Introduction

Joyce Meyer (4th June 1943) is a Christian writer and orator. She is famous for her charismatic personality and motivating quotes. Her father Pauline Joyce Hutchison was a part of World War II, but he returned after her birth.

He was used to sexually molest her and she discussed this experience in her meetings. After her graduation from the O'Fallon Technical High School in St. Louis, she got married to a salesman. This marriage lasted for five years only and she got divorced.

She claimed that her husband was cheating on her and convinced her to steal payroll checks from her company and they use this money to enjoy vacations in California. She returned this money after several years.

After getting divorced, she frequently approached local bars before meeting Dave Meyer. He was an engineering draftsman and he married to Joyce Meyer in 7th January 1967.

She claimed that she took birth again at the age of nine and her distress drove her in deeper faith. She shares an incident when she went home on that day after his appointment at the salon and she felt that she is filled with love and high spirit.

The God called her name while she was at the bowling alley on the night. It was a crucial time for her because she thought that she was lacking any spiritual knowledge and didn't go to church and had lots of problems at that time. She was searching someone to help her along.

She had numerous thoughts in her mind and sometimes she thought that she is born to serve God and the people who want to serve God often have some many problems in their life if they think wrong and act wrong.

She often thought that if those people don't behave properly, then they need someone to hold their hand and lead them to the right path. She was a member of Savior's Lutheran Church at St. Louis.

She was leading the Bible class in a local cafeteria and become an active member of the Christian Life Center. In a few years, she was an associate pastor of the church that was a leading charismatic church in the area. She started a 15-minute radio broadcast on a regular basis on the St. Louis radio station.

She resigned from the associate pastor position in 1985 and started her own ministry named as Life in the Word. She had joined six other stations from Kanas City to Chicago. In 1993, her husband Dave started a television ministry.

She started working at WGN-TV station in Chicago and BET. She faced numerous ups and downs in her life and has wide experienced. She was ranked on 17th number in the top 25 influential evangelicals by Time Magazine. Her numerous quotes and life lessons can motivate you to achieve something good in your life.

Chapter 1 – Great Life Lessons By Joyce Meyer

The Joyce Meyer always preaches a positive message based on the Bibilic teachings and her lessons are really valuable for people. There are some significant lessons and a list of quotes by Joyce Meyer that can help you to lead your life in a positive direction:

Your Feelings and The Words of God

Every day, you have to face different decisions and you may have to give a response to various circumstances of your life. There are some decisions that are taken by God and you have to examine different circumstances and your decision will be your own choice.

Change

It will be the first circumstance that can affect your decision. Keep it in mind that everything can change except God and these changes in your life can upset you. Everything can get affected by the change circumstance, such as your body change, circumstances change, as well as desires and passion also face changes.

Some changes take place without any permission, but you can select to adapt. Always remember that adapting will not change the circumstances, but this can keep your life peaceful and enable you to enjoy changes in your life.

Thoughts are First Thing

Your thoughts are the first things to come into your mind and you have to deal with these changes. The thoughts directly come into your mind and these can affect your emotions.

Change in circumstances can make mental transitions and your emotions can be really easy to manage. If you are not ready for the change for a particular circumstance, you will get a variety of emotions about it.

Power of God’s Word

“Emotions rise up and then move out, wanting us to follow them. When I feel that, I know I need to take action." – Joyce Meyer

By following the God's word, you may not react in a particular situation. You may be able to manage your emotions instead of letting them manage you. The Joyce Meyer recommends that you should confess the words of God even if they are opposite to your feelings. These words will inherent powers to alter your feelings and increase your comfort.

You should analyze yourself to check what your response to a particular change was. Your actions should help you in mental as well as emotional transitions.

Waiting Circumstance

If you don't have patience, you may find it terrible to wait for something. It was the similar case with the Joyce Meyer because the emotional reactions were not helping things go faster.

You need to go on the road of peacefulness because common sense helps you to understand that it is difficult to rage over the parking space. After developing patience, you will not find it frustrating and hard to wait. You should analyze your behavior in this situation and how you act while you are working with someone.

Difficult People

Everyone tries to avoid difficult people because it is not easy to live with difficult people. There are lots of people around you living a stressful life. People try to do different things in a little time and have lots of responsibilities to handle. It can increase their stress and they can be really rude to others. A rude person may have lots of problems in life.

Working with the Holy Spirit

The Joyce Meyer states that there were lots of times in her life when the people asked the reason of her harsh behavior, but she didn't realize it. She was doing this after feeling the pressure and the people were not excusing her bad behavior.

She is thankful for the Word of God to help and comfort. The holy spirit can act on the words of God against the behavior of rude people.

Jesus teaches us how to respond to those who treat us well and those who do not (Luke 6:32–35).

If you are trapped in a situation that requires you to go along with rude people every day, then you are required to pray for them instead of reacting emotionally to them. Your prayers can open the door for God to help them.

It is important to learn how to live while escaping your feelings. By controlling your feelings, you will be able to live with lots of peace and joy. The Joyce Meyer encourages you to analyze the questions and search the words of God in all circumstances. The God will help you to live away from your feelings.

Life Ahead of Abuse

The Joyce Meyer was sexually, verbally and mentally abused by her father. The father did several terrible things and these things are repugnant to talk in public. She wants to share these things to help someone struggling with the similar situation.

Actual Meaning of Abuse

Abuse is a word that is often defined as misused, wasted or wrongly used. It is also defined as treating cruelly and harming things. Whenever, you cross the line made by God, you will face problems.

If you try to use a thing in another way against the actual purpose of the thing determined by God, it is called abuse. May people can relate their life story with this because this type of experience can make their life shameful, terrible and annoying.

The father of Joyce Meyer was a mean person who was trying to control her life. His behavior was unpredictable and unstable and the atmosphere of their house was filled with fear.

Everyone in the house was forced to follow his orders and he wanted to force his orders on everyone. He ate meals first and then wanted his family treat. Everything in her house was based on his moods and desires.

The Joyce was very young when the sexual abuse started because her father had decided that she was matured enough to take things to a new level. She was only 18 at that time and her father raped her at least once in a week. Before this incident, her father was a respectable figure and she thought that she could trust him to keep her safe.

Isolation and Reprehensible Feelings

She was ashamed of on this situation because she was unable to face her and even her father on this incident. She was in a constant state of fear because she had strong feelings that it couldn’t be a safe place to grow up.

This type of behavior is really damaging for a child, but people are unable to think about this because they are slaves of their own desires.

While studying, she always pretended in the school for having a normal life, but she always felt ashamed of and lonely. She felt different from others and unable to take part in any extra-curricular activity.

She had to make up fake stories to avoid these activities. For her, the love had been a perversion. Joyce’s father told her that he did something special to her because he loved her a lot.

He said that everything was good for her and she should keep it secret. It was their family problem and no one would be able to understand it. The Joyce said that “As long as I kept this secret, I couldn’t get free from the pain of it.”

Joyce wondered about the presence of God in this situation. The God was there, but he didn’t help her to take out of this situation in the childhood. He gave her strength to deal with this situation and bear the abuses of her father. Every time, she thought that no one could help her and it would not stop.

She was wrong because the God always had a plan for her life. He helps her to redeem and turns all the bad situations into good. The Joyce Meyer Quotes, “He has redeemed me.

He has taken what Satan meant for damage and twisted it into something good (Romans 8:28). He has taken away my shame and given me a double reward and recompense (Isaiah 61:7).”

Only God can Heal You

Sometimes, when you trapped in a situation, it seems impossible to come out of it, but the plans of God are really unique. The God can set your life free from all tensions and lies. The Joyce Meyer considered herself a living proof of healing and restoration by God. She advised to always pray to God without leaving hopes.

Chapter 2 – Memorable Statements of Joyce Meyer on Love and Forgiveness

Joyce Meyer has very good thoughts about love and hope. There are some interesting quotes of Joyce Meyer for you:

“Loving others always costs us something and requires effort. And you have to decide to do it on purpose. You can't wait for a feeling to motivate you.” - Joyce Meyer

“No matter what has happened to you in the past or what is going on in your life right now, it has no power to keep you from having an amazingly good future if you will walk by faith in God. God loves you! He wants you to live with victory over sin so you can possess His promises for your life today!” - Joyce Meyer

“As a global society, we do not have to agree, endorse or condone the lifestyle choices of others. However, history has taught us that we equally cannot and should not excuse those who would hide behind religion or misuse God's word to justify bigotry and persecution.” - Joyce Meyer

“We can never make ourselves better by trying... praying more or longer, studying more of the Word, performing good works, etc. Don't get me wrong... it's not bad to do any of these things. In fact, it's good. It's just that doing them in God's power is the only way those things will have any real and lasting effect in our lives.” - Joyce Meyer

“Forgiveness is not a feeling - it's a decision we make because we want to do what's right before God. It's a quality decision that won't be easy and it may take the time to get through the process, depending on the severity of the offense.” - Joyce Meyer

“You see, you are a spirit, you have a soul, and you live in a body. You have emotions, you have thoughts, you have a will, and you have a conscience. You are a complex being! And Jesus came to heal every single part of you. There's not one part that He doesn't want to make completely whole.” – Joyce Meyer

“God's grace is amazing! We're saved by grace - God's undeserved favor - and we live by grace, which is also God's power in our lives to do what we could never do in our own strength. And it's all because God is love, and He loves us unconditionally, constantly and completely.” - Joyce Meyer

“Consider a tree for a moment. As beautiful as trees are to look at, we don't see what goes on underground - as they grow roots. Trees must develop deep roots in order to grow strong and produce their beauty. But we don't see the roots. We just see and enjoy the beauty. In much the same way, what goes on inside of us is like the roots of a tree.” - Joyce Meyer

Chapter 3 – Quotes about Motivation by Joyce Meyer

“Every day is a gift from God. Learn to focus on the Giver and enjoy the gift!” – Joyce Meyer

“Motives reveal why we do what we do, which is actually more important to God than what we’re doing.” – Joyce Meyer

“Learn how to enjoy where you are on the way to where you’re going.” – Joyce Meyer

“We must guard against allowing anger to drag us into sin.” – Joyce Meyer

“Do anything you can do to keep your mind off yourself. Courage is fear that has said its prayers and decided to go forward anyway.” – Joyce Meyer

“God sometimes allows us to feel anger so we’ll recognize when we’re being mistreated. But even when we experience true injustices in our lives, we must not vent our anger in an improper way.” – Joyce Meyer

“You can suffer the pain of change or suffer remaining the way you are.” – Joyce Meyer

“Peace is one of the most precious gifts God has promised His children. I know, because for many years my life was not peaceful, and I was miserable.” – Joyce Meyer

“If you want the great and mighty things God has for you, you must get to the root of anger and deal with it. Get rid of the masks and face the things that happened in your life that made you the way you are today. Admit that you can’t change by yourself. Until the root is removed, it’ll continue to produce one bad fruit after another.” – Joyce Meyer

“Our joy does not have to be based on our circumstances.” – Joyce Meyer

“Is all anger sin? No, but some of it is. Even God Himself has righteous anger against sin, injustice, rebellion and pettiness.” – Joyce Meyer

“When you are tempted to give up, your breakthrough is probably just around the corner.” – Joyce Meyer

“God’s unconditional love is a very difficult concept for people to accept because, in the world, there's always payment for everything we receive. It's just how things work here. But God is not like people!" – Joyce Meyer

"Humble people ask for help." – Joyce Meyer

"The great thing about an attitude is that it's yours and you can change it." – Joyce Meyer

"God is good, and He cannot be anything else." – Joyce Meyer

"I think we need to get smart enough to do what's going to help us and [not] just continue to do things that are going to hurt us. It's pretty easy to read something or hear about it in a message, but it's that personal application of that where it's just you, God, and your problems, that are going to give you the power to get stronger and stronger." – Joyce Meyer

"Integrity means that you are the same in public as you are in private." – Joyce Meyer “Frustration is a sign I am acting independently. The more you try your own way, the tighter the doors will stay closed.” – Joyce Meyer

Chapter 4 – Change Your Life with Your Thoughts

You will never forgive if you wait until you feel like it. Choose to obey God and steadfastly resist the devil in his attempts to poison you with bitter thoughts. Make a quality decision to forgive, and God will heal your wounded emotions in due time. ~ Joyce Meyer

You cannot forgive without the power of the Holy Spirit. It's too hard to do on your own. If you are truly willing, God will enable you, but you must humble yourself and cry out to Him for help.

In John 20:22-23 Jesus breathed on the disciples and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit!" His next instruction was about forgiving people. Ask God to breathe the Holy Spirit on you so you can forgive those who've hurt you. ~ Joyce Meyer

Forgive quickly. The quicker you do it, the easier it is. ~ Joyce Meyer

Unforgiveness is spiritual filthiness, so get washed in the water of God's Word to forgive and stay clean. ~ Joyce Meyer

Forgiveness is not a feeling - it's a decision we make because we want to do what's right before God. ~ Joyce Meyer

I know from personal experience how damaging it can be to live with bitterness and unforgiveness. I like to say it's like taking poison and hoping your enemy will die. And it really is that harmful to us to live this way. ~ Joyce Meyer

When you make a mistake and the devil comes and tells you 'You're no good,' you don't have to take on the guilt and condemnation he wants to put on you. No! You can immediately confess your mistake to God, thank Him for forgiving you and cleansing you with the blood of Jesus, and move forward in the victory of His grace and forgiveness. ~ Joyce Meyer

Who are you helping most when you forgive the person who hurt you? Actually, you're helping yourself more than the other person. I always looked at forgiving people who hurt me as being really hard. I thought it seemed so unfair for them to receive forgiveness when I had gotten hurt. I got pain, and they got freedom without having to pay for the pain they caused. Now I realize that I'm helping myself when I choose to forgive. ~ Joyce Meyer

Do yourself a favor and forgive anyone that has anything against you. Do it as an act of faith and trust God to change and heal your emotions. Pray for your enemies and never say another unkind thing about them. It is the only way you can move past the pain and begin to heal. ~ Joyce Meyer

Forgiveness is not a one-time thing that happened the day you received Christ. It is an everyday thing, for the rest of your life. ~ Joyce Meyer

Choosing forgiveness is one of the most difficult things God asks us to do, especially if we believe that whoever hurt us is in the wrong and doesn't deserve to be forgiven. But God instructs us to practice forgiveness. And when we choose to follow the path of forgiveness, we will experience the peace and joy that come through obeying God's Word. ~ Joyce Meyer

When you forgive, you must cancel the debt. Do not spend your life paying and collecting debts. ~ Joyce Meyer

Your fellowship with God flows freely when you're willing to forgive, but it gets blocked by unforgiveness. ~ Joyce Meyer

Many people ruin their health and their lives by taking the poison of bitterness, resentment and unforgiveness. Matthew 18:23-35 tells us that if we do not forgive people, we get turned over to the torturers. ~ Joyce Meyer

Forgive God, if you are angry with Him because your life didn't turn out the way you thought it should. God is always just. There may be things you don't understand, but God loves you, and people make a serious mistake when they don't receive help from the only One who can truly help them. ~ Joyce Meyer

You may even need to forgive a situation or an object—the post office, bank, a certain store that may have cheated you, a car that always gave you trouble, etc. Get rid of all poison that comes from bitterness, resentment, and unforgiveness. ~ Joyce Meyer

Chapter 5 – Observations of Joyce Meyer on Obedience and Powder

The Christians should be obedient to God because there are numerous things to do with your own. People are not even obedient to God so they can’t be so obedient for a human.

You can do whatever you are interested in doing, but make sure to follow his plans with a smile on your face. There are some important quotes of Joyce Meyer based on her observation:

“We can never make ourselves better by trying... praying more or longer, studying more of the Word, performing good works, etc. Don't get me wrong... it's not bad to do any of these things. In fact, it's good. It's just that doing them in God's power is the only way those things will have any real and lasting effect in our lives.” - Joyce Meyer

“Obedience to God is the pathway to the life you really want to live” –Joyce Meyer

“One might say that our words are a movie screen that reveals what we have been thinking and the attitudes we have”. - Joyce Meyer

“Our faith is released as we say, pray and do the Word.” - Joyce Meyer

“Love is not talk or theory; it's action. In fact, the Bible says that we cannot be walking in love if we see a brother in need, have what it takes to meet his need, and will not do anything to help him” - Joyce Meyer

“As believers in Christ, we are part of Him-God the Father decided before the foundation of the world that anyone who loved Christ would be loved and accepted by Him.” - Joyce Meyer

“If you want the great and mighty things God has for you, you must get to the root of anger and deal with it. Get rid of the masks and face the things that happened in your life that made you the way you are today. Admit that you can’t change by yourself. Until the root is removed, it’ll continue to produce one bad fruit after another.” – Joyce Meyer

“I believe that a trusting attitude and a patient attitude go hand in hand. You see, when you let go and learn to trust God, it releases joy in your life. And when you trust God, you're able to be more patient. Patience is not just about waiting for something... it's about how you wait, or your attitude while waiting.” - Joyce Meyer

“No matter what has happened to you in the past or what is going on in your life right now, it has no power to keep you from having an amazingly good future if you will walk by faith in God. God loves you! He wants you to live with victory over sin so you can possess His promises for your life today!” - Joyce Meyer
