INTRODUCTION

IF YOU WANT TO DO GREAT THINGS, GO PLACES, OVERCOME ADVERSITY, BECOME ESTABLISHED AND FULFILL YOUR OWN UNIQUE DESTINY THROUGHOUT THE YEAR 2016, THIS IS A UNIQUE BOOK THAT WILL HELP YOU.

Pray Your Way Into 2016: Powerful Prayers To Unleash Your Destiny Throughout The Year 2016 is the most comprehensive annual prayer guide available to anyone seeking to fulfill purpose in 2016. This is not a year-to-year crossover book BUT a power-packed destiny establishment guide for the year 2016 and beyond.

If you have any pending blessing within 2015, this book will show you how to recover it so that you can use it to build the foundation of your destiny in 2016 and forever. If evil wants to carry itself over in your life from 2015 or previous years into 2016, this book shows you how to halt it in its tracks.

Pray your way into 2016 by John Miller also shows you the divine way to open the spiritual gates of the year 2016 so that you can enter and prosper within it. The eternal principles of sowing and reaping are properly explained as are the principles of spiritual, mental and physical establishment.

The prayer points in this book, if prayed with concentrated faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, provide sufficient spiritual power to win victory for you in all your endeavors throughout the year 2016.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

This book can be used at anytime during the year 2016. However, it is recommended that you use it seven days before the year 2016 and also at least every two months in the year 2016.

This book is designed to be used over a period of seven days. Thus, there are seven chapters in this book, with each chapter corresponding to one day. The following are the titles for each day:

- DAY 1: Prayers For The Release of Your Pending Blessings
- DAY 2: Prayers Against Evil Carry Over Into 2016
- DAY 3: Prayers To Address The Gates of the Year 2016
- DAY 4: Prayers For Each Month of the Year 2016
- DAY 5: Prayers For Spiritual Establishment in 2016
- DAY 6: Prayers For Mental Establishment in 2016
- DAY 7: Prayers For Your Health & Well-being in 2016

Please note that fasting is not required to start or complete this prayer program. However, it is better if you do fast as it can enhance the answers to your prayers. The Bible is filled with several examples that confirm the powerful link between fasting and answered prayers.

If decide to fast, at a minimum, you should wait till lunch time for each of the seven days before breaking your fast. During your fast, read the teachings for each day until you master them and also do the other spiritual exercises for that day. At lunch time, find a quiet place where you can do your prayers without being disturbed. After your prayers, you can proceed to break your fast with light food and drink. If you are led to, you can fast for longer. But you should not begin the fasting program and then stop midway.

The Lord will be your shepherd throughout the year 2016 and therefore you shall never want for anything – tangible or intangible.

God bless you.

Your friend-in-Christ,
John Miller

FOUNDATION

John 3:16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." If you have not yet given your life to Jesus Christ, the prayers in this book will not work for you. The good news is that becoming born again is very simple. Simply read the words below within your mind, making sure to do this with full faith and belief in Jesus Christ. Thereafter, read these words out loud like a declaration or an acknowledgment of what you believe:

“Lord Jesus, I believe that you are the Son of God. I believe that God sent you to the earth and gave you up to die for my sins. I also believe that God raised you from the dead. Today, I give my life to you for you to become the Lord of it. All my thoughts and deeds, I lay plain before you to be totally responsible for. You have said in your word that if I open the door of my life, you will come in. I open my heart to you and I invite you in to come and become the Lord of my life. Thank you for accepting me and giving me the assurance of eternal life.”

With those words spoken in your spirit and confessed with your mouth, you have given your life to Jesus Christ according to Romans 10:10 which says "For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved."

You are now what is known as a born-again christian with full rights to the benefits of the kingdom of God.

DAY 1

PRAYERS FOR THE RELEASE OF YOUR PENDING BLESSINGS

"And Isaac sowed in that land and reaped in the same year a hundredfold. The Lord blessed him, and the man became rich, and gained more and more until he became very wealthy."
(Genesis 26:12-13)

Isaac sowed and in that same year, he reaped a hundredfold. The blessing that manifested upon his life in that year was, according to scripture, the foundation that initially made him rich and allowed him going forward to gain more and more until he became very wealthy. If Isaac had sown and there was no harvest, he would have become the victim of a pending blessing and his destiny would have lacked a solid foundation – which translates to a lifetime of problems. The blessing you seek or need may not be material wealth, it could be anything else but as you have seen with Isaac, blessings can determine the foundation of your entire life. Therefore you must never allow them to remain hanging within a passing or past year because you might need them to fulfill and advance your destiny in the new year and for the rest of your life. Day 1 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is devoted to the issue of the release of your blessings that might still be hanging within the year 2015.

WHAT IS A BLESSING & WHY DO YOU NEED IT?

To use a contemporary analogy, a blessing is akin to divine software that is downloaded into a person's life, which then goes to work in and around that person for their good. It can mark the difference between a good life and a lifetime of frustration. A blessing is originally a goodwill desire or intention for someone's well-being that can be transferred into the person's life in a number of ways including through prayer, as a human or spiritual gift and by divine transformation. It can be bestowed on a person as a matter of entitlement, eligibility or as a matter of unmerited grace. A blessing can have a specific purpose producing a single result or it might be many-sided and therefore manifest in a variety of positive ways in the life of the recipient. A person can be a recipient of a single blessing or of several. Blessings can come from a person – usually an authority figure – and it can also come directly from the Almighty Himself.

a) Blessings through Prayer

Blessings can come through prayer. In the book of Genesis, Jacob was by himself at night in a place when suddenly he encountered a man who he immediately realized was divine and therefore could have the capacity to bless. Through a simple and rather unconventional prayer, Jacob requested that this strange man bless him.

Genesis 32:24,26-29 "Then Jacob was left alone; and a Man wrestled with him until the breaking of day... And He said, 'Let Me go, for the day breaks.' But he (Jacob) said, 'I will not let You go unless You bless me!' ... So He said to him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Jacob.' And He said, 'Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have struggled with God and with men, and have prevailed.' Then Jacob asked, saying, 'Tell me Your name, I pray.' And He said, 'Why is it that you ask about My name?' And He blessed him there."

By being divinely desperate and making his request known, Jacob got the blessing he was looking for. Till this day, his descendants exist and are the citizens of the nation of Israel, which also bears the new name he was given. If you need a blessing upon your life in the new year and beyond, you too can ask. Plus, you do not need roadside encounters with divine beings to ask for a blessing. Unlike Jacob, the death and resurrection of Jesus now gives you direct access to God the Father to whom you can make your request for a blessing known.

b) Blessings through Gifting

A blessing can also be a gift – something that is given to you by a person or God Himself. In Leviticus 26:6, God said “I will give you peace in the land, and you will be able to sleep with no cause for fear..." In this case, something will be given to you and with that gift, you will be able to do specific things that you were hitherto unable to do. In our scripture, the 'gift of peace' was meant to equip the recipient with 'the ability to sleep without fear'. Your own need might be different, you might need money to complete a project, wisdom to handle problematic situations, a workplace promotion that will accelerate the fulfillment of your destiny, divine insight into the deep secrets of scriptures, etc. Whatever it is, a gift blessing can help you successfully handle the affairs of your life.

c) Blessings through Restoration

When a person is restored back to a previous situation of strength, it is also referred to as a blessing. In Jeremiah 30:17, the Almighty said "'But I will restore you to health and heal your wounds,’ declares the Lord ..." If you have lost something crucial such as your health, resources, a position or a relationship, a blessing of restoration can help you get it back.

d) Blessings through Direct Transformation

A blessing can also come in the form of a direct transformation of an aspect of your life or of your entire life. In Joshua 3:7 (NLT), the Bible says "The Lord told Joshua, Today I will begin to 'make you' a great leader in the eyes of all the Israelites. They will know that I am with you ..." There are countless stories of people who were labelled as dummies or never-do-wells who turned things around and became world-class doctors and professors. Hardened criminals have become ministers of God and very obese people have become physically fit and so on. Just like God "made" Joshua into a "great leader", a blessing of transformation upon your life will 'make you' into something you could never have become on your own.

PENDING BLESSINGS

As we've seen, a blessing might come in the form of a prayer, a gift, a restoration of something lost and even through a radical transformation in your life. Now, regardless of what your blessing is or its mechanism of delivery to you, if you are unable to claim it or possess it for one reason or the other and at the appropriate time, that blessing becomes a "pending blessing".

Pending blessings can materialize in a person's life for various reasons. Some common reasons for pending blessings include helper's indifference, promise failure, lack of favor, the passage of the allotted time for collection of the blessing, ignorance of entitlement or eligibility, lack of initiative, laziness, lack of alertness, irreverence, lack of divine placement or positioning, lack of fulfillment of specific conditions and human or spiritual obstruction amongst others.

Let's take a closer look at two major reasons for pending blessings before we pray.

a) Pending Blessings Due to Unfulfilled Conditions

There are certain blessings that require you to fulfill a condition or set of conditions before they would manifest in your life. These conditions could be set either by a human being or by God Himself. Unlike conditions set by the world, divine conditions on top of blessings are set for the purpose of examining your worthiness for the blessing. So, if you can fulfill the condition(s), you get the blessing(s). If you cannot, you get nothing. One of the best examples of a person who fulfilled conditions for a blessing in the Bible is Elisha.

Elijah and Elisha

2 Kings 2:9-14 "When they had crossed, Elijah said to Elisha, 'Tell me, what can I do for you before I am taken from you?' 'Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit,' Elisha replied. 'You have asked a difficult thing,' Elijah said, 'yet if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise, it will not.' As they were walking along and talking together, suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire appeared and separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind. Elisha saw this and cried out, 'My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!' And Elisha saw him no more. Then he took hold of his garment and tore it in two. Elisha then picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and struck the water with it. 'Where now is the Lord, the God of Elijah?' he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over."

You can view an animated rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/Ez8dVwkm5FA?t=72 and a dramatized version here, https://youtu.be/9qXHCZ9VEnI?t=3234 (Please note that these renditions are only approximations of the real event. The real account is as described in the scripture above) In response to Elijah's offer, Elisha had made a request for a blessing of double power. Elijah obliged but set a condition before the blessing could be accessed – "if you see me when I am taken from you, it will be yours—otherwise, it will not." Elisha fulfilled the condition of the blessing by 'seeing and crying out' and made this fact very clear to Elijah by shouting out exactly what he saw – "My father! My father! The chariots and horsemen of Israel!". A few moments later, Elisha confirmed that he had indeed received the blessing by parting the river Jordan and walking across it.

Now, if Elisha was distracted or asleep or doing something else and therefore missed Elijah's rapture, he would have missed his blessing. Considering that this blessing was what defined the rest of Elisha's life and the fact that Elijah was gone for good, missing it would have meant a life of non-achievement. In the same vein, you need to examine yourself. Has someone with true, divine authority over you or the Lord Himself asked you to do something in 2015 or previous years and you have not done it? Your lack of fulfillment of a divine condition(s) might be the reason why your blessings remain pending.

b) Pending Blessings Due to Obstruction

Pending blessings can also manifest as a result of obstruction. Such obstruction can be willful or can be done out of ignorance. Willful obstruction often results when a person or an evil spiritual entity has decided that you will not get a blessing and so proceeds to take conscious steps intended to block you from receiving the blessing. Obstruction as a result of ignorance on the other hand means a person (or persons) who is supposed to bless you is not aware of their role in the fulfillment of your destiny and so takes no action on your behalf.

Rebecca and Esau

Genesis 27:1-2, 4-10 "When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called for Esau his older son and said to him, 'My son.' 'Here I am,' he answered. Isaac said, 'I am now an old man and don't know the day of my death... Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you 'my blessing' before I die.' Now Rebecca was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country to hunt game and bring it back, Rebecca said to her son Jacob, 'Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau, 'Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the Lord before I die.' Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you: Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it. Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing before he dies."

You can watch a dramatized rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/5VcN8rldlCE?t=113

It is possible that someone has voluntarily decided or has been assigned to become an agent of blessing for your life and he or she has been waiting to bless you. However, a human or spiritual agent might decide to obstruct you from receiving the blessing you are entitled to. In the case of Esau, the agent of obstruction was his own mother, Rebecca. She not only told Jacob, Esau's younger brother, of the pending blessing of Esau but devoted her intellect, skills and time to making sure Esau did not receive the blessing. Now, there is some background to what happened and Rebecca's action was probably an attempt to force the fulfillment of prophecy. Nevertheless, if a mother could so actively do this to her own son, then any other relative or non-relative, also citing his or her own reasons, can probably do same or even much worse.

An agent of obstruction could also be a spiritual entity as was revealed in the book of Daniel. In Chapter 10 of the book of Daniel, Daniel fasted and prayed over an important issue. After twenty one days, an angel appeared to him and told him that his prayers had been heard and answered twenty one days ago but that he (the Angel) was resisted on his way by an entity referred to as "the Prince of Persia" and detained with another entity called "the King of Persia" until the mighty Angel Michael came to help him. These demonic entities, the prince of Persia and the king of Persia worked together to obstruct the blessing of Daniel.

If your blessings are pending as a result of human or demonic obstruction, you will need to conduct spiritual warfare so they can be released and so that you can move forward in your journey of destiny.

DAY 2

PRAYERS AGAINST EVIL CARRY OVER INTO 2016

"'But I did obey the Lord,' Saul said. 'I went on the mission the Lord assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king. The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the Lord your God at Gilgal.'"
(1 Samuel 15:20-21)

While Saul's speech in the scripture above might sound rather moving, it was in reality, disobedience to specific divine instructions. The Almighty had told king Saul through the prophet Samuel to strike the Amalekites and destroy everything in their kingdom without exception because they were active enemies of Israel. Saul did not follow God's instruction wholeheartedly and took actions that directly contradicted them. While claiming to have 'completely destroyed' the Amalekites, he actually spared and 'brought back' the Amalekite king, Agag and also carried over the spoils of the Amalekites into Israel. This evil carry over marked the beginning of the end for Saul. Day 2 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is devoted to the issue of Evil Carry Over from the year 2015 and what you need to do to prevent it from negatively affecting your destiny.

WHAT IS AN EVIL CARRY OVER?

An evil carry over simply means the transfer of evil spatially or chronologically against a person's life. That is, the movement of evil from one location to another or from one time to another to work against a person's destiny. A person with evil carry over syndrome might move from one city or country to another and find that there is no change in his or her life situation because a carry over is in effect against him or her. Also, that a year is coming or has come to an end does not mean that all the adversity, oppression, afflictions and troubles a person has faced or is facing will automatically come to an end. No. Shouting "Happy New Year!" sounds good but does not by itself make the year become a happy one. If you want all the evil that you experienced in 2015 to come to an end, you need to conduct a thorough self-examination and afterward carry out spiritual warfare.

Now, there's the evil that is done to you and there's the evil that you do. Unfortunately, it does not matter what the source of the evil is. Evil will always have negative consequences for the victim and for the perpetrator unless action is taken. And just as we saw on Day 1 with blessings, evil that begins within a year can be the foundation for tragedy and calamity in the future. Therefore, if you'd rather have a good life instead of bitterness and regret, you need to make certain that you locate and terminate any evil carry over programmed or scheduled against your destiny.

Let's take a look at a few examples of evil carry over before we pray.

a) Carry Over of Sin

Zacchaeus the Rich Tax Collector

Luke 19:1-10 "Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature. So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, 'Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house.' So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully. But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, 'He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner.' Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, 'Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.'"

You can watch a dramatized rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/R59GTcEnR2U

The first evil carry over you need to halt is the carry over of sin. The scripture above opens by stating Zacchaeus' profession and social status – tax collector and rich. But the two do not necessarily tally. One of Jesus' disciples, Matthew, was also a tax collector and there is no record of him being rich. We find the answer to this mismatch in Zacchaeus' case toward the end of the passage where it says "if I have taken anything from anyone by 'false accusation'...". Another version says "if I have 'cheated' anyone". Yet another says "if I have 'defrauded' anyone". Zacchaeus had been cheating people on their taxes and by so doing, had amassed wealth sufficient enough to make him rich. This illicit wealth was probably a sin in his life that he was seeking redemption from. So, when he heard Jesus was coming he did everything he could – running, climbing a tree, etc. – to see the Redeemer. He knew that if Jesus entered and passed through Jericho without an encounter with him, the iniquity in his life might carry over perpetually.

You see, sin is the foundation of all other forms of evil carry over. It builds a wall of separation between God and man [thereby nullifying the privilege of prayer] and it opens the doors of one's life to demons, who bring torment, oppression and bondage. Perhaps Zacchaeus, despite being rich, was having problems and he had started linking the problems in his life to his sin of fraud. Whatever his motivation was, by repenting and forsaking his sins, Zacchaeus was able to halt the evil carry over of iniquity in his life. Examine yourself and get ready to take action as well to halt the evil carry over of sin in your own life.

b) Carry Over of Misfortune, Evil Pronouncements, Curses & Other Entanglements

Cain, Abel's Brother

Genesis 4:10-12 "The Lord said [to Cain], 'What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground. Now you are under a curse and driven from the ground, which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth.'"

You can watch an animated rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/rR2omtdIg_8?t=924

The story of Cain and Abel is a very popular one. God rejected Cain's offering and accepted Abel's. And Cain got mad. However, while his anger was still in the brooding phase, God approached Cain and warned him saying "...sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must rule over it." Cain could not and so he killed his own brother out of envy.

The consequence of Cain's sin was a curse – to become a vagabond and a wretch (the ground will no longer yield its crops for you). The evil carry over activated by this curse was both spatial and chronological. It did not matter where Cain went on the earth or if a year was ending or a new one was beginning, the carry over potency of the curse was in full effect on his life.

Now, have you done something bad or negative to someone? You may or may not know if that person has made evil pronouncements against you or placed a curse on specific aspects of your life or your whole life. If this is true for you, you are what is referred to as a "lawful captive". But rest assured that there is hope. The Bible says in Isaiah 49:24-25 "Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith the Lord, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered...". Are you also reading this and you think you haven't wronged anyone and yet you suspect or you know someone has placed a curse on you? There is hope for you as well. The Bible says in Proverbs 26:2 that "an undeserved curse does not come to rest." If ignorance has made it rest on you thus far, it's time to break it off from your destiny. Get yourself ready.

c) Carry Over of Physical Items that Bring Problems

Achan

Joshua 6:17-18, 7:1 "The city and all that is in it are to be devoted to the Lord... But keep away from the devoted things, so that you will not bring about your own destruction by taking any of them... But the Israelites were unfaithful in regard to the devoted things; Achan son of Karmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of them. So the Lord's anger burned against Israel."

Before the promised land of Canaan could be taken by the Israelites, they had to overcome Jericho. The Almighty had supernaturally delivered Jericho into their hands. They simply needed to perform a certain divine ritual of daily, single encirclement of the city for six days and then on the seventh do the same thing seven times and make a loud battle cry. They were told that after this, the wall of Jericho would fall and then they could rush in, take the city and gather a number of specific items referred to as the devoted things (another version calls them 'accursed' things which were meant for special destruction). In all this, no one was to touch – actually steal – these items. Everything went as was foretold and the Israelites took the city.

Shortly after the Jericho victory, the Israelites attempted to attack another city called Ai. Contrary to expectation, the men of Ai pursued and killed many of the Israeli soldiers. News got to the Israeli camp and the people were filled with fear. But how could this be after such a resounding victory in Jericho? Why was there no divine support as usual? With time, it was discovered that an Israelite named Achan had done an evil carry over. He had carried over some of the devoted / accursed items – a Babylonian robe, two hundred shekels of silver and a bar of gold weighing fifty shekels – from the plunder into his tent and hid them there. At the end of the day, this evil carry over led to the destruction of Achan and his entire household.

Do you have any accursed thing in your home? If you have anything with you that you suspect to be or you know is satanic or demonic, it would do you a world of good to make sure you get rid of it so you don't carry it over (together with the consequences of keeping it) into a new year. As we have just seen with the Israelites, possession of an accursed thing will expose you to all-round defeat not only in the new year but as far as you hold on to it. Please, for your own sake, do a thorough self-examination and get yourself ready.

d) Carry Over of Demonic Attacks & Oppression

The Israelites

Exodus 14:!3 "And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the Lord, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day, ye shall see them again no more for ever."

You can view a dramatized rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/Jo0JMs-evQU?t=5

Through a powerful plague of the death of Egyptian first born males, the Almighty had secured the release of the Israelites from the hands of the Egyptians, their masters. As the Israelites came out of Egypt and progressed, they eventually arrived by the sea near Pi Hahiroth. Meanwhile, Pharaoh began to regret letting them go saying “What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!”. Therefore, he decided to pursue them with hundreds of raging chariots with the aim of re-enslaving them. The Israelites were indeed caught between the Pharaoh and the sea. It was at this point that Moses uttered those sweet words of spiritual warfare "...for the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them again no more for ever." The sea parted in two and the Israelites crossed over to the other side. The Egyptians also, driven by rage and without taking time to wonder at what was happening, followed them into the parted sea. But the watery walls, which had been held in place by the Almighty for the Israelites, began to collapse until the sea completely covered up and drowned the Egyptian pursuers.

If the Egyptians had succeeded in following the Israelites to the other side, it would have amounted to an evil carry over for the Jews.

In the spirit, Egyptians are spiritual slavedrivers. They are the demonic entities that keep millions of people in bondage, addiction, poverty, pains, sorrow, diseases, etc. They are the destiny killers who desire to kill off destinies before they are fulfilled. They are the powers that say they will never let you go and do all they can to fulfill their promise. Just like the Jews, in 2015, you may have seen the handiwork of the Egyptians in your life, raging against your destiny.

Every new year, they position themselves for evil carry over – to pursue people and re-capture them for another year of slavery. If you are tired of this evil pattern of carry over perpetrated by the Egyptians, with the help of God, you can terminate their pursuit and end the unlicensed enslavement of your destiny. 2016 will be exponentially better for you if you are free rather than a slave.

If you were given such accursed item as a gift, you need to pray on it and then return it. If you bought the item with your own money, you can pray on it and destroy it immediately. If you stole an item that has now started bringing problems into your life, you have to find a very wise way to return it to its owner. Apply comprehensive wisdom.

After your prayers, either return the item if it was a gift to you or burn it if you bought it with your own money. Please find a safe place to burn the item. If you are burning it, repeat the prayers below again until the item burns to

PRAYERS TO ADDRESS THE GATES OF THE YEAR 2016

"Open for me the gates of the righteous; I will enter and give thanks to the Lord." (Psalm 118:19)

It is possible to be physically living inside a year and not have spiritually entered the year. A person in this situation will find himself or herself just barely getting by without making any meaningful impact. One can also enter into a year but through the wrong gate. The gate through which you enter into a year can drastically alter the course of your life for better or for worse. Day 3 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is devoted to Addressing the Gates of the Year 2016.

YEAR GATES

In the spirit realm, gates serve several crucial purposes. One of the most fundamental purposes of gates is to regulate access. Gates can allow things to come in, keep things in, allow things to go out or keep things out. An essential spiritual fact that we all need to understand is that everything that exists has a gate, including time. So, days, weeks, months and years all have gates. To be established and to prosper within a year, you have to learn to issue commands to divine year gates to open so that you can enter through them. You also have to learn to command all gates to work in your favor and not against you throughout the year. It doesn't matter whether you are at the beginning, the middle or the end of a year, if you know how to address these gates, you will be ushered into uncommon divine benefits.

Matthew 7:13-14 "Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it."

Matthew 7:7-8 "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened."

John 10:1-3 "Very truly I tell you Pharisees, anyone who does not enter the sheep pen by the gate, but climbs in by some other way, is a thief and a robber. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out."

Finally, not all gates are immediately apparent and since most people cannot not see them, very few are able to enter and possess the blessings these gates protect. For you to open obscure gates, you require divine assistance.

2 Kings 2:7-8,11,13-14 "Fifty men from the company of the prophets went and stood at a distance, facing the place where Elijah and Elisha had stopped at the Jordan. Elijah took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground... and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind... Elisha then picked up Elijah's cloak that had fallen from him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. He took the cloak that had fallen from Elijah and struck the water with it. 'Where now is the Lord, the God of Elijah?' he asked. When he struck the water, it divided to the right and to the left, and he crossed over.**"

DAY 4

PRAYERS FOR EACH MONTH OF THE YEAR 2016

"Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously." (2 Corinthians 9:6)

One of the laws of life that cannot ordinarily be broken is the law of sowing and reaping. Day 4 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is devoted to prayers for each month of the year 2016 so that you can sow good seeds and reap good harvests throughout the year and beyond. People who are supernaturally empowered to sow good seeds are always filled with divine joy when they hear the expression "What you sow is what you reap." because they have nothing to fear. May you sow good seeds and reap good harvests throughout every month of the year 2016, in Jesus name.

SPIRITUAL AGRICULTURE

In our world today, it's hard for many people to picture themselves working on a farm – sweating, working the soil, planting and harvesting crops, etc. Yet, the reality is that we are all farmers in the spirit. You see, whenever you invest your time, energy and resources on something or on a person, you are sowing a seed. And whenever you get feedback or results based on seeds previously sown, you are reaping or harvesting. This is called Spiritual Agriculture and normally there is no opt-out for anyone. Everyday, every human being on earth is presented with the opportunity to sow new seeds but at the same time, we also reap fruits from seeds sown in the past. Since the total outcome of your month is dependent on this daily spiritual agriculture, you need divine assistance to make sure all will be well.

Now, our opening scripture (2 Corinthians 9:6) does not focus on the nature of the seed and harvest but on their quantity. Hence, the words "sparingly" and "generously". But by placing the "nature" of what you are sowing and reaping into that scripture, you might either become exceedingly glad or exceedingly worried. So, the question is: Have you been sowing good seeds generously? If yes, be glad because you will reap good harvests generously. On the other hand, have you been sowing bad seeds generously? If yes, be concerned because all things being equal, you will reap negative harvests generously, unfortunately. But we serve a merciful God.

This issue of spiritual agriculture also goes beyond you somewhat – back and forth. Did your parents or progenitors sow good seed or bad seed sparingly or generously? This is very important because you may be presented with harvests from seeds they sowed ages ago for better or for worse. If this is the reality and it is, then you need to also be mindful that depending on the nature of seeds you are sowing now – day in, day out, month in, month out – part or multiples of the harvests may be presented to your family now and also to your unborn generations for better or for worse. Therefore, you have to conduct a thorough self-examination and ask relevant questions.

Let's take a look at a few examples of spiritual agriculture before we pray.

a) The Direct Harvest of Mordecai

Mordecai reaped the fruit of his own seed directly. He received royal honor and recognition for saving the life of king Ahaxerxes.

Esther 2:21-23 "During the time Mordecai was sitting at the king's gate, Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry and conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. But Mordecai found out about the plot and told Queen Esther, who in turn reported it to the king, giving credit to Mordecai. And when the report was investigated and found to be true, the two officials were impaled on poles. All this was recorded in the book of the annals in the presence of the king."

Esther 6:1-11 "That night the king could not sleep; so he ordered the book of the chronicles, the record of his reign, to be brought in and read to him. It was found recorded there that Mordecai had exposed Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, who had conspired to assassinate King Xerxes. 'What honor and recognition has Mordecai received for this?' the king asked. 'Nothing has been done for him,' his attendants answered. The king said, 'Who is in the court?' Now Haman had just entered the outer court of the palace to speak to the king about impaling Mordecai on the pole he had set up for him. His attendants answered, 'Haman is standing in the court.' 'Bring him in,' the king ordered. When Haman entered, the king asked him, 'What should be done for the man the king delights to honor?' Now Haman thought to himself, 'Who is there that the king would rather honor than me?' So he answered the king, 'For the man the king delights to honor, have them bring a royal robe the king has worn and a horse the king has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head. Then let the robe and horse be entrusted to one of the king's most noble princes. Let them robe the man the king delights to honor, and lead him on the horse through the city streets, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'' 'Go at once,' the king commanded Haman. 'Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Do not neglect anything you have recommended.' So Haman got the robe and the horse. He robed Mordecai, and led him on horseback through the city streets, proclaiming before him, 'This is what is done for the man the king delights to honor!'"

b) The Generational Harvest of Mephibosheth

The seed of friendship Jonathan had sown between himself and David was harvested by his son, Mephibosheth in the future to the fullest extent.

2 Samuel 9:1,3,6,7,9 "David asked, 'Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?'... Ziba (king Saul's erstwhile servant) answered the king, 'There is still a son of Jonathan; he is lame in both feet.'... When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed down to pay him honor... 'Don't be afraid,' David said to him, 'for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table.'... Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul's steward, and said to him, 'I have given your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family. You and your sons and your servants are to farm the land for him and bring in the crops, so that your master's grandson may be provided for. And Mephibosheth, grandson of your master, will always eat at my table.' (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)"

c) The Direct and Generational Harvest of Rahab With Multiple Beneficiaries

Rahab, the Jericho prostitute sowed good seed by helping Jewish spies when Israel was about to attack Jericho. Not only did she directly reap the harvest of her seed herself, her immediate family also became beneficiaries. Furthermore, her seed made it certain for her to become the great-grandmother of king David and thus a direct ancestor of the Lord Jesus Christ. Rahab clearly reaped multiple harvests from her single seed.

Joshua 2:1-6 "Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. 'Go, look over the land,' he said, 'especially Jericho.' So they went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there. The king of Jericho was told, 'Look, some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land.' So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: 'Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land.' But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them*. She said, 'Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from. At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate, they left. I don't know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You may catch up with them.' (But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof.)"

You can watch a dramatized rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/rA08bdjdGt0?t=69 (Please note that this rendition is only an approximation of the real event. The real account is as described in the scripture above).

Joshua 6:15-17,24 "On the seventh day, they (the Israelites) got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times. The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the army, 'Shout! For the Lord has given you the city! The city and all that is in it are to be devoted to the Lord. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid the spies we sent... Then they burned the whole city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the Lord's house. But Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent as spies to Jericho..."

Matthew 1:1,5 "This is the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah the son of David, the son of Abraham... Salmon the father of Boaz, 'whose mother was Rahab', Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth, Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of King David.

PRAYERS FOR SPIRITUAL ESTABLISHMENT IN 2016

"Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What shall we eat?' or 'What shall we drink?' or 'What shall we wear?' For after all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you."
(Matthew 6:31-33)

At the beginning of each year, millions of people around the world make resolutions or set goals. Everyone has their own unique list of things they would like to achieve before the end of the year. You probably have yours for the year 2016. The way most people go about bringing these resolutions or goals into fruition is by trying to adopt new attitudes such as determination, focus, discipline, hard work, etc. that appear to, by themselves, guarantee success. While many succeed this way, most people do not.

Spiritually speaking, there are two major factors that determine achievement – whether or not you have a relationship with God and whether or not you can survive spiritual attacks that will come against you throughout the year. In fact, if you have a real and active relationship with the Almighty, spiritual attacks are not really a factor. Establishing a relationship with God on top of your determination, focus, discipline, hard work, etc is the real recipe for achievement. This is why Day 5 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is devoted to the issue of your spiritual establishment in the year 2016.

YOUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD (Start Strong, Finish Strong & Do Not Waiver)

Our opening scripture (Matthew 6:31-33) reveals to us that God understands that we have desires and that righteousness as well as relationship with Him is the way to get our desires fulfilled (... All these things shall be added to you). Spiritual establishment in 2016 (and at any other time) means you have to sit down for a while and seriously acknowledge that God is real. Do this for a good period of time and let this fact sink in.

Now, to develop a relationship with this real God, you need to get to know Him. To do this, you need to read the Bible. Your spiritual establishment in the year 2016 is directly proportional to your devotion to the Word of God and the Almighty Himself and it is inversely proportional to your indifference toward or disregard for God and His word. So, if you are serious about this, in addition to the Bible, you need to get access to sermons and/or books about God that are totally Bible-dependent and that explain several aspects about Him that might take you a long time to learn on your own.

To maximize this endeavor, you need to design a timetable for your life in which you would clearly create reasonable amounts of time that will allow you regularly learn about Him and also carry out divine spiritual exercises such as prayer, worship, receiving the baptism in the Holy Spirit, manifesting the fruit of the spirit, etc.

Sometimes, these spiritual exercises (such as manifesting the fruit of the spirit) require interaction with other people such as your co-workers, neighbors and family members. Many people who are experienced in divine spiritual exercises attend church. While going to church does not make people angels, it is a good place to learn from the experience of others. As you begin to do all this and develop a solid relationship with God, you will gradually begin to establish yourself spiritually.

Now, please understand – the fact that you have a relationship with God does not mean you will no longer need determination, focus, discipline, hard work, etc. to succeed in the year. What it means is that, unlike regular people, the blessing of God will come upon your determination, focus, discipline and hard work. It will magnify your input and exponentially increase your output, thus making you successful. This is why you need a timetable this year in which you will clearly make out time for God and time for work, relationships and other areas of your life in which you desire success. As you spend quality time with God, all other things shall be added to your life.

There's one more thing you need to know on this issue. As you begin to develop your relationship with God and become spiritually established, please do your very best not to deviate.

Before we pray, let's take a look at a few examples that appropriately illustrate why you should not deviate:

a) Asa, King of Judah

King Asa developed a relationship with God but with time, he deviated. He kowtowed to a human being – which was interpreted in heaven as a loss of trust in the Almighty. As a result, the unusual "rest" which he had enjoyed was withdrawn and from that moment on his life went downhill.

2 Chronicles 14:1-6 "And Abijah rested with his ancestors and was buried in the City of David. Asa his son succeeded him as king, and in his days the country was at peace for ten years. Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God. He removed the foreign altars and the high places, smashed the sacred stones and cut down the Asherah poles. He commanded Judah to seek the Lord, the God of their ancestors, and to obey his laws and commands. He removed the high places and incense altars in every town in Judah, and the kingdom was at peace under him. He built up the fortified cities of Judah, since the land was at peace. No one was at war with him during those years, for the Lord gave him rest."

2 Chronicles 15:1-2 "The Spirit of God came on Azariah son of Oded. He went out to meet Asa and said to him, 'Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin. The Lord is with you when you are with him. If you seek him, he will be found by you, but if you forsake him, he will forsake you...'"

2 Chronicles 16:1-3, 7-9 "In the thirty-sixth year of Asa's reign Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah. Asa then took the silver and gold out of the treasuries of the Lord's temple and of his own palace and sent it to Ben-Hadad king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus. 'Let there be a treaty between me and you,' he said... At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah and said to him: 'Because you relied on the king of Aram and not on the Lord your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hand. Were not the Cushites and Libyans a mighty army with great numbers of chariots and horsemen? Yet when you relied on the Lord, he delivered them into your hand. For the eyes of the Lord range throughout the earth to strengthen those whose hearts are fully committed to him. You have done a foolish thing, and from now on you will be at war.'"

2 Chronicles 16:12-13 "In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was afflicted with a disease in his feet. Though his disease was severe, even in his illness he did not seek help from the Lord, but only from the physicians. Then in the forty-first year of his reign Asa died and rested with his ancestors."

b) Uzziah, King of Judah

As a result of king Uzziah's spiritual establishment, he received divine assistance. He was "marvellously helped" by the Almighty. Unfortunately, he too deviated. Having all his desires divinely met had made him extremely arrogant, enough to think he too could do the job of consecrated priests. In an instant, he was brought down.

2 Chronicles 26:3-5,15 "Sixteen years old was Uzziah when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did. And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper... And he made in Jerusalem engines, invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withal. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he was strong."

2 Chronicles 26:16,18,19,21 "But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord to burn incense upon the altar of incense... And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said unto him, It appertaineth not unto thee, Uzziah, to burn incense unto the Lord, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed... Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the Lord, from beside the incense altar... And Uzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a several house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the Lord..."

This should be an important lesson for you this year. When God lifts you up as a result of your devotion to Him, do not deviate. As you receive all the benefits, let Him receive all the glory. That's how it works.

SPIRITUAL ATTACKS

The second factor that will determine whether or not you achieve your goals this year is your ability to overcome spiritual attacks. Spiritual attacks can be generic or targeted. As was emphasized earlier, if you have a real and active relationship with the Almighty, spiritual attacks are not really a factor as He will come to your aid.

In Joshua 10, the Israelites went into battle against five kings who had formed an evil alliance against an ally of Israel. As they engaged in battle, the Almighty provided the Israelites with divine assistance. Joshua 10:11 says "As they fled before Israel on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, the Lord hurled large hailstones down on them, and more of them died from the hail than were killed by the swords of the Israelites." Therefore, as far as you are devoted to the Almighty and you are willing to do spiritual warfare, He will fight for you this year and no generic or targeted demonic attack against you shall prosper.

Now, let's take a quick look at a detailed example of a spiritual attack waged against the life of Job.

i) The Spiritual Attack of Job

Job 1:1-4 "In the land of Uz there lived a man whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright; he feared God and shunned evil. He had seven sons and three daughters, and he owned seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred donkeys, and had a large number of servants. He was the greatest man among all the people of the East. His sons used to hold feasts in their homes on their birthdays, and they would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them."

Job 1:13-19 "One day when Job’s sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, a messenger came to Job and said, 'The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, and the Sabeans attacked and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!' While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, 'The fire of God fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!' While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, 'The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!' While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, 'Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house, when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!'"

Job 2:7-8 "So Satan went out from the presence of the Lord, and struck Job with painful boils from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. And he took for himself a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes."

ii) The Power of Prayer & Restoration of Job

Job 42:7-8, 10,12-16 "After the Lord had said these things to Job, he said to Eliphaz the Temanite, 'I am angry with you and your two friends, because you have not spoken the truth about me, as my servant Job has. So now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job and sacrifice a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer and not deal with you according to your folly... After Job had prayed for his friends, the Lord restored his fortunes and gave him twice as much as he had before... The Lord blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the former part. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen and a thousand donkeys. And he also had seven sons and three daughters. The first daughter he named Jemimah, the second Keziah and the third Keren-Happuch. Nowhere in all the land were there found women as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father granted them an inheritance along with their brothers. After this, Job lived a hundred and forty years; he saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. And so Job died, an old man and full of years."

DAY 6

PRAYERS FOR MENTAL ESTABLISHMENT IN 2016

"Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—'think' about such things." (Philippians 4:8)

It is possible for your pending blessings to be released to you, to prevent an evil carry over into your life in the new year, to open the gates of the year 2016, to receive the anointing to sow good seeds and to harvest bountifully, to be spiritually established and yet be completely handicapped or paralyzed in the mind. Since your mind is the driver and the mission control center of your destiny, the type of thoughts you think will determine whether or not you can take actions that will translate into the fulfillment of your destiny. If you think negative thoughts throughout the year, you will either remain stagnant or retrogress. On the other hand, if you think positive thoughts and you open yourself up so as to receive divine inspiration, there is no limit to what you can achieve insofar as it is the will of God for your life. This is why Mental Establishment is the theme of Day 6 of the Pray Your Way into 2016 prayer program.

NEGATIVE THINKING

Let's take a look at an example that appropriately illustrates the impact negative thinking can have:

The Negative Thinking of the Ten Spies

God instructed Moses to send out spies to spend time in Canaan so they can see for themselves the suitability of the land which He had promised them. Moses did as He was instructed and twelve spies were sent out. They spent forty days in Canaan and thereafter returned to give their report. There was unanimity amongst all the spies about the goodness of the land, which they described as "flowing with milk and honey" and they reported this fact. However, on the issue of seizing and possessing the land, all the spies with the exception of Caleb and Joshua had negative thoughts which ran contrary to the promise of the Almighty and they spoke them out before Moses and poisoned the minds of the people.

Numbers 13:28-33 "'Nevertheless the people who dwell in the land are strong; the cities are fortified and very large; moreover we saw the descendants of Anak there. The Amalekites dwell in the land of the South; the Hittites, the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea and along the banks of the Jordan.' Then Caleb quieted the people before Moses, and said, 'Let us go up at once and take possession, for we are well able to overcome it.' But the men who had gone up with him said, 'We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than we.' And they gave the children of Israel a bad report of the land which they had spied out, saying, “The land through which we have gone as spies is a land that devours its inhabitants, and all the people whom we saw in it are men of great stature. There we saw the giants (the descendants of Anak came from the giants); and we were like grasshoppers in our own sight, and so we were in their sight.'"

Numbers 14:1-4 "So all the congregation lifted up their voices and cried, and the people wept that night. And all the children of Israel complained against Moses and Aaron, and the whole congregation said to them, 'If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness! Why has the Lord brought us to this land to fall by the sword, that our wives and children should become victims? Would it not be better for us to return to Egypt?' So they said to one another, 'Let us select a leader and return to Egypt.'"

Numbers 14:36-38 "Now the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned and made all the congregation complain against him by bringing a bad report of the land, those very men who brought the evil report about the land, died by the plague before the Lord. But Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh remained alive, of the men who went to spy out the land."

At the end of the day, the spies who entertained negative thoughts and spoke them out, all perished in the desert alongside the people who believed them. However, Joshua and Caleb (who thought positively and gave a good report based on their thinking) along with a fresh generation of Israelites entered into the promised land. You cannot afford to think negatively this year as it could portend danger for you.

POSITIVE THINKING

Before we pray, let's take a look at an excellent example of positive thinking from the life of Jacob. Also, as you will see, Jacob's life illustrates something very important which is the fact that even with positive and creative thinking, you might need divine assistance for breakthrough achievement especially when there is adversity.

Jacob's Positive & Creative Thinking

Many people who read the account of Jacob's sacrifice for his wife, Rachel (for whom he spent fourteen years laboring), end up having a lot of sympathy for him because of his "wasted years". The reality however is that Jacob did not have any wasted years whatsoever. His positive and creative thinking and the Almighty's divine intervention on top of his thoughts and ideas made it certain that his sojourn in the house of Laban, his father-in-law, was a resounding success and one of the most comprehensive stories of personal business breakthrough ever recorded in the Bible.

i) The Contract of Destiny

After several years of servitude, Jacob approached Laban, his father-in-law, to negotiate a settlement contract so that he could go and be on his own.

Genesis 30:25,27-28 "After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, 'Send me on my way so I can go back to my own homeland...' But Laban said to him, 'If I have found favor in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that the Lord has blessed me because of you.' He added, 'Name your wages, and I will pay them.'

Genesis 30:31-34 "'What shall I give you?' he asked. 'Don't give me anything,' Jacob replied. 'But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them: Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-colored lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages. And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me.

Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-colored, will be considered stolen.' 'Agreed,' said Laban. 'Let it be as you have said.'"

In Genesis 30:36-42, we see details of Jacob's execution strategy.

ii) Breach of Contract & Divine Intervention

However, Laban reneged on the contract.

Genesis 31:6-8 "You know that I've worked for your father with all my strength, yet your father has cheated me by changing my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me. If he said, 'The speckled ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks gave birth to speckled young; and if he said, 'The streaked ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked young."

By reneging on the deal, Laban triggered the divine assistance of the Almighty to work for Jacob.

Genesis 31:10-13 "In breeding season, I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were streaked, speckled or spotted. The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob.' I answered, 'Here I am.' And he said, 'Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled or spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you...'"

So, regardless of whatever trick Laban used and how many times he changed the rules of the deal, Jacob was never shortchanged.

iii) The Result of Positive Thinking & Divine Intervention

Genesis 30:43, 31:1 "In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and female and male servants, and camels and donkeys... Jacob heard that Laban's sons were saying, 'Jacob has taken everything our father owned and has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father."

Even with the years of hard work, Jacob married the two daughters of Laban and took everything Laban owned. This is why he should not be pitied.

You can watch a dramatized rendition of this event here, https://youtu.be/aK7eOAEINvM?t=3605. (The relevant segment ends at 1:30:29. Also, please note that this rendition is only an approximation of the real event. The real account is as described in all the scriptures quoted above).

Be assured that as far as you serve the Lord your God with all your heart, if you make full use of your brain and you bring your mind to think positive, creative thoughts for your work or your business, you will excel. And if anyone tries to frustrate your destiny, the Lord will arise for your sake and provide you with comprehensive divine assistance that will ensure that you are never shortchanged and that you are compensated with much more than you deserve.

DAY 7

PRAYERS FOR YOUR HEALTH & WELL-BEING IN 2016

"Dear friend, I pray that you may enjoy good health and that all may go well with you, even as your soul is getting along well."
(3 John 1:2)

Destiny fulfillment requires that you are healthy enough to move from place to place and take action. When God orchestrated circumstances for Joseph, a foreigner, to become the second-in-command in Egypt, Joseph still had to do very hard work – the most urgent of which was storing grain in order to save the earth's population in that time from hunger and starvation. The Bible says in Genesis 41:41,46 "So Pharaoh said to Joseph, 'I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt'... And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and traveled throughout Egypt."

During the time of plenty, Joseph traveled throughout Egypt supervising the collection and storage of food as well as record-keeping at the storage facilities in each city. Then when the famine began, he also managed negotiations, sale and disbursement of the grain to customers from all over the world.

A sick person could not have done all what Joseph did. And if Joseph had become sick at any point during this process, it would have negatively affected his legacy. But he wasn't. He was healthy all through this crucial time. God can arrange things for you through his divine favor but just like Joseph, you need good health, physical stamina and well-being as well as divine protection to execute your divine assignment. Where it gets interesting is that you can also pray for this divine health if you desire it. Day 7 of the Pray Your Way 2016 program is for you if you want divine health and well-being throughout the year 2016.

DIVINE HEALTH

Let's take a quick look at some scriptures on divine health and well-being:

Joshua 14:10-11 “Now then, just as the Lord promised, he has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time he said this to Moses, while Israel moved about in the wilderness. So here I am today, eighty-five years old! I am still as strong today as the day Moses sent me out; I’m just as vigorous to go out to battle now as I was then."

Exodus 23:25-26 "Worship the Lord your God, and his blessing will be on your food and water. I will take away sickness from among you, and none will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will give you a full life span."

Deuteronomy 34:7 "Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone."

DIVINE PROTECTION FROM HARM

One other thing you need in 2016 is divine protection from harm.

Mark 16:17-18 "And these signs will accompany those who believe... they will pick up snakes with their hands; and when they drink deadly poison, it will not hurt them at all..."

This scripture came to pass in the life of Paul the Apostle. In Acts 28:3,5-6 the Bible says "Paul gathered a pile of brushwood and, as he put it on the fire, a viper, driven out by the heat, fastened itself on his hand... But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no ill effects. The people expected him to swell up or suddenly fall dead; but after waiting a long time and seeing nothing unusual happen to him, they changed their minds and said he was a god."

As you go from place to place carrying out your divine assignment, you need divine protection from harm so that your destiny's journey is not delayed or terminated. Before we pray, let's take a look at the life of Samson. This example shows what can happen when a person who erstwhile had divine protection loses it: Judges 16:4-6 "Some time later, he (Samson) fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah. The rulers of the Philistines went to her and said, 'See if you can lure him into showing you the secret of his great strength and how we can overpower him so we may tie him up and subdue him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred shekels of silver.' So Delilah said to Samson, 'Tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued.'"

Judges 16:15-19 "Then she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when you won't confide in me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and haven't told me the secret of your great strength.' With such nagging she prodded him day after day until he was sick to death of it. So he told her everything. 'No razor has ever been used on my head,' he said, 'because I have been a Nazirite dedicated to God from my mother's womb. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man.' When Delilah saw that he had told her everything, she sent word to the rulers of the Philistines, 'Come back once more; he has told me everything.' So the rulers of the Philistines returned with the silver in their hands. After putting him to sleep on her lap, she called for someone to shave off the seven braids of his hair, and so began to subdue him. And his strength left him."

Judges 16:20-21 "Then she called, 'Samson, the Philistines are upon you!' He awoke from his sleep and thought, 'I'll go out as before and shake myself free.' But he did not know that the Lord had left him. Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to Gaza. Binding him with bronze shackles, they set him to grinding grain in the prison."
