

Psych Practice Test 2.

Direction. Chose the Correct/Best Answer Depending on the Nature of Questions

1. The scientist who would reject the teachings of the early psychologists and be LEAST likely to study mental processes would be
 - A. William James
 - B. Edward Titchener
 - C. John Watson
 - D. Wilhelm Wundt
2. Which field in psychology is focused on designing tests that measure constructs such as intelligence?
 - A. Psychometrics
 - B. Human factors
 - C. School psychology
 - D. Developmental psychology
3. Which movement of psychology suggested humans are born with innate tendencies, unchangeable rules for organizing sensory input?
 - A. Behaviorism
 - B. Gestalt
 - C. Humanistic
 - D. Psychoanalysis
4. A Psychologist tried to study the ability of children at various ages to solve puzzles. The researcher is has interest in _____Psychology.
 - A. Clinical
 - B. Developmental
 - C. Industrial
 - D. Comparative

5. Freud's psychoanalytic approach to psychology gave great importance to
- A. The therapist being a friend and supporter of the client
 - B. The role of natural selection in determining behavior
 - C. Discovering hidden conflicts in the unconscious mind
 - D. Immediate conscious experiences
6. Which of the following psychologist would most likely be involved primarily in administering tests and utilizing evaluative instruments for the assessment of abnormal behavior?
- A. Counseling
 - B. Health
 - C. Personality
 - D. Clinical
7. The influence of inherited characterization on behavior would be studied with ____ model.
- A. Cognitive
 - B. Psychodynamic
 - C. Behavioral
 - D. Biological
8. The humanistic model places a major emphasis on:
- A. Observable behavior
 - B. Inner forces
 - C. Free will
 - D. Understanding concepts
9. "Yes there are four basic tastes, but I'm interested in how this has helped us adapt and survive". Which perspective follower is most likely to claim such a statement?
- A. Psychoanalyst
 - B. Structuralist
 - C. Behaviorist
 - D. Functionalist
10. Dr.Hart is interested in the differences in dating behavior found in communities with different religious, ethnic and economic characteristics. Dr.Hart's researches emphasize_____ view.
- A. Humanistic
 - B. Psychoanalytic
 - C. Cognitive
 - D. Socio-cultural

N.B. The above exercise items were compiled from different sources of accompanying guides and standardized exams. To understand the major concepts visit the YouTube channel: Psych in Amharic with Tamiru Delelegn

(<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCqqhRfFSnAFLTrEaVFG-m0Q/videos>)