Study

Here we read about how Jairus' daughter died. Jairus was a ruler of the synagogue who came to the Lord for help because his 12 years old daughter was dying. But it got to the point when the girl died because the Lord delayed a bit due to the healing of the woman with the issue of blood. The Lord told him to believe and not be afraid, when the Lord got to the man's house, the first thing He observed was a tumult; serious disorderliness with uproar and confused voices. Mark 5:38 KJV And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.

The Lord then asked why they caused so much commotion and weeping when they shouldn't have done so, for He was not seeing things the way they were seeing it, He was seeing things the way God sees it, all things are possible with God. He said the child is not dead but sleeping then they ridiculed Him. It is most likely for those who walk by Faith to be ridiculed by those who walk by sight. Mark 5:40 KJV And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.

- But when He had put them all outside He started the application of faith.

- There was a serious necessity for these people to be put outside.

- Putting outside in this context simply means to forcefully thrust out. The word put is ekballo in Greek, and it is the same word often used for driving out demons. It implies a forceful action of authority. The Lord had to put them all out forcefully with authority as if He was handling demons.

Just the way the works of demons in the life of a man is destructive, that is the same way these people can hinder God's work if they are allowed to stay there through their words of ridicule.

After the Lord put them all out not remaining a single person among them then the goodness of God was seen. He had to put them all out because

- These sets of people were professional discouragers.
- They are short-sighted to the Omnipotence of God. (All-powerful)
- They are mockers.
- They are fun makers.
- They are scorers.

It's surprising to see that those who were wailing loudly and weeping because of the death of Jairus' daughter started making fun and mocking, leaving the major essence of their coming behind just to discourage a miracle from happening but the Lord put them all out. In the same way you have to put them all out!

- Are you planning to achieve something great and what those around you are seeing is "impossibility" even when God is saying go ahead? Put them all out!

- Do you want to get married to whom God told you clearly to marry and people around you are scorning and mocking you because they feel the person is not up to your level. Put them all out!

- You just made up your mind to stop living in sin to live in genuine holiness and righteousness but the preachers, teachers and the messages you listen to keep saying it is not possible to be holy. Put them all out!

- You don't need to keep those who make fun of your vision and dreams close to you. They will discourage you. They'd belittle it to the point you might abandon it and then become a disgrace to heaven.

- Has the Lord called you into full time ministry, but people are saying you are lazy that's why you choose not to work. Put them all out!

Peter had to do a similar thing the Lord Jesus Christ did when he raised Dorcas from the dead.

Acts 9:39-40 KJV Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. [40] But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

When talking about putting them out, it simply means

- Giving no ears to what they say.
- Disconnecting yourself from them.
- Ignoring their words.
- Discarding their strange and unbiblical advice.
- Rejecting evil counsels.
- Banishing strange discouraging thoughts.

Check your life now, what are you supposed to put outside which you are yet to put outside? If your miracle must appear like that of Jairus' then be rest assured that your faith must be firm in the Lord. You need to shift your attention away from the people and things that discourage you, focus on what God is saying and not what man is saying, negativity can only be subdued by positivity. Surround yourself with those who push you to do what God says with speed, those who believe in your vision and dreams.

If you understand this teaching, please attempt these questions.

1. What does it mean to put out?
2. What are the things we must put out?
3. How can we subdue negativity?
