". . . . I am afraid that just as Eve was deceived by the serpents cunning, so your minds may somehow be led astray from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ," (II Cor. 11:3).

They enjoy living for the things of the world and the flesh.

DRAW CHRISTIANS TO BACKSLIDE

Witchcraft has entered the American Churches in many manifestations and forms. Many leaders do not discern it because they mainly do not believe that witchcraft even exists! It is time that the Church shakes itself out of the spiritual stupor that it finds itself. The Church is so fragmented; it seems that Satan's army is forging ahead with his well-organized plan to bring the entire world into rebellion against God! Better homes and garden Christianity is everywhere. At the same time, many are living in deep sin but still go to church every Sunday and dance and praise the Lord.

Recently we had a man come to our church. He was being tormented by evil spirits. The author spoke about the spirit of Jezebel operating in churches. I'll call this man "Mitch." After the meeting, Mitch came up for prayer.

"You have just described my girlfriend. When we first started dating, we kept our relationship pure. Soon we became engaged and fell into sexual sin. She asked me to move into her house at the beach. Our relationship has lasted for a year. I loved her very much but last week she told me that she was bored and tired of me. She kicked me out."

Mitch went on to say, “I am the music minister in the church and the preacher is having affairs with three different women. We sing and praise the Lord for about two and one half hours. The music is modern rock music. There is not enough Word of God being preached to convict us.

The author explained to Mitch that if he would repent, I could deliver him from these sexual demons. He blinked his eyes and stood on one foot then the other, thinking and then he said, “Well, let me go back and see if she’s still in the Church.”

Mitch has never returned for deliverance and freedom from these spirits.

The spirit of Jezebel is operating over the country in many churches. The New Testament describes this type of woman in the church. “Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. 21 And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not.22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds. 23 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works,” (Rev. 2:20-23).

The Bible makes it clear in both the Old and New Testaments that occult (New Age), practices are an abomination to the Lord. (Deut. 18:10-12*), “There shall not be found among you any . . . that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch, 11 or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. 12 for all that do these things are an abomination unto the LORD.”*

Another scripture passage that points out just how seriously God views the occult and wizardry (New Age) is (Acts 13:10), The Apostle Paul indicts Elymas the sorcerer with these words, “O full of all subtlety (deceit) and all mischief (maliciousness*), thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?”*

The fact is we should not mimic things that are an abomination to the Lord. No one should even pretend to be a child of the devil, an enemy of righteousness. When they do, they pervert the acceptable ways of the Lord!

Remember this; Satan is helpless with his destructive powers unless there are open doors of sin that put a person in agreement with his power. His agents work through sensational attractions and fascinations by false prophets, false signs and wonders, etc., (Mk. 13:22). People who are drawn away from the truth are shown to have seared consciences, (I Tim. 4:1), deceived, (I Jn. 2: 18, 26; II Tim. 3:13); fascination to evil ways, objects, or persons, (Prov. 12:25) and/or seduced, enticed, (I Tim. 4:1, 2; II Tim. 3:13).

Chapter Five

Vatican Deception and Hybrids

ANTICHRIST SPIRIT WORKING

The spirit of antichrist is already at work. As these Last Days approach, more and more, we are witnessing people abandon the bible in favor of the New Age Movement, witchcraft, and Unitarian beliefs. A great falling away from true faith: (II Thess. 2:2, 3), "The day of Christ shall not come except there come a falling away (apostasy) first." (Matt. 24:12). "Iniquity shall abound… the love of many shall wax cold," (Matt. 2: 5, 11, 24) Arise false Christ's, and falls prophets… deceive man in latter times some shall depart from the faith… giving heed to doctrines of devils.

All pathways lead God will lead humanity into great deception Luciferian worship. We know from the Scriptures that Satan's plan is to deceive the whole world. His objective is to blind the minds of the unbelieving and to recruit those who believed to become part of his agenda to set up an end-times delusion.

The Spirit of Antichrist includes: The New Age Movement which denies Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven. (Matt. 24:33). "When ye see all these things… (Jesus coming) is near". (Lk. 21:28). "When these things begin to come to pass…," (Lk. 21: 31, 32) this generation shall not pass till all be fulfilled.

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it," (Jn. 8:44).

Jesus Christ, as presented by The Father and Jesus' testimony is according to the Word, "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power s given to me in heaven and in earth . . ., " (Matt. 28:18). He is revealed as Deity with absolute sovereignty and authority for eternity.

VATICAN CURIA AND UFO

Monsignor Corrado Balducci, a theologian member of the Vatican Curia

(governing body), and an insider close to the Pope, has gone on Italian national television five times, including recent months, to proclaim that extraterrestrial contact is a real phenomenon. Balducci provided an analysis of extraterrestrials that he feels is consistent with the Catholic Church's understanding of theology. Monsignor Balducci emphasizes that extraterrestrial encounters "are NOT demonic, they are NOT due to psychological impairment, they are NOT a case of entity attachment, but these encounters deserve to be studied carefully." Since Monsignor Balducci is a demonology expert and consultant to the Vatican , and since the Catholic Church has historically demonized many new phenomena that were poorly understood, his stating that the Church does not censure these encounters is all the more remarkable. [28]

Balducci revealed to a visiting American professional that the Vatican is closely following this phenomenon quietly. My informant originally surmised that the Vatican is receiving much information about extraterrestrials and their contacts with humans from its Nunciatures (embassies) in various countries. But subsequent information indicated that the Monsignor has gotten his cases from other sources. Monsignor Balducci is a member of a group which acts as consultants to the Vatican on various matters concerning humans in possible contact with supernatural beings. As such, the matter of extraterrestrial encounters would fall within their purview, and possibly as well the spiritual significance of the emerging general realization of extraterrestrial contact.

Parallel information from National Security Council scientist Dr. Michael Wolf, a member of the NSC's SSG subcommittee for managing the UFO phenomenon, as well as from noted author and Vatican expert Father Malachi Martin, suggests that the Vatican is concerned that it will have a major doctrinal updating situation on its hands when extraterrestrial contact becomes authoritatively announced by world governments over the next several years.[29]

Christoforo Barato reported. “On the day 30 of April in the Palazzo Della Provincial of Pescara took place the Conference "UFO? The Truth is Top Secret, from Area 51 to Planet X", organized by the "Ufobserver" Cultural Association. [30]

Barato goes on to say, “During the conference I spoke about underground bases in the USA and dedicated the last fifteen minutes of my speech to a very short summary of my work during last five years that had gone in a new direction and is the leading topic of my future lectures. In the year 2000 I was working in Rome as an editor in the "Stargate" magazine and I wrote many articles about Fatima Apparitions, their famous Third Secret and other Vatican State-related mysteries.

“After the publication of these articles I started to receive many e-mails from a person who identified himself as a Vatican insider. He was interested in me and my research into Fatima. From those e-mails a story emerged about an enigmatic Vatican Intelligence Agency named "S.I.V.", code from "Servizio Informazioni del Vaticano". After one year of such epistolary contacts (in the meantime that person had revealed to me he was a S.I.V. member from the Jesuit order working in structures of the Holy See and I could verify that this information were true), we finally met in a public place in Rome and I realized he knew much more than what he had said in his letters.[31] Moreover, he sent to me some material including a video (shown during the Pescara Conference) regarding observations of something like a tenth planet approaching the Solar System.” [32]

NEPHILIM (FALLEN ANGELS) AND ALIENS

Quaeritur: Can angels produce offspring through human women; if so, of what kind, and by what means?

I have heard it suggested that the Nephilim that many modern heretics claim is spoken of in Genesis 6 were the offspring of men and not angels. This seems to have been the traditional view (it is detailed in the non-canonical the Book of Enoch, parts of which are quoted in the NT), and found some support among the Fathers (Tertullian, for instance) in the early Church, but modern theologians tend to argue against it. The belief that demons can lust after women is reported – without comment – in the Book of Tobit, and it has been argued that St Paul’s remarks on the veiling of women refer to this traditional belief. The Angelic Doctor argues that demons can take on physical bodies – made of condensed air – and impregnate women with stolen semen.[33]

We have it on Christ’s own authority that angels in heaven do not marry, and that angels do not by nature have bodies. But granted that angels are more excellent creatures, by nature, than men, is it possible that fallen angels – concerning the unions of which, if any, we are not told – could assume bodies and produce viable (but inhuman) offspring, imparting their excellences in some attenuated way down to them (whence the monstrous 6 fingered giants, the Anakim &c.)? Is it possible that fallen angels might lust after immoral women, not in a carnal way, as we might lust, but in an intellectual way, being drawn magnetically to the disfigured symbolism of the harlot, as the perversion of the true symbolism of the undefiled Bride?

I have struggled to find detailed information as to what precisely a Catholic should believe about this; the footnote in our Douay-Rheims bible explains the Nephilim as the offspring of the sons of Seth ("the Sons of God") and the sons of Cain ("the daughters of men") – but I confess that this seems to me rather weak; why should inter-religious marriage produce remarkably mighty offspring, and why should these offspring be egregiously wicked? Also, the expression "Sons of God" appears only very sparingly in the OT, and elsewhere it invariably refers to angels. [34]

CHRISTIAN UFOLOGY ALIENS GOSPEL

While the field of UFOlogy became more defined with the Roswell incident in 1947 and the creation of Project Bluebook which immediately followed, the more specialized field of Christian UFOlogy did not begin to take shape until the late 1990's. While theologians such as Finis Jennings Dake touched upon the subject of extraterrestrial life spanning the cosmos as early as the late 1940's; 1 the degree of published material by Christians into the field of UFOlogy was minimal. Searches in Internet search engines for "Aliens" and "Bible" or similar queries gave very few results until books were published by authors such as John W. Milor, author of Aliens in the Bible and Aliens and the Antichrist, and author Dr. Chuck Missler, who produced several audio sermons such as Return of the Nephilim. [35]

Christian UFOlogists fall into four general categories:

Christians who attribute the existence of extraterrestrials and their intergalactic spacecraft to natural or manmade phenomenon.

Christians who categorize extraterrestrials and their intergalactic spacecraft as an elaborate satanic deception.

Christians who categorize extraterrestrials and their spacecraft (which they define as intergalactic and inter-dimensional) as being divine manifestations of God's holy angels from the heavens, (the heavens being outer space as one of its definitions).

Christians who agree with the third category of Christian UFOlogists in their belief that extraterrestrials are divine manifestations of God's holy angels, however, they do not neglect to mention the fact that the bible documents both good and evil angels, so they disagree that all extraterrestrials and their spacecraft are divine manifestations of God's holy angels. They contend that some of them are fallen angels, which leads to their agreement with Christian UFOlogists in the second category, namely that there is a satanic deception at work with these beings.

According to Tariq Malik, staff writer for Space.com, a telephone poll, which questioned one thousand Americans, revealed that regular churchgoers were less likely to believe in extraterrestrial life (about 46 percent) than non-churchgoers (about 70 percent)…"2 Combine this statistic with the fact that roughly 77 percent of U.S. adult citizens identify themselves as Christians,3 the conclusion must be drawn that Christian UFOlogists in the first category appeal to the largest number of active Christians.

Explanations for UFO/extraterrestrial related phenomenon derived from Christian UFOlogists in this category vary widely, ranging from ball lightning, swamp gas, hallucinations, or hoaxes, to meteorites, weather balloons, or experimental military aircraft. An example of a Christian UFOlogist who doubts the existence of extraterrestrial life and dismisses the bulk of UFO/extraterrestrial phenomenon as being misidentified natural or manmade phenomenon, is Kenneth Samples, co-author of Lights in the Sky and Little Green Men: A Rational Christian Look at UFOs and Extraterrestrials.[4]

CHRISTIANS ARE NOT IMMUNE TO DECEPTION

As stated in the "The Deception" page, Christians are not immune to deception. Contrary to what has been erroneously taught, they are not immune to demonic attack otherwise. This is particularly true if they have unacknowledged, unrepented sin in their lives. Too many of our present day Laodicean Christians are in this spiritual condition. Therefore, they are vulnerable to demonic attack by way of the UFO Phenomenon. Some Christians have been attacked in this way. Some have had their lives ruined thereby. [37]

STAR GATES WORMHOLES AND VORTEXES

“And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man,” (Jn. 1:51).

ALIEN SPACESHIP

If a Christian ignorantly believes in UFOs, and is open to either the "alien spaceship" or "angelic" theories, he or she is vulnerable to being drawn into a UFO cult or falling into severe demonic oppression. Demonic oppression can come from just reading UFO literature or associating with UFO "true believers". When a Christian gets involved with the UFO scene, he or she is violating the Biblical admonition to "touch no unclean thing" (II Cor. 6:17). Spiritually, the UFO Phenomenon is a very dirty subject, as much so as pornography, though more subtly so, and, as the old saying goes, you can't handle something dirty without becoming dirty yourself. So don't get too interested. [38]

Totally ignoring the subject can be dangerous too, even for a Christian. As also stated in the "Totally Different" page, the victims of UFO encounters, especially abductions, are intelligently selected. They tend to be people who have no real interest in or knowledge of the subject of UFOs before the abduction happens. Again, it is not true that Christians cannot be deceived or attacked by demons. The bottom line, in reality, is that Close Encounters of the Third Kind have happened to Christians. In fact, this was the case with one of the most publicized of such incidents. It is known as "The Andreasson Affair". (Note: if you want the details, see the book, The Andreasson Affair by Betty Andreasson and Raymond Fowler". There is also a sequel in print.) Betty Andreasson, the principle victim, was a Born Again Christian. Her Close Encounter destroyed her family and even caused the tragic death of one of her sons; again, a deadly deception. When it was all over, she concluded that the beings that she naively accepted as "space aliens" were in fact demons. [39]

VORTEX/PORTALS

Are Apparitions or Creatures entering or leaving through Vortex/Portals?

Here are some words describing apparition; Ghost, Spirit, Specter, Phantom, Ghoul, and Vision.

Words describing Portal: Doorway, Gateway, Porch, Entrance, Entry, Threshold and Portico.

: "He opened the doors of heaven, and had rained down manna," (Ps 78:23-24).It also denotes that God was about to work a miracle in attestation of a particular thing. See (Matt 3:16). In the language, here, there is an evident allusion to the ladder that Jacob saw in a dream, and to the angels ascending and descending on it, (Gen 28:12). It is not probable that Jesus referred to any particular instance in which Nathanael should literally see the heavens opened. The baptism of Jesus had taken place, and no other instance occurred in his life in which it is said that the "heavens were" opened.[40]

Politicians and spiritually transformed Christian leaders are opening star gates and wormholes and inviting supernatural beings (fallen angels) to come through the spiritual veil into our visible world. Their demonic teaching goes something like this; a group of Master Souls (aliens, or angels) have made themselves known to the world to give guidance in these troubled times for enlightenment. The results of communication with these illumined ones (demons); motivated by the New Age to 'point the way' to self-realization, godhood through the inner mysteries of the teachings of their coming false Christ.

Paradigm Shift is a dramatic change in methodology or practice. It often refers to a major change in thinking and planning, which ultimately changes the way projects are implemented. For example, accessing applications and data from the Web instead of from local servers is a paradigm shift.[41]

An example: Traditionally thinking Christians, when proven wrong with factual information (i.e.-Biblical moral absolutes), yield to the facts, and admit that they are wrong, and then align themselves to those facts. They are brought back to accountability to higher authority (the Word of God). Because Biblical moral absolutes do not change, such traditional thinkers, who adhere to such unchanging absolutes are labeled as "resistant to change," by those promoting this "new way of doing church." \[42]

Does the Vatican have a secret plan for the arrival of an alien god?

"Prostitution" against God, is a very strong.

BEGUILING DEMONS

Receiving extra-biblical, mystical paranormal based materials as truth will soul scalp you and steal your spirit. Sorcery has always been a powerful instrument of the Devil to fascinate and draw humans away from the foundations of Biblical truth. Beguiling spirits are mesmerizing millions through world media but now, they are using the collaboration of so-called Christians who are merchandizing their Gnostic knowledge through their overpriced books. Remember Simon the Sorcerer was trying to use his magical spellbinding powers along-side with the apostles until he was rebuked, captured, repented and converted by the power of the Holy Spirit.

"For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty," (Rev 16:14).

"But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one," (Acts 8:9). Keep in mind through repentance from your sin and submission to Jesus' sacrifice for your sins; you are brought out of the world's state of darkness and sin, though the light and power of the grace of Jesus Christ! (Jn. 3:16).

[Many antichrists] Many false prophets, false Messiahs, heretics, and corrupters of the truth:

[Whereby we know that it is the last time]; that time which our Lord has predicted, and of which he has warned us. "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son. 23 Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also," (I Jn. 2:22-23).

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world," (I Jn. 4:3).

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist," (II Jn. 7).

"Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son," (I Jn. 2:22).

The answer is found in (I Jn. 2:22). The word "Anti" can mean "against Christ" or it can also mean "in place of Christ", meaning a substitute for Christ.

The word "Christ"-- derived from the Greek word, "Christos"-- means "Messiah" or "Anointed One." The Holy Spirit emphasizes the point that those who deny the Deity of Christ and His Messiah-ship are antichrist . . . or against Christ. They are also of the "spirit of Antichrist."

Most people today would not deny that Jesus existed. Most would not deny that He died upon the cross. What they do deny is that Jesus is the Savior-- the Christ/Messiah. They deny that He is God come in the flesh. They deny His virgin birth, His sinless life and they reject that His death upon the cross was sufficient payment for our sins. They reject His triumphant Resurrection! They scoff at the idea of His Second Coming.

(II Pet. 3:3-4). "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers [mockers], walking after their own lusts, and saying, where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation."

Chapter Six

FIDELITY TO SCRIPTURE

If your fidelity is the Scripture, and your allegiance is the Scripture, you reject them! But says Paul in the last days, men are going to be drawn away by false teachers and prophets in the church speaking in the name of Jesus. And you're not going to test them you're going to go along with them. And they are going to fragment and divide the Church because you won't test them.

The seduction of Christianity is often very subtle and various Christian principles are targeted. The devil has already succeeded to infiltrate evangelical and charismatic Christendom through seduction to follow after a counterfeit revival. He follows the well-proved methods against which Paul warned Christians in the first century:

Jesus is still preached by these new spiritual leaders, but the message of the Cross is not central to their preaching. Through a reinterpretation of the meaning and significance of the Cross, Jesus is changed into another Jesus. The heart of the gospel message is twisted that the emphasis on sin and the inherent sinful nature of man is shifted to the sin of the community, the city, or nations that are ruled by Satan. The solution to this problem is not personal regeneration but spiritual warfare enforced by a united, ecumenical Christendom against the kingdom of Satan.

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revival. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act. [43]

"For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him" (II Cor.11:2-4).

SATAN EMPLOYS HUMAN AGENTS TO BEGUILE YOU

Women and men are promoting blatant lies to the Christian Church and they are received for their extra biblical knowledge as great personalities. They fill the churches with their false philosophies while pastor are so terrified of speaking up, that these people have spread their heresies without resistance.

SATAN'S SOUL STEALER AGENTS

"Let no man (OR WOMAN) beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, 19 And not holding the Head, (Jesus) from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God," (Col. 2: 18, 19).

The entire passage has been paraphrased thus*: "Let no man spoil you of the prize adjudged to you, who delights in mortifying his body, and walking with the* apparent modesty of an angel, affecting superior sanctity in order to gain disciples; intruding into things which he has not seen; and, notwithstanding his apparent humility, his mind is carnal, and he is puffed up with a sense of his superior knowledge and piety," (Col. 2:18). [44]

Many have understood the passage as referring to the adoration of angels, (Col. 2:18). which seems to have been practiced among the Jews, who appear (from Tobit, 12:15; Philo, in lib. de Somn.; Josephus, War. lib. 2 cap. 8, sec. 7) to have considered them as a sort of mediators between God and man; presenting the prayers of men before the throne; and being, as Philo says, *megalou Basileoos ophthalmoi kai oot*a, the eyes and ears of the great King. But this interpretation is not so likely as the foregoing. [45]

BEWITCHING SPIRITS

It is evident that another spirit is manifested during such meetings. It is the spirit of the "angel of light", who gives new revelations and new interpretations of the Bible, resulting in a new concept of revivals. The goal is to feel good having Holy Ghost chills and bumps. Prophecies take precedence over the Word of God. It is the spirit of unity at all cost. This spirit operates in the sphere of feeling, especially during mass rallies where emotions are stirred and a warm, corporate feeling of love binds all people together. These experiences do not depend on any revelation of Scripture. People are not convicted of personal sin and unrighteousness, but the blame for all the problems that exist is rather shifted to communal sins and to the devil and his hierarchy of demons who are viewed as the instigators of every wrong act. [46]

The Apostle Paul was absolutely amazed when he returned to the Galatians Church to find those people that he had taught about Jesus totally bewitched. He asked them, (Gal. 3:1), A*O foolish Galatians, WHO hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?@*

Paul saw that these Christians were being led blindly and unresistingly onto their own destruction. That is, foolish for having yielded to the influence of the false teachers, and for having embraced doctrines that tended to subvert the gospel of the Redeemer. [47]

Idolatry in Old Babylon was the open worship of gods and goddesses: in reality, it was the worship of demons. Sexual perversions were brought into pagan worship with such practices as temple prostitutes. People depended on these spirit-beings (demons) to supply them with power, wisdom and resources. To gain favor with the gods, worship was accompanied by offerings and sacrifices. The sacrifices today are our children.

THE ANTICHRIST SPIRIT

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world," (I Jn. 4:3).

The spirit of antichrist is already at work. As these Last Days approach, more and more, we are witnessing people abandon the bible in favor of the New Age Movement, witchcraft, and Unitarian beliefs.

All pathways lead God will lead humanity into great deception Luciferian worship. We know from the Scriptures that Satan's plan is to deceive the whole world. His objective is to blind the minds of the unbelieving and to recruit those who believed to become part of his agenda to set up an end-times delusion.

The Spirit of Antichrist includes: The New Age Movement which denies Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven.

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me," (Jn. 14:6).

THE FORCES OF DARKNESS WORSHIPPING METATRON

The forces of the powers of darkness are gathering for the great predicted conflict of the future between the apostasy of a false religion and the rebellion of open infidelity. Satan=s lying claim to invincibility may fool the world but God=s people know God is omnipotent and able to move for His people. We are at war! Every believer in Jesus Christ is a soldier whether he is effective or not. Our task today is to be actively resisting the powers that struggle for the souls of men and women. The Holy Spirit working through the church is shown in (II Thess. 2), as the force that hinders the final Antichrist from being revealed before Ahis own season.@

We are certainly in the midst of the A*great falling away.*@ The Word of God warns, A*Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; 4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or* that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God,@ (II Thess. 2:3-4).

I feel the breath of Jesus Christ at the door are you ready?; talking to the elders in the church of Ephesus as the Apostle Paul is preparing to go to Jerusalem where he will be bound by the Jews, and later to die. The apostle writes these words or speaks these words and Luke records them. I take you to record this day. (Acts 20:26), that is a direct quote from (Ezek. 34) where the scripture says if you do not warn the wicked man of his wicked and he dies in his sin, I will hold you accountable for it. So we are supposed to warn the wicked of the wickedness they perform and also of the judgment of God upon them. If we don't, we become accessories after the fact of their sins.

Unfortunately, many Christians, who once served Jesus Christ, are now running after preachers that are promising them new candy cotton, powder - puff Christianity, i.e., Athings@ or Aself-worth@ Apeace@ and "heaven on earth," instead of the true Gospel of Jesus. Jesus is truly the picture that is shown in (Rev 3:20), of "standing at the church door knocking to come in." He is not the center of many churches today. You must seek for Christian ministers= who are sent by God to preach the gospel and Jesus. Jesus is supposed to be the focus of the gospel and His blood sacrifice is the only way back to God, the Father.

(Rev. 13:2) reveals that the devil (the dragon) has power: "the dragon gave him his power." Strong's (G1410) says the word "power" means "miraculous power," (Rev 13:2). God=s intention was that his POWER, THRONE AND AUTHORITY was given to Adam to rule the earth. He renounced his power when he obeyed Satan, giving him the reigns of his authority.

DEMONIC FORCES

C. S. Lewis (a Catholic pagan author) wrote that there are two mistakes a Christian can make about demons. One is not to believe in them at all. That way, when a demon attacks, the Christian will not be able to understand why he is having whatever problem. The other mistake is to believe in them and have an unhealthy that is to say, too much, interest in them. A person who makes demons the focus of his thinking is likely to come under demonic influence without being aware that it is happening; at least not until something disastrous happens as the result of his error. [48]

The same principles apply to belief in UFOs. Added to this is believing in them, but having erroneous ideas about them, in particular believing in either the "angelic" or "benevolent alien" explanations. Any of these positions on the subject is dangerous for a Christian.

Chapter Seven

The Gospel of UFO and Hybrids

ENOCH, JUBILEES AND METATRON

The Rothschild’s heads a world-wide Matrix cast a Satanic Spell over the world empowered by the Metatron, Spirit of the Presence. This spirit is the demon of the Antichrist as he controls all the Archangels and Angels. They believe their vision will totally rule the world and all humans are enslaved. The world elite’s worship the Chief Archangel Metatron as the paranormal authority who is also the creator of chaos evil; they are Satanists Talmudic Kabala that forms the New Order counterfeiters.

They believe they have attained the New Age quantum leap [abrupt rise] into “their godhood status”; chief gods of the matrix, omnipotent, omnipresent, omniscient presence avatars.” The deceived Rothschild’s think that they have power over all the fallen Archangels and Angels through their worship of Metatron.

THE WORLD’S ELITE’S WORSHIP METRATRON

All who desire to gain money, power, influence, sex, property; investments as the Rothschild’s did must follow their gods who demand rituals and human blood sacrifices; 2012 is designated a year of rituals and sacrifices to the earth gods and goddess. They believe the new beginning of their New World Order will have built will happen on 21 December 2012.

According to Kabalistic interpretation, the entire line of Jewish kings was descended from Jacob's son Judah and his wife Bath-Shua, a Canaanite woman. They were the ancestors of King David and his `Royal` line. King Solomon, to whom much of Kabalistic tradition is attributed, was the son of David by Bathsheba, a Hittite woman, and the Hittite's were yet another of the Canaanite peoples believed to be derived from the Anakim. Therefore, according to Kabalistic interpretation, although the `Messiah` is to be a descendant of the royal line of David, being the `Son of David,` he is also descended from the Satanic lineage of the Fallen Angels.

TALMUDIC KABALA

The Zohar, the holy book of the mystical branch of Judaism called Kabbalah, describes Metatron as "the king of angels" and says that he "rules over the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil" (Zohar 49, Ki Tetze: 28:138). The Zohar also mentions that the prophet Enoch has turned into the archangel Metatron in heaven (Zohar 43, Balak 6:86). In the Torah and the Bible, the prophet Enoch lives an extraordinarily long life, and then is taken up into heaven without dying, as most humans do: "All of Enoch's days were 365 years. Enoch walked with God, and was no more, because God had taken him" (Gen.:23-24).

The Zohar reveals that God decided to allow Enoch to continue his earthly ministry forever in heaven, describing in Zohar Bereshit 51:474 that, on Earth, Enoch was working on a book that contained "the inner secrets of wisdom" and then "was taken from this Earth to become a heavenly angel." Zohar Bereshit 51:475 reveals: "All the supernal secrets were delivered into his hands and he, in turn, delivered them to those who merited them. Thus, he performed the mission that the Holy One, blessed be he, assigned to him. One thousand keys were delivered into his hands and he takes one hundred blessings every day and creates unifications for his Master. The Holy One, blessed be He, took him from this world so that he would serve him above. The text [from Genesis 5] refers to this when it reads: 'And he was not; for Elohim [God] took him.'" The Talmud mentions in Hagiga 15a that God allowed Metatron to sit down in his presence (which is unusual because others stood up in God's presence to express their reverence for him) because Metatron is constantly writing: "Metatron, to whom was given permission to sit down and write the merits of Israel…."

MOSES--ANGELS OF THE PRESENCE --BOOK OF JUBILEES

James Charlesworth writes: "Jubilees contains 50 chapters and claims to be a Revelation to Moses by the Angel of the Presence (1:29-2:1). This Midrash on (Gen. 1:1) through (Exod. 12:50) depict the episodes from creation with the celebration of the Sabbath by the angels to the Exodus from Egypt with the strict observance of the Sabbath, as written in the heavenly tablets, by the children of Israel. [49]

As the biblical account is rewritten the author takes considerable liberty with the text: supplying names for persons and places, explaining problems within the text, and whitewashing some acts (viz., Rebecca is commanded by Abraham, who saw Esau's deeds and knew Jacob was the true heir, to love and cherish Jacob more than Esau [19:16-31]).

The patriarchs are perceived as the innovators of culture; writing, medicine, and plowing originated respectively with Enoch, Noah, and Abraham. There is a clear polemic against the lunar calendar (6:36-38), and a possible polemic against the idea that an angel protects Israel, since angels rule other nations but God Himself guides Israel (15:31f; contrast 1QS 3:13ff.). The emphasis of the writing is upon the exclusiveness of the Jews (no intermarriage, no eating with the Gentiles, and a special heavenly calendar), and upon the blessed joy of the Law." [50]

Raymond F. Surburg writes: "The materials of The Book of Jubilees are supposed to have been dictated by an angel of the Presence to Moses, after the latter had ascended Mount Sinai and been told of the destinies that awaited Israel. Jubilees is a book of religious fiction, in which the author has reworked the story of the history of Israel from the creation of the world up to the time of the giving of the Law at Mount Sinai; by comparison with the canonical Genesis that covers the same territory this must be said to supplement the Biblical stories. [51]

The additional information is conjectured to have been handed down orally from father to son. Beginning at Chapter Two, Jubilees parallels the account of the Hebrew Bible from (Gen. 1:1 to Ex. 14:31), with frequent insertions of *Midrashi*c material. The author of Jubilees has omitted incidents and features of the Canonical book. What have been added might be labeled additions and expansions. It would seem that the material omitted was done for apologetic reasons. For example, the act of deception by Abraham in Egypt, when he gave Pharaoh the false impression that Sarah was only his sister, or when Isaac was guilty of a similar act toward Abimelech; [52]

No doubt it was felt that it would be difficult to justify these events. The episode where Simeon and Levi trapped the people at Shechem into being circumcised and then murdered them when they were helpless is omitted. The devices employed by Jacob to increase his flocks at the expense of Laban are not recorded. Likewise (Gen. 49), referring to the blessings by Jacob, is not in Jubilees, because the blessings pronounced on Simeon and Levi does not agree with earlier denunciations by their father. Other additions have an apologetic tendency, as when Dinah is said to have been raped at the age of 12, or when Jacob is depicted as giving his parents presents four times a year. The longer additions of Jubilees were mostly concerned with the ceremonial. The warfare of the Amorites (34:1-9), and the war of Esau (37 and 38) are treated at length." [53]

James C. VanderKam writes: "Jubilees is a work that draws upon the early Enoch booklets (which it mentions) and Aramaic Levi. It is a retelling of the biblical stories from creation to the scene at Mt. Sinai, often reproducing parts of Genesis-Exodus but also adding to or subtracting from them. The original language of the book was almost certainly Hebrew, since all of the fourteen or fifteen fragmentary copies of it found at Qumran are in that language. The oldest of these copies (4Q216) can be dated to approximately 125-100 BCE; consequently, the book was almost certainly written before that time. As the author seems to know the Enochic Book of Dreams (1 Enoch 83-90) which was written in the late 160s BCE, a date of around 150 BCE seems likely for Jubilees. The Hebrew text of the book was translated into Greek and possibly Syriac and later lost until the Dead Sea Scrolls were found. The Greek version (also lost) served as the basis for translation into the Latin and Ethiopic languages. The only complete text of the book is in Ethiopic, but comparison of the Ethiopic text with the Hebrew fragments shows that it is a reliable rendition." [54]

Leonhard Rost writes: "The date of composition can be determined with some precision.[55]

R. H. Charles points out that Levi (32:1) is called 'Priest of the Most High God,' a title used only by the Hasmonean high priests. If the account of the destruction of Samaria (30:4-6) were interpreted as referring to the fate of Samaria when it was captured by Hyrcanus, we would be dealing with the last years of this particular Hasmonean and could follow Charles in proposing the period 109-105. There is nothing to contradict this hypothesis in the appearance of fragments at Qumran." [56]

FABRICATED ACCOUNT OF THE 'FALLEN ONES'

The book of Enoch is an ancient Jewish religious work, traditionally ascribed to Enoch, the great-grandfather of Noah; it's a fictitious account of the 'Fallen Ones' that is not true. It is not genuine part of the Christian biblical canon and is not considered to be authoritative scripture. These books are clearly intended to deceive humanity concerning the true plan and nature of Jesus Christ concerning His deity. The Christian Biblical Canon is the set of books Christians regard as divinely inspired and constituting the Christian Bible.[57]

The Book of Enoch reveals a group of supernatural beings called 'Fallen Ones' who supposedly first introduced humanity to the occult arts, including astrology, magic and alchemy. Occultists believe that this period in history, “the lost continent of Atlantis” will reappear and they will rule the world. Atlantis, they believe will revive Illuminati Mythology bring in a New Age of history. Much of their philosophy is based upon the writings of Madam Helena P. Blavatsky’s Secret Doctrine. She maintains that the race produced by the intermixing of the ‘Fallen Angels’ and women, humans that are Aryans. She received her demonic teachings through the Books of Enoch, Jubilees and the Jewish perverted Kabbalah.[58]

Chapter Eight

Secret Doctrine

MOTHER OF THE NEW AGE

Madam Blavatsky's Secret Doctrine articulated a 'The Plan' in which she described the 'Mystery of Babylon' to bring the entire world under the religion of witchcraft with Satan at the center piece of its worship. He wants to steal the throne of God. H believes that he can do this by stealing the hearts of God's creation, humankind. This is the Rothschild's agenda too. They consider themselves the anointed to masters of the world the world to bring Lucifer's new order into the world to bring Satan's rule over the earth. These devilish tactics that the Rothschild employs jump out to us directly from the Books of Enoch and Jubilees.

THE ELITE BELIEVE ANTICHRIST SPIRIT IS METATRON

(I Jn. 4:3), "and every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world."

The spirit of antichrist is already at work. As these last days approach, more and more, we are witnessing people abandon the bible in favor of the New Age Movement, witchcraft, and Unitarian beliefs. In order to reinvent a person's faith, they must be transformed (changed); their minds must be altered and engineered by implanting a new set of guidelines. Old traditions must pass away and everything change according to ground-breaking new policies. This is made possible through corrupted government, media and false ministers.

Sadly, many so-called 'Christian ministers' who are promoting these false messages of the False UFO; Starships; Aliens from other planets; hybrids of humans and fallen angels are teaching their doctrines of devils as biblical truths and facts. They are not preaching too expose these ungodly beliefs as being detrimentally in opposition of the true nature of the mission of Jesus Christ; but as gospel reality, some even selling these heretical books on their web sites.

"But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God," (II Cor. 4:2).

STARSHIPS AND FALLEN ANGELS AND ANOTHER GOD

According to the Book of Enoch, the crew of the star ship had the rank of Angels. The four command officers of the star ship had the rank of Archangels, and their names were (are?) Michael, Gabriel, Rachael and Uriel; the commander had the rank of God. In the Book of Enoch, there is a distinction between God and 'the Lord of the Spirits'. This is a very important distinction, because if the Book of Enoch is correct, there has been a mix-up in who God was (is). In the Book of Enoch, 'the Lord of the Spirits' is the spiritual 'El Supremo' that Western society generally refers to as God, while in the Book of Enoch; God is a very definite physical entity.

In both Genesis and the Jewish Book of J. there are changes in the way "God" is used that suggest more than one entity. Observe ye everything that takes place in the heaven, how they do not change their orbits, and the luminaries which are in the heaven, how they all rise and set in order each in its season, and transgress not against their appointed order. Behold ye the earth, and give heed to the things which take place upon it from first to last, how steadfast they are, how none of the things upon earth change, but all the works of God appear to you." [59]

From a twenty-first century perspective, this seems to be a description of a spaceship in fixed orbit and that changes to the Earth are controlled by the occupant of the spaceship.

ENOCH CHAPTER 48: 1-3

"And in that place I saw the fountain of righteousness which was inexhaustible: And around it were many fountains of wisdom: And all the thirsty drank of them, and were filled with wisdom and their dwellings were with the righteous and holy and elect. 2 And at that hour that Son of Man was named In the presence of the Lord of Spirits, and his name before the Head of Days. Yea, before the sun and the signs were created, before the stars of the heaven were made, His name was named before the Lord of Spirits."

Was the Son of Man named? When was Jesus named in Heaven? This is an attack on the deity of Jesus. Jesus Himself claimed in (Rev. 1:8), "I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty."

Jesus is Eternal, without beginning or end; Head of Days? Lord of Spirits? These terms are NOT found in the Bible. If the Book of Enoch were valid, composing well over 100 chapters, there should be numerous New Testament references to it; but there aren't. Although some of these false ministers claim that the Bible quotes the Book of Enoch over 100 times, this is simply not true. Just as the Qur'an, the Book of Enoch borrows from the Word of God. In sharp contrast to the Book of Enoch, the New Testament often quotes the Book of Genesis.

PENEMUE-- ENOCHIAN ANGELS

We read in the Book of Enoch, chapter 69:8-12-- "And the fourth was named Penemue: he taught the 9 children of men the bitter and the sweet, and he taught them all the secrets of their wisdom. And he instructed mankind in writing with ink and paper, and thereby many sinned from eternity to 10 eternity and until this day. For men were not created for such a purpose, to give confirmation 11 to their good faith with pen and ink. For men were created exactly like the angels, to the intent that they should continue pure and righteous, and death, which destroys everything, could not have taken hold of them, but through this their knowledge they are perishing, and through this power 12 it is consuming me."

What is man's wisdom came from a demon named Penemue? That's crazy!

"Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind," (Col. 2:18).

The Paul cautions them to take heed of those who would introduce the worship of angels as mediators between God and them, as the Gentile philosophers did: "Let no man beguile you of your reward, in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels," (Col. 2. 18). It looked like a piece of modesty to make use of the mediation of angels, as conscious to ourselves of our unworthiness to speak immediately to God; but, though it has a show of humility, it is a voluntary, not a commanded humility; and therefore it is not acceptable, yea, it is not warrantable: it is taking that honour which is due to Christ only and giving it to a creature.

Besides, the notions upon which this practice was grounded were merely the inventions of men and not by divine Revelation—the proud conceits of human reason, which make a man presume to dive into things, and determine them, without sufficient knowledge and warrant: Intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind—pretending to describe the order of angels, and their respective ministries, which God has hidden from us; and therefore, though there was a show of humility in the practice, there was a real pride in the principle. They advanced those notions to gratify their own carnal fancy, and were fond of being thought wiser than other people.

Pride is at the bottom of a great many errors and corruptions, and even of many evil practices, which have great show and appearance of humility. Those who do so do not hold the head, v. 19. They do in effect disclaim Christ, who is the only Mediator between God and man. It is the highest disparagement to Christ, who is the head of the church, for any of the members of it to make use of any intercessors with God but him. When men let go their hold of Christ, they catch at that which is next them and will stand them in no stead.

ANGELS AS BIG AS NOAH'S ARK

People 450-Feet Tall are you really gullible enough to believe that fallen angels had physical intimacy with earthly women that produced offspring 450-feet tall? I don't think so! We read in chapter 7:12-15 of the Book of Enoch 7:12 "Whose stature was each three hundred cubits. These devoured all which the labor of men produced; until it became impossible to feed them; 7:13 when they turned themselves against men, in order to devour them; 7:14 and began to injure birds, beasts, reptiles, and fishes, to eat their flesh one after another, and to drink their blood. 7:15 Then the earth reproved the unrighteous.

A "cubit" is 1.5 feet. The ark which Noah built was 300 cubits long (Gen. 6:15). Do you mean to tell me that some women had children who were as tall as the ark was long? You've got to be joking! Such foolish conjecture is a violation of the simplest teachings of the Bible. In Genesis 6: we read, "There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bear children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown."

The Bible says, "There were giants in the earth in those days," but it does not say they are the offspring of the sons of God (fallen angels) and the daughters of men. It does say this about the offspring: "the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown." These were not monstrosities of fallen angels; they were men. The record here makes it very clear that the giants were in the earth before this took place, and it simply means that these offspring were outstanding individuals.

Humanity has a tremendous capacity. Man is fearfully and wonderfully made—that is a great truth we have lost sight of. This idea that man has come up from some protoplasm out of a garbage can or seaweed is utterly preposterous. It is the belief of some scientists that evolution will be repudiated, and some folk are going to look ridiculous at that time. [60]

THE DEVIL IS NOT DEAD

Many in the Christian Church in the west would like to believe that the Devil is dead, or perhaps, he only lives in pagan foreign countries. However, the Devil is alive and thriving in the west. He has a great army of demonic slaves who are very busy capturing millions.

They are at it again. The New Age mystics are making another attempt to manipulate Scripture with magical vibrations and pagan rituals. The end result is always the same, the creation of a New World Order.

Rick's book, The Final Quest, the false Apostle Claims,
To have eaten from the Tree of Life
Jesus is an angel named 'Wisdom'
To have spoken to the deceased
A Civil War in the Church
To have more power than the Apostles
To have received the Apostle Paul's 'mantle'

They have the fruits of the having eaten from the 'the Tree of Knowledge' and now they want to eat from the 'Tree of Life' and live forever on planet earth. The Bible does give weight to these ideas both in Daniel and (Rev. 9: 6) "And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them."

Friends, don't buy what Rick is selling; his incantations are meant only to bring about the darkness inside, and subscribes to some heinous theories, associating himself with the most foul of reprobates, such as Bob Jones, C. Peter Wagner. Tell me, what 'god' do you think that they are worshiping with this nonsense?

These Gnostics claim to commune directly with God. Forget the traditional religions and their outdated legalistic, moralistic practices. They will teach you their personal knowledge (gnosis) of God; meditation, astrology, numerology, the paranormal, the supernatural, UFOs, Hinduism, Buddhism, Zoroastrianism, and death, dreams, alternate states of consciousness; and Jewish mysticism. They will bring you from the Bible to the Zohar (23 volume Kabbalah Bible) that speaks of astrology, reincarnation (gilgul), spirit guides, and many other subjects. They can be called New Age Christians.

Further, these people want to export this cesspool of unrighteousness into your congregation.

"And then shall that Wicked (the Antichrist) be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming [the coming of the lawless one, the Antichrist] is after the working of Satan with [paranormal – witchcraft] all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: that they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness," (II Thess. 2:8-12).

"But the prophet, which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die," (Deut. 18:20).

Human Hybrids and the Alien Agenda

THE NEPHILIM, GIANTS AND HYBRIDS

Animal Human Hybrids Being Created In Labs Around the World; hybrid like the giants (i.e. Trans-humanism). Occult UFOs & Alien Agenda are used in such renderings, as the story from Jubilees offers the account from the angel's viewpoint, in the language of the first person from heaven. (Metatron), the counterfeit system is the antichrist Babylonian system.

The apocalyptic One World Government – Religious - totalitarian monstrosity of the future is stepping upon the world's stage to play out the final tragedy of the extinction of personal and religious freedom.

NEPHILIM

The word Nephilim is not found in the King James Version of the Bible. No results found.

However, this term is placed within the scriptures shown in Genesis 6. Therefore, all the misled people who have replaced the standard King James Version are being deceived by these Illuminati published so-called Bibles and the false Christian ministers who are promoting this diatribe as God's truth.

The Books of Enoch: the Angels, the Watchers and the Nephilim: (With Extensive Commentary on the Three Books of Enoch, the Fallen Angels… It's all an incredible last day's satanic lie…

"And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, redeeming the time, because the days are evil," (Eph. 5:11, 13-16).

THE BOOK OF JUBILEES

The Book of Jubilees (Hebrew: ספר היובלים Sepher hayYobelim), sometimes called Lesser Genesis (Leptogenesis), is an ancient Jewish religious work of 50 chapters, considered one of the pseudepigrapha by Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Eastern Orthodox Churches.[1] Jubilees is considered canonical by the Ethiopian Orthodox Church as well as Jews in Ethiopia, where it is known as the Book of Division (Ge'ez: Mets'hafe Kufale).

It was well known to Early Christians, as evidenced by the writings of Epiphanius, Justin Martyr, Origen, Diodorus of Tarsus, Isidore of Alexandria, Isidore of Seville, Eutychius of Alexandria, John Malalas, George Syncellus, and George Kedrenos. It was so thoroughly suppressed in the 4th century that no complete Hebrew, Greek or Latin version has survived. There is conjecture among western biblical scholars that Jubilees may be a rework of material found in the canonical books of Genesis and Exodus.[citation needed]

The Book of Jubilees claims to present "the history of the division of the days of the Law, of the events of the years, the year-weeks, and the jubilees of the world" as revealed to Moses (in addition to the Torah or "Instruction") by Angels while he was on Mount Sinai for forty days and forty nights.[2] The chronology given in Jubilees is based on multiples of seven; the jubilees are periods of 49 years, seven 'year-weeks', into which all of time has been divided. According to the author of Jubilees, all proper customs that mankind should follow are determined by God's decree. [62]

Until extensive fragments were discovered among the Dead Sea Scrolls (DSS), the only surviving manuscripts of Jubilees were four complete Ge'ez texts dating to the 15th and 16th centuries, and several quotations by the Church fathers such as Epiphanius, Justin Martyr, Origen, Diodorus of Tarsus, Isidore of Alexandria, Isidore of Seville, Eutychius of Alexandria, John Malalas, George Syncellus, and George Kedrenos.

There is also a preserved fragment of a Latin translation of the Greek that contains about a quarter of the whole work.[3] The Ethiopic texts, now numbering twenty-seven, are the primary basis for translations into English. Passages in the texts of Jubilees that are directly parallel to verses in Genesis do not directly reproduce either of the two surviving manuscript traditions.[4] Consequently, even before the Qumran discoveries, Charles had deduced that the Hebrew original had used an otherwise unrecorded text for Genesis and the early chapters of Exodus, one that was independent of either the Masoretic text or the Hebrew text that was the basis for the Septuagint. As the variation among parallel manuscript traditions that are exhibited by the Septuagint compared with the Masoretic text, and which are embodied in the further variants among the Dead Sea Scrolls, have demonstrated, even canonical Hebrew texts did not possess any single 'authorized' manuscript tradition in the first centuries BC.[5]

A further fragment in Syriac in the British Museum, titled Names of the wives of the patriarchs according to the Hebrew books called Jubilees suggests that there once existed a Syriac translation. How much is missing can be guessed from the Stichometry of Nicephorus, where 4300 stichoi or lines are attributed to The Book of Jubilees.

Between 1947 and 1956, approximately 15 Jubilees scrolls were found in five caves at Qumran, all written in Hebrew. The large quantity of manuscripts (more than for any biblical books except for Psalms, Deuteronomy, Isaiah, Exodus, and Genesis, in descending order) indicates that Jubilees was widely used at Qumran. A comparison of the Qumran texts with the Ethiopic version, performed by James VanderKam, found that the Ethiopic was in most respects an accurate and literalistic translation. [63]

SOURCE NEPHILIM FALLEN ANGELS

The Book of Jubilees covers much of the same ground as Genesis, but often with additional added details, and addressing Moses in the second person as the entire history of creation, and of Israel up to that point, is recounted in divisions of 49 years each, or "Jubilees". The elapsed time from the creation, up to Moses receiving the scriptures upon Sinai during the Exodus, is calculated as fifty Jubilees, less the 40 years still to be spent wandering in the desert before entering Canaan — or 2,410 years. [64]

Four classes of angels are mentioned: angels of the presence, angels of sanctifications, guardian angels over individuals, and angels presiding over the phenomena of nature. Enoch was the first man initiated by the angels in the art of writing, and wrote down, accordingly, all the secrets of astronomy, of chronology, and of the world's epochs. As regards demonology, the writer's position is largely that of the deuteron-canonical writings from both New and Old Testament times.

The Book of Jubilees narrates the genesis of angels on the first day of Creation and the story of how a group of fallen angels mated with mortal females, giving rise to a race of giants known as the Nephilim. The Ethiopian version states that the "angels" were in fact the disobedient offspring of Seth (Deqiqa Set), while the "mortal females" were daughters of Cain. This is also the view held by most of the earliest commentators. Their hybrid children, the Nephilim in existence during the time of Noah, were wiped out by the great flood. However, Jubilees also states that God granted ten percent of the disembodied spirits of the Nephilim to try to lead mankind astray after the flood. Jubilees make an incestuous reference regarding the son of Adam and Eve, Cain and his wife. In chapter IV (1-12) (Cain and Abel), it mentions that Cain took his sister Awan to be his wife and Enoch was their child. Also, it mentions that Seth (another son of Adam and Eve) married his sister Azura.

According to this book, Hebrew is the language of Heaven, and was originally spoken by all creatures in the Garden, animals and man; however the animals lost their power of speech when Adam and Eve were expelled. Sometime following the Deluge, the earth is apportioned into three divisions for the three sons of Noah, and his sixteen grandsons. After the destruction of the Tower of Babel, their families were scattered to their respective allotments, and Hebrew was forgotten, until Abraham was taught it by the angels. [65]

The Book of Jubilees also contains a few scattered allusions to the Messianic kingdom. RH Charles in 1913 wrote: "This kingdom was to be ruled over by a Messiah sprung, not from Levi — that is, from the Maccabean family — as some of his contemporaries expected — but from Judah. This kingdom would be gradually realized on earth, and the transformation of physical nature would go hand in hand with the ethical transformation of man until there was a new heaven and a new earth. Thus, finally, all sin and pain would disappear and men would live to the age of 1,000 years in happiness and peace, and after death enjoy a blessed immortality in the spirit world."[66]

JUBILEES HYBRID CHILDREN, THE NEPHILIM

"When a prophet speaketh in the name of the LORD, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that [is] the thing which the LORD hath not spoken, [but] the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously," (Deut. 18:22). Cannot Stand Equally with Bible and is Heresy

"And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the LORD hath not spoken? (Deut. 18:21).

SECRET KNOWLEDGE OF THE BOOK OF ENOCH

Secret knowledge of the Book of Enoch – Masonry.

Apart from the scripture they speak of secret powerful forces aligned against humanity since ancient times, humans half angels and half humans and how genetics, nanotechnology, robotics, aliens from outer space and powerful Nephilim, spiritual beings that mix themselves with human being women..

Jesus said that the Devil is the Father of Lies. Christians must be sober and alert as the day of the Lord draws near so that we will be able to hear His voice knowing with all of our hearts that we are not being deceived by the evil one.

BELIEVERS CHILDREN OF GOD

Believers are the children of the church, as they are often called, (Isa. 49:20), "The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, shalt say again in thine ears, the place is too strait for me; give place to me, that I may dwell."

"Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the Lord," (Isa. 54:1). And many other places

God's people are often, through their education and instruction, the spiritual parents of those of whom they are the natural parents. The ministers of the Word and ordinances are spiritual fathers and mothers.

The Apostle Paul tells the Corinthians Christians that he had begotten them through the gospel.

God's people are immediately begotten of God. When they become saints, they are born again, and they have a new nature given them. They have a new life begun, and they are renewed in the whole man by a new generation and birth wherein they are born of God.

"But as many as received him, to them gave the power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God," (Jn. 1:12, 13).

Chapter Ten

MASTERS OF WISDOM

Teachings are derived from the Theosophical concept of Masters of Wisdom or "Mahatmas" claimed to have worked with mankind throughout the centuries. Most of the time in the past, the Ascended Masters (demonic beings) have worked in the background; however, in the New Age, these supernatural beings will appear and possess the government and religious leaders of the world. They will rule and reign creating a new Babylonian religion to worship a spiritually possessed personality, a deity they call 'The Christ'.

Is the Book of Enoch really a lost book of the Bible? A born-again Christian who has been reading the Bible for several years only needs to read the "Book of Enoch" briefly to know that something is very wrong. There are so many obvious flaws with this alleged missing book of God's Word. It is clear to me that someone copied from the Bible and wrote this garbage. The same type of mumbo-jumbo can be readily observed in the Qur'an. I do NOT believe that Enoch, who lived during the time period of Genesis, wrote this manuscript. Evidently the King James translators didn't either, and for good reason. The Devil is working relentlessly to corrupt God's Word, as he has been doing since the Garden of Eden, when he caused Eve to doubt God's Word. Satan is so shrewd that he even tried to confuse our Lord by misinterpreting the Scriptures in (Matt. 4:1-10*)."In these apostate times, the Word of God is under attack like never before. The reason why is simple... if Satan can pervert the Word of God into a lie, then he can control the masses!"* [69]

We have lost this generation to infiltrating witches and wizards who proclaim another gospel, another Jesus by the anointing of a Kundalini demon and big mega church pastor in every town promote a man such as Todd Bentley who is preaching demonic lying messages, drunk on the platform and committing adultery but Christians can't have demons?

"Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness," (II Cor. 6:14)?"

The central figure of the New Testament is Jesus of Nazareth; Faith higher and Life was much easier when Christians believed the Bible and walked in its doctrines. They did not depend upon self-educated exalted people who read extra-biblical materials and began to dispense them as truth above the Word of God. Meantime, Satan's infiltrators and the great mega churches are following another Jesus, another gospel by another spirit, totally blinded that they have followed false leaders into the powers of darkness.

"For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor. 11:4).

Al Gore's book Earth in the Balance, is a case in point. Gore devotes no less than three chapters to the 'Earth Goddess.' He states "The spiritual sense of our place in nature . . . can be traced to the origins of human civilization. A growing number of anthropologists and archeo-mythologists argue that the prevailing ideology of belief in prehistoric Europe and much of the world was based on the worship of a single earth goddess, who was assumed to be the fount of all life and who radiated harmony among all living things. Much of the evidence for the existence of this primitive religion comes from the many thousands of artifacts uncovered in ceremonial sites. These sites are so widespread that they seem to confirm the notion that a goddess religion was ubiquitous through much of the world until the antecedents of today's religions, most of which still have a distinctly masculine orientation...swept out of India and the Near East, almost obliterating belief in the goddess. The last vestige of organized goddess worship was eliminated by Christianity as late as the fifteenth century." [70]

"Ye that love the LORD, hate evil..." (Psa. 97:10).
"Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD deceitfully..." (Jer. 48:10).
"...if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect," (Matt.24:24).
"Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices," (II Cor. 2:11).

“Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ," (Col. 2:8).

CONSPIRACY

The New Age Movement is known by other names, such as ‘Ufology’, ‘The Aquarian Conspiracy’, ‘The Age of Aquarius’, ‘Humanist’s Psychology’, ‘New Thought Religion’, ‘The Third Wave’, ‘The Third Force’, ‘The New Spirituality’, ‘New Wave’, ‘Human Potential Movement’, ‘Secular Humanism’, ‘Humanism ‘which says, "Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us,” (Psa. 2:3).

The power of the New Age has infiltrated every aspect of our lives and has been a secret operation until just the last few years. It calls itself a conspiracy or a spiritual cabal that is being led by the men and women who work behind the scenes but hold the power of world in their hands. Christians should be interested in this religious drive because it is a worldwide movement.

The Book of Enoch Teaches Heresy!

To the Biblically ignorant reader, the Book of Enoch might have an appeal; but to a believer grounded in the Scriptures, the Book of Enoch is packed full of heresy. For example:

We read in chapter 40 of the Book of Enoch...

1 And after that I saw thousands of thousands and ten thousand times ten thousand, I saw a multitude

2 beyond number and reckoning, who stood before the Lord of Spirits. And on the four sides of the Lord of Spirits I saw four presences, different from those that sleep not, and I learnt their names: for the angel that went with me made known to me their names, and showed me all the hidden things.

3.. And I heard the voices of those four presences as they uttered praises before the Lord of glory.

4.. The first voice blesses the Lord of Spirits for ever and ever.

5.. And the second voice I heard blessing

6.. The Elect One and the elect ones who hang upon the Lord of Spirits. And the third voice I heard pray and intercede for those who dwell on the earth and supplicate in the name of the Lord of Spirits.

7.. And I heard the fourth voice fending off the Satan’s and forbidding them to come before the Lord

8.. of Spirits to accuse them who dwell on the earth. After that I asked the angel of peace who went with me, who showed me everything that is hidden: 'Who are these four presences which I have

9.. seen and whose words I have heard and written down?' And he said to me: 'This first is Michael, the merciful and long-suffering: and the second, who is set over all the diseases and all the wounds of the children of men, is Raphael: and the third, who is set over all the powers, is Gabriel: and the fourth, who is set over the repentance unto hope of those who inherit eternal life, is named Phanuel.'

10.. And these are the four angels of the Lord of Spirits and the four voices I heard in those days.

The Bible never mentions an angel named Phanuel, let alone an angel who is set over the repentance of those who inherit eternal life. What blasphemy! That statement in itself contradicts everything the Word of God teaches. We read in 1st Timothy 2:5 that Jesus Christ is the ONLY Mediator between God and men, not some angel named Phanuel... "For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus."

Repentance is strictly between a man and Jesus Christ alone. Only Jesus died for our sins, and shed His blood to pay for them (1st Peter 1:18-19); therefore, we must be diligent to guard and defend against LIARS and imposters who would lead people to believe otherwise. (I Jn. 2:22), clearly indicts all Christ-deniers as LIARS, guilty before God. [72]

ALL PATHWAYS LEAD TO GOD

The Spirit of Antichrist includes: 'the Cosmic Christ Movement' consists of the 'UFO Movement', 'New Age Movement' and all movements which denies Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven. (Matt. 24:33), "When ye see all these things… (Jesus coming) is near"; (Lk. 21:28). "When these things begin to come to pass," (Lk. 21: 31, 32), this generation shall not pass till all be fulfilled."

LUCIFERIAN WORSHIP

The drum beat; all pathways lead God by false Christian leaders will lead humanity into great deception Luciferian worship. We know from the Scriptures that Satan's plan is to deceive the entire world. His objective is to blind the minds of the unbelieving and to recruit those who believed to become part of his agenda to set up an end-times delusion. Remember, Satan uses human agents such as the Rothschild's to bring his plans into existence.

The Spirit of Antichrist includes: The New Age Movement which promotes a new Christ and denies Jesus is the ONLY way to Heaven.

We are our own gods' philosophy
There are many paths to God
Witchcraft
Unification of all religions
Rejection of the Bible as Truth
The 'Da Vinci Code' fiction
Evolution theory promoted as "truth"
Arch Angel Metatron, Cosmic Christ; Aliens, female angels, worship of arch angels
Queen of Heaven; Virgin Mary worship- which is forbidden in the bible
Materialism

All pathways lead God will lead humanity into great deception Luciferian worship. We know from the Scriptures that Satan's plan is to deceive the entire world. His objective is to blind the minds of the unbelieving and to recruit those who believed to become part of his agenda to set up an end-times delusion.

Sadly, Billy Graham reversed his steadfast biblical stand that he had preached his entire life that Jesus was the way, the truth and the life. Graham who told the world everyone would be welcome in heaven if they just walked God's way, retired after his June crusade in New York. (USA TODAY), and many other well-known Christian leaders have followed in his footsteps into the secular, witchcraft world of the Rothschild's' All pathways lead to God is a lie and I wonder; how many will follow these backsliding Christians into the powers of darkness? [73]

"Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it," (Jn. 8:44).

Jesus Christ, as presented by the Father and Jesus' testimony is according to the Word, "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power's given to me in heaven and in earth . . ." (Matt. 28:18). He is revealed as Deity with absolute sovereignty and authority for eternity.

The entire passage of (Col. 2:18) has been paraphrased thus: "Let no man destroy you of the prize adjudged to you, who delights in mortifying his body and walking with the apparent modesty of an angel, affecting superior sanctity in order to gain disciples; intruding into things which he has not seen; and, notwithstanding his apparent humility, his mind is carnal, and he is puffed up with a sense of his superior knowledge and piety."

Many have understood the passage as referring to the adoration of angels, which seems to have been practiced among the Jews, who appear (from Tobit, 12:15; Philo, in lib. de Somn.; Josephus, War. lib. 2 cap. 8 , sec. 7) to have considered them as a sort of mediators between God and man; presenting the prayers of men before the throne; and being, as Philo says, megalou Basileoos ophthalmoi kai oota, the eyes and ears of the great King. But this interpretation is not as likely as the foregoing.

"Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God..." (Col. 2: 18, 19).

[And not holding the Head] "Not acknowledging Jesus Christ as the only Savior of mankind, and the only Head or chief of the Christian church, on whom every member of it depends, and from whom each derives both light and life. For a further explanation of these words see the notes at (Eph. 4:16), where the figures and phraseology are the same.

SEDUCTION OF CHRISTIANITY

Author Dave Hunt sums it up when he wrote about the nearness of the appearance of the Antichrist: "The most convincing evidence that the awesome climax is near is the seduction of Christianity by the lie dressed in Biblical language. This is something new." Hunt says, "The very lie that we have explained in detail, which is at the heart of the New Age Movement, is also seducing Catholic, Protestant, Liberal and Evangelical alike on a scale, as never before." [74]

Some Christian leaders are teaching that when Jesus said, "I am the Way, the truth and the life" that He lied. Even many our most powerful, respected Christian leaders have changed their positions that the only way back to God is Jesus and are strongly affirming that there are many roads to God. At the same time, many Bible teachers have faith that all avenues of man's channel of supernaturalism are Satan's counterfeit religion. They do not see or understand that Jesus is a Spirit and is spiritual but alive also.

The hordes of darkness of devils have converged upon the world and churches are offering counterfeit faith and counterfeit gifts. The Word of God implies that these spirits are host. 'Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's Table, and of the table of devils. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he, (1 Cor.' 10:21)?

Since there are two spirits operating, it is important that the church pray for the discerning of spirits. "And these signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover…" (Mk. 16:17-18).

The Apostle John says, "Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the sprits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world," (I Jn. 4:1-3).

MIXTURE OF COUNTERFEIT WITH TRUE

It is by the mixture of counterfeit religion with true, not discerned and distinguished, that the devil has had his greatest advantage against the cause and kingdom of Christ, all along hitherto. It is by this means, principally, that he has prevailed against all reviving of religion, that ever have been sheen the first founding of the Christian church. By this, he hurt the cause of Christianity, in and after the apostolic age, much more than by all the persecutions of both Jews and Heathens. The apostles, in all their epistles, show themselves much more concerned at the former mischief, than the latter.[75]

A characteristic of false teachers:

"But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction," (II Pet. 2:1).

"For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ," (Jude 1:4).

Leads to destruction:

"To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him,"(Jude 1:15).

CONQUERING CHRISTIANS

What else is seen in the New Age churches? Special parking for first time visitors, and numerous "greeters" (a la Wal Mart); Why… Because surveys have shown that people decide in the first eight minutes, whether they will return to that church or not, so first impressions become very important?

How about the presentation and the message? The churches are often devoid of any religious symbols, such as crosses, stained glass windows, and pews, so as to make the unbelievers more comfortable, and the environment "less intimidating." Remember: the cross is an offense [Gal. 5:11], and the preaching of the cross is to those who are perishing foolishness [I Cor. 1:18].

The environment is visually stimulating, often with multiple video screens, drama, dance, and skits to portray "Biblical concepts". The pastors often wear polo shirts to set the audience at ease, pace back and forth as they speak, wearing mobile microphones – in all, a very distracting environment. The pastors give handouts with fill-in-the-blanks to be utilized during the message – this results in people rarely bringing Bibles to church. Multiple Bible versions are used, in order to put the right "spin" on the message, and the King James Version is usually avoided due to the "difficulty in newcomers understanding it", and the "hard truth" message that it brings. The messages are significant, in that much is left out, and with all of the distraction that is occurring, it is difficult for one to discern what it is that is missing. Jesus' love and grace are emphasized, often His deity is minimized, and the fact that He is a righteous judge is usually avoided.

Sin is often characterized as “wrongdoing”, “wrong choices”, and “mistakes.”

In Rick Warren5 and Bob Buford’s6 books, the personal pronouns He, and Him, when referring to Jesus in mid-sentence, are not capitalized, once again diminishing His deity. Rick Warren stated how he prepares a sermon:[76]

He first considers: “To whom will I be preaching? … Then, I consider what are their needs, hurts, and interests, and I ask a second question: ‘What does the Bible say about their needs?’” … Once he examines what the Bible says about the subject, he asks himself: “What is the most practical way to say this? What is the most positive way to say this? What is the most encouraging way to say this? What is the simplest way to say this? What is the most personal way to say this? What is the most interesting way to say this?”

In other words, he puts his “spin” on the Blessed Word of God in order to tickle the itching ears of his audience. This is a reversal of God’s plan; His plan is to send His truth down to sinful man through His messengers (pastors). The word pastor can also be translated as messenger. The true pastor is to act as a messenger from God, bringing God’s truth and message to the people, regardless of whether it is what they want to hear.

GET RID OF RELIGIOUS SYMBOLS

The end result is a watered-down message, with “feel good” half-truths, and no condemnation/conviction of sin for the listeners. Those who “accept Christ’ are not accepting the Christ revealed in the blessed Word of God, but rather a false Christ, a Christ of grace and love, and not of judgment, who exists to meet their needs and heal their hurts. Jesus becomes a servant of theirs, rather than those becoming servants of Him. [77]

(1) The only way to rid any area of demons is for people in that area to be saved and therefore have a relationship to Jesus. There are no methods or devices that cannot substitute for that relationship, nor are any required by biblical definition. The Bible says, “And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will everyone does the imagination of his evil heart,” (Jer. 18:12).

(2) Evangelization must also be implemented to the area with real Christians preaching and leading people to Jesus. When people repent and receive Jesus, demons will flee. A change in spiritual atmosphere will occur.

"Let the Lord strengthen you with His strength, trust Him; study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth," (II Tim 2:15).

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil," (Eph. 6:11).

The Apostle Paul reveals that the secret of spiritual warfare is your dependency upon Jesus Christ and your confidence of His power.

"Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. 11 Put on the whole armour of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. 13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand," (Eph. 6:10-13).

Throughout the Word, we see God's people having the understanding of complete trust in the Lord and being prosperous. (Psa. 20:7-9), "Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the LORD our God. 8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand upright. 9 Save, LORD: let the king hear us when we call."

His power is supreme and all the evil spirits and the Devil must yield to His might. (Isa. 2:4), "And he shall judge among the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore."

We are on the winning side! You do what you can, but success depends upon the Lord.

Chapter Eleven

Beginning Footprints in Deliverance

FLEE FROM THE WRATH OF GOD TO COME

These New Age teachers are actually putting together a new world religion that excludes the Gospel of Jesus Christ. They say that “all pathways” (religions) lead to God and work to transform true Christians into New Age believers. When they separate the masses from faith in Jesus; then their demonic teaching goes something like this: “A group of Master Souls (called aliens, angels) have made themselves known to the world that they may give guidance to those who, in these troubled times are seeking Enlightenment. We are seeing the end results of communication with these illumined ones (demons); motivated by the New Age to 'point the way' to self-realization, godhood through the inner mysteries of the teachings of their (false) coming “the Christ” (NOT THE REAL JESUS CHRIST).

You must turn to Jesus while He can still be found because the world is dropping into great darkness; Antichrist is getting ready to make his appearance!

Thus, we must guard our faith and as Jesus warned us to be careful that no person could come and deceive us. (Matt. 7:15-16), “Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?”

"And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world,"(I Jn. 4:3).

TRUTH

"Men have forgotten God," says Russian anti- communist dissident Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn. "The secret of healing our century's ills lies in the individual's daily choice of good over evil in the restoration of our lost religious faith." [78]

SATAN HAS RELEASED AN ARMY OF EVIL SPIRITS

The Spirit of God revealed to John in a vision that in the last days, demon spirits would be released upon the earth which would go forth to deceive the world. (Rev. 16:13-14), "And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet."

These three spirits that John saw represent lying, deceiving, seducing demon spirits that are going to be released by Satan. (Rev. 16:14), "For they are the spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty..."

Return the Lord your God. Follow Jesus and He will get you through these perilous times.

"Lead me in Thy truth, and teach me: for Thou art the God of my salvation; on Thee do I wait all the day." (Ps. 25:5).

If you are participating and listening to another gospel, another Jesus by another spirit, then you will need deliverance from false ministers of seduction.

Many demons are involved with false Christianity movements.

DELIVERANCE IS SCRIPTURAL

Deliverance is not hard. However the person must be in total agreement with it. It requires their total commitment to Jesus and repentance from all their sin life.

“Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. 8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded,” (Jam. 4:7-8).

Truthfully, the Devil is more scared of a Christian that truly knows Jesus and his authority than anything in world.

Charles Spurgeon writes, “When the believer has begun with trembling feet to walk in the way of the Lord, he asks to be still led onward like a little child upheld by its parent's helping hand, and he craves to be further instructed in the alphabet of truth. Experimental teaching is the burden of this prayer. David knew much, but he felt his ignorance, and desired to be still in the Lord's school: four times over in two verses he applies for a scholarship in the college of grace. It were well for many professors if instead of following their own devices, and cutting out new paths of thought for themselves, they would enquire for the good old ways of God's own truth, and beseech the Holy Ghost to give them sanctified understandings and teachable spirits; "For thou art the God of my salvation." [79]

The Three-One Jehovah is the Author and Perfecter of salvation to His people. Reader, is He the God of your salvation? Do you find in the Father's election, in the Son's atonement, and in the Spirit's quickening, all the grounds of your eternal hopes? If so, you may use this as an argument for obtaining further blessings; if the Lord has ordained to save you, surely He will not refuse to instruct you in His ways. It is a happy thing when we can address the Lord with the confidence which David here manifests; it gives us great power in prayer, and comfort in trial. "On Thee do I wait all the day?" Patience is the fair handmaid and daughter of faith; we cheerfully wait when we are certain that we shall not wait in vain. It is our duty and our privilege to wait upon the Lord in service, in worship, in expectancy, in trust all the days of our life. Our faith will be tried faith, and if it be of the true kind, it will bear continued trial without yielding. We shall not grow weary of waiting upon God if we remember how long and how graciously He once waited for us."[80]

BELIEVERS AUTHORITY

Have same authority over evil spirits that early disciples experienced. The twelve disciples (Lk. 9: 1, 2 and Matt. 10:1), ". . . He gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease." "And as ye go, preach. . . ." Deliverance, healing, preaching: to the twelve.

The seventy Two- (Lk. 10: 17:19) given authority to cast out demons. "And heal the sick . . . and say unto them the kingdom of God is come." Preaching . . . 17, ". . . even the devils are subject unto us through the name." The early church " . . . and preached Christ . . . For unclean spirits, crying with a loud voice came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed," (Act 8: 5,7).

Saints have the same privilege Jesus says, "I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions, and to overcome all the power of the enemy, nothing will harm you," (Lk. 10:19). "Heal the sick. and say unto them the kingdom of God is come upon you . . . even the devils are subject unto us through thy name," (Lk. 10:9,10). "But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.," (Matt. 12:28). "And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name," (Lk. 10:17).

Some maintain that deliverance comes through salvation. However, in the church today, no one is driving the devils out when they get saved. Even Jesus had to deliver Mary Magdalene before she was able to serve him for the rest of her life. "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust that He might bring us to God," (I Pet. 3:18). Faith must be exercised to be saved (Be filled with Spirit*). "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness."* (To be healed). Also to be set free. "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believes in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved." (Gk. Sozo) For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness: and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Gr. soteria) (Rom. 10:9,10). (Gr. Sozo) to save delivering or protect, heal preserve, be made whole, to be saved means to be set free body, soul, and spirit. Salvation includes deliverance from evil spirits.

Just as you must exercise faith to be saved, filled with the spirit or healed, so also you need to exercise faith to be set free. Deliverance like healing, being baptized in the Spirit, or being born again is a finished work, (Jn. 19: 30). If it is a finished work, why must we cast demons out? Each one of these (being born again, healing, deliverance, and baptism in the Spirit) must be work. We see in (Acts 8: 14-24) that after the laying on of hand, they received the baptism in the Spirit. They had already appropriated the born again experience. Can you understand then, that we must exercise faith to be free?

The Lord is the rescuer or deliverer. . . . God or Christ; some Christians believe that deliverance is a finished work. Deliverance is a finished work (Jn. 19:30). The problem is that hardly anyone is doing it. Remember Jesus administered deliverance before the demon person possessed could follow him. The Church leadership today ignores deliverance.

God's power is much greater than the devil's. The Bible says, "Greater is He (Jesus) that is in you than he (the devil) that is in the world. The devils are subject unto us through His name, (Lk. 10:17). He has given us power over all the power of the enemy and promises that nothing shall hurt us, (Lk.10:19). The devils believe and tremble at his name, (Jam. 2:19), and every knee has to bow when His name is mentioned, (Phil. 2:9-11).

Jesus defeated the Devil according to (I Jn. 3:8), "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God. 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother," (I Jn. 3:9-10). He destroyed the Devil that had the power over death, (Heb. 2:14). He "spoiled principalities and powers . . . triumphing over them," (Col. 2:15). Jesus told his disciples, "I saw Satan fall as lightning from heaven," (Lk. 10:18).

CHILDREN'S BREAD

You must be certain of your spiritual authority. You must understand and believe that Christians can have possession of demons as revealed in the Word of God! You will have rise to a higher place regarding the information that many Christians and some pastors have taught you. Some Christians will say, "Christians can't have demons." Nevertheless, experience and the Word tells a different story. Yes, according to the Word of God, born again, Spirit-filled, tongue talking, JESUS loving and worshiping Christians can and are infested with demons!

JESUS said that DELIVERANCE was the "children's bread," (Matt. 15:26 and Mk. 7:27). When reading the Word, always remember that it was written to God's church people and not the sinners in the world. Remember this; if you do not believe that you can be invade in great numbers with demons, and someone tries to cast them OUT, then the demons will not leave. Your doubt will give them license to stay. That is why you must humble yourself before the Lord and say, "If I have any demons, I want them OUT! And be led by the Holy Spirit to a believer who knows how to cast them out!"

God's power is much greater than the Devil's. As we walk in agreement with Jesus, His power protects us. (I Jn. 4:4-6), "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. 5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them. 6 We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error."

"And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. 18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven. 19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven," (Lk. 10:17-20).

Use your authority-Satan must obey. Demons don't have a choice. They tremble and run when a Christian will talk and agree with the Word of God. It is God's will for you to be free from every evil influence of the devil. "And these attesting signs will accompany those who BELIEVE: in My Name they will cast OUT demons . . . " (Mk. 16:17).

Provisions made by His Word, blood of Jesus, His delegated authority.

CHRISTIAN DELIVERANCE

DELIVERANCE is the most controversial and unpopular part of the Christian life. Unless the Church gets involved on a regular basis with DELIVERANCE, many Christians will continue to be defeated by Satan. The Devil will use their ignorance to plague the Church. When the Christian finally accepts that he can have a demon, the response it is usually that he or she can only have a few demons. Actually, Christians have many demons. When the young Christian starts to cast out demons, he or she will make statements like, "You are completely free of demons."

"He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly," (Job 20: 15).

Deliverance of demons can be instant or take a long time, depending on the person that you are ministering to. Deliverance is for the desperate. It never to be taken lightly' it is serious because the person can become seven times worse if he or she returns to the sin that caused the bondage.

Our war is against the Devil. This is a religious war that has spiritual weapons that are not carnal but are mighty through God to pull down the Devil's strongholds. We can win because there is more power on our side of the battle but we must be alert.

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist steadfast in the faith," (I Pet. 5: 8, 9).

"Resist the devil and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4:7). This Scripture shows that God gave Christians the upper hand over the schemes of the Devil. You simply have to be watchful and earnestly resist him to see him leave. He cannot conquer you if you continue to resist. Strong as he is, God never permits him to overcome by conquest the man who continues to resist him; he cannot force the human will. He who, in the terrible name of Jesus, opposes even the Devil himself, is sure to have a speedy and glorious conquest. He flees from that name, and from his conquering blood.

The Devil's is under God's control and restrictions. Satan could only afflict Job as God permitted. Job was prosperous, but also wise and good. He was completely dedicated to God. His financial security would lead one to think the mountain of his prosperity stood so strong that it could not be moved. However, his material success could not stand against the powers of his enemy. A horrible tempest was gathering to defeat him and steal his soul. Spiritual warfare happens in the spiritual realms but the impact can be seen in the physical arena. Job's entire life was touched by Satan's attack, his home, family, children, wife, and business. He was wiped out, but he held onto his righteousness.

"Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. 11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. 12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD," (Job 1:10-12).

SPIRITUAL HEDGE

This spiritual battle was between God and Satan.

The Devil could not touch Job because God had built a spiritual hedge of protection around him. The accusation to God was that Job would not serve God if he did not have such a perfect life. Satan watched him but was helpless to touch him. Satan had searched the land and found one person that he could not get to. Satan's goal is to take every human being to hell.

Notice, it was God's hedge that protected him. Though it was spiritual warfare, Satan was not considered to be the reason for the battle. God knew Job's heart but at the same time, He understood the power of His grace. God knew from the beginning, that Job would win.

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. 7 And the LORD said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, from going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. 8 And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? 9 Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, doth Job fear God for nought? 10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. 11 But put forth thine hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. 12 And the LORD said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD," (Job 1:6-12).

This challenge became an onslaught of catastrophes that brought Job to his knees to God. God knew Job's heart. He knew that Job would not shift from his position of commitment to God. As it turns out, it's a testimony of God's grace upon Job. The spiritual battle was actually between God and Satan. Job won because of his dependency upon God and not his earthly wealth or position. Also, his righteousness was not why Job won the battle. "So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes," (Job 32:1).

After the great attack, when Job came to the point of accepting that God's righteousness and strength that carried him through the battle and God forgave him of his self-righteousness; "Then Job answered the LORD, and said, 4 Behold, I am vile; wat shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth," (Job 40:3-4).

God delivered him from the powers of Satan and the judgments of his friends. "And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words unto Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath," (Job 42:7.).

Always remember that Jesus paid the price to be the judge of His people. When gossip and slander one of His Saints, He will judge you. Be careful. He wants you to judge doctrines and the character of people as to truth of His Word. Let Him judge them.

God required Job's antagonizes to repent and humbly go to Job with sacrifices offered before the Lord. "Therefore take unto you now seven bullocks and seven rams and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job. 9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job," (Job 42: 8, 9).

Then God released Job from his captivity of his bondages of self-righteousness and the words of bondage that had been released in the spiritual realms against him. "And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before,"(Job 42:7-10).

The Words that were spoken against Job were simply picked up by the Devil to be enforced against him. The story of Job's redemption involved his acknowledgment of God's righteousness rather than assuming it was his own righteousness that kept that hedge around him. His repentance of pride before the Lord brought release from his spiritual bondage. Then his forgiveness of anger towards his friends brought freedom. Job was opened to receive a double portion of God's blessings. However, it was God that gave him the grace to walk through his loses and his confusion.

SELL OUT

Christians have problems also. God will bring every Christian through his/her trials and tribulations, if they trust Him. The Bible says that God rules over the entire world. He, the most High, rules in the kingdom of men and gives it to whomsoever He will according to the Scripture: "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men," (Dan 4:17).

Like Job, Christians must sell out to Jesus to overcome the wiles of Satan. Many find it impossible to serve Jesus, particularly if they are trying to serve Him with their past baggage of sins lingering and demons driving them daily to sin. Their commitment is not enough to keep them from falling. They must be freed from the entanglements of demons that they once served. As Bishop Kanco from Ghana Africa says, "We kill their past when they get saved." He says that "we cancel all generations' curses as is shown in (Deut. 27 and 28), and then restore them within prayer through releasing all the blessings."

The Bishop goes on to say, "The people have a better chance of standing if they receive deliverance at the time of salvation," he said, "Doing deliverance is simply giving them the freedom from demonic power to enjoy and to serve Jesus. The real evidence that you have received real DELIVERANCE is that your life is changes and you become different. Those demons that were controlling your life, tormenting, harassing, forcing your life to be subjected to the powers of darkness, are gone. If you were a thief, you will not steal. If you smoked, you will not smoke. If you were addicted to drugs or alcohol, you will stop and be healed. If you were depressed, fearful, sick, these demons will leave and you will live in peace."

DID GOD GIVE US FULL AUTHORITY OVER THE ENEMY?

If JESUS came to destroy the works of the enemy, then what should we do; we should continue in His footsteps and do His works until He comes for us? We should bind the forces of evil and spoil their houses. We are to help those recover themselves out of the snare of the Devil who has been taken captive.

The Bible says "Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you," (Lk. 10:19). We are to subdue, have dominion, do the works of God, be overcomers, quench fiery darts, etc. God works through His people.

"Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms, (Jer. 51:20).

"Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods except he first bind the strong man and then he will spoil his house," (Matt. 12:29).

"For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the Devil," (I Jn. 3:8).

WHY DOESN'T GOD DO IT?

Why doesn't God do everything Himself? He certainly could! God has chosen to work through His children. The condition of the world is the responsibility of the Christian body and especially the leaders. It is clear that the fivefold ministry has failed to properly teach and show the world how to live. The world will never be won for CHRIST with the ignorance, cowardliness and greed of some of the ministries we see today.

Most adults cannot answer this question correctly! Most people think that He came to save them. Salvation is just part of what JESUS CHRIST accomplished on earth. As you can see from the scripture above, He bruised Satan's head, led captivity captive, divided the spoil, cast out Satan, judged prince of world, spoiled principalities and powers, abolished death, put all things in subjection, etc.

As you study the Bible, it is clear that JESUS CHRIST, The Son of God, completely defeated Satan and his army of fallen angels and demons. It is also clear that God Almighty made provisions that we can be totally victorious in Him according to His Ways. Wouldn't it be ridiculous if God setup a plan for children of God to lose to the forces of evil?

If Satan has been completely defeated, then why do we still have to war with the enemy? It is simple; Satan is free to roam the earth until he is bound up for a thousand years. Until then, he can do everything we will let him do to destroy us. Satan has no power over us but we let him trick us due to our ignorance of the Bible and because of sin in our lives.

"Which giveth us the victory through our Lord JESUS CHRIST," (I Cor. 15:57).

"Weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God," (II Cor. 10:4).

"And having spoiled principalities and powers," (Col. 2:15).

"That he might destroy the works of the devil . . . 5:4 And this is the victory that overcometh the world," (I Jn. 3).

Chapter Twelve

THE SPIRIT OF WORLDLINESS

"Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? Whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God," (Jam. 4:4).

The scripture teaches us that worldliness is a spirit. There is a spirit in the world and it is the opposite of the Spirit of God. "Now we have received not the spirit of the world," (I Cor. 2:12). Then we see in Romans 1, that the entire world is flourishing in sin. We believers have not received the spirit of the world but we have received the Spirit of God. So we can see from this that worldliness is a Spirit! Furthermore, we see the spirit of worldliness can be received!

Christians must be separate from the world and live holy lives. Joshua shows the way. "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success. 9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage; be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the LORD thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest," (Josh 1:8-9*).*

In the year 1517, John Tetzel came into Germany representing the pope in the sale of indulgences. As a clergyman, Tezel would mount the pulpit and say, "Draw near and I will give you letters duly sealed by which even the sins you shall hereafter desire to commit, shall all be forgiven you."

It was a license to sin and encourage people to live loose, and encouragement to live loose, an approval of worldliness. Although, John Tezel died many years ago, we still have those who are mounting the pulpits and are issuing a license to sin. The prophets of worldliness may not call their doctrines by the same name, but they have the same results. The Scriptures forbid worldliness and sin in the lives of believers.

Whatever the doctrine is called today, if the results are an encouragement to live loose and worldly lives are another form of Tetzel's license to sin. There is no place in God's Word that permits us to live like the unsaved and still be a child of God. There are no indulgences for sin in the Scriptures. There are no loopholes for the worldly and impure to enter heaven. There is no fine print whereby the unclean may slip into a back door of heaven. If anyone enters heaven without a holy life, it will be an exception that is not taught in God's Word. The Scripture teach, " . . . and holiness without which no man shall see the Lord."

The Apostle Peter admonished the Body of Christ in (I Pet. 1:14-16), in this manner - "As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance: But as He who hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy."

Smith Wigglesworth, a minister that experienced powerful movements of God in his ministry, tells his secret of success. He said, "I find nothing in the Bible but holiness, and nothing in the world but worldliness. Therefore, if I live in the world, I will become worldly; on the other hand, if I live in the Bible, I will become holy."

Is it possible nowadays for people, in the midst of this "adulterous and sinful generation," too actually "be holy" in their behavior, ways, or manner of life? Would God be so oppressive and iron handed as to command us to be "holy" and not give us the means to be so? Can we possibly deal with worldly "things" and overcome worldliness? There are many things that, we as Christian's term, worldly; such as pride, lust, immodesty, jealousy, bitterness, gluttony, covetousness, etc. To overcome "things" is almost impossible because the list is endless, because when one "thing" goes out of style. Satan will have another "thing" to indulge in. So, instead we deal with and overcome the 'spirit' that is behind worldly things. This spirit is the spirit of worldliness.

Cry Out for Instruction:
"...teach me Thy statutes," (Psa. 119:12).
"...teach me Thy statues," (Psa. 119:26).
"Make me to understand the way of Thy precepts . . . " (Psa. 119:27).
"...hide not Thy commandments from me," (Psa. 119:19).

Our battle continually wages from the beginning of our experience unto the end of our spiritual walk in a constant spiritual battle between the spirit of the world and the Spirit of God operating in us. So, we use spiritual weapons in order to overcome. The Word of God, prayer and communion in the Holy Spirit are our weapon to use to combat the spirit of the weapons to use to combat the spirit of the world. These are our spiritual weapons and are the only kind of weapon that can possibly help us to overcome the spirit of the world.

REPENTANCE

The cure for this worldly spirit and the way to get rid of it is through the power of God. Repentance is the first step that is, turning away in unquestionable sorrow. Then deliverance from the spirit of worldliness is step two. Step three is killing your flesh by denying it from association of the 'pleasure devils." Step four is working on your 'new man spirit' or your 'inner man spirit' inside of you by using your spiritual weapons. Your spiritual weapons of reading the Word of God, prayer, resisting the devil through the name of Jesus will prevail and you will experience victory over worldly things. You will walk in the Spirit of God when you get victory over the worldly spirit.

DELIVERANCE NEEDED

Jesus Christ successfully performed the deliverance ministry! It was an important part of His ministry because he was able to rescue the neediest possessed or enslaved people from the powers of Satan. We are supposed to imitate His ministry and reproduce it for His glory! Take a look at the following verses:

FINGER OF GOD

"But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. 21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace: 22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils," (Lk. 11:20-22).

"But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you. 29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house," (Matt 12:28-29).

Look at the confrontation of the evil spirit with Jesus as shown in Mark starting at verse "And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God. 25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. 26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him," (Mk 1:23-26).

Notice from the above verses that Jesus cast out a demon from a man, (presumably a Jew) in a synagogue. A Jew is an Old Testament believer. A Christian is a New Testament Believer. If there can be demonic activity in a Jewish Believer, why can't there be a fairly similar kind of activity (although short of actual possession) in a Christian Believer?

Notice also in verse 25, that the Lord commanded the demon to be quiet. In other words, He did not accept the testimony of the man "possessed" by the evil spirit (even though it may be true). In like manner, we must also not readily accept the testimony of any Christian with evidence of demonic activity.

"Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? 71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve," (Jn. 6:70-71).

Judas Iscariot was one of the twelve chosen apostles (personally chosen by our Lord). If the seventy-two disciples in (Lk. Chapter 10 verse 17) had their names written in heaven, it would be logical to assume that Judas Iscariot also had his name written in heaven (at least initially).

They had a mountain top experience. Jesus taught them that they could have the same power as He did by using His name.

"And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. 18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. 20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. 21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. 22 All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. 23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see," (Lk. 10:17-23).

Later on you will find that Judas fell from grace BUT [this was] a result of his own wrongdoing . . . "Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor? 6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein," (Jn. 12:4-6).

"Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, 15 and said unto them, what will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. 16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him," (Matt. 26:14-16).

The Bible says that the Love of Money is a root of all kinds of evil and causes SOME TO WANDER FROM THE FAITH. Judas was one of them. "For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. 11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things. Follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness," (1 Tim. 6:10-11). Judas willingly allowed himself to be the subject of demonic activity and in so doing breached the hedge of God's protective covering . . . "He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him," (Eccl. 10:8).

Satan himself personally entered Judas Iscariot before Jesus died. Temporary demonic activity if allowed to continue can result in a permanent state of affliction! "And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him that thou doest, do quickly, (Jn. 13:27).

"...within the professing Christian Church at least as many people need deliverance from evil spirits as need healing from sickness and that's about 80 per cent," transcribed from Derek Prince's audio entitled `How Jesus dealt with demons'. The word "possessed" [by demons] is probably not so appropriate when applied to Christians. The Greek word actually means "to be demonized," that is to be in some way or another under the influence or attack or control of the enemy.

BEGUILING SPIRITS

Here are some examples from Apostle Paul's teachings . . . "But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. 4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (I Cor. 11:3-4).

Notice from the (II Cor. 11 verse 4) that a Christian can receive a different spirit [a spirit other than the Holy Spirit]. Verse 3 says that DECEPTION opens the door for the wrong spirit to "afflict" the believer. (Eph. Chapter 4 verse 27), speaks of the devil gaining a foothold in the believer. When a wrong spirit `takes hold' of a believer, he begins to want to control more and more areas of his life. "Neither give place to the devil," (Eph. 4:27).

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?" (Gal. 3:1).

Notice that the Galatians that were Christians were "BEWITCHED."

Nelson's Bible Dictionary defines [to] "bewitch" as follows: BEWITCH--- To hypnotize, charm, charm or cast an evil spell . . . To be "bewitched" therefore is to be under the influence or power of an evil spirit. 2

The apostle here declared that the experience of his readers, starting with faith in Christ crucified and certified by the gift to them of the Holy Spirit, lay completely outside the sphere of the Law. Would they now renounce the perfection of the divine provision, he asks, for the folly of their own efforts?3

SPELLBOUND

"O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you," (Gal. 3:1-5). The apostle was talking to Believers! (Verse 1-5). They must have become spellbound. Victims of an evil spell (demon) (cf. Gal 1:7). In view of his dramatic preaching of Christ crucified when he was among them (cf. 1 Cor. 1:23; 2:2), their change in attitude seemed strange. Had they forgotten their first vivid impression? After the reception of Christ came the gift of the Spirit (cf. Gal. 4:4-6; Eph. 1:13), not at all based on law keeping as an effort of the flesh (cf. Gal. 5:18-19). 4.

Suffered probably does not refer to persecution or the burden of law keeping, but is used in a good sense - experienced. This interpretation is favored by the continuing mention of the Spirit in the next verse. 5. The ongoing work of the Spirit in miracles, like his advent into the hearts of the Galatians, depended not on works but on the hearing of faith, i.e., a faith response to the Gospel message preached to them.

The apostle asked these following questions in astonishment. “Are ye so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?” (Gal. 3:3-5, verse 4) “Have ye suffered so many things in vain? If it be yet in vain. In verse 5 He therefore that minister to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?”

The New Treatment is filled with people who went back on the Lord and became demonized. BE WARE, CHRISTIANS CAN BE DECEIVED AND CANS DEFINITELY BE DEMONIZED particularly if they are not living for Jesus or improperly taught the Word of God!

Christians are not to be ignorant of Satan’s tactics according to the Bible “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices,” (II Cor. 2:11).

DISCERNING TRUTH

Two thousand years ago the apostle Paul was greatly concerned about Christian discernment, he wrote: "And this I pray, that your love may abound still more and more in real knowledge and all discernment, so that you may approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless until the day of Christ; having been filled with the fruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God,” (Phil. 1:9-11).

Paul shows in this Scripture the need for the Saints to have the quickness to sense the true spiritual situation which exists. In these latter days, it is imperative that they have the ability to make wise choices among all the correct Biblical alternatives. Christian discernment means the ability to "approve the things that are excellent," or, more literally, to "distinguish between the things that differs."

There are many voices crying, "Follow me, I have the way to truth." Among these voices are the true ministers of God who have been anointed by the Holy Spirit to lead His people into all truth. While there are also many false prophets who main desire is to gather a following to led them into the Big Lie. Yes, it is very important for every Christian to be able to distinguish between the things that differ.

Christians are being treated at second class citizens by movies. Television and media are because of their noticeable passive attitudes concerning the Antichrist trends in the public arena. While deceptions abound in every area of life, many Christians, mainly seem concerned only with the issues that involve self or immediate family problems. Deception is as old as Satan and the Garden of Eden. But it's also effectiveness as a tool for the manipulation of the minds of men has increased tremendously in our time because of a sleeping church.

The Bible warns in (II Tim.4: 2-4): "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables."

Chapter Thirteen

Invisible World

SUBLIMINAL WORLD OF DEMONS

Many Christians are totally unaware of the reality of the subliminal world of demons. They are invisible to the natural eye but they are real! The Bible says that my people perish for a lack of knowledge. Multitudes are tormented because people choose to ignore the power to cast out devils. Jesus had great compassion for the possessed. He used His power to free them. Then the first assignments that He gave His followers were empowerment to cast out devils.

However, remember that every problem is not because of demons. Some problems come from the person's willful sin life. The scriptural answer to the sins of the flesh is complete surrender to Jesus, (Rom. 6: 6-11). If the problem is caused by the person's submission to the sins of the flesh, then counsel must direct that person to commitment to the Lord and His Word. If it is a demon, then we must cast it out.

Clearly, correct diagnosis is of major importance. We must discern what we are dealing with each case. Is the problem being caused by oppression of the flesh? If this is the reason, then we must counsel the person to totally commit his/or life to Jesus Christ. (Gal. 5:24). "And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts."

If it a question of demon possession, then we must cast it out according (Mk. 5, 8, 16:17 and Acts 8:7), and only born again Christians have this supernatural ability. Remember, you cannot cast out a person's flesh nor can you crucify an evil spirit! "And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven (left, remitted, and let go of the debts, and have given up resentment against) our debtors," (Matt. 6: 12).

FORGIVENESS

"For if you forgive people their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins, leaving them, letting them goes, and giving up resentment], your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their trespasses [their reckless and willful sins, leaving them, letting them go, and giving up resentment], neither will your Father forgive you your trespasses," (Matt. 6:14 - 15).

JESUS said in the above scriptures that if we don't forgive the people who have hurt us then He will not forgive us. That's not anything to play around with. I want to be forgiven and if that person who hurt me is going to keep me from God then I will quickly forgive them.

If you will forgive the people who have hurt you, then you will be able to receive DELIVERANCE. Demons work in legalities and not forgiving is a legal hold that gives the legal right to stay and torment. Not Forgiving can bring cancer, arthritis or a host of other illnesses. The author ministers too many people who have bitterness and forgiveness cause these diseases and they repent from forgiveness, the bitterness demons leave.

A sample prayer is as follows: Father, in JESUS Name, I forgive my mother, father, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts, grandparents, teachers, friends, bosses, ex-spouses, and anyone else who has hurt me. Amen. If any name comes to your mind then speak their name, for example, a stepfather, or the preacher or anyone from the church or churches you have attended.

Father. Forgiveness is not a feeling. It happens as an act of my free will. I am having a problem forgiving them. I know that a demon is involved and blocking me. "Father, in JESUS' name, by an act of my will is to forgive so and so. I give so and so to You Lord JESUS and ask You to save their souls. I forgive myself and receive your forgiveness for my trespasses. Thank You for delivering me from bitterness, not forgiving and all sicknesses attached, including all the tormentors, in Jesus Name. Amen

"Then his master called him and said to him, you contemptible and wicked attendant! I forgave and canceled all that [great] debt of yours because you begged me to. And should you not have had pity and mercy on your fellow attendant, as I had pity and mercy on you? And in wrath his master turned him over to the torturers (the jailers), till he should pay all that he owed, so also My heavenly Father will deal with every one of you if you do not freely forgive your brother from your heart his offenses," (Matt. 18:32-35).

There is torment involved with forgiveness. According to this scripture, God allows these demons to torment us if we do not forgive.

CAN CHRISTIANS HAVE POSSESSION OF DEMONS?

JESUS comes to abide in your spirit, when you are born again as a Christian,

The Bible shows that a person is a triune being. They have a body, soul and spirit. Then they have a soul, which consists with mind, will and emotions. Experience bears the witness to the fact many Christians become sick with cancer . . . that's a demon. To what degree is high blood pressure, heart trouble can involve demonic activity?

"They that are of a froward heart are abomination to the Lord: but such as are upright in their way are his delight. 21 Though hand join in hand, the wicked shall not be unpunished: but the seed of the righteous shall be delivered. "The seed of the Righteous shall be delivered," (Prov. 11: 20-22).

To what extent do you believe that your soul can be affected by demons in the realms of your emotions? Do you have a bad temper? Is there mental illness in your family background? Do you have rejection, hate, forgiveness, isolation, visiting you daily? Are you harassed? Do you encounter the problem that your spirit has trouble serving the Lord JESUS the way the bible tells you to do and you can't pray or read the Bible? The demons have your spirit surrounded and bound. What happens to Christians that are having demonic problems? They are falling through the cracks and are being sent to the psychologist or psychiatrists. They are being drugged and some even sent to the mental wards. Have mercy Lord Jesus.

Children of God can be sick in bodies, sick in minds, can't seem to serve God, can't read the Word of God, can't go to church, can't pay tithes, gripe about the preacher, the spouse, the people in the church. Christian people swing and dance sing and eat but many are Luke warm in their commitment to Jesus! Could it be . . . demons? Most of the time, it is demons are causing these problems.

JESUS said that "Satan has come to kill, steal and destroy, but that He (JESUS) has come to give life and life abundantly," (Jn. 10:10). "JESUS came to destroy the works of the devil," (I Jn. 3:8).

However, Christians are simply taught, that they cannot have devils!

OPPRESSION AND BONDAGE

Jesus says in (Mk. Chapter 7 beginning at verse 21), "For from within, [that is] out of the hearts of men, come base and wicked thoughts, sexual immorality, stealing, murder, adultery; 22). Coveting (a greedy desire to have more wealth), dangerous and destructive wickedness, deceit; unrestrained (indecent) conduct; an evil eye (envy), slander (evil speaking, malicious misrepresentation, abusiveness), prides (the sin of an uplifted heart against God and man), foolishness (follies, lack of sense, recklessness, thoughtlessness." All these evils [purposes and desires] come from within, and they make the man unclean and render him unhallowed."

These names that are shown above are all names of demons. Look at these early Christians that had backslidden and how the Apostle Paul dealt with them. "In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus," (I Cor. 5: 4, 5). The apostle here deals with disobedient and sinful believers in the church at Corinth. Verse 10, specifically emphasizes that he is speaking not about evildoers of the world but in the church, (verse12), again it is made clear.

FORGIVENESS

Christians can live free from mental torture, panic, envy, hatred, pride, self-pity, addiction, gluttony and all other forms of bondage, oppression and defilement! There are two main causes for a person's inner problems. The first issue is as the Word of God calls it, "the flesh, or the 'old man," and the old man that part of the person who is living in the carnal nature of the person's flesh. It is the rebellious person's will that is being influenced and tempted by Satan. The second cause for inner problems is the working of evil spirits. Demons will tie themselves to the person's mind or flesh or emotions. This bondage will cause terrible physical manifestations. These demons will not relinquish their evil hold unless compelled to do so by a Christian who is empowered by Jesus. Look at(Eph. 4:21-23 21*), "If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus: 22 That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts; 23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind."*

The Bible shows that it is the responsibility of the individual to put their sins under the blood of Jesus and stop sinning. "Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. 7 For he that is dead is freed from sin. 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him," (Rom. 6:6-8).

BACKSLIDING

Some Christians open themselves to demonic attack by lapsing back into their old sinful life. If a Christian backslides, grows cold in his allegiance to Christ. Satan will first tempt him to do wrong. As he obeys he opens himself for an evil spirit to enter and take control of his life. The evil spirit will not come in immediately, for God is merciful, but if the sin is continually indulged in after professed conversion, and not repented, then such a person is wide open to demonic subjugation in its many forms.

The prophet Jeremiah shows backsliding as turning back and going after other gods. He wrote in (Jer. 3:8*), "And I saw, when for all the causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also."* Another they become separated from the Spirit of God.

God sends Jeremiah to plea His cause to the backsliders. "Go and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger forever. 13 Only acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD," (Jer. 3:12-13). He tells them just acknowledge the presence of their iniquity. Confess their sin and then He will forgive them.

God was married to these backsliders and His heart was broken over their wickedness. It is a picture of God standing with His arms open, waiting for them to repent and return to Him. Jeremiah speaks for God when He pleads, "Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion," (Jer. 3:14). God shows His mercy to the backslider in Hosea when He said, "...will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger is turned away from him," (Hos. 14:4).

Today, there are millions that find themselves in backslidden condition. It is becoming an evangelistic ground that needs to be broken. Just as Israel had to be called back by the prophets, so it is today, Gods ministers must reach out to the backslider in love, concern and forgiveness.

DEMONS INVOLVED

Anyone who is periodically attacked by a compulsion-to act in a way, which is contrary to his basic nature and personality, should suspect demon activity. Demon attack brings forth a behavior pattern that "can't be him." It isn't. It is the personality of the demon spirit being manifested through him. The victims will be themselves at times, but reverts into strange behavior which makes them some other person, split personality or schizophrenia.

"Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: of who in Hymanaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme?" (I Tim. 2:25, 26).

Is it possible for a born-again Spirit-filled to have a demon? Absolutely not-say some, Holy Spirit cannot coexist in the same body with a demon! - say others. Catchwords are not the Scriptural answer or are extra-Scriptural pieces of logic that must stand alone. Your faith cannot rest upon an assumption, but upon Scriptural evidence. One moment Peter was speaking under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, telling Jesus that He was the Son of God and then the next moment he was speaking under the inspiration of Satan.

"But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men," (Matt. 16:23).

Yes. It is dangerous delusions to think Satan/demons to adopt a hands-off policy to believers. These demons can affect and afflict believers such as buffet them, oppose them, seek to tempt or deceive them, or lead them astray, place sickness on them. They look for and quickly seize any advantage to hinder believers.

Christian's reason that a believer is inhabited by the Holy Spirit-not coexists within the same body. Proof text used is, "We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God that we may understand what God has freely given us," (I Cor. 2:12). "Jesus came to destroy the works of the devil," (I Jn. 3:8). Indeed He did!

Problems are caused by demons. Christians must follow Jesus' remedy method. He says to cast them out in His name. Believers can be delivered from the power of Satan and his demons.

"Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us, meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: 13 who have delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son," (Col. 1:12, 13).

"And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins; 2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: 3 Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others." (Eph. 2: 1-3).

Like other promises, they are not automatic. As we voluntarily meet God's conditions for deliverance, Christians are provided with complete protection from fiery darts of the enemy (Eph. 6). Armor is designed for defense from external-not internal enemies. Armor is not always in place. Christian leaders many times talk about problems but they do not give any solutions. Discouraged, despair dropped by wayside, and some commit suicide. They experience inability to find a solution within the framework of their theological training or understanding.

For certain, experience not the basis for the interpretation of the Bible and if experience runs counter to an interpretation -seek to find the reason and be willing to restudy interpretation under direction of the Holy Spirit. Also you must be prepared to make any necessary corrections to your beliefs so that your theological system will line up to full agreement with the Word of God.

DEMONS AND CHRISTIANS

Biblical doctrine of human corruption causes one to question that Holy Spirit would come into a person under any circumstance. Many charismatic writers -Pat Brooks, Don Basham, Pastor Carl Strader, Non Charismatic writer Frances Manuel, Merrill Unger, Mark Brubeck, Robert Peterson, Hal Lindsay believes that Christian can have demons.

Dr. Unger writes: "In demon influence, evil spirits exert power over a person short of actual possession. Such influence may vary from mild harassment to extreme subjection when body and mind become dominated and held in slavery by spirit agents. Christians, as well as non-Christians can be so influence. They may be oppressed, vexed, depressed, hindered and bound by demons."[81]

Unger is forthright to say that he had written in 1952, "To demon possession, only unbelievers are exposed." Twenty years later" This statement was inferred, since Scripture does not clearly settle the question. It was based the assumption that an evil spirit could not indwell the redeemed body together with the Holy Spirit.

Missionaries from all over the world wrote to him telling of cases to the contrary and as the author notes, the claims of the missionaries "appear valid."

The late Dr. Hobart Freeman wrote, "As a result of erroneous teaching and beliefs, which are based upon neither Scripture nor experience, Satan has deluded many concerning the question, can a Christian be oppressed by Satan or possess evil spirits?"

Yes-both questions-Supported both by experience and Scriptures Believers can be oppressed, vexed, depressed, hindered, bound, and afflicted by Satan or suffer infestation by demonic spirits.

There are three types of demonic activity.

Demonic ownership, the victim will come totally under the domination and control of Satan. This is called demon possession.

Subjugation or enslavement under the power of demons; infestation brings spirits of infirmity, fear, resentment, doubt, depression, and so forth. This is called oppression or being pressed down by demons.

Irresistible impulses are temptations that are being driven in the mind. This called obsessions by tormenting demons. A person is tempted when he is drawn away by desire. Desire-when conceived, brings forth sin. (Jam. 1: 14, 15). He can tempt us but cannot make us yield. The power of evil spirits over men is not independent of the human will. It cannot be exercised without at least some consent of the human will.

Evil spirits will take all the ground given them.

Chapter Fourteen

ATTACKING SPIRITS

The Bible says that Satan can tempt and draw Christians away from their faith in Jesus Christ. The old fleshy nature that was inherited or the New Creation nature; Paul said, I die daily. Every day you must make a choice that am I going to follow.

The Bible says that in Job 1 and 2, physical afflictions and other catastrophes that happen to Job is the work of Satan. Also, we see the work of demons working in the bodies of people in the New Testament. ". . . Woman 'a daughter of Abraham,' Father of the faithful was bound with a spirit of infirmity for eighteen years," (Lk. 13:11-16).

A spirit of infirmity will manifest weakness or sickness in bodies. There was also a man in the Synagogue that had an unclean spirit (Mk. 1:23). Spirits of lustfulness will manifest lust, adultery, photography, homosexuality, or similar deviations. The Apostle Paul discusses contention and disputing over doctrine. Believers are having evidently slipped and need to "recover themselves from the snare of the devil, who are taken captive of him at his will."

A born again Christian must make it a habit to give no place to the devil (Eph. 4:27). A member of the church in Corinth was overcome by a spirit of lust; (I Cor. 5-1-5).Any part of the body can become a place for a demon. If you give your into your fleshly nature and give a hand, or an eye, or an ear, a demon with a particular characteristic may take hold of that particular part and occupy it. For instance, a spirit of lust may occupy the eye. This spirit will compel the victim to stare at X-rated magazines or porn-movies.

"He that is begotten of God (born again Christians) keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not." (I Jn. 5:18). "Keepeth ourselves, "… intends hard-fast abstinence from the wickedness of the world.

This can also signify continual walking in the Spirit, keeping under the blood of Christ and unceasing fellowship with Jesus. We receive strength to maintain our walk through the Word of God. Then we are not open for a demon.

Jesus rebuked a spirit of fever in Peter's mother-in-law (Lk. 4:38-39), made her well, (Mk. 3:33; Mk. 9:25). Jesus uses this same term to rebuke Satan. Sickness is described as an oppression of the devil (Acts 10:38). Jesus often healed by casting out spirits of infirmity which are another method of Satanic attack (Lk. 4: 40, 41).

Consider Peter, who one moment spoke by Divine revelation, declaring that Jesus was the very Christ and the next moment was reprimanded by Jesus, who rebuked Satan in him, saying "Thou savorest not the things that be of God," (Matt. 16:13-23).

MAGICIAN

Simon the magician is presented as one who believed and was baptized, but had evidently had not been delivered from his occult bondage and was commanded to repent and pray (Acts 8: 20-24).

How did Satan manage to "fill the heart" of the believer's Ananias and Sapphira?

[Why hath Satan filled thine heart?] The verb pleerooo, which we translate "I fill," Kypke has showed by many examples to signify, to instigate, excite, impel, etc., and it was a common belief, as well among the pagans as among the Jews and Christians, that, when a man did evil, he was excited to it by the influence and malice of an evil spirit. It is strange that, by the general consent of mankind, sin against God has been ever considered so perfectly unnatural, and so evil in itself, that no man would commit it unless impelled to it by the agency of the Devil. The words of Peter here prove that such an agency is not fictitious: if there had been no Devil, as some wish and perhaps feel it their interest to believe, or if this Devil had no influence on the souls of men, Peter, under the agency of the Holy Spirit, would not have expressed himself in this way; for, if the thing were not so, it would have been the most direct means to lead the disciples to form false opinions, or to confirm them in old and absurd prejudices, (Acts 5:3).

BUFFERTING MESSAGER

Apostle Paul himself reports that he suffered buffeting from a "messenger (angel) of Satan. "And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. 8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. 9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong. 11 I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing," (II Cor.12: 7).

Paul was not talking about a physical sickness in these Scriptures. He was talking about a "Messenger," (or angel) that was sent to buffet him. [The messenger of Satan] Among the Hebrews it was customary to attribute severe and painful diseases to Satan; compare (Job 2:6-7); compare note on (Lk. 13:16). In the time of the Saviour malignant spirits are known to have taken possession of the body in numerous cases, and to have produced painful bodily diseases, and Paul here says that Satan was permitted to bring this calamity on him.

[To buffet me] To buffet, means to smite with the hand; then to maltreat in any way. The meaning is that the effect and design of this was deeply to afflict him. Doddridge and Clarke suppose that the reference is here to the false teacher whom Satan had sent to Corinth, and who was to him the source of perpetual trouble. But it seems more probable to me that he refers to some bodily infirmity. The general truth taught in this verse is, that God will take care that his people shall not be unduly exalted by the manifestations of his favor, and by the spiritual privileges which he bestows on them. He will take measures to humble them; and a large part of his dealings with his people is designed to accomplish this. Sometimes it will be done, as in the case of Paul, by bodily infirmity or trial, by sickness, or by long and lingering disease; sometimes by great poverty and by an humble condition of life; sometimes by reducing us from a state of affluence where we were in danger of being exalted above measure; sometimes by suffering us to be slandered and calumniated, by suffering foes to rise up against us who shall blacken our character and in such a manner that we cannot meet it; sometimes by persecution; sometimes by lack of success in our enterprises, and if in the ministry, by withholding his Spirit; sometimes by suffering us to fall into sin, and thus greatly humbling us before the world." 5

[And lest I should be exalted] (I Cor. 12:7), lest I should be spiritually proud; lest I should become self-confident and vain, and suppose that I was a special favorite of Heaven; if Paul was in danger of spiritual pride, who is not? If it was necessary for God to adopt some special measures to keep him humble, we are not to be surprised that the same thing should occur in other cases. There is abundant reason to believe that Paul was naturally a proud man. He was by nature self-confident; trusting in his own talents and attainments, and eminently ambitious. When he became a Christian, therefore, one of his besetting sins would be pride; and as he had been especially favored in his call to the apostleship; in his success as a preacher; in the standing which he had among the other apostles, and in the revelations imparted to him, there was also special danger that he would become self-confident and proud of his attainments.

Paul reproves the Corinthian Christians for receiving another spirit than the Spirit they had previously received (II Cor. 11:4). Phillips translation says: "For apparently you cheerfully accept a man who comes to you preaching a different Jesus than the one we told you about, and you readily receive a spirit and a gospel quite different from the one you originally accepted."

Apostle Paul inquired, (Gal. 3:1), "Who had bewitched the believers to draw them away from the truth." Effects upon them were not just the effects of wrong mental impressions conveyed by false teachers but were the effects of evils spirits imposing false doctrine through false teachers. References do not suggest that believers enjoy an easy exemption from the activities of devils but are particularly targeted by them.

In (I Tim. 4:1 and 2), shows how wicked spirits attack the spiritual believer by deception beguile him away from the faith through the use of false prophets. "Now the Spirit speaks expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils."

Most believers have adopted the false idea that if they ignore Satan, he will ignore them. Scripturally, such a position is indefensible, (I Pet. 5: 8, 9; Jam. 4:7; II Cor. 2:11).

GOD IS ABLE

Before these words were addressed to the church, they were addressed to Israel. And the church, like Israel, has been chosen of God to be a light of salvation to the unsaved.

Throughout the Scriptures, God is appropriately referred to as - "He knows the heart," (I Chron. 28:90), says - "...for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts . . .” then adds - "The secret things belong unto the LORD our God . . . "(Deut. 29:29). One of those "secret things" is the thoughts and imaginations of our souls. Another is the "heart of kings" which (Prov. 25:3), terms as "unsearchable" for man - but not for God.

In (Heb. 4:12), as the "Word of God," the Lord Jesus is -” . . . a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart." When the "Word" is preached, He discovers the most secret and remote thoughts and suggestions . . . exposes the whole character of the man . . . lays open the secret propensities and designs of the soul . . . and detects the actual feelings and intentions of the hypocrite or self-deceiver.

“The Bible speaks clearly: “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In All thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths,” (Prov. 3:5). Recognizing the truth about oneself paves the way for freedom. Every Christian has a fleshly body and God is specific about how He feels about the behavior of the flesh in such scriptures as: “For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would,” (Gal. 5:17).

Then, (Rom. 8:7, 8; and Jude 23), which says: “. . . hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.”

He intended that you and I have all joy, peace, victory and rest in our walk. He knows how to deliver you from all snares, all trials and temptations. If you will obey, commit and trust Him! “The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations,” (II Pet. 2:9). “. . . God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape that ye may be able to bear it,” (I Cor. 10:13).

Our God said He is able --and He knows how to deliver you!

When the spirit or the heart is the stage where sin is enacted, it is a spiritual sin.

The Lord knows that our own understanding is corrupt, selfish, self-centered. It doesn’t matter that we’ve been born again and Christ’s blood applied to our heart. Our reasoning remains untrustworthy!

HEART OF A PERSON

He boldly declared who indeed is able to probe the heart of man, "The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings," (Jer. 17:9-10).

He asserts to all religious deceivers who want to follow after the things of the world and not after God, "...for I know the things that come into your mind, every one of them," (Ezek. 11:5).

Our human understanding is suspicious, fearful. And many times our understanding rises with anger, bitterness, fighting, abuse of family members, etc. Such are all impure thoughts, vile affections and desires, which do not become overt actions. But are real acts of the inner man. "Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling," (Phil. 2:12).

David was a man of God who hated sin with everything in him. He said, ". . . . I hate every false way," (Psa. 119: 104); "Ye that love the Lord hate evil. . . ." (Psa. 97:10). Yet this same man committed adultery with Bathsheba and sent her husband to his death to battle! The Bible says that Bathsheba ". . . mourned for her husband," (II Sam. 11:26). David's sin had "displeased the Lord," (Verse 27). He had seduced Bathsheba, planned her husband's death, and then deceived her by acting as if he was doing the right thing (that is, marrying her after he'd impregnated her). Ten months after the affair, God sent Nathan the prophet to deal with David's sin, (see II Sam. 12).

When God convicts you of hidden sin, you had better repent. It may be your last chance. Hidden sin in a person has a tendency to hate others' sins while being blind to his own. After Nathan told David about the rich man who stole his neighbor's pet lamb and killed it and fed it to his fiend. David was enraged. He told Nathan, "So help me, that man is dead! He's going to die!" 'He is going to restore the lamb fourfold!" He raged against this awful sin."

Oh, how he hated it. Hidden sin produced an unrighteous, unholy indignation against sin in other. Hidden sin begets a "religious spirit" and a judging spirit. Jesus said, ". . . why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye," (Matt. 7:2-5).

The Apostle Paul wrote, "Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? Thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? Thou that abhor rest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?" (Rom. 2:21-22). Godly saints must have a genuine hatred for sin. True ministers must cry out against sin and compromise. However a pure hatred for sin must come out of a heart that has been probed searched and judged it.

David cried out against sin and compromise: "Do I not hate them, O Lord that hate thee? And am not I grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies," (Psa. 139: 21- 22). This bold statement came out of a repentant broken spirit. David had already examined his own heart! In the next verse he says, "Search me, O God and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts and see if there be any wicked way in me. . . ." (Verse. 23- 24). God does not want judgment for you hidden sins, he wants mercy. The Holy Spirit will convict your heart. If you do not listen to the Word of conviction He will send the prophets (ministers) to deliver you through the Word. If you continue to indulge yourself in your hidden sins; Espousal abuse, child abuse, self-abuse; verbal abuse, forgiveness; bitterness; rioting; raging; argument; anger, judging, sexual perversion, pornography, etc. Then judgment will fall in the form of curses on your finances; your job situation; etc. The tormentors (evil spirits) will come to nest in your life, and then religious spirits will prevail instead of the Holy Spirit.

SATAN'S HIERARCHY

Frances Manuel gives us this useful summation: "We do have clear and plain teaching regarding the demons themselves. Demons in vast numbers constitute a part of Satan's hierarchy and fight in his army. They are sprit beings without bodies of their own, hence they seek embodiment; they have supernatural power and strength. They are not omniscient, but are creatures of cunning intellect and given to deceits and wiles. They are unclean, corrupt, and bent on destruction and ruin. They degrade the bodies they invade and possess, whether of animals or men. They tremble at the Word of God .and has to bow to the authority of Jesus Christ whether exerted directly by Him or by those to whom He delegated the authority to subject them."

If you do not subject your flesh and mind to the Word of God for cleansing you will open for these tormentors; we can drive them out. However only you can correct your mind and flesh. Your will makes the choice. Yes or No governs your body, soul and spirit.

Remember God made the first move toward David! He initiated the first step toward reconciliation. God told Nathan that David was forgiven He told the prophet to go to him with a message of reconciliation: When you tell David what I've told you, he'll think he's going to die on the spot. But you've got to tell him he's forgiven - that he's not going to die! Tell him also that I will walk with him through everything that comes upon him because of sin. The key to practical faith is the ability to see the hand of God in the attitudes, actions and direction of those whom God places over our lives.

Failure to discern God in rightly ordained authority will greatly decrease our awareness of Him and will greatly increase our conflicts and tensions with others. Sin gives Satan the right to enforce curses upon you. Nathan told David "Look at all that God has done for you, all the blessings. He's given you he Lord was ready to give you all your heart's desires. You've killed an innocent man, and taken his wife as your own. You have despised the Lord, David. And the enemies of God are rejoicing over what you did. The sword is not going to leave your home. Your wives will be taken from you. God will do all this before Israel. You will be judged publicly the baby died.

There are consequences to your hidden sins; (Psa.51) shows you David was afraid of his soul condition. "Take not thy holy spirit from me," (Psa. 51:11). "Renew a right spirit within me," (Verse 10) "Restore unto me . . . joy. . . ." (Verse 12). "Cast me not away from thy presence . . . "(Verse 11). God sent Nathan to tell him: "The Lord also hath put away thy sin; thou shall not die," (II Sam. 12:13).

Michael Harper gives the alert that, "Behind the facade of religious life there is a spiritual battle raging. There seem to be many who are not fully aware of this war far. From time to time there is a dramatic collision between the power of the Spirit and that of Satan. Success for the Christian will depend in a large measure on recognizing the work of the devil and knowing how to defeat and expel him from every situation . . . "So it is today there is fierce conflict and there are those who do not wish to pass this way. But we cannot avoid the battle for if we do not fight the enemy, he will still come at us. . . .”

Harper goes on to say, “These wicked beings can suggest evil, but cannot coerce the will of another creature. They may spread snares and devices to ruin the child of God, but cannot compel any other being to comply with their designs, nor can they employ God’s creation other than as He decrees. They have never been able to defeat God, and actually God uses them as instruments to correct the erring saints.”

Satan is the great, unseen instigator of every sin of the heart. However, you must walk in agreement with him. (II Cor. 2:11), “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.” (I Cor. 7), “Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.”

DESTROYS MARRIAGE

Satan wants to destroy the order in marriage. Christian husbands and wives are going to have to give an account to God concerning their treatment to one another. Christian parents will give an account to God concern their handling of their children God expects spouses to love and respect another. God expects parents to set godly examples for their children to follow. God expects parents to love their children. God expects parents to teach their children according His admonitions. God expects parent to discipline their children in a godly manner. God’s scope of a clear conscience is man relationship with “And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense toward God, and toward man,” (Acts 24:16). “Happy is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered. When I kept silence (in confession my sin), my bones waxed old through my roaring all the daylong (the weight of guilt). For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer,” (Psa. 32:1,2,4).

(Rev. 2:23), depicts Christ's omniscience in this way - "...I am He which searcheth the reins and hearts..." Here we see Him as the Great "I AM" Who alone has the power to search "the reins" - the center of the emotions or the moral center of the life (according to the Semitic thought), and the "hearts," the center of the thought or intellect - representing the totality of feelings, thoughts, desires - stemming from the deepest inner life.

An amazing percentage of personal problems cannot be effectively counseled without dealing with a clear conscience.

List those from whom you must gain forgiveness.

Have you lied to any?

Have you hurt family members, neighbors, employers or others?

Have you lost your temper with anyone?

Have you damaged the reputation of anyone?

Have you engaged in gossip, backbiting, slander or other activities, which have hurt another's reputation?

Slander is telling the truth with the intent of hurting another.

Have you been ungrateful for what others have done for you?

Failing to show proper appreciation to those who have gone out of their way or made personal sacrifice to help you are certain to offend them. Have you held a bitter spirit toward any?

Has someone offended you, and instead of forgiving him or her, have you maintained a bitter spirit toward him or her?

When you pray the Lord's prayer, you are asking God to forgive you in some way you have forgiven those who have wronged you.

Have you rebelled against or resisted the authority of those who are over you Has your attitude or have your actions reflected a disrespect for the proper authority of parents' teacher, employers, law official or others in authority? Look into the attitudes of others toward you. Your parent's attitudes toward you.

Brother and sisters' attitudes toward you.

Your neighbor's attitudes toward you.

Your employer's attitudes toward you.

Your form friends' or associates' attitudes toward you.

It is very important to ask those who have been offended most of for their forgiveness first.

If this is not done, it is possible to attach an exaggerated sense of guilt to trivial offenses.

Your words of asking forgiveness must reflect full repentance and sincere humility.

"I realize that I have been wrong in (basic offense) will you forgive me?"

The offender does NOT HAVE TO RECEIVE YOUR FORGIVENESS.

God wants to deal with your spirit.

Give the offender to God and forget the offense and just love the person . . . Perhaps God will restore the offender!

Chapter Fifteen

GATEWAY TO YOUR SOUL

Freedom of the mental faculty is recognized by God.

1. "O that there were such an heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever!" (Deut. 5:29);

2. "And he said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people," (I Kin. 20:42).

3. "To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of the goats." (Isa. 1:11).

4. "The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me," (Psa.1:18-20).

5. "If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself," (Jn. 7:17).

SUBMISSIVE TO GOD OR SATAN

Your Will activates whether or not you are going to be submissive to God or Satan Your will rules your entire life.

"Paul no longer wanted to his life in the flesh to the lust of men. But to the will of God," (I Pet. 4:2).

The will is the gateway to the Soul, Spirit and the Holy Spirit.

THE DEMONIC GATEKEEPER

Satan's desire is that you receive a "spiritual gatekeeper." This evil spirit will take control of the person's will and mind. He stands guard against what will be allowed to receive in the individual's consciousness. The gatekeeper will block everything concerning the truth of the Word of God. When someone tries to reach you with truth, the gatekeeper will lead your mind to come to other conclusions other than believing the Word of God. He will deceive the victim into believing that his implanted thoughts are her or his thoughts. He will lead you down pathways of bewitchments. If his deceptions are received, she or he will fall into darkness.

Many Christians refuse to try to understand the eternal struggle between cosmic good and evil, darkness and light that has progressed throughout the ages. Many are closed-minded concerning their outlook toward devils and demonic entities. They will say, "Demons are not real; they're simply medieval superstitions. Satan and his demonic legions are merely figments of imagination of theologians or illusions."

Meanwhile, the psychiatrist and psychologist simply try to diagnose a person through his or her experiences and actions. People become one dimensional. Sometimes they find that the only answer is to drug them with powerful drugs that will turn them into docile zombies. However, if the problem is a spiritual one, and is treated by a knowledgeable Christian minister from a spiritual aspect, then there can be complete recovery. Demons must obey and flee in the name of Jesus. The author has witness many people healed from this terrible curse of being double-minded.

The Apostle James ties the condition of a double-minded person to his/her thinking that divides his/her mind that switches between two positions and either one of these position hold a firm particular standing in the persons mind. The Bible brings out that this condition concerns a person that exist in a state of confusion resulting in being unstable in every part of his/her life. This state can cause a person to become variable in character or condition highly or violently reactive. This condition can cause an unsound mind. "But if he asks, he must believe and not doubt, because he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed by the wind. That man should not think he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all he does," (Jam. 1:6-8).

The above Scripture says, "That person is unstable in all his ways." Author William Menzies Alexander gives the following characteristic of demon possession: Automatic representation and persistent and consistent acting out a "new personality." Evidenced by a knowledgeable and intellectual power neither possessed by the subject nor explicable on the pathological possibility:

A change of personality which will involve complete modification of moral character. These are but the misapprehensions of an uninstructed mind and may be briefly dismissed. The passage from sanity to insanity implies change of personality. The change follows a recognized pathological order. There is sometimes a morbid exaltation of certain faculties; but never any real augmentation of intellectual power. The dictum of esquirol has in view the fact that moral deterioration is an integral part of the morbid process.

MIND CONTROL

There are people that control another person's mind. When this happens, the person being dominated by another does not have power over their own will. They become enslaved. It's comparable to an empty suit.

Some years ago, a young lady (I'll call her Nancy) that was twenty-five years old came to our ministry. She was a practicing witch working at the level of killing animals in her kitchen sink and worshiping Satan.

Nancy was in impaired physical, mental and spiritual shape when we first met her. Her story was since age two, that both her mother and father had physically and sexually abused her. Nancy's father was a so-called "Christian minister." The things that she talked about fit into the scheme some of the information that I am going to share.

When she was four years old, she had concealed herself under the bed, hiding from her abusers. She was tortured, hurt and crying when suddenly, she heard a voice say. "Why are you crying, little girl?"

"I'm crying because no one loves me."

"We will love you."

"Who are you?

Then they appeared to her. They were her little pink, stuffed animals! Actually, they were evils spirits that took on the form of these little toys. These stuffed animals became her spirit guides and they led her life into deep witchcraft. Early on, she became subjected to them. She had done it all by the time we met her. She was 27 years-old. After salvation and deliverance Nancy became a dedicated Christian. She is working as a nurse in an AIDS Clinic, leading people to the Lord Jesus! Yet, she had led a life of evil and torment.

DIFFERENT PERSONALITIES

Mind control programmers/abusers can control an individual's mind through magic. Mind-control programming is that different personalities or personality parts that are called alters (Christian call them demons) are layered into the mind. These mind programmers use different demons that can be created who do not know each other, but who can take over mind and the body at different times. When the programming is complete, front alters (demons that have been layered into the mind) can function with smiles and cheerful attitudes, while underneath, the mind is full of shattered hurting alters. These demons that can be placed into mind while the slave (victim) is totally unaware that the demons are there. The demons become mixed into the person's own personality.

Amnesia walls are created that are built by causing traumas to happen to the victim through emotional wounds. These traumas often have long-lasting effects and form a protective shield of secrecy that protects the abusers from being found out. The protective shield of secrecy prevents the front personalities (demons) who hold the body much of the time to know how their system of alters is being used. The shield of secrecy makes it possible for cult members to live and work around other people and remain totally not perceived or discerned. The front alters (demons) can cause a transformation in an individual to appear to be a wonderful Christian, and the deeper alters (demons) can be the worst type of Satanic monster imaginable--a Dr. Jekyll/Mr. Hyde effect.

A great deal is at stake in maintaining the secrecy of the intelligence agency or the occult group which is controlling the person who is a controlled slave. The success rate of this type of programming is high but when it fails, the failures are discarded through death.

The ministry of deliverance is a ministry that can help a person's mind to be restored. Once a person is set free from the human controllers, then a deliverance minister can get the tormented person free from the demonic binding spirits.

CAN CHRISTIANS BELIEVE DECEPTIONS?

God is not going to control your will after salvation. If he did, it would enable us to live in Jesus' perfection in this body. He expects that you will commit your life to Him and His Word. He has given every answer to your being able to defend yourself. He is your defense. His Word is your authority. Your confession of His Word is your victory. The Word of God says, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4:7). We are turning our eyes upon Jesus and then resist the Devil. He will flee because Jesus is the Commander of our army.

God created man in the beginning too willingly fellowship with Him. We are not a bunch of puppets or dolls. We are individuals have a free will. Our will is the Godly dimension that He gave us. It's God's divine gift given to us to match our being made in the image of God. The Father will never step over your "Will gate."

You willingly make the decision whether or not serve Him. Christians still have to make that decision every day. Many fail. Therefore, many are living in much confusion. When a Christian strays away from serving God, they become self-serving, they are attacked in the body and mind by the Devil.

SUBMIT YOUR WILL TO GOD

Give God through the power of Jesus control then He will help control your soul and body. He will never supersede your will. Submit your will to God. They profess that they know God but in works they deny him. Being abominable and is obedience unto every good work reprobate. (Tit. 1:16), "For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish and disobedient, deceived, serving divers, lust and pleasure, living malice, envy, hateful, and hating one another," (Tit. 3:3).

After salvation and deliverance, disobedience for Christians should be a \ thing of the past. "But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he mediate day and night," (Psa. 1:2. I Sam. 15:22), "In Samuel have the Lord is great as light in brunt offerings and sacrifice, as in the obeying the voice of the Lord. Behold to obey is better than sacrifice and to harken than the fat of the rams."

Listen for the sound of his voice. Dwell in His Word, (Rom. 10:17), "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

STUDY HIS WORD

Study His Word. (Rev. 12:11), "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death."

Understand the Word. (Acts 28:27), "For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them."

Obey his voice and His word. (I Pet. 4:17), "For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first begins at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God?"

To reflect Jesus Christ in your life than your own spirit, (I Pet. 4:19), "Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator."

The world is looking for truth. (I Pet. 1:22), "Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently . . . "

Looking for real Christians. (II Jn. 6), "And this is love that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment that, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it."

Chapter Sixteen

Christians' Freedom

(Jer. 51:20), "Thou art my battle ax and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; with thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will. I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in pieces captains and rulers."

GOD'S PEOPLE ARE BEING DESTROYED

Christians are not perfect, just saved; Christians have problems also; particularly if they are trying to serve Jesus with their past baggage of sins lingering and driving them daily to sin. Use your authority. The Bible says that Satan must obey.

"Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. 2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick," (Lk. 9:1).

"My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children," (Hos. 4:6).

"Study to show thyself approved unto God, a work man that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth…" (II Tim 2:15).

"Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil," (Eph. 6:11).

"Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: who resist steadfast in the faith," (I Pet. 5: 8, 9).

"Resist the devil and he will flee from you," (Jam. 4:7).

DEMONS MUST OBEY

According to John, demons don't have a choice to obey Jesus' delegated authority.

"But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes," (I Jn. 2:11).

They tremble and run when we talk and agree with the Word of God.

"Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble," (Jam. 2:19).

You have to see and believe that a Christian can have a demon as revealed in the Word of God! You will have rise above what many Christians and some Pastors will tell you. They will say, "Christians can't have demons." Experience and the Word of God tell a different story. Yes, born again, Spirit-filled, tongue talking, JESUS loving and worshiping Christian can and do have demons.

JESUS said that DELIVERANCE was the "children's bread," (Matt. 15:26 and Mk. 7:27):

When reading the Word, always remember that it was written to and for church people and not the sinners in the world. Remember this; if you do not believe that you can be invade in great numbers with demons, and someone tries to cast them OUT, then the demons will not leave. Your doubt will give them license to stay. This is why you must humble yourself and say, "IF I have any demons, I want them OUT! And find a believer that knows how to cast them out!"

CHRISTIAN AUTHORITY

In accordance with believing that you have demons, you must know your authority in the Name of JESUS.

*"Behold! I have given you authority and power to trample upon serpents and scorpions, and [physical and mental strength and ability] over all the power that the enemy [possesses]; and nothing shall in any way harm you, "(*Lk. 10:19).

"For the weapons of our warfare are not physical [weapons of flesh and blood], but they are mighty before God for the overthrow and destruction of strongholds," (II Cor. 10:4).

He said that we wrestle not against flesh and blood but principalities, powers, etc. He told us "to put on the whole armor of God that we may be able to withstand in the evil day," (Eph. 6).

It is God's will for you to be free from every evil influence of the devil.

Provisions made by His Word, blood of Jesus, (Hebr. 12:24), His delegated authority, (I Jn. 2:13).

"And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God," (Rev. 21:3).

DISOBEDIENCE CHURCH MEMBERS

The Apostle Paul deals here with disobedient and sinful believer in the church at Corinth. "In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, to deliver such an one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus," (I Cor. 5:4, 5, 10 specifically emphasizes that he is speaking not about evildoers of the world but sin that was happening in the church.

FORGIVENESS

Christians can live free from mental torture, panic, envy, hatred, pride, self-pity, addiction, gluttony and all other forms of bondage, oppression and defilement!

There are two main causes for a person's inner problems. The first point is what the Word calls "the flesh, or the 'old man; "he told man that part of the person that is the carnal nature of the person's flesh. It is the rebellious person's will that is being influenced and tempted by Satan. The second cause for inner problems is the working of evil spirits. Demons will tie themselves to the person's mind or flesh. They will not relinquish their evil hold unless compelled to do so by a Christian that is empowered by Jesus.

Power and Freedom and deliverance from the devil's Darkness. "I give you power over all the power of the enemy," (Lk. 10:19).

BACKSLIDING

Some Christians open themselves to demonic attack by backsliding. "The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself," (Prov. 14:14). If a Christian backslides, grows cold in his allegiance to Christ. Satan will first tempt him to do wrong. As he obeys, he opens himself for a spirit to enter and take control. The evil spirit will not come in immediately, for God is merciful. If the sin is continually indulged in after professed conversion, and not repented. Such a person is wide open to demonic oppression in its many forms. Anyone who is periodically attacked by a compulsion-to act in a way, which is contrary to his basic nature and personality, should suspect demon activity.

Demon attack brings forth a behavior pattern that "can't be him." It isn't. It is the personality of the demon spirit being manifested through him. will be themselves at times, but reverts to strange behavior, makes them unknown person causing a split personality or schizophrenia.

"Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: of whom in Hymanaeus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme?" (I Tim. 2:25, 26).

Is it possible for a born-again Spirit-filled to have a demon? Absolutely not-say some; they say that the Holy Spirit cannot coexist in the same body with a demon! This is a slogan not a Scriptural answer; extra-Scriptural pieces of logic that stands alone and rest on an assumption.

Is there Scriptural evidence? It is dangerous delusion to think Satan and his demons to adopt a hands-off policy concerning believers. They can act physically on, make an impression on, afflict and as far as possible distress greatly upon believers. They buffet, oppose seek to tempt or deceive, or lead Christians astray. Demons look for and quickly seize any advantage to hinder believers.

They argue that Believers are inhabited by the Holy Spirit, and He cannot coexist within the same body. Proof text used is (1 Cor. 2:12). "We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who is from God that we may understand what God has freely given us." The Bible says that "Jesus came to destroy the works of the devil," (I Jn. 3:8). At the same time, the Word tells us, "He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil," (I Jn. 3:8).

Indeed He did! "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10). Fear is the number one weapon used by Satan. But JESUS said that He has not given us a spirit of fear but of power and love and a strong mind. (II Tim. 1:7).

INIQUITIES GOD'S COVENANT

Wickedness and our ancestors

The Bible speaks of confessing the iniquities of our ancestors. The Word says that their iniquities are passed down to the third and fourth generations [160 years] and in some cases, to the tenth generation. Do you know what your ancestors doing 160 years ago? Probably not but you can be safe and confess their iniquities as well as your own sinfulness. Iniquities are sins committed excessively, such as, getting drunk, committing adultery, stealing, lying, taking drugs.

The sins of our fathers could go back to your great grandfather; a great-grandfather was a drinker, committed adultery or stole something, etc. If alcoholism is a problem in your family, then there is an inherited iniquity that travels down your family line. If heart disease, cancer, mental illness, adultery, lawlessness, etc., is a problem in your family line because there is an iniquity there. "But if they confess their own and their fathers' iniquity in their treachery which they committed against Me - and also that because they walked contrary to Me, I also walked contrary to them and brought them into the land of their enemies - if then their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they then accept the punishment for their iniquity, Then will I [earnestly] remember My covenant with Jacob, My covenant with Isaac, and My covenant with Abraham, and [earnestly] remember the land," (Lev. 26:40-42).

THE JEWS

"Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods," (Exod. 23:32).

"And when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy unto them:" (Deut. 7:2).

Frequently made with other nations

"And the LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him: and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a league together," (I Kin. 5:12).

"And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

Condemned for making, with idolatrous nations…" (II Kin. 17:4).

"That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt! Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. For his princes were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach," (Isa. 30: 2-5).

"Ephraim feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt," (Hos. 12:1).

GOD'S COVENANT

"And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a league with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them. And the children of Israel journeyed, and came unto their cities on the third day. Now their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and Beeroth, and Kirjathjearim. And the children of Israel smote them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel. And all the congregation murmured against the princes. But all the princes said unto all the congregation, We have sworn unto them by the LORD God of Israel: now therefore we may not touch them," (Josh. 9:16-19).

"In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not…" (Psa. 15:4).

GOD'S COVENANT LLUSTRATIVE

Of the contract of marriage

"Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant," (Mal. 2:14).

Of God's promises to man

"And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after you; And with every living creature that is with you, of the fowl, of the cattle, and of every beast of the earth with you; from all that go out of the ark, to every beast of the earth. And I will establish my covenant with you; neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood; neither shall there anymore be a flood to destroy the earth," (Gen. 9: 9-11).

"That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:" (Eph. 2:12).

Of the united determination of a people to serve God

"And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD'S people; between the king also and the people," (II Kin. 11: 17).

"And they entered into a covenant to seek the LORD God of their fathers with all their heart and with all their soul;" (II Chron. 15:12).

"They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;" (Neh. 10: 29).

Of good resolutions

"I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid," (Job)?

(With death and hell,) of carnal security.

"Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:"(Isa. 28:15).

"And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it," (Isa. 28:18).

With stones and beasts of the earth,) of peace and prosperity:

"For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee," (Job 5:23).

"And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely," (Hos. 2: 18).

NEW TESTAMENT COVENANT

Jesus the promise of the New Covenant Remember the New Testament was given to us by the Disciples of Jesus who were Jewish. Only Dr. Luke was a gentile. They knew that their people had broken every Covenant that God made with the Jewish people. The following was a prophecy over Jesus father Zacharias announcing the was the One of the New Covenant.

"And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, 68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people, 69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; 70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: 71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; 72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; 73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, 74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, 75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life. 76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; 77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, 78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. 80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel," (Lk. 1:72 - 80).

"Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. 25 Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. 26 Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities," (Acts 3: 24-26).

"And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs," (Acts 7:8).

"Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:" (Rom. 1:31).

"Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;" (Rom. 9:4).

"For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins…" (Rom. 11:27).

"Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto," (Gal. 3:15).

"And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect," (Gal. 3:17).

"But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise. 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children," (Gal. 4:23-25).

"That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:" (Eph. 2:12).

"But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promise.For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah: Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people: In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away," (Heb. 8: 6:13).

"Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;" (Heb. 9: 1-5)

"This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;" (Heb. 10: 15-17).

*"Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden underfoot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"(*Heb. 10:29).

"And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel," (Heb. 12:24).

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant," (Heb. 13:20).

SCRIPTURES

"Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness,: (Rom. 6:16)?

"But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For it he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom, we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor. 11: 3-4).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils;" (1 Tim. 4:1).

"However at that time, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those which by nature are no gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again," (Gal. 4: 4-9)?

"And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will." (II Tim. 2:26).

"They began to murmur against God and complain against Moses . . . So the Lord sent poisonous snakes among them to punish them, and many of them were bitten and died. God caused me to see the parallel between the snakes in this scripture and demons. Demons are released among us for the same reasons and with the same results. "And supper being ended, the devil now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him," (Jn. 13:2).

"And after the sup Satan entered into him. Then said "Jesus unto him, that thou doest, do quickly," (Jn. 13:27).

"And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day," (Lk. 13:16)?

"And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, the word of God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things, which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them ALL. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, and laid them down at the apostle' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land?" (Acts 4: 31-35; 5; 1-3).

"And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, and certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalen, Out of who sent seven devils," (Lk. 8:1).

A person has no resistance at all to demons without Jesus! "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." (Phil. 4:13), "The natural man without Christ, is spiritually weak and highly susceptible to infestation by demons. There is little he can do about fighting off demons if Christ is not dwelling within him." is little he can do about fighting off demons if Christ is not dwelling within him.

Chapter Seventeen

SUPERNATURALISM

There are only two sources of supernaturalism in the world. God and Satan; "I would not that ye should not have fellowship with devils." (Demons) (I Cor. 10:20).

Repentance must be complete for deliverance to work. When the activity is stopped in the flesh and the person's will is removed from it then the Spirit of God is able to help. Without the proper foundation of repentance, demons may reenter. The latter state of the man would then be seven times worse than the former one. Ignorance of this principle of repentance has produced much unbelief and opposition in the body of Christ to the validity importance of the deliverance ministry.

DEMONIC HARRASHMENT

Christian can have demons says: Dr. Unger writes: "In demon influence, evil spirits exert power over a person short of actual possession. Such influence may vary from mild harassment to extreme subjection when body and mind become dominated and held in slavery by spirit agents. Christians, as well as non-Christians can be so influence. They may be oppressed, vexed, depressed, hindered and bound by demons." Unger is frank to say that he had written in 1952, "To demon possession, only unbelievers are exposed." 20 years late "This statement was inferred, since Scripture does not clearly settle the question. It was based the assumption that an evil spirit could not indwell the redeemed body together with the Holy Spirit." [82]

Missionaries from all over the world wrote to him telling of cases to the contrary and as the author notes, the claims of the missionaries "appear valid." Yes-both question Supported both by experience and Scriptures Believers can be oppressed, vexed, depressed, hindered, bound, and afflicted by Satan or suffer infestation by demonic spirits.

The Bible shows that Christians have a spiritual battle. Our war is against the Devil. The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty thought God to pull down all the strongholds of the enemy. (I Cor. 10:3-5). We will be strong when we put on God’s armour to stand against the devil. When we wrestle against the rulers of darkness of the world, against spiritual wickedness we will be able to stand, (Eph.6: 12, 13).

LIBERATION

Liberation can come only through Confession of Faith, Jesus Christ. Jesus is the only deliverer from the powers of darkness. Confession of Occult involvement and repentance (Godly sorrow) and a merciful God will not abandon His children to Satan. Confession means to agree with God and the Sin. Renounce Satan and command him to depart! It is imperative when a blood pact or agreement has been made with the powers of darkness to renounce all agreements.

You have invited Satan in by occult activity and you must boot him out! It is best that you ask the Lord to lead to a Christian to pray with you. Satan may well have pretended to be a gentleman when he entered, but you will have to kick him out like a trespasser to get him to leave. He leaves by direct command to Satan himself to depart in the Name of Jesus (not a prayer or request, but a command).

God is a refuge and strength to:

“For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock. And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD,” (Psa. 27: 5-6).

You must be firm and choose too forever to take back the place that you once gave to him! Associate yourself with Christians who will pray for you and stand with you. Fill yourself with the things of God and you will stay free.

Never go back! Because if you do, you'll be seven times worse!

PROBLEMS CAUSED DEMONS

We have seen many Christians who are bound by demonic powers. If they are seeking religious experiences to feel good, they can be open to receive evil spirits. If they live double lives, unholy, without true commitments to the Lord, they will be demonized. If they find themselves under a religious cult, they will need deliverance. If they are following a person, instead of being led by Jesus Christ and His Word, they will receive spirits of religious confusion, Antichrist, rebellion, idolatry, and many others.

Cast demons out in His name.

"And these signs shall follow them that believe; in my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues," (Mk. 16:17). The believer is delivered from the power of Satan and his demons.

"Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light," (Col.1:12). "And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins: "Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others,"

(Eph. 2: 1, 2, 3), Like other promises, not automatic as we voluntarily meet God's conditions for deliverance.

Christian provided with complete protection from fiery darts of the enemy, (Eph. 6). Armor is designed for defense from external not internal enemies. Armor is not always in place. Christian-leaders-problems with no solutions; discouraged, despair dropped by wayside; suicide inability to find a solution within the framework of their theological understanding.

Experience not the basis for the interpretation of the Bible. If experiences run counter to an interpretation of the Word of God, chunk it. Seek to find the reason and be willing to restudy interpretation by direction of the Holy Spirit. Be prepared to make any necessary corrections to beliefs so as to be in full agreement with Biblical facts. Pay close attention to Biblical doctrine or if human depravity is involved; knowing the corruption of people, it is a wonder that Holy Spirit would enter a person under any circumstance.

FIERY SERPENT

Fiery serpents, Nachash are the ordinary word for serpent. The word saraph which seems to mean "burning one," stands (by itself) for a serpent in verse 8, and also in (Isaiah 14:29); (Isaiah 30:6). In (Isaiah 6:2, 6) it stands for one of the symbolic beings (seraphim) of the prophet's vision. The only idea common to the two meanings (otherwise so distinct) must be that of brilliance and metallic luster. It is commonly assumed that the "fiery" serpents were so called because of the burning pain and inflammation caused by the bite, after the analogy of Dioscorus and AElian. But is hardly possible that Isaiah should have used the same word in such wholly dissimilar senses, and it is clear from comparison with Ezekiel's vision of the cherubim (Ezek. 1:7) that the saraph of (Isa. 6:2) was so called from the burnished luster of his appearance. Even our Lord himself is described in the Apocalypse as having in the highest degree this appearance of glowing brass (Rev. 1:15; Rev. 2:18). It is further clear that the saraph was so named from his color, not his venom, because when Moses was ordered to make a saraph he made a serpent of brass (or rather copper), with the evident intent of imitating as closely as possible the appearance of the venomous reptile. We may conclude then with some confidence that these serpents were of a fiery red color, resembling in this respect certain very deadly snakes in Australia, which are known as "copper snakes." Travelers speak of some such pests as still abounding in the region of the Arabah, but it is quite uncertain whether the fiery serpents of that special visitation can be identified with any existing species. [83]

"And they journeyed from Mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. 5And the people spoke against God, and against Moses, Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, neither is there any water; and our soul loathes this light bread. 6And the LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and much people of Israel died," (Num. 21: 4-6).

"They began to murmur against God and complain against Moses; so the Lord sent poisonous snakes among them to punish them, and many of them were bitten and died…" (Num. 21:6).

"He led you through the vast and dreadful wilderness, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock," (Deut. 8:15).

"See, I will send venomous snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you," declares the LORD," (Jer. 8:17).

"Or if I send wild beasts through that country and they leave it childless and it becomes desolate so that no one can pass through it because of the beasts," (Ezek. 14:15).

SERPENT TEMPTS AND BINDS

There is a parallel between the snakes in these scripture and demons. Demons are released among us for the same reasons and with the same results

And the Lord sent fiery serpents among the people; of which there were great numbers in the deserts of Arabia, and about the Red Sea; but hitherto the Israelites were protected from them by the cloud about them, but sinning, the Lord suffered them to come among them, to punish them; these are called fiery, either from their color, for in Arabia, as there were serpents of a golden color, as Aelianus (r) relates, to which the brazen serpent, after made, bore some likeness, so there were others in the same parts of Arabia of a red or scarlet color. [84]

Diodorus Siculus says (s), of a span long, and their bite entirely incurable; or else they are so called from the effect of them, exciting heat and thirst in those they bit; so Jarchi says, they are so called because they burn with the poison of their teeth: these, very probably, were flying ones, as may seem from Isaiah 14:29 and being sent of God, might come flying among the people and bite them; and such there were in the fenny and marshy parts of Arabia, of which many writers speak (t), as flying from those parts into Egypt, where they used to be met by a bird called Ibis, which killed them, and for that reason was had in great veneration by the Egyptians.

Herodotus (u) says they are nowhere but in Arabia, and also (w) that they of that kind of serpents, which are called Hydri, their wings are not feathered, but like the wings of bats, and this Bochart (x) takes to be here meant: and they bit the people, and much people of Israel died; for, as before related from Diodorus Siculus, their bites were altogether incurable.

Solinus (y) says, of the same Arabian flying serpents, that their poison is so quick, that death follows before the pain can be felt; and of that kind of serpent, the Hydrus, it is said by Leo Africanus (z), that their poison is most pernicious, and that there is no other remedy against the bite of them, but to cut off that part of the member bitten, before the poison can penetrate into the other parts of the body: the Dipsas, another kind of serpent, which others are of opinion is designed, by biting, brings immediately a thirst on persons, intolerable and almost not extinguishable, and a deadly one, unless help is most speedily had; and if this was the case here it was very bad indeed, since there was no water.

Solinus (a) says, this kind of serpent kills with thirst; Aristotle (b) speaks of a serpent some call the sacred one, and that whatsoever it bites putrefies immediately all around it: these serpents, and their bites, may be emblems of the old serpent the devil, and of his fiery darts, and of sin brought in by him, and which he tempts unto, the effects of which are terrible and deadly, unless prevented by the grace of God. [85]

"And supper being ended, the devil now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him," (Jn. 13:2).

*"And after the sup Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, that thou doest, do quickly,"(*Jn. 13:27).

"And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?" (Lk. 13:16).

"Neither give place to the devil," (Eph. 4:27).

The Lord sent fiery serpents among the people—That part of the desert where the Israelites now were—near the head of the gulf of Akaba—is greatly infested with venomous reptiles, of various kinds, particularly lizards, which raise themselves in the air and swing themselves from branches; and scorpions, which, being in the habit of lying in long grass, are particularly dangerous to the barelegged, sandaled people of the East. The only known remedy consists in sucking the wound, or, in the case of cattle, in the application of ammonia. The exact species of serpents that caused so great mortality among the Israelites cannot be ascertained. They are said to have been "fiery," an epithet applied to them either from their bright, vivid color, or the violent inflammation their bite occasioned.[86]

DELIVERANCE MINISTRY OF JESUS

It is true that Jesus Christ left awesome spiritual power to His church. "And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, "All power is given to me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: I lo am with you alway, even unto the end of the world, Amen," (Matt. 28:18:20).

The FULL GOSPEL is a balanced Gospel, which includes the ministry of Jesus.

"But JESUS noticed that a crowd [of people] came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, You dumb and deaf spirit, I charge you to come out of him and never go into him again. And after giving a [hoarse, clamoring, fear-stricken] shriek of anguish and convulsing him terribly, it came out . . . " (Mk. 9:24 and 25). "Jesus said that the works that I do, you will do also and greater," (Jn. 14:12).

"The spirit of the Lord is upon me because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach DELIVERANCE TO THE CAPTIVES, and recovering of sigh to the blind, to SET AT LIBERTY THEM THAT ARE BRUISED," (Lk. 4:18).

A great percentage of Jesus' ministry was deliverance. "He went throughout all Galilee preaching in their synagogues and casting out demons," (Mk. 1:39). Jesus cast devils out. Jesus is our example Controversies are charged that Jesus. They charged that Jesus was demon possessed "And many of them said, "He hath a devil. Why hear ye him?" (Jn. 10:20). "Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?" (Jn. 8:48).

"The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil; who goeth about to kill thee." (Jn. 7:20).

Mark has four incidents (Mk.1:23-28; 5: 1-20; 7: 24-30; 9: 14-29).

Jesus entered the synagogue at Capernaum and began to teach (Lk. 4:33-37).

When the Word of God is taught coupled with the power of the Holy Spirit, evil spirits must surface. A man in the synagogue at Capernaum and had an unclean spirit. He cried out, saying, "What have we to do with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are — The Holy One of God." Notice: the demon spoke to Jesus first. This spiritual being knew who He was. He knew He had authority over them. He stated what it knew. Word of God taught coupled with power of Holy Spirit-.Evil spirits must surface.

JESUS WAS NOT A DEMON HUNTER.

Demons simply could not remain hidden in His presence. When they manifested, the demons spoke. The demons try to engage Jesus in a conversation the demon would many times use flatter trying to divert the Lord's attention from his deliverance. (Lk. 4: 24), "I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God."

The Lord looked beyond the words and rebuked him saying (Lk 4: 25), "Hold thy peace and come out of him," (Lk 4: 33 26*), and when the unclean spirit had to obey him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him,"* (Lk. 4: 27), His teaching caused wonder among the people, "for he was teaching them as one have authority . . . even the unclean spirits obey him."

The function of deliverance for Mark, therefore is to drive home the point about the authority of Jesus teaching. The story itself is told with classic simplicity. (Lk. 4: 23), the demons challenge to Jesus; the rebuke and exorcism. (Lk 4: 25); the departure of the unclean spirit (Lk. 4: 26); response of the onlookers. (Lk 4: 23); the unclean spirit is inspired, he "knows something about Jesus and speaks what he knows in the spirit." The inspiration is by an "unclean spirit."

The Gadarene Demoniac (Mk. 5; 1-20; Matt. 8: 28-34; Lk. 8-26-39). The longest and most remarkable exorcism in the New Testament takes place in the region Gerassa just after Jesus stilled the storm. The condition of the man is described showing him to be insane-made unable to control himself bent on self-torment. The same basic elements are present as in the account of the demoniac in the synagogue; the demon challenges Jesus in much the same way as before (5; 6-7). Jesus commands the unclean spirit to depart from the man, (5: 8-12) the demon leaves 5:13). But only after an interchange which is unparalleled in any other Gospel incident. Finally those afflicted by interchange, which is unparalleled in any other Gospel incident; (5:14). In vs. 7, the demon cried in a loud voice and said: "What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not." The demon addresses Jesus with a singular verb. "What have I to do with thee and I adjure you by the God most high. But then an amazing thing happens, Jesus asked him what thy name, Verse 9, is and he answered, My name is Legion, for we are many."

A legion of men in the Roman army at this time was 6,000 men. The demon speaks in the singular. Verse 7 and there is no preparation of a shift to the plural part Jesus would send them out of the region of the Gerasenes, which appears to be their home and in a sense a haunted place. The reason for sending the demons into the 2000 swine has been much debated. The account has the effect of stressing the multiplicity of the demons. There were enough in this one man to galvanize two thousand pigs. Send them to their deaths! We are not intended to speculate about the immediate fate of the unclean spirits in (5: 11-12).

What is important, their power over the demoniac has been broken, and their days are shown to be numbered. The reaction to the miracle is negative on the part of the people. They are very afraid of the power of Jesus without being thrilled concerning the man's apparent healing. They begged Jesus to leave.

The man's reaction was positive. He was sitting clothed and in his right mind. He wants to leave with Jesus but is told to return to his and family. ". . . tell them what the Lord has done for you and now he has had mercy on you, " (Verse 19). He does so, and all were amazed. Like the woman at the well, he became a preacher of the word and they believed.

The warfare is revealed in (Eph. 6:12), principalities, powers, rulers of darkness of this world, and spiritual forces of wickedness in high places (heavenlies); and "whatever" in (Matt. 26:19).

LOOSENING POWER OF GOD

The things too loose from the Devil's power according to (Lk. 13:12): nation, state, cities, community, geographical areas, church, family individual members of family, relatives, professions, vocations, businesses, education, finances, physical health, mental health. We war against the powers of darkness that tie and destroy the plans of Satan commanding him to loose all controls from his powers. This spiritual power is the greatest force in the universe because its source of power is God Himself.

(Psa. 62:11*) says, "God has spoken once; twice have I heard this that power belongeth unto God." This spiritual power can do things no other controlling influence can do."*

SPIRITUAL WARFARE

Your warfare is a partnership with Jesus. It is believing every word in the Bible is Truth! "Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us," (Rom. 8:37).

The Syro-Phoenician Woman (Mk. 7: 24-30 Matt. 15: 21-28). Daughter of a (gentile) Syro-Phoenician woman to request that Jesus drive the demon out of her daughter; Jesus replies, "Let the children first be fed. It is not good to take the bread of the children and throw it to the dogs. But the woman shows persistence and faith." Jesus performs the exorcism at a distance, by His Word and the child is made well, simply by word of Jesus.

The boy with a deaf mute spirit, (Mk. 7: 24-30; Matt.15:21-28). Jesus finds a crowd gathered around a man who brought for healing his son, possessed by a mute spirit, vs.9: 17, As in other cases the situation is described 9:18, 21-22) including the symptoms and the inability of the disciples to drive out the spirit. (9:18). "And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spake to the disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.,"

The point is not only that Jesus has power to expel demons. But also others as well have this power. Therefore when they fail to do so, Jesus sees it as symptomatic of a faithless generation (9:19).

The keys to the exercise of this power are faith and prayer. Notice the demon manifested in the presence of the disciples.

"And he asked his father, how long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, of a child." (V. 21). Notice demon was deeply embedded for a long time. "And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into waters, to destroy him; but if thou cans't do anything, have compassion on us, and help us." (Verse 22). Notice Jesus lets the man give the history of the demon.

Jesus asked the man questions. He did not just rebuke it instantly and there were no manifestations. Jesus told him the key to this boy's deliverance. The boy's father says to Jesus. "If you can do anything take pity on us and help us. Jesus replies "What do you mean if you can, everything is possible for him that believes," (9:23). It relied on something more than Jesus' words or faith. "If thou cans't believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." Interaction of faith "And straightway the father cried out, and said with tears, Lord I believe; help thou my unbelief." Notice Jesus interacted with the man . . . Not the Demon! A crowd had gathered. "Jesus rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him." (Verse 26). Notice when Jesus spoke to the demon it was a command to leave no conversation "And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead." (Verse 26). The word rent means; "to forcefully tear." Privately, Disciples asked why they could not deliver him. ". . . This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting." (Verse 29). Jesus was prayed up and He was evidently fasting.

When they fail to do so, He sees it as symptomatic of a faithless generation (9:19). We live in a faithless generation. After the exorcism, Jesus disciples as why they were unable to drive the demon out, Jesus answer is that "This kind can come out only by prayer," (9:29). This emphasizes not only what Jesus did but also what every disciple can do through faith and prayer.

This is what spiritual warfare is about. Jesus must be the center of a person's life. One must know Him from the power of the Word of God, because of His triumph, His people can win their war. The Scripture reveals Him in 'power and authority,' "And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seet him at His own right hand in the heavenly places," (Eph. 1:10). How wonderful! Nevertheless, look at this. "And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus," (Eph. 2:6).

Keeping your own spiritual life in shape is the most important part of your life.

"If you can do anything take pity on us and help us," Jesus replied, "What do you mean If You Can, everything is possible for him that believes. The father said with tears. "Lord I believe; help thou my unbelief." He had natural faith but needed his supernatural faith helped. We see more than just saying, "Out in the name of Jesus" here. We see a conflict between two powers. We see all involved entering into the battle. The Lord encouraging the faith of the father to fight for his son. The father asking for faith to fight. The demon putting on terrible manifestations. The boy was torn by the power of darkness. The emphasizes here is not only what Jesus did but also what every disciple can do though faith, prayer and fasting.

These are three passages in Mark, which provide general summaries of Jesus' ministry of deliverance. (Mk. 1:32-34), summarizes the healing and Deliverances side by side. "They brought to him all the sick and the demon possessed. And he healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons, and he did not permit the demons to speak, for they knew him." Sickness and demon possession are here closely associated, yet kept distinct.

The same is true of (Mk. 3: 10-12). Jesus calls sickness BONDAGE! "Ought not this woman' whom Satan Hath bound . . . be loosed from this BONDAGE," (Lk. 13:16)? "Woman thou art loosed from thine infirmity," (vs. 12). He said that SATAN had BOUND her. God does not bind people. He looses them.

Jesus never said that this condition existed in this woman to keep her humble or that it was a mysterious way God had of working out His will in her life. SATAN HAD BOUND HER. Such bondage could never be the will of God for man now, because it is recorded that Jesus' ministry was designed to "set at LIBERTY THEM THAT ARE BRUISED," (Lk. 4:18). Also it is prophesied of His great ministry that it would "loose the bands . . . undo heavy burdens . . . and . . . break every yoke," (Isa. 58:6). So we see that Jesus called sickness BONDAGE, and every BOUND PERSON is commanded to be loosed to be set free. Jesus came as " . . . the way the TRUTH AND THE LIFE,' and he said, ye shall know the TRUTH, AND THE TRUTH SHALL MAKE YOU FREE," (Jn. 8:32).

Chapter Eighteen

WITHOUT CHRIST

The natural man without Christ is spiritually weak and highly susceptible to infestation by demons. There is little he can do about fighting off demons if Christ is not dwelling within him.

"And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, the word of God with boldness. And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things, which he possessed, was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them ALL. Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and them down at the apostle' feet: and distribution was made unto every man according as he had need. But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession, and kept back part of the price, his wife also being privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land," (Acts 4: 31-35; 5; 1-3).

"And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, and certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom sent seven devils." (Mk. 16:9).

A person has no resistance at all to demons without Jesus!

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me," (Phil. 4:13).

Many Christians have never been taught the power of Jesus Christ. They believe that they can never enter into direct conflict with Satan and his hosts. The church has actually been blinded by the powers of darkness and multitudes are being bound. Scriptural answers are not practiced in the lives of the people.

The clash between Satan and Jesus Son of God in the first Gospel is an ongoing one. Satan is characterized as “the strong man” and Jesus, the Son of God, casts out demons by the Holy Spirit and brings people into the sphere of God’s reign, as one who “binds” him and “plunders his goods” (Matt. 12; 28-29 cf. also 8:39). Conversely, Satan and those who do his bidding are depicted as doing violence to the kingdom of heaven as “plundering” it (Matt. 11:12). A case in point, is Satan’s enlistment of Peter in an effort to put Jesus at cross-purposes with his Father and to turn him away from the path that leads to the cross (Matt. 16:21-23).

It is precisely right to fend off onslaughts of Satan such as this that Jesus teaches his disciples to pray (Matt. 6:13). “And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one” or (“from evil”). On another level, Satan also exercises his malevolent will against Jesus through the Israelite crowds, (Matt. 11:16; 12:29, 16: 4), and their leaders’, (Matt. 16:1; 19:2; 22:18. 35; 23,15), who asks Jesus for a sign or who tempt Him, not the least while he is hanging on the cross, (Matt. 27:39-42).

(I Tim 4:1-2*), “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; 2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron.”*

Unfortunately, this sobering statement has not been taken too seriously by many professing Christians and some are now departed "from the faith" and following "doctrines of devils" or demons. Apparently, many of these believers did not believe it was possible that they could be deceived and led away from their "firm foundation" of Jesus Christ. Therefore, due to their deficiency of understanding of the spiritual warfare that Christians are up against, their guard is down and they are open to subtle Satanic attack.

OCCULT SPIRITISM

Sixteen different varieties of spiritualistic practices may be conveniently divided into the following categories: (1) physical phenomena (levitations, apports and telekinesis), (2) psychic phenomena (spiritualistic visions, automatic writing, speaking in a trance, materializations, table lifting, tumbler moving, excursions of the psyche), (3) metaphysical phenomena (apparitions, ghosts), (4)

magic phenomena (magic persecution, magic defense) and (5) cultic phenomena (spiritualistic cults, spiritism among Christians). Practitioners are spiritualistic fortune-tellers, clairvoyants, witches, charmers, consulters with familiar spirits (mediums) and necromancers.

DEMONIC LITERATURE

Destroy any books or material that you have which deals with the occult, witchcraft, sorcery, magic and related subjects, and any form of false religion or worship of Satan. It is all right to have books written by Christians exposing these subjects. Do not read books written about how to practice these abominations. Christians should rid home and office of demonic materials, including objects and trinkets imported from lands where demonic worship is rampant. Here are some examples, actor guides, occult and witchcraft books, objects bearing symbols contrary to Christ, zodiac signs, Buddha, sun dials, inverted and broken crosses, swastika, Ankh, pentagram, talismans, amulets, baphomet, hexagram, quarter moon, secret organizations, Free Masonry, Masonry Bibles and good luck charms. 4

WARNING CONTACT WITH THE OCCULT

According to the Scriptures, the sins of the fathers are visited upon the third and fourth generations of those who disobey God. It is carefully pointed out in (Exod. 20:5) when the law was given, and is specifically connected with the commandment prohibiting the construction and worship of graven images which constitutes the worship of demons. For those who disregard this stark warning and make contact with occult spirits, there will be terrible and certain repercussions in the form of sickness, misery, insanity, and sometimes an early death.

There are many in which the occult spirits are given ground through various contacts, and cause marital upheaval and other problems of all kinds. Unless the curse is broken, it will continue to plague the family and its descendants to the third and fourth generations. It predisposes people to be physically oriented and sensitive, and through psychic heredity, to pick up more curses and spirits, thus extending the hereditary blight to many generations.

SERIOUS CHRISTIANS

Christians must be prepared for spiritual warfare. From the earliest times men wore and used devices for the protection of the body in battle. The apostle Paul spoke of the armor in a figurative sense, with reference to righteousness as a protection to the follower of God against the assaults of evil or temptation. Christians have got to take upon themselves the whole armor of God, Helmet, Salvation; Breastplate, Righteousness; Girded Loins, Truth; Shod Feet; Shield, Faith, (Eph. 6:13-17), shows what wonderful provisions' God has made for His warriors. Christians must be on the defensive (Matt. 26:41). You must be anointed! (Matt. 3:16), you must fast! (Matt. 4:2), you must quote the Word! (Matt. 4:4, 7, 10), You must command the devil to stop! (Matt. 4:10), You are the one that has to drive the devil to flight, (Jas 4:7).

Break curses over yourself and your family. You simply speak to them and bind them (put cords around them) in Jesus' name. Loose the blessings of Abraham over yourself and your family in Jesus' name. You are releasing the devils' strongholds from your life and releasing the blessings of God to restore you. Once Satan's power is bound, Jesus freely enters into his house (your body) and carries off Satan's possessions. The territory is delivered and Satan loses control. You can spoil his plans by plundering his goods. According to (Lk. 11-22), you can stripe his arms from the foe. Give Jesus the dominion and be happy.

Putting it simply, Satan is stripped of his weapons, (Lk. 11:21, 22). The Greek word Deo means literally ties or fastens, to arrest or paralyze.

The Christian reclaims everything that Satan has stolen. Another words, Christians aggressively binding the power of demons and prohibiting them from the carry-forward their assignments, using Jesus' superior power, the Christian wins.

Freedom will come, as you are honest with yourself and with God. Ask God to help you to see yourself as He sees you. (Jas 4:8), "Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double minded. Expect God to bring light on anything that is not of Him.

"I acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid. I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgive the iniquity of my sin. Selah. 6 For this shall every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. 7 Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah," (Psa. 32: 5 –7).

"Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: 24 and see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting," (Psa. 9:23-24).

Read and break curses shown in (Deut. 27; 28). Then break them in the name of Jesus. Be free and full of joy.

TAKE HEAVEN BY FORCE

We are not wrestling against the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, but against Satan and his forces of evil. God gives us the abundant life but we must take it by force from Satan. God gave the people of Israel the promised and then told them to take it by force (Eph. 6:12). "Kingdom of heaven suffereth violence and the violent take it by force," (Matt. 11:12). "Kingdom of God is preached, and everyman presseth into it, (rule of Supreme Deity is preached and every man forces into it)", (Lk. 16:16).

Other good fighting verses are:

"They have digged a pit before me," (Psa. 57:6).
"No weapon formed against thee shall prosper," (Isa. 54:17).
Woman fought for deliverance for her child! (Matt. 15: 26).
Weapons of our warfare, (1 Cor. 10:3-6)
"Put on the whole armour of God," (Eph. 6:10-18)
"Testimony and Blood of Lamb," (Rev. 12:11)

Bible scholars estimate that Jesus spent about 1/3 of His ministry casting out demons. He told us to do the same.

Focus your attention of Jesus and His authority and ability to conquer. Yield to the anointing of the Holy Spirit.(Jn. 16:13). Use the Word of God, "it is written," (Jn. 8:31). Use the Name of Jesus and resist the devil, (Jam. 4:7). Stay in contact with your deliverance minister. Fellowship with the Saints. Don't pay attention to what the demons say during or after session. He is the father of lies, (Jn. 8; 26). Don't talk to them command them to be quiet in Jesus Name. Demons may try to intimidate you with demonstrations of his power. "Greater power is in you than the one in the world." "The demons believe this and do tremble." Commit yourself totally to Christ. Faith and trust in God is the greatest weapon against the Devil, (Eph. 6:16). "Know ye not that to whom yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness," (Rom. 6:17)?

Deliverance is something we do, yet Jesus is the Deliverer. This is called human-divine interaction.

(Col. 1: 29), "To this end I labor, struggling with all the energy he so powerfully works in me." We are His instruments.

"And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believes, according to the working of his mighty power, which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead and set him at His own right hand in the heavenly places. Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church," (Eph. 1: 19-22).

"And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus," (Eph. 2:6), how wonderful our warfare takes places from this vantage point, "Sitting in heavenly place with Jesus Christ."

Retaining this truth prevents anxiety and fear. Keeps Satan from hindering the deliverance ministry Gives person being ministered to a sense of security and confidence.

SCRIPTURES

"Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" (Rom. 6:16).

"But I fear lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For it he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom, we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him," (II Cor. 11: 3-4).

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils," (I Tim. 4:1).

"However at that time, when you did not know God, you were slaves to those which by nature are no gods. But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, how is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again?" (Gal. 4: 4-9).

"And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will," (II Tim. 2:26).

Chapter Nineteen

Born of the Spirit of God

HOW TO BE BORN AGAIN

"Ye must be born again." (Jn. 3:7).

Unless you are born again, you have no hope of enjoying the glories of heaven or escaping the terrors of Hell. "Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God," (Jn. 3:3).

Salvation is a free gift of God granted to lost and undeserving men who trust in the righteousness of Christ and humble themselves in submission to his will.

Accept God's Word that He loves you and wants to give you an abundant life.

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life," (Jn. 3:16).

"I am come that they might have life and that they might have it more abundantly," (Jn. 10:10).

REGENERATION

Regeneration is a subject which lies at the very basis of salvation, and we should be very diligent to take heed that we really are "born again," for there are many who fancy they are, who are not. Be assured that the name of a Christian is not the nature of a Christian. Also that being born in a Christian land, and being recognized as professing the Christian religion is of no avail whatever, unless there is something more added to it--the being "born again," is a matter so mysterious, that human words cannot describe it.

"The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit. 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, we speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. 12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God," (Jn. 3:8-21)

HOW TO BE SAVED

The most important questions of life concerns your well-being or your sorrow throughout eternity depends upon your answer to the questions: Are you saved? Are you sure you will go to heaven when you die? This matter has nothing to do with how good you are, but are you saved?

No one can enjoy the blessings of God or go to Heaven without being saved. Jesus said, to Nicodemus in (Jn. 3:7*). Ye must be born again."* God gives us in His Word the only plan for Salvation! You can be saved today.

First, you must realize that you are a sinner. "There is none righteous no not one: for there is no difference. For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God…" (Rom. 3:10:22, 23).

There is no chance to be saved unless you come to realize that you are a sinner. Pray for God is eager to save you.

"Sin bringeth forth death," (Jam. 1:15). This is spiritual death, separation from God forever and spending your eternal life in Hell. How terrible! Yes, my friend, but it is true. However, God loved you so much that he gave his only begotten Son, Jesus Christ, as your substitute, who bore your sins and died in your place. "He hath made Him (Jesus) to be sin for us who knew sin that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him," (II Cor. 5:21).

Jesus said, "For whosoever, that includes you, shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved (shall be, not might or can but shall be saved," (Rom. 10:12).

Jesus Christ died for you! "Who His own self bore our sins in His own body on the tree that we being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness by whose stripes ye were healed," (I Pet. 2:24).

SALVATION

The Philippian jailer asked the Apostle Paul and Silas, "What must I do to be saved and they said, believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved and thy house," (Acts 16:31).

You simply believe on Him as the One who bore your sin, died in your place, was buried and was raised for your justification.

What is salvation? It is the act, plan, or result of deliverance or protection from danger, bondage, or sin.

Man is seen as universally in need of salvation which he is unable of himself to bring about. His lost condition may be variously described as corruption, disease, death, fall short of the glory of God, bondage to sin and its consequences, alienation from one's fellow men and from God, rebellion against God, guilt, anxiety, etc. His own unaided efforts to solve his problems through intellectual, economic, political, social, or psychological skills and techniques are doomed to futility.

Be sure you are saved. You need salvation above everything else in your life. If you lose your soul you miss Heaven and lose all. "If thou shall confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved," (Rom. 10:9).

GRACE

Do not trust your feelings. They change. Stand on God's promises in the Bible. They never change! "All that the Father giveth me shall come to me and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out," (Jn. 6:37).

The supreme manifestation of God's grace, the focal point in the history of salvation, is the cross of Jesus Christ. The significance of this act is viewed under several figures of speech in the New Testament (see Atonement); whether it is spoken of as a ransom paid to redeem enslaved man, an acquittal before the divine bar of justice, or a victory over sin and death, it is clear throughout the effective powers in salvation belongs to God and not to man. Salvation is a free gift of God granted to lost and undeserving men who trust in the righteousness of Christ and humble themselves in submission to his will.

Just pray, "O Lord, I am a sinner, I am sorry, and repent for my all my sin. Have mercy on me and save me for Jesus' sake. I ask You to forgive me and come into my heart and be my personal Savior. Help me Jesus to forsake my sin life. Please Lord Jesus, increase my faith and confidence in You.

- Now that you are saved, there are four things to practice daily for spiritual growth.

- Pray. You talk to God in Jesus Name.

- Bible. God talks to you!

- Witness. You talk for God to your family and friends.

"Whosoever, therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in Heaven," (Matt. 10:32).

You should unite yourself with a Bible believing church and be baptized.

WELCOME TO THE FAMILY OF GOD!

PRAY – READ THE BIBLE – AND FAST

"Father be merciful to me a sinner and receive me now for Jesus Christ's sake; cleanse me from my sin by Your precious blood that was shed on the cross for me; fill me with Your Holy Spirit. Teach me to pray each day; to read Your will for my life from your word, the Bible; and help me to worship and serve You in the fellowship of your church. I thank you Lord Jesus Christ. AMEN!

General List Of Demons To Cast Out Of Children - A good general list of demons to cast out of children is the Schizophrenia - Paranoid Hands list of demon families found on pages 126 and 127, Chapter 21, Schizophrenia, Pigs in the Parlor. It can be used for mass or individual deliverance.

Start with Rejection then Root of Bitterness, then Rebellion families. After going through basic deliverance, the three R's, then start to cast out the other demon families (Schizophrenia-Paranoia).

Find out the child's problems by talking to the parents (and the child if possible). After doing deliverance in paragraph above, then work on specific demon families identified for the individual.

You can also use the names of demonic toys, movies, games and music as the names of demons in deliverance. Very simply, there is a name of a demon for every evil practice that is contrary to the Holy Bible!

[1] John Gill's Exposition of the Bible

He preached in the same church as C. H. Spurgeon over one hundred years earlier. Yet most people today have never heard of John Gill. This is unfortunate, since his works contain priceless gems of information that are found nowhere except in the ancient writings of the Jews. Presented here is a verse by verse exposition of the New Testament.
