Participle adjectives: -ed and -ing adjectives

Interesting , interested , boring , bored, shocking , shocked , confusing , confused , etc.

-ing ending describes something. Has active meaning.

E.g. The lesson was interesting.

The film was not enjoyable; it was boring.

-ed ending describes the effect that thing has up on you. Has a Passive meaning.

E.g. we were interested in what we were doing.

I didn't enjoy the film. I was bored by it.

Choose the best answer from the given options

1. I was ____to hear that I had done well in the test.

A. astonishing B. astonishment C. astonished D.very astonish

2. I don't think that is _____at all.

A. astonishing B. astonishment C. astonished D.very astonish

3. The history of the walls of Harar is _____.

A. fascinated B.fascinating C. fascination D.fascinate

4. I am always_____after athletes.

A. tire B.tiring C.tired D. tiresome

5. I am going to be tour guide! It is fantastic! I am reall ____about it.

A. exciting B.excited C.excitement D.excite

6. The news was absolutely ....., so I was .....by it.

A. astonishing....astonished

B. astonishing....astonishing

C. astonished.....astonished

D. astonishment.....astonish

7. The instructions were ..... ; everyone was ..... by it.

A. confusing....confused

B. confused....confusing

C. confuse.....confusing

D. confusing.....more confusing