

HAVE HAS & HAD

ENGLISH

GRAMMAR

eduflakes.com

FREE PDF

GRADE

2

eduflakes.com

You May:

- You may use this worksheet for personal and educational purposes.
- You may print copies for classroom or home use.
- You may share this resource by directing others to the original download link at eduflakes.com

You May Not:

- You may not distribute this worksheet for commercial purposes.
- You may not upload this resource to any website or platform other than where it was originally found.
- You may not edit, modify, sell them on any other website or claim ownership of this resource.

Credits for clipart resources : clipartmax.com

Follows us for more free worksheets and printable

<https://www.facebook.com/worksheetsuniverse>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/worksheetsuniverse>

<https://in.pinterest.com/eduflakes/>

eduflakes.com

"Have," "Has," and "Had" are verbs that help us talk about ownership, experiences, or actions at different times. These words are important in English and are used differently depending on who we're talking about and when the action happened.

When to Use "Have"

- Present Tense: Use "have" when talking about something that is true right now.

- Who:

- I (I have a book. )

- You (You have a toy. )

- We (We have a dog. )

- They (They have a game. )

Example:

- I have a pencil.

- They have fun at the park.

When to Use "Has"

Present Tense: Use "has" when talking about something that belongs to one person, animal, or thing, right now.

•Who:

- He (He has a hat. 🎩)
- She (She has a doll. 🧸)
- It (It has a tail. 🐾)

•Example:

- She has a cat. 🐱
- He has a car. 🚗

When to Use "Had"

- Past Tense: Use "had" to talk about something that was true in the past but may not be true now.

- Who:

- I, You, We, They, He, She, It
(It's the same for all!)

- Example:

- I had a cookie yesterday.
- They had a party last week.

Using "Have"

- I have a book.
- You have a toy.
- We have a dog.
- They have a game.

Using "Has"

- He has a basketball.
- She has a doll.
- It has a tail.
- The cat has a fish.

Using "Had"

- I had a cookie yesterday.
- You had a great time at the party.
- He had a cold last week.
- They had a cake.

The Birthday Party 🎉

- Yesterday: Sarah had a birthday party. 🎂 All her friends had so much fun! 🎈
- Today: Sarah has many gifts to open. 📦 She has a big smile on her face. 😊
- Tomorrow: She will have a special day at school to show her new toys. 🧸

The Lost Ball

•Yesterday: Tom had a basketball, but he lost it at the park.

•Today: He has been looking everywhere for it.  His friends have been helping him.

•Tomorrow: If they find the ball, they will have a game together.

Exercise 1: Fill in the Blanks

Fill in the blanks with the correct form of "has," "have," or "had."

1. She _____ a beautiful dress.

2. I _____ a lot of homework yesterday.

3. We _____ a picnic last weekend.

4. He _____ a big smile on his face today.

5. They _____ a new puppy.

6. The car _____ a flat tire last night.

7. You _____ a great idea for the project.

8. My friends _____ an exciting trip planned.

9. The teacher _____ a meeting after school.

10. It _____ been a long day.

Exercise 2: Correct the Sentence

Each sentence below has an incorrect form of "have," "has," or "had." Rewrite the sentence with the correct form.

1. She have a new bicycle.

Corrected: _____

2. They has a wonderful vacation last summer.

Corrected: _____

3. He have been to the zoo many times.

Corrected: _____

4. I has a great time at the park yesterday.

Corrected: _____

5. We has finished our homework already.

Corrected: _____

Exercise 3: Sentence Creation

Use the prompts to create sentences using "have," "has," or "had."

Yesterday / my friend / a birthday party 🎂

Tomorrow / we / a big test 📄

Last year / she / a trip to the mountains 🏔️

Right now / they / lunch together 🍕

At this moment / he / a book in his hand 📖

JOIN FACEBOOK GROUP

“WORKSHEETS UNIVERSE”

FOR MORE

FREE PDF
RESOURCES

eduflakes.com