Chapter 1
Life Style of the Anointing ... Where Does it Come From?

There is much talk now days regarding the anointing. As the time draws closer for the return of Jesus, I believe that we will see an even greater increase of this anointing. There are several ways to increase the anointing in your life. Jesus demonstrated this and explained how to do it. In John chapter 17, while Jesus is praying to the Father, He gives his last instructions to His disciples before the crucifixion. The timing of this prayer takes place between two major events. In chapters 13 and 14, Jesus is with His disciples eating the Passover meal. Then in chapter 14 verse 31, Jesus said, "Arise, let us go hence." They were on their way to the garden to pray. It's during this time that Jesus gives His last discourse to His disciples which is recorded in chapters 15, 16 and 17. We see at the beginning of chapter 18, the Word of God tells us, ". . . he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron . . ." So the setting here is between the last supper and the garden of Gethsemane.

Jesus had begun a ministry three and one-half years earlier. He taught and trained the disciples, and now He was going to turn the whole ministry over to them. What a great responsibility the disciples had. Put yourself in the place of Jesus. Wouldn't you want to tell those closest to you who will carry on your work for hundreds of years, the most important information you could? That is just what Jesus did. His prayer to the Father is instruction to us in how to receive and increase the anointing in our lives. Without it, we would be powerless and aimless.

Jesus gives us the key to a life style of continuous anointing flowing through us.

John 17:10
All Mine are Yours, and all that are Yours belong to Me; and I AM GLORIFIED IN (THROUGH) THEM—they have done Me honor, IN THEM MY GLORY IS ACHIEVED. (Amplified Bible)

Let's look at two key words here in this verse, "them" and "glory." First of all, the word "glory" is familiar to many of us. There has been much teaching about the glory of God in these latter days. In the Old Testament, there are many examples of the glory of God filling the temple on different occasions. This was actually the presence of God manifested. In regards to the anointing, which literally means to smear or rub on, it could be said that the anointing is the presence of God manifested. Or, the anointing is the power of God manifested. Throughout the Old Testament, whenever the glory or the anointing was manifested, God's power was there and in most cases, He spoke to the people who were present. There are times in church services that we can feel and have a tangible presence of the Spirit of God manifest. Everyone there has the opportunity to experience God in a deeper way and receive a great blessing. It is during these experiences with the Holy Spirit that He is healing and setting people free. But what happens when the people go home and get back into their daily routine? Many will leave the anointing back at the church building. They then wait for another anointed service to get blessed by the presence of God. Those types of services are great and we need them, but the anointing was designed to be with us continuously, not just in church services.

The next question we ask then is, how do we increase and maintain the anointing in our daily lives. Looking back at John 17.10, the second key word is, "them." Who are "them," because the Word of God says that the glory (or the anointing) will come through them? If we can identify "them" we could tap into the source that God uses to supply us with the anointing that will bring us victory all the time. Jesus identifies "them". . . the people that the Father had given Him.

I have manifested thy name unto the men which THOU GAVEST ME out of the world: thine they were and THOU GAVEST THEM ME; and they have kept thy word.

Over and over again, Jesus said, THEM WHICH THOU GAVEST ME. In fact, fourteen times Jesus uses this phrase in one form or another in this chapter. In the first twelve verses, Jesus refers seven different times directly to "them". . . the people that God gave to Him.

The people that God gave to Jesus. He said that the anointing came to him through these people. Jesus let us know whom He was sent to.

Luke 4:18
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach ... he hath sent me to heal ...

When you are anointed to preach, you are sent to a specific people to deliver that anointed message. Jesus was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Within that group, He had many disciples. In Luke 10:1, we read that He sent out seventy. He had His twelve disciples and in that group He had His inner circle . . Peter, James and John. Then we know that Jesus died for the sins of the whole world. His anointing came as He ministered to the people that He was sent to. The more He ministered to them, the more the anointing came. Jesus lived a life style of the anointing. People hear the Gospel because someone was sent to them by God. God has a specific procedure that He has set up for this to be done.

Romans 10:13-15
13 For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

Starting from the first step of the procedure to the last, it looks like this:

God sends you
You preach (announce or declare the good news)
The people hear the good news
They believe the message
They call upon the Lord
They receive salvation

You may say, I am not a preacher. I have not been called to go out and preach. In verse 15, the scripture itself explains that the preaching is simply bringing glad tidings of good things. God puts a message in your heart and all you do is convey that message to the ones that God has given to you.

Whom has God Given to You?

In chapter seventeen of the Gospel of John, Jesus talks about being sent seven different times. We are all sent to someone. In fact, until you locate and identify the people that God has sent you to, you will not experience the anointing that God has for you on a day-to-day basis, or a life style of the anointing. You may ask, who are the people that I am sent to and how will I know them. God has many different ways of letting you know who you are sent to. He may just simply put someone on your heart. That name or face may keep coming up in your thoughts. Or you may be running into the same person over and over again. Don't push it off as just an accident or coincidence.

First of all, start praying for that person or people (John 17:9) and asking that the Holy Spirit begin to minister to them and that their hearts become receptive toward the things of the Lord. Then look for open doors to minister to them. These people may be coworkers, your neighbors, family, fellow church members, classmates, etc. The anointing that you experience as you minister will affect these people directly or indirectly. Your anointing may be in teaching a Sunday School class to children, one-on-one witnessing, working as an administrator for a ministry, volunteering as an usher or maybe even baking cakes and giving them away. Your anointing to do these things will always involve people some way. Those are the people you are sent to. The anointing that flows through you works in the same way as a spiritual gift ... it flows through you and benefits other people and blesses you in the process.

Whom has God Given to You?

In the spring of 1994, I was working in my office in Minsk. I had just moved to a new location and had spent most of the week inside doing office work. When Saturday came, I was ready to get out and was especially ready to do some ministering. So I prayed and asked God to give me someone that day to witness to. I knew I had to get out to where the people were and start looking for the open door. I decided to go down to the Language University where I knew many of the students.

When I arrived, I thought if I hung around in the lobby, that would give the Lord a good opportunity to give me a divine appointment. As I met with people and started talking with them, I wanted to share the Gospel with them, but it seemed as if there was a brick wall between us. There was no anointing there for me to witness to the people that I was meeting.

In the meantime, a young Chinese man that I had met previously came up to me and started talking to me. I tried to cut the conversation short because I didn't want to miss the one that God was going to give to me that night. I tried to talk to more of the students, but that wall was still there. And everywhere I turned, that Chinese man was right there behind me. I thought to myself, "I wish he would quit bothering me, I am trying to do the Lord's work here." Being a little perplexed, I decided to go upstairs to the dormitory floor where one of my friends had his room. I had a key to the room and as I let myself in, I noticed that the young Chinese man was still following me. We entered the room and out of the frustration of not being able to minister to anyone, I just stopped for a moment and listened to God. Suddenly I knew! I turned around and this young man was looking right at me with a big smile. He was the one. There was no brick wall, but only a powerful presence of God, "the anointing."

It was so easy, I shared the Gospel with him and within a few minutes he was born again. When you find the people that God gives you, you will find that your anointing is achieved through them. You may remember times when you were witnessing to someone when the words seemed to just flow right out of you. You may have thought, "did I say that" or "where did that come from." Thank God for the anointing!

As you are faithful to the ones God has given you, He will bring promotion. When you are faithful with one, He will give you two. When you are faithful to deliver God's message to them, then He will give you a group to minister to. When you have completed your work there, God will give you a bigger group. There are many who have been faithful over the years to people and the message that God has put in their heart and now they are sent to the nations. The key here is to complete or finish the work right where you are. This is what Jesus did.

I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

What was the work that Jesus finished? He finished telling the people that He was sent by God, that the Spirit of the Lord was upon Him, that He was anointed to preach, heal, deliver, set free and preach the acceptable year of the Lord. We need to finish the work like Jesus did and the work always involves people. These people belong to God and are people that He gives us. We are stewards of these God-given people. The church is carrying on the ministry of Jesus and we preach the same message.

He has anointed us to minister that same message. We have the same anointing and the same message of the anointing. In fact, when Jesus quoted Isaiah in Luke 4:18, He said the Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me. I believe He laid His hands on Himself and referred to His physical body. The anointing was stored up in His body. That is why people only had to touch Him or come close to Him in faith to receive some of that anointing power. Where is the anointing power that was on Jesus? It is still on His body, the body of Christ, you and I. Glory! You can lay hands on yourself right now and confess Luke 4:18 because the Holy Spirit is upon you and you are anointed.

John 17:9
1 pray for them: (the people he was sent to) I pray not for the world. But for them which thou hast given me; FOR THEY ARE THINE.

Once you have located and identified the people that you are sent to and you have prayed for them, what do you say to them? You share the Word with them; the Word that is in your heart. You don't have to get out a ten-pound Bible and start preaching. Just convey to them what God has been speaking to you in your heart. If you have listened to the message that God has been ministering to you, all you have to do is let it flow out of your heart. Then the anointing will be there and it will be like a river of water flowing out of your belly (John 7:38). You just have to be a willing vessel and allow the Holy Spirit to do the work. Be yourself in Christ and He will work through you:

Luke 18:14
... if you're content to be simply yourself, you will become more than yourself. (The Message)

For many years, I worked in the helps ministry as an interpreter for deaf people. I had a God-given desire to help this group of people. Even though I had no formal training in sign language, I quickly learned the deaf language and was used of God to convey the truth of His Word to them so they could understand it. The more I ministered to deaf people, the more anointing I experienced. There would be times that I would be interpreting a sermon at church or simply ministering to the deaf directly, when it seemed as if I had stepped to the side and someone else took over and it flowed like a river. At that point, it was no longer me doing the work, but the anointing that was working through me. I usually come back to visit and minister in the US once every year. After only one or two weeks, I start to get uneasy. I feel like a fish out of water at times. That is because my heart yearns to be with the people that God has given me. In fact, God even sends them to me in the US.

I was ministering at one church and at the close of my message, I gave an invitation for people to receive Jesus as their personal Savior. There was no response, but I knew that a member of the congregation had brought a Russian friend to the church service. This man didn't know English, so I gave an altar call in the Russian language. He came forward and became born again.

At another church, I was going door to door to minister to people and to invite them to come and hear me speak the next day. As I came from one house, I noticed a man pushing a baby stroller coming toward me. I stopped him, handed him a flier and started talking. He immediately motioned with his hands that he didn't understand English. In that neighborhood, there are many who speak Spanish, so I asked him in Spanish if he spoke that language. He shook his head and said "Paruski", which means the Russian language. His eyes got really big as I proceeded to talk to him in Russian. He was shocked that I spoke his language and knew all about his homeland. Good seeds of the Gospel were planted in him that day. If you can't get to the people that you are called to, the Lord will bring them to you. The more I minister to the ones God has given me, the more I experience the anointing and the more open doors God gives me. Every time I return to the Former USSR, step off the plane and start walking through the airport, the anointing comes all over me. It is like I am walking on air.

If you have been a Christian for very long, you can look back to a time when the Lord set you up with a divine appointment to witness to someone. I am sure you have experienced that same flow of anointing which increases as you minister to the people that He has sent you to.

This experience in walking in the anointing has become a life style for me as I work in the Former Soviet Union. As long as I stay with the people God has sent me to, the anointing is there to convey the God-given message that is in my heart. When I am faithful in a project that He has put on my heart to do, He will open doors to minister to even more people.

There are many Christians who live out their whole lives and never locate or identify the people they are sent to. They are ones who never seem to find their right place. They are never quite satisfied or experience the anointing on their lives on a continuous basis. Then there are some who know who they are sent to but are not willing to obey. It is not worth any temporal fleshly satisfaction to refuse to yield to the Holy Spirit. If you know that God has placed someone on your heart and you are not obedient, just repent and ask God for another opportunity.

He is gracious and merciful and is just waiting for you to ask. Do you want more anointing in your life? Locate those people that "God hath given you" and give them the good news.

When we learn to be quick to yield to the Holy Spirit, our lives will be so much easier.

Matthew 11:28-30
28 Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest:
29 Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls.
30 For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light. (ONLY WHEN YOU ARE IN YOUR ANOINTING).

If you don't know who God has given you, I believe you can find out right now. Close your eyes and ask God to show you who it is that He has given you to minister to at this time. He will bring to your mind and heart a name, a face or a group of people. Now start praying for them and begin to yield to the leading of the Holy Spirit. It won't be long until you have the open door to minister.

Chapter 3
Anointed Men of God

We know that the word of God tells us that Jesus was sent to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. In Luke 4:18-19, Jesus confirmed this by telling the Jews that He was sent from God, that He was anointed. He was anointed to declare that message and perform what that message said to the people that He was sent to. What would have happened if after Jesus realized that the Jewish people were not receiving His message that He decided to go to another country and to another people and not fulfill the purpose that God had for Him here on earth? Would the anointing still be there to preach the same message and perform miracles? Your anointing will manifest as you find and minister to the ones that God has sent you to.

Jesus went on in that same chapter to give two more examples.

Luke 4:25-26
25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;
26 But unto none of them was Elijah sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

Jesus said that there were many widows in Israel who needed a miracle. Why didn't Elijah move in the anointing and perform miracles for the widows of Israel? It is because God sent him to another country, to a widow from another group of people. When he was obedient and delivered the message that God gave him, the anointing or power of God was manifested.

Luke 4:27
And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

Jesus gives a second example from His message on the anointing. There were many lepers in Israel who needed someone with the anointing to heal, such as Elisha. But Elisha was sent to heal only one leper, and he was from a different country.

If you try to minister where you don't have the anointing, it will be just the effort of the flesh. A pastor is a prime example. When a person is called to be a pastor and he is at the right church at the right time, the anointing will work in him mightily. If, at some time, the Lord calls him to another congregation or group of people and he stays where he is, the anointing will be gone. His work will be only in the flesh and become hard and dry.

Peter and Paul were sent to specific groups of people through which the anointing flowed.

Galatians 2:7-9
7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;
8 (For he that WROUGHT EFFECTUALLY in

Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was MIGHTY IN ME toward the Gentiles;)
9 And when James, Cephas, and John who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.

Paul acknowledged the fact that he had been sent to the gentiles and Peter to the Jews. In verse eight, Paul said that the anointing power that Peter had in working with the Jews, worked in him the same anointed way as he ministered to the gentiles.

Moses was another example that we can look at. He did not experience that power of the anointing until he was in his God-ordained place and with the people that God had given to him. On the back side of the desert, he was powerless and out of place. The anointing was achieved when he began to minister to the Hebrews, the people that God gave him.

Chapter 4
Conductor or Insulator

The Holy Spirit at this moment is searching out people He can use and who will be willing to obey and yield to His leading.

There is a spiritual principle found in the book of Romans which I call the "Law of Yieldedness."

Romans 6:16
Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey: whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousness?

Adam and Eve, when they were tempted in the garden of Eden, had a choice of whom to yield to. It is no different with us. On a daily basis, we make decisions whether or not to yield to the Holy Spirit.

The law of electricity is the parallel law in the natural which states:

"Electricity takes the path of least resistance"

The different materials we have here on earth will either allow electricity to flow or stop it from flowing. The following are the different categories of these materials:

|---|---|
| Insulator: | High resistance; electricity doesn't flow easily. It has very few free electrons. Examples are rubber, plastic. |
| Semiconductor: | Lets some electricity flow. |
| Conductor: | Very little resistance. Has many free electrons. Electricity flows easily. Examples are iron and copper. |
| Super-conductor: | No resistance at all to the flow of electricity. |

You can ask yourself, "have I been an insulator or a conductor?" Have you yielded yourself to be used by the Holy Spirit? What the Holy Spirit is looking for are "Super Conductors" who will offer no resistance to Him at all. The Holy Spirit right now is searching throughout the whole earth looking for people who will be super conductors He can use to bring in the end-time harvest. There is nothing in the world that can compare to the joy that you experience when the anointing is flowing through you like electricity.

Chapter 5
Joy Cometh ... With the Anointing

As we read in Luke 4:18, Jesus' primary message was that the Spirit of the Lord was upon Him because He was anointed to preach the message of healing and deliverance. As the people were able to receive this message, they also received the joy that Jesus had. This joy was perfected or completed in them.

John 17:13
And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

The Amplified Bible says it even more clearly . . . that the enjoyment and gladness that Jesus had were for the people that He was sent to.

John 17:13
And now I am coming to You. I say these things while I am still in the world so that My joy may be made full and complete and perfect in them -- that they may experience MY DELIGHT FULFILLED IN THEM, THAT MY ENJOYMENT MAY BE PERFECTED IN THEIR OWN SOULS, THAT THEY MAY HAVE MY GLADNESS WITHIN THEM FILLING THEIR HEARTS. (Amplified Bible)

Jesus had the responsibility to speak the message that God gave Him to speak (that He was anointed). The joy came as a result of the message that He spoke. If you have allowed the Holy Spirit to lead you to the people that He has prepared for you, if you have spoken and conveyed the message that God put in your heart for them, then you have experienced that joy.

An example of this is found in the thirteenth chapter of Acts. In verses two and three, we see that the Holy Spirit said to separate Paul and Barnabas for the work that He had called them to do. Remember that the work always involves people. When the prophets and teachers fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on them and sent them away. When they arrived at Antioch of Pisidia, they encountered some persecution. At this point, some Christians would start to waver in their faith and wonder if they were in the right place and sent to the right people. In verse forty-seven, Paul confirms his calling to the Gentiles. Verse fifty says that they were expelled out of their coasts. Another version says that they drove them out of their boundaries. Then in verse fifty-two, the word of God tells us that they were filled with joy.

Acts 13:52
And the disciples were continually diffused (throughout their souls) WITH JOY AND THE HOLY SPIRIT. (Amplified Bible)

Why were they filled with joy? Was it because they were kicked out of the country? No. The joy came because they were obedient to the call of God to a specific group of people and gave them the message of salvation through Jesus, the one anointed of God. They consecrated themselves to the work of the Lord.

Chapter 6
Consecration ... Protecting the Anointing

The anointing is a precious thing to the saint of God. The anointing can be mistreated and abused. Therefore, we need to protect and hold the anointing as one of the most valuable assets in our lives. If we want a continuous flow of the anointing in our daily lives, we need to separate ourselves for the work that God has called us to. We see this in the Old Testament in the instructions that the Lord gave to the high priest. As New Testament believers, we are the priests of God.

Leviticus 21:10, 12
10 But he who is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the ANOINTING OIL was poured, and who is CONSECRATED TO PUT ON THE (SACRED) GARMENTS ...
11 Neither shall he go in where any dead body lies ...
12 NEITHER SHALL HE GO OUT OF THE SANCTUARY, NOR DESECRATE or make ceremonially unclean the sanctuary of his God; for the crown or CONSECRATION OF THE ANOINTING OIL of his God is upon him. I am the Lord. (Amplified Bible)

The anointing in your life is not to be used for selfish gain or to bring self-exaltation. We are to put away dead works and put on the Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 13:14).

Moses was a man full of the anointing of God. He protected that anointing by keeping himself from anything that might hinder the anointing. He built a close relationship with God, kept a humble attitude and was faithful to the work (people) that God called him to. As he did, he walked in an anointed life style.

Numbers 12:3, 7
3 Now the man Moses was VERY MEEK, above all the men which were upon the face of the earth.
7 My servant Moses ... who is FAITHFUL in all mine house.

Once you see and experience the anointing operating in a powerful way in your life, you will keep yourself consecrated for the work that God has called you to do. Don't let anything or anyone, including yourself, hinder the anointing in you. As you walk in your anointing and allow the Holy Spirit to flow through you, He will burn the chaff away and set you free from every bondage and yoke.

As the anointing flows through us on a continual basis, it will produce two vital elements that are needed for the harvest of souls. They are found in John seventeen: UNITY AND MATURITY.

John 17:22-23
22 And the GLORY which thou gavest me I have given them: that they MAY BE ONE, even as we are one:
23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made PERFECT in one ...

The manifestation of the glory of God will bring unity. And as unity continues, it will produce perfection or maturity. We can also see this in Ephesians 4:10-13. Our Lord Jesus had a glorious resurrection. From there, He gave gifts unto men for the perfecting or maturity of the saints. Then comes the unity of the faith.

Ephesians 4:10-13
10 He that descended is the same also that ASCENDED ABOVE ALL HEAVENS, that He might fill all things.
11 And He GAVE SOME (GIFTS), apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
12 For the PERFECTING OF THE SAINTS, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
13 Till we all come in the UNITY OF THE FAITH, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:

Chapter 7
Don't Miss Your Harvest

If there have been times that the Lord has given you people to minister to and you were not obedient, then just stop right now and ask for forgiveness and ask Him to give you another opportunity. Then if you want to maintain a life style of the anointing, you need to ask God who are the ones that He has given to you. Go to them and start giving what you have seen and heard from Jesus. Then watch the anointing increase in you through the ones He has given you. There may be some sacrifices involved to get yourself into position for more of the anointing, but it will be worth it. Press in and then protect it with everything you have. God has a harvest waiting just for you.

We are in the end times. This is the time of the latter rain of the Holy Spirit. He is being poured out on all flesh and bringing in the final harvest. We are the vessels that He will use to bring it in. Then shall the end come.

Matthew 24:14
And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

As we near the end of this age, I believe the work of the Lord will intensify and be expedited. The harvest of souls will increase greatly and become much easier to bring in.

Amos 9:13

Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

The harvest is ripe and ready to be brought in. We will no sooner plant a seed of the Gospel into someone and they will get saved! Find your place. Find your people and live in a Life Style of the Anointing.

Prayer to Receive Salvation

You need to ask yourself a question. If you would die today, where would you go? Would you spend eternity in heaven with Jesus who loves you or in a place the Bible calls "hell" which was made for the devil and his followers?

If you had to hesitate and think about where you would spend eternity, I want to invite you to pray a prayer from your heart that will assure you of your eternal home in heaven with Jesus.

Heavenly Father, I pray to you right now in the name of your son, Jesus, the anointed one. Your Word says in Romans 3:23 that all people have sinned and have come short of your glory. I now confess that I have sinned, and ask that you forgive me. I open the door of my heart and ask Jesus to come in and be the Lord of my life, (Revelations 3:20). According to Romans 10:9-10, I believe that God raised Jesus from the dead and now confess Him as my Lord and Savior. I commit my life to Him and will live for Him all of my life. I also ask you, Father, that you would fill me with your spirit and help me live the life that you want me to live. Thank You, Lord! Amen.

Welcome to the family of God. You are now a born again Christian. Now you need to grow in your new life in Jesus. You grow by reading your Bible every day, sharing with other people about your experience of having Jesus in your heart, by praying every day, finding a good church to attend and continually seeking a deeper relationship with Jesus.

God is pouring out His spirit upon all flesh all around the world. He is calling and stirring up saints everywhere to find their position in the body of Christ and start doing their part in this great end-time harvest of souls. When you find that place, the anointing power of God will flow through you daily. It can become a life style . . . "Life Style of the Anointing".

Since 1994, Jim Harper has been a resident missionary to the former Soviet Union. A few of his activities include: ministering in churches and Bible schools; presenting the Gospel to public schools and conducting home groups.

Jim is the founder and president of the International Christian Interpreter Association (ICIA). This is a professional group of Christians who work together to unify and help standardize the field of ministry interpreters. They uphold a strict code of Christian ethics for interpreters and are dedicated to assisting ministers in delivering the anointed message of the Gospel. In conjunction with the ICIA, Jim Harper Ministries conducts intensive short-term Bible schools for interpreters. These schools are held several times each year in different countries in the Former USSR. The students who attend these schools are trained in Bible principles, doctrine and proper procedures of interpreting the Gospel message for ministers. Many students testify that the school is a life-changing experience for them. These dedicated interpreters are the vital link in spreading the Gospel around the world.
