About the Author

Introduction

God is perfect. He cannot lie and is always true. Why then would God need to promise us anything? His word is perfect! If He says it will come to pass, will it not come to pass?

When we promise something, it helps us hold to integrity. When we swear an oath, it makes us feel a greater obligation to uphold what we've promised. Therefore, we as flawed humans promise things not only for the sake of those to whom we promise, but also for our own sake. We promise for their comfort, that they may have greater faith we will uphold our word. Yet we also promise for our own sakes, that we would have greater conviction to put forth extra effort to finish what we began. By making a promise, we feel more obligated to uphold our word.

Yet the Lord is perfect in all He is and all He does. Since He is perfect, it stands to reason that He doesn't make promises to have conviction, nor to feel obligated. God, unlike mankind, is not obligated by promises but is obligated by love, and through love He upholds His word and saves.

Why then did God make a promise? For our comfort, no doubt. That we who trust in His word should believe that He is faithful to finish what He began.

Knowing, then, that the promises were made for our faith, we ought to take them to heart. Reflecting on the promises of God doesn't remind Him to be faithful, for God is always faithful. By reflecting on His promises, we remind ourselves of God's love, which obligates Him to be faithful. We pray the promises of God to remind ourselves that God is faithful and to increase our faith in His word.

Take these next twenty-one days to increase your faith in the word of God. Sit in the secret place alone with Him and seek Him in the word, in prayer, and in worship. Sit in His presence and be refreshed in the Holy Spirit.

Make your secret place in a quiet, distraction-free corner of your home—whether an attic, basement, closet, quiet room, or even a familiar place outdoors. Come out from the distractions around you and embrace the Lord's presence as He embraces you.

Be recharged by the Lord and let His whispers quietly comfort you. Be attentive to His Spirit and become sensitive to His voice. Sit in His love and pray in faith as you hold onto His promises.

Day One

Love

Lord, thank You for everything You've done for me. Thank You for suffering such a horrible, undeserving fate for my sake. I'm not worthy of You, nor of the least of Your kindnesses!

I have failed You in so many ways, yet You love me? Father, I'm not worthy of Your love, nor even to be called Your child! Who am I that You would love me so much? Thank You, Jesus, for everything You've done and thank You for everything You're doing in me now.

Thank You for the ways You lift my heart up daily. Thank You for the comfort You give me in brokenness. Thank You for the compassion You have on me daily. Thank You that your mercy is new and thank You that You provide. Not only do You provide me with my basic necessities, but You also supply my heart abundantly with Your joy!

Lord, I pray the promise of Your love. I know that You remember all things, yet I pray that You would remember Your love over me. Cover me in Your feathers and wrap me up in Your love. Hide me in the shadow of Your wings as I find comfort in Your arms.

Remember Your promise of love over me today. Show me how cared-for I am by You. Open my heart to perceive Your love, that I may understand how I should rightly respond to it.

Bless me in your Spirit and bless me in the peace of your love.

"Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who loved us. For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor angels nor principalities nor powers, nor things present nor things to come, nor height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:37–39

Take this time to rest in His love. Meditate on His Spirit and pour your heart out to Him. Then sit quietly and let Him respond; let Him pour His heart out to you also. Let Him show you His affection through His Holy Spirit.

Day Two

Hope

Lord, I’m choosing to seek You today. With all my heart I want You! Be here with me, Jesus, and fulfill the promise of Your hope.

You know what my future holds and what my past has held. Forgive me the things of my past. Lord, I hate my sins! I repent! Give me a future and a hope in Your love. Remember me and the hope You have promised to lay up for me.

When trials overcome me and fear surrounds me, I will turn my eyes to You, my God. Remember me in my afflictions. I will hope in You, Lord, and wait patiently for Your deliverance. Even as You have saved me from my sin, so I pray that You would also give me hope and save me from every affliction that comes my way.

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and go and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me, when you search for Me with all your heart.” Jeremiah 29:11–13

If there is anything burdening your heart, release it to God now. Rest in His hope and remember what He has laid up for you. Not only will He deliver you at Judgment, but He will also deliver you now—in this life—from every affliction that comes your way. Rest in His promise and stand fast in His love. God is mighty to save and will deliver you from every form of evil that comes your way.

Day Three

Eternal Life

Lord, remember Your love over me in Your judgment. If there is any way that I have not been made right with You, I pray that You would clean my heart now. Teach me Your ways, O God, and make me more like You. In all I am and in all I do, I want to be pleasing to You.

Purify my heart in the beauty of Your holiness. Create in me a clean and new heart. I surrender to Your purpose and Your design. For You alone, Jesus, know the way to eternal life. I surrender to Your leading, that I may walk along the path closely behind You.

Remember Your promise over me. Write my name in Your book and remember me for eternal life.

“And this is the promise that He has promised us—eternal life.” 1 John 2:25

“He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself; he who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given of His Son.

“And this is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in His Son. He who has the Son has life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

“These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.” 1 John 5:10–13

*Take this time to meditate on the Lord. Consider His love for you and everything He has given for you. Consider everything He is doing for you now and meditate on His faithfulness.

If ever you have found yourself questioning where you stand with God, or if you’ve never given your life to Christ, then take this time to dedicate, or rededicate your life to Him. Take some time to reflect on your sins. Remember that God doesn’t have to forgive you, it’s not His obligation. He chooses to do so out of love. Be convicted by His love and take this time now to respond rightly to it. Then pray this simple prayer:

“Lord, I know I've sinned, and I’m sorry. I’m sorry for every way I’ve ever hurt

You or anyone else. God, I repent! I want to change my life! I want to be better for You. Please forgive me. Please give me a new chance.

God, I can't do this myself. I failed at this life you gave me the first time I tried. Please help me, God. Please help me to do this right. Please give me Your Holy Spirit now, that I may be alive in You. Give me Your Spirit, Lord, that I can have strength to please you in all things. Create in me a new heart. I devote my life to You now and forever. Strengthen me now, that I may do rightly from this day forward. Please, Jesus, be my Lord and Savior. Amen."

Repent from your heart and walk in His love. True repentance suggests that we are not only sorry for what we've done but also want to make a life-altering change to make things right again. Yet this life-altering change is not something that we do, but something that He does. God gives us forgiveness and salvation but leads us on the path of salvation daily.

Whether you're new to the Lord or not, following Him is a priority for every Christian. 'Christian' literally means "follower of Christ." In order to follow Him, you must be sensitive to the voice of the Holy Spirit and obey Him. It is He who leads us in the paths of Christ Jesus.

Remember that we are saved by faith and that faith comes from hearing God. Be sensitive to His voice and quick to obey Him, that you may continually walk by faith. Surrender your life, your goals, and your ambitions into His hands. Surrender your ambitions to please Him, and let Him work through you. It's not about what you can do for God but, rather, what He's doing for you.

Let Him work through you. Let His Spirit guide you into the exact works He has for you. Let Him determine what pleases Him most. He knows better than we do as to what would please Him. He is God, after all!

So surrender to Him, walk in purity, and be rejuvenated by His Holy Spirit. If you've never asked for the Holy Spirit, ask for Him now, with a sincere heart. You will never receive Him if you haven't repented of your sins. Also, you cannot have what you don't seek. So ask for the Spirit and you will receive Him.

Yet if you have repented from your heart and ask for Him with a sincere heart, He will enter you immediately. You will feel as if you've taken your first breath, like a new born baby out of the womb, and it will feel as if you've never breathed at all before that moment. You'll feel alive for the first time, and everything around you will feel alive. It will be a feeling of life like you've never experienced before. From that moment, you will stop believing there is a

God and start knowing there is a God— because you've experienced Him firsthand.

Whether you are a new Christian or an old Christian, be refreshed by the Spirit of God. Sit in His presence today and listen carefully to His voice. Sensitize yourself to His voice in the secret place; then carry that sensitivity with you for the rest of the day.

Continue to meditate on His presence for the rest of the day, wherever you are. Whether at work or at home, meditate on His presence, listening carefully to His voice. True servants of God are ones that makes themselves ready for His service at all times. We, as His servants, are on call 24/7 to do the works of God.

Be listening for His voice, that you may truly be on call. Then, when He speaks, do whatever He says as a faithful servant. Never delay in obedience, but be faithful. If you truly surrender to God, abide in His presence, and obey His Spirit, you'll have no reason for doubt. If ever you've questioned your salvation, do these things and you'll feel the peace of God through faith.*

Day Four

Peace

Jesus, give me the peace You promise between me and the Father. Please bless me in it and establish me forever. Give me spiritual peace and peace on every side.

Please remember your peace in my life, in my family, in my church, in my struggles, in my home, and everywhere I am. Hedge me in with Your perfect peace. Surround me in Your love and deliver me from turmoil and spiritual warfare.

“Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.” Philippians 4:6–7

*Let your thoughts be established in the peace of God through prayer. Lay everything at His feet. If there are any plans or desires in your heart, release them to God. Lay them at His feet and give Him control over the situation.

When God leads you, your life will have peace. Saturate your desires in prayer and let God’s answers quench your thirst. If you give God control, He will give you perfect peace. Take this time to seek Him in prayer. Lay your desires before Him and let them go, that He may show you His desires.

Sit in His presence and be satisfied by His love. Everything God wants for you is perfect. Whatever you desire is tainted by your sinful heart. Hence, temptation begins with our desire. Therefore, let God establish you by conforming your desires to His.*

Day Five
Protection

Lord, establish my heart before You. Deliver me in my times of need. Deliver me from those who rise against me, and do not deliver to the will of my adversaries. Remember Your love over me and protect Your servant. Am I not Your baby? Remember Your promise to protect me. Save me from my adversaries and give me hope in You.

“Can a woman forget her nursing child, and not have compassion on the son of her womb? Surely they may forget, yet I will not forget you. See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands…” Isaiah 49:15–16

“The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked came against me to eat up my flesh, my enemies and foes, they stumbled and fell. Though an army may encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war may rise against me, in this I will be confident.

“One thing I have desired of the LORD, that will I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in His temple. For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; in the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me high upon a rock.

“And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me; therefore I will offer sacrifices of joy in His tabernacle; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.

“Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice! Have mercy also upon me, and answer me. When You said, ‘Seek My face,’ my heart said to You, ‘Your face, LORD, I will seek.’ Do not hide Your face from me; do not turn Your servant away in anger; You have been my help; do not leave me nor forsake me, O God of my salvation. When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take care of me.

“Teach me Your way, O LORD, and lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies. Do not deliver me to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and such as breathe out violence. I would have lost heart, unless I had believed that I would see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

“Wait on the LORD; be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; wait, I say, on the LORD!” Psalm 27:1–14

*Beloved, God cannot forget the child He nurses in the milk of His word. He will have tender compassion on you and save you from all things. He will protect you with His feathers under the shadow of His wings. Only remember His love now and be edified by Him. Take this time to sit in His presence. The chicks are best protected under the wing of their mother. As it is written,

“He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.” Psalm 91:1

Beloved, sit in the secret place now and find His protection. God is faithful to finish what He began in you—only have faith now that He will.

“…being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ…” Philippians 1:6*

Day Six
Healing

Lord, remember Your promise of healing over me. Heal my heart, heal my body, and heal my soul by cleansing me of sin. Physician, heal me! Bless me with my daily needs. Keep me from sickness and infirmities. Keep me also from sin, which is the infirmity of my heart and soul.

“Behold, I will bring it health and healing; I will heal them and reveal to them the abundance of peace and truth.” Jeremiah 33:6

*The Lord heals us in more than one way. We have infirmities of flesh, of heart, and of soul. In the grief of your heart, God will comfort and heal your brokenness.

In the illness of the flesh, He heals the body and keeps us from harm. Sometimes we are left with an infirmity, but only for the sake of spiritual growth or for going home to Jesus. If it is not necessary to be ill, then why would He allow it?

Since there is nothing that can slip through His hands, we understand that there’s a reason for everything. If He gives you an illness and doesn’t immediately heal you, first ask Him to see if there is anything He wants to teach you through the situation. Learn to praise God in your afflictions and to grow from them. Is this not having an upright heart?

But God also heals our soul of the sickness of sin. The Old Testament many times used illness as a symbol for sin. Jesus bore the infirmities not only of the flesh but also of the soul. Indeed, the sin of mankind was laid on His shoulders.

Now, it is important to note that sin can bring infirmity. In the Old Testament we read that there are repercussions for an unrepentant believer. Paul discusses this concept briefly in his first letter to the Corinthians. As we read,

“But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body. For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep.” 1 Corinthians 11:28–30

In this passage Paul is talking about “eating and drinking” the bread and wine of communion. Communion, as we know, symbolizes the Lord’s death for the sake of our forgiveness. Simply put, if you’re not walking in repentance, then you are trampling the body and blood of Christ. Likewise, the Corinthians were not treating the sacrifice of Christ with dignity.

By being unrepentant, a believer is no different than the Corinthians in that he or she is approaching the sacrifice of Christ in an unworthy manner. If you're taking the grace and forgiveness of God for granted, you are "eating and drinking" judgment on yourself. Therefore, it is easy to understand that if believers have unrepentant sin, they will be contended with, so that they may repent. As we already read,

"For this reason many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep." 1 Corinthians 11:30

If you are sick and aren't experiencing healing, pray and ask God if you did anything to merit discipline. If so, then repent and press forward in your walk to do rightly. Not everyone gets sick because of doing something wrong, but it doesn't hurt to ask God if this is the case or not.

If you are being contended with for sin, you won't always be healed immediately after repenting, although this can happen. Therefore, expect to be found faithful while suffering.

For in this God is testing your heart. But in due and proper time, He may heal you—although I have seen some left with traces of a major illnesses to remind them daily never to walk in unrepentance. But those situations were for gravely deep and serious sins.

Be grateful for grace and walk in the Spirit. Abstain from sin, and God will continuously protect you from the trials of flesh. When you're found faithful, there will be less suffering, but it doesn't mean you won't get sick. You will be sick less because you're no longer being contended with. Also, God will withhold what is not necessary by placing His protective hand on you. However, if something is necessary for our growth or that of others, He may give it.

But what we consider necessary is not always what God considers necessary. Sometimes people may become sick for someone else's conviction, repentance, or salvation. Jesus bore His cross for our sakes, and sometimes we have to bear a cross for someone else.

Take this time to seek His healing. If you've committed any sin, confess it to Him now in quietness. If there is anything burdening you, sit in His love and be comforted. If you're sick, pray for healing. Pray for His protection from all infirmities. Take this time to abide in the Spirit and meditate on His presence. Continue to seek Him as He leads in prayer.*

Day Seven

A New Body

Jesus, I'm so excited to see You at Your return! How magnificent and awesome it will be! I'm already awestruck by how wonderful You are; how much more so in the day I see You dazzling in all Your glory and power!

Who am I that You would consider me in these things, or that I should have a body like Yours? I'm so deeply humble and yet infinitely grateful. Thank You, Jesus! Thank You for a body without weakness. Thank You for a body without sickness or sin. Thank you, Lord! I'm unworthy, but You're so good to love.

I believe that Your thoughts really are higher than mine. I can't even imagine the shape of Your face or the glory and beauty of Your frame, yet You've determined to conform me to Your image.

Please remember me in the day of salvation. Take me up and give me that body! Remember Your promise to me and make me more like You, that I can have hope in an eternal relationship with You.

"Beloved, now we are children of God; and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." 1 John 3:2

"Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed —in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.

"So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: 'Death is swallowed up in victory.' 'O Death, where is your sting? O Hades, where is your victory?'" 1 Corinthians 15:51–55

*God's image will be your image. He will recreate a new body for you, which will be the image of His glory. Take this time to meditate on His graciousness.

What manner of gift is this that He gives us! How undeserving we are. Yet the love of God knows no bounds. Sit in His presence and reflect on His promise for you.*

Day Eight
Rest

Jesus, give me rest in You. Fill me with Your Spirit and bless me with Your comfort. Work in me and through me, that I may rest from the works of the flesh. Give me rest, both now, from the works of the flesh, and before You when I come home.

Remember Your promise over me and give me strength to persist in Your Spirit. I know that I'm called no longer to work, because I am saved through faith. Yet I know that faith means nothing unless I do something with it and walk in love.

Satisfy me in Your Spirit and work through me. Remember me in judgment, that I may enter Your rest.

"Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it.

"For we who have believed do enter that rest, as He has said: 'So I swore in My wrath, "they shall not enter My rest,'" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. For He has spoken in a certain place of the seventh day in this way: 'And God rested on the seventh day from all His works'; and again in this place: 'They shall not enter my rest.'

"Since therefore it remains that some must enter it, and those to whom it was first preached did not enter because of disobedience, again He designates a certain day, saying in David, 'Today,' after such a long time, as it has been said: 'Today, if you will hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.'

"For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

"Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience." Hebrews 4:1–11

*There are many forms of rest. Our flesh rests at night when we sleep, and we may rest after a long day of work. We rest spiritually when we die, have a Sabbath rest, or rest in God's Spirit, that He may work through us. There are very many forms of rest, and God calls us to each work individually.

We rest in His Spirit during the day, and we meditate on His Spirit at night. We rest on a Sabbath while not forgetting to rest daily from the works of the flesh. That way God may operate through us—through our surrender.

By works of the flesh, we mean to say not only sin but also our personal ambitions, which can be another form of sin. When we follow our own heart, we aren't following Christ. When we surrender our works and our strivings to follow the plan God has for us, we lay our flesh to rest in order to work and operate in the Spirit. And even as Jesus said,

"My Father has been working until now, and I have been working." John 5:17

Jesus was proclaiming that He was not working in the flesh, but rather the Father was working through Him. The works He did on the Sabbath were acceptable because God is above the Sabbath. Jesus healed the sick and was accused of evil. God is not ruled by the Sabbath, but He is Lord of the Sabbath, having created it. Through this Jesus was introducing the concept of having the Spirit work through you. If the Holy Spirit is working through you, it is no longer you who works but God. Therefore, you are justified even on the Sabbath because it is God who works and not you. In this you're practicing a continual Sabbath, because God is working through you as you rest from the works of the flesh.

Indeed, we are called to rest from all our fleshly works—both the works of sin and the works of trying to please God. Let God please Himself through you. Obey His word and God will work through you. Faith comes by His word, and when we obey, we are walking by faith. As we walk in faith, it is no longer we who work but God in us.

Yet remember that faith comes from His word. If the Holy Spirit hasn't directly told you to do something, then you're not walking by faith. Thus, you are working, not God. You are operating in the flesh if you don't follow the daily leading of the Holy Spirit.

Although we are called to rest like Jesus, we are called always to be operating in the Spirit. Hence, He worked even on the Sabbath. We rest while we continue to operate in the Spirit. We rest while the Father leads us and works in us through the Holy Spirit.

Take this time to rest in the Spirit. Listen carefully to the voice of the Spirit throughout the day, and do everything He says. In this you have laid your works to rest, that you may pick up His. And as Jesus said,

"Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light.” Matthew 11:28–30

Beloved, labor no more, but rather let the Spirit operate through you. Be attentive to His voice and obey all that He gives you to do.*

Day Nine
Strength

Lord, be my strength in my weakness. When I'm tempted, give me strength as I lift my prayers to You. Thank You for the strength You give me. Thank You for the hope You give me through that strength. I know that it is You who works in me for holiness. Please remember my needs and deliver me from the will of the flesh.

Be my strength to overcome. And when I can't stand, give me strength to walk in You. When my heart is broken, be my comfort. Help me to carry on and continue in your Spirit as You command me.

"Now hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out in our hearts by the Holy Spirit who was given to us. For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly." Romans 5:5–6

When you're broken, He's your comfort. When you're tempted, He's your refuge. When you've sinned, He's your restoration. When you have need, He's your providence. Anytime you feel weak, abide in His Spirit and He will give you strength. He will deliver you and save you from everything that comes your way. Take this time to abide in His Spirit and meditate on His presence.

Day Ten

Deliverance from Temptation

Lead me not into temptation, but deliver me from Satan. Be my strength in my weakness and help me to overcome. Lord, I desire Your will and Your holiness. Remember me now in the times of my temptation and deliver me. Be my strength and deliver me from desire.

Remember Your promise of strength to overcome sin. I pursue it now, that I may be holy before You.

“And do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For Yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.” Matthew 6:13

“…My grace is sufficient for you, for My strength is made perfect in weakness…” 2 Corinthians 12:9

*Anytime you’re tempted, run from the situation and sit in the secret place with God. Pray for strength and to be delivered from Satan. If you allow your thoughts to dwell on your desire for sin, you will fall! But if you flee the sin, even in your thoughts, you’ll have a chance to be free. As it is written,

“Flee also youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.” 2 Timothy 2:22

But to where do you run when you flee from sin? The farthest possible place. And where is the farthest possible place from sin? The Lord.

If you’re tempted, it’s probably because you’re allowing your thoughts to drift in idleness. But run to the Lord when you’re tempted. Sit down and pray immediately, and get in the Spirit. Keep your mind on Christ, meditating on the Holy Spirit, and so love the Lord with all your mind.

Abide in the Spirit, and you’ll find strength to overcome. Stop thinking about what’s tempting you and talk to the Lord instead. Let your thoughts meditate on His presence, and spend some time praying and worshipping while completely ignoring the thoughts that tempt you.

After some time, the temptation will leave you altogether. Satan will give up because Christ in you has overcome. But be aware that the enemy will wait to tempt you at a more opportune time. If you’re properly prepared to resist the devil, however, then you will overcome at that time as well.

If you allow your thoughts to drift back to the tempting thought, you will fail. Flee the evil thoughts, both in mind and in body. Beloved, don’t give room for the devil! If you sit and meditate on the Spirit, worshipping God and praying for strength with faith, you’ll overcome temptation every time. If you do not have faith, it will not happen. But according to the measure of your faith, so will your strength be.*

Day Eleven

Power over the Enemy

Lord, deliver me from the enemy. Save me from His workings. Save me from everything he does to divide me from family, from friends, from church, and from you. Save me from his fiery darts and be my strength against his temptations.

Thank You for the power You give me against the devil. But I don't rejoice in this! I rejoice that I'm Yours and You are mine. Thank You that You write my name in Your book and give me authority for my own sake and for Your glory.

Remember Your promise of authority and teach me the depths of it, that I may see the glory of God. Overcome Satan for me and deliver me from the devices of the enemy. Save my family, friends, church, and everyone in my life from the works of demons.

Deliver us from the devil and be glorified by Your works in our lives. Unify us in the Spirit and your peace. Save us from the lies of Satan, especially the subtle ones that enter our doctrine. Lord, I want to live according to Your truth.

"Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names are written in heaven." Luke 10:19–20

*When you fall under spiritual warfare, and when you have afflictions, God gives you authority to rebuke the enemy. Yet this is not the final answer to the workings of Satan. Whom does the devil fear most? You or God? The Lord, no doubt! He only fears you because of God at work in you.

The best way to resist Satan is not merely to rebuke him, but also to run into the arms of Jesus. Abide in the Spirit and meditate on His presence. God will give you strength to continue in the Lord. He will give you strength to overcome both temptation and spiritual warfare.

If ever there is a time when warfare doesn't seem to go away, there are two reasons for this. The first is fear: If you're fearing the enemy, you're giving him power over you. Whatever you fear has power over you. Where there is fear, there is no faith. Therefore, fear the Lord, that He may have the authority over you. Have faith in the promises of God, and His peace will be established in you.

The second reason the enemy may not leave after a rebuke is because of sin. If you're not heading down the right path in life—if you're not following the Lord, if you're not surrendering your plans, if you're not abiding in the Spirit, or if you're committing any sin of any kind—Satan won't leave. Why? Because you're welcoming him there by fulfilling sinful desire.

You can't rebuke Satan and welcome him at the same time. You make the whole lump either leavened or unleavened. Either the water will be salty or it will be fresh. There is no place between light and darkness. There is no grey area in Christ. Either you are for Him or you are against Him. You cannot both rebuke the devil and obey him at the same time.

Change your heart and repent; then resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Obey Christ and you will be empowered by Him to overcome the enemy. Beloved, always draw near to God. Resist the devil through the Spirit. If the enemy won't leave, inquire of God to find out what's wrong. How are you sinning? Are you going the wrong way in your plans of life? Are you committing any blatantly obvious sin? Beloved, first submit to God, repent of sin, and draw near to the Lord. Then you will be strengthened to overcome the devices of the enemy. Abide in the Spirit and then resist Satan steadfastly in the faith. For what do we read?

"Therefore submit to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and He will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded." James 4:7–8

Beloved, these two go hand in hand. Remember that resisting Satan is more than shouting rebukes; it also requires you to draw near to God. Satan can't fight God. Darkness flees from the light, and sin can't dwell where the Lord is. Therefore, abide in the Spirit and the devil will leave you alone. But if He does come to attack or tempt you, you will have strength to stand because you're abiding in the Spirit.*

Day Twelve
Freedom from Sin and Bondage

Thank You, Jesus, that You set me free! Deliver me from my own heart and purify it. Be my strength in my weakness, that I may walk worthily of You. Give me strength in temptation, that I may overcome it.

Help me to abide in You, that I may truly have freedom. Save me in the heat of the moment, when desire is ruling over me. Strengthen me and remember Your promise to free me from sin and bondage.

“For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God. Likewise you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

“Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. And do not present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to God as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace.

“What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not! Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves slaves to obey, you are that one’s slaves whom you obey, whether of sin leading to death, or of obedience leading to righteousness?

“But God be thanked that though you were slaves of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine to which you were delivered. And having been set free from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.” Romans 6:10–18

*Press forward in the race and abstain from every form of evil. When we sit in the light, darkness cannot reign over us. When you’re worshipping in the Spirit, are you sinning? No, but you have to stop worshipping and take your eyes off the Spirit to sin.

Similarly to Peter, who looked away from Christ and fell in the water, if you turn from the Spirit, you’ll fall into temptation. Take this time to sit in the Spirit and abide in Him. Be filled with the light and let holiness reign in your heart.

If you continue in the Spirit all day, every day, you’ll continue in victory over sin and bondage all day, every day. Therefore, let that be your goal—to continue in the Spirit continuously.*

Day Thirteen

Forgiveness

Who am I that You would choose to go through so much suffering for me? I'm wicked, and You're perfect! Yet You would choose to suffer for me? I've done so many things contrary to You, why would You love me?

Lord, Your love is perfect, and I couldn't understand it until I received You. God, You're so good! I'm not worthy of the least of Your kindnesses. Thank You that You forgive me—thank You that You love me.

"For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.

"For if when we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life." Romans 5:7–10

*Jesus has been through so much to love you. He was beaten, whipped, and torn apart. He was scourged for your sin and killed for your transgressions.

He loved you and wanted to set you free from the bondage of sin and the slavery of death. He counted you worth suffering for. He chose to suffer the cross for the joy set before Him. His joy was not only to sit at the right hand of the Father but also to have an enduring relationship with you.

Beloved, you are His joy and His treasure! Remember His love for you and everything He has endured. Keep from sin and remain holy.

And what does it mean to be "holy"? 'Holy' simply put means "complete" or "set apart." The English word 'holy,' according to Merriam Webster, comes from the Old English word 'halig'—akin to 'hal,' which means "whole." Hence, 'holy' in the truest sense means "whole" or "complete."

Therefore, it is easy to understand that the Holy Spirit makes us complete in Christ. When we're complete in Christ, we are made perfect. Hence, we are made "holy" and are set apart for His purpose.

But how are we made complete on a daily basis? Through abiding and walking in the Holy Spirit daily. When we abide in the Holy Spirit, we are made whole and overcome sin. Darkness cannot abide where the light is. Meditate on His presence. Pray often and worship Him. If you do this continually in your heart throughout the day, temptation will deplete and will mostly disappear in your life.

We know that Jesus was perfect and holy at all times. He always was “abiding” in the Father because He is God. Yet He also was tempted in all things.

Similarly to Jesus, when we abide in the Spirit, it doesn’t mean we won’t be tempted but, rather, that we’ll have strength to stand when we are in fact tempted. However, when you are abiding and meditating on Him, you’ll be tempted less. If you focus on the desires of the flesh, you’ll be tempted more. Therefore, Beloved, abide in the Spirit and do away with the works of the flesh.*

“I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.” Galatians 5:16

“If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.” Galatians 5:25

“Therefore, brethren, we are debtors—not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.” Romans 8:12–13

“For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death, but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the law of God, nor indeed can be. So then, those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

“But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you. Now if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not His.” Romans 8:5–9

“For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God.” Romans 8:14

Day Fourteen
Righteousness

Create in me a clean heart, Jesus. Give me Your word daily through the leading of Your Spirit. I know that righteousness is obedience to Your word. So help me to open my ears, that I may hear You and obey.

I know that faith comes by Your word, and I will obey it. I also know that obedience to Your word is righteousness. For faith in motion is righteousness.

Remember Your promise of righteousness over me. Grow me in Your righteousness and help me to understand how to walk in it perfectly, daily. Help me to practice Your word and to obey Your voice.

I don't want to be found having my own "righteousness," which comes from my own works. I want to be found in Yours, which comes through faith in Your word and Your leading.

"He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light, and your justice as the noonday." Psalm 37:6

*Anything the Holy Spirit speaks is the word of God. He is God, and His words are His 'word.' We call the Bible the word of God because it is God-spoken and was written by the Holy Spirit through men.

Likewise, when the Lord speaks to you through the Holy Spirit, this also is the word of God and must be obeyed. Both the Bible and the active leading of the Spirit are the word of God. You cannot choose one above the other, but rather both must be obeyed equally. The Holy Spirit isn't less important than the Bible that He wrote. The Bible isn't less than the leading of the Spirit, either. For on the Bible all the teachings and leadings of the Spirit can be founded. Therefore, it is good to understand the Scriptures perfectly. I'd like to encourage you to memorize them and to know them well.

However, when the Lord speaks or when you think the Lord has spoken, you must confirm that it is God unless you know for certain that it is God already. If you're not certain He has spoken to you, then your faith is not in the Lord if you act on the word. Rather you are hoping that God spoke and are acting out of the unknown. We aren't called to have faith that God spoke, however, but to have faith in what God speaks.

Faith comes by hearing God's word, not in any other way. Although we are called to have blind faith, this doesn’t mean that we need to hope blindly that God has spoken while not actually knowing His word. We have blind faith when God’s word doesn’t make sense to us. We are trusting Him blindly because we can’t discern the outcome in advance. But faith in unknown words is foolishness and folly.

If you’re having faith in words and don’t know where they are from, then how do you know that your faith is in God and not in Satan or your own flesh? Beloved, confirm the word of God and so walk in the Spirit. Walk by true faith and you’ll overcome all things through the power of God.

When you have confirmed that God has spoken, obey Him—for faith comes by hearing God’s word, and righteousness comes by obeying it. Remember that righteousness is faith in motion. Do something with what you believe; then you will be found righteous.*

Day Fifteen

Wisdom

Lord, I want to be like Solomon—I'm asking You for wisdom. Remember Your promise of wisdom over me, Lord. Bless me in it and make me abound in it. Give me spiritual wisdom, that I may have understanding. Grant me discernment, that I may know when You're speaking, when I should speak, and how to act on faith.

Teach me, and increase me in wisdom. I know this is Your promise for everyone, so remember me in it and bless me with it.

"If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him." James 1:5

"For the LORD gives wisdom; from His mouth come knowledge and understanding; He stores up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to those who walk uprightly…" Proverbs 2:6–7

*Seek the Lord's wisdom today. Whenever you read the word, pray that He will give you wisdom. Whenever you're trying to memorize, pray that He would help you remember the Scriptures, and have faith that He will. He will give you wisdom according to your faith, so have all faith and you will receive it.

Be taught by the Holy Spirit, for He is your source of wisdom. Listen to His voice daily, believe Him, and obey Him continually. Take this time to seek the Lord's wisdom.

Spend this time reading the word. Pray for wisdom and that He would make the pages come alive. Pray that He would read them to you, speak them to you, and teach you their meaning. Pray for wisdom and seek the Lord in it. He will give to you according to your faith.*

Day Sixteen
Providence

Lord, provide for my needs. Take care of me. I make You my hiding place and my refuge. You're my strong tower in time of need.

You've called me to seek first Your kingdom and have promised that You would take care of the rest. I believe You! Don't leave me with needs. Remember Your servant and take care of me daily. Please give me my daily bread, both that which feeds my spirit and that which fills my stomach. I will rely on You for everything.

I know that this means I may abase before I abound. I know that You test my heart through giving me needs. Now let me be found faithful in Your sight as I choose to be provided for by You. Guide me, Lord, as I lean on You. I believe that if You guide me, You'll provide for me.

"And my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:19

"But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." Matthew 6:33

*Remember that the Lord loves you. He cares about your needs, and He will not cast them to the side. He will provide! For our God is mighty to save.

There is nothing about you that isn't important to Him. He tenderly and affectionately nurses your spirit as a mother nurses her baby. Beloved, you are God's baby, and He cannot forget you, nor can He forget your needs. He will take care of you. Therefore, seek Him and walk according to His Spirit—and He will provide.*

"Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He shall direct your paths." Proverbs 3:5–6

Day Seventeen

Prospering in Christ

Lord, I know that I may not always prosper on this earth. Yet I know that You promised me prosperity before Your throne. Therefore, Lord, I do not pray that I should prosper in this life but, rather, that You would supply my needs.

I do, however, pray that the prosperity You give me would be a prospering relationship with You. I want to grow more deeply and intimately in love with You. Stretch me in my faith and prosper me in the Holy Spirit, that I may abound in the love of God.

Make me also to abound in the gifts of the Spirit, for in these gifts You are intimate with me. Therefore, Lord, I pray that my relationship with You should prosper more and more, and that you would make me to abound in the Holy Spirit.

“Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be in health, just as your soul prospers.” 3 John 1:2

*Notice that the scripture says “just as your soul prospers.” God does intend to bless us with many blessings. He says that the riches of the nations shall flow into the city (the New Jerusalem).

God intends to bless us with His prosperity when we are responsible enough to handle it. Because we are sinful, we can’t handle these gifts until we have our new bodies. When all things are complete, we will prosper. We will know no suffering, pain, fear, brokenness, or anything negative. All things will be blessed in Christ Jesus, who has redeemed us from the curse that has caused the sufferings of this present life.

Knowing this, we should not be seeking to prosper in this life. But we read this scripture: “just as your soul prospers.” Beloved, do you not realize what this is saying? It tells us that the first thing to prosper is what’s inside of you. Your soul should prosper before your flesh.

God will provide all of our needs, but not all of our wants. Not all of our wants are godly. If they were godly, then why do we still have sin?

He does give a promise for prospering, but that promise is not for this life; rather, it is for the life to come. Therefore, we should store up the true riches that are found in Christ.

Although there will be seasons of abounding financially, be prepared for seasons of abasing as well. Not everyone will be rich in this life. Though there are a few who have such blessings, not everyone is called to that life. But those who are so blessed are commanded by the Lord not to trust in uncertain riches.

Therefore, Beloved, I would like to encourage you to seek the prosperity Christ gives you. Prosper in a blessed and intimately deep relationship with Him. Prosper in the Holy Spirit and the things of Christ. Seek to gain heavenly wealth, and lay aside the desires and pleasures of this life. Serve God in truth and be blessed in a relationship with Him forever.

“Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

For all that is in the world—the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life—is not of the Father but is of the world.

And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.” 1 John 2:15–17

“But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you.” Matthew 6:33*

Day Eighteen

Holy Spirit

Thank You, Lord, for Your Spirit! Thank You for the promise of Your deposit, that I should have hope. Lord, I put my faith in Him and will obey His voice as He tenderly whispers to me. Continue to pour Your Spirit out on me. May I be blessed by Your continual outpouring, for I know that You do not give Him by measure.

Bless me in Your Spirit and continually fill me. Fill me, that I may worship you in the Spirit. Yes, Lord! As I breathe in Your Spirit, I will breathe out Your praise!

“And it shall come to pass afterward that I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh; your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days.” Joel 2:28–29

“Then the Spirit of the LORD will come upon you, and you will prophesy with them and be turned into another man.” 1 Samuel 10:6

*God has promised His Holy Spirit. When you abide in Him, He continues to pour upon you. For God does not give the Spirit by measure but, rather, continually pours as we pursue Him:

“For He whom God has sent speaks the words of God, for God does not give the Spirit by measure.” John 3:34

Therefore, Beloved, remember the promise of the Spirit. Pursue Him and portray all His fruits. Remember that His first fruit is love. If you’re walking in the Spirit, then you’ll be walking in love. His greatest power is His love, for the love of God overturns the grave. Walk in love, then, and you will walk in the full power of God.*

Day Nineteen
Spiritual Gifts

Thank You, Lord for the gifts You give me. I know that every good thing and every perfect thing is from You. Give me Your heart and Your hands, and work in me. Bless me in Your Spirit as I pursue Your gifts. Grow me in them and help me to understand my place in the church. Remember Your promise of spiritual gifts over me and give to me as you see fit.

“Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.” 1 Corinthians 14:1

“But one and the same Spirit works all these things, distributing to each one individually as He wills.” 1 Corinthians 12:11

*Seek the gifts of the Spirit! For through them we experience the intimacy of God. Yet remember that His greatest gift is love.

Therefore, Beloved, pursue love, especially that you may work it out by faith. Pray also for the gifts of the Spirit. Pray for prophecy, dreams, visions, and all the things of the Lord. He will give to you as He wills.

Each gift determines which member of the body we will be. Knowing this, God will give you the gifts most suitable for your part in the church. Yet pray for them all, for who knows what the Lord has willed and what He has planned?

But know this: It is God’s desire to be intimate with you and share His Spirit with you. He will give you gifts and be more intimate with you if you fervently seek Him for it. So Seek His Spirit and walk in love.*

Day Twenty
Truth

Lead me to the truth in all things. Jesus, give me wisdom, that I should know the truth of Your doctrine. For I know that there is only one way to heaven. Thus, there is only one truth and one doctrine to live by.

Lead me to the truth, that I should know the Scriptures perfectly and rightly divide them.

“However, when He, the Spirit of truth, has come, He will guide you into all truth; for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak; and He will tell you things to come.” John 16:13

“But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.” John 14:26

“For I rejoiced greatly when brethren came and testified of the truth that is in you, just as you walk in the truth.

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.” 3 John 1:3–4

*God desires to lead you into all truth. There is no reason for doubt when it comes to doctrine. You should know Christ’s doctrine perfectly. If you don’t, then seek the Holy Spirit and He will lead you to it as He teaches you.

Seek the Lord and pray for understanding as you read the Scriptures. The Holy Spirit will interpret them to you and show you how to apply them rightly on a day-to-day, moment-by-moment basis. Memorize as much as you can, and then all things will begin to make more sense.

Always pursue the truth. Have a passion for it. Jesus tells us that He is the way, truth, and life. To seek the truth of His doctrine is to seek Jesus, for He is the truth. If, then, you’re passionate for the Lord, be zealous for the truth and live by it.*

Day Twenty-One

His Return

Come, Lord Jesus, come! Hasten the day of Your return and redeem me from this world! It grows more and more corrupt every day, and this only makes me long for You more. Return, Lord, and establish love, truth, and Your kingdom.

“Therefore, since all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, looking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved, being on fire, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?

“Nevertheless we, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.” 2 Peter 3:11–13

*Pray for the Lord’s return. Until He comes, be found faithful in love, in faith, in your conduct, and in purity, dwelling in the Spirit of God unto the salvation of your soul.

Continue in the Spirit and in the works that benefit a relationship with Him. Continue to pursue Him and continue to meet with Him in the secret place. Let go of this world and the things that belong to it. Release this present life and carry your cross to honor God in everything you do. Conduct yourself in godliness, not forsaking the needs of others but, instead, filling them perfectly. Walk in love and honor God through obedience.*
