

Promises Of The Word

The Bible is both closed physically and sealed spiritually. The Holy spirit is the only key to unveil the written or spoken word. And to invite or have the spirit of God is to have relationship. Relationship with the word gives birth to the spirit in increasing measure. And when the word and the spirit has dominated our heart, relationship with the Word and the Spirit then journeys us, merges us into Oneness with God.

The spirit of God is what gives life, being to the word, He is that which makes the word reality. The spirit of God is power, it is God Himself. Where the spirit of God is change is inevitable. To the measure of God's Spirit in us, to that measure we've known [become] God and to that measure God will be evident in and through us. Whenever you hear or see the Spirit of God, remember "Relationship."

If we know [live] this revelation "relationship," we can never limit God in us

A free heart; a forgiving heart, a Repentant heart and a heart free from the cares and worries of this world i.e. a heart that no longer holds the future in his hands but has willingly chosen to live only the will of God. And more importantly a heart of relationship to genuinely know and become more of God also is key to open the bible spiritually and make the Word come alive, become Life to our spirit.

- If we see God's word as literature, history, religious rights, or a charm for selfish needs, it'll remain lifeless to us.
- If we see God's word as mirror revealing what we are and what we're not in Christ Jesus, we'll be changed increasingly into the Likeness of God
- If we see it as Voice of God, mind of God, Heart of God, it'll become God speaking, revealing His Heart to us.
- If we see it as bread to our spirit; it'll become Life to our spirit being, building God in us as we are being filled increasingly with His Spirit [the wine, His blood].

- If we have relationship with the word, it'll give birth to manifold revelation in our hearts. And if we live revelation of God, we'll become that very revelation, we'll become the very Word.
- If truly, genuinely we give our heart to the word, we will definitely become the very Word, God Himself
- From the old to the new covenant; all who became Love [God] all had relationship first with the Word And then relationship with the Word and the Spirit.
- Become the Word, then you've truly become a success

Work on your relationship
