

Intimacy, The Pathway To Life

The power of God, the presence, the glory and the manifestation of God is released to the degree of our Intimacy with God. As we dwell in the presence, we build Intimacy and as we spend our time to build Intimacy, sacrifices are being raised. The more we build Intimacy with God we find ourselves dwelling in the presence and in the presence of God there's life.

God is everything and how much we dwell in Intimacy will determine how much God's life will be dawned on us and saturate our soul. The reason why many Christians are weak or why they think God isn't functioning properly, or why they think God delays unnecessarily is, because they failed to build Intimacy which fills a man with the life of God by dwelling in the presence. We spend our time in every other thing and also in sorrows and contemplations, forsaking the presence.

The problem you're going through, the affliction, frustration, depression, oppression, whatever will all be erased only if you dwell in the presence to build Intimacy, where God's life dwells, then death can be vanquished, where there is light, darkness disappears. And so, the only reason there's darkness in your life is, because God's life saturating you cannot produce enough life to dissipate darkness completely. Meanwhile, there are trials you must walk through to become more equipped and to build a deep level of Intimacy with God.

Darkness lingers in the lives of many Christians, because they're not intimate enough. If you can be intimate enough to draw life from God's presence through His word and prayers, then God's life in you will vanquish death and a higher intensity light will dissipate darkness. It's not all about binding and casting out darkness, which is good or running to a pastor. It's all about Intimacy by dwelling in the presence to draw life from God.

I've always said, the best way to draw life from God presence is through God's word, well, I must say; from faith to faith we grow. The best way to draw life from God presence is by Intimacy through by ceaselessly praying

Whereas, one can't pray if he doesn't have the indwelling of God's spirit. It is the fullness of God's spirit in a man that gives him the nature of God that never faints, in the flesh you'll be weary, but it's the spirit of God in us, the holy spirit that causes us to pray naturally without fainting. Just as we desire to pray, which of course is a higher form of Intimacy, things of the spirit needs to be kept balance and so, even as we pray, we don't neglect the word. Still we should pray more than we dwell in the word, well at times depending on the dealings of the holy spirit for a chronos season you might be led to dwell in the word more.

When we dwell in the presence through God's word, then we can fetch more of His life to build his Spirit in us. We build God's spirit, God's nature through His word. We must come with an open heart like a novice who hungers for the word and meditate on it slowly, attentively and repeatedly, that is;

- slowly; so you can fetch the substance life sealed in the word.

- attentively; or carefully, so that the life which you've drawn won't pour out. You know, you have to ignore all distractions, else what you've drawn might not fill your heart if you're cut off. Some of you read the bible and talk to people freely who comes your way as if it's a story book. You don't know what you're doing, what a man does when he feeds on the word is like invoking a spirit. As long as that person didn't come for the word or for a very dire need, do you think God would want to distract His child from His presence? If it were to be a shrine high priest meditating, surely he'll be left alone, no one would dare, why not you?
- repeatedly; to be constantly filled with God's life over and over again.

It is when His spirit is dominant in us, then we can live like God in His nature, and be quickened by the holy spirit, the spirit of prayer to pray ceaselessly without fainting. If you should pray ceaselessly on your own strength, you'll faint, because the fullness of God's nature is not in you. Until you strike the right frequency, that is; you must be supersaturated with life in order to become able to pray without fainting. This is why we spend time in the word, not for knowledge, no, if I don't have anything doing, all I do is spend hours dwelling in the word, depending on how my day is scheduled by the holy spirit some time five to eight hours, depends.

Intimacy, I believe you all know what Intimacy is, but in the terms of the spirit, intimacy is "sacrifice," sacrifice to dwell more in the presence of a spirit be it of God or the devil. When we dwell in God's presence through His word, we take time off, putting aside all things that hinders. Meanwhile, because of the frailty of man and many who aren't willing to sacrifice hours in the word, we'll be giving you a path of the spirit to dwell in God's presence, it is the path of prayers.

You want to be full of the life of God so you can be free from darkness and begin to walk in God's light and His purpose concerning your life, then the path of ceaseless prayer is a path you must take. I'll repeat again; you can't neglect the word, you'll need it to sustain the spirit of God in you which stirs in your prayer.

When we build Intimacy, we stay in the presence just as you stay with your loved one. When you fellowship in the gathering of the believers, you dwell in the presence to build Intimacy, when you pray, you stay in the presence, all you have to do is stay. We must give God our life time, all our hours just to stay, but you can't give God's all your hours unless by heart meditation, praying (talking to God) ceaselessly in the heart. We'll be deliberating on this in time.

When you stay in the presence to build Intimacy, you invoke the presence of God and spiritually you'll find yourself in God's presence. Although, you're in the flesh, but you're in God's presence at the same time. It's just like a... try picturing this vividly. When you enter the word or prayer, your spirit will immediately be teleported and you'll find yourself in a fantasy land of happily ever after, that's how it feels like, but that's not how it is actually. It's complex, but you'll be in two realms at the same time.

Prayer is the fastest way to draw much volume of God's life. The reason why many are weak is, because they don't pray, you don't hear God because you've not prayed enough to journey to the throne of God. God does not engage Intimately with an acquaintance, but rather, with those who have deep Intimacy with Him, so when you don't hear from God, it's not because God no longer talks to men, it because you're too far from Him.

When we pray perpetually this is what happens; we'll need your imaginative factor to visualize this now. I know many won't be able to accept this, but the reason Jesus was able to do all that He could do wasn't merely because He's the Son of God. As long as a spirit wears flesh, it doesn't matter if He's God, he'll be subjected to the laws of the physical realm set by God. The law that states that;

" Any spirit wearing flesh won't be able to release the glory of God within, without first doing all that's necessary to put to death the flesh."

Too much flesh is what blocks the release of God's glory in a man. Jesus wore flesh and he was restricted just as you are restricted and, so He had to go through every process you're going through now to get closer to God. The only difference between us is that, Jesus came from heaven knowing God's will concerning Him already, and right from when He grew as a child till he was thirty years old before his ministry began, He lived in obedience and in constant prayers for thirty years before He could break the flesh and begin to manifest His glory.

Jesus' ability to pray for thirty years made Him breach the earth realm into heaven and journeyed to the throne of God. Whenever He prays, whenever He wants to get to God, it became so easy because He's now at the throne of God spiritually, and so whatever He does at the will of the Father it happens at the snap of a finger, He doesn't need to pray long prayer, He doesn't even need to pray, because He has journeyed through prayers to get close to God as He is in heaven. You now see how we've wasted our lives on irrelevancies.

Most of the things which you pray for, you're not supposed to pray concerning them, all you do is build Intimacy through prayers and you'll see the manifestation. Jesus raised the dead and all He did was say what was in His heart, " thank you Father."

John 11:41-42

" Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. I knew that You always hear Me; but because of the people standing around I said it, so that they may believe that You sent Me."

Thank you Father was the prayers He has been praying always In His even as He was walking, eating, whatever he does. He only prayed out loud for men to know God sent Him. He prayed consistency to build a close proximity with God, because the flesh stands as a barrier between our heart and God. You think it's just, because He's the Son of God He raised Lazarus, it because He trailed the path of thirty years in prayers to neutralize the fleshly barrier and breach the earth realm in order to be reconnected back to God so He can carry the presence and glory of God.

All He had to say was " thank you Lord " and life imparted into Lazarus at the command of His voice. It's not all about shouting or lengthy prayers, it's all about life. How much life you draw by dwelling in the presence through Intimacy. Still prayer is not the only thing that gives such, there are great sacrifices also, but as you pray these sacrifices will be revealed by the holy spirit, you just have to yield to them.

When we trail the path prayers in our hearts, our hearts then becomes filled with higher energy of life which resonates a radiating light of high intensity, obliterating thick clouds of darkness overshadowing us. Unless you pray to breach these barriers of darkness you'll remain trapped in the earth realm and you won't be able to access God. That's why God can't reach many believers and that's why the prayers of many don't get to God, because it is blocked by the thick cloud of darkness. I know many will argue this, spiritual truths are raw. If you know your prayers rise up as incense, then you'll know it can be blocked, that's why we don't pray and stop, else the portal you opened will become distorted.

You need to break the barrier so you can be in the presence of God where you can easily make contact with Him. As we increase the intensity and tarry more in prayers, the energy of God's life in us absorbed firstly; through God's word is stirred in a reaction and is released from our heart to blast through the barriers of darkness. This is why I said we need the word first in our heart, without it you'll pray but there won't be any energy released to destroy the barrier.

This cloud of darkness thickens through sacrifices as man continues in evil. When you're consistent in prayers, then the heavens (atmosphere) are breached and the gateway or portal of heaven's dimensions is dawned upon you. Over you, heaven is opened and as you walk the earth realm, wherever you go the gateways of heaven opened goes with you. It has an effect also on those connected to you. When this gateway is opened, then through you, diverse heavenly activities begin to take place, many things you're not aware of.

For example; an angel might appear to a man in a far away land, that man begins to rejoice an angel appeared to him, but he didn't know that would've been impossible if you hadn't opened that portal through prayers and so, when you get to heaven you'll be known and popular over there. These are mysteries on how to be popular in heaven and not our fake earthly fame.

As you walk the earth realm, because you've opened a gateway, you walk the dimensions of heaven on earth, though you're in the flesh, but you're in heaven at the same time and this is how intimacy is built. All you need to do is breach the heavens and continue dwelling in God's presence, then deep Intimacy will be achieved. Still, deeper Intimacy comes with great sacrifices and faith. For instance; are you willing to sacrifice your Isaac to God? If I tell you prayer is the only way I'd be lying. There are sacrifices I've made that provoked God, He had to tell me that because of this He'll make me this. Sorry I'm not allowed to utter what He said to the open.

If you break in prayers, you break in Intimacy, if you break in intimacy you're cut off from the presence of life temporarily, and so you'll be stagnant in spiritual power and authority. This is why many are weak and this is why the Lord told us to pray ceaselessly.

To build Intimacy, as you pray constantly in your heart, then you walk in the realms of heaven. As long as you're in heaven through prayers, you're building Intimacy with God. Talking to God in our heart does not only get to God as sacrifice, rather it keeps us locked up in the realm of heaven. For many seeking protection, it's because you're outside the perimeters of heaven, if you're within the jurisdiction, no evil spirit can tamper with your soul, they can only touch your flesh if God allows it as a trial, just as He did with Job.

And this is why spirits of sin find it easy invading the hearts of many, because their spirit is not locked up in God's presence. When you're locked up in heaven, then you begin to draw life from the realm of life. As you constantly pray, you journey deeper and closer to God's throne and as you get closer to the great monarch of Zion you begin to absorb life at great intensity. If you take a break in prayer, you take a break in absorbing life. Don't worry we'll talk about how to pray ceaselessly.

It is when you're weighted with life, then you can give commands at God's will and you'll see the manifestation of God with great power, depending on how much life you've drawn and how far you've gone in Intimacy with God. You can say "be healed!" and out of the fullness of life in you, you release energy of life and death will be gone. Here you're no longer bothered by witches or demons, whatever darkness there is, because you're now shielded and dwelling in heaven, God's presence.

Anyone who comes under your ambience, comes also under the radar of heaven, the reason an accident didn't happen that day was, because you were there to conquer death. Then you can stand unshaken, this is the true act to conquer in the realm of time, to stay locked up in the presence where life dwells.

To dwell in the presence of God, being constantly infused with life is what causes a man to become sanctified by the fire of the holy ghost. As death dies due to the presence of life, it removes that irrelevance that hinders the rekindling of the flames of the holy spirit. When death begins to fade, then the flames of the holy spirit begin to burn fiercely. The reason why many still think about sin is because death still lies therein, you'll need to pray to walk in the realms of heaven where life erases death to increase the sanctifying flames of the holy spirit.

For those looking for demands, this is why God never asked us to pray for demands, because naturally if you can seek first the kingdom, which is the will of the Father, then you'll do all to dwell in the presence and all things shall be added, because in the presence there's life. And why ask for bread in a land of bread.

Everything has been revealed, you can now see how the devil has veiled the hearts of many Christians, actually it's their selfishness, and so God made it so, that if you seek Him, if you're selfless, all things shall be added according to His will. I can't remember the last time I prayed for blessings, I just can't. If you can do this, you'll not only conquer, you'll begin to walk in your ordination.

We'll be summarizing soon, but I'd like to add a little more; for the Intercessors, try to visualize. When these gateways are opened, as you Intercede on behalf of the church, a family, anyone, a territory, you become a high ranking general in the kingdom of heaven. When you journey into eternity, you'll be surprised how popular you are even though nobody knew you on earth, because whenever you Intercede, even if you don't, as long as you pray ceaselessly to keep the portals of heaven open as a gatekeeper and also to expand it and open several gates in diverse territories. As a gatekeeper, through your portals, God can invade the earth realm.

When you Intercede, based on your rankings you become a commander who commands from heaven spiritually, you can fetch from the armoury of God and mobilize legions of angels to invade the earth realm against principalities and powers of darkness. Wherever there is to be deliverance, angels are dispatched from your coordinates. Even if you weren't praying as you walk the streets, and someone is supposed to have an accident, but because you passed there with the dimensions of heaven, the spirit of death is apprehended because of life. Spirit of sin dies in the hearts of men when you pray and all that is left is for God to send a messenger to give knowledge on how to maintain his salvation.

As we Journey deeper, we get closer to the throne of God. When you get closer to the throne, then you begin to trap revelations, visions from God concerning you, others, and concerning God's will for a generation. That was the reason John also, was able to Journey into the future and receive visions to write the book of Revelation, well it's by the grace of God also he was taken, but Intimacy was mainly part of it. Normally an apostle is a man of Intimacy, but in the island of Patmos, he did have all the time for God. The reason why many can't hear from God or receive revelations is because, they're too far from God, they're not men of prayers, I once taught a long time ago that prayer also is a journey to God, it is also Intimacy, prayer has diverse dimensions.

Every child of God is supposed to hear from the Father in whatever way God chooses to communicate to them, be it audibly, revelations, visions, trances, whatever way He chooses. We born of God are supposed to receive from Him, having knowledge of His will and plans. But, it's unfortunate that many are children and not sons, only sons know the plans and will of the Father. You must have built Intimacy to get there.

You know how children will play with toy trains in the house of the Father not minding anything. Meanwhile, the mature, "sons" are discussing with the Father things concerning the household and its future, that's how it is. If you think man can't hear God, it's, because you're still a child spiritually, sorry to say. Every son is supposed to know the mind of the Father, the Father never does anything without him knowing. The Lord once said;

Genesis 18:17

" Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do."

When I do share revelations of the rapture and not just the rapture, but the time intervals it'll happen, many will say, and of course I've seen many who said; " what's this one saying, nobody knows, it's not possible." It's, because you've not yet build Intimacy to become a son and you've not prayed enough to walk in the heaven, God's presence in order to trap breaking news from the throne of God. For my revelations of the rapture, I give God the glory, it's by grace also, but I tell you, no son in this house is ignorant the time is nigh, I've seen many who knows the time is nigh because they are in the house instead of playing with toys. Please, pardon me, this not a rapture message.

The reason many can't trap revelations from God it's either their heavenly gateway is too thin and because of it's thinness, there are obstructions along the way which deters the message being sent across. Or for revelations of higher mysteries, is because, they've not journeyed closer to the throne of God. If you want to hear God, then pray ceaselessly.

It is through revelations concerning a man's life or concerning the dealings of God for a generation or the times and seasons, a man is quickened to have visions and convictions to be ready to die to any and everything to birth the move of God for a generation. It is through these revelations he has undeterred faith to forsake all or do anything in order to be used by God as a vessel unto honor.

You'd wonder, " has this man gone mad?" how can he forsake his life just like that? How can he forsake all he has worked for? It's because, he has seen what you couldn't see. Unto every man is given a peculiar revelation. It is what you're given you'll live on, you can follow another man's vision it'll weary and kill you. The same way Abraham was ready to sacrifice Isaac because he knows the God that told him he'll be a father of nations. Many can't sacrifice anything, there's a place you'll get to in Intimacy with God, then that job you've prayed for God to give you, He'll come and demand of it. Will you be able to surrender to Him? Know your ordination and your eternal future is hinging on your very decision of sacrifice.

However, the faith to cast all aside and follow God, If you say you're called to the ministry and you've not yet have a revelation or an encounter convincing enough that'll trigger your faith level to be ready to make sacrifices, " your Isaac " and cast everything that has to do with you ambition as a man into the fire as a burnt offering, then you're not truly called, you're a joker. It's better to pursue God and preach the gospel at your spare time, but standing as a pastor, prophet or an Apostle when you've not sacrifice anything to be ordained and sent by God then the principalities will make a mess of you.

When God wants to use a man, He comes for everything he has, everything of flesh. If you can pass the test of sacrifice then, like Abraham you'll become. If you've not yet become a man of sacrifice, then you won't be of much use for God. "

The relevance of Revelation," I did write on this some time ago, this is what makes men yield completely to the holy spirit to make sacrifices in order to be called and walk in their ordination, " revelations " .

Genuine ministers of God out there, they don't only grow from faith to faith, but rather, from revelation to revelations. The moment your prayer dies, your revelation dies also. Your revelation and encounter is maintained through prayers, if it's cut off, you'll have nothing, you'll no longer know the mind of God and you'll be lost, because man can't do anything on his own. We've seen some reasons and benefits but we won't leave you hanging now we'll tell you how to pray ceaselessly.

I'm aware some of you who have been feeding on God's word will know I do take this out and repeat it by doing a copy and paste job overtime. As long as it takes we'll repeat it till it's sealed in the hearts of many.

I'm sorry it's because I'm human and we can get tired at times. I just can't write it all over again when it's still the same thing, we'll continue to emphasize on prayers, because they're life, until you see the results, benefits and rewards of it. You don't need trouble or circumstances to pray you were created to pray as a living sacrifice.

I'll give some scriptural references, then show you also, how I do pray without ceasing.

1Corinthians 14:15.

" What should I do, then? I will pray with my spirit, but I will pray also with my mind; I will sing with my spirit, but I will sing also with my mind."

Colossians 2:6-7

" So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness."

Ephesians 5:18-20

" Do not be drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead be filled with the spirit. Speak to one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord, always giving thanks to God for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ."

1Thessalonians 5:16-18

" Be joyful always, pray continually; give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God's will for you in Christ Jesus."

Praying without ceasing is of heart, it's not in the mouth but in the heart, for me I meditate on these constantly in my heart;

- Thank you Jesus, thank you Lord
- Take more of me and give me more of you

- Jesus, (continually in my heart)
- Locate me Lord in your mercy
- in the name of Jesus, the blood of Jesus
- Then I switch to spiritual song at times

You can add yours if you feel like.

These are all prayers, as long as you are communicating with God, what do you think happens when you're disconnected from a dear one for a long time, there be a decline in relationship, so it is with God.

I was listening to Andrew Wommack's some time ago, and he was saying the same thing, he did said " even if you look at the trees and say, God they're beautiful!" That's also prayer, he said. These are what many don't know, but this was the daily life of the Apostles. Peter would say;

" But we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word."

[Acts 6:4]

With this message I'm pleased in my heart, for what the Lord will do.
