Is it a possibility to be a minister without tears and sadness? Listen to the man God used to build the largest Church in Europe over an 8-year period. From 7 people in 1994, the Embassy of God grew to 20,000 people in the city of Kiev, Ukraine. At the same time, the Church planted more than 300 churches in more than 15 countries of the world. However, the Sunday pastor Adelaja, the senior pastor of the Embassy of God says he is without tears. Read the secret of this success in this incredible book, which is a necessity to read for all God's ministers everywhere. - Back cover Sale! 2,500.00 1,300.00 Yes, it is possible to be a minister without tears. Learn from Pastor Adelaja's Sunday experience of how God used it to build Europe's largest church in a few years. God does not call you to be a priest, who worries, suffers and cries. He calls you to fulfill whatever He has called you by His grace, with gratitude. God did not call you to be agitated about His work, to worry, and to worry about Him. He called you to be his colleague, his colleague! The church does not belong to the pastor; belongs to Jesus Christ. The mistake that many people make is that they use God to build a ministry for themselves; they use the name of Jesus to build a church for themselves. When a man takes upon himself what is God's responsibility, thus trying to take his place, he destroys it. As you rest, God Himself solves your problems for you. Nothing can happen to you unless God allows you to. More than anything else in the whole world, God does not want to worry about Him. Only when you are in extreme situations, the qualities of your spiritual, inner man become evident. The primary duty of the servants is to obey God, following the Holy Ghost to obey all that He instructs them to do. Success in the Ministry is a reality. The first stage of any development is childhood. To understand the principles of spiritual growth, you must be full of God's understanding and wisdom. Growth is an absolute necessity, if be a pastor without tears. No matter what stage you are in your ministry, you must always continue to grow, otherwise you will begin to die spiritually. No matter how great your wealth of knowledge may be, it's still When you lose something and God allows it to happen, it simply means that he wants to give you something much better. If you are not led and guided by the Holy Ghost, you will never be successful in your service. If you encourage love to grow, then it will protect you from all kinds of internal problems. To be successful in a ministry, you need the wisdom, the wisdom of God. Wisdom is a supernatural understanding of a situation from God's point of view. God always ups the humble. If you live by the grace of God and constantly recognize His grace in your life, then your weakness turns to strength. The ministry without worry. It is a privilege to serve God. Above all, God's service is joy and happiness! The most important task each pastor has is to involve all church members in a kind of service. This should be one of its main priorities. God's service brings us to a place of great honor. Putting people into service helps them find their calling and place in the body of Christ. God wants every member of the Body of Christ to be a blessing to one another; therefore, everyone must be involved in a ministry. We want to bring God's presence to the people, but we forget in this process that only God Himself is able to do that. Throw all the problems and troubles that people come to you with Him, and you can relax and stay healthy. Devote yourself to knowing Him better, then you will grow into that righteousness that is within you, in peace, in joy, and God will take care of other people and solve their problems. If you have truly given your burden to God, then soon your service will bring you great joy! No matter where you are, you must find an opportunity to renew your power in the Lord so that your problems do not affect your joy, peace, and rest. He wants us to have a service that respects God's rest. A ministry that is not a burden... We shouldn't take other people's problems and put them on ourselves. We should guide the people with Jesus' problems. Serving a pastor is not a service you should ever do on your own if it is to be placed in the temple of the Lord, which He Himself is our Sabbath. Don't be impatient for God. Deterrence comes when the things you expected to see in your ministry don't happen. Even if you have nothing left, be proud of your relationship with God. What we receive from God always seems to be too little for us; we have the impression that He is not answering us. But in fact, God always answers our prayers. God has taken you, saved you, and redeemed you, not only because He needs you, but because this present generation, too, need you. You represent hope for a few thousand people. The devil is attacking you today because you have a future. He wants to destroy you precisely for this reason, because he is afraid of your future deeds and deeds. Like the knowledge of God God more importantto you, you will no longer think about discouragement and persecution; you won't worry anymore. Start relying on God for everything, waiting and hoping to receive only His acclamation. Glorify Him and consecrate yourself to him again. Let God build. A person who knows spiritual principles will walk with confidence in God's path to accomplish what God has already planned to do. There are many people in the world who are running after vanity. They strive for things the Lord does not build. We must not only pray, but rather ask God about His desires and plans. This is the prayer of inquiry. If you are subject to God and do so what He has already created and built in the spiritual realm, then God's creative power will make your work easier, and only then will the things you build be long-lasting, capable of enduring the test of time. The secret to Jesus' successful life and service was certainly that He spoke frequently with God and always followed His counsel. Not only pray, but reach out in prayer to understand God's plan, revelation, and His vision for your life. God always gives grace to the person who knows how to humiliate himself before Him and who puts his hopes on H God gives grace only to humble people. Learn to wait for the Lord! This will help you walk your path in life in the power and glory of God. Get a word of revelation that reveals the prototype or image you need to be able to perceive and understand how to build your life and what direction to take. Success is guaranteed every time you get a glimpse at God's prototype, and see what God is building. You just have to follow him. Your attitude towards the little things. A lot depends on the little things. Jesus preached to the multitudes of thousands and hundreds of thousands of people, to make only twelve of them in His disciples. He had time to work with each individual. People who want to get everything all at once usually don't get anything in life. If you go deeper into the details of your calling, to learn new things about it, seeking wisdom and understanding from God on it, this in itself will make you successful. He who cultivates his land will be satisfied with bread. God is quite capable of sending you a million people today, but tomorrow you will all leave again unless you have a system of administration, structure, management, order and organization in your church. Start focusing your attention on the people God puts you with, even if they hate you, even if they persecute you and talk bad things about you. Work with them and pray for them! You have to learn to extract valuable things from things that seem totally worthless. God will something bigger after you have proved yourself faithful in the little things. You have to learn to account for everything, even the things you think insignificant. Responsibility is proof of your integrity, while disorder is parallel to theft. God watches over every little thing we have and our attitude toward the thin, He wants you to have a sense of order and be responsible. Pastoring or Hiring. A good shepherd has a positive influence on his people through his inner work, i.e. working on them from within. A true pastor will always show respect for people. A good shepherd always gives people the freedom to choose; he does not set conditions or use any kind of pretext to restrict people. This shepherd resembles Jesus and people won't even want to leave him. You have to become a ladder that other people climb in their path to success. If you are not prepared for this, then you are not ready to be pastors. A true pastor - a good shepherd - is always concerned with the personal development of each individual in his or her church. A good pastor knows how to trust people and give them the authority to perform all kinds of tasks. He tries to make himself unnoticed and useless. Don't be indispensable! A good shepherd encourages and inspires everyone who works with him. By the upheaundering others, you will be recognized as a true leader and pastor. A good shepherd rejoices when he sees those below him progress. A true pastor is always open to speaking through and discussing things and making joint decisions. Only a true pastor and a true leader will be looking for ways to train and equip his people to develop their potential. A true pastor is always in tune with the hearts of his people. A devout pastor thinks of others first, before thinking about himself. Your motivation. The main motivation for every pastor should be to serve God and the people. You shouldn't fast just to get the anointing. That's not going to be very effective. Fasting is rather a means of basing yourself for the service of God and man. If you can only hold back on yourself, so did Jesus, then you will be a happy priest. The more you strive to help others succeed, the faster you become successful yourself. By helping to build other people's lives, you build your own. The problems of your church members must become your problems. It must be your heart's desire to tell the world about God's love, His sacrifice, and our salvation. Don't look for popularity or self-assertion; just show people the love and mercy of God, and help them prosper and succeed. Simply serve God. You have to work on it. You must meditate on the Word of God, which in itself will change you and transform you into the image and character of God. and the transformation of a nation, country or city can only take place if there is the first renewal and transformation of the individual. A church of quality and quantity. Prayer must be fervent, intensive, passionate and heartfelt. If you want to get results, results, You have to pray a lot. You must pray with passion, with ardor, with all your heart. But so the quantity earns respect and honor for a church, it is of quality, which provides a church with certainty and protection. When God lives in a person, the color of his skin is not relevant; It's not the most important thing anymore. The main thing is that God lives in a person; then people will see the glory of God shining on. You have to work on quality in your church, because the people who are influential in your city can be God's tools for solving all kinds of problems that will surely arise in the future. If you want to have a large and powerful church, then you must build a wall of prayer defense in the spiritual realm. The pastor's team. You have to create your own strong people, because without them you won't be able to achieve anything. The person who does not have deputies or assistants has no future. God needs people like this in the church who will do deeds in the midst of their own generation. Make a decision to perform something great, something that requires skill, something special for the Kingdom of God. God needs brave men to conquer not only one nation, but the whole world! If you chang on your life, you'll lose it. But if you give it to God, He will begin to use you. Be prepared to die for yourself and give up everything for the sake of the gospel, even give up the most precious thing you have, your life. You will never become a strong man of God unless you give everything you have for the Lord. No one can truly become a leader, unless he has done deeds for God. It is possible to rise to spiritual heights in the Kingdom of God only if you are fully exercising. You will never become of any significance to God, unless you give everything you need to perform some extraordinary works for Him. God called us to serve and anointed us to serve Him and not ourselves. All who wish to perform God's work and His service in their lives must know how to wait patiently, to wait for God. Only when He appears can success be guaranteed. It is not possible for a person who has one-on-one fellowship with God, someone who breaks through prayer and knows how to wait for God not to be openly successful. It's just not possible!. God didn't call you as a failure. He called you to be successful. Most of the time it is this fear of losing people and this attempt to keep people in the church, which provokes pastors to neglect the search for the presence of God. The friend you're with makes you the friend you are! We, as pastors, as servants of God, must have priority. Only then will we be successful in the ministry. When will come in His fulness, then our service will become easy, it will be a blessing and a pleasure, not a burden and a burden. Spending time alone with God gives us victory over the body. There are a third blessing that comes from time alone with God. When we spend time alone with Him, it releases all god's potential, His power, grace, and anointing, all of which are so essential to doing work for the Kingdom of God. There is only one thing that can guarantee that we have a long-term service—namely the ability to isolate ourselves from all the unnecessary agitation and external pressure, and to unite our spirits with Him, with the Lord who loves us and delights us to bless us. Your service will only stand while you learn to spend time alone with Him, who is Himself the Author of your ministry. Called and anointed. Anointing is what allows us to work without having to make any special effort. Anointing is what overcomes any difficulty that we would assault, that we, in our power and with our own abilities, would normally not be able to cope. When God's anointing is upon a person, it changes that individual from being a small person accustomed to being a giant. He thinks that anointing God will find a way - even if you yourself don't see that there is a way. The Anointing of the Lord will show the way—regardless of the age, situation, or country in which you may live. Anointing will free up help, anointing will free up resources, anointing will free up your finances, anointing will free the people you need to stand next to you. Don't expect a harvest if you haven't sown anything! God loves people who work hard, who always do something. He helps the perpetrators. It's time for you to pray, and there's time for you to fight! God asks us to give ourselves fully to His ministry and to do everything to the full. Going forward and only. God set it all up; He has everything set and instead of making us successful. He knows that if our life will progress, we must move on, and not go back. God gave man an undeserved ability to do what he had planned to do. In the eyes of God, everyone can be successful to some extent, proportional to what he has received from God. The Bible is instruction, it is light, it is the Word of God, which predicts future events, warns of dangers and keeps us back from falling and being hurt. The deeper you enter the Word of God, the more light you will receive for your life, and the wiser you will be in your actions. God is concerned that you are making progress, that you are continuing to move forward. All you have to do is understand and do His will. A pastor is a servant. Your success in life is determined by the extent to which you can humiliate yourself to serve others. Serving others is a great honor in the spiritual realm. Right from the beginning, we were born into a world where ego reigns, but when we came to God and received the new birth, we entered world in which love reigns. If you give people happiness, then the happiness it will never end, but it will fill you incessantly. Do good deeds and serve the people, because no one is too unimportant not to be served by you. The less you obey the Word of God, the more you distance yourself from God in the spiritual realm. People respect those who know how to admit their own mistakes and see their own weaknesses. If your heart is as transparent as the crystal, people will respect you. Don't be a shallow person. Do everything with zealous devotion, so you would do it for Christ. If you have sown in love and tried to do everything as Jesus Christ, then you will reap happiness and joy and be able to enjoy the Lord's eternal presence in everything you put your hand and do. The organizational structure of the Church. If you want to work with people, then you need to know how to manage yourself, which is to organize and lead them. If you want to have a well-ordered church, then you have to become well-ordered. The main thing is to learn to pray regularly, to do it systematically. Wisdom is knowledge applied correctly. Therefore, you should acquire knowledge! With each call comes the anointing that you need to be able to stand firm in situations that you will have to face. God calls each person. He said that a man and his wife were one body, but not a single spirit. God is able to truly use a person who puts everything he has entered into his work, who works hard, sweating his courage to the point of complete exhaustion, using the last of his power. If you're still not dead for other people's opinions, and it's important for you not to offend anyone, then you haven't even started serving. Administration and order are essential for your ministry. They are a step forward to be a success. Success in the ministry depends on having orders in everything. Serving the supernatural. Change comes from a process of trial and wilderness experiences, problems and difficulties - it's a process of transition from one level of quality to another. Only when you are gentle and humble can you find rest for your soul and be a pastor without tears. The key to being a successful pastor is to be able to serve the supernatural, to be a fearless pastor, in his learning, learning from His life. When we learn about Him, we see the things we do wrong, we see what needs to be corrected in our way of thinking and in our way of life. The best and only way to serve the supernatural is to be bound to Jesus, just by making you His servant, walking in His ways and imitating Him. Let him change you!. The person who understands that God is the only one who builds becomes His lover. And for this kind of pastor God will give you sleep. When someone has learned to serve the supernatural, he will always in joy, in peace and in rest; he will live righteously, for he knows that it is the Lord who builds all things, and and Man. The only key to these large-scale successes in God's work and the amazing results you see in the ministries of God's anointed people was their ability to hear and be obedient to God's voice.
