

Our Eternal Building

Our eternal building, do pardon me, I'll be writing little on this by the help of the holy spirit.

When we talk eternal building, the first thing that comes to the mind of many is; " our heavenly mansion," well that's right, but still, it is not all completely right, there is more to heaven than mansions, even the heavenly mansions we talk about many won't have it or they'll have so little of lesser glory when they get to heaven, because they were living mainly for their flesh.

That situation, that trial, God allowed you to go through was not for you to use Him and dump Him when the solution comes, it was a design by the spirit to cause you to cling even more and to walk in alignment with the holy ghost, so you can journey even deeper in God through your prayers of intimacy and the word in other for God to reveal His eternal purpose concerning you written before the dawn of creation, not for demanding bread. Many Christians seem to have failed here, and so they've lost greatly in eternity for living as a living sacrifice.

Today, when many are faced with trials, they run to men of God in other for God to get rid of it, and surely He'll, but know that you've lost your purpose on earth already, if you keep aborting trials either through servants of God or your own way or if you keep dwelling on them without growing even more spiritually.

We are God's building, in eternity everything is fixed, but in other for God to build His kingdom (us) in eternity, He had to place us in the realm of time to invest unto eternity. Our lives lived in sacrifice is what makes us part of God's eternal building. How much you sacrifice to die to flesh so you can be immersed in life " God's word," and also your consistent life of ceaseless prayers, not for bread but God's will, which is intimacy, will determine how much you'll be built in God's kingdom.

[1 Corinthians 3:9]

" For we are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building."

[1 Peter 2:5]

" you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ."

It's unfortunate how a great multitude of Christians seems to be ensnared in a deception by the evil one through the things of the world preoccupying them thereby hindering them from building in eternity, but rather in the flesh. We're God's building, and as we feed more on God's life (His word), when we pray the will of God ceaselessly, and more importantly incorporating a life of death for the advancement of God's kingdom, we then become an eternal building.

How much do you die to self? How much do you spend to be renewed to become more glorious and of higher rankings in eternity? We all will not be the same in eternity, God is just and He'll reward everyone in accordance to how much life he lived through death. If you decide to live like a foolish virgin, if you decide to live a life of laziness, attending too much to the things of the world thereby giving little of your lifetime to God, then your eternal building, will be of little value or of no value at all. Paul would say;

[2 Corinthians 4:16-18]

" For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal."

Many Christians don't want to adopt the way of death. Nevertheless, you should know the word and prayers are merely the basis every child of God should live on in order to be built in eternity, they are just the basis that ushers us and also continues to propel us as we die daily to self for life and authority to be birthed, so that through our death, the kingdom of God shall be advanced and built, as we walk in our ordination predestined before the dawn of creation.

We must see that beyond death at the cross lies not only salvation but also a death to self which births the glory of God in our inner man, making us functionaries of the kingdom in order to walk our eternity purpose on earth. If you stop at salvation at the cross, if live a life to gain only from Jesus but not what you can do for Him, then you're a selfishness Christian. There is more to be held, a death to self to meet the need of God, the advance of his kingdom.

In that realm of eternity, you'll find men of different glory, men in greater dimensions of glory, and a great multitude at the lowest rankings of lesser glory, because they were too busy focused on the world, what to eat and drink, and less on spiritual affairs and of the kingdom.

Many fail to recognize, that the devil has many strategies. If he fails to pull you to sin, he'll try to engross you in worldliness, eating away your time, making you focus more on flesh, and then you begin to pray less, spend less time in God's word, let's not even get to forsaking all to live as a sacrifice, walking in the ordination God has sent you here on earth for. When you venture into eternity, then you'll realize at the judgement, you've wasted your life on Earth. Earth is a realm of time and time is a factor of investment unto eternity, I'm sorry I'm telling you this now that it's already too late, but I've been saying it times without number.

Men will be judged, (not sinners) in accordance to how we lived we harnessed for the kingdom through death. Will you be judged in your selfishness to die the flesh, will you be judged in your prayerlessness, word life, fruits of the spirit, whatever aspect. Then you'll know that all we do while in the flesh has an effect in God's Kingdom, you'll know that your prayerlessness was what resulted in a decline in what God wanted to achieve in his kingdom, even if you fail to achieve it, He'll give your minas to someone else and achieve it. Then, also you'll know that Christians still fight against the kingdom of God by failing to fight for the kingdom and so Jesus said;
[Matthew 24:48-51]

" But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

" That evil servant " is not a sinner, he's a Christian living only for himself. And also " the place of weeping and gnashing if teeth " isn't hell but rather a place of the lowest rankings in the kingdom of heaven.

Your prayerlessness have resulted in the death of many God would have saved, but because you wanted to satisfy flesh and you think all we do is get to heaven and everybody will be rewarded same, get a rest and a mansion. Every child of God will enter into heaven, but not too many will be part of the new Jerusalem in heaven, not the one to descend on the new earth, but in Heaven, I'll leave you with that mystery.

He that is wise will build with the little time he has, well it's too late already, times up already. You've always known you were to build, but you ignored the holy spirit, you pray only when there's problem, you don't pray the will of the Father, neither to you spend time in the word to be filled with His spirit so He can dominate your being and use you as He wills for His kingdom. You don't know this, because you purposely failed to know the realities of how the kingdom works.

This was written not as a judgement, but to stir our hearts by the holy spirit to return back to where we've fallen. Know that this is not about you it is about a kingdom, God's kingdom, His government.
