Introduction

I welcome you all in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ of Nazareth the King of kings and Lord of lords, the soon-coming King. I believe we are all waxing stronger in Christ, may we not miss it at last in Jesus Christ's name.

We will be looking into a topic that needs serious consideration especially in a time like this.

Bible Text

Luke 21:1-15

Luke.21.1 - While Jesus was in the Temple, he watched the rich people putting their gifts into the collection box.

Luke.21.2 - Then a poor widow came by and dropped in two pennies.

Luke.21.3 - "I assure you," he said, "this poor widow has given more than all the rest of them.

Luke.21.4 - For they have given a tiny part of their surplus, but she, poor as she is, has given everything she has."

Luke.21.5 - Some of his disciples began talking about the beautiful stonework of the Temple and the memorial decorations on the walls. But Jesus said,

Luke.21.6 - "The time is coming when all these things will be so completely demolished that not one stone will be left on top of another."

Luke.21.7 - "Teacher," they asked, "when will all this take place? And will there be any sign ahead of time?"

Luke.21.8 - He replied, "Don't let anyone mislead you. For many will come in my name, claiming to be the Messiah and saying, 'The time has come!' But don't believe them.

Luke.21.9 - And when you hear of wars and insurrections, don't panic. Yes, these things must come, but the end won't follow immediately."

Luke.21.10 - Then he added, "Nations and kingdoms will proclaim war against each other.

Luke.21.11 - There will be great earthquakes, and there will be famines and epidemics in many lands, and there will be terrifying things and great miraculous signs in the heavens.

Luke.21.12 - "But before all this occurs, there will be a time of great persecution. You will be dragged into synagogues and prisons, and you will be accused before kings and governors of being my followers.

Luke.21.13 - This will be your opportunity to tell them about me.

Luke.21.14 - So don't worry about how to answer the charges against you,

Luke.21.15 - for I will give you the right words and such wisdom that none of your opponents will be able to reply!

Study

The Lord Jesus Christ began to talk about the things to come after His disciples were admiring the beauty of the temple's building. He told them that in the future, not one stone would be left on another in that building, for it would be destroyed. His disciples then asked to know what the signs of the end time would be, and it started by telling them that "many," not "few," would come in His name, claiming to be the Messiah. Of a truth, many have come appropriating for themselves that name today already; hence, the Lord warned that we should be careful, saying, "do not follow them"

Luke 21:8 KJV And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

He went further and said that they would hear of wars and disturbances, that is, civil unrest, revolts, and uprisings. He emphasized that they should not let their hearts be troubled because the end will not come immediately; these things must take place first. Looking into the world today, especially when watching the news, one would see that these are already happening; peace is no longer in the world, not to talk about wars. The Lord says nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, then famine, which are the effects of such wars, and earthquakes too Luke 21:10-11 KJV Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: [11] And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

Plagues and epidemics, all these are already unfolding gradually. In the words of the Lord, it is clear that God's children would be persecuted. Looking deeply into the words of the Lord, there are two places where one would be delivered and brought before two others.

1. Synagogues

2. Prisons

a. Kings

b. Rulers

These events will occur for one reason: for His namesake. The world will reach a point of moral and spiritual decay, wanting to resist God in every way and choosing convenience outside of God.

The term "synagogue," as used by the Lord Jesus Christ, can refer to Jewish synagogues or the Christian church. Looking carefully into it, one can see that the words of the Lord Jesus Christ were fulfilled in the New Testament and are also being fulfilled today. Many apostles could not continue in the Jewish synagogue because they were opposed. This opposition led to the establishment of the Christian church. The Lord meant that as His followers, we would be brought before the authority of the church for questioning for His namesake. One might ask why this should happen since the church was established for His service. The truth is that many churches would depart from His doctrines, giving heed to seducing spirits. They will not stand on the doctrine of holiness and righteousness.

True followers of the Lord will be seen as threats because they will not accept the world's teachings but will choose to stand for the truth. Some will be delivered into prisons, just like the early disciples, for the sake of their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. True followers will not obey laws that contradict God's laws, making them enemies of the land. They will endure severe punishments, tortures, homelessness, and property confiscation by the government for the name of Christ. Moreover, they will be brought before kings and rulers to defend themselves for not obeying civil laws contrary to God's laws. In their innocence, they will face warnings, similar to the apostles' warnings Acts 5:28 KJV Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

It will be a serious test of faith for the Lord's faithful.

Some will face false accusations before the government, being questioned about things they do not know because of what they stand for. All these events will happen before the coming of the Lord. The joy lies in the opportunity to make the name of Jesus Christ known to unbelieving rulers and kings. Luke 21:13 KJV says, And it shall turn to you for a testimony.

When these things begin to happen we should see it as a time of divine placement and see it as God at work in us and in them for His name to be known. Then the instruction to those who would find themselves in such situations. Luke 21:14 KJV Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: do not bother to prepare beforehand on what to say, this implies that don't meditate on how you would answer them of what they will question you about like earthly lawyers do, so that they might defend their case well before the earthly judges, we should know that God knows all things and has gone before us, He is the One who would be asked the questions because His Spirit will reply them. And since no one can ask God a question He will not be able to answer then we should not bother to think about what we would answer.

Luke 21:15 KJV For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. Now here comes the divine assistance "I will give you a mouth and wisdom". The law says this to make it clear that even in our trials and appearances before rulers, He is there with us to give us a mouth and wisdom. We are not left alone, this alone should give us peace even when we feel we have been deserted by all, the Lord is there with us to give us a mouth different from the one we had, a mouth that has been touched. Jeremiah 1:19 KJV And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

Therefore His words are put in our mouths coupled with a wisdom that is rooted in Christ which cannot be contradicted or resisted. The Lord Jesus Christ who is the wisdom and Power Of God said He will give us a wisdom that cannot be contradicted, this is the wisdom from above not the wisdom of this world rooted in the philosophies of men, this should not in any way match up with Christ's wisdom just as it was given to Stephen. Acts 6:10 KJV And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.

It does not have anything to do with the number of those who rise up against us, we will speak with God's wisdom which supersedes all wisdom and they would be rendered speechless without words to refute what we say anymore.

It is good that we seek for the wisdom which is from above and not the one beneath, we must put it in our minds that has we stand for the Lord Jesus Christ, we will pass through a lot for His namesake but that in all, we are not left alone or forsaken, for the Lord will always be with us all through, this is why we must be confident of him in all our tribulations and trials if it is He who has said that He will never leave nor forsake us. Hebrews 13:5 KJV Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

This is where I will end this topic, thanks for your time.

If you followed the teaching and understood it, please answer these questions

1. What did the Lord promise to give us when we stand before the authorities to be questioned because of Him?
2. Why are we going to be delivered into prisons?
3. Is it the will of God that Christians should face persecution?

Invitation

If you know that you are still living in sin and you are ready to repent and begin to live your life in strict obedience to God so that you can overcome every sin in your life to make heaven, please place your right hand on your chest and say this prayer with your mouth.

Say,

"Lord Jesus, I accept You as my personal Lord and Savior. I believe that You died for me and took away my sins so that I will not face the penalty of them. I surrender my life to You today, and I make a decision to obey and follow You. Come into my life now and accept me as Your child. Thank You for saving me, in Jesus Christ's name I pray, Amen."

Congratulations, now you are saved. If you prayed this short prayer, please WhatsApp +2347067511039 and let me know that you have just been saved. I want to have a word with you. God bless you!
