INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME 2 OF CTM 365

Volume 2 — 2nd Quarter of CTM is the second volume in the powerful Command the Morning 365 series of Daily Prayer Devotionals for 2017. This Volume 2 picks up where Volume 1 ended. It provides powerful, result-oriented daily prayer devotionals that cover the months April / May / June 2017.

"Command the Morning 365: 2017 Daily Prayer Devotional" (CTM 365 2017 DPD) is the most powerful daily prayer devotional currently available. In the year 2017, if you want to live a result-oriented and successful life and yet be completely dedicated to God Almighty with signs and wonders following, please do not begin your day without using this book!

CTM 365 2017 DPD is a true daily prayer devotional. It is called 365 because it includes teachings, scriptures and powerful prayers for all 365 days of the year. All the teachings and scriptures are highly inspiring and will fire you up and keep you that way each day of the year. The devotionals are applicable to your daily life and so provide lessons that you can put into action immediately, enabling you to live in accordance with God's will. Each day also includes powerful prayers that have been inspired by the teachings. These prayers have only one purpose—to bring the scriptures to life in your own life. They are completely result-oriented and intended to ensure that the promises of God's word thoroughly manifest in your life everyday of the year.

Your time, especially in the mornings, has been put into consideration. Therefore, the devotionals have been designed to be brief BUT power-packed. As you go through each day of this devotional, you will see that your relationship with God will become closer, tighter and more functional. This book will also help you secure divine guidance and protection so that you can go out and come in everyday with the total awareness and confidence that God is with you. It contains teachings that explore multiple dimensions of God's word which will bring you wisdom, discretion, deliverance, peace of mind, multiple promotions, financial breakthrough, prosperity and other benefits essential for your time on the earth. This book will also give you an assurance—through God's Spirit—of an eternity with the Almighty and His saints. Get this powerful devotional and have yourself a wonderful year!

Finally, we would love to hear from you particularly about how God is using this book to bless you. Please send your message to john@johnmillerbooks.com.

If this book is a blessing to you, please leave a review on the website where you purchased your copy.

God bless you.

Your-brother-in-Christ,
John Miller

HOW TO USE CTM 365 — VOLUME 2 — 2ND QUARTER

Command the Morning 365: 2017 Daily Prayer Devotional (CTM 365 2017 DPD) is divided into two major parts:

- PART 1: Your Essential Prayers — Spiritual Exercises That Create A Good Day
- PART 2: The Prayer Dailies — Daily Prayer Devotionals That Bring Results

"Part: Your Essential Prayers — Spiritual Exercises That Create A Good Day" contains the essential spiritual exercises that are crucial for your daily survival as a Christian. These essential exercises should be carried out first thing each morning before proceeding to the daily devotionals in part 2. If you cannot do them every day, you should at least do them at the beginning of each week. Here are the areas covered in the first part:

- Daily Praise and Worship songs
- Morning Affirmations of Power
 - Words of Thanksgiving
 - Words of Praise
 - Commanding Nature to Work In Your Favor
 - Opening the Gates of the Day
- Power Declarations of Well-being
 - Prayers Against Spiritual Attacks of the Day
 - Prayers Against Physical Attacks of the Day
 - Prayers for Good Health
 - Scriptures for Protection
- Divine Guidance
 - O Lord, Order My Steps
 - Prayers Against Temptations and Sins
 - Prayers for Expression of Character That Will Honor God
- Daily Intercession
- The Blessing

"Part 2: The Prayer Dailies — Daily Prayer Devotionals That Bring Results" is the meat of this book. This book covers 2nd Quarter — Volume 2 of the devotionals that run from April to June. For each day in each month, there are scriptures, exhortations, prayers and the author's blessing. Each day's devotional is packed with spiritual fire power that will see you through the day. Here's the scope of this second part:

- April Dailies — containing devotionals for everyday in April
- May Dailies — containing devotionals for everyday in May
- June Dailies — containing devotionals for everyday in June

This book is designed to draw you closer to God and to help you fulfill your essential spiritual and human needs. You will see that with each passing day, your fellowship with God will become closer, tighter and more functional. By the end of the year, you would have become a richer person in spirit and in every other way.

God bless you!

YOU MUST BE BORN AGAIN

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." If you have not yet given your life to Jesus Christ, the prayers in this book will not work for you. The good news is that becoming born again is very simple. Simply read the words below within your mind, making sure to do this with full faith and belief in Jesus Christ. Thereafter, read these words out loud like a declaration or an acknowledgment of what you believe:

"Lord Jesus, I believe that you are the Son of God. I believe that God sent you to the earth and gave you up to die for my sins. I also believe that God raised you from the dead. Today, I give my life to you for you to become the Lord of it. All my thoughts and deeds, I lay plain before you to be totally responsible for. You have said in your word that if I open the door of my life, you will come in. I open my heart to you and I invite you in to come and become the Lord of my life. Thank you for accepting me and giving me the assurance of eternal life."

With those words spoken in your spirit and confessed with your mouth, you have given your life to Jesus Christ according to Romans 10:10 which says "For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved."

You are now what is known as a Born-again christian with full rights to the benefits of the kingdom of God.

"Let the morning bring me word of Your unfailing love, for I have put my trust in You.
Show me the way I should go, for to You I entrust my life."
(Psalm 143:8 NIV)

MORNING AFFIRMATIONS OF POWER

MORNING WORDS OF THANKSGIVING

1. Father, I thank you that I am alive!
2. Many who also slept yesterday are dead but I am alive. For this Lord, I thank you for the miracle of sleeping and waking up.
3. Father, I thank you for honoring my prayers of last night and for not allowing any evil to befall me in my sleep. I thank you for the battles that you fought for me during my sleep including those that I know about and those that I have no knowledge of.
4. Lord, I thank you for your hand of protection over my family throughout the night.
5. Lord, I thank you for protecting everything that I own and for not allowing me suffer any loss throughout the night.
6. Lord, I thank you for the dreams that you showed me during the night and for the instructions that you passed into my spirit to guide me today.
7. Lord, I thank you for loading me with today's benefits according to your word.
8. I thank you for your Power that can never fail.
9. Father, I thank you for sending your son, the Lord Jesus Christ, who has redeemed me from the fires of hell and given me the assurance of eternal life.
10. Thank you because you are my rock, my fortress and my deliverer. In you I take refuge. You are my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. I bless you.

MORNING WORDS OF PRAISE

1. This morning I declare that there is none like you O God.
2. Today, I declare that you alone are the King of Kings and Lord of Lords.
3. You are the I am that I am. Lord be lifted high and be glorified forever and ever.
4. Lord I bless you this morning even as the sun, moon and stars declare your glory.
5. This morning all of creation praises you, O Lord.
6. Father, I bow before you because you are Omnipotent, Omniscient and Omnipresent.
7. You are the Alpha and Omega - the beginning and the ending.
8. You are the One who is, the One who was, the One who is to come.
9. You are worthy to be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace.
10. You are worthy to be praised and you are worthy to be glorified. Lord, receive all my praises, glory, honor and adoration, in Jesus name.

I COMMAND NATURE TO WORK IN MY FAVOR TODAY

You have the daily right and responsibility as a child of God to issue commands to nature, celestial bodies and all other elements of creation. If you exercise your right and command them (in accordance with God's will) to work in your favor, they will obey you. However, if you do not use your right, they will do nothing in your favor or worse, can work against you.

Joshua 10:12-13 "Then spake Joshua to the Lord in the day when the Lord delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, Sun, stand thou still upon Gibeon; and thou, Moon, in the valley of Ajalon. And the sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? So the sun stood still in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a whole day."

Mark 4:38-41 "And He was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake Him, and say unto Him, Master, carest thou not that we perish? And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And He said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

John 14:12-14 "Most assuredly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he will do also; and greater works than these he will do, because I go to My Father. And whatever you ask in My name, that I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask anything in My name, I will do it."

Now, issue the following commands in accordance with your right as a child of God:

1. You the Stars in the firmament, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.
2. You Moon, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

3. You Sun, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

4. You the Sky and the Clouds, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

5. You the Earth, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

6. You the Waters, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

7. You the Wind, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

8. You Fire, you shall work in my favor today and you shall work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

9. Today, I command every living creature made by God that flies in the air, that swims in the waters, that lives on the earth or within the earth to work in my favor and to work against those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

10. I command any weather that shall present itself today to work in my favor and work against all those who seek my hurt, in the name of Jesus.

O GATES, OPEN UNTO ME TODAY

In the spirit realm, gates serve several crucial purposes. One of the most fundamental purposes of gates is to regulate access. Gates can allow things to come in, keep things in, allow things to go out or keep things out. Gates, for the most part, also work optimally at particular times of the day and in reaction to a necessity or demand placed on them. An essential spiritual fact that we all need to understand is that everything that exists in the world has a gate, including you. You must issue commands to spiritual gates before you leave your house each morning so that you can maximize the day.

Isaiah 45:1-2 "Thus says the Lord to His anointed, To Cyrus, whose right hand I have held — To subdue nations before him And loose the armor of kings, to open before him the double doors, So that the gates will not be shut: 'I will go before you and make the crooked places straight; I will break in pieces the gates of bronze and cut the bars of iron.'"

Isaiah 60:11 "Therefore Your gates shall be open continually; They shall not be shut day or night, That men may bring to you the wealth of the Gentiles, And their kings in procession."

Acts 12:10 "They passed the first and second guards and came to the iron gate leading to the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went through it."

Now, issue the following commands in accordance with your right as a child of God:

1. O Gates of my life, I command you this morning, OPEN!, that the wealth of the gentiles can flow into you, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Gates of this day, OPEN unto me now, so that I can get the good that is in you, in the name of Jesus.
3. O Gates of my city, OPEN unto me now, so that I can enter into you and prosper within you, in the name of Jesus.
4. O Gates of my state, OPEN unto me now, so that I can enter into you and prosper within you, in the name of Jesus.

5. O Gates of my country, OPEN unto me now, so that I can enter into you and prosper within you, in the name of Jesus.

6. O Gates of the world, OPEN unto me now, so that I can enter into you and prosper within you, in the name of Jesus.

POWER DECLARATIONS OF WELL-BEING

PRAYERS AGAINST SPIRITUAL ATTACKS OF THE DAY

1. By the power in the name of Jesus, I spoil completely the consequence of any bad dream I had overnight. Nothing in it shall come to pass, in the name of Jesus.

2. Any object of darkness shot against my life in the night by powers of darkness for any reason and to achieve whatever purpose, right now, I command you, return to sender, in the name of Jesus.

3. I speak against any demonic plan of darkness which is meant to be executed upon my life today. Listen to me, I put a permanent stop to your execution and I command destruction upon you and your planners, in the name of Jesus.

4. As I go out today, I exercise the power given to me by the Lord Jesus Christ and I tread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy fashioned against me. Nothing shall by any means hurt me, in the name of Jesus.

5. Today, I rededicate myself to the Lord Jesus Christ and I rekindle His Holy Spirit in my life with all the benefits, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time this morning to address any other sort of spiritual attack peculiar to you, you can do that at this point.

PRAYERS AGAINST PHYSICAL ATTACKS OF THE DAY

1. O Lord my God, rise up for my sake and frustrate any plan of agents of darkness to take my life. I shall not die but live, in the name of Jesus.
2. My Father and my God, rise up for my sake and destroy any plan of darkness prepared to wound me and render me invalid, in the name of Jesus.
3. Almighty God, rise up for my sake and expose any plan of darkness fashioned to make me lose my source of income and the ability to make wealth, in the name of Jesus
4. Today, I speak against any agent of darkness issuing threats against my life. Lord, behold their threatenings, let all their threats against me be executed upon them, in the name of Jesus.
5. O Lord, you are my protector, protect me from any form of physical harm, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time this morning to address any other sort of physical attack peculiar to you, you can do that at this point.

PRAYERS FOR GOOD HEALTH

1. My Father, my body is the temple of your Holy Spirit, drive out from it any sickness and disease, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord, create in me a merry heart that will fill me with divine medicine and remove from me any spirit of brokenness that will cause my bones to dry up, in the name of Jesus.
3. As I go out today, I receive divine immunization against any communicable disease, in the name of Jesus.
4. By the power in the name of Jesus, I shall not succumb to any disease of the mind but I shall be of sound mind through this day, in the name of Jesus.
5. I decree, according to the word of the Lord, I shall not die but live to declare what God has done in my life. As I step out of my house today, I will return to it safe, sound and better than when I left in the morning, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time, feel free to add more prayers at this point.

SCRIPTURES FOR PROTECTION

Take each of these scriptures and declare them out loud with complete faith in the Almighty.

PSALM 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer my foot to be moved: He that keepeth me will not slumber. Behold, He that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is my keeper: the Lord is my shade upon my right hand. The sun shall not smite me by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve me from all evil: He shall preserve my soul. The Lord shall preserve my going out and my coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore. Amen.

PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Amen.

PSALM 91

I dwell in the secret place of the most High and I abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress: my God; in Him will I trust. Surely He shall deliver me from the snare of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence. He shall cover me with his feathers, and under His wings shalt I trust: His truth shall be my shield and buckler. I shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at my side, and ten thousand at my right hand; but it shall not come nigh me. Only with my eyes shalt I behold and see the reward of the wicked. Because I have made the Lord, which is my refuge, even the most High, my habitation; There shall no evil befall me, neither shall any plague come nigh my dwelling. For He shall give his angels charge over me, to keep me in all my ways. They shall bear me up in their hands, lest I dash my foot against a stone. I shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt I trample under feet. Because I have set my love upon Him, therefore will He deliver me: He will set me on high, because I have known His name. I shall call upon God, and He will answer me: He will be with me in trouble; He will deliver me, and honour me. With long life will He satisfy me, and shew me His salvation. Amen.

If you have additional scriptures which you feel you need to declare, you can make the declarations now.

DIVINE GUIDANCE

O LORD, ORDER MY STEPS

Proverbs 16:9 "A man's heart plans his way, But the Lord directs his steps."

Psalms 119:133-136 "Direct my steps by Your word, And let no iniquity have dominion over me."

No matter how great you are, you need to ask for the direction and guidance of the Almighty so that you do not fall into error. No one follows God's direction and fails to fulfill destiny because God values His word above His own name.

1. My Lord and my God, as I go out today, have mercy upon me and order my steps, in the name of Jesus.

2. Almighty God, guide my thoughts and my deeds today so that I do not end up in the wrong place, at the wrong time doing the wrong thing, in the name of Jesus.

3. I withdraw my name from the roster of the victims of misfortune for today, in the name of Jesus.

4. O Lord today, send your angels out on assignment for my sake. Throughout this day, let them bear up my hands so that my feet of destiny will not strike against the stone of misfortune, in the name of Jesus.

5. I decree into this day ahead of me: I shall go out and return home safely and I will not come across any misfortune and neither shall bad luck locate me, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time, feel free to add more prayers at this point.

PRAYERS AGAINST TEMPTATIONS AND SINS

1. I decree this morning that I shall not commit any sin throughout the day that will lead to my death, in the name of Jesus.

2. I speak destruction to any habit or sin in my life which has become an access door of demons and infirmity into my life. As I abandon this sin today, I remove and block completely any entry door of evil into my life, in the name of Jesus.

3. You the voice of disgrace and downfall disguised in the form of sin and whispering evil thoughts into my mind, I command you to be silenced now, in the name of Jesus.

4. Most High God, cause any human agent of darkness, who has been a constant source of temptation and harassment to my life, to be removed from my vicinity today by any divine means necessary, in the name of Jesus.

5. Satan, I declare unto you today, I am for Christ and Christ alone. Get Thee Behind Me! I refuse to fall for any temptation you shall bring my way today, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time, feel free to add more prayers at this point.

PRAYERS FOR EXPRESSION OF CHARACTER THAT WILL HONOR GOD

1. O Lord God of heaven, my life is available for you today. Convert my life into talking and walking epistles that will draw people unto you, in the name of Jesus.

2. My Father, install in me the filter of the Holy Ghost. Let everything I do today honor you, in the name of Jesus.

3. My Father, let the filter of the Holy Ghost purge all the words I shall speak today, in the name of Jesus.

4. Almighty God, give me the fortitude to remove any element of my character and lifestyle that is not pleasing to you, in the name of Jesus.

5. Lord Jesus, use my character as an agent to cause all men to be at peace with me and to favor me, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time, feel free to add more prayers at this point.

YOUR DAILY INTERCESSION FOR LOVED ONES

Replace the gaps with the name of the loved one(s) you want to pray for today.
Repeat as often as necessary.

1. Heavenly Father, as _____ goes out today, let _____ not be a victim of misfortune, in the name of Jesus.

2. Lord Jesus rise up for my sake and frustrate any plan of darkness that has been hatched against _____. It shall not happen, in the name of Jesus.

3. Father, I decree favor upon _____'s life. Anywhere _____ goes today, let there be an outpouring of favor, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any sickness or disease in the life of _____ affecting _____'s quality of life and threatening to cut it short, hear me and hear me well, DIE NOW, in the name of Jesus.

5. I decree prosperity upon _____. You shall not suffer loss today, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and time, feel free to add more prayers at this point.

RECEIVE THE BLESSING

As you go out today, may the Lord bless you and keep you.

May the Lord cause His face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you. He will give you peace and no weapon formed against you shall prosper. Every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment God will condemn. Whatsoever you lay your hands on today shall prosper. I decree upon your life that you shall eat the good of your city, state, country and this world and you shall not suffer any loss.

I pray that God will set you high above all nations of the earth. He will open the floodgates of heaven and pour out such blessing upon your life that there will not be room enough to store it. He will give you the desire of your heart and make all your plans succeed.

I decree unto your life today that you will be like a tree planted by the riverside. Your leaves will always be green. Even in the time of drought you will never cease to bear fruit.

I pray that God's blessing will be on your food and water and that He will take away sickness from you and your family. He will meet all your needs according to the riches of His glory in Christ Jesus.

According to the word of the Lord, blessed shall you be when you come in, and blessed shall you be when you go out. The Lord will cause your enemies who rise against you to be defeated before your face. They shall come out against you one way and flee before you seven ways. The Lord will command the blessing on you in your storehouses and in all to which you set your hand.

The Lord will grant you plenty of goods and make you wealthy. He will open to you His good treasure, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand again and again. You shall lend to people but you shall never borrow from anyone.

The Lord will make you the head and not the tail. You shall be above only, and not be beneath even as you obey the commandments of the Lord your God, in Jesus name, Amen.

"In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice; in the morning I lay my requests before you and wait expectantly."

APRIL PRAYER DAILIES

April 1

"Avoiding a fight is a mark of honor; only fools insist on quarreling." —
Proverbs 20:3 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The Bible calls avoiding a fight a mark of honor and it says quarreling is exclusive to fools. It means if you are involved in a quarrel, you are a fool and if you do not quarrel you are wise. This is the word of God. With regard to avoiding fights, there are some very real reasons you should. The Bible says in Proverbs 9:7-8 (NASB) "He who corrects a scoffer gets dishonor for himself, And he who reproves a wicked man gets insults for himself. Do not reprove a scoffer, or he will hate you, Reprove a wise man and he will love you." We have already established that people who quarrel are fools. Therefore, if you are in a quarrel with someone, both of you are fools. Now, our second scripture is saying that if you correct that fool, what you will get is dishonor for yourself. If you reprove a wicked person, you will get insults. And if you reprove a fool, you will get hatred. So do you want dishonor, insults and hatred piled up on your head because you want to win a quarrel? Hopefully not. Dishonor or disgrace is a powerful thing. In the eyes of the audience watching you as you quarrel, your worth will diminish. This can cause these people to change their behavior towards you in a negative way. If this happens in the workplace, it can have many unplanned ramifications should word about it get to your superiors. Also, hatred is a dangerous thing. Hatred can cause some people to do anything. You could be implicated in a crime by the 'fool' you reprovved. Hatred can bring about physical violence or even death. Once again, remember: "Avoiding a fight is a mark of honor." Enough said.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Holy Spirit of the living God, this morning, I ask for a full dose of self-control. Give it to me, in the name of Jesus.
2. Wherever I go today, regardless of the provocation, if I sense that I am about to be drawn into a baseless quarrel, let self-control kick in and cause me to withdraw immediately, in the name of Jesus.

3. Now, any evil plan to use quarrels to bring dishonor upon me in order for me to suffer negative consequences as a result, I decree this morning that you shall be frustrated and you shall never succeed against me, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any evil plan to use quarrels to bring insults upon me in order for me to suffer negative consequences as a result, I decree this morning that you shall be frustrated and you shall never succeed against me, in the name of Jesus.

5. Any evil plan to use quarrels to bring hatred upon me in order for me to suffer negative consequences as a result, I decree this morning that you shall be frustrated and you shall never succeed against me, in the name of Jesus.

6. As I have committed myself to avoiding any fight or quarrel today and going forward, O God, let my life be irreversibly branded with the mark of honor, in the name of Jesus

7. Thank You heavenly Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never be a fool and may honor from heaven be your lot, in the name of Jesus.

April 2

"Yes, you who trust him recognize the honor God has given him. But for those who reject him, 'The stone that the builders rejected has now become the cornerstone.' And, 'He is the stone that makes people stumble, the rock that makes them fall.' They stumble because they do not obey God's word, and so they meet the fate that was planned for them. But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light. 'Once you had no identity as a people; now you are God's people. Once you received no mercy; now you have received God's mercy.'" — 1 Peter 2:7-10 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today is a day of affirmations and confessions.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, Light of the world, I _____ (your full name) trust You and I recognize the honor the Almighty has given You.
2. My Lord and my Savior, I _____ (your full name) thank You for calling me out of the darkness into Your wonderful light.
3. Since I _____ (your full name) have wholeheartedly committed myself to obeying God's word, I will never stumble and an evil fate will not be my lot, in the name of Jesus.
4. This morning and for all time, I declare that I _____ (your full name) am one of God's chosen people, in the name of Jesus.
5. I declare that I _____ (your full name) am a royal priest, in the name of Jesus.
6. I declare that I _____ (your full name) am a citizen of a holy nation and God's very own possession, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Merciful God for answering all my prayers and for making me a beneficiary of Your mercy, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God bless your confessions and may you obtain mercy in His presence, in the name of Jesus.

April 3

"And Saul's servants said to him, 'Behold now, a harmful spirit from God is tormenting you. Let our lord now command your servants who are before you to seek out a man who is skillful in playing the lyre, and when the harmful spirit from God is upon you, he will play it, and you will be well.' So Saul said to his servants, 'Provide for me a man who can play well and bring him to me.' One of the young men answered, 'Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence, and the Lord is with him.' Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, 'Send me David your son, who is with the sheep.'" — 1 Samuel 16:15-19 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Saul had a problem. It did not exist before but recently started. He was advised to find a man who could provide a solution to his problem. He agreed and gave instructions for the recruitment of the man. Immediately he finished speaking, someone in the room spoke up and thoroughly recommended a young man, a son of Jesse, whose name was David. He said "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a man of good presence, and the Lord is with him." Following the recommendation, Saul, the king of the great nation of Israel, sent messengers to Jesse's house seeking to recruit his son, David. Do you want something like this? Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, this morning, I plug myself into the heavy dimensions and move of Your Holy Spirit. Cause me to flow in it, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord God, cause problems to arise in high places and let these problems exactly match my personality, my knowledge and the skills that I have so that I am able to thoroughly solve the problems, in the name of Jesus.
3. My God, as with David, when solutions are being considered for these problems, in these high places, let people speak up on my behalf and give me a thorough recommendation before the high and mighty, in the name of Jesus.

4. Messiah, let the recommendation given of me find favor before the high and mighty, in the name of Jesus.

5. Heavenly Father, let the high and mighty of the earth give instructions for me to be brought into their presence, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Lord and my God, as it was for David, when I appear, let Your favor be overwhelming upon me and let the high and mighty have no choice but to offer me the problem-solving position for my benefit and to You glory, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You heavenly Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May it happen as you have said and may God fulfill the desires of your heart that are in line with His will for your life, in the name of Jesus.

April 4

"When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. And the servant said, 'Alas, my master! What shall we do?' He said, 'Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.' Then Elisha prayed and said, 'O Lord, please open his eyes that he may see.' So the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha." — 2 Kings 6:15-17 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

You need to have the consciousness of mind that as a child of God, you can and do have a protective force from the Almighty with you at all times. The protective force will be akin to what may come against you but will be greater and will far outnumber them. The scripture says Elisha's servant saw an army with horses and chariots all around the city looking for Elisha to capture him. Then when Elisha prayed for his eyes to be opened, the protective force the servant saw were also horses and chariots but they were more and they were on fire. So, for instance, if a single armed robber is planning to accost you today on the streets, the Almighty can dispatch one or two fierce and mighty angels to guarantee your protection. The Bible says in Psalm 91:11 (NLT) "For He will order his angels to protect you wherever you go." This really is the reality of the children of God. Believe it! Activate your protection and go out today with complete confidence in the Almighty.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Everlasting Father, this morning I activate my divine protective force, in the name of Jesus.
2. Most High, this morning, according to Your word, command your angels to be with me and to protect me wherever I go, in the name of Jesus.
3. O God, let my mind understand that there is a spiritual dimension that I cannot see but which is real and from which the angels of God can reach out at any point in the day, if necessary, to deliver me from any problem, in the name of Jesus.

4. Father, by reason of today's word and my prayers, let me go out today with complete and total confidence that indeed, I can never be harmed and that no fatal misfortune can befall me, in the name of Jesus.

5. My Lord and my God, no matter what happens today in my vicinity, let me not be moved since I know my angels are with me and are alert for my sake, in the name of Jesus.

6. As I go out safely this morning, I shall return safely and will testify of God's protection to His glory, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You most High God for answering all my prayers, in Jesus mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the angels of the Almighty protect you wherever you go today, in the name of Jesus.

April 5

"Timothy, please come as soon as you can... When you come, be sure to bring the coat I left with Carpus at Troas. Also bring my books, and especially my papers." — 2 Timothy 4:9,13 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Paul the Apostle wrote most of the books in the New Testament. Today's scripture shows how he could have managed this. The man was a man of study and learning. He wrote to Timothy to hurry and to bring along his books, especially his papers. We do not now what those papers contained but it is very likely that they were notes which formed the basis of some of the books he wrote in the Bible. Thanks to Paul's addiction to study and to writing, we have these scriptures that we can read and use to connect to the Almighty. Knowledge is power. To impact the world, you have to study and write things that other people can then read and run with.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O my God, I ask today, that You open my understanding and make me a person of study and learning, in the name of Jesus.
2. My Father, as I study, let my understanding be open so that what I am reading or watching or listening to makes complete sense to me, in the name of Jesus.
3. Lord God, if I am reading secular material, let my understanding be open and let the information be converted into knowledge that will add to my skill set, in the name of Jesus.
4. Most High God, if I am reading spiritual material, let my understanding be open and let the information be converted into knowledge with which I can connect to heaven for fellowship, for revelation and for blessings, in the name of Jesus.
5. Lord of hosts, in addition to the ability to read and to understand, give me the ability to write for my own sake and also for the sake of others so they can read, add to their knowledge and gain the associated benefits, in the name of Jesus.

6. Through my study and my writing, O God, let me make a powerful impact in my own generation and in generations to come, in the name of Jesus.

7. Messiah, receive all the glory, honor and adoration for answering my prayer, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May books bring you knowledge and may knowledge bring you skills, the joy of the Lord and other divine benefits, in the name of Jesus.

April 6

“When you pray, you are not to be like the hypocrites; for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners so that they may be seen by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. But you, when you pray, go into your inner room, close your door and pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.” — Matthew 6:5-6 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

There is power in secret prayer and when it is done with the right motives, it will always have an audience with the Almighty. On the other hand, prayers that are for show are simply acts. They are completely hollow and do not leave the location in which they were said not to speak of reaching God's throne.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Any spirit of spiritual exhibitionism in my life, I cast you out now. As you go, never return again, in the name of Jesus.
2. By the power of the Holy Ghost, I clothe myself with the garment of humility, in the name of Jesus.
3. According to the word of the Lord, I declare that, henceforth, all my personal prayers will be done in my inner room, in the name of Jesus.
4. My God, behind the closed doors of my inner room, let me set aside all worldly concerns so I can focus completely on You, in the name of Jesus.
5. O God, according to Your word, let the prayers that I pray find an audience in Your presence and give ear to them, in the name of Jesus.
6. According to Your word, O Lord, by reason of my prayers done in secret, let me receive my reward, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You heavenly Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God reward all your secret prayers especially those prayed with the right motives, in the name of Jesus.

April 7

“Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them... But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.” —
John 14:23,26 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Obey Christ's teaching and the trinity will make their home inside of you.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, I declare this morning that in word and in deed, I love Your word and I will always seek to obey it.
2. By reason of this, let me win the love of God the Father, in the name of Jesus.
3. Today, I open my heart and my life for God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus.
4. Divine trinity, according to the word of the Lord, come and make Your home in my life, in the name of Jesus.
5. Holy Spirit of God, today and all the days of my life, teach me all things and remind me the words of Christ so that I can do them and fulfill my divine destiny, in the name of Jesus.
6. By reason of the presence of the divine trinity in my life, I can live with confidence that no satanic fortress or stronghold can ever be established in my life, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You heavenly Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you enjoy favor with the divine trinity and may you enjoy all the benefits attached, in the name of Jesus.

April 8

"Thus says the Lord, 'Let not the one who is wise and skillful boast in his insight; let not the one who is mighty and powerful boast in his strength; let not the one who is rich boast in his [temporal satisfactions and earthly] abundance; but let the one who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows Me [and acknowledges Me and honors Me as God and recognizes without any doubt], that I am the Lord who practices loving-kindness, justice and righteousness on the earth, for in these things I delight,' says the Lord." — Jeremiah 9:23-24 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Do not boast in what you have gained on this earth but rather on things that give the Almighty delight. This is the only kind of boasting that is profitable.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O Lord God, even though I am wise and skilful, let me never boast in my insight, my wisdom or my skill, in the name of Jesus.
2. My Father and my God, even though I have become mighty and powerful, let me never boast in my strength and my influence, in the name of Jesus.
3. King of kings, even though I have become wealthy and rich, let me never boast in my abundance, in the name of Jesus.
4. Lord of lords, let me always boast in the things that delight You, in the name of Jesus.
5. God of the universe, I acknowledge and honor You as the one true God. Let me boast in the fact that I understand You and that I know You, in the name of Jesus.
6. Great and mighty God, let me always boast in the fact that I know that You are the Lord who practices loving-kindness, justice and righteousness on the earth, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you boast only in the things that delight the Lord your God, in the name of Jesus.

April 9

"When they had approached Jerusalem and had come to Bethphage, at the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples, saying to them, 'Go into the village opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied there and a colt with her; untie them and bring them to Me. If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, 'The Lord has need of them,' and immediately he will send them.' This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet: 'Say to the daughter of Zion, 'Behold your King is coming to you, Gentle, and mounted on a donkey, Even on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden.' ' The disciples went and did just as Jesus had instructed them, and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their coats on them; and He sat on the coats. Most of the crowd spread their coats in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the road. The crowds going ahead of Him, and those who followed, were shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!' When He had entered Jerusalem, all the city was stirred, saying, 'Who is this?' And the crowds were saying, 'This is the prophet Jesus, from Nazareth in Galilee.'" — Matthew 21:1-11 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus Christ, High Priest of God, Hosanna to You!
2. Lord Jesus Christ, Author and Finisher of my faith, Hosanna to You!
3. Lord Jesus Christ, Bishop of my soul, Hosanna to You!
4. Lord Jesus Christ, Bread of life, Hosanna to You!
5. Lord Jesus Christ, Captain of my salvation, Hosanna to You!

6. Lord Jesus Christ, Conqueror of Sin and Death, Hosanna to You!

7. Lord Jesus Christ, the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End, Hosanna to You in the highest!

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you hold on fast to the sacrifice of Jesus until your eternal destination, in the name of Jesus.

April 10

"I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with fire." — Matthew 3:11 (KJV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today is a day of fire. John the Baptist said that his was to baptize with water unto repentance and that Jesus would come who will baptize with the Holy Ghost and with fire. The Bible says in Acts 2:2-4 (ESV) "And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance." Again, the Bible says in Proverbs 17:3 (NLT) "Fire tests the purity of silver and gold, but the LORD tests the heart." Finally, it says in Psalm 66:10 (NLT) "You have tested us, O God; you have purified us like silver." When the fire of the Holy Ghost descends upon your life, it will test you, purify you and refine you for His glory.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

IMPORTANT: Before we go into our prayers for this morning, two things:

1. Sing this song with all of your spirit, soul and body

HOLY SPIRIT COME WITH YOU FIRE, <https://youtu.be/DOIj242UxpM>

2. If you have received the baptism in the Holy Spirit, pray in the Spirit for at least five minutes, in tongues.

1. Holy Ghost fire from the throne of the father, fall upon my life, now, in the name of Jesus.

2. Holy Ghost fire, enter into my spirit, soul and body and begin to burn in me, in the name of Jesus.

3. Refining fire of God, enter into my life now and purify my life, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any stranger in my spirit, soul and body, by reason of the flood of fire of the Holy Ghost burning in me, come out! come out! come out!, in the name of Jesus.

5. Revival fire of God, fall upon my life and revive my spirit, in the name of Jesus.

6. Rain of fire, fall upon my life and upon everything around me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Jesus! Jesus! Jesus! Baptize me afresh with Your Holy Ghost and with fire, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the fire of the Holy Ghost fall upon you, purify you and refine you, in the name of Jesus.

April 11

"For the Lord will pass through to strike the Egyptians, and when he sees the blood on the lintel and on the two doorposts, the Lord will pass over the door and will not allow the destroyer to enter your houses to strike you." — Exodus 12:23 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The blood of the passover lamb has been replaced with the blood of Jesus once and for all. This morning we will symbolically sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and doorposts of the essential areas of our lives so that if the destroyer comes and it sees the blood, it will not be allowed to enter.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of my spirit. Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my spirit, it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my spirit, in the name of Jesus.
2. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of my soul. Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my soul, it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my soul, in the name of Jesus.
3. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of my body. Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my body, it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my body, in the name of Jesus.
4. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of my family. Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my family, it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my family, in the name of Jesus.
5. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of my source of income. Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my source of income, it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my source of income, in the name of Jesus.

6. I sprinkle the blood of Jesus upon the lintel and the doorposts of _____ (any area of your life). Therefore, if any destroyer should come to the door of my _____ (area of your life), it shall see the blood and pass over and away from my _____ (area of your life), in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O Lord for answering my prayers, in Jesus' name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you always be covered by the blood of Jesus so that the destroyer can never gain entry into your life, in the name of Jesus.

April 12

"When I went into the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was confined at home, he said, 'Let us meet [and take refuge] together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple, because they are coming to kill you, and they are coming to kill you at night.' But I said, 'Should a man like me flee [in fear and hide]? Should someone like me enter the temple [for sanctuary] to save his life? I will not go.' Then I realized that God had not sent him, but he spoke this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. He was hired for this reason, that I would be frightened and do as he said and sin, so that they would have [grounds to make] a malicious report in order to censure and disgrace me. Remember, O My God, Tobiah and Sanballat in regard to these actions of theirs, and also [remember] the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who were trying to frighten me. The Wall Is Finished. So the wall was finished on the twenty-fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty-two days." — Nehemiah 6:10-15 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Nehemiah was trying to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem. However, some men—mainly Tobiah and Sanballat—did all they could to stop the work. One of the things they tried was assigning a prophet named Shemaiah against Nehemiah to issue him a false prophecy of death. The purpose was to cause him to believe the prophecy and misbehave so that he would be censured and disgraced. But Nehemiah 'realized' (another version says he 'perceived') that the prophecy was false and so he continued the work and finished it. There are two lessons here: First, expect opposition when you are embarking on any project and be ready for them. Second, be careful with "prophets". This is why the Bible says in 1 John 4:1 "Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world." If you submit your whole life to just any prophet without testing the spirit, you may live to regret it. Remember Nehemiah!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O God, Creator of the universe, I put before You all the works of my hands and all my projects. Help me, so they can succeed, in the name of Jesus.

2. Today, I dismantle any stumbling block erected against my projects by the fire of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.

3. Any spirit of Tobiah and Sanballat working against my projects, I bind you and I cast you out of my projects, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any human being, in the mold of Tobiah and Sanballat working against the success of my projects, I arrest you by the power of the Holy Ghost and I hand you over to the Almighty for divine judgment, in the name of Jesus.

5. My Father and my God, cause Your Holy Spirit within me to give me the ability to test every spirit so that like Nehemiah, I too can decipher or realize or perceive when I am before a false prophet or when a prophecy is false, in the name of Jesus.

6. Now, any false or evil prophecy issued against me or against the work of my hand in order to discourage me, to disgrace me or to divert my destiny, I capture you and I command you to return to sender now, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Almighty God for answering all my prayers and for Your blessing of completion upon all my projects, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: No matter what, as you commit all the works of your hand to the Lord, they shall succeed, in the name of Jesus.

"For as he thinketh in his heart, so is he..." — Proverbs 23:7 (KJV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Thomas Jefferson once said "Nothing can stop the man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal; nothing on earth can help the man with the wrong mental attitude." He was onto something! What you think in your heart is who you are. If you think you are a failure, then you are and if you think you are a success, that is what you will become. One of the clearest examples of becoming what you think can be seen in the face off between David and Goliath. As the little man faced the giant, he said the following in 1 Samuel 17:45-47 (NASB) "You come to me with a sword, a spear, and a javelin, but I come to you in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have taunted. This day the Lord will deliver you up into my hands, and I will strike you down and remove your head from you. And I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky and the wild beasts of the earth, that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, and that all this assembly may know that the Lord does not deliver by sword or by spear; for the battle is the Lord's and He will give you into our hands." These words David spoke out with his mouth, he had already thought about in his mind and he believed totally that he would do them. 1] The Lord will deliver you into my hands this day 2] I will strike you down and remove your head from you. ... and so on. And he did everything he said. To succeed in life, you too will need to think powerful thoughts and mean them. Then go to the Lord in prayer about them, then carry them out expeditiously!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. I reject and repel every error in my character that makes me think thoughts of defeat. If there be any spirit of darkness pushing thoughts of defeat into my heart, I bind it and I cast it out of my life now, in the name of Jesus.
2. This morning, as it was for David, I receive the ability to think detailed thoughts of victory and form pictures of success concerning my life within my mind, in the name of Jesus.

3. Holy Spirit of God, give me the spirit of action to take the positive thoughts of my heart and the pictures of my mind and convert them into reality, in the name of Jesus.

4. My God, as I proceed with carrying out the positive thoughts of my heart, bless me with the materials that will be required to make my thoughts come to life, in the name of Jesus.

5. My Father, bless me with the people and the manpower to convert my positive thoughts into reality, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Lord and my God, henceforth, let me be consumed with positivity and with action. Let everything I do bring glory to Your holy name, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O Lord for your infusion of power and zeal and for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you think positive thoughts concerning yourself, may they be made real for you, in the name of Jesus.

April 14

"But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, 'You know nothing at all. Nor do you understand that it is better for you that one man should die for the people, not that the whole nation should perish.' He did not say this of his own accord, but being high priest that year he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, and not for the nation only, but also to gather into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. So from that day on they made plans to put him to death." — John 11:49-53 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Good Friday is the day the crucifixion of Jesus Christ and his death at Calvary are commemorated. Please watch a dramatized and detailed video clip of Christ's torture in the hands of Roman soldiers here, <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JM34tilZJ-k>. Jesus had to die in order to take away the sins of the world. In John 1:29, the Bible says "The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, 'Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.'" The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 5:21 "God made Him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of God." Just as the lambs, bulls, goats and rams of the old testament were made to bear the sins of the Israelites, the sins of all mankind (including yours) were placed upon or made to enter into Jesus. Once the sins entered into Him, as the wages of sin is death, He had to die just like the animals used for atonement in the past died. The difference in this case is that Christ's sacrifice was once and for all. This is why in John 19:30, as Jesus hung on the cross, He cried out "It is finished." and thereafter bowed His head and gave up His spirit. What He meant by that statement is that, just like those sacrificial animals of the annual Yom Kippur, His sacrifice for sin was completed. But unlike them, through His death, He had paid the wages of sin once and for all on behalf of the whole world from that moment going forward. He had taken care of sin and now it would no longer be a wall of separation between mankind and God. He had successfully executed His earthly assignment and in the process, he established the new covenant – our new, potent and final weapon against sin.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, I am before You this morning to say that I understand what You made Your son go through for me.
2. I understand that Jesus died in order to pay the wages of my own sin, which is death.
3. I understand that because of His death, I no longer need to sacrifice animals or carry out blood sacrifices because His sacrifice was once and for all.
4. I know that by giving my life to Jesus, I have connected myself to this sacrifice and I have been made righteous. I am the righteousness of God. Therefore, as far as I remain in Him, I do not need to fear the fires of hell.
5. Lord Jesus, let every blessing that is attached to Your crucifixion be found in my life, in the name of Jesus.
6. Merciful Father, show me Your grace and mercy all the days of my life so that I will have the fortitude to not do anything to negate the great sacrifice of Jesus for me, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You heavenly Father, in Jesus' name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you enjoy all the benefits of Christ's sacrifice even as you honor it, in the name of Jesus.

"He isn't here! He is risen from the dead..." — Matthew 28:6 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The resurrection of Jesus is a powerful event — a landmark event in the history of humanity. While people had been raised from the dead before by other people. Never before had anyone risen from the dead autonomously. Through the power of the Highest, Jesus Christ rose from the dead by Himself. There are so many benefits to be gotten from the resurrection of Jesus Christ. One of them is that we now have an eternal High Priest who is at God's right hand. The Bible says in Hebrews 10:12 (NLT) "But our High Priest offered himself to God as a single sacrifice for sins, good for all time. Then he sat down in the place of honor at God's right hand." Why is this important? Here's one reason why — "Therefore He is able also to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them." (Hebrews 7:25, NASB). By being on God's right hand now, Jesus can save and intercede for anyone forever. Another benefit is the ability to apply the resurrection power for our daily needs. The Bible says in Romans 8:11 (ESV) "If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you." In this case, the resurrection power is being applied for the purpose of healing of the body. The reality is that you can apply the resurrection power to anything that requires resurrection. Do you want this?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O God, thank You for Your perfect plan for the redemption of man. Because of this, I have hope on earth and in the life to come.
2. Lord, I am grateful that by reason of the successful execution of this plan by Your son, Jesus, I now have a High Priest in heaven who can intercede on my behalf before You forever.
3. My Father, I am also grateful for the resurrection power that is now available for application on the earth by Your children, including me.

4. This morning, I ask O God, let Your resurrection power fall upon _____ (area where you need resurrection - health, business, etc), in the name of Jesus.

5. Let the power of the highest overshadow _____ (areas needing resurrection) so that it can come alive by fire, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Great Intercessor, Jesus Christ, by reason of Your resurrection, I am confident that it is well with me. I know that if I ask for anything I can get it because You are alive forever to intercede for me before God the Father.

7. Thank You O God, for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May all the benefits of Christ's resurrection be found in your life, in the name of Jesus.

April 17

"Jezebel his wife said to him, 'Do you now reign over Israel? Get up, eat food, and let your heart rejoice; I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.' So she wrote letters in Ahab's name and sealed them with his seal, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived with Naboth in his city. Now in the letters she wrote, 'Proclaim a fast and seat Naboth at the head of the people; and seat two worthless and unprincipled men opposite him, and have them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king.' Then take him out and stone him to death.' So the men of his city, the elders and the nobles who lived there, did as Jezebel had sent word to them, just as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth at the head of the people. Two worthless and unprincipled men came in and sat down opposite him; and they testified against Naboth before the people, saying, "Naboth cursed and renounced God and the king." Then they brought him outside the city and stoned him to death. Then they sent word to Jezebel, saying, 'Naboth has been stoned to death.'" — 1 Kings 21:7-14 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Naboth the Jezreelite had a nice vineyard beside Ahab's palace. Ahab coveted the vineyard and so he approached Naboth with an offer stating that he wanted to convert the vineyard into a vegetable garden. But Naboth refused. So, Ahab returned home angry and refusing to eat. When asked by Jezebel, his wife, why he was as he was, he told her what happened and that's where today's scripture picks up from. There are people in this world who have no morality and when they set their eyes on something, they have to get it by any means — including forgery, conspiracy, false accusation or murder. The question is what will you do if you find yourself in a Naboth situation and Jezebel is after your life and your property?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Any spirit of Jezebel pursuing after my life and my property, I bind you with fetters of fire. I command you: Depart from my life and never ever return, in the name of Jesus.

2. Any evil letter containing false accusations against me as well as instructions for my destruction, Catch fire and burn to ashes, in the name of Jesus.

3. Any satanic gathering of evil men, elders and nobles assigned to issue the verdict of destruction upon my life, scatter by fire, in the name of Jesus.

4. You human agent of false testimony and accusations against me, I command you to lose your influence over my life. I bind you with fetters of brass and I hand you over to the Almighty for divine judgment, in the name of Jesus.

5. Any satanic crowd of fatal stoners prepared against my destiny, scatter unto desolation, in the name of Jesus.

6. By the power of the Holy Ghost, I decree and declare that no evil conspiracy against me shall succeed and I shall never suffer any loss to my property or my life as a result of false accusations, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You my Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: No conspiracy against you shall prosper, in the name of Jesus.

April 18

"Abimelek son of Jerub-Baal went to his mother's brothers in Shechem and said to them and to all his mother's clan, "Ask all the citizens of Shechem, 'Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal's sons rule over you, or just one man?' Remember, I am your flesh and blood." When the brothers repeated all this to the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelek, for they said, 'He is related to us.' They gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and Abimelek used it to hire reckless scoundrels, who became his followers. He went to his father's home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, escaped by hiding. Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo gathered beside the great tree at the pillar in Shechem to crown Abimelek king." — Judges 9:1-6 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

One of the greatest lessons in life is that nepotism is real. It could be passive, in which case, a person is denied a position. It could also be active, in which case a person is removed from a position so that a relative can be installed. Active nepotism could even involve violence. Nepotism, xenophobia and genocide are all relatives of each other. When Gideon died, he left behind seventy sons from his many wives. Before he died, Gideon also got a son from one of his female slaves who was from Shechem. He was called Abimelek. After Gideon's death, Abimelek saw an opportunity to gain power. He went to the people of Shechem and appealed to the nepotism, the xenophobia and the genocide that was in their hearts. He asked "Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal's sons rule over you, or just one man?" Remember, I am your flesh and blood." They agreed and so provided him with the funds to murder all his seventy of his brothers! Then they made him king. Sometimes people are treated differently from others because of their skin color, accent, race, tribe, etc. Many people have been denied jobs, housing, etc. by reason of their origin. And as you can see, a person can be murdered also because of their origin. If you do not want this to be your portion, this morning's prayers are yours.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Great and mighty God, I declare that I do not want to suffer loss by reason of nepotism, xenophobia or genocide, in the name of Jesus.
2. Any spirit of Abimielek planning evil against me, I command your plans to be frustrated, in the name of Jesus.
3. You spirit of Abimelek in my life, I bind you and I cast you out of my life forever, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any satanic gathering of haters wherein evil actions are being planned against me, I command you now: Scatter and become desolate, in the name of Jesus.
5. Any evil fund that has been gathered against me to execute evil plans against my destiny, be consumed by the cankerworm, the locust, the caterpillar and the palmerworm, in the name of Jesus.
6. I decree and declare that unlike the seventy brothers of Abimelek, I shall never suffer any loss arising from nepotism, xenophobia and genocide. Instead, I will be like Joseph, who though a foreigner was made ruler of Egypt. This shall be my portion, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Everlasting Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The Lord will preserve your position, situation and life against any attack arising as a result of your origin, in the name of Jesus.

April 19

"Never stop praying." — 1 Thessalonians 5:17 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Ephesians 6:18a (NLT), the Bible also says "Pray in the Spirit at all times and on every occasion..." Prayer is somewhat similar to a computer program. A programmer types in code which he knows will create a particular function, which will then ultimately solve a problem. When you pray, your "code" are the words of your prayer. You have a need and so you tell it to the Almighty. If you use the right language, the right commands, etc., you will get what you want. Some of the most important elements for answered prayers are the absence of sin, faith and a right motive. If you want to live a great life and you know prayer can get it for you, try to spend time learning how to get them answered. For instance, before praying, sit down and develop motives for your needs. Then ask yourself, is this right or wrong according to God's word? Next, develop faith within yourself to the point where you are confident that if you asked now, you would get an answer from heaven. Jesus had complete mastery of all this. That is why he could walk on water and raise the dead!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Heavenly Father, I thank You for the privilege of prayer.
2. This morning, I come to you after having sought your forgiveness for any sin in my heart. Give ear to my prayers, in the name of Jesus.
3. Again, O God, I confess that You are real and that everything You promised in Your word is real. I believe that if I ask anything, in the name of Jesus, I will get it.
4. Holy Spirit of God, teach me how to take my needs and subject them to motive tests and to offer in prayer only those needs that have a right motive behind them, in the name of Jesus.
5. My Father and my God, let my prayers always find an audience before You, in the name of Jesus.

6. O Lord God, let my prayers always have the right commands to open the doors of the storehouse of heaven so that I can be blessed, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you never stop praying, may you never stop getting blessed, in the name of Jesus.

"Teach me, O LORD, the way of Your statutes, And I shall observe it to the end." — Psalm 119:33 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Our greatest example of someone who observed God's word is Abraham. Because Abraham obeyed God, he received a generational blessing that is still in effect till this day. Who knows what God has in store for you if you decide to observe His statutes until the very end?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Creator of heaven and earth, I bow before You this morning.
2. Father, let the fire of obedience burn in my heart this morning, in the name of Jesus.
3. O God, let me be filled with the zeal for Your word today, in the name of Jesus.
4. Teach me O God, the way of Your statutes so that I can observe them till the end of my life, in the name of Jesus.
5. I come against anything in this temporal world that will seek to pull me away from the Almighty and so I decree, I shall not be moved, in the name of Jesus.
6. I claim every benefit that is inside the statutes of the Most High. They shall manifest in my life, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You O God because I now You have a plan for me and it shall manifest. Thank You for answering all my prayers today, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you observe God's statutes, may the Lord craft blessings unique to Your destiny for you, in the name of Jesus.

April 21

"I hold fast to Your statutes, LORD; do not let me be put to shame." —
Psalm 119:31 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

If you are concerned about letting go of the world and sticking with God exclusively, do not be. The Lord has a lot for people who are fully committed to him. Consider the following scriptures:

1. Psalm 25:3 (NIV) "No one who hopes in you will ever be put to shame..."
2. Romans 10:11 (NLT) "As the Scriptures tell us, 'Anyone who trusts in him will never be disgraced.'"
3. Isaiah 54:4 (NIV) "Do not be afraid; you will not be put to shame. Do not fear disgrace; you will not be humiliated. You will forget the shame of your youth and remember no more the reproach of your widowhood."
4. Joel 2:26 (KJV) "And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed."
5. Isaiah 49:23 (ESV) "Kings shall be your foster fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers. With their faces to the ground they shall bow down to you, and lick the dust of your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD; those who wait for me shall not be put to shame."

These are just a few of the rewards for those who have decided to stick with the Almighty, no matter what. But you have to claim them. Are you ready?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Everlasting God, I thank You for opening my eyes to the infinite goodness that resides in You. Accept my thanks, in the name of Jesus.
2. Again, I commit myself to You, Your word and Your statutes, in the name of Jesus.
3. By reason of my commitment, O God, let me never be put to shame or disgraced, in the name of Jesus.

4. By reason of my commitment, O God, let me eat in plenty and be satisfied and praise Your wondrous name, in the name of Jesus.

5. By reason of my commitment, O God, let kings be my foster fathers and queens, my nursing mothers. According to Your word, let kings and queens with their faces to the ground bow down and glorify You in my life, in the name of Jesus.

6. Jehovah God, instead of shame and disappointment, let me go from testimony to testimony because I have decided to serve You, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Eternal King for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you hold fast to His statutes, the Lord will not put you to shame, in the name of Jesus.

April 22

“I will give you peace in the land, and you will be able to sleep with no cause for fear. I will rid the land of wild animals and keep your enemies out of your land. In fact, you will chase down your enemies and slaughter them with your swords. Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand! All your enemies will fall beneath your sword.” —
Leviticus 26:6-8 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today is a day of warfare.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, according to Your word, give me peace in this land, in the name of Jesus.
2. O God, let anything threatening me and creating fear in my heart, be destroyed completely, in the name of Jesus.
3. You wild animals of this land warring against my destiny, receive the fire of God and be destroyed, in the name of Jesus.
4. According to the word of the Lord, irrational strength will be my portion and with it, I will put my enemies to flight, in the name of Jesus.
5. O God, according to Your word, help me and keep all enemies out of my land, in the name of Jesus.
6. I decree and declare that all the days of my life, the protection of the Lord will never depart from me, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Most High for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God give you peace in your land, in the name of Jesus.

"You are to look for capable men among the people, men who fear God, men of integrity who hate dishonest gain. You are to set these men over them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties, and tens." — Exodus 18:21 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Jethro, Moses' father-in-law came to visit him. Remember that Moses was the one God used to bring out the Israelites from Egypt through the agency of diverse plagues and miracles including the parting of the Red Sea. Now, when Jethro saw that Moses was the only one judging all the cases in the whole nation of Israel, he was concerned for his well-being. In Exodus 18:21-22 (NIV) "What you are doing is not good. You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone." Then he gave Moses the advice in our opening scripture. As great as Moses had become, he was humble enough to accept Jethro's advice and did everything he said. Now, this advice means that there had been some citizens in Israel who before Jethro came had been capable, feared God, had integrity, hated bribes and dishonest gain, etc. They were there but there were no positions to fill. But once Jethro came, these positions were created. Picture that day when Moses sent messengers to go into the midst of the people to recruit these men. What a glorious day for them and their families! Are you living a life different from the world? Are you capable? Do you fear God? Do you have integrity? Do you hate bribes and dishonest gain? Are you ready to do great work? It's time to pray!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, let my Jethro emerge, in the name of Jesus.
2. Let the spirit of Jethro arise in the companies and organizations of this earth who will see vacancies where none currently exist and cause them to be created, in the name of Jesus.
3. O God, let these people with the spirit of Jethro craft eligibility requirements for these vacancies and let my skills, experience and personality exactly match these requirements, in the name of Jesus.

4. My Lord and my God, let messengers be sent out to find people who meet these requirements and let me be called upon, in the name of Jesus.

5. Through all the recruitment procedures, my Father, let me experience Your favor and at the end, let me be offered the position, in the name of Jesus.

6. O God, it is my desire to live a godly life and also to prosper here on this earth. Therefore, let the spirit of Jethro work for me and become a reality in my life, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the spirit of Jethro work for you and may opportunities of blessing come your way and manifest in your life, in the name of Jesus.

April 24

"Now announce in the presence of the people: 'Whoever is fearful and trembling may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.'" So 22,000 of the people turned back, but 10,000 remained." — Judges 7:3 (HCSB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Gideon was about to go into war against Midian when he was instructed by the Almighty to make this announcement. Perhaps for show or ignorance of the reality of war or for any other reason, 32,000 men had initially prepared to wage war. However, when the sieve of fear was applied, only 10,000 men remained. There is a saying that out every hundred young men and women who start out in life full of hopes and dreams, only five attain financial independence by the time they reach the age of retirement. One of the major reasons for this is fear. Despite having everything it takes, fear can make a person born great to become a nobody. Doubt in the heart occasioned by the cares of the world can make a genius a dullard. What is the panacea? Listen to the words of Christ Himself: "And he said to them, 'Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?'" (Matthew 8:26, ESV). Faith is the answer. Look, God made the heavens and the earth. He made the devil and his demons. He made all human beings. He made the sea, the animals, the everything. Therefore, if you are His child and you are having challenges regarding any of His creations, you can talk to Him. Since He made them, He can address these other creations to work in your favor and if they are recalcitrant, He can do the needful. The solution to fear is total, unadulterated faith in the maker of everything.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Lord and my God, I bow before You today as I am reminded that everything that exists was created by You.
2. By this O God, I mean everything including the source of my fear. Ah, Lord, I love you and I have faith you.
3. I realize this morning that my knowledge of the fact that You made everything should give me the rest of my mind and faith to do anything and fear nothing, knowing full well that You are my father.

4. Therefore, this morning I come before You to confess that I am afraid of _____ (what you fear). Now Lord, help me. Let the realization of the fact that You created everything including _____ (what you fear) be established in my mind, in the name of Jesus.

5. With this reality established in my mind, O God, I ask that you solve the problem of _____ (what you fear) and you remove the fear of _____ (what you fear) from my heart now and forever, in the name of Jesus.

6. Henceforth, I will never be hampered or hindered or blocked in achieving my purpose by reason of my fear of _____ (what you fear), in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You heavenly Father, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May your faith in God overcome all your fears, in the name of Jesus.

April 25

"Once when Jacob was cooking stew, Esau came in from the field, and he was exhausted. And Esau said to Jacob, 'Let me eat some of that red stew, for I am exhausted!' (Therefore his name was called Edom.) Jacob said, 'Sell me your birthright now.' Esau said, 'I am about to die; of what use is a birthright to me?' Jacob said, 'Swear to me now.' So he swore to him and sold his birthright to Jacob. Then Jacob gave Esau bread and lentil stew, and he ate and drank and rose and went his way. Thus Esau despised his birthright." — Genesis 25:29-34 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Proverbs 27:12 (NASB), the Bible says "A prudent man sees evil and hides himself, The naive proceed and pay the penalty." Esau was a naive man. There is also a popular saying "You don't know what you've got till it's gone!" Because of a single meal, Esau sold his birthright to his younger twin. Perhaps, it was because Isaac knew this that he overlooked his suspicions that it was in fact Jacob he was blessing not Esau? This kind of situation is very much alive today. For power, position, promotion, money, etc., people compromise and sell their 'birthright'. They exchange all these ephemeral things for things with much more lasting and eternal value. Some give up their holiness, their chastity, their marriages, their children, their freedom or their eternity to get temporary, earthly benefits. Look, whatever you need, you can find in God. You only need to know what to do and you'll get it. Why then pursue evil, unoptimized pathways that will only lead to regret and eternal damnation? Remember that Esau got the satisfaction of that meal but lost the inter-generational blessing. Today, the nation of Israel is named after his brother, Jacob. It's your choice to make.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, for every time that I have compromised and sold off my virtues in exchange for earthly benefits, forgive me, in the name of Jesus.
2. Specifically, Father forgive me for _____ (whatever you have given off in exchange for an earthly benefit), in the name of Jesus. [Repeat prayer for each thing you've sold off]

3. Any satanic need or fire burning within me and pushing me to sell my birthright, I command you to die now, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any evil meal prepared for me in my weakest hour as a net to catch my virtues, I set you ablaze until you burn to ashes, in the name of Jesus.

5. All my virtues that have been taken from me by deception, I recover them back now by the fire of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.

6. I decree and declare that whatever has been deposited into my life before my birth or after I was born and are meant for the fulfillment of my destiny, I shall use them all to fulfill my destiny and to glorify the name of the Lord, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never sell your birthright and may you never miss your blessings, in the name of Jesus.

April 26

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." — 2 Corinthians 5:17 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Just as Jesus Christ died and rose again on the third day, anyone who believes in Him dies and rises again as a new creation once and for all. And just as all the limitations Christ had before death were taken off, similarly, for you, the old things too have passed away and the new has come. Claim this scripture and pray it into your life this morning.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Every power of the old man in my life, die! You the new man, come alive in my life now, in the name of Jesus.
2. Every power of sin in my life, die! Righteousness and holiness, arise in my life now, in the name of Jesus.
3. Every nature of relying on religious works in my life, die! Faith in Jesus for all my needs, arise, in the name of Jesus.
4. All my worldly opinions and thinking patterns, die! Blood-washed thoughts come alive in my life, in the name of Jesus.
5. You my evil habits, die! Godly habits, arise, in the name of Jesus.
6. I decree and declare that I am in Christ and therefore, I am a new creation. The old has passed away and the new has come in my life, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Merciful Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Let it be unto you as you have said, in the name of Jesus.

April 27

"On the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and entering the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, we stayed with him. Now this man had four virgin daughters who were prophetesses." — Acts 21:8-9 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

One man had four daughters and all of them were prophetesses! That is, they could speak of future events. All four of them! You might ask, how did this happen? The answer is found earlier in the book of Acts. Here's what the Bible says about their father, Philip: "Those who had been scattered preached the word wherever they went. Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed or lame were healed. So there was great joy in that city." (Acts 8:4-8, NIV). The father of these girls was an evangelist. He went from town to town preaching the Messiah. He was filled with the Holy Ghost. By the power of the Holy Ghost, he performed signs, conducted deliverances and healed many. Little wonder why his daughters were prophetesses. Imagine the atmosphere in that household. What a parent! So, are you a Christian? What impact do you have on your family members? Is what you have in them? Like Philip have you so influenced your relatives in word and in deed to the extent that they too have been saved and received Jesus and His spirit? Have you helped them secure their eternal destination? Why not pray about this, this morning.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Messiah, I thank You for the gift of salvation and for Your Holy Spirit.
2. Today, I ask for the wisdom and the ability to be a private and a public example of a follower of Christ all at once, in the name of Jesus.
3. Father, if there is any iota of hypocrisy in my life that creates a gap between who I am in public and who I am in private, remove this hypocrisy so that this gap can be removed forever, in the name of Jesus.

4. O God, do not let hypocrisy dissuade my family members from hearing my true words about You. Let my singleness of lifestyle cause my family members to be inspired to follow You also with all their hearts, in the name of Jesus.

5. As with Philip, O Lord, let the teachings I give and the spiritual activities that I hold with my family members cause them to receive Your Holy Spirit as well as His fruit and gifts, in the name of Jesus.

6. As with Philip, My Lord and my God, let my entire household honor You so that we can fulfill our individual and collective destinies, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The great thing that you have asked for this morning shall be yours as every evil gap is removed, in the name of Jesus.

April 28

“For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he had begun to settle them, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him. But since he did not have the means to repay, his lord commanded him to be sold, along with his wife and children and all that he had, and repayment to be made. So the slave fell to the ground and prostrated himself before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you everything.’ And the lord of that slave felt compassion and released him and forgave him the debt. But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and he seized him and began to choke him, saying, ‘Pay back what you owe.’ So his fellow slave fell to the ground and began to plead with him, saying, ‘Have patience with me and I will repay you.’ But he was unwilling and went and threw him in prison until he should pay back what was owed. So when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their lord all that had happened. Then summoning him, his lord said to him, ‘You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow slave, in the same way that I had mercy on you?’ And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him. My heavenly Father will also do the same to you, if each of you does not forgive his brother from your heart.” — Matthew 18:23-35 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

God is the king. You may be the servant. The fellow servants are everyone you interact with all the time. The torturers are demons. The debt is sin. Basically, the scripture is saying that in order to get mercy from God, you have to be merciful unto others. In other words, forgive other people their sins, if you want forgiveness from the Lord. If you do not forgive other people their sins, God will hand you over to demons. Since there are so many demons responsible for all kinds of oppression, anything bad could begin to happen to you. Then you'll start looking for how to get exorcised or get deliverance or going to hospital and all kinds of inconveniences. And if you can't find any place to get it, Look, you do not need the stress. Forgive others and always get a welcome audience with the Creator of the universe.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Hammer from heaven on high, arise and smash my stony heart to pieces, in the name of Jesus.

2. Now, I take the broken fragments of my heart and I present them before You, my God and my potter. Remold my heart so that I can have the capacity to forgive, in the name of Jesus.

3. If there be any unclean spirit of unforgiveness in my heart sent there to ruin my life, I command you now: Come out by fire! Depart now and depart forever, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any consequence that I am suffering now in any area of my life because of unforgiveness in my heart, by the power in the blood of Jesus, be nullified, in the name of Jesus.

5. I bind and cast out any torturer assigned against my destiny. Come out by fire! O my God, let all the burdens of my heart which have been put there by the torturers be lifted off from my heart now, in the name of Jesus.

6. From today, I cast all my cares and burdens and concerns upon my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Henceforth, anyone who attempts to offend me, I hand them over to the Almighty for judgment to do as He pleases. It is no longer my load to carry, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for setting me free, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the Lord set you free indeed and as you have turned a new leaf, may you receive the blessings of mercy, in the name of Jesus.

April 29

“Whatever comes from [the heart of] a man, that is what defiles and dishonors him. For from within, [that is] out the heart of men, come base and malevolent thoughts and schemes, acts of sexual immorality, thefts, murders, adulteries, acts of greed and covetousness, wickedness, deceit, unrestrained conduct, envy and jealousy, slander and profanity, arrogance and self-righteousness and foolishness (poor judgment). All these evil things [schemes and desires] come from within and defile and dishonor the man.”

— Mark 7:20-23 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The human heart is the source of evil. All evil that is perpetuated in reality is first conceived in the heart. All the terrorist attacks that make the nightly news or breaking news had been in the heart of the perpetrators for a long time before they were executed. The Bible says in Ezekiel 18:20 (NLT) that "The person who sins is the one who will die." You cannot say it was a website or the TV show that made me do this or when I was young they did this and that to me or anything else. As they say "You Broke it, You Bought it." You are responsible for what comes out of your heart and what you do. There is help for every Christian through the word, the Holy Spirit and through the power of prayers. The Bible says in Philippians 4:8 (NASB) "Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, dwell on these things." So, how do you do this successfully? Again, the Bible offers a solution: "Do not be conformed to this world, but continuously be transformed by the renewing of your minds so that you may be able to determine what God's will is—what is proper, pleasing, and perfect." Romans 12:2 (ISV). When you watch nasty TV shows or movies, read dirty books and magazines, go to ungodly places, you are conforming to this world. You are taking in things that would then make your heart concoct evil, which you might then carry out. But when you do the opposite of this, you are not conforming with the world and you will be empowered to think and do God's perfect will.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, today, I make a firm decision to stop conforming with the world, in the name of Jesus.

2. I have decided to stop watching dirty TV shows or movies, reading bad books or magazines, visiting dangerous websites and the likes. Help me, so that my decision will stick, in the name of Jesus.

3. This morning, in the place of evil, I have decided to consume things that will make me think thoughts of truth, of honor, of righteousness, of purity, lovely thoughts, of good repute, of excellence and that are praise-worthy, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any persistent and habitual thought of _____ (your most fervent negative thoughts), I bind you with unbreakable fetters. I starve you to death and I cast you out of my life, in the name of Jesus.

5. O God, let the positive materials I will consume as well as the word of God help me to constantly renew my mind so that I will be able to think and do what is proper, pleasing and perfect in the sight of God, in the name of Jesus.

6. Henceforth, may the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing to you, O Lord, my rock and my redeemer, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Everlasting Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Let it be as you have said: May the words of your mouth and the meditation of your heart be pleasing to the Lord, your God, in the name of Jesus.

April 30

"And Joseph awoke from his sleep and did as the angel of the Lord commanded him, and took Mary as his wife, but kept her a virgin until she gave birth to a Son; and he called His name Jesus." — Matthew 1:24-25 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The lesson here is that you should not jump the gun. If something good is coming to you, be patient. If you are not patient there may be problems. If for instance, you are in courtship with someone, be patient. In a few months time, you will have any kind of access you want and you will have it forever. If a promotion has been confirmed for you, hold your horses. Don't go ticking people off with displays of pride. After the birth of Jesus, Joseph and Mary had many sons (James, Joseph, Judas and Simon) and daughters (see Mark 6:3). As they say, be as cool as a cucumber. Be patient and all good things will come. A word to the wise is enough.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Heavenly Lord, I thank You for the power of the Holy Spirit.
2. This morning, as it was with Joseph, let the fruit of the spirit of patience manifest in my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. Lord, You know that _____ (what has been confirmed but is pending) is coming my way. Specifically, I ask that the patience in my heart be applied toward the arrival of _____ (what has been confirmed but is pending), in the name of Jesus.
4. My Lord and my God, do not let me do anything that will cause me to lose what you have promised me or whatever my fellow human as promised me, in the name of Jesus.
5. The virtues that were in me that got me _____ (what has been confirmed but is pending), let them remain in me until and beyond the manifestation, in the name of Jesus.

6. Merciful Father, let my joy be full and let all that I await manifest completely in my life, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the patience that births breakthroughs be your lot and may everything you expect manifest for you, in the name of Jesus.

"You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands; you shall be blessed, and it shall be well with you." — Psalm 128:2 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

If you have a job or you are involved in a business, today's scripture is for you. Work or labor is like a tree. Each time you use your hands to work, you are working on that tree, you are pruning it in order to make it more productive. So, the Psalmist is saying that you shall eat the fruit of your labor. However, for him to say that it means that there are others who have this tree of labor and yet they do not eat the fruits from it. For some of these people, the problem could be ignorance on how to prune and manage their tree. It could also be an attack of wasting spirits on the tree, attack of robbers on the tree, destruction by disasters, etc. This is why the Psalmist precedes this verse by saying "Blessed are all who fear the Lord, who walk in obedience to him." (Psalm 128:1 NIV). The difference for you as a child of God is that because you fear the Lord and you walk in obedience to Him, you have the blessing upon you and upon your tree of labor. Therefore, you shall eat the fruit of your labor, be blessed and it shall be well with you!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Heavenly Father, Your word says that if I hate evil, pride, arrogance, corruption and perverse speech, I fear You. I declare this morning that since I hate all these things and I love You, Your fear is in me.
2. O Lord, this morning, according to Your word, let my fear of You and my obedience to Your word be rewarded, in the name of Jesus.
3. Any power of the enemy that wants to attack my hands or my entire life in anyway and to prevent me from enjoying the fruit of my labor, be arrested and be destroyed, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any satanic pest or entity dispatched against the tree of my labor to prevent it from yielding fruit or to destroy it, I bind you. I set you ablaze and i cast you out.

Depart from my tree of labor, in the name of Jesus.

5. Have mercy, O Lord and give me a blessing for my hands, myself and for the tree of labor that is in my life, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Father, let Your blessing upon my life bless my tree of labor and let it teach me how to prune and manage it so that it will yield an abundance of fruit, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for the overflow of fruit from the tree of my labor and for the preservation of life, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: You shall eat the fruit of the labor of your hands, in the name of Jesus.

May 2

"But that night, when it was dark, Laban took Leah to Jacob, and he slept with her... But when Jacob woke up in the morning—it was Leah! 'What have you done to me?' Jacob raged at Laban. 'I worked seven years for Rachel! Why have you tricked me?' 'It's not our custom here to marry off a younger daughter ahead of the firstborn,' Laban replied. 'But wait until the bridal week is over; then we'll give you Rachel, too—provided you promise to work another seven years for me.'" — Genesis 29:23,25-27 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

A contract is basically a written or verbal agreement between two persons, with terms and conditions. Jacob loved Rachel, Laban's younger daughter. He entered into a contract with Laban to work for him for seven years to secure her hand in marriage. Both men agreed. However, when Laban saw that he had become greatly blessed by reason of the presence of Jacob, he did not want Jacob to go. He therefore reneged on the agreement. In Romans 1:31, the Bible lists the breaking of covenants as one of the great hallmarks of unrighteousness. Be careful not to break covenants with people and be more careful not to be a victim of covenant breakers. Broken covenants can cause you to live in bitterness and suspicion all the days of your life, it can cause you to lose your life savings, it can ruin families, lead to sickness and all manner of ailments and it can cause some people who have no understanding of the afterlife to take their own lives. Forewarned is forearmed.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Holy Spirit of God, anytime I am about to go into a contract with anyone, according to the word of the Lord, give me the ability to test every spirit to know whether or not to proceed, in the name of Jesus.
2. Spirit of God, work in me so that the fruit of the Spirit of faithfulness and trustworthiness in me will always cause me to keep my word, deliver and not become a covenant-breaker, in the name of Jesus.
3. My God, any man or woman that has targeted me or that has been assigned against me to enter into a contract with me and then to break, I arrest you by the power of the Holy Ghost and I hand you over to the Almighty for divine judgment, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any agenda of the enemy to use covenant-breaking to introduce pain and suffering into my life, I frustrate you today. I decree and declare that you shall never prosper against me, in the name of Jesus.

5. You _____ (consequence you have suffered from broken covenants), I decree unto you by the power of the Holy Ghost, be reversed by fire, in the name of Jesus.

6. I declare that as long as I live, the contracts that I shall enter into shall be a blessing unto me. The people I shall enter them into shall not renege neither shall I. My life shall always give God glory and my God will always protect me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Almighty God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May your covenants always bring you good and never evil, in the name of Jesus.

May 3

"A prophet or a diviner of dreams may arise among you, give you an omen or a miracle that takes place, and then he may tell you, 'Let's follow other gods (whom you have not known) and let's serve them.' Even though the sign or portent comes to pass, you must not listen to the words of that prophet or that diviner of dreams. For the Lord your God is testing you, to make known whether or not you'll continue to love the Lord your God with all your heart and soul." — Deuteronomy 13:1-3 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Not every sign, wonder or miracle that happens is from God. And not every prophet is a prophet of the living God. One way to tell an evil prophet apart from a divine one is to look out for what they say, that is, their doctrinal message. Is what he or she saying consistent with the word of God? Can you find it in the Bible? Is he or she telling you to follow and serve the Almighty God or to follow and serve an idol or some other kind of dark power? If the answer to these questions suggest that he or she is not of God, please refuse to listen. Our scripture says that the presence of this kind of personality is actually a test of your love for the Lord. As you know, there are only two possible outcomes for a test. Either you pass or you fail. If you pass this particular test, it means you love the Lord. The Bible says in 1 Corinthians 2:9 (NIV) "But as it is written, 'No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has imagined the things that God has prepared for those who love Him (God).'" If you pass the test of love, you will get fresh and rare blessings from the Almighty Himself. On the other hand, if you fail the test, the Lord will hands off your case. As there is no vacuum in the spirit, God's former position in your life will then be occupied by demonic entities. According to Romans 1:28-32, such a person will be filled with spirits of wickedness, evil, greed, depravity, envy, murder, quarreling, deceit, viciousness and so on. Failing this divine love test can ultimately lead to an untimely death. Since passing this test is a matter of simple observation, discretion, wisdom and action, there is no need for anyone to suffer any negative consequence. Once you know what you are hearing is not of God and you refuse to listen, not only will you save yourself from satanic oppression or an untimely death, you will also become a beneficiary of divine blessings. You can use today's prayers to arrange this kind of situation for yourself.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. I cover my eyes, my ears and my heart with the blood of Jesus, in the name of Jesus.
2. This morning, I register it in the consciousness of my soul that whenever I am listening to anyone who I have seen perform a miracle, I will automatically look to see if the words of the speaker are of the Lord or of the devil, in the name of Jesus.
3. This morning, I decree and declare that I will never be a victim of any spiritual trap or deception, in the name of Jesus.
4. I decree and declare that I shall never listen to any voice encouraging me to abandon the narrow way of the Lord and to enter into the broad way of Satan and his agents. No. I shall never listen, in the name of Jesus.
5. I decree and declare that I will never fail the love test of the Almighty. By reason of this, spiritual oppression and untimely death will never be my portion. Instead, I shall benefit from unique and rare blessings from the throne of the Almighty, in the name of Jesus.
6. Almighty God, let me be so filled with Your word to the extent that no matter the cunningness employed by the evil one and his agents, I shall always be spiritually alert and awake to avoid their traps, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You El Shaddai for answering all my prayers today, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you always pass God's love test. In this way, you shall no know oppression neither shall you be cut down. Instead, you shall benefit from God's rare blessings and be lifted high in the land of the living to the glory of God, in the name of Jesus.

"O Lord, You have [at last] shown favor to Your land [of Canaan]; You have restored [from Babylon] the captives of Jacob (Israel). You have forgiven the wickedness of Your people; You have covered all their sin. Selah. You have withdrawn all Your wrath, You have turned away from Your burning anger. Restore us, O God of our salvation, And cause Your indignation toward us to cease." — Psalm 85:1-4 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The Bible says in Ezekiel 22:30-31 (NLT) "I looked for someone who might rebuild the wall of righteousness that guards the land. I searched for someone to stand in the gap in the wall so I wouldn't have to destroy the land, but I found no one. So now I will pour out my fury on them, consuming them with the fire of my anger. I will heap on their heads the full penalty for all their sins. I, the Sovereign Lord, have spoken!" National intercession is very important. Even if there is much sin in a country, that country might still be spared divine judgment if the righteous people in it 'stand in the gap' and pray on behalf of that country before the Almighty. A very practical example of this is seen in Genesis 18. In fact, in this case, Abraham—the person who did the national intercession—was neither a citizen nor a resident of the country, yet his intercession was valid. How much more if he had been a native of the land! Unfortunately, in the case of Abraham his intercession was too limited and was insufficient to save Sodom and Gomorrah. He was an outsider and did not have sufficient data for an effective national intercession. If the idea or the opportunity to intercede, as Abraham did or had, had come to Lot, his nephew, who lived in Sodom, he would have been more successful because he had firsthand information about the spiritual state of his nation. For example, he would have known that it was not possible to find ten righteous people in his country. Since Abraham did not live in Sodom, he could only intercede based on guesses and estimations. This is why you are the person most qualified to pray for your own country, since you know what's up! So, what should you pray for? Our opening scripture gives you coverage ideas: Pray for national favor, for restoration from captivity, for forgiveness, for atonement of national sins, withdrawal of God's wrath, for the turning away of burning anger, for the restoration of salvation and for cessation of divine indignation. Are you ready to stand in the gap for your country this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O Lord, holy and true, I come before You this morning to stand in the gap for my country _____ (name of your country). Have mercy. Accept my prayers and answer them, in the name of Jesus.

2. My Father and my God, through the words of my mouth this morning, let the wall of righteousness of my country be rebuilt, in the name of Jesus.

3. I cover _____ (your country) with the blood of Jesus. Let this precious blood atone for our sins. By reason of this blood, O God, let us obtain forgiveness in Your presence, in the name of Jesus.

4. Almighty God, be merciful unto us. Let Your wrath be withdrawn from _____ (your country) so that we will not be consumed by Your burning anger, in the name of Jesus.

5. O God of our righteousness, let Your indignation against _____ (your country) cease and let us know again what it means to have the joy of salvation, in the name of Jesus.

6. Most High God, let _____ (your country) find favor before You so that times of refreshing and great prosperity can return to the land, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Jehovah El Olam for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May it be unto your country as you have prayed. May your country find favor in the sight of the Lord and experience times of refreshing, in the name of Jesus.

"But Ruth said, 'Do not urge me to leave you or to return from following you. For where you go I will go, and where you lodge I will lodge. Your people shall be my people, and your God my God. Where you die I will die, and there will I be buried. May the Lord do so to me and more also if anything but death parts me from you.' And when Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more." — Ruth 1:16-18 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Ruth was young. She had just lost her husband. Her late husband was from another country. Her late husband's family was driven from their own country because of a famine. And, after losing husband and sons, her mother-in-law, Naomi, was about to head back to that same country. Ordinarily speaking, unlike Ruth, many women in this situation would rather stay back in their own land and try out fresh options. Many would question the 'luck' of such a woman as Naomi. Some might think "this woman who lost all the men in her family probably has bad luck. Good thing she's leaving. Let me stay as far away from her as possible." But no. Ruth decided to eternally bind herself to Naomi. Why? The answer appears to lie in Naomi's character. Here are two instances that highlight this;

a) Ruth 1:19 (HCSB) "The two of them traveled until they came to Bethlehem. When they entered Bethlehem, the whole town was excited about their arrival and the local women exclaimed, 'Can this be Naomi?'"

b) Ruth 2:5-6, 8-9 (NLT) "Then Boaz asked his foreman, 'Who is that young woman over there? Who does she belong to?' And the foreman replied, 'She is the young woman from Moab who came back with Naomi... Boaz went over and said to Ruth, 'Listen, my daughter. Stay right here with us when you gather grain; don't go to any other fields. Stay right behind the young women working in my field. See which part of the field they are harvesting, and then follow them. I have warned the young men not to treat you roughly. And when you are thirsty, help yourself to the water they have drawn from the well.'"

Naomi had been gone for ten years. Yet, when she returned, the Bible says "the whole town was excited". Also, immediately Boaz heard that Ruth was from Naomi, he immediately took measures to make her very comfortable. These two instances point to the fact that, despite her tragedies, Naomi was a lovely woman with excellent character and a wonderful personality! Since Ruth had lived with her for a number of years, she had gotten the opportunity to witness this character firsthand. This is a core reason why she decided to attach herself to Naomi and adopt the God of Israel as her own God. There's a lesson for all of us here. If you want to convert people to Christianity, preaching with your mouth [and with words] is nice. However, preaching with your character is much better! Think about Naomi for a moment and ask yourself: Can my character, in its present state, cause my friends, relatives, neighbors and acquaintances to give their lives to Jesus Christ? If the answer is no, you have the opportunity this morning to approach God the Father to change your status quo.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Lord and my God, Your word says that whoever wins souls is wise. I want to be wise and win souls for you, help me, in the name of Jesus.
2. Hear me O Lord; whatever is in my character and my personality that can cause my efforts at evangelism to fail or falter, help me and remove it from my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. O God, whatever is in my character and personality that can touch people and cause them to be curious about You, let it be amplified, in the name of Jesus.
4. This morning, O Lord, I specifically ask: Use my character and my personality as tools of evangelism so that I can be used to win souls into Your Kingdom, in the name of Jesus.
5. Let it be that my character, personality and lifestyle will always do all the hard work and heavy lifting for me in advance. Thus, when I open my mouth to speak of You, Lord Jesus, let my words be planted into the hearts of people and grow so that they too can accept You as their Lord and Savior and become born again, in the name of Jesus.
6. Most High, this morning I also ask, that as with Naomi, let my entrance into any arena cause people to be excited and cooperative and use my character and personality to open doors for me and for my loved ones, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God work on your character and personality so that as Naomi was used to convert and help Ruth, you too can be used to win souls into His Kingdom and to also open doors for yourself and your loved ones, in the name of Jesus.

"... Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested Him. With that, one of Jesus' companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear. 'Put your sword back in its place,' Jesus said to him, 'for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.

Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and He will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?'" — Matthew 26:50-53 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture should provide any child of God with a massive dose of spiritual confidence and assurance. Judas had led servants of the high priest to the garden of Gethsemane so they could seize and arrest Jesus Christ. Peter wanted to prevent the arrest with physical violence and this is where Christ makes a great statement filled with amazing imagery. The Lord told Peter "Put your sword back in its place... Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and He will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels?" Amazing! A legion of soldiers is more or less equivalent to 6000 men. Therefore, twelve legions of angels will be equivalent to 72,000 angels. Jesus said if He called to God the Father to send 72,000 angels, they would appear. The question is; why didn't He do this? Matthew 26:54 (NIV) says the following: "But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?" He could not make the request because the scriptures had foretold His death in a certain way—including being seized and arrested. Note, however, that in your case, you are at liberty to make this request. For instance, if a criminal or any other violent person approaches you with the intention to harm you or if you are in any form of danger, you can call on God the Father, in that moment, to send legions of angels to rescue you. It will then be left to those angels to use whatever means necessary to effect your rescue. For the sake of emphasis, calling on God the Father to send angels for the purposes of protection is a valid and legitimate spiritual instrument that is available to all Christians. Would you like to use this instrument this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, I thank You this morning for this revelation from Your word.

2. As a Child of God, this morning, I plug myself into the spiritual phone line for requesting angelic assistance from the Almighty in times of great distress, in the name of Jesus.

3. Merciful God, anytime I am in danger, situations of distress or impending doom, let it be that when I call upon Your holy name, you shall hear me, in the name of Jesus.

4. My Lord and my God, whenever I request for angelic assistance in order for them to effect my rescue or deliverance from unfavorable situations and circumstances, have mercy and send legions of them for my sake, in the name of Jesus.

5. O Lord of hosts, let Your angels always deliver me from any dire circumstance in which I find myself, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Father, this morning, cause Your angels to go ahead of me in order to clear my path, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Jehovah Raah for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Whenever you request for angelic assistance, may you find favor with the Almighty so that your life can be preserved, in the name of Jesus.

"One day Jesse said to David, 'Take this basket of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread, and carry them quickly to your brothers. And give these ten cuts of cheese to their captain. See how your brothers are getting along, and bring back a report on how they are doing.'" — 1 Samuel 17:17-18 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The Bible says in Proverbs 18:16 (NLT) "Giving a gift can open doors; it gives access to important people!" David's father, Jesse, understood this concept very well. Today's scripture reveals that while sending David on an errand to take provisions to his siblings (who were on the battlefield) and check on their welfare, Jesse also instructed him to give ten cuts of cheese to the captain of his sons. This was not some random incident as there is another scripture which shows Jesse doing the exact same thing. In 1 Samuel 16:19-20 (ISV), the Bible says "So Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, 'Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.' Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a container of wine, and one kid, and sent them to Saul along with his son David." The king needed David's services as an in-house instrumentalist and so he sent word to his father to release him for the job. Jesse not only sent David, he also sent Saul a donkey, bread, wine and a kid (young goat). This second example clearly shows that Jesse understood the power of gifts. We do not know for sure why he did this. He might have done this in order to open doors of promotion for his other sons who also worked as soldiers in the king's service. In any case, there are two important lessons here: First, if you want to live in an atmosphere of favor and you want doors to open for yourself and your loved ones, give gifts in advance as a matter of character and principle. When you give gifts only when you need something, that is a bribe and it is a sin! However, when you give gifts in advance when there is no pressure to do so, you are pre-creating an atmosphere of favor. Thus, when you actually need that person's favor, they will not hesitate to help you and in that way, you will be spared the sin of bribery and corruption. Second, whenever you are asked to do something by someone greater than you, not only should you do what you were asked, you should also try to go the extra mile by doing additional things which are related to what you were originally asked to do. These two activities together, if practiced consistently will open doors for you when you need to go through such doors.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. This morning, I cast out the spirit of bribery and corruption from my life, in the name of Jesus.
2. Holy Spirit of God, let the method of giving in advance as practiced by Jesse, be embedded into my spirit today, in the name of Jesus.
3. Holy Spirit of God, let the willingness to go the extra mile for others be entrenched within my personality henceforth, in the name of Jesus.
4. O Lord, let my giving create an atmosphere of favor for me and my loved ones, in the name of Jesus.
5. Almighty God, let my advance giving, tangible or intangible, open doors for me and my loved ones before important and great people, in the name of Jesus.
6. My Father and my God, whenever I need the help of people either for myself or for my loved ones, without any form of coercion on my part, let the book of remembrance be opened for my sake in their hearts. Cause them to remember my past giving and favor me and my loved ones, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You O Lord for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the gifts which you give out by reason of your character and personality cause you to find favor before the lowly as well as the high and mighty. May doors of opportunity open unto you and your loved ones, in the name of Jesus.

May 8

"...looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider Him who endured from sinners such hostility against Himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted." — Hebrews 12:2-3 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture has several implications. However, from a motivational standpoint, there are two extremely powerful lessons to learn. First, the Bible calls Jesus the founder and the perfecter [or manager] of our faith. It was He who founded Christianity and He continues to manage it. Very often we hear news reports of entrepreneurs selling their shares and quitting the company they founded. When this happens, the previously thriving company might either continue to thrive or it might begin to flounder. With Christ, no such uncertainty exists. The Bible says He is right now seated at the right hand of the throne of God. That seat is eternal. Under no circumstance can that seat be bought or sold for any amount. Therefore, whatever service this divine founder has guaranteed to provide for you, be rest assured that it will always be provided without any interruption. If He has promised you healing, deliverance, prosperity, etc., He is the eternal manager and He will see to it that you get what you want when you ask Him. The second powerful lesson from this scripture is that Christ has provided for us an example and a template for the achievement of our goals. If you have a joy set before you (such as graduation from a course, introduction of a new product, assumption of a new position, completion of a project, a wedding, etc.) and you know that what you are doing is right and in line with God's will for your life, have the fortitude to endure and disregard anything that can make you weary or fainthearted and thus prevent you from witnessing the manifestation of your joy. Jesus endured the hostility and the cross in order to secure salvation. You too will have to be like this whenever necessary so you can fulfill your divine destiny. Keep these two lessons in your heart now and for as long as you live and you will never have cause to regret.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O Lord, You are my God, I put my whole trust in You.
2. Lord Jesus, You are the founder and perfecter, the author and the finisher of my faith. By reason of Your eternal seat at the right hand of the Father, I have no doubt that all the promises You have made to me through Your word will definitely come to pass.
3. O Lord my God, just as You had a joy that was set before You, let my own joy, my purpose and my destiny also be clearly and strongly set before me, in the name of Jesus.
3. My Lord and my Savior, just as You were able to endure the cross because of the joy that was set before You, let me also have the fortitude to endure my own cross because of the joy that is set before me, in the name of Jesus.
4. Messiah, just as You were able to disregard the shame that You faced while You were on the earth because of the joy that was set before You, let the power of the joy that is set before me be sufficient to give me the fortitude necessary to also disregard any shame that I am facing or that I might face on the road to the fulfillment of my joy, in the name of Jesus.
5. Rose of Sharon, just as You were able to endure hostility and yet you did not grow weary or fainthearted, let me also endure whatever I need to endure and not grow weary or fainthearted, in the name of Jesus.
6. Great Redeemer, just as You are right now seated at the right hand of the throne of the Almighty, let me, at the end of the day, fulfill my earthly and eternal destinies, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Jehovah Shammah for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you be blessed with Christ-like staying power so that you can fulfill your divine purpose, in the name of Jesus.

May 9

"And now the prize awaits me—the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on the day of His return. And the prize is not just for me but for all who eagerly look forward to His appearing." — 2 Timothy 4:8 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

This crown of righteousness is also called the crown of life (James 1:12) and the crown of glory (1 Peter 5:4). Jesus said in Revelation 3:11 (NASB) "I am coming quickly; hold fast what you have, so that no one will take your crown." This crown is meant for all those who are eagerly looking forward to Christ's second coming. So, what does it actually mean to get this crown? What are the some of the benefits of getting the Crown of Life? The Crown of Life is a mark of irreversible admission into eternal bliss with the Almighty, His angels, other saints, never-before-seen and heavenly creatures, processes, phenomena and places. In Revelation 3:12, Jesus says that anyone who get this crown will be made a pillar in the temple of God in heaven and on that person will be written the name of God, the name of the city of God (New Jerusalem) and Christ's new name. Be assured that no matter how hard you try, you cannot understand or imagine or fully grasp what this statement truly means! In Matthew 16:18 (NIV), Christ said to Peter "And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church." And we know that till this day, Peter is regarded as the Apostle of Apostles and pioneer leader of the Christian church. The language and imagery of heaven is sometimes unfathomable by mere humans. Just rest assured that becoming a pillar of God's temple in heaven and having God's name, His city's name and Christ's new name written on you implies unbelievable and unimaginable eternal glory! And billions and trillions of times the opposite of any adversity or suffering you have faced or endured on the earth. So, how do you get this crown? If you want it, you have to truly and eagerly look forward to Christ's appearing. This means getting yourself ready in every way possible for His coming. You also get the crown by persevering and remaining steadfast in the faith when you are tried and tempted (James 1:12). Do these things and it is certain that on that day when Jesus appears in the sky, you will hear the sound of that angelic trumpet and instantaneously join Him in eternal glory!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Rock of Ages, let the prize that awaits me and which has been kept in store for me from the foundation of the earth, be placed in my hands and on my head when the time comes, in the name of Jesus.
2. I decree and declare that, by the power in the blood of Jesus, and at the end of my sojourn on this earth, the crown of life, the crown of righteousness, the crown of life shall be placed on my head, in the name of Jesus.
3. As surely as the Lord lives, the day will surely come when I shall become a pillar in the temple of God in the Kingdom of heaven. According to the word of the Lord, upon me shall be written, the name of God, the name of the New Jerusalem and the new name of Jesus Christ, in the name of Jesus.
4. My Father and my God, whatever it means by "eagerly looking forward to Christ's appearing", let my life be a living example of it, in the name of Jesus.
5. Holy Spirit of the living God, let the spirit of perseverance and unchanging steadfastness enter into my life now so that I can survive and triumph over any test, trial or temptation that comes my way, in the name of Jesus.
6. I reject an eternity in hell fire with the devil, his demons and lost souls. Instead, I shall spend my eternity with the Almighty, His angels, other saints as well as never-before-seen and heavenly creatures, processes, phenomena and places, in the name of Jesus
7. Thank You Jehovah Tsidkenu for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you do all you can to please the Almighty and as you eagerly look forward to Christ's return, whatever prize has been kept in store for you, including the Crown of Life, you shall get, in the name of Jesus.

May 10

"Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, thanked God for them, and broke them into pieces. He gave them to the disciples, who distributed the food to the crowd." — Matthew 15:36 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Apart from this occasion in our opening scripture, there are a number of verses where Jesus gave thanks before a meal. This implies that giving thanks before meals was a regular practice of the Lord Jesus Christ. The Apostle Paul once said in 1 Corinthians 11:1 (NIV) "Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ." One of the ways he followed the example of Christ was in this area of thanksgiving before meals. In Acts 27:34-35 (NASB), the Bible says "Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your preservation, for not a hair from the head of any of you will perish." Having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it and began to eat."

These scriptures also emphasize to whom the thanks should go and that is God Almighty. As a human being, you should give thanks before meals because food is the most important thing on this earth that is necessary for the sustenance of your life. If you have nothing to eat, life will gradually come to an end. When you have the ability to purchase food to eat, it means you have the ability to sustain human life. Therefore, when you give thanks to God for your meals, you are saying "Thank You O God for life. I recognize You as the source and the maintainer of my life" By blessing the work of your hand and your means of livelihood, God is also providing a way for you to continue to exist and thrive on the earth. When you are alive, anything can happen. You can become anything or anyone you desire. So, a blessing on a meal is not to be taken lightly. It is thanksgiving for life and all the possibilities of life.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, henceforth, I have resolved in my heart to give thanks to You before all my meals, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord, I see clearly that there is a solid link between the meals that I consume and Your general blessing upon my life.

3. I thank You for Your financial blessings upon my life in the past as well as all the blessings that await me in the future, in the name of Jesus.

4. I thank You for the ability to earn an income and to use that income to put food on the table for myself and my loved ones. Accept my thanks, in the name of Jesus.

5. O my God, since food is meant for the sustenance of life and life is meant for the fulfillment of destiny, anytime I eat food and I remain alive, let me be reminded of my divine assignment here on earth, in the name of Jesus.

6. Everlasting Father, I ask that You provide me with all the mental, spiritual and physical blessings required for the fulfillment of my divine purpose and destiny on this earth so that my life will be lived to the maximum and in accordance with Your will, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Jehovah Jireh for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the blessing of the Lord never depart from you. And may you never know hunger. As you are nourished, may you use the gift of life to perform your role maximally as a divine instrument in God's hands, in the name of Jesus.

May 11

"Some time later, Berodach-baladan, the son of King Baladan of Babylon, sent letters and a gift to Hezekiah, because he had heard that Hezekiah had been ill. Hezekiah listened to the entourage and showed them his entire treasury, including the silver, gold, and spices, the precious oil, his armory, and everything that was inventoried in his treasuries. There was nothing in his household or in his holdings that Hezekiah did not show them." — 2 Kings 20:12-13 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Discretion can preserve your life and protect everything you have worked hard to acquire. Today's scripture focuses on a moment in history where there was a monumental failure of discretion. You demonstrate discretion whenever you take care in not attracting attention to what is important or when you do your best not to let out private information about yourself or others. King Hezekiah had been sick for a while and was expected to die. However, God healed him. One of the kingdoms that came to celebrate with him on his recovery was Babylon. They brought letters and gifts and Hezekiah was carried away. He showed them the financial base of his kingdom as well as his kingdom's military might — the armory. The Bible says "there was nothing in his household or in his holdings that Hezekiah did not show them." Who does that? Who shows emissaries from another kingdom this level of detail. In any case, the Bible tells us that after these foreigners had gone, the prophet Isaiah visited Hezekiah and asked him who the visitors were and what he had shown or revealed to them. After Hezekiah informed him that he had shown them everything, Isaiah said the following to him "...Hear the word of the Lord of hosts, 'Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house and all that your fathers have laid up in store to this day will be carried to Babylon; nothing will be left,' says the Lord. 'And some of your sons who will issue from you, whom you will beget, will be taken away, and they will become officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.'" Isaiah 39:5-7 (NASB). Be careful what you disclose to others about your life especially those whom you know have the potential of working against you. You should be friendly of course, but there is no need to reveal secrets about yourself to people who do not need to know about it. Hezekiah's act of indiscretion had consequences. Those Babylonian emissaries were spies. Indeed, the word of the Lord was fulfilled exactly as Isaiah had predicted. For the sake of emphasis, watch what you say about yourself and to whom you say it in order for you not to have any cause to regret moments of indiscretion!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Hear me O Lord this morning. According to Your word, set a guard over my mouth and keep watch over the door of my lips so that I do not reveal secrets about myself that can be used against me, in the name of Jesus.
2. Any spirit of carelessness in my life assigned to cause me to expose information about myself which can be used against me, I bind you this morning and I cast you out of my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. Any spirit of pride and fleshly dependence on my achievements assigned to bring me down, I bind you and I cast you out of my life, in the name of Jesus.
4. I decree and declare this morning that henceforth, I will never engage myself in any activity that will cause me and my future generations to suffer any kind of loss, in the name of Jesus.
5. Omnipotent God, by any means necessary, let any information about my life that is currently in the hands of anyone and which can be used against me, be supernaturally wiped away from their memory, in the name of Jesus.
6. Spirit of discretion and self control from heaven above, enter into my life now and never ever leave, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Almighty God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May your life be an example of self control and discretion. May you not use your actions or the words of your mouth to bring loss upon yourself or your offspring, in the name of Jesus.

May 12

"But the person who endures to the end will be saved." — Matthew 24:13
(ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Serving God in spirit and in truth all the days of one's life has several benefits. For example, if you are faithful in your walk with God, you will benefit from prosperity, divine intervention, divine protection, divine healing, good health, fellowship with God's Holy Spirit, divine revelation, divine inspiration, etc. This means that if you do not have an active fellowship with God, you will not enjoy access to these things. So, fellowship with God is important. However, when it comes to getting into heaven, your spiritual state at the end [either via death or the rapture] is what will determine whether or not you get into heaven. Here are two examples that highlight this phenomenon:

a) Judas: Judas had been with Jesus for a number of years as a disciple. In fact, he was in charge of the moneybag for Christ's ministry. In modern language, you might consider him Christ's treasurer. Yet, just a few days to the crucifixion of Jesus and a couple more days to the advent of the Holy Spirit, he betrayed Christ and killed himself. Therefore, he is currently in hell. All his years of service had no bearing on his eternal destination.

b) The penitent thief: A few minutes to Christ giving up the ghost on the Cross of Calvary, a thief who had also been hung alongside him decided to speak to Jesus. In Luke 23:42-43 (AMP), the conversation between this thief and Christ went as follows "... Jesus, [please] remember me when You come into Your kingdom!" Jesus said to him, 'I assure you and most solemnly say to you, today you will be with Me in Paradise.'" The prayer was as simple as it was super effective!

Sometimes as a Christian, it is easy to get carried away with the "mechanics" of religion and not be watchful of your actual spiritual state. Judas, on the outside, appeared to be 'one of the guys'. But he wasn't. On the other hand, here was a thief who had probably spent years stealing other people's belongings before he was finally caught. He was a man who did not regard mosaic laws, otherwise he wouldn't have been stealing. Yet, he is right now a saint in heaven. Why? Because at the end of his life (when it was most important), he did the right thing. When he said "remember me", the implication was that he actually believed that Jesus was the Son of God, who really did have a kingdom he was about to return to! This was why his prayer was answered — because of his belief and faith! The lesson for today is that as you serve God from day to day, constantly check yourself. The Bible says in 2 Corinthians 13:5 "Examine yourselves to see whether you are in the faith; test yourselves..." Only by doing this can you rest assured that you are 'enduring' and that if the end comes either by death or the rapture, you will be saved. The thief knew that he would die in a few hours. You do not know when your time will come. Therefore, always be watchful!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Father God, I want to endure until the end so that I can be saved. Help me, in the name of Jesus.
2. Any spirit of religion and vain repetitive procedures in my life assigned to distract me and to prevent me from minding my real spiritual state, I bind you and I cast you out of my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. I ask this morning, O God, for forgiveness regarding any secret or public sin in my life that might prevent me from making heaven when my time comes, in the name of Jesus.
4. Holy Spirit of God, let the spirit of humility and meekness enter into my life today, in the name of Jesus.
5. My Lord and my God, give me the grace to constantly examine myself and to test myself to see if I am still in the faith, in the name of Jesus.
6. I decree and declare this morning that I am not a candidate for the lake of fire. I shall stand firm in God's word and in righteousness. I shall pay the full price each day so that I can enter into eternal rest and into the kingdom of heaven when my time comes, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You O Lord for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God give you the grace and fortitude to endure until the very end, in the name of Jesus.

"Like a sparrow in its flitting, like a swallow in its flying, So a curse without cause does not alight." — Proverbs 26:2 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In 2 Kings 5, there's the story of Naaman, the Syrian army commander who traveled to Israel to see Elisha so he could get healed from a skin disease. After he got healed, an appreciative Naaman offered Elisha gifts but the prophet declined. Elisha's servant, Gehazi, found it difficult to process Elisha's refusal of the gifts. So, he ran after Naaman to see if he could get something. When he caught up with him, he told the following lie against Elisha in order to get a portion of the gifts that were originally offered to Elisha: "...My master has sent me to say, 'There have just now come to me from the hill country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.'" (2 Kings 5:22, ESV). An overjoyed Naaman did not mind and gave him even more than he asked for. However, the Spirit of God was "livestreaming" the whole event to Elisha back in his house. When Gehazi returned to his master's house, he denied that he had gone anywhere or done anything. Elisha then cursed Gehazi, commanding Naaman's skin disease to cling to him and his descendants. The curse manifested immediately. Why did this curse manifest against Gehazi? It did because it had a cause. The cause was that Gehazi lied against the prophet before an important foreigner. In the process, he made the prophet seem like a shy and greedy hypocrite whereas this was not the case at all. Now, today's opening scripture says; if a curse does not have a cause, it will not manifest against you. However, if a curse has a cause (like Gehazi's situation), it is likely to manifest. Let's address both of these scenarios this morning.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, I come before You this morning to ask for forgiveness for anything wrong or negative that I have done to anyone which has driven them to place a curse on me.
2. Blood of Jesus, wash all these sins away from my life today so that the legal ground for the manifestation of curses can be destroyed, in the name of Jesus.

3. By the power in the blood of Jesus, I speak destruction unto any curse currently operating in my life, in the name of Jesus.

4. By the power in the blood of Jesus, I command every yoke of any curse issued by anyone against me at any point in my life, and which is now affecting me, to break to pieces, in the name of Jesus.

5. Henceforth, by the power in the blood of Jesus and the power in the in-filling of the Holy Ghost, I decree and declare that I am free from any curse, in the name of Jesus.

6. Merciful Father, help me. Let me live a life of peace with everyone so that curses will not be issued against me. And if there be anyone issuing curses against me without a cause, according to the word of the Lord, these curses shall never alight in my life and therefore, they shall never manifest against me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Jehovah Adonai for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the word of the Lord become the pillar of your life and work for you. Therefore, no causeless curse shall manifest against you, in the name of Jesus.

"I am reminded of your sincere faith, which first existed in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and I am convinced that this faith also exists in you." — 2 Timothy 1:5 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

The Bible says in Ephesians 6:2-3 (ESV) “Honor your father and mother' (this is the first commandment with a promise), 'that it may go well with you and that you may live long in the land.'” Let's use today as a great opportunity to honor one of our parents—Mom (Dad will be taken care of on another day). By the laws of nature, all children inherit different kinds of qualities from their parents. Thus, if you have a particular kind of personality trait that people love and cherish, it is possible you got it from your mom. Today's scripture reveals that Paul noticed in Timothy something called 'sincere faith'. But this was not the first time he had seen this sincere faith in Timothy's family. He had also seen in it in his grandmother and his mother, Eunice. Without Eunice, however, Timothy would not have gotten this particular desirable trait. Knowing that this trait endeared him to Paul would definitely have caused Timothy to be thankful to God for his mother. In the same vein, you should think deeply about your mom this morning. Are there positive qualities that you have and for which you are thankful to God that you inherited from her? Are there great qualities and habits she instilled in you over the years whilst you were under her roof? Is your mum currently in need of divine intervention in a specific area of her life? Why not pray for her this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Heavenly Father, I thank You this morning for the gift of the mother You assigned to give birth to me and to raise me. Accept my thanks, in the name of Jesus.
2. O God, I am grateful to You for the qualities and traits I inherited from her as well as those she taught to me over the years. Accept my thanks, in the name of Jesus.

3. O Lord, I pray, let Your goodness and mercy be with my mother all the days of her life on this earth, in the name of Jesus.

4. If there be any negativity that may have been passed into my life from my mother, I bind it and I cast it out of her life and out of mine, in the name of Jesus.

5. You _____ (problem currently facing mother) currently standing as a challenge in the life of my mother, I demolish you by fire. Depart from her and never ever return, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each problem currently facing your mother]

6. I decree _____ (any blessing you like) into the life of my mother today. You _____ (blessing) enter into her life now and begin to prosper there, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for every blessing you want in your mother's life]

7. Thank You Jehovah Nissi for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Let it be as you have said. It shall be well with your mother, in the name of Jesus.

"When King David came to Bahurim, there came out a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera, and as he came he cursed continually. And he threw stones at David and at all the servants of King David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. And Shimei said as he cursed, 'Get out, get out, you man of blood, you worthless man! The Lord has avenged on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned...' ... Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, 'Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and take off his head.' ... But the king said, 'What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? ... It may be that the Lord will look on the wrong done to me, and that the Lord will repay me with good for his cursing today.'" — 2 Samuel 16:5-8a,9,10a,12 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

This man, Shimei, thought that it was David who killed his relative, Saul, and his son, Jonathan. The reality however was that Jonathan had been David's best friend while it was Saul who took his own life. So, based on his misconception, Shimei rained curses on David and also threw stones at him. But contrary to expectation, David's response was to appeal to the Almighty to look on Shimei's injustice and to repay him with good for all the curses being issued against him. Here's the great lesson for you this morning: Insofar as you are innocent, anytime anyone curses you or hurls insults at you based on a misconception, you should tell the Lord to convert each curse issued against you into good or a blessing. You have to decree the opposite of any curse issued against your life. As you can see, keeping quiet is certainly not an option! What's more, in 2 Samuel 19, this same Shimei came before David to ask for forgiveness!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, Arise for my sake and look on all the wrong that is being done against me, in the name of Jesus.
2. For every curse issued against my physical and spiritual well-being, O God, arise and repay me with blessings, in the name of Jesus.

3. For every curse issued against my source of income, O God, arise and repay me with blessings, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any curse issued against _____ (specific area of your life), by the power of the Holy Ghost, I convert you into blessings, in the name of Jesus.

5. No curse issued consciously or unconsciously shall ever manifest against me, in the name of Jesus.

6. In the same way David had the largeness of heart to forgive Shimei, O Lord, give me the grace to forgive my enemies when they come to me to ask forgiveness, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: No curse, either by naivety or by intention, shall manifest against you, in the name of Jesus.

""As I was traveling and near Damascus, about noon an intense light from heaven suddenly flashed around me. I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?' 'I answered, 'Who are You, Lord?' 'He said to me, 'I am Jesus the Nazarene, the One you are persecuting!' Now those who were with me saw the light, but they did not hear the voice of the One who was speaking to me. 'Then I said, 'What should I do, Lord?' 'And the Lord told me, 'Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything that is assigned for you to do.' 'Since I couldn't see because of the brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus. Someone named Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good reputation with all the Jews residing there, came and stood by me and said, 'Brother Saul, regain your sight.' And in that very hour I looked up and saw him. Then he said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know His will, to see the Righteous One, and to hear the sound of His voice. For you will be a witness for Him to all people of what you have seen and heard.'" — Acts 22:6-15 (HCSB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Saul, who would later come to be known as Apostle Paul, was directly and indirectly responsible for the capture, imprisonment and death of many Christians. One day, in furtherance of his evil assignment, he decided to visit Damascus in order to capture more Christians and to bring them to Jerusalem for imprisonment. It was on his way to Damascus that the events in today's scripture take place. Here was a gifted but misguided man who was hell-bent on following the wrong path in life. Were it not for his "road to Damascus experience" with the Lord Jesus Christ, he would have remained in error and would have ultimately suffered all its temporal and eternal consequences. But thanks be to God, a man who was intent on capturing Christians was converted into a witness for Jesus to all people. Apostle Paul became the greatest evangelist of his time. He wrote a major portion of the new testament and is right now in the Kingdom of heaven. The question for you this morning is; are you on the wrong path heading towards your own Damascus? Are you sure you are living in God's will for your life? If you are not sure, do you desire a divine encounter with Jesus that will set you on the right path towards destiny fulfillment on the earth and eternity in heaven? If yes, you have an opportunity this morning to go the Almighty in prayer concerning this issue.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Holy One of Israel, this morning, let me have my own road to Damascus experience, in the name of Jesus.
2. I Am That I Am, if I am on the wrong path in life, relocate me now to the right path so that I can live in Your will for my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. O my God, any erroneous mindset powered by ignorance or by any satanic influence within me, I reset you now by the Blood of Jesus, in the name of Jesus.
4. King of kings, just as you changed Saul's assignment from persecuting You to becoming a witness for You to all people, if my life is not in accordance with Your will, come now and change my assignment as well, in the name of Jesus.
5. Lord of lords, as with Saul, visit me so that I too can know Your will and do Your bidding in my life, in the name of Jesus.
6. My Father, once my true assignment in life has been revealed unto me, empower me with the zeal and perseverance to see to it with all that I have so that my destiny on the earth can be fulfilled and my eternity in heaven can be secured, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Merciful Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you have your own divine encounter that will redirect you and reposition you within God's will for your life, in the name of Jesus.

"Hear, O Lord, and have mercy on me; Lord, be my helper! You have turned for me my mourning into dancing; You have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness" — Psalm 30:10-11 (NKJV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Ecclesiastes 3, the Bible reveals to us that there is a time for everything and a season for every activity under heaven. This includes a time to dance. However, despite there being a time for everything, nothing happens in life without a trigger. Someone must do something before something happens. In other words, for the time for something to come, conscious effort is required by someone. In today's scripture, the psalmist was in mourning and he was clothed with sackcloth. To change his condition, he cried out to the Lord for mercy and for help. The Almighty then responded by ushering him into a time of dancing and by exchanging his sackcloth for gladness. Today, if you want a change in your circumstances and you want to usher in pleasant times, call on the Lord and He will answer you.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Hear me O Lord and answer me this morning, in the name of Jesus.
2. O righteous Father, I come to You for help concerning the affairs of my life. Be my helper and help me out, in the name of Jesus.
3. Lord, _____ (your problematic situation) is causing me to mourn. Have mercy and remove it from my life so that my mourning can come to an end, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat prayer for each problematic situation in your life]
4. O God, _____ (what you lack or need) has put sackcloth on me. Help me O Lord, take away my lack and meet my need so that this sackcloth can be taken off me, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat prayer for every lack or need in your life]

5. Abba Father, according to the words of the psalmist, today, take away whatever is making me mourn so that my time of dancing can come, in the name of Jesus.

6. Most High, according to the words of the psalmist, today, take off my sackcloth and clothe me with eternal gladness, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayer, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Let it be unto you as you have said this morning. May the Lord turn your mourning into dancing and replace your sackcloth with a garment of gladness, in the name of Jesus.

"In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was over the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters. And God said, 'Let there be light,' and there was light. " — Genesis 1:1-3 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In John 10:34 (ISV), the Bible says "Jesus replied to them, 'Is it not written in your Law, 'I said, 'You are gods'?'" Yes indeed, you are a god. You are the Almighty's representative on the earth. If this is true, then you have creative abilities similar to what God has [that he put in you] but which are customized for the earth. What does this mean? Today's scripture reveals that unlike what we have now, in the beginning, the earth was shapeless, filled with water and in complete darkness. But God wanted to begin work creating things on the earth. To do this, He needed two things — words of creativity, to express what was to be done and the Holy Spirit, who would bring what has been spoken into existence. The Spirit of God was right there hovering and waiting for the word. Immediately God said "Let there be light", "light" came into existence. Please understand that you also have this ability on earth. You can say things and if you are filled with the Holy Ghost, those things can come to pass for your good. The Bible says in Proverbs 18:21 (HCSB) "Life and death are in the power of the tongue, and those who love it will eat its fruit." It also says in Job 22:28-29 (NASB) "You will also decree a thing, and it will be established for you; And light will shine on your ways. When you are cast down, you will speak with confidence, And the humble person He will save." Is there something you need in your life? Are you a Child of God? Are you filled with the Holy Ghost? Then, you have the right and the power to speak that thing into existence for your good! Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O Lord my God, give me the ability to rightly articulate the good desires of my heart so that I can speak out words of power that can address them for my good, in the name of Jesus.

2. Holy Spirit of God, as I decree words this morning, move for my sake as You did in the beginning and bring them into fruition, in the name of Jesus.

3. You _____ (your spiritual desire) that I desire in my life, by the power of the Holy Ghost, I decree; begin to manifest, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for every spiritual desire you have]

4. You _____ (your family desire) that I desire in my life, by the power of the Holy Ghost, I decree; begin to manifest, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for every family desire you have]

5. You _____ (your career and financial desire) that I desire in my life, by the power of the Holy Ghost, I decree; begin to manifest, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for every career desire you have]

6. You _____ (your mental, social and health desire) that I desire in my life, by the power of the Holy Ghost, I decree; begin to manifest, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for every mental, social and health desire you have]

7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayer, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you decree the desires of your heart that are in line with God's will for your life, using the power of the Holy Ghost, they shall come to pass in your life, in the name of Jesus.

May 19

"Above all, lift up the [protective] shield of faith with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one." — Ephesians 6:16 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Hebrews 11:6,1, the Bible says “And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him... Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see.” The devil is constantly shooting fiery arrows at the hearts of believers. These arrows are meant to cause doubt in your heart against God and His ability to intervene in the affairs of your life. Therefore, anytime you are totally resolute and you completely believe that whatever you ask from Him, you will get, you are using your shield of faith. There is nothing God cannot do as far as you have complete faith and no doubts. He has done it before in the lives of others, if you believe, He will do it in your own life as well.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Jehovah God, I reaffirm this morning that I believe that You exist.
2. Gracious God, I declare this morning that I know for sure that You definitely reward people who earnestly seek You.
3. This morning, according to Your word, I lift up my shield of faith. Father, let every flaming arrow of the evil one fired against my destiny hit my shield and become extinguished, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any soil of doubt in my heart, I wash you away with the blood of Jesus. Therefore, no evil tree or fruit resulting from doubt shall grow in my life, in the name of Jesus.
5. Precious Father, I am hoping for _____ (a good desire of your heart). This morning I declare that I have full confidence and assurance that You will provide it for me, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each need that you have]

6. Lord, as I go out today, I leave with the knowledge that what I am asking for, You have done for others and therefore, I know that You will do it for me as well, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You heavenly Father, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May your shield of faith be strong throughout this day so it can do its work and extinguish the fiery darts of the enemy, in the name of Jesus.

"When Jacob had finished instructing his sons, he drew his feet into the bed and died..." — Genesis 49:33 (HCSB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In 1 Kings 2:2 (ESV), David called his son, Solomon and said to him "I am about to go the way of all the earth. Be strong, and show yourself a man." David referred to death as 'the way of all the earth.' But do you know that even on this way through which all mankind must pass, there are different directions? Specifically, there is something called the "death of the righteous". In our opening scripture, the way Jacob died is the way a righteous person should die. A righteous person should leave this world only when advanced in years and on his or her own terms. It was as if Jacob told death "Hold on, let me settle all my affairs first." That scripture says that after instructing his sons, he then took his time to 'draw his feet into the bed' and died. Talk about signing out of life with panache and 'swag'! You too shall draw your feet into your bed at a good old age, in the name of Jesus. Finally, there is something called "dying in peace." To die in peace means to die only after fulfilling your divine assignment on the earth. In Luke 2:25-26, the Bible says "Now a man named Simeon was in Jerusalem. This man was righteous and devout... It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not die until he had seen the Lord's Messiah." So after seeing Jesus, this man Simeon said the following prayer "Sovereign Lord, now let your servant die in peace, as you have promised." (Luke 2:29). As with Simeon, you too shall never depart this earth without fulfilling your divine destiny, in the name of Jesus. The main lesson today is that as a Child of God, an untimely death is not your portion. You should only leave when you're done. And you should leave in peace and on your own terms! Are you ready to settle this issue before the Almighty this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father and my God, deliver me from the power of the grave and redeem me from the power of death, in the name of Jesus.
2. I decree and declare that I shall never die before my time, in the name of Jesus.

3. Any strategy of the enemy to rush me out of the earth before fulfilling my divine destiny, I speak permanent frustration and non-achievement upon you, in the name of Jesus.

4. I shall run my full course on this earth, I will fight the good fight, I will finish my race and I will keep the faith, in the name of Jesus.

5. As with Jacob, I too shall have the time to instruct my household and to draw my feet into my bed and leave this earth on my own terms, in the name of Jesus.

6. I decree and declare that no weapon fashioned against my life and well-being shall prosper. Instead, all the days of my life shall be lived in security and good health and to the glory of the Lord, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: No matter what, you shall not die before your time. After you have completed your assignment, just like Simeon and Jacob, you too will leave this earth on your own terms and in peace, in the name of Jesus.

May 21

"But that year ended, and the next year they came again and said, 'We cannot hide the truth from you, my lord. Our money is gone, and all our livestock and cattle are yours. We have nothing left to give but our bodies and our land. Why should we die before your very eyes? Buy us and our land in exchange for food; we offer our land and ourselves as slaves for Pharaoh. Just give us grain so we may live and not die, and so the land does not become empty and desolate.'" — Genesis 47:18-19 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In response to this statement, Joseph, who was acting in his official capacity as Prime Minister of Egypt, agreed and carried out the transaction. That is, he gave the people seeds and grains to end their hunger and ease their desperation. However, in exchange, the people became servants — actually, property — of Pharaoh. Not only that, they were required to regularly bring a portion of the harvest from the seeds back to the Pharaoh. What has just been described here is the exact same mechanism people use to sell their souls to the devil for one reason or the other. A great need arises. You do all you can to meet the need but it doesn't budge. Then you "go out" to look for help. Unfortunately, the help you find or are referred to is in the hands of fetish priests or false prophets. They first ask you for "light" things such as money or some other item money can buy. But the problem persists. Then, like the hungry and desperate people in today's scripture, directly or indirectly, they ask you to sell your soul to their master, the devil, and they will assure you that if you do this, he will certainly meet your need! You do so and you get some relief but some other problems begin to show up. So they ask you to bring this thing and bring that thing, sacrifice this and sacrifice that... and you are locked in the evil, dark realm and cycle until death finally comes, and hell after that. The way to escape this path of darkness and damnation is to seek first and be completely committed to the kingdom of God. If you do this in spirit and in truth, you will get whatever you need and no sorrow or death will be added. Are you ready to rededicate yourself to the Almighty this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Prince of peace, this morning, I come to You and I rededicate my life to you completely, in the name of Jesus.

2. My Father and my God, Your word says that You know my needs and that if I seek Your kingdom first before any other thing, what I need will be provided unto me. Therefore, this morning, I renew my commitment to always put You and Your kingdom first, in the name of Jesus.

3. According to the word of the Lord, anyone who puts their trust in God will never be put to shame. Therefore, I know that my needs will be met and I will never be put to shame, in the name of Jesus.

4. Right now, I decree deflation and destruction unto every negative pressure building up within me because of anything that I lack or need. You _____ (what you lack or need) that I need, listen to me; I am completely committed to my God and therefore, I know that You will come into my possession, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat prayer for each thing that you need]

5. I declare that the grace of God is sufficient for me and it is all that I need. Therefore, from this moment forward, I will never go to the camp of the devil or that of any of his agents to seek for help, in the name of Jesus.

6. If I am currently suffering any consequence because I sought for help from the devil and his agents in the past, O God, arise for my sake and set me free. By the power in the blood of Jesus, my Lord and Savior deliver me from any demonic bondage and servitude today, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank you Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you seek God's kingdom first, you will not be put to shame. He shall supply all your needs according to His riches in glory, in the name of Jesus.

May 22

"Come to terms quickly with your accuser while you are going with him to court, lest your accuser hand you over to the judge, and the judge to the guard, and you be put in prison. Truly, I say to you, you will never get out until you have paid the last penny." — Matthew 5:25-26 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Just as it is impossible to go through life without sinning against God, it is also impossible to go through life without offending people. However, offenses vary in degree. While there are some that can be brushed aside as having no significance, others can cause acute or chronic malice to develop between two people. Then there are offenses that not only cause malice but also have punishments attached to them. In the example in our opening scripture, the offense appears to relate to a financial dispute with imprisonment as the likely punishment. There are other offenses that can lead to other kinds of punishments (such as a workplace demotion or job loss, loss of privileges, family or social disgrace, family or societal exclusion, etc). Jesus is saying here that if you have offended someone and that offense has a punitive consequence, do everything you can to appease and come to terms with your accuser before the matter gets before a person who has the power to administer the requisite punishment. To come to terms with an accuser, you need to first acknowledge within yourself that you actually committed an offense against that accuser. Next, you need to demonstrate humility. Only a humble person can voluntarily approach an accuser to ask for forgiveness. Finally, you must be willing to carry out restitution. Restitution occurs when you restore what you took from someone or compensate him or her in some way for the offense committed. For most people, these three steps would usually suffice in preventing them from seeking the execution of punishment against you. In fact, if you do this, not only will you immediately earn the respect of the person, this kind of character and reputation repair can also have several advantages for you in the future. All this holds true as far as you do not repeat the offense again.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Eternal King, by the power of Your Holy Spirit and according to Your word, give me the grace to, as much as possible, follow peace with everyone, in the name of Jesus.

2. Anything in my life assigned to compel me to offend people so that I can receive receive disgrace and punishment, your time is up! Right now, I command you: Come out of my life now! Depart forever, in the name of Jesus.

3. O God, whenever I offend anyone, let a contrite heart be found in me so that I can acknowledge my wrongdoing, in the name of Jesus.

4. Righteous Father, whenever I offend anyone, give me the humility to voluntarily and quickly approach the person in order to ask their forgiveness, in the name of Jesus.

5. My Lord and my God, let me always be willing to make restitution and amends to anyone whom I have offended, in the name of Jesus.

6. Merciful Father, let it be that anyone whom I offend and whom I approach for forgiveness and restitution will accept my peace offering so that I can be spared unprofitable punishment and consequences, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayer, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you make it part of your character to come to terms quickly with persons you offend, you shall be spared unprofitable consequences and punishments in your life, in the name of Jesus.

"Moses remained there on the mountain with the LORD forty days and forty nights. In all that time he ate no bread and drank no water. And the LORD wrote the terms of the covenant—the Ten Commandments—on the stone tablets." — Exodus 34:28 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In the old testament, God gave His people the ten commandments so they could have a code of conduct that would allow them live their spiritual and physical lives to the maximum. The great pains Moses had to endure to get these commandments underscore how crucial they are for all mankind. No one spends forty days and nights without food and water over something trivial or irrelevant or short-lived. In those days, you had to observe each and everyone of these commandments. However, in the new testament, we have been offered an optimized way to still fulfill these commandments but by doing only one thing instead of ten separate things. In Romans 13:10 (NLT), the Bible says "Love does no wrong to others, so love fulfills the requirements of God's law." If you look at the ten commandments (see Exodus 20 or Deuteronomy 5), you will see that if truly you love the Lord or your parents or your wife or your neighbor or people in general, you will truly be in compliance. This morning is dedicated to praying through the ten commandments using the powerful instrument of love. Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Holy Spirit of the Most High God, this morning, let there be an explosion within me of Your fruit of love, in the name of Jesus.
2. I love You Almighty God, therefore, I shall not use your name in vain, I shall not serve any other god apart from you and I shall not make for myself or bow down to the image of anything in heaven, on earth or in the waters, in the name of Jesus.
3. I love myself, therefore, according to Your word, I will observe the Sabbath and keep it holy, in the name of Jesus.

4. I love my father and my mother, therefore, I shall honor them. This morning I also claim the promise attached. O God, as I honor my parents, let me live long and let me prosper all the days of my life, in the name of Jesus.

5. I love my spouse, therefore, I will not commit adultery, in the name of Jesus.

6. By the grace and mercy of God, I love my neighbors and my fellow human beings. Therefore, I will not steal from anyone, I will not kill or murder anyone, I will not bear false witness against anyone and I will never covet someone else's spouse or property, in the name of Jesus.

7. I thank You Heavenly Father for answering all my prayers this morning, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the love of God in you help you to fulfill His desire for your life, in the name of Jesus.

"Then the LORD said to me, 'The prophets are prophesying lies in my name. I have not sent them or appointed them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you false visions, divinations, idolatries and the delusions of their own minds.'" — Jeremiah 14:14 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Jeremiah 17:9 (NASB), the Bible says "The heart is more deceitful than all else And is desperately sick; Who can understand it?" One category of persons with the sickest of hearts is the false prophet. A false prophet is different from a fetish priest or a medium in that he claims to be an actual servant of God. But he is not. He is only a servant of his own appetite and of the devil, his father. Our opening scripture lists out some of the instruments used by a false prophet. They include: false visions, divination, idolatry and delusions of the mind. Anytime you go before a false prophet, he or she is guaranteed to use one or more of these instruments on you. Further, as revealed in 2 Corinthians 4:2 and Romans 16:18, false prophets are masters at distorting the word of God. They then use smooth talk and words of flattery to create the perfect atmosphere of deception from under which only a few can escape. The aim is to get you to part with your resources or to carry out acts that will draw you into the dark realm and ultimately, the pit of hell. The Bible says in Proverbs 14:8 that "The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit." You need wisdom so that you do not ever enter into this kind of error. Once this kind of wisdom is present in you, you will no longer be tossed here and there by waves and carried about by every wind of the doctrine of these kinds of people or by their trickery, craftiness or deceitful scheming. Neither will you again suffer the associated consequences. If you must consult a prophet, find one who fits the Psalm 24:4 description, that is, one with clean hands and a pure heart, who does not worship idols and never tells lies. Better yet, seek God's face directly and become your own prophet! If you suspect or you know for sure that you have visited a false prophet, today's prayers are for you.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, High Priest of the living God, I come before You this morning to seek redemption from any spiritual error I may have committed. Forgive me for ever knowingly or unknowingly consulting a false prophet.

2. My Lord and my God, let any consequence I am currently facing—because of any false vision I received from a false prophet—be destroyed now, in the name of Jesus.

3. Messiah, let any consequence currently operating in my life—because of divination carried out on my behalf by a false prophet—be removed completely now, in the name of Jesus.

4. Lion of Judah, let any consequence currently in my life—as a result of idol worship carried out on my behalf by a false prophet—be destroyed completely, in the name of Jesus.

5. Whatever negative situation I am presently going through because I listened to and believed the delusions of the mind of a false prophet, Rock of Ages, arise for my sake and nullify the situation completely, in the name of Jesus.

6. This morning, I receive wisdom from on high. From this day onward, I will never again be tossed about or carried away by the trickery, craftiness or deceitful scheming of any false prophet. Neither will I suffer any further consequences as a result, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Jesus for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never again fall prey to the machinations of any false prophet, in the name of Jesus.

May 25

"To these He also presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days and speaking of the things concerning the kingdom of God... And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was going, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them. They also said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven.'" — Acts 1:3, 9-11 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Jesus Christ was not the first person to go into heaven as a living person. Enoch did not die. The Bible does not provide details of his ascent. He was just taken into heaven. Elijah also did not die. Unlike Enoch, his own ascent was described in significant detail. He was picked up by a chariot of fire drawn by horses of fire and then he was taken up into the heavens in a whirlwind. However, when the Son of God would Himself ascend into heaven, he was simply, quietly lifted up into heaven until a cloud took him out of the sight of the people. One major difference between the ascension of Christ and the others before Him is that He is the first person to die, resurrect and then physically ascend. In so doing, He has opened the way for us all. As Christians, specifically as born again Christians, we are dead to the old man and to our old ways. Therefore, we have become truly Christ-like. Christ has paved the way for dead and resurrected people [like us] to also ascend into heaven just like He did. Now to the goodies: In John 14:2 (KJV), the Bible says "In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you." So, how will you get your own mansion? By ascension! It is also through this process of ascension or what is popularly referred to as the rapture. The Bible says in 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17 (NLT) "For the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a commanding shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. First, the believers who have died will rise from their graves. Then, together with them, we who are still alive and remain on the earth will be caught up in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. Then we will be with the Lord forever." As you can see, the angels were correct — Jesus will indeed return again and he's coming for you! Once he collects you and billions of other believers alive and dead in the sky, we will all turn around and head for heaven on that day, leaving behind all our insecurities and the problems of the earth to enjoy heavenly mansions and eternal security with the Almighty, His saints and the angels. The question is; will you be faithful until the end?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Great Redeemer, this morning, I rededicate my life to You, in the name of Jesus.
2. By the power of the Holy Spirit who lives within me and who is proof of my relationship with the Almighty, I declare that I have a mansion waiting for me in heaven, in the name of Jesus.
3. Spirit of the living God, this morning, maximally unleash within me all the components of Your fruit so that my character can be acceptable unto the Most High, in the name of Jesus.
4. Lamb of God, let Your blood that was shed for me on the day of Your passion and on the Cross of Calvary speak for me so that my sins do not blot my name out of the Book of Life, in the name of Jesus.
5. Prince of peace, if there is any force of darkness within me, assigned to prevent me from making heaven, I command it this morning to come out of my life now, to depart and to never return, in the name of Jesus.
6. Almighty God, on that day of the rapture, have mercy on me. Let me hear that commanding shout, let me hear the voice of the archangel and let me hear the trumpet call of God so that like billions of believers, alive or dead, I too can ascend to be caught up with Jesus in the clouds and into heaven forever, in the name of Jesus
7. Thank You O God for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never miss the rapture and heaven, in the name of Jesus.

May 26

"After the meal was over, and the man had eaten food and had drunk water, the old prophet saddled the donkey for him—that is, for the man of God whom he had brought back. Not long after the man of God had left, a lion met him along the road and killed him. His body was left lying in the middle of the road with the donkey standing beside it and with the lion also standing next to the body." — 1 Kings 13:23-24 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

One day, God instructed a young prophet from Judah to go to Bethel and deliver a message regarding a coming change of administration to the then wicked and occultic king of Israel, Jeroboam. But the instruction did not end there. God also said the following to this young prophet "You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came." The young prophet got to Bethel, successfully carried out the first instruction and began to head home. However, there lived an old prophet in Bethel who somehow heard of the young prophet's visit and a miracle he performed on the king. Intrigued, the old prophet went in search of the young prophet. In 1 Kings 13:14 (ISV), the Bible says "and he rode off after the man of God and found him sitting under an oak tree. 'You're the man of God who came from Judah, aren't you?' the old prophet asked him. 'I am,' he replied." He then offered the young bread and drink—the two things God told him to avoid on the trip. When he refused, the old prophet then told the following lie "an angel spoke to me and delivered this message from the Lord: 'Bring him back with you to your house and give him food and water.'" On hearing this, he let his guard down and agreed. Unfortunately, as he was eating and drinking in the old prophet's house, God took over the old prophet and he spoke out a prophecy of an uncommon and a disgraceful death upon him. What followed is described in today's opening scripture. In essence, the young prophet was terminated. Here are a few lessons from this portion of scripture:

1. When God Himself gives you a specific instruction directly, please carry it out to the letter.
2. When God Himself gives you a message directly concerning a matter, if need be, He is the only one that can "edit" or override that message. No other person regardless of their status can override the message.

3. Men of God, called by God, can and do lie. And they can also mislead you for their own selfish reasons. This is why you must also develop your own capacity to hear directly from the Lord.

4. Like the old prophet, that a man of God lies or commits some other sin does not mean he has stopped being a man of God. Unless God departs from him, he is still a man of God.

5. Like the young prophet, that God uses you today to do great works does not mean that he will overlook your wrongs.

7. Like the young prophet, do not rest under the oak tree of unfinished assignments and destiny destruction. Persevere and finish your assignment before resting.

8. A bright future, colorful potentials, great talent or skill is not a guarantee for an establishment of your destiny. You still have to rigorously meet the requirements for the fulfillment of your own destiny.

9. Ignorance is not an excuse. Disobeying the word of God knowingly or unknowingly can lead to destruction and the termination of a once promising life.

This morning, you have an excellent opportunity to go to the Lord in prayer concerning all these lessons.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Jehovah Tsidkenu, help me. Whenever I hear Your voice speaking to me directly, let me never waiver. Let me always do what You tell me to the letter, in the name of Jesus.

2. I reject partial completion of my divine assignments, in the name of Jesus.

3. You my destiny, if you are currently sitting down and resting under the oak tree of unfinished assignments and destiny destruction, arise! And depart from there now! in the name of Jesus.

4. Any plan of the enemy to exploit the fleshly or selfish nature of any true man / woman of God or prophet as an instrument to deceive and derail my destiny, my life is not your candidate. I speak frustration to you now. You shall not prosper against me, in the name of Jesus.

5. I decree and declare that all the potentials that I have been naturally and supernaturally endowed with will lead to the full establishment of my destiny, in the name of Jesus.

6. I decree and declare that my destiny will not be cut short as a result of ignorance or any form of error. Instead, I will fulfill my divine destiny as it has been written of me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Your destiny will not be cut short. You will complete all your divine assignments and your destiny shall be established in Christ, in the name of Jesus.

May 27

"About eight days after Jesus said this, He took Peter, John and James with Him and went up onto a mountain to pray. As He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothes became as bright as a flash of lightning. Two men, Moses and Elijah, appeared in glorious splendor, talking with Jesus. They spoke about His departure, which He was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem. Peter and his companions were very sleepy, but when they became fully awake, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him." — Luke 9:28-36 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Luke 22:42-43, the Bible says "Father, if You are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but Yours be done. An angel from heaven appeared to Him (Jesus) and strengthened Him. And being in anguish, He prayed more earnestly, and His sweat was like drops of blood falling to the ground." The sacrifice of Jesus involved not only dying but bearing and paying for the sins of all mankind. The latter was no mean feat as it had never been done before by anyone. The angel that appeared was there to encourage him to complete the work. Now, it appears Moses and Elijah also appeared to Jesus for the same reason. Today's scripture says "They spoke about His departure, which He was about to bring to fulfillment at Jerusalem." These great men, who in their own generation fulfilled their own assignments, were here to encourage the Son of the living God to finish the job. The question is this: How does a human being get into this kind of position? How do you get into a situation where you become a heavenly emissary, delivering motivational messages to the soon-to-be Savior of the world. The answer lies in Hebrews 11:24-26 (GNT) — "It was faith that made Moses, when he had grown up, refuse to be called the son of the king's daughter. He preferred to suffer with God's people rather than to enjoy sin for a little while. He reckoned that to suffer scorn for the Messiah was worth far more than all the treasures of Egypt, for he kept his eyes on the future reward." Moses paid the price of faith. He left royalty and an empty life of pleasure to do the real and meaningful work of delivering his people from bondage. Here's the important thing: Regardless of how much Moses kept his eyes on a future reward, he could never have imagined that he would one day be sent to the earth (along with Elijah) to minister to the Son of God who was here to save the whole world. The lesson for you today is to first find out what your assignment is in the Lord and then consider all the possible rewards that assignment can offer you. When you have done this, develop the faith to go after that assignment with everything you have. However, be assured that, as with Moses, God will surprise you. He will give you rewards that far exceed your wildest imaginations and he will make you a transgenerational blessing. Are you ready to pray this morning?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Faith for exploits and unimaginable experiences, Arise! Explode and break out into every area of my life this morning, in the name of Jesus.

2. My Father and my God, I ask You this morning to reveal to me my assignment for my own generation, in the name of Jesus.

3. Holy Spirit of God, as with Moses, let the fortitude for destiny fulfillment well up from within me so that I can do whatever it takes to complete my own assignment, in the name of Jesus.

4. I come against every distraction from the narrow path which I have decided to follow in obedience to God. I decree and declare that I will never be sidetracked, in the name of Jesus.

5. O my God, let the searching of the scriptures and the learning of Your word, praise and worship, fastings, prayer, travelling in the Spirit, spiritual groanings, demonstration of the fruit of the Spirit, possession of the gifts of the Spirit, obedience and whatever else I need to achieve breakthrough in my calling, become a pleasurable obsession for me so that I can make it till the end, in the name of Jesus.

6. Everlasting Father, just as Moses could never have imagined all the rewards associated with his decision to follow Your will for his life, let me also benefit from unimaginable rewards and blessings as a result of my decision to serve You till the end, in the name of Jesus.

7. El Shaddai, I thank You for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you make yourself available to Him, may the Almighty use you mightily even in ways that are beyond any man's imagination, in the name of Jesus.

"Multitudes, multitudes, in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision." — Joel 3:14 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

It is common for many ministers to use today's scripture as a direct tool to get people to forsake their sinful ways or indeed to convert to Christianity. They tell you that you are right now in the valley of decision and encourage you to quickly make a decision to serve Jesus before the day of the Lord comes upon you in that valley or something like that. Ultimately, they are right but with respect to this scripture specifically, that interpretation is an error. Let's briefly explore what this means. You see, Joel 3:14 is not about making a decision for Christ or forsaking sin inside the valley. No. The decision here is in reference to the divine judgment or punishment of God. The Bible says in the same Joel 3 but in verse 12 (AMP) "Let the nations be stirred [to action] and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge and punish all the surrounding nations." [Please note that the valley of decision is also referred to as the valley of Jehoshaphat]. So, you can see that by the time anyone gets to the valley of decision, it is already too late. It is safe to say, the valley is the place where people go to get the reward for the negative decisions they have made in life. The people to be judged in this valley are all perpetrators of evil including those who have perpetrated evil against God's chosen people, Israel (This is why you cannot claim to be a Christian and an antisemite at the same time. If you are antisemitic, you are not really a Christian). The question this morning is; how do you escape this valley of decision? What can you do so you don't find yourself in this dangerous valley someday? The answer is simple — find out what the opposite of the valley of decision is and go after it. Jesus said in Matthew 7:13 (NLT) "You can enter God's Kingdom only through the narrow gate. The highway to hell is broad, and its gate is wide for the many who choose that way. But the gateway to life is very narrow and the road is difficult, and only a few ever find it." The reason why there are or there will be "multitudes, multitudes" in the valley of decision is because, according to Jesus, only few people find the narrow gate. But the only way to avoid the valley of decision is to master what the narrow gate is, find it, walk through it and enter into God's kingdom. So, what actually is this gate? Or rather, who is the gate? "Yes, I [Jesus] am the gate. Those who come in through me will be saved. They will come and go freely and will find good pastures." (John 10:9, NLT) Receiving Jesus as your Lord and Savior is your first step through the gate. Mastering His word and obeying it wholeheartedly will land you firmly in God's kingdom and spare you the coming judgment in the valley of decision.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, I realize that a day is coming when all wicked and evil persons from all the nations of the earth will be gathered and judged in the valley of decision.

2. Merciful Father, have mercy on me and save me from this valley of wrath and judgment, in the name of Jesus.

3. This morning, I thank You Jesus for the insight which I have received that there is indeed a way of escape from this valley of decision. Therefore Lord, I make a firm commitment to get to know You better so that I can enter into God's kingdom and avoid the valley of decision, in the name of Jesus.

4. Messiah, I have given my life to You. Therefore, I know I am in the narrow gate. Now Lord, through the work of Your Holy Spirit in me, help me to go deeper than the surface and learn what it really means to be a true Child of God, in the name of Jesus.

5. I decree and declare that by reason of my acceptance of the Son of God and my true commitment to serve Him, there will never come a day when I will be gathered along with evil men and women in the valley of decision to suffer the wrath, judgment and eternal damnation of God. No, it will never happen, in the name of Jesus.

6. I will live my life to the fullest on this earth. I will live a holy life, achieve great things and yet remain in the center of God's will for my life, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You my Savior for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never ever find yourself in the valley of decision, in the name of Jesus.

"Defend the weak and the fatherless; uphold the cause of the poor and the oppressed. Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked." — Psalm 82:3-4 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Why should you do all of the above? Well, because in James 1:27 (NLT), the Bible says "Pure and genuine religion in the sight of God the Father means caring for orphans and widows in their distress..." When you defend the weak and the fatherless and you generally help people who cannot help themselves, you are practicing true Christianity. Some of these people could have become fatherless or widows because they lost a loved one who was serving the country in a war or in the line of duty as law enforcement officers. Their demise could also have come from sickness or a sudden accident. Such loss can bring hardship to any family. Further, the Bible says in Deuteronomy 10:18 (NIV) that "He (God) defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the foreigner residing among you, giving them food and clothing." Therefore, any time you act in the same way, you are behaving exactly as your father, the Almighty, behaves. Performing these activities are so crucial and can also bring you immense benefits. Remember, the Bible also says "Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay him for his deed." (Proverbs 19:17, ESV)

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Everlasting Father, I want to be more like You and according to Your word, I want to practice pure and genuine religion. This morning, I call upon You, answer me and help me, in the name of Jesus.
2. O great and awesome God, make me strong so that I can defend the weak, in the name of Jesus.
3. Most High God, bless me with resources so that I can rescue the weak, the orphans, the widows and all who are needy. Let me have the ability to purchase and distribute food, clothing and money to persons who need them more than I do, in the name of Jesus.

4. My Father and my God, give strength to my personality and to my name so that my presence, my words and my actions can carry sufficient power to change the circumstances of the poor and the oppressed, in the name of Jesus.

5. Messiah, give me the physical, social and spiritual clout to be able to deliver anyone who needs my help from the hand of the wicked, in the name of Jesus.

6. As I begin to wholeheartedly carry out this word that I have received this morning, I enroll myself in the school of those who lend to the Lord. Therefore, I know that certainly — the Lord shall repay me bountifully, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You heavenly Father for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God bless you as you bless others especially those who can not help themselves, in the name of Jesus.

May 30

"And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, 'What shall be the sign that the Lord will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the Lord on the third day?' And Isaiah said, 'This shall be the sign to you from the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that He has promised: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?' And Hezekiah answered, It is an easy thing for the shadow to lengthen ten steps. Rather let the shadow go back ten steps. And Isaiah the prophet called to the Lord, and he brought the shadow back ten steps, by which it had gone down on the steps of Ahaz." — 2 Kings 20:8-11 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Perhaps in the old testament, asking for a sign from God regarding an issue was a legit thing to do. However, in our generation, asking for a sign from God seems quite out of place. If you focus on the characters in today's scripture, you'll notice a difference. One was telling another to tell God to provide a sign whereas the other simply "called to the Lord" and things began to happen. Isaiah had a direct relationship with God. He was a prophet. He had God's Spirit in him. He did not need any sign to speak to God directly. We all should be like Isaiah, in this regard. Consider the following:

1. "And I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Helper, to be with you forever" — (John 14:16, ESV)
2. "But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, He will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you." — (John 14:26, ESV)
3. "The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God" — (Romans 8:16, ESV)
4. "Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours." — (Mark 11:24, ESV)
5. "Whatever you ask in my name, this I will do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If you ask me anything in my name, I will do it." — (John 14:13-14, ESV)

It's like someone told you "Come and collect $10,000 by 4 p.m." and you replied "Please, what will be the sign that you will give me the $10,000 at that time?"

He or she may become upset. The proper thing to do would be to show up at 4 p.m. to pick up your cash. Now, God may decide to show you a sign if He wishes but from all the above, you can see that "asking" for a sign is an archaic spiritual activity. Insofar as you are born again, filled with the Holy Spirit (with evidence of speaking in tongues) and you have faith, when you pray in Jesus' name, you will get what you want directly. No need to ask for a sign! Do you have a request this morning, why not go to the Lord directly and ask him?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. I have given my life to Jesus Christ and I am born again. Thank You heavenly Father for new birth, in the name of Jesus.
2. I am filled with the Holy Ghost and He lives in me. The Holy Spirit in me bears witness with my spirit that I am a child of God, in the name of Jesus.
3. I have faith and I believe that if I ask the Father for anything in Jesus' name, I will get it. I am grateful for the faith that is in my heart, in the name of Jesus.
4. I declare that because I am born again, filled with the Holy Ghost and I have faith, I already have an abundance of signs and assurances that God will do what He said He will do in my life, in the name of Jesus.
5. Now Father, this morning, I need _____ (your need). I believe without a doubt that You will give me _____ (your need). Therefore, I now ask that You give me _____ (your need), in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for every need that you have and which you know is in accordance with God's will for your life]
6. My Lord and my God, I also ask this morning, that for as long as I live, do not let my channel to You of access be blocked by my flesh, my iniquity or my spiritual inactivity, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Great God for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May all the signs and assurances inherent in your new birth always suffice for you to reach out to God and move mountains in your generation, in the name of Jesus.

"After this, Samson fell in love with a woman named Delilah, who lived in Sorek Valley. The five Philistine kings went to her and said, 'Trick Samson into telling you why he is so strong and how we can overpower him, tie him up, and make him helpless. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred pieces of silver.'" — Judges 16:4-5 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

There's something called the spirit of Delilah. Here are a few of its characteristics:

1. Even though the Delilah was a woman in a relationship with Samson, a man, the spirit of Delilah is a spirit, so it can also operate inversely, that is, through a man against a woman.
2. The spirit of Delilah attacks only people with great destinies. That is, people who have a special, glorious assignment to do on the earth.
3. The spirit of Delilah attacks only great people who live in sin. Samson only recently finished a rendezvous with a prostitute before meeting Delilah.
4. The spirit of Delilah works through a sinful sexual partner who is willing to give you up at the right price or for an attractive reward.
5. The spirit of Delilah's mission is to find out the secret of your greatness or in fact, your greatest weakness and then hand it over to those who can use that information to bring you down.
6. To get this information, the spirit of Delilah operating through your "lover", will be willing to nag you till the point of death or until you are completely fed up.
7. The spirit of Delilah will get you one way or the other to reveal the source of your greatness or your greatest weakness.
8. Once this secret reaches the hands of your enemies, they will ensure that you lose your essence, cause you to become like every other man or woman, oppress you, keep you in bondage, mutilate your destiny, extinguish your divine destiny and ultimately, bring about your death.

This is why the Bible warns against sexual immorality and commands us to flee from it. As you can see, if you do not flee, one possibility is to be afflicted with this fatal spirit of Delilah. Get yourself ready for prayers!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. King of kings, I present my mind before You. Whatever pattern of thinking or habit that is in me and that is pushing me toward sexual immorality, let it be washed out with the blood of Jesus, in the name of Jesus.

2. Any spirit of sexual immorality operating in my body in order to draw me to an agent of Delilah, this morning, I bind you with fetters of fire that can never break. I command you: Come out of my life and depart forever, in the name of Jesus.

3. [If the spirit of Delilah is already working against your life] Henceforth, I sever all ties with any human agent through whom the spirit of Delilah is working against me, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any access door into my life that may have already been opened to the spirit of Delilah because of my sexual thoughts and misdeeds, I slam you shut now and forever, in the name of Jesus.

5. Merciful Father, have mercy on me, do not let my destiny be terminated by demonic philistines and their human agents. Let me fulfill the reason for which I was born, in the name of Jesus.

6. You the fruit of the Spirit of self control, explode into every area of my life now, especially my sexuality. Begin work there and enforce maximum self control there. Make it so that my spouse will be my one and only sexual interest and partner, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Almighty God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never fall victim to the fatal sickle of the spirit of Delilah, in the name of Jesus.

JUNE PRAYER DAILIES

June 1

"But God said to him, 'You fool! I will demand your life from you tonight! Now who will get what you've accumulated?' That's how it is when a person has material riches but is not rich in his relationship with God." — Luke 12:20-21 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Proverbs 14:12 (GWT), the Bible says "There is a way that seems right to a person, but eventually it ends in death." An example of such a way is the way of greed. Today's scripture came about when Christ was preaching one day and someone in the crowd (who felt he was being denied his share of an inheritance) asked Him to intervene and instruct his brother to give him a part of what their father left them when he died. It was this question that prompted Jesus to teach the people the parable of the rich fool. Essentially, the rich fool was a person who was very successful. However, his whole life's aim was to get richer and richer. Ultimately, he got to a point where he began to make plans to accumulate wealth so great that he could afford a life of ease, leisure, eating, drinking and partying for many years. Unfortunately, the same day this man made his plans was the same day he died. What's the big lesson here? God is certainly interested in the prosperity of His children. The Bible says in Deuteronomy 30:9 (KJV) "And the LORD thy God will make thee plenteous in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over thy fathers." So, that's settled. The problem with this man is in verse 21 of our opening scripture which says "That's how it is when a person has material riches but is not rich in his relationship with God." In essence, you can be wealthy BUT you need to have a rich and very robust relationship with God. These are the words of the Son of God Himself. Now what does it mean to be rich in your relationship with God? Simple. You need to constantly explore and study the Bible and do everything that it says. You need to be filled with the Holy Spirit and to regularly sing and pray in the Spirit. Your life needs to exhibit the fruit of the Holy Spirit (i.e. love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control) and you also have to desire and seek after the gifts of the Spirit. You also have to fellowship with other believers and minister Jesus to people who are not yet saved. If you are wealthy and you do all of these wholeheartedly, you will be OK. On the other hand, if you are wealthy and you have no active relationship with God, you have seen for yourself what the consequences are. What would it be, friend?

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. O God of my righteousness, I am here on this earth to live a full life. Therefore, I will serve you with everything I have got and with my spirit, soul and body, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord, Faithful and True, I am also here, on this earth, to claim every single promise that I am eligible to receive as Your child, including the promises of prosperity and wealth. As I become wealthy and prosperous, I shall use my resources in ways that will glorify You, in the name of Jesus.
3. Today, I declare that I will make my relationship with You, the priority of my life and every other thing will be secondary, in the name of Jesus.
4. My God, let Your Holy Spirit in me get me addicted to Your word so that I cannot go through the day without reading from it and meditating upon it, in the name of Jesus.
5. Henceforth, Great God, let me set aside quality time to sing and pray in the Holy Spirit. Let me be deliberate in these activities. Cause me to be completely lost in Your Spirit, so that I can be found in You. Let me be the epitome of the manifestation of the fruit of Your Spirit and of His gifts so that I can become a blessing unto others, in the name of Jesus.
6. Heavenly Father, make me a willing and eager doer of every single word that I study and meditate upon in the Bible, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you not live a basic life of greed. May you live a full life with a robust and active relationship with the Lord, your maker, in the name of Jesus.

June 2

"Now Absalom would rise early and stand beside the way to the gate. So it was, whenever anyone who had a lawsuit came to the king for a decision, that Absalom would call to him and say, 'What city are you from?' And he would say, 'Your servant is from such and such a tribe of Israel.' Then Absalom would say to him, 'Look, your case is good and right; but there is no deputy of the king to hear you.' Moreover Absalom would say, 'Oh, that I were made judge in the land, and everyone who has any suit or cause would come to me; then I would give him justice.' And so it was, whenever anyone came near to bow down to him, that he would put out his hand and take him and kiss him. In this manner Absalom acted toward all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel." — 2 Samuel 15:2-6 (NKJV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

For one reason or the other, there are some people who want what you have and will do anything to get it. That kind of behavior is akin to the spirit that lived in Absalom, the son of David. You can call this spirit, "the spirit of Absalom". Absalom wanted to seize the kingdom from his father. And so, he began to lay the foundation upon which he could fulfill his ambition. Today's scripture gives us a glimpse into some of his strategies. Here are some essentials of the manifestation of the spirit of Absalom:

1. The spirit of Absalom will cause your opponent to rise up early in order to carry out evil activities against you.
2. The spirit of Absalom can intercept the flow of blessings into your life.
3. The spirit of Absalom can disrupt your regular way of life.
4. The spirit of Absalom can introduce scarcity of people and of resources into your life.
5. The spirit of Absalom points out your deficiencies to the people who need your services.
6. The spirit of Absalom suggests itself as an alternative to you before the people who need your services.
7. The spirit of Absalom makes promises to people which are too good to overlook and which specifically work against your life.

8. The spirit of Absalom exhibits false humility and pretentious gestures.
9. The spirit of Absalom steals the hearts of people who used to love you and causes them to turn away from you.
10. The spirit of Absalom wants to replace you and does not mind killing you, if necessary.

From these signs of the spirit of Absalom, you may or may not know if this spirit is after your life. If you know, then you do not need additional motivation to pray this morning's prayers. If you do not know or you are not sure, it will do you a world of good to still pray these prayers so that you will not be caught in the trap of the spirit of Absalom and its human agents.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Any spirit of Absalom that might be working against my life, I come against you, this morning, in the name of Jesus.
2. As with Apostle Paul, who cast out the spirit of divination from the damsel who had it, you spirit of divination, hear me now: I bind you with fetters of fire that can never break and right now, I cast you out of the life of any human being through whom you are working against me. Depart from that person now and never return, in the name of Jesus.
3. Any plan of the enemy to intercept blessings flowing into my life or to disrupt my life in such a way as to allow me suffer any kind of scarcity, I frustrate you now. You shall never work against me, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any satanic mouth speaking any kind of negativity against me and suggesting itself as an alternative to me, I arrest you. Now, I command you; be silenced forever, in the name of Jesus.
5. Any evil and fake gesture displayed by any person in order to cause hatred between me and those who love me and who are loyal to me, you shall not prosper, in the name of Jesus.
6. My Father and my God, let your shield of fire surround me today and forever. Do not let me be removed or replaced from my calling. Let every opposition against me, powered by the spirit of Absalom, be silenced now, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The spirit of Absalom shall never prosper against your life. You shall not be moved and you shall remain in the center of God's will for your life, in the name of Jesus.

"Then some people brought Jesus a man possessed by a demon. The demon made the man blind and unable to talk. Jesus cured him so that he could talk and see." — Matthew 12:22 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture shows very clearly that demons [ex-angels] or evil spirits can cause specific diseases in the body. The passage also says that Jesus "cured" the man that was brought before him and that man could talk and see. What does the word "cure" here really mean? In Matthew 9:32-33 (GWT), the Bible says "As they were leaving, some people brought a man to Jesus. The man was unable to talk because he was possessed by a demon. But as soon as the demon was forced out, the man began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, 'We have never seen anything like this in Israel!'" To cure a person who has been ill by reason of the presence of a demon, you have to "force out" the demon. Other interpretations use the words "cast out", "drive out" or "expel". So who can do this forcing out? The Bible says "*These are the miraculous signs that will accompany believers: They will use the power and authority of my name to force demons out of people..." (Mark 16:17, GWT). The requirement for forcing demons out of a human being is believing in Jesus — that is, being born again, being filled with the Holy Spirit, absolute, undiluted faith and the use of the power and authority of the name of Jesus. Do you (or someone you know) have an ailment in your body that has defied medicine? It 'may' be caused by a demon. If it is and you force out the demon, you will receive your healing.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, I believe and therefore, I declare that there is power and authority in Your mighty name.
2. I recognize that as a born again Christian, filled with the Holy Ghost and with absolute faith, I have the divine right and power to force out any demon from anyone including myself. Therefore, I am going to exercise my divine right today, in the name of Jesus.

3. Any demonic spirit that may be in me and that is administering the manifestation of disease in my body, listen to me; your time is up, in the name of Jesus.

4. You foul spirit of disease and infirmity, I bind you with fetters of fire that can never break. I command you: Come out of my life now, by the fire of the Holy Ghost! in the name of Jesus.

5. Evil spirit of darkness, I decree and declare that my life is not your candidate. Therefore, by the power vested in me as a believer and by the power and authority in the name of Jesus, I force you out now! I force you out of my life now! Go out! Go out! Go out! and never return forever, in the name of Jesus.

6. Jehovah Rapha, my healer, let any organ of my body and every system of my body that has been damaged by the presence of any demonic spirit in my life, receive total and complete healing now, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You heavenly Father for curing me and for delivering me, this morning, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: If any sickness or disease in your body is caused by a demon, by reason of your prayers this morning, that disease shall be cured and shall never again return, in the name of Jesus.

June 4

"When Pentecost, the fiftieth day after Passover, came, all the believers were together in one place. Suddenly, a sound like a violently blowing wind came from the sky and filled the whole house where they were staying. Tongues that looked like fire appeared to them. The tongues arranged themselves so that one came to rest on each believer. All the believers were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak." — Acts 2:1-4 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Consider the following scriptures:

1. Joel 2:28 (KJV) "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions."
2. Jeremiah 31:33 (KJV) "But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people."

You see, Pentecost was originally celebrated as the "feast of weeks" by the Jews. This feast commemorates the giving of the Law to Moses on Mount Sinai. Remember that this law governed the conduct of the children of Israel. However, in Jeremiah 31:33, the Lord said, a day was coming when the law will be in the inward parts and it will be written in the hearts of the people. Jeremiah 31:33 as well as Joel 2:28 both came to pass on the day of Pentecost. With the release of the Holy Spirit into the world on that day, any human being who becomes born again and becomes filled with the Holy Ghost will have God's law in his/her inward parts and written in his/her heart. If you yield to the Spirit of God, you will live in accordance with God's plan and purpose for your destiny. As you may have read many times in Command the Morning, the presence of the Holy Spirit in your life will make it possible for you to manifest the fruit of the Spirit [love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control]. Further, it will make you eligible to get one or more of His gifts [word of wisdom, word of knowledge, faith, healings, working of miracles, prophecy, discerning of spirits, different kinds of tongues and interpretation of tongues]. The fruit of the Spirit allows you to live peaceably with all men and to bring honor to God the Father whereas the gifts of the Spirit allow you to do great exploits and to win souls into God's Kingdom. Most importantly, the presence of the Holy Spirit of God in your life is a living witness or assurance to the fact that when the end comes, either by death or by rapture, you will make heaven. Never let the pentecostal fire go down in your life. Let it burn in you forever and ever!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. This morning, Holy One of Israel, fill me afresh with Your precious Holy Spirit, in the name of Jesus.
2. Father God, my life is completely available for Your use, let me live according to Your will and Your way for my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. O Lord, I need _____ (particular fruit of the Spirit you need). Holy Spirit, cause me to bear the fruit of _____ (particular fruit of the Spirit you need) in my life, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each fruit that you want manifested in your life]
4. Most High, I desire the gift of _____ (gift of the Spirit you desire). Holy Spirit, give me the gift of _____ (gift of the Spirit you desire), in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each gift of the Spirit that you desire]
5. My God, let the manifestation of the fruit of the Spirit in my life help me to live in peace with people around me and to bring honor to Your holy name, in the name of Jesus.
6. Almighty Father, let the gift of the Spirit in my life help me to do exploits and through those exploits, draw people into Your Kingdom, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Mighty Father for answering my prayers and for the witness and assurance that I have by reason of the Holy Ghost who is in me, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Receive the fresh baptism of the Holy Spirit. And may your life always bear the fruit of the Spirit. May you also be blessed with the gifts of the Spirit that you desire, in the name of Jesus.

June 5

"He (Abraham) looked up and noticed three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he ran to meet them and welcomed them, bowing low to the ground... Then one of them said, 'I will return to you about this time next year, and your wife, Sarah, will have a son!' Sarah was listening to this conversation from the tent. Abraham and Sarah were both very old by this time, and Sarah was long past the age of having children. So she laughed silently to herself and said, 'How could a worn-out woman like me enjoy such pleasure, especially when my master—my husband—is also so old?'"

Genesis 18:2,10-12 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Abraham and Sarah, his wife had been waiting for a son for a very long time. While God had directly communicated the promise of a child to Abraham [and he was still keeping hope alive], Sarah, on the other hand, had lost all hope of ever being a mother. This is why when the angel of the Lord told her she would bear a son within twelve months, she laughed. To her, it did not seem realistic, especially considering her age and her husband's. But God is an expert in bringing about the "unrealistic". Remember that things like the sun, the moon, the stars, sunrise and sunset, seasons, pregnancy, man, woman, children, growing old, etc., were all imagined and created by the Almighty. We the creatures are bound by the laws of creation. Yes. However, the person who made all things—the Almighty—is not bound by the things He made! God can prevent the sun from setting if there is a pertinent reason to do so [He has done it before]. God can cause a woman who has never had sexual intercourse to deliver a child [He has done it before]. God can cause an old woman and man with worn-out reproductive organs to make babies. There is nothing God cannot do. Again, God cannot be bound by the laws of life that He Himself created! Do you want to receive a word from God that will cause you to laugh in amusement? Do you want to hear something concerning you that defies the laws of nature? If yes, do what Abraham did. Become absolutely and totally obedient to the word of God. Move toward God and the maker of the universe will move toward you and surprise you, big-time!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. King of kings, this morning, I declare my total obedience to Your word, in the name of Jesus.

2. Lord of lords, search my heart and You will find that my commitment to You and to Your word is total.

3. My God, as with Abraham, I ask You today to cause great interactions between You and I to begin to occur, in the name of Jesus.

4. Now Lord I ask, as with Sarah, let me receive a promise from You that will defy the realities of my present situation and meet my long-awaited needs, in the name of Jesus.

5. O my God, let me receive a word from You concerning my future that will cause me to laugh in divine amusement, in the name of Jesus.

6. Specifically, Father, I put before You the issue of _____ (your important need). Give me a sure word that will meet this need in my life, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for as many important needs as you have].

7. Thank You Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God give you a word that will cause you to laugh and may he bring it to pass in your life, in the name of Jesus.

June 6

"When the people [instead of trusting God] say to you, 'Consult the mediums [who try to talk to the dead] and the soothsayers who chirp and whisper and mutter,' should not a people consult their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? [Direct those people] to the law and to the testimony! If their teachings are not in accord with this word, it is because they have no dawn. They [who consult mediums and soothsayers] will pass through the land deeply distressed and hungry, and when they are hungry, they will become enraged and will curse their king and their God as they look upward. Then they will look to the earth, they will see only distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and they will be driven away into darkness and overwhelming night." — Isaiah 8:19-22 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In 1 Samuel 28, the Bible reveals to us that after the death of Samuel, the Philistine army came against Israel. Since the prophet was dead and Saul had been cut off from the Almighty, he decided to turn to a medium in a place called Endor. What Saul did was very funny. In his mind, he rationalized the fact that he was going to a medium as not too bad since he was actually going there to consult with the spirit of Samuel—a holy man—regarding the approaching enemy. In any case, instead of any cheering news from "Samuel", what he got was a verdict of certain death—which was to occur within the next 24 hours! This unfortunate event is akin to what today's scripture is telling us. Do not consult mediums, fortunetellers or soothsayers. Do not consult the dead over the affairs of your life. Instead consult your God. Why? Because what they will tell you will not be in accordance with the word and will of God, since these people have no light in them. To consult these people is to end up in distress, frustration, anguish and illegitimate rage that will cause you to commit sin against God. This is actually the plan of the enemy. Once a person does this, just like Saul, he or she will then be driven away into darkness and eternal sorrow. If you need spiritual help, seek the face of God. As you can see, any other option is NOT an option.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father in heaven, I irreversibly weld myself to You. Do not ever allow me let go of You in my life, in the name of Jesus.

2. My Lord and Savior, if I am passing through a tough situation in my life and anyone suggests to me that I should consult a medium, a fortuneteller, soothsayer, fetish priest or witchdoctor, regarding that situation, let that voice be silenced forever, in the name of Jesus.

3. Since I will never visit a medium, a fortuneteller, soothsayer, fetish priest or witchdoctor, the satanic anointing that they carry will never be transferred into my life. Instead, everyday of my life I will be filled with a renewed anointing of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.

4. Since I will never consult a fortuneteller, soothsayer, fetish priest or witchdoctor, I decree and declare that I will never live a life of distress, hunger, anguish or illegitimate rage. Instead, I will live a life of joy, abundance, wellness and peace with God, in the name of Jesus.

5. Since I will never consult a fortuneteller, soothsayer, fetish priest or witchdoctor, I will never know what it means to be driven away into eternal darkness and an overwhelming night. Instead, my days on this earth will be filled with the brightness of the shining of God's glory. And the presence of the Holy Spirit in me will be a witness and an assurance of a glorious eternity, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Father, since I will never consult a fortuneteller, soothsayer, fetish priest or witchdoctor, therefore, according to Your word, I cast all my cares and burdens unto You. Take care of me. Save me and sustain me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never cross over to the side and may you never suffer the consequences of doing so, in the name of Jesus.

June 7

"He went on his way through towns and villages, teaching and journeying toward Jerusalem. And someone said to him, 'Lord, will those who are saved be few?' And he said to them, 'Strive to enter through the narrow door. For many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once the master of the house has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us,' then he will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' But he will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of evil!' In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God but you yourselves cast out. And people will come from east and west, and from north and south, and recline at table in the kingdom of God. And behold, some are last who will be first, and some are first who will be last.'" — Luke 13:22-30 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Yes, we have a destiny to fulfill on the earth. However, we also have an eternal destiny. While life on earth is fleeting, lasting only a few decades, eternity is forever. Do your best to succeed on the earth BUT strive with everything you've got to enter into heaven. In Matthew 8:5-13, Jesus praised the Centurion for his great faith and then he said "people will come from the east and the west, and will take their places at the feast with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven." In today's scripture, Jesus is again repeating that statement but He has expanded it here by adding two more 'recruitment' directions—"north and south". This statement means that even if you are a Jew, as He was, and you ate and drank with Jesus and you listened to His teachings live, you have not met the requirements for making heaven. In the same vein, "My father is a preacher", "I am an altar boy", "I work for the so and so charity", etc., all these are not requirements for entry into heaven. Anyone [including gentiles], who has never seen Christ but who refuses to "work evil" and who believes His word and DOES IT and who strives each day to honor Him, will go into heaven. Such a person will not be thrust out into a place of weeping or gnashing of teeth. By the time the "Master of the House" rises up to shut "the door of life", this category of people would not need to stand outside, knock at the door and face eternal rejection. Why? Because they would have already been inside with the Almighty, with His angels and with other saints forever and ever. Would you like to be within the doors of the house when the master of the house shuts the eternal door? Get yourself ready for prayers!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Messiah, give me the grace to do whatever it takes to strive to enter through the narrow door so that my eternity with You can be guaranteed, in the name of Jesus.
2. O my God, today, shake off from my hands, any work of evil that I am currently engaged in that might block me from making heaven, in the name of Jesus.
3. When people are gathered from all over the world—east, west, north and south—to recline at the feast table with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the prophets of the living God, I will not be missing. I will be right there at that table, on my own seat, in the name of Jesus.
4. By the time the Master of the House rises up to shut the door of life, I would have already made it inside, in the name of Jesus.
5. I declare this morning, I will never know or understand what it means to weep eternally or to gnash my teeth eternally. This will be so because I will never be thrust out or shut out from the Kingdom of heaven, in the name of Jesus.
6. One again O God, help me fulfill my destiny on the earth AND help me to do whatever it takes to forsake my evil ways and works, to always believe Your word, to do Your word and to honor You so that I can make heaven, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You King of kings for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the grace for worthy striving be released upon your life today, in the name of Jesus.

"The LORD advises those who fear him. He reveals to them the intent of His promise." — Psalm 25:14 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Imagine getting advice directly from the Almighty and receiving revelations from Him regarding the intent of His promises for your life. If you are currently in a situation in which you need divine guidance, today is your day.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Most High God, today, I need Your advice and Your divine revelation so that I can take the right step and go in the right direction. Give ear to my prayers this morning and answer me, in the name of Jesus.

2. Father Lord, Your word today says You advise those who fear You. Your word also says that to fear You is to hate evil, pride and arrogance, evil behavior and perverse speech. I hate these things. Therefore Lord, since Your fear is in my heart, enroll me amongst those whom You advise and reveal Your intent to, in the name of Jesus

3. My Father, I want to _____ (your important career crossroads) in my career. Advise me and reveal to me what I should do, in the name of Jesus.
[Repeat this prayer for each career decision you are about to make]

4. My Father, I want to _____ (your important relationship crossroads) in my relationship. Advise me and reveal to me what I should do, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each relationship decision you are about to make]

5. My Father, I want to _____ (your important spiritual crossroads) in my spiritual life. Advise me and reveal to me what I should do, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each spiritual decision you are about to make]

6. Lord Almighty, whenever I reach any crossroads in life, appear for my sake to advice me and to reveal unto me what I should do so that my life can glorify

You, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O Lord for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you become a recipient of heavenly advice and divine revelations, in the name of Jesus.

"Brothers and sisters, I encourage all of you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to agree with each other and not to split into opposing groups. I want you to be united in your understanding and opinions." — 1 Corinthians 1:10 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Hebrews 10:25 (GWT), the Bible says "We should not stop gathering together with other believers, as some of you are doing. Instead, we must continue to encourage each other even more as we see the day of the Lord coming."

However, sometimes, in these gatherings, disagreements do take place. In today's scripture, Apostle Paul was specifically addressing disagreements at this church where people were setting up camps saying "I follow Paul" or "I follow Apollos", etc. Disagreements are inevitable BUT as children of God, we must learn to come to agreement based on what the word of God actually says. If you are in a church and an argument ensues, you should try as much as people to let the group you are in go to the scriptures to see what they actually say regarding that matter. The word of God is the standard. It is the word of God that will cause unity of understanding and of opinions amongst Christians. That said, if after you have all seen from God's word what the truth is and someone or persons want to keep maintaining opposite groups, leave them alone. As far as your own stance is in line with the pure word of God, you have satisfied your conscience and you will be in peace.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My King and my God, according to Your word, I have decided not to neglect gathering with other believers. Therefore, whatever situation arises at such a gathering, I am ready to see to it, in the name of Jesus.

2. Most High, anytime disagreements occur at _____ (name of your church or group), make me a voice of reason there, in the name of Jesus.

3. Heavenly Father, anytime disagreements occur at _____ (name of your church or group), use me and let the words of my mouth bring calm to the storm, in the name of Jesus.

4. Precious God, because Your word is our standard, whenever disagreements occur at _____ (name of your church or group), give me the ability to be able to point my brothers and sisters to Your word, in the name of Jesus.

5. Everlasting Father, whenever there is a disagreement at _____ (name of your church or group), let the reading of Your word concerning that disagreement bring about a unity of understanding and opinions, amongst the brethren, that will settle the disagreement, in the name of Jesus.

6. If there be anyone at _____ (name of your church or group), consumed by the flesh, who upon reading Your word, decides to continue to disagree and argue, Father, let Your Holy Spirit in me cause an explosion of self-control in my own life so I can control my words and my actions and so that I can leave that person to their own devices, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Great God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the Almighty use you as an agent of unity in your church or Christian group, in the name of Jesus.

June 10

"And when I began to speak, the Holy Spirit came down on them just as on us at the beginning. Then I remembered what the Lord had said: 'John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit.' It is clear that God gave those Gentiles the same gift that he gave us when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ; who was I, then, to try to stop God!' When they heard this, they stopped their criticism and praised God, saying, 'Then God has given to the Gentiles also the opportunity to repent and live!'" — Acts 11:15-18 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Even though Jesus had told His disciplines to "go into all the world and preach the gospel unto every creature.", it appears, in the early days of the Church, they did not fully grasp what that meant. Some Jewish believers had heard that Peter visited with a gentile named Cornelius and his family. They also heard that he ate with this man and his family. Therefore, according to their Jewish understanding of relations between Jews and gentiles, they began to criticize Peter. First, Peter revealed to them that God told him in a vision not to call anything He had created unclean. Second, when messengers from the gentile came to pick him up from the house he was staying, the Holy Spirit told him to go with them. Finally, as evidence that his mission to the gentile was God-ordained, Cornelius and his family were filled with the Holy Ghost as Peter preached to them. With the explanations provided by Peter, the criticisms of Peter stopped and they started instead to praise God. These events were significant updates to the knowledge of the early Christians and they were a great turning point for the spread of Christianity around the world. Now, a preacher, in the present time, can have gaps in understanding and therefore he or she might fashion out doctrines for their members based on these knowledge gaps. But when a doctrine is brought under the scrutiny of the word of God and it is glaring that the doctrine has no biblical basis, just as with Peter and the brethren who initially criticized him, the preacher should drop that doctrine and embrace the actual word of God concerning that doctrine. If, upon seeing that a doctrine has no biblical basis, the pastor still persists in maintaining that doctrine, as you will be living in error, you should probably leave that church and find a church that is in full accord with God's word. You are called to serve God and not a pastor.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Everlasting Father, let Your divine wisdom guide my spiritual leaders and pastors, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord, give my ministers, teachers and preachers the grace to continually search the scriptures in order to dig out gems which I might not have the opportunity to dig out myself, in the name of Jesus.
3. Father God, protect my pastors from the spirit of error, in the name of Jesus.
4. Mighty God, rescue my pastors and leaders from the spirit of arrogance, in the name of Jesus.
5. Lord of lords, whenever a doctrine, which has been set up by my pastors, is found to be out of step with Your word, let them have the humility to strike out that erroneous doctrine and embrace the truth, in the name of Jesus.
6. If it ever happens that my leaders and pastors, by reason of the flesh, refuse to embrace the truth and continue to adhere to a false doctrine, O God, relocate me to where the spiritual roots of my destiny can be planted, so I can have access to Your pure word, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the mercy of God never depart from your pastors and spiritual leaders. And may you never live under an umbrella of false doctrines and a misguided destiny, in the name of Jesus.

June 11

"Take these words of mine to heart and keep them in mind. Write them down, tie them around your wrist, and wear them as headbands as a reminder. Teach them to your children, and talk about them when you're at home or away, when you lie down or get up. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates." — Deuteronomy 11:13-25 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture advises us to take the word of God to heart and to keep them in mind. It then goes on to suggest the best ways of achieving this. The question is why? Why is it so necessary to memorize God's word? The answer lies in the blessings which are attached to the instruction. Consider the following associated blessings:

1. The Lord will send rain on your land at the right time, both in the fall and in the spring. (verse 14)
2. You will gather your own grain, new wine, and olive oil. (verse 14)
3. The Lord will provide grass in the fields for your animals, and you will be able to eat all you want. (verse 15)
4. You and your children will live for a long time in this land that the Lord swore to give to your ancestors—as long as there's a sky above the earth. (verse 21)
5. The Lord will force your enemies out of your way. (verse 23)
6. You will take possession of the land belonging to people taller and stronger than you. (verse 23)
7. The Lord will give you every place on which you set foot. (verse 24)
8. No one will be able to stop you. God will make your enemies terrified of you wherever you go in this land. (verse 25)

All you have to do is to take God's word to heart, keep them in your mind and do them and the modern equivalent of all these blessings will manifest in your life. Do you want these blessings? If yes, get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Yahweh, my maker, I have decided to do all I can to take Your word to heart, to keep them in my mind and to do them. Give me the fortitude to consistently carry out what I have resolved, in the name of Jesus.

2. O Lord God of heaven, send rain on my land at the right time so that I can gather my own grain, new wine and olive oil, in the name of Jesus.

3. O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, provide grass in the fields for my animals and make it possible for me to be able to eat anything I want, which will glorify you, in the name of Jesus.

4. Everlasting Father, let me and my children live for a long time in the land that You have provided for us—as long as there is a sky above the earth, in the name of Jesus.

5. Answer me O Lord and according to Your word, force my enemies out of my way. Any enemy, be they mightier than I am, shall bow to Your power in my life, in the name of Jesus.

6. O Lord, my strength and my fortress, let no one be able to stop me. Let no one be able to block the fulfillment of my destiny. Let me go forth and possess my possessions, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May all these blessings manifest in your life even as you take the word of the Lord to heart, keep them in your mind and carry them out, in the name of Jesus.

"On that night the king could not sleep; so he ordered that the book of records and memorable deeds, the chronicles, be brought, and they were read before the king. It was found written there how Mordecai had reported that Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who were doorkeepers, had planned to attack King Ahasuerus (Xerxes). The king said, 'What honor or distinction has been given Mordecai for this?' Then the king's servants who attended him said, 'Nothing has been done for him.'" —
Esther 6:1-3 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Mordecai was a Jew living in Persia. However, despite being a foreigner, he had an important job in the palace of the king of Persia. While working there, he uncovered a plot to assassinate king Xerxes and exposed the would-be murderers. This deed was written in what was called the book of records or the "book of memorable deeds". [This seems to suggest that not all deeds are memorable]. Without a doubt, Mordecai must have at least wondered why nothing had been done for him all the while. But he didn't have to wait too long to find out. When the right time came for him to be remembered, the Almighty swung into action for his sake. God introduced divine insomnia into the king, so that he could not sleep. Next, God inspired the king to, of all things in the world, call for the book of memorable deeds to be read, that night. As the readers read the memorable deeds, no other deed by any other person caused the king to halt the reading except that of Mordecai. Next, the Almighty inspired the king to seek a honor or distinction for Mordecai. But why were all these events taking place that night? The answer lies in Esther 6:4 (AMP) which says "So the king said, 'Who is in the court?' Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the king's palace to ask the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows which he had prepared for him." The Almighty set these events in motion in order to preserve the life of Mordecai from his Persian enemy, Haman. Can you imagine? While people were sleeping in their homes, Haman had come to the palace that night to discuss how to hang Haman. Unfortunately for Haman, with the mood of the king that night regarding Mordecai, no talk of his death could ever be entertained. Not only that, the king asked Haman "What is to be done for the man whom the king desires to honor?" Haman provided an elaborate and lavish answer thinking it was him the king was referring to. He was then commanded by the king to "quickly" carry out his proposal for Mordecai's sake. What a moment! The man who was coming to the king with a proposal of death for a person was commanded to execute a proposal of honor and distinction for that same person. All of these sequences that the Lord set in motion for Mordecai can also be set in motion for you as well. If you desire to do memorable deeds, which can never be forgotten, which are worthy of honor and distinction and which have sufficient power to save you from the grip of disgrace and death, today is your day to let God put the process in motion for your life.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Eternal God, let doing good deeds for people become an integral part of my character from today, in the name of Jesus.
2. Almighty God, let these deeds become seeds that will yield amazing fruits for me in the future, in the name of Jesus.
3. Let the good deeds that I do for people cause them to record these deeds in their physical or mental book of memorable deeds, in the name of Jesus.
4. As with Mordecai, whenever my entire life or the progress of my life is at stake, Father, introduce divine insomnia into the relevant people whom I have helped in times past. Let them lie awake until they bring out their book of memorable deeds and locate the good that I have done for them, in the name of Jesus.
5. Let my good deeds that they remember and the honor and distinction attached carry enough power to nullify the urgent need and want of my life, in the name of Jesus.
6. This morning, O God, I specially ask that, any man or woman who has made it their profession to be my enemy and who is planning evil against me, shall be compelled to suggest my promotion and shall be shamefully compelled to carry out their suggestion for my own benefit and advantage, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You O God for answering my prayer and for the assurance that I have in my spirit that this sequence of events shall manifest in my life just as they manifested for Mordecai, in the name of Jesus.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the good deeds you do, one day become instruments of divine rescue for you. And may your enemies receive irredeemable disgrace, in the name of Jesus.

June 13

"Peter went with them, and when he arrived he was taken upstairs to the room. All the widows stood around him, crying and showing him the robes and other clothing that Dorcas had made while she was still with them.

Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, 'Tabitha, get up.' She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up. He took her by the hand and helped her to her feet. Then he called for the believers, especially the widows, and presented her to them alive. This became known all over Joppa, and many people believed in the Lord." — Acts 9:39-42 (NIV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

A good woman, who helped the poor fell sick and died. Her name was Dorcas. Fortunately, Peter was in a nearby town and so the believers in Dorcas' town sent for him. And this is where today's scripture takes off. When Peter arrived, he met widows crying and creating a pathetic scene. For the purposes for which he was summoned, crying would do no good. In fact, crying was a distraction. Of all of Christ's disciples, Peter understood the power of distraction. When Jesus walked on water and He bid Peter to come join him, distraction ruined the experience for Peter. In Matthew 14:27-31 (AMP), the Bible says "But immediately He spoke to them, saying, 'Take courage, it is I! Do not be afraid!' Peter replied to Him, 'Lord, if it is [really] You, command me to come to You on the water.' He said, 'Come!' So Peter got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward Jesus. But when he saw [the effects of] the wind, he was frightened, and he began to sink, and he cried out, 'Lord, save me!' Immediately Jesus extended His hand and caught him, saying to him, 'O you of little faith, why did you doubt?'" The same way the wind distracted Peter and affected his faith, the crying of the widows had the power to also deleteriously affect his faith and his ability to raise Dorcas up from her deathbed. This was why he had to send out all the crying widows and by doing this, he removed his distractions. Further, he appears to have learned this "distraction expulsion" technique from Jesus Himself. Jesus was also once invited to pray for a girl who had died. When he got there, people were also weeping and wailing. But when He informed them that the dead girl was only sleeping, the same people who were weeping and wailing began to laugh at him. So here's what Jesus did: "They laughed and laughed at him. But when he had driven all of them outside, he took the child's father and mother, along with the men who were with him, and went into the room where the child was. He took her by the hand and told her, 'Talitha kum,' which means, 'Young lady, I tell you, get up!' The young lady got up at once and started to walk. She was twelve years old. Instantly they were overcome with astonishment." (Mark 5:38-42, ISV) So, distractions to your faith can come from the blowing wind, the cries of people or their laughter and mockery or anything else. Whenever you encounter these distractions, you have no option but to do as Peter and Jesus did, that is, put them all out. Once the distractions are gone, you can focus your faith to bring about the results you desire.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Father Lord, I am ready to do exploits for You in my generation, make total and full use of my life, in the name of Jesus.
2. Holy Spirit of the living God, let faith that can move mountains, well up from within me and begin to work for me, in the name of Jesus.
3. Any distraction battling against my faith and which has arisen from environmental sorrow and discouragement, my life is not your candidate, I drive you out of my life now, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any distraction battling against my faith and which has arisen from environmental mockery and shame, my life is not your candidate, I drive you out of my life now, in the name of Jesus.
5. Any distraction battling against my faith and which has arisen from any kind of negative pressure, my life is not your candidate, I drive you out of my life now, in the name of Jesus.
6. I declare that henceforth, whenever I am required to achieve results, no distraction of any sort will have the capacity to overpower my faith, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you have the fortitude to always put out your distractions so that they lose their power to attack your faith, in the name of Jesus.

June 14

"He (Goliath) stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, 'Why have you come out to draw up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not servants of Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. If he is able to fight with me and kill me, then we will be your servants. But if I prevail against him and kill him, then you shall be our servants and serve us.' And the Philistine said, 'I defy the ranks of Israel this day. Give me a man, that we may fight together.' When Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and greatly afraid." — 1 Samuel 17:8-11 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Yesterday, we examined how an environment of sorrow, weeping, wailing, laughter, mockery or negative pressure can cause distractions and make one's faith ineffectual. Today, we are continuing a little further by examining very briefly the power of negative words on one's faith. Goliath, the mighty giant of the Philistines came out each day for several days and shouted at the Israelites. And anytime he did this, his words caused the king of Israel and his entire army to be dismayed and greatly afraid. If you want to do something that requires faith, you cannot afford to listen to words that are the opposite of that which you hope to achieve. If you are an athlete for example, and you want to win a competition and your major competitor keeps shouting "you will lose", "you are a loser", "you will fail", "I will defeat you", etc., and you accept those words into your spirit, they could break down your faith and shatter your confidence. However, if instead of the negativity, your coach, teammates, fans and family members keep telling you "you are a winner", "you will win", "you have done before and you will surely do it again", "no one can beat you", "you are better than the best", etc., those words can spur you on to defeat your rivals and obtain victory. This is why, unlike Saul and his soldiers, who had been overexposed to Goliath's railings, when David arrived the scene, with a different mindset and fresh thoughts of victory in his spirit, he had no reservations that he would kill the Philistine giant. And he did. Today is your day to cast out all the words of negativity that have been battling against your life and to replace them with words that will build up your faith so you can do exploits.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. You my enemy speaking negative words into my heart, I command you to be silenced forever, in the name of Jesus.
2. Any satanic generator of negativity working inside of me and generating words of discouragement and failure against my life, be destroyed by fire, in the name of Jesus.
3. You the negative words that have been spoken to me by someone else in the past and that have sowed the seeds of doubt in my heart, I command you to lose your power over my life now. You the evil seeds of doubt, I uproot you and I set you ablaze, in the name of Jesus.
4. You the negative words that I have spoken to myself in the past and which have succeeded in paralyzing my faith, lose your hold over my life and release me forever, in the name of Jesus.
5. Henceforth, the words that I will allow myself to hear and meditate upon will be the words that are in agreement with the word of God and with my faith, in the name of Jesus.
6. As these positive words begin to sow the seed of faith in my heart, O God, cause me to do exploits for You in my generation and let these exploits have significant impact even on generations yet unborn, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Almighty God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the soil of your heart never again receive the seeds of negative words and may the seeds of the positive words that you receive grow to become great faith in you, in the name of Jesus.

June 15

"While working with the Jews, I live like a Jew in order to win them; and even though I myself am not subject to the Law of Moses, I live as though I were when working with those who are, in order to win them. In the same way, when working with Gentiles, I live like a Gentile, outside the Jewish Law, in order to win Gentiles. This does not mean that I don't obey God's law; I am really under Christ's law. Among the weak in faith I become weak like one of them, in order to win them. So I become all things to all people, that I may save some of them by whatever means are possible. All this I do for the gospel's sake, in order to share in its blessings." — 1 Corinthians 9:20-23 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

A diplomat is a person appointed by a government to carry out official negotiations and to maintain relations with other countries. If not attached to a government, a diplomat is a person who the know-how and skill in managing peculiar situations and people. What the Apostle Paul describes in today's scripture is spiritual diplomacy and anyone who carries it out is a spiritual diplomat. If you are interested in winning souls, you have to be diplomatic and flexible. Privately, you are resolute, highly determined and unrepentant. However, publicly, you can be as the apostle has described. If you do decide to be a spiritual diplomat, never forget why you are doing what you are doing — to win souls to God's kingdom and as Paul says, in order for you to share in the blessings of the gospel.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Messiah, Your word says that "He that winneth souls is wise." Make me wise, in the name of Jesus.
2. O Lord, give me the traits that allow for an unrepentant interior but a flexible exterior, in the name of Jesus.
3. As with Apostle Paul, Holy Spirit, teach me the spiritual fine art of spiritual diplomacy, so that I can use it to win souls, in the name of Jesus.

4. My Father and my God, give me the grace to become all things to all people so that I can win souls into Your kingdom, in the name of Jesus.

5. As I deploy this spiritual diplomacy, O God, do not ever let me be carried away and to float away into the world, in the name of Jesus.

6. As I carry out this spiritual diplomacy and according to the words of Paul, O God, let me also share in the blessings of the gospel, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you imitate the Apostle Paul in deploying spiritual diplomacy, may you achieve even much more success than he did, in the name of Jesus.

June 16

"And He said, 'If you will give earnest heed to the voice of the LORD your God, and do what is right in His sight, and give ear to His commandments, and keep all His statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you which I have put on the Egyptians; for I, the LORD, am your healer.'" — Exodus 15:26 (NASB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

There is divine power in God to prevent diseases from taking root in our lives. But there are conditions that must be in place before this prevention can occur. Today's scripture lists four of these conditions. God is no respecter of persons, what He does for one, He will do for another, all things being equal and under the same circumstances. If you have diseases in your ancestry or family line, which have affected everyone in that line thus far, and you are next in line, you will benefit from disease-preventing prayers. Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Have mercy, O Lord. According to Your word, As I give earnest heed to Your voice, let the divine power attached to earnestly heeding Your voice, fall upon my life and prevent disease from manifesting in my life, in the name of Jesus.
2. My Lord and my God, according to Your word, as I do what is right in Your sight, let the divine power attached to doing what is right in Your sight, fall upon my life and prevent disease from manifesting in my life, in the name of Jesus.
3. My Father and my God, according to Your word, as I give ear to Your commandments, let the divine power attached to giving ear to Your commandments, fall upon my life and prevent disease from manifesting in my life, in the name of Jesus.
4. O my God, according to Your word, as I keep all Your statutes, let the divine power attached to keeping Your statutes, fall upon my life and prevent disease from manifesting in my life, in the name of Jesus.

5. Now, any "Egyptian disease" going from person to person in my environment, my life is not Your candidate. Therefore, I command you: Depart from me and never return, in the name of Jesus.

6. You _____ (ancestral / family disease) that has been passed on from one generation to another in my family and for which I am next in line, I put a stop to your progress. I declare that I am not your candidate. Fire of the Holy Ghost, descend now, enter into my body, uproot and burn to ashes every root of _____ (ancestral / family disease) there, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for each ancestral / family disease in your family]

7. Thank You Everlasting Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The diseases of the Egyptians will never find a home in your body and ancestral diseases will never enslave you, in the name of Jesus.

June 17

"Everyone must be on guard against their friends, and no one can trust their relatives; for all relatives are as deceitful as Jacob, and everyone slanders their friends. They all mislead their friends, and no one tells the truth; they have taught their tongues to lie and will not give up their sinning. They do one violent thing after another, and one deceitful act follows another." — Jeremiah 9:4-6 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture implores "everyone" to be wary of friends and relatives. If you have the fruit of the Holy Spirit in you, you will naturally relate well with everyone. So, whether to your friends, relatives, acquaintances or even strangers, you should be loving, peaceful, patient, kind, nice, gentle and you should be able to control yourself regardless of the provocation. Yet, in Matthew 10:16 (NLT), Jesus said "Look, I am sending you out as sheep among wolves. So be as shrewd as snakes and harmless as doves." Why? Part of that question has been answered in today's scripture but also consider this in addition — "Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceitfully; with his mouth each speaks peace to his neighbor, but in his heart he plans an ambush for him." (Jeremiah 9:8, ESV). So, in summary, you should be careful regarding your dealings with friends and relatives because they can be deceitful, they can slander you, they can mislead you, they can lay an ambush against you and they can do violence against you. Today's prayers give you an opportunity to address these issues in prayer.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, according to Your word, anoint me this morning with the shrewdness of a snake, in the name of Jesus.
2. Holy Spirit, detect and expose all friendly enemies amongst my friends and relatives, so that I can take necessary action, in the name of Jesus.
3. Every deception being prepared against me by my friendly enemies—friends or relatives—receive divine frustration. You shall not succeed against me and I shall never be misled by anyone, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any slander that can endanger my life, my family or my source of income and that is brewing in the heart of any of my friends or relatives against me, I command you that slander to die right now inside that heart and never see the light of day, in the name of Jesus.

5. Any satanic ambush laid against me by any friend or relative to slow my progress or to terminate my destiny, by the fire of the Holy Ghost, I command you to scatter! I decree and declare that I am unstoppable and so I am moving ahead by fire, in the name of Jesus.

6. Any violent plan that is being put together in order to harm me, by any friend or relative, receive eternal frustration and scatter! All the days of my life, I will never ever be the victim of violence in the hands of any friend or relative or any other person, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The unfriendly activities of "friends" and relatives will never prosper against you. Whatever evil is imagined against you, the opposite is what will continue to happen to you. The more they think evil against you, the more you shall be blessed, in the name of Jesus.

"Children are a gift from the Lord; they are a real blessing. The sons a man has when he is young are like arrows in a soldier's hand. Happy is the man who has many such arrows. He will never be defeated when he meets his enemies in the place of judgment." — Psalm 127:3-5 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Without your father, you will not be alive today. Being alive presents each person with a great opportunity to accomplish something great to the glory of God. This morning, you are going to use words of today's scripture to pray for your dad. But before we pray, let's take a look at two more scriptures which we will also use in prayer:

1. "Rock-solid security is found in the fear of the LORD, and within it one's children find refuge." — (Proverbs 14:26, ISV)
2. "The father of a righteous person will greatly rejoice; whoever fathers a wise son will be glad because of him." — (Proverbs 23:24, ISV)

Please read these scriptures over and over until they sink in. Then, get yourself ready for prayers!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Father God, thank You for giving me as a gift to _____ (your father's name), my father, in the name of Jesus.
2. According to Your word, O God, make me a real blessing to my father, in every way, in the name of Jesus.
3. According to Your word, O Lord, make me an arrow in the hands of my father so that whenever he meets his enemies, I will be an instrument of warfare for him and ensure that he is never defeated, in the name of Jesus.
4. My Father and my God, according to Your word, let me find refuge in You by reason of the fear which my father had for you, in the name of Jesus.
5. My Lord and my God, according to Your word, let my righteousness and faithfulness to Your word and Your will always bring my father great joy, in the name of Jesus.

6. Everlasting Father, according to Your word, bless me with wisdom from on high, so that I can become a source of constant gladness to my father, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Most High God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: It shall be well with your father and may you fulfill the good wishes [spoken and unspoken] that he always had for you, in the name of Jesus.

"After forty days Noah opened a window and sent out a raven. It did not come back, but kept flying around until the water was completely gone. Meanwhile, Noah sent out a dove to see if the water had gone down, but since the water still covered all the land, the dove did not find a place to light. It flew back to the boat, and Noah reached out and took it in. He waited another seven days and sent out the dove again. It returned to him in the evening with a fresh olive leaf in its beak. So Noah knew that the water had gone down." — Genesis 8:6-11 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

If you want to use the instrument of prayer to achieve results in this life, you need to be persistent. And except you want to follow the quick and dirty ways of the devil [with its fatal consequences], you really have no option but to persist and wait. God had already established a covenant with Noah — that He would preserve him, his wife, his sons and his daughters-in-law. Therefore, Noah knew that not only would he survive the flood, but that when it ended, his family would possess the earth. However, forty days had passed and still there was no sign of the earth or ground. No ground meant no agriculture, no food, no construction, no development, and ultimately, the cessation of life. But because of God's word, Noah knew that no matter how long it took, the ground would appear. Therefore, he kept sending the birds until a dove that he sent returned with a fresh olive leaf in its beak. In the same vein, the Bible is loaded with all kinds of promises for believers and saints who are filled with God's Spirit. However, you still need to persist in prayer in order to bring about the manifestation of what you desire per time in your life. God's word is sure. You can count on it. Therefore, never ever be discouraged. Be persistent in prayer and one day, your own dove will arrive at your window with a fresh olive leaf indicating that your prayers have been answered.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Anointing of persistence in prayer, fall upon my life today, in the name of Jesus.

2. Weeds of doubt in my heart, attempting to choke off the seeds of my faith and to waste my prayers, be roasted by the fire of the Holy Ghost, in the name of Jesus.

3. Power to pray until something happens, enter into my life now, in the name of Jesus.

4. Any flood water blocking the ground of my destiny from appearing, dry up now, in the name of Jesus.

5. My divine dove of prayer, as I send you out now, return unto me with the evidence of my answered prayers, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Father and my God, I rededicate myself to You today. As long as I live, I will never go to the devil or to any of his agents for quick fixes to the issues of my life. I will wait on You and I know that You will always come through for me, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers. Thank You because You are the only one that give blessings and You add no sorrow and thank You for being my Father, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you persist in prayer until you breakthrough, in the name of Jesus.

"Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder: the young lion and the dragon shalt thou trample under feet." — Psalm 91:13 (KJV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In 1 Samuel, when David offered himself to face Goliath, king Saul was concerned that a kid like him might die a meaningless death in the hands of the giant. But here's how David responded "Your Majesty,' David said, 'I take care of my father's sheep. Any time a lion or a bear carries off a lamb, I go after it, attack it, and rescue the lamb. And if the lion or bear turns on me, I grab it by the throat and beat it to death. I have killed lions and bears, and I will do the same to this heathen Philistine, who has defied the army of the living God.'" — (Samuel 17:34-36, GNT). Regardless of how big Goliath was, he did not have claws like a lion or a bear. Neither did he have the teeth of a wild animal. As far as David was concerned, by reason of his experience in life, Goliath was a forgone conclusion. You see that our opening scripture does not say "You might tread". No. Instead it says "Thou SHALT tread". In this life, you will face lions and young lions, adders and dragons. These are problems and challenges that will come your way. However, if you are a child of God, you will triumph over them. Further, you need these spiritual opponents because bigger challenges are coming ahead of you. Do you know that if David had not "exercised" himself with the lion and bear on his father's farm, he would never have had the courage to face, let alone kill Goliath? In the same vein, the lions and young lions, adders and dragons that you will encounter and defeat are preparing you for bigger challenges which you will also surmount because of the anointing of God that you carry.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. By the power of the Holy Ghost that is in me, any lion that comes my way, I shall tread upon you and kill you, in the name of Jesus.
2. By the power of the Holy Ghost that is in me, any adder that comes my way, I shall tread upon you and kill you, in the name of Jesus.

3. By the power of the Holy Ghost that is in me, any young lion that comes my way, I shall trample you under my feet and kill you, in the name of Jesus.

4. By the power of the Holy Ghost that is in me, any dragon that comes my way, I shall trample you under my feet and kill you, in the name of Jesus.

5. By the power of the Holy Ghost that is in me, any bear that comes my way, I shall beat you to death, in the name of Jesus.

6. Henceforth, I decree that I shall surmount all the challenges that will come my way. As it was for David, my challenges too shall become stepping stones to my promotions, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you overcome your challenges and may they prepare you for the promotions that will come your way, in the name of Jesus.

"Her husband Joseph, being a righteous man and unwilling to disgrace her, decided to divorce her secretly. After he had thought about it, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream. 'Joseph, son of David,' he said, 'don't be afraid to take Mary as your wife, because what has been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. She will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Jesus, because He is the one who will save his people from their sins.'" —
Matthew 1:19-21 (ISV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Joseph had practically married Mary. She only had to move in. However, he noticed that she was pregnant. Naturally, he must have "thought" she had been involved with someone else. Nevertheless, he wanted to quietly divorce her. And so he began to think about how he would do it. The thing here is that while the situation Joseph saw was real, the circumstances, however, did not tally with his own assumptions. Yes, she was pregnant BUT not in the way he could have ever imagined. If something drastic did not happen, Joseph was going to divorce Mary. Since the assignment of the baby Mary was carrying was so crucial, divorce was not an option. Therefore, an angel was sent to Joseph through a dream to show him the reality of the situation and to prevent him from divorcing Mary. This can be referred to as a dream of revelation. And it worked. When Joseph woke up, he did as he was told and married Mary. If someone who does not have all the facts concerning you is about to take a decision that may be against your destiny, the Almighty can project a dream of revelation unto that person that will make he or she to decide in your favor. Is someone about to make an unfavorable decision concerning your career, your marriage, your freedom, your location, etc., then call on the Lord today to deploy the dream of revelation to work in your favor.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. As with Mary, Almighty God, enroll me in the school of those who benefit from dreams of revelation, in the name of Jesus.
2. O my God, anytime someone is about to take a decision that will not favor me, arise for my sake and deploy your angel to visit that person in a dream of revelation, in the name of Jesus.

3. My Father, if someone is about to take a decision against me that is based on a misunderstanding or misinformation, arise for my sake and visit that person through a dream of divine revelation, in the name of Jesus.

4. O Lord my God, if anyone is about to take a decision against me because of a false accusation fabricated against me, arise for my sake and use the dream of revelation to expose the truth of the matter so that I can be vindicated, in the name of Jesus.

5. As with Joseph, anytime someone receives this dream of revelation concerning me, let them wake up from that dream and then decide in my favor, in the name of Jesus.

6. My Father, like Mary, let me always live a life that will honor You and that is worth defending, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Messiah for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the Almighty always come to your aid—by any means necessary—anytime you need His help, in the name of Jesus.

"Now Elijah, who was from Tishbe in Gilead, told King Ahab, 'As surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives—the God I serve—there will be no dew or rain during the next few years until I give the word!'" — 1 Kings 17:1 (NLT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

King Ahab had encouraged the growth of the worship of Baal in Israel. The Almighty was not happy about this and neither was His prophet, Elijah. Therefore, Elijah decided to lock up the heavens and prevent rain or dew from falling for a number of years in order to force the eradication of Baal worship. And according to his word, there was no dew or rain until the prophets of Baal were eradicated. Only then did Elijah release the dew and the rain. As remarkable as this sounds, do you know that, if appropriate and necessary, every Christian has the potential to repeat what Elijah did to suit their own particular circumstances? That is, you have the ability to issue commands whether for good or for bad and your words will come to pass. In Matthew 18:18 (NLT), the Bible says "I tell you the truth, whatever you forbid on earth will be forbidden in heaven, and whatever you permit on earth will be permitted in heaven." Now, you might argue and say "a thing like preventing rain from falling is only left for the prophets of old". If you thought that, you'd be wrong. The Bible says in James 5:17 (NIV) that "Elijah was a human being, even as we are. He prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three and a half years." So, as far as you are a human being, serving the same God, you are as qualified as Elijah was to achieve what he achieved. Anytime you need a situation to be a certain way, that is, different from what it currently is or anytime you want to force the manifestation of a good thing, you can issue powerful commands that can make things happen. So, what are the requirements for this? You need to be a believer in Christ in every way. That is, you must be born again and filled with the Holy Ghost. Remember that Elijah was a man filled with power. Next, according to our opening scripture, you must "serve" God. This is not the "I go to church on Sunday" kind of service BUT a deliberate, deep fellowship that includes daily communion and spiritual exchanges with the creator of the universe. Further, you must have complete faith that what you are about to ask for, you will get upon asking. Also, your reason for wanting to issue the decrees or commands must be in accordance with God's will and His word. Finally, according to James 5:17, which we saw earlier, you have to pray earnestly. This is the way to repeat the feat of Elijah in your own generation and to solve the particular challenges of your own unique circumstances.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. By reason of my faith in Jesus and the presence of the Holy Spirit in me, I declare that I have the power to forbid and to permit, in the name of Jesus.
2. According to the word of the Lord, this morning, whatsoever I forbid on earth, shall be forbidden in heaven and whatsoever I permit on earth shall be permitted in heaven, in the name of Jesus.
3. Hear me O Lord and answer my earnest prayers, this morning, in the name of Jesus.
4. You _____ (any situation you want to forbid), henceforth, I forbid you, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for as many things as you want forbidden]
5. You _____ (any situation you want to permit), henceforth, I permit you, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for as many things as you want permitted]
6. O God of heaven, as with Elijah, put a seal on my prayers this morning and let them be as I have said, in the name of Jesus.
7. Thank You Almighty God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Whatever you forbid or permit on earth shall be forbidden or permitted in heaven, in the name of Jesus.

"Don't you know that wicked people won't inherit God's kingdom? Stop deceiving yourselves! People who continue to commit sexual sins, who worship false gods, those who commit adultery, homosexuals, or thieves, those who are greedy or drunk, who use abusive language, or who rob people will not inherit God's kingdom." — 1 Corinthians 6:9-10 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

There are many layers of wickedness. If a man doesn't support his family—despite having the resources to do so—he may be regarded as a wicked person. Swindlers, armed robbers, killers, terrorists, occultic people, witches, etc. can all be regarded as wicked people, in that they harm other people. But there is another category of wickedness—which is, wickedness to yourself and rebellion against God. It is this category of wickedness that today's scripture touches upon. The passage says that people who practice all the acts listed will not inherit the kingdom of God. That is, these people will not make it into heaven. So, if you find that you are still involved in any of these acts, what do you do? The answer to that question lies in the next verse — "That's what some of you were! But you have been washed and made holy, and you have received God's approval in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God." (1 Corinthians 6:9-10, GWT). You need to be washed and made holy. Also, your changed behavior has to receive God's approval, in Jesus' name and through the Holy Spirit. Once this happens, you will be free from these sins and also receive an assurance in your spirit that you will make heaven. Since nothing is more important than where you will spend eternity, please give these prayers all you've got!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Atoning sacrifice of Jesus and the blood of Jesus, come now!, enter into my life and wash away all my sins, in the name of Jesus.
2. Any strong arm of the flesh and weakness of will in me, administering and enforcing _____ (specific sin) in my life, I command you to die, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for every sin in your life]

3. Any demonic spirit that is inside me and that is constantly compelling me to commit _____ (specific sin), by the authority and power in the name of Jesus, I command you: Come out of me now! Depart forever! in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for every sin in your life]

4. Any _____ (negative consequence) that I am currently suffering as a result of the presence of _____ (specific sin) in my life, I command you to cease to exist from today, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for consequence and every sin in your life]

5. O God, I want to be free and to be clean. Deliver me and redeem me from the hands of _____ (specific sin), in the name of Jesus. [Repeat this prayer for every sin in your life]

6. Father God, henceforth, let my behavior, my conduct, my lifestyle and my outlook honor You. Let my life receive Your divine approval through Your Holy Spirit and in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Merciful Father for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May your life receive the cleansing power of the blood of Jesus and may Christ's eternal sacrifice preserve you and save you, in the name of Jesus.

June 24

"Listen, Lemuel. Kings should not drink wine or have a craving for alcohol. When they drink, they forget the laws and ignore the rights of people in need. Alcohol is for people who are dying, for those who are in misery. Let them drink and forget their poverty and unhappiness." — Proverbs 31:4-7 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture highlights two classes of people:

1. Kings
2. Dying and miserable people.

The passage admonishes kings to stay away from drinking wine but encourages that those who are dying and miserable to drink more. Why should a king not drink? Because wine can make you forget laws. Why should a dying and miserable person drink? So that they can forget their poverty and sorrows.

Now, let's dig a little deeper:

(i) If you want to be a king and to become great in this life, you need to be sharp regarding the laws of life. The Bible says in Joshua 1:8 (ESV) "This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success." The laws of life are contained in God's word. If you study it, meditate upon the laws therein, you will prosper and have good success. However, according to our opening scripture, if you drink, you will "forget" the laws and therefore, prosperity and good success may not come.

(ii) Our opening scripture says that alcohol allows the dying and miserable forget their poverty and unhappiness. But the thing is, alcohol can also be responsible for making a person poor and unhappy in the first place — "Do not associate with those who drink too much wine, with those who eat too much meat, because both a drunk and a glutton will become poor. Drowsiness will dress a person in rags." (Proverbs 23:20-21, GWT). So, it's what is called "a futile cycle". Alcohol gets a person poor and it also makes a person forget the poverty. The cycle goes on and on until the person is destroyed. Nobody deserves to live like this.

So what is the way out? The Bible says in 1 Thessalonians 5:7-8 (NLT) "Night is the time when people sleep and drinkers get drunk. But let us who live in the light be clearheaded, protected by the armor of faith and love, and wearing as our helmet the confidence of our salvation." Though we have emphasized "alcohol" this morning, you need to be aware that anything that is addictive is also covered by this morning's exhortation. In any case, the solution is to be clearheaded. A clear head ensures that you are able to study, remember and apply God's laws. According to the word of God you've read this morning, these laws will make certain that you prosper and have good success. If you are currently battling any form of addiction, come out and "live in the light". You can use the armor of faith and your love of God to resist the suggestions and urges of evil meant to keep you in bondage. With your armor of faith and your helmet of salvation, you will obtain victory over addictions, become clearheaded, become a king [or a queen], prosper and obtain good success, in Jesus' name.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My Father, in my own generation, let me become a king, in the name of Jesus.
2. Blood of Jesus, wipe out my name from any database of drunkards and gluttons, in the name of Jesus.
3. Any strong arm of addiction to _____ (what you are addicted to), I twist you and I break you off from my life, now and forever, in the name of Jesus.
[Repeat for each substance you are addicted to]
4. Any paralyzing cloud of drowsiness hanging over my head, I clear you away now! Any rag of poverty and suffering that addiction to _____ (what you are addicted to) may have put on me, come off me now. I set you ablaze with the fire of the Holy Ghost. Burn to ashes, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for each substance you are addicted to]
5. O Lord, henceforth, let my armor of faith and love protect my destiny from the suggestions and urges of addiction to _____ (what you are addicted to), in the name of Jesus. [Repeat for each substance you are addicted to]
6. I decree and declare that I am clearheaded. Therefore, I will study, remember and apply the laws of the living God. By reason of this, I know that I will live prosper, have good success and live the life of a king, according to the word of the Lord, in the name of Jesus.

7. Lord, I thank You for the helmet of salvation that is upon my head, which gives me confidence. I am truly grateful to You for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: The Lord will deliver you from all addictions and you will prosper and enjoy good success, in the name of Jesus.

June 25

"'I am Gabriel,' the angel answered. 'I stand in the presence of God, who sent me to speak to you and tell you this good news. But you have not believed my message, which will come true at the right time. Because you have not believed, you will be unable to speak; you will remain silent until the day my promise to you comes true.'" — Luke 1:19-20 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

No one can please God or be blessed without faith. In fact, it is possible for a person to reverse a blessing coming their way and prevent it from manifesting through the words of their mouth. The Bible says in 1 Peter 3:10 (GWT) "People who want to live a full life and enjoy good days must keep their tongues from saying evil things..." An example of a good day is the day one has his or her first child. Today's scripture takes us into a scene in the life of Zechariah. He and his wife had been looking for children for decades. Now, it was time for them to have one—and not just any child. Their son was going to be the forerunner of the Son of God, Jesus Christ. So, there was no room for error. Angel Gabriel came to inform him of the good news BUT Zechariah responded with words of doubt and unbelief. If it was any other kind of child, perhaps Gabriel would have overlooked Zechariah's words and allowed he and his wife suffer the consequences. But because of the importance of this child and knowing the power of words, Gabriel had to take drastic action. He closed Zechariah's mouth so that he became unable to produce words that would negate or nullify the fulfillment of God's promise to him. With this done, God could go ahead and keep His promise without interruption. With time, his wife, Elizabeth, gave birth and he also regained his ability to speak. Have you ever received a word from the Lord either through scriptures, dreams, a still, small voice in your heart or a word from a minister? In response, have you ever said something like "this kind of thing doesn't happen to people like me" or "I think this pastor is speaking to the wrong person", "I am way past it" or "this prophet's got jokes, me?", etc. Then you may have nullified your blessing and blocked its manifestation. But you might again ask, if the message is coming from a human being, how do I know that he or she [or your mind] is for real? Well, you can ask the Lord on-demand if the message is real or not. Better yet, you should get an automatic system that detects and indicates the reality of the messenger and the message. In 1 Corinthians 12:7-11 (GWT), the Bible says "A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other. To one person the Spirit gives the ability to give wise advice; to another the same Spirit gives a message of special knowledge. The same Spirit gives great faith to another, and to someone else the one Spirit gives the gift of healing. He gives one person the power to perform miracles, and another the ability to prophesy. He gives someone else the ability to discern whether a message is from the Spirit of God or from another spirit. Still another person is given the ability to speak in unknown languages, while another is given the ability to interpret what is being said. It is the one and only Spirit who distributes all these gifts. He alone decides which gift each person should have." This gift of discernment is crucial because, amongst other things and especially in relation to today's scripture, it prevents doubt and allows you lay a claim on your blessing faster. In summary, hear, discern, believe [or reject, if not from God], receive and manifest! Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Creator of heaven and earth, forgive me for every time I may have used the words of my mouth to nullify the blessings that you sent my way, in the name of Jesus.
2. Holy Spirit of God, arise within me this morning. Give me the gift of discernment of spirits so that I can always know whether a message is from You or from an evil spirit, in the name of Jesus.
3. My God, henceforth, anytime I receive a word of blessing from scriptures, dreams, a voice in my heart, a prophetic word from a prophet or any other way, let the gift of discernment within me swing into action so I can know whether what I am hearing is from you or not, in the name of Jesus.
4. Any negative word that I have spoken in times past and that have diverted away, blocked or nullified my blessings, I nullify you this morning, in the name of Jesus.
5. You my blessings that have been diverted away or blocked or prevented from reaching me because of the words of my mouth, my life is now available for you. Return, enter into my life and begin to manifest, in the name of Jesus.
6. I declare this morning that I am not on the earth to play games. Whatever is meant for me, to be used by me during my lifetime, I will always secure and I will use it to fulfill my destiny, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Mighty God for answering all my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Henceforth, may your mouth never cause you to lose your blessings, in the name of Jesus.

"Then the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the earth and blew the breath of life into his nostrils. The man became a living being." —
Genesis 2:7 (GWT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

In Genesis 1:27 (NIV), the Bible says "So God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created them." The Bible also says "I said, 'You are 'gods'; you are all sons of the Most High.'" So, we were created in God's image and we are also gods. This means just like we have inherited certain attributes from our earthly fathers, we also carry within us certain abilities that God has. Today's scripture reveals to us the moment the first man was created. God first formed the man from the dust of the earth. However, the man was just lying there lifeless. He had all the organs in place to be a living being BUT he was not a living being. The man only came alive when the Almighty blew the breath of life through his nostrils into the life of the man and then he became a living being. In the same manner, we too have in us the ability to create. You can create a business, you can create a friendship, a relationship, a marriage, a family, a project, etc. Just as God used the dust, you can use existing materials to create whatever you want. But for that thing you have created to really take off and become a "living being", you need something that you cannot find anywhere else. And that is the "breath of life". Unlike the dust of the earth or any other existing raw material, the breath of life can only be found in God Almighty. It is not available anywhere else. If you want your business, friendship, relationships, marriage, family and projects to become living beings and to fulfill their real potential, you need to ask God to blow the breath of life into them this morning. Get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Almighty God, creator of everything that exists, I acknowledge and admit that I am created in Your image, help me to live a life worthy of You, in the name of Jesus.
2. My Father and my God, I acknowledge and admit that I am a god—descended from you—and that I have inherited from you the ability to create. Accept my thanks for this great inheritance, in the name of Jesus.

3. Lord, let everything I create in my life always honor You and bring glory to your name, in the name of Jesus.

4. Father, I bring all the relationships that I have created before You this morning. Blow the breath of life into my relationships that You have ordained so that they can come alive, in the name of Jesus.

5. Lord, I bring before You every endeavor, project or work that I have created with my hands. Let the ones that You have ordained receive Your breath of life now so that they can come alive and fulfill their potentials to the fullest, in the name of Jesus.

6. Abba Father, I commit _____ (specific things you have created) into Your hands. If it is ordained by You and acceptable unto You, blow Your breath of life into it now so that it can come alive, in the name of Jesus. [Repeat prayer for everything that you have created which needs to come alive]

7. Thank You Jehovah for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May the breath of God bring your creations to life, in the name of Jesus.

"For I have come down from heaven, not to do My will, but the will of Him who sent Me. " — John 6:38 (HCSB)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Recently, we looked at how to listen to a divine message, how to discern whether or not it is from God and how to take action—if yes, believe it, if not, reject it. We also looked briefly at how to receive a divine message into our spirits and how to wait for its manifestation by faith. But we were looking at divine messages of blessing. Today, we will be looking at divine messages or instructions of tasks. That is, a message from God telling you to "do" something specific. Our opening scripture reveals to us that, even though Jesus Christ was the Son of God, He still had His own will. Perhaps in situations such as what to eat on a daily basis, what to wear, etc., He might have exercised His own will BUT on the major themes of His life, He did not do His own will but the will of God the Father. You see, God made each and everyone of us and so He knows what's best for each one of us. If a message comes to you from God through dreams, scriptures, a word of prophecy, etc. telling you to do a certain thing, it would be best for you to leave everything else and do that thing. He understands the what, where, when, why and how of your life and if you obey Him, you will be amazed at the results. Abraham obeyed God and he received transgenerational blessings which the world is still benefiting from today. Now, God will never ask you to commit a crime or harm yourself or someone else. But even though a message doesn't appear harmful, it doesn't mean it is from God. When you get a spiritual instruction to do something, you can ask the Lord on-demand if the message is from Him or not. And as we saw recently, if you have the gift of discernment of spirits, that will be really helpful for you in deciding whether or not to proceed with the task. If you receive confirmation that the message is indeed from God, please give it all you've got and you will never ever have any cause to regret.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord God, You are my maker. You know what is best for me. This morning, I ask that for every time I have rejected Your divine instruction to carry out any task, have mercy on me and forgive me, in the name of Jesus.

2. Whenever I receive a spiritual instruction to do anything, my Father, let the gift of the Spirit of discernment in me confirm to me whether the word is from You or from another spirit, in the name of Jesus.

3. You spirit of pride and stubbornness in me that may not want to cooperate with divine instructions, I bind you and I cast you out of my life, in the name of Jesus.

4. My Lord and my God, I am ready to do Your will. Each time You give me a task, let Your grace be sufficient for me and let me do it with all my heart, in the name of Jesus.

5. Any satanic voice assigned to send me messages of destiny diversion, be silenced forever, in the name of Jesus.

6. Father, let me live a full life. Not only do I want to claim all the blessings I am eligible for in this life, let me also carry out every single divine assignment that You have for me on this earth so that I can completely fulfill my divine destiny, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You O God for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: Knowing that He knows what is best for you, may you have the fortitude to do God's will, in the name of Jesus.

"Let us seize and hold tightly the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is reliable and trustworthy and faithful [to His word]; and let us consider [thoughtfully] how we may encourage one another to love and to do good deeds, not forsaking our meeting together [as believers for worship and instruction], as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another; and all the more [faithfully] as you see the day [of Christ's return] approaching." — Hebrews 10:23-25 (AMP)

DAILY EXHORTATION

One of the ways to serve God and to be a good Christian is to not forsake attending regular meetings with other believers. The purpose is for us to encourage each other. Encouragement can come in the form of theological encouragement, which is sharing God's word and praying together so that we remain under divine cover. Encouragement can and should also take the form of love and good deeds. This is what today's scripture is saying. If a person is in need in your local fellowship, assembly or church, encouragement means you sympathize with the person. Then, you find out what the need is and as much as you can afford to, do your best to meet the need. The need might be tangible or intangible. For example, if the person needs a meal, encouragement means, through the fellowship or church, you make a meal available or you provide any amount of money you can afford for the purchase of the meal. If a person is having marriage issues, encouragement means providing counseling and prayers for that person, as much as you can afford to. You see, these activities all have blessings attached. Do them without expecting anything in return BUT know that you are fulfilling the word of God and you will never go unblessed.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Messiah, make me an instrument of encouragement to the brethren, in the name of Jesus.
2. O God, bless me with financial resources so that I can be a blessing to others with my money, in the name of Jesus.

3. My Father, give me the enlargement of coast so that I can have the time to minister to people who need a listening ear and counseling, in the name of Jesus.

4. O God, through the giving of my resources and my time in my local assembly, let me spur other people who also have resources and time to also reach out and encourage the brethren, in the name of Jesus.

5. Mighty God, let spiritual pollution through satanic attacks or the arm of flesh be far away from our local assembly so that people do not become discouraged, in the name of Jesus.

6. As with Paul, Lord, I commit my life into your hands. Give me the grace to keep under my body, and bring it into subjection so that when I have encouraged others, I myself would not be a castaway, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You Father for answering my prayers and for all the blessings attached to encouraging the brethren, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: As you do for others, the Almighty will do for you, in the name of Jesus.

"He raises up the poor from the dust; he lifts the needy from the ash heap to make them sit with princes and inherit a seat of honor..." — 1 Samuel 2:8 (ESV)

DAILY EXHORTATION

Today's scripture is an extract from the thanksgiving prayer of Hannah. Hannah was married to Elkanah. Hannah was barren. It is possible that her barrenness was the reason her husband married a second wife—Peninnah. Peninnah gave birth to sons and daughters. She also became a thorn in Hannah's flesh, taunting her day and night until she was driven to tears. Hannah decided to take the matter of her greatest need to the Lord. And the Lord answered her. However, this was no ordinary answer because it came about by reason of a vow. Hannah vowed to God that if He gave her a son, she would dedicate him to the Lord all the days of his life. When the Lord answered her, she fulfilled her vow and gave her son, Samuel, to the Lord's service. If you have a need that has been with you for years and you want God to do something great regarding that need, you should try making a vow. If you make a vow, let it be something tangible BUT which you can actually do. Make sure that you have 100% intention of keeping the vow, otherwise nothing would happen. Then, prayerfully await God's answer. If you would like to make a vow this morning, get yourself ready!

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. My King and my God, I believe in the power of vows and I know that You honor vows. I come before You today for this reason, give ear to my prayers and consider my vow, in the name of Jesus.
2. Great Deliverer, as with Hannah, answer me and raise me up from the dust, in the name of Jesus.
3. God of Justice, as with Hannah, answer me and lift me up from the ash heap, in the name of Jesus.
4. O Lord, Faithful and True, take me from where I am now and make me a person that sits with princes, in the name of Jesus.

5. Eternal King, have mercy on me and help me so that I can inherit my own seat of honor, in the name of Jesus.

6. Lord, I _____ (your great need / problem). If you help me meet this need or solve this problem, I vow that I will _____ (make your vow here), in the name of Jesus. [Make sure that you write down this need / problem as well as the vow so you remember what you promised God when He answers you.]

7. Thank You Lord for answering for considering my vow and for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May God look unto your vow with favor and provide you with what you need, in the name of Jesus.

June 30

"No one knows, however, when that day and hour will come—neither the angels in heaven nor the Son; the Father alone knows. The coming of the Son of Man will be like what happened in the time of Noah. In the days before the flood people ate and drank, men and women married, up to the very day Noah went into the boat; yet they did not realize what was happening until the flood came and swept them all away. That is how it will be when the Son of Man comes. At that time two men will be working in a field: one will be taken away, the other will be left behind. Two women will be at a mill grinding meal: one will be taken away, the other will be left behind. Watch out, then, because you do not know what day your Lord will come." — Matthew 24:36-42 (GNT)

DAILY EXHORTATION

We are living in the last days of the earth. At any moment now, the trumpet will sound and Jesus will appear in the heavens. Will you be ready? You see, the issue is not whether or not Jesus will return. He certainly will. Your readiness is the main issue here. The Bible says in Matthew 24:13 (NASB) "But the one who endures to the end, he will be saved." The requirement for being saved is given—endurance—but when the end will come is not revealed. Today's scripture says even Jesus Christ Himself does not know when the end will come. Only God the Father does. But friend, you've got to be always ready. By keeping quiet regarding the time, God wants only the best to go into heaven. If a boss tells his staff, "I'm going for a meeting, I'll be back by 4 p.m." Because the time of his return has been stated, some workers may go out for shopping, some may sleep off, etc. To them, all is permitted as far as they are back at their desks by 4 p.m. But if the boss says "I'll be back soon", yes, some wayward workers will still leave their desks and go off BUT the workers who really care about their jobs, about their income, about their families, about paying rent and feeding, etc. will stay put. This is exactly how it is with the last days. God wants only the real believers to go into heaven. The question this morning is: Will you be ready? Will you endure till the end? With the increasing lawlessness in the world, can you endure till Jesus returns, whenever He returns? If you can, heaven is sure for you. If you cannot, think about your eternity. Things are happening. The signs of the end have almost all being fulfilled. Anytime now.

TODAY'S PRAYERS

1. Lord Jesus, my Lord and Savior, help me to endure until the end, in the name of Jesus.

2. Messiah, give me the grace and fortitude to overcome all forms of temptation and sins that will come my way throughout my journey of life, in the name of Jesus.

3. Great Redeemer, let me always live my life with the full awareness and knowledge that You will soon return to the earth, in the name of Jesus.

4. Precious Holy Spirit of God, as I live according to the Lord's word and will, constantly bear witness in my heart that I will be in heaven with the Almighty and with the saints when the trumpet sounds, in the name of Jesus.

5. You my destiny, listen to me; you were not sent here to be mired in iniquity, to perish and go to hell. You were sent here for a reason. You will fulfill that reason and you will make heaven, in the name of Jesus.

6. By the mercies of the Living God, I declare that I will endure until the end and I will be saved. When the roll is called in heaven and the Book of Life is opened, my name shall be found there, in the name of Jesus.

7. Thank You my Savior for answering my prayers, in Jesus' mighty name, amen.

If you have the need and the time, please feel free to add more prayers at this point.

Blessing: May you never miss heaven, in the name of Jesus.
