

Part 2 – God’s Rebuttal

In part 1 we learned ‘why the heathen rage’ and ‘imagine vain things’. With the help of the plotting of the Kenites (children of Cain, who was sired by Satan himself), the kings and rulers of the world are working to bring about a one-world system that casts aside the Word of God as the foundational doctrine, and replaces it with the bastardized doctrine of Satan himself; it’s made up of humanistic principals, ‘politically correct’ doctrine and religious ‘traditions of man’ ostensibly designed to bring about ‘world peace’. So, the rulers of this world – many of whom are fully initiated into the precepts, policies and doctrines of the “great city” - are quite literally working to cast off God’s principles and to replace them with the principles of the worldwide “city” they serve. And we learned that this ‘great city’ (Rev 17) is the ‘worldly’ system that Satan created (in the first earth age) which he’s using in this earth age to corrupt the world again. It’s a system of his ungodly precepts, principles and doctrine. It’s a ‘city’ of religious initiation where the people of this earth are initiated (albeit many unknowingly) into the practice of substituting a false god (Satan) in place of the true God (Yehovah, a.k.a. YHVH), but calling it by the Lord’s Sacred name (Yehovah, a.k.a. YHVH). And these rebellious kings, and rulers, of the world even refer to God’s principles and policies, in essence, as being nothing more than inconvenient shackles and bonds. In short, they want to replace God’s foundational moral and ethical principles with the evil principles of the worldwide ‘city’ (without walls or national boundaries) being built.

So, while those who are ‘blessed’ (happy) meditate on God’s laws (and Jesus Christ as their King), the spiritual ‘heathen’ people of the world imagine a ‘world peace’ without Jesus Christ or the ‘shackles’ of God’s perfect laws (Ps 19:7-9). But, God is all powerful and all knowing. They cannot change His plan of Salvation, no matter how hard they try. Thus, the kings of the earth station (or position) themselves in opposition to God and His Anointed, Jesus Christ, as they consult with each other in order to lay a foundation that opposes God and His Word. But, we also learned that God is not at all worried about anyone taking His throne nor about the heathen raging. What He is concerned about is the eternal fate of His children. As 2 Peter 3:9 points out: The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. He truly doesn’t want any of His children to die spiritually (aside from Satan and the fallen angels who are already condemned to die, Ezek 28, Rev 20, Jude). And that’s why He is so ‘longsuffering’ to us-ward. He’s longsuffering because He uses great self-control in not yet pouring out His wrath upon the wicked (until it’s time for Jesus Christ to return) because He has determined that He will see His ‘plan of Salvation’ through, to the end, so that all of His children, even the wicked, have a chance to sincerely repent and turn back to Him by accepting His only begotten Son, Jesus Christ.

We also learned that, in God’s eyes, their efforts to overthrow Him and His Living Word are quite pathetic. He both scorns and mocks them for their puny efforts. Why can God laugh at their puny efforts to overthrow them? Because ‘He seeth that his day is coming’. In other words, He knows exactly when the day of vengeance is going to come and it’ll sneak up on them as a ‘thief in the night’ because, the ‘day of the Lord’ (i.e. the Second Advent of Jesus Christ) will come unexpectedly (it’s also written in Rev 16:15). And most everyone on earth will not be expecting the true Jesus Christ because Satan will be kicked out of heaven, to earth, before Jesus Christ returns. And when he’s here, Satan will be claiming to be the Messiah of all religions - the ‘Savior’ of the world (2 Thess 2, Rev 12-13, Dan 9-12, etc.).

So, no, most people (except for the few faithful who don’t bow a knee to Satan) will not expect the true Jesus Christ to return because they’ll think He already has... only it’s the Devil himself! And, that’s why God can laugh at the heathen who rage. The wicked who rage now will be utterly shocked (and devastated, as Rev 18 tells us) when Jesus returns (in an ‘instant’ – Isa 29:5-6, 30:13-14) to arrest them and destroys that ‘great city’ they sold their soul to. As Peter’s epistle also told us: But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men (2 Peter 3:7). So, our Heavenly Father has it all planned out. He’s got nothing to worry about. He’s just waiting for the right time to send His Son back to earth to kick some ass. And, He’s not only going to be cleaning out earth (of wicked doers) when He returns (2 Thess 1:7-10, 2 Pt 3), He’ll also clean out the heavenly dimension too. But, we also learned that those who love God and His Son, Jesus Christ (and remain faithful to Him even when Satan’s on earth during the ‘great tribulation’) have nothing to worry about. They’ll be protected by God during that time of tribulation and rewarded with eternal life when Jesus returns (instead of God’s wrath).

We’ll now continue on with our study of the second Psalms, as our Heavenly Father continues to tell us what else He’ll do to the wicked rulers who so defiantly plot against Him and against His faithful followers...

Psalms 2

5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure.

The word ‘vex’ here is bahal (#926), a primitive root that means: to tremble inwardly (or palpitate), i.e. (figuratively) be (causative, make) (suddenly) alarmed or agitated; by implication to hasten anxiously. He even likens their pain to a woman’s childbirth in Isa 13:6-9, 26:17, Jer 6:24 and Micah 4:10-16. The wrath of God is both just and severe. And the tables will be turned at the time of Christ’s Second Advent. Those who so haughtily oppose our heavenly Father and His Living Word today (and persecute those who are faithful to Jesus Christ) will crawl, quaking in fear, into the dens and rocks of the mountains at Christ’s Second Advent. As it is written of these very same kings and rulers of the earth...

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood;

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

14 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

*16 And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Rev 6:12-17

Isaiah is a second witness to this...

10 Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty.

11 The lofty looks of man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

12 For the day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low...

...17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.

18 And the idols he shall utterly abolish.

19 And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

20 In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats;

21 To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.

22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

Isa 2:10-12, 17-22

And, as it is also written of these rulers in Isaiah 29:16: Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that framed it, He had no understanding? In other words, their attempts to overthrow the very policies of God will result in their being broken into shivers like a piece of defective pottery. The ceramic pot (flesh body) is not stronger or smarter than the potter who made it because no man is stronger, or smarter, than his Maker. Their end will be an ignoble one. They will cower with fear and distress at Christ's Second Coming, knowing they have traitorously challenged the power and authority of the Creator of the Universe – their own Father – and failed in the attempt. Their shame shall be great. Their fear even greater.

Now, the answer to the question ...and who shall be able to stand? (Rev 6:17) is this: Only those who love and serve our heavenly Father, in Christ. So don't be one of those crawling on all fours looking for holes in the rocks to crawl into, like cockroaches scattering into the baseboards when the light is turned on. Prepare yourself to (and begin to) stand now, on behalf of our heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ; and continue to stand, even as the “great city” and its rulers rise into prominence in the background. [learn more on how to prepare in the special study: Don’t Blame God - <https://t.me/BibleStudyGodsWord/294>]. As Jesus said in the great Gospel of John...

*31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed;

*32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

John 8:31-32

*Only those who continue to obey His Words (the Bible) are His disciples and will be spared His wrath when Jesus returns. The truth His Word and Holy Spirit gives us frees our soul from the temptations of this life (Rom 6) and gives us the internal strength to stand against all evils that will come upon us (Eph 3:16). And never forget the reward of eternal life that’s waiting for all who remain faithful to Him (Rev 20:4-6). But, also don’t forget what’s waiting for those who do not remain faithful to Him. As it is written in the great book of Isaiah...*

20 Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!

21 Woe unto them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

22 Woe unto them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink:

23 Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!

24 Therefore as the fire devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 5:20-24

As it is written, so it shall be. Those who try to uproot and overthrow the precepts and policies of God, as spelled out in His Word, will be devoured in the spiritual flames of His righteous sword (the Word of God) “because they have cast away the law of the Lord of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.” As it’s written in another Psalm...

18 The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

Ps 37:18-20

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their strength in the time of trouble.

*40 And the LORD shall help them and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

Ps 37:38-40

Psalms 2

6 Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.

So, despite all of the ‘heathens’ raging and plotting against Him, God promises that He will set His King upon His Holy hill of Zion. Where’s that? Mount Zion is in Jerusalem, of course. 2 Sam 5:7 tells us that, when David was king, he conquered the city and made Zion (a portion in the city) his strong hold. Appendix 68 in the Companion Bible tells us that, while Zion later became ascribed to the whole area of the city of Jerusalem, it was initially the area immediately to the south of Mount Moriah where a ridged hill on the summit (mound or swelling) of which stood the Jebusite fortress that David conquered. David took the strong hold of Zion and called it the ‘city of David’. There’s a detailed picture of the area in that appendix as well. So, Zion is now usually thought of in regards to the entire city of Jerusalem, which is also where God’s Holy Temple was built by Solomon. And that’s what He’s referring to in this Psalm. The point He’s making here is that: no matter how hard the heathen earthly rulers try to supplant Him as King of kings, they will fail. Further to this, even when Satan is kicked out of heaven, to earth, and sits on a ‘throne’ in Zion, he too will be kicked out at Jesus’s Second Advent. This is why Jesus warns us...

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.

Matt 24:15-18

That ‘holy place’ Satan (who IS the ‘abomination of desolation’) will ‘stand in’ is God’s favorite city, Jerusalem. And, consequently, this is also where Jesus Christ (the true one) will be returning. As Acts 1:9-12 tells us: this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven (Acts 1:11). So, Jesus Christ will return to Jerusalem; specifically on Mount Olives, as verse 12 above tells us. And so, the entire city of Jerusalem will be surrounded with Satan’s many fallen angel followers in an attempt to ‘protect’ the city, when Satan comes (which Rev 9 describes as ‘locusts’). That’s why the Gospel of Luke tells us...

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

Luke 21:20-22

Jesus warns those who love and remain faithful to Him to get out of Jerusalem when we see Satan and his fallen angel army land there. [Learn more with the special study on: The Armies <https://t.me/BibleStudyDownload/351>]. Not only should they want to leave because Satan will be there, but that's also where the main battle on the 'days of vengeance' will take place when Jesus Christ returns. As the great book of Zechariah explains...

1 Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

*5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD my God shall come, and all the saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor night: but it shall come to pass, that at evening time it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

*9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his name one.

Zech 14:1-9

So, when Jesus Christ returns to the Mount of Olives, a great earthquake will split the city and destroy the very place that Satan defiled with his wicked presence. It's at that time that...

1 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

Rev 20:1-3

When Jesus Christ returns (to the Mount of Olives, just outside of Jerusalem), with His holy angels (who are all those who remained faithful to Him but have passed on from their flesh bodies and gone back to the heavenly dimension, Ecc 12:6-7, 2 Cor 5, 1 Cor 15) He'll do so with great power and glory, as it's written...

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

*26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

*27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

Mark 13:24-27

Matthew 13 also tells us His angels will also gather the wicked people (even the ones hiding in the rocks – Zeph 1:12). So, all of God's children (in heaven and on earth) will be gathered, and separated, for the Millennial time of ruling and teaching. Those who are faithful will reign with Jesus Christ (Rev 20:4-6) but all others will either be imprisoned (Isa 24) or ruled tightly with His mighty 'rod of iron' (Rev 19:15); and all who didn't make the first resurrection will taught the difference between right and wrong (God's Word) by those who did make the first resurrection (Ezek 44, Rev 20). This then is what Psalms 2:6 is speaking about. Truly, God will set His 'King' (who is Jesus Christ) on His Holy Hill of Zion; but it'll be after Satan comes first to sit himself in Jerusalem (which again, is what defiles the city because Satan IS the 'abomination of desolation' – his presence desolates the city) so he can rule the world with his wicked system and wicked angels. As 2 Thess 2:4 explains, Satan opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. But, when Jesus Christ returns, God will have a special angel go after Satan and bind him in chains for the entire Millennium (Rev 20:1-3). As 2 Thess 2:8 also tells us: then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming.

And why does Satan want to take over, and rule from, Jerusalem (Zion) anyhow? Because it's God's favorite city. He's even made an eternal covenant with her, and has promised to rule from there in the Millennium, and throughout all eternity (Ezekiel 16). As Isaiah 14 reveals, Satan wants to sit there because he wants to be God. Since the first earth age (as Ezekiel 28 tells us) Satan has wanted to be God. That's what the rebellion centers on. Satan trying to take God's throne and rule the world with his wicked 'beast' system that we've been learning about (i.e. the 'city'). And while this 'city' (i.e. 'the world') governs the world today, it will be finalized only when Satan is kicked out of heaven, and sent to earth, so he can fulfill his duty to test God's children. And, his children (the Kenites) and many other corrupted individuals (of all races) are working hard today to get the world prepared for Satan's arrival. They continue to pull one 'false flag' after another to try and coerce the world into accepting their version of a 'world government', promising us that's the only way we'll ever have 'peace'. And, since these assholes are the one stirring up all the troubles in the world, we definitely won't have peace on earth till Jesus Christ comes to kick them out of their positions of power and install a righteous government. But there's another reason God allows Satan to come to earth and 'play God'. You see, once Satan and his fallen angels are kicked out of heaven... they can't go back. As it is written...

7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,

8 And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

9 And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.

12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

Rev 12:7-12

Did you catch that? Verse 8 tells us that, not only do Satan and his angels not prevail against Michael and his angels (fighting for God and Jesus Christ) but neither was their place found any more in heaven. Once they have ‘no place’ left in heaven, they can't go back. They are trapped on earth like birds in a cage (so to speak). And that's why we're told that Jesus is at God's right hand waiting to return until his enemies be made his footstool (Heb 10:13, Ps 110:1). And, as Isa 66:1 explains: heaven is God's throne but the earth is His footstool. So, Jesus is patiently waiting until it's time for Him to return to earth and take over (He's also faithfully being our intercessor at the same time, Rom 8). And once Satan and his fallen angels are on earth, causing everyone on earth (except for the few who remain faithful to the true Jesus) to worship Satan and his system... then Jesus Christ will return. And we know that'll be 3 ½ days after the two witnesses are killed, because that's what Rev 11 tells us. So, God is basically gathering all His enemies (Satan, his fallen angels and the kings of the earth – the ones who plot against Him) into one place to pour out His ‘cup of wrath’ on His ‘day of vengeance’, as He promised...

8 Therefore wait ye upon me, [Ps 37:9,34; 27:14, Isa 40:31, 49:23, Lam 3:25-26] saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.

9 For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent.

Zeph 3:8-9

He also explained this clear back in what some call ‘the Song of Moses’...

39 See now that I, even I, am he, and there is no god with me: I kill, and I make alive; I wound, and I heal: neither is there any that can deliver out of my hand.

40 For I lift up my hand to heaven, and say, I live for ever.

41 If I whet my glittering sword, and mine hand take hold on judgment; I will render vengeance to mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.

42 I will make mine arrows drunk with blood, and my sword shall devour flesh; and that with the blood of the slain and of the captives, from the beginning of revenges upon the enemy.

43 *Rejoice, O ye nations, with his people: for he will avenge the blood of his servants, and will render vengeance to his adversaries, and will be merciful unto his land, and to his people.

Deut 32:39-43

So, while Jesus Christ takes vengeance upon His adversaries (and avenges the blood of His servants, Rev 6:10) He will be merciful to His land and His people – this includes people of all races who remain firmly committed to Jesus Christ and don't bow a knee. As Rev 7 explains, people of all nations and races will come out of the great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb (vs 14). And, verse 15 tells us they'll serve Him night and day in His temple. So, 'His people' are no longer only Israel. It's anyone who accepts the precious blood of Jesus Christ in sincerity. As Paul explains...

26 *For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

28 *There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Gal 3:26-29

So, God has it all planned out. And that's why He's not worried about the heathen rulers raging and plotting against Him. He will indeed set His king (Jesus) upon His Holy Hill...

6 For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.

7 Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

Isa 9:6-7

We'll pick this up in part 3...

AMEN.
