Anyone who has failed in life has no choice but to settle for leftovers

Chapter One

The School of Failure

Psalm 1:1-2 says, "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord: and in his law doth he meditate day and night."

It means that there are some meditations that are profitable at night while there are some that are profitable in the day.

In Luke 18, we find a certain widow, who troubled the judge; she cried to him everyday to avenge her of her adversary. Eventually, the wicked judge granted her request. Jesus said, "If this unrighteous judge could behave like this, how much more will God not listen to the saints who cry unto Him day and night." Indeed there are some for the night and there are some for the day.

Psalm 1:3 says, "And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither: and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper."

This is the stand of the scriptures for believers.

A lot of people have been put in the dustbin of life. A lot of people are trekking when they should be on their horses. A lot of people who are supposed to have food on the table are struggling for leftovers.

HARD FACTS ABOUT THE SCHOOL OF FAILURE

1. There is no accidental failure; it must have a root. Failure in an examination is not accidental, there must be a root.
2. If you try to please everybody, you will become a senior student in the school of failure. One major cause of failure is trying to please everybody. Anyone who wants to please everybody plans to fail.
3. You cannot profit from your mistakes as long as you blame others for them. When you have not learned to point accusing fingers at yourself, you will remain in the school of failure.
4. You are not a failure until you are satisfied being one. Many people started their lives at the bottom and they liked it there, so they remained there.
5. If you never make a mistake that forces you to improve, you may live and die without anyone ever noticing you. So, you could make mistakes but it must not be habitual. If you have the habit of making mistakes, it means that the spirit of error has possessed you.
6. When you fail to prepare, you are preparing to fail. You must prepare.
7. Most failures are experts at making excuses. If you are always making excuses, you are already in the school of failure.
8. The greatest vehicles of failure are laziness and sleep.
9. No man ever fails until he fails internally.
10. A man is a failure if all he wants from life is money.

These are hard facts about failure which should make people to think and meditate because anyone who has failed in life will have no choice but to settle for leftovers.

Chapter Two

Those who Incubate Failure

There are people who incubate failure. It is easy to know if a person is already incubating failure, which will hatch later. Anyone that has familiar spirit or witchcraft spirit and does not seek deliverance is incubating failure. People who incubate failure never make it.

If you find that occasionally, you see things that other people do not see and those things are not from the Holy Spirit, then you need to pray hard. Those are incubated failure mechanisms. Also, if you have seen a ghost before, you need to pray because you are incubating some failure mechanisms. I have been born again for years; I am yet to see one of such people who made it.

If you are given the name of a dead relative because you look like the person or for whatever reason, you need to pray because the character of that person has been transferred into your life by a simple spiritual transaction.

If you find some strange marks on your body, which you were born with, you need to pray because it means that you belong to a strange kingdom. You need to destroy that kingdom and pursue your agenda here on earth.

If you find that it is very difficult for you to forgive people, you need to pray because it is a sign that you are incubating failure.

Perhaps when you were young, you had satanic bangles and necklaces on your neck because your parents were afraid that you might die. You need to pray. That is why I consider it very strange these days when I see some women who put bangles on their legs. In the olden days, ankle bangles were worn by people who had familiar spirits.

If you know that when you were young, regular satanic parties were organized on your behalf, you need to pray.

If occasionally you find scratches all over your body when you wake up from sleep, it is a sign that you are incubating failure. Those powers scratching your body are telling you that you belong to them and you must not move too fast.

Perhaps many years ago, you were a prophet or prophetess in a white garment church, you need to pray because the spirit that was operating through you and making you to vibrate and prophesy is a foul spirit. You need to pray those things out of your way because I am yet to see one case that made it. If that negative anointing does not go away from your life, you will continue to have problems.

If you have been taken to the cemetery because you had problems, you need to pray because the Bible says that the living has nothing to do with the dead, the living should not seek the dead.

If occasionally in your dream you find somebody who looks exactly like you, it is a twin substitute, which may be the one carting away all the blessings you are supposed to have. You need to pray.

If something was buried on your behalf because you had one problem or another, you also need to pray.

If many children died in your family before you were born and you are the first person that lived, the staying power that retained you will pursue your destiny. You need to pray seriously against this.

All these things incubate failure mechanism.

No matter how deeply the enemy has pursued you, you can by personal determination and by the power in the blood of Jesus, get delivered and become successful. You can refuse to struggle for the leftovers of life.

THE MARKETPLACE OF LIFE

Life itself is a market place. When the marketplace opens, people go there to buy and to sell. They go in and come out of the market. They look around to source for what they want. When a person has been consigned to leftovers, he or she will gain nothing from the marketplace of life. Since life itself is a market and at a specific time the market must close and everybody will go home, a time will come too that everyone has to depart from this life. Then, you will have to give an account of how you spent your time on earth.

Prayer Points

2. Father Lord, clothe me with the garment of fire, in the name of Jesus.

Chapter Three

Keys to Ensure that you do not Struggle for Leftovers

The keys that ensure that you do not struggle for leftovers are:

1. Make God your friend: The Bible says, "The fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.

John 15:14 says, "Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you."

All those referred to as the friends of God in the Bible lived highly profitable lives. The first friend of God in the Bible was one man called Enoch. The Bible says, "And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him" (Genesis 5:24). God will not assist His own enemy. If you are an enemy of God, when God arises, you will scatter. God is the supreme excellence, an embodiment of success. When you walk with Him, you will succeed. But if you walk outside Him, you will not succeed. Even those who are in the demonic kingdom still recognise that there is a God above them that can overrule or decide whether something works or not. The day you call upon God and He says, "shut up", you need to fall on your knees and quickly reconcile with Him.

David too was another friend of God, he made his terrible mistake but God forgave him. Abraham was a friend of God and without the covenant with Abraham, the nation of Israel will be nowhere today. If God is your friend, you will not befriend the enemies of God.

2. Have a good self-image: See yourself in a good light.

Philippians 4:13 says, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Do not use your own mouth to run yourself down. A lot of people issue personal curses on themselves everyday and the more they issue these personal curses, the worse things become. See a good image of yourself and do not run yourself down. Be able to declare like Paul who said: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

3. Work hard: Proverbs 22:29 says, "Seest thou a man diligent in his business? He shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men."

   Lazy people never succeed. It is a very terrible thing when a man is lazy. How do you want to succeed when you want to sleep for fourteen hours a day? Inherited laziness too is a terrible problem, which is also a source of great poverty.

   Instead of some people to go out and look for work, they would claim that God has told them that they are prophets unto all the nations of the world. So, He will come and meet them where they are. It is laziness.

4. Seek the spirit of creativity: Job 32:8 says, "But there is a spirit in man; and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding."

   When the inspiration from God comes upon you, it gives birth to several things in your life. It gives birth to original ideas. It gives you original ideas to solve stubborn problems. Creativity is not due to hard work; it requires genuine inspiration. Since God is the Creator, He can plant progress ideas into your spirit. This divine inspiration will give you wisdom to operate. Creative people do not fail in the marketplace of life.

5. Do not despise small victories: Zechariah 4:10 says, "For who hath despised the day of small things? For they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the Lord, which run to and fro through the whole earth."

Do not neglect or become unthankful over the small successes God is giving to you. There is nothing too small to thank God about. You may be complaining that things are not well, but there are some people who cannot afford what you have now. Do not despise the mercies of God, no matter how little they may appear to be.

Do not neglect or become unthankful over those small successes you have. Some people complain that the more they pray, the worse things become, all they need to do is to be thankful for the small victories and the big ones will come.

If you want success, be grateful for the small things. If you become ungrateful over the small things, He will not do anymore and then you start wondering what has happened. It is good to spend quality time to praise God no matter your condition.

6. Hate the tail region with perfect hatred: Deuteronomy 28:13 says, "And the Lord shall make thee the head, and not the tail: and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if that thou hearken unto the commandments of the Lord thy God, which I command thee this day, to observe and to do them."

So, there is a position called the tail. Unfortunately, the world is full of mediocres; just average people. That is why in school, you find so many students who say, "Well, just let me score my 50%. That is all." You have to refuse to be average. Try to be the best wherever you are, and put in your best anywhere you are as a Christian. Refuse to be the tail. The power of the tail always ensures that its victims are always at the tail position. It is a powerful spirit that can keep a person down and make it hard for the person to experience success.

7. Learn the principles of time management: Psalm 90:12 says, "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom."

It is often said that fools waste money but the greatest fools waste time. Wastage of time is a disaster. And time is the enemy of everybody. It is not friendly with anyone at all. Everyone gets older everyday. The time spent cannot be recovered. It is gone for ever. It is therefore a terrible tragedy if at the age of 30 or 40, your life has no meaning and you do not even know where you are going or what you want to do. Many people go to the universities just to waste their time. They go there and study things that would not move them forward. Time wastage is a terrible thing and many people are wasting their lives away.

8. Understand the devices of the enemy: 2 Corinthians 2:11 says, "Lest satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices."

   Understand the devices of the enemy very well. The Bible says, if you do not understand their devices, satan will get an advantage of you. It means that you must understand the principles that make the universe to run. You must know the principles that guide good and evil and be able to fight your battle in the warfare of life.

9. Make a change when necessary: Do not blindly stick to your way when it is wrong.

   Genesis 32:26 says, "And he said, Let me go, for the day breaketh. And he said, I will not let thee go, except thou bless me."

   Jacob knew that he was not in the place of blessing, and he wanted the blessing at all cost so, he decided to make a change and God helped him.

10. Write down your plans, goals and ideas: These are the instruments you stretch to God. They are the raw materials that you want to use. Do not just marry anybody for the sake of marriage because you may eventually marry a fire extinguisher that will kill even the little light you have.

    Luke 14:31 says, "Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?"

Luke 14:28-30 says, "For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he has sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish."

It is wrong to pursue your life agenda without writing anything down. You have to write down your goals and ideas. The truth is that when you begin to write down your plans, goals and ideas, it increases your chances of pursuing and achieving them. But when you have nothing on paper, you will not have direction. Write these things down, take them to the Lord and He will cross out the ones He does not want you to do.

11. Listen more and speak less: Ecclesiastes 5:2 says, "Be not rash with thy mouth, and let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few."

If you are determined to succeed, do more of listening than talking. The truth is that many people will not make it in life unless they learn to shut their mouths. Many people are destroying their breakthroughs with their mouths. God Himself is not talkative. So, you have to understand that you must listen more and speak less. During the study for my PhD, I was made to understand that the more words you speak, the more words are available to be questioned. It is the same principle in the Bible.

I did a study on the words of angels in the Bible and made an outstanding discovery. I found that their words are very brief: 'Go', 'Arise', 'Eat', 'Stop' etc. The longest talk that any angel had with anyone was the one found in the book of Daniel. The one with Zechariah was quite brief. Even God Himself does not talk for too long. So, if you are talkative, you are planning to fail. If you speak 200 words per minute, you are planning to fail. Listen more and speak less.

It is often said that the best marriage is one in which the woman is deaf and dumb and the man is blind. There would be no problem at all in such a home. The woman cannot talk rubbish that would annoy the man and the man cannot even see what she is doing. So, there would be no fight.

12. Live an orderly life: Depart from the school of confusion. Isaiah 28:10 says, "For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little."

    Do not be confused. The Bible says that God is not the author of confusion. Do not live a confused life.

13. Build your life on the truth: Proverbs 3:3-4 says, "Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart; So shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man."

    Build your life on the truth. If you build your life on falsehood, you will fail. Those who are making money in ungodly ways are wasting time. When the judgment of God finishes with them, it will pick up on their generations to come.

    The only thing you cannot destroy is the truth. Every lie you tell drags you into the valley of failure. Human beings may not be able to detect that you are lying but you know you are lying and God knows you are lying. And the father of lies who is the inventor and originator knows that you are his child because you are lying.

    You will fail if you constantly tell lies. If you lie about anything, you are planning for failure and destruction. If you accept excess change and do not say anything, you are a liar. You are building your life on a lie. If you are forty and say you are thirty-two, you are lying about your age and building your life on a lie. If you make personal telephone calls with your office telephone without approval, you are building your life on a lie. Those who want to succeed do not do such things. If you jump queues and manipulate yourself ahead, you are building your life on a lie. If you do not pay for services rendered to you by denying that you received them, you are building your life on a lie. If you take books from a library and tear out pages neatly and return the book to the library, you are basing your life on a lie.

Every form of deceit or falsehood would lead to disaster. The Bible says that little foxes spoil the vine. If you go to a hotel and steal their towels, blankets or spoons, you are basing your life on a lie. If you make calls from somebody else's telephone and the person does not know, you are looking for trouble. These kinds of things would lead to failure later. It may not be immediately. If you use forged receipts to claim money, you are building your life on a lie.

When I was in the civil service, whenever we went for conferences, some of my colleagues spent the night in places where they paid nothing and by the time we arrived back, they would bring receipts to show that they stayed in one hotel or another and would collect the money. I still see them and cannot see what they have done with the money.

You bought food but because you did not want to pay for it, you told the food seller that the taste of the food was very bad, and she began to plead with you not to go away or to pay less, you are building your life on a lie. If you hit another person's car or broke the mirror and run away, you are building your life on a lie. I have seen people taking soft drinks inside supermarkets without paying, they are building their lives on a lie. There are students who went to shops to do shoplifting. The single sweet they stole could be responsible for their failures. Do not build your life on lies.

If the truth cannot be found with the children of God then it would not be found anywhere else.

14. Learn from your mistakes and failures: Anyone who is working hard would always make mistakes. But the important thing is that you should not repeat your mistakes.

Jeremiah 2:30 says, "In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion."

The children refused to take correction and the result was death. Take correction. Do not hate those who criticise you. Look at the criticisms very well and make adjustments where necessary. Discard the unnecessary ones and move forward with your life. That is how to handle it.

15. Depart from the school of worry, anxiety and fear: The greatest demon in the world is fear. Practically, everyone in the whole of human race has one form of fear or another. Worry and anxiety too are the younger brothers of fear.

    Job 3:25 says, "For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of is come unto me."

    Job's problem was fear which broke the hedge of God's protection over him. So, the things that happened to Job were things he was already afraid that they may happen. Some ladies were afraid they would not find husbands and when they eventually got married, they became afraid that other women might snatch them. Worrying over things increases the chances of those things developing problems.

16. Learn the power of personal motivation: I Samuel 30:6 says, "And David was greatly distressed; for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters; but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God."

    David motivated himself. He knew that discouragement is a spiritual robber. Discouragement is the satanic key that fits into many doors of failure. It opens the door to sicknesses and diseases. Discouragement will make you to disbelieve in what you are able to do. It also makes one to look like a fool.

17. Anytime you are knocked down, get back up, do not stay down there: A knockdown is not a knockout.

    Proverbs 24:16 says, "For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again. .."

When the enemy knocks you down, do not stay down. There have been so many boxing matches in which the fellow who was knocked down was eventually the one that carried the day.

18. Be a man or woman of the word of God and prayer: Joshua 1:8 says, "This book of the law shall not depart out of thy mouth; but thou shalt meditate therein day and night,.."

    Luke 18:1 says, "...men ought always to pray, and not to faint."

19. Ensure that your deliverance is complete: Any area of your life that is not delivered will be the arena through which the enemy would come in regularly. Many people need to go for deliverance of the eyes. Many too need to go for deliverance of their stomachs, hands etc. The area you leave open is where the enemy would come in always.

20. You must be broken: A broken person is the person that God uses. God has no confidence in men who are living in the flesh. He has confidence in those who are already dead to the flesh, those who are broken. If you want the power of God to be perpetually in your life, then you must be completely broken. His hammer would come upon you time and time again, and wherever is not broken in your life would be broken by Him. Until you begin to bow to the pressure of the Almighty and yield to His way, you will not experience His power.

There is no way you can fail if you observe these twenty keys and make them your guiding principles. There is no way the enemy will laugh last over your life and leftovers will not be portion. A careful study of the Bible reveals that the men of God that succeeded followed these keys.

Chapter Four

Power to Encounter New Things

It does not cost God anything to change your story because He can do it within seconds.

Isaiah 43: 19 is a direct declaration to you. It says, "Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert."

It is not a man, the devil, a pastor or a prophet talking here but the Almighty God. He says, "I will do a new thing now and not next time! That new thing I will do, will manifest. That new thing I will do, all eyes will see it. That new thing that I will do, all mouths shall talk about it." What the Lord will start to do in your life even right now, you will not be able to hide it no matter how hard you try because it shall spring forth.

THE GOD OF NEW THINGS

Our God is a God of new things. In the Bible, we see a lot of new things which God did. He delights in surprises of new things for mankind. The Bible talks about the new heaven and the new earth (Revelation 21:1). The Bible talks about the new wine, and that you cannot put a new wine in an old skin (Matthew 9:17).

The Bible talks about a new heart and a new spirit (Ezekiel 36:26). The Bible talks about a new plate, Elisha requested for a new plate (2 Kings 2:19). The Bible talks about a new commandment (John 13:34). The Bible talks about a new man, a new creature and new things (2 Corinthians 5:17).

So, when God says, "Behold, I will do a new thing," it is not a strange thing to Him and it is not difficult for Him to do it. That statement from the mouth of God is powerful and prophetic. The Bible says that the testimony of Jesus Christ is the spirit of prophecy.

"BEHOLD, I WILL DO A NEW THING"

The declaration, "Behold, I will do a new thing," is also a promise. Man may fail to accomplish his own promises but God will never fail. God says, "I will do a new thing" and He watches His words to bring it to pass.

The declaration, 'Behold, I will do a new thing" is also a proclamation and a statement of fact. Whenever God decides to do something in your life, nothing can stop Him. Your evil background cannot stop Him. Satanic powers gathered against you cannot stop Him. When God decides to do something new, the devil cannot stop Him. Even your unbelief cannot stop Him. Your lack of trust in Him or doubt cannot stop Him.

The Bible says, our God dwelleth in heaven and doeth what pleases Him. It has pleased the Lord to send me to you through this message to tell you that no matter the opposition, the gang-up, or your unbelief, He has decided that He will do new things in your life, in the name of Jesus.

"Behold, I will do a new thing" is a statement from God that points to the following five things:

1. It refers to change. It is time for a change in the lives of so many people. The only thing that is constant in life is change. When you resist change, you become a past tense. The only way to receive the benefit of change is to cooperate with it. So, "Behold, I will do a new thing," is about change.
2. It is about starting all over again. For some people, they need to start all over again because God did not ask them to do what they are doing now. What they have entered into does not have heaven's approval. And God will not bless or back up what He did not ask you to do. God will not rubber-stamp rebellion.

3. It is talking about God giving you a testimony that you have never shared before in your life. You have read about it and listened to other people sharing it, but in your own life, it has not manifested. Now it is your turn to experience it because God has pronounced that He is about to do a new thing in your life.
4. It is talking about God taking you to the next level in your life. The Bible says, as we behold our face in a glass, the glory is being changed into the same image, from glory to glory, from one level to another, even by the Spirit of the Lord (2 Corinthians 3:18). It is a level of glory transformation. That is, people will look at you and wonder if you are still the one. Others will say, "No! But it looks like him. It must be him." When Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James and John, they said to themselves, "Let us stay here, let us dwell with you here." They did not want to go again because this was another level of glory. The next level for you is a level that both those who are close to you and those who are far away from you will never want you to leave them. Everyone will desire to stick to you. They want to identify with you. They will not be able to ignore you. That is where God is taking you.
5. It is talking about God decorating you with the garment of many colours just like Joseph. Joseph's coat of many colours distinguished him from the rest of the family members. His coat of many colours even made his brothers to envy him. I prophesy that as from today, no man will have any reason to pity you again, in the name of Jesus.

"Behold, I will do a new thing" is an authoritative statement of God to you today. You must understand that our God has a unique character which is, unpredictability. You cannot box Him to a corner. You cannot put Him inside a bottle neither can you re-make Him.

A well-to-do sister was praying fervently to God for a husband. The Lord spoke through her pastor to her that her husband would appear and she was so excited. That week, she came back from work one day, and her gate-keeper opened the gate, and she drove in. As soon as she came down from the car, the man said, "Excuse me ma, I have something to tell you. Please, don't be angry with me. I am the one the Lord has been talking to you about.' The sister was very angry and stormed into the house. The following day, she went to her pastor and said, You see, there was a word of prophecy and I claimed it but my gate-keeper is saying he is the one." The pastor laughed and said, 'Daughter, that is your husband." She said No! She left the pastor and went to another man of God for confirmation. Immediately she entered to see the man of God, without uttering a word, the man of God said, "My daughter, that man is your husband." She did not agree and went to another man of God. You can see her unbelief. But because God had already decreed it, whether she believed it or not did not matter. The third man of God she went to gave her a detailed account about the man: his full name, age and where he came from. At that level, she surrendered. They are now living together, happily married with children. Our God is unpredictable.

That is why the word of God says, His thoughts are not our thoughts, neither His ways, our ways. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are His ways higher than our ways and His thoughts higher than our thoughts" (Isaiah 55:8-9).

When the children of Israel began to pray for deliverance and freedom in Egypt, nobody knew that the answer to that prayer would start with a burning bush. God answered their prayers, not inside Egypt where they were but in the wilderness far away from their domain.

Our God is unpredictable because He has all the power. The Bible calls Him the Father of spirits. Whether it is a good spirit or a bad one or a demon, He is the Father of them all. He has all the power. The Bible says, God has spoken once; twice have I heard that all powers belong to God (Psalm 62:11).

God is unpredictable because He is the source of all wisdom, He alone embodies wisdom. Romans 16:27 says, "To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever, Amen."

Our God is unpredictable because He can see what no one can see. What demons cannot see and what satan cannot see, our God sees them all.

2 Chronicles 16:9 says, "For the eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him..."

God can see what you cannot see. He can see what the enemy cannot see. He can see your glorious future. God is unpredictable so, when He says, "I will do a thing new," it is with absolute authority. He can use anything and everything to accomplish His purpose in your life. He can use human beings, angels, animals, stones, rivers or anything at all to accomplish His purpose.

Our God is unpredictable because He moves and operates like the wind.

Acts 2: 1-2 says, "And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly them came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting."

FACTS ABOUT THE WIND

1. The wind is unpredictable because you cannot see it but can only feel it.
2. It is very noisy.
3. It is violent and nothing can stand on its way.
4. It is very uncompromising. You can capture air and put it inside a bottle, balloon or ball but you cannot do that with the wind.
5. The wind is invisible and so is your miracle in the eyes of your enemies.
6. The wind is not quiet and so shall your testimony announce you to everybody.
7. The origin and existence of the wind is unknown and so will your breakthrough emerge unannounced, in the name of Jesus.

When your breakthrough happens, there are people that will rejoice and heaven will rejoice with them also. However, there are people who will be so sad and unhappy and their sadness will multiply. But your position should be that when your breakthrough happens, those who fire the arrow of sadness and impossibility into your life, the arrows will go back to them.

Many years ago, during a counselling session, a man was brought to me bedridden. I asked those who brought him, what happened. They said he woke up at night to ease himself in the toilet and felt a strange wind and he fell down. Right from that day, he could not walk again. I asked again if that was all and they said yes sir. We started to pray for him and after some time, we noticed that his hands that were bent straightened out and he could move them freely. As the prayers continued, his legs responded and the man jumped up and screamed, "Hallelujah! Thank you Jesus." I said, "Okay, you can go now." They left and as they were about to enter a taxi cab, one of those who brought the man to the church fell down. It was the man's younger brother and the exact thing that happened to man befell him. The two hands and two legs twisted and became lame. They rushed him to me again in the church and I asked again what happened. They narrated exactly what happened to the elder brother. I sensed in my spirit that something was fishy so, I asked the new victim, "What did you do?" He said, "Man of God, I want to confess to you that I am the one that sent the arrow to my brother." So, it was a case of back to sender.

I decree that any power close to you and is attacking you, shall receive open disgrace, in the name of Jesus.

GOD'S PERFECT TIMING

Genesis 8:1 says, "And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattle that was with him in the ark: and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters assuaged."

Note that before God caused the wind to move, He first remembered Noah. I pray that God shall remember you, in the name of Jesus. God has not forgotten you although it may look like the more you pray, the more the enemy is boasting and your problem is increasing. It may look like the more you fast and go for deliverance, the more your problem is magnified. Don't lose hope or be discouraged. The best time that God will show up in your situation will be the correct time for your breakthrough to manifest.

When God answered Hannah and gave her Samuel, it was a perfect time. Her miracles swallowed all the past mockeries and frustrations. If you do not see yourself building your house, it may never come to pass. God says, He will do a new thing. You must believe Him. Our major problem is we want to see it happen before we believe Him. Many of us are looking at the wrong things and we allow the enemy to rob us of our miracles. You must see yourself in that new thing that God is about to do in your life.

HOW TO PROVOKE NEW THINGS

One solid way that you need to provoke new things is to call upon the name of the Lord persistently. Jabez called upon the name of the Lord and God indeed blessed him and enlarged his coast. The Bible says, whoever calls upon the name of the Lord, shall be saved. When you are aware that you cannot save yourself and you need a drastic change, that is when to call upon the name of the Lord.

When the children of Israel cried to God while in bondage in Egypt, God showed up. When blind Bartimaeus cried out to Jesus, he got his miracle. When Peter was sinking in the river, he cried unto Jesus and He saved him. You can provoke new things in your life by doing exactly the same things they did.

HOW TO CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD

1. You must call upon Him in all sincerity. A sincere person is an open person, like the thief on the right hand side of Jesus on the cross. When the other thief was mocking and making jest of Jesus to save Himself, the one on His right-hand side admitted with sincerity that they deserved their punishment and asked for forgiveness and favour. Who told him that Jesus had a kingdom? His sincerity provoked Jesus to admit him into paradise at that very moment. Call upon Him also today with a sincere heart and He will answer you.
2. You must call upon Him faithfully. Faithful is He that has called you out of darkness into His marvellous light. You must call upon Him faithfully to trigger your miracle.
3. You must call upon Him desperately. You must be desperate in your approach. Other people may take it lightly but you must behave like Zacchaeus who was so desperate to see Jesus that he had to climb to the top of a sycamore tree. That singular act arrested Jesus' attention and He dined with Zacchaeus in his house in spite of the fact that he was a sinner.

4. You must call upon Him expectantly. Don't pray for praying sake but be full of expectations. I pray that your expectation will not be cut off, in the name of Jesus.
5. You must call upon Him with aggression like the woman who went to the unjust judge until she wearied him and he reacted by granting her request (Luke 18:8).
6. You must call upon Him with boldness. Hebrews 4:16 says, "Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need." This is your time of need so, call upon Him with boldness. Be bold as a lion and receive your miracle.
7. You must call upon Him with faith in your heart and believe Him. Jesus said to Martha, "If you believe, you shall see the glory of God." Belief plus faith in your heart equals the manifestation of the glory of God.
8. You must call upon Him now and not later or tomorrow. The Bible says, "Seek the Lord while He may be found, call upon Him while He is near."

   Psalm 145:18 says, "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth."

   Call upon Him now. As you call upon Him today, you are going to receive an offer, a telephone call or message that will change your life for good, in the name of Jesus.

What God has decided to do for you, nobody can change it. "I will do a new thing, no matter the opposition, Goliath, Pharaoh, wall of Jericho or Red sea that is confronting you," saith the Lord.
