Relevance Of Revelations

Revelation is a very important piece in our lives as mortals, because on the foundation of revelations, visions are birthed, not visions for your appetite, but of where the Lord wants to take you. This can only happen if the Lord is gracious to give you a head start revelation at a young age, because there is an urgency in the heavens for that generation, else you must pray the revelation down, you don't directly pray it down, you must be a man of alters, a man who engages in spiritual prayers for his soul, what he would have God do with him.

These prayers offered consistently fills the throne of God with incense to trap the presence of God in your dimension, you'll walk the earth connected to heaven, your dimensions are interwoven with that of God, and whatever it is God's has for the season, for that generation, He reveals to you, because you have been found worthy to behold His presence. But at this stage you've only scratch the surface, this revelation is to have visions that drives you deeper in God's presence.

Then you must pray to strike the right frequency of heaven in order to recieves directly from the channel of God. When God searches for mortals to reveal His kingdom's mysteries, He searches only for the few who are connected to His frequency. This is the reason many Christians can't discern and understand the times and seasons of God, because they don't resonate with the frequency of God. You must make prayer a life habit, not prayers for demands, but prayer for the Lord to enforce His demand on you.

When the Lord reveals to you mysteries of the kingdom, then you'll need to have understanding of the times and walk in line with the move of God to be filled and baptized in the holy ghost. The period of being filled with the holy spirit, is a chronos season of sacrifices, yielding in obedience to the holy ghost to be built, converted and prepared for the Kairos moment for the manifestation of God in you. When you're filled with the holy spirit, sanctified, you're ushered into the chronos season, a period of dealings with the holy ghost.

In the calendar of God for men, we've been In a chronos season of three months consecutively for cultivation and growth of the spirit man. The Kairos moment is any moment after the three months chronos, any moment when God will reveal Himself to you and ordain you to be sent forth into the nations.

After being filled with the holy spirit, you'll be ushered into the chronos season, unknowingly, you'll know you're walking in the timeline God has set, but it won't be obvious until a new burden of the holy ghost is laid in your heart to dethrone the flesh, it'll be demanded of you to cast your bread upon the waters. This is the greatest sacrifice of the flesh, laying down your ambitions to follow the move of God, not many get here.

You must be led by the holy spirit to make this sacrifice, else you can't. It is the greatest offering a man can cast into the fire as a living sacrifice pleasing unto God. When you offer this sacrifice, you'll be recognized by God as elect of sacrifice to enforce God's will. Then a new revelation will be given specifically for you alone. You'll be subjected to a life of burden by the holy ghost, a period of sacrifice, this is when the chronos season begins in your life, to be chiseled and built by the holy ghost to be able to carry the weight of God's glory to come.

If you're not yet converted to be clothed in God's spirit, His glory will crush you, you can't contain it and it'll be better you never even started. God wouldn't want to invest on something and let it go t waste, that's why He deals on processing. There ll be burdens dispensed by the holy ghost you need to attend to, you must be subjected to his government. When you yield to his government, your life begin to change into a spiritual life. Suddenly you'll find your self eating less, detaching more from the world into his presence, many changes you'll notice, it'll become a life, a life of sacrifice.

What will you do to become a continuous burning sacrifice unto God? Men whose life are a living sacrifice are recognized and are relevant in God's kingdom, because their fragrance incense always arise to the throne of God.

When I began my journey to be filled by the holy spirit, I was ignorantly telling God to baptized me in the holy ghost on time, but i didn't realize it was all about processing, it you're not processed you cannot be used. If the potter does not finely process you, when you're set in the fire for use, you'll crack and shatter, because you cannot contain the fire of God to get the job done. We are like clay pots to be used in preparation for God's kingdom, but we need to be purged and refined to contain the intensity of God's fire that propels his work. It is His fire that keeps us burning to advance his kingdom God, where there's no fire, the food (men) won't be brought to be cooked. I didn't know then that there are times and seasons set by God, if only we can discern and walk in it. Use it up wisely till it expires.

From the seed sown in the soil to cultivated, it grows to harvest. The harvest time is the chronos moment when all those time of sacrifice by faithful those qualified will be imparted with the spirit from God and impartation to be sent forth into the world to carry out God's project

The chronos and Kairos comes in seasons, every year there are seasons, the Kairos comes after the chronos. The chronos is a season of sowing and growth till maturity. An apostle gave an expression of maize having a chronos of three months. Not everybody waits for the chronos and so many were impatient and we're cut off even during the chronos season. Only those who persevere, only the faithful who are continually filled in the holy ghost, those who yield in Obedience to the burdens of the holy spirit for that season.

One need to be filled in the holy ghost. However, at the chronos one there are new burdens and guides given by the holy spirit to be fulfilled. It is a harsh moment of growth, if you're not careful to discern you'll yield stunted growth and miss the Kairos time of harvest and selection. That's why few venture into the chronos, but also very few gets to the Kairos moment, that's why we have so few men ordained by God today.

A new ability to live like a spirit entity, to live like an immortal is given, what to eat doesn't bother you, because you've been sentenced to a life of one meal per day, you only eat just to keep the flesh from crashing, you physically food is replaced with God's word, you're given the ability to pray without ceasing, speak the word in new dimensions of wisdom carrying life and authority, a new ability to manifest the power of God until the day of your showing forth then, It'll explode, life will begin to emanate from you like radioactive particles.

You need to be filled constantly in the holy ghost to await the Kairos time, don't go rushing into God ministry when He hasn't called you, don't be in a hurry to call your self a pastor, an apostle when God has not yet ordained you else, you'll speak empty words, do empty works without life and you'll be subdued by the devil, because you've not been empowered.

The Kairos moment is the time of manifestation, it is the time when God sends His angels in search to ordain the few that has survived it all, the faithful.

When you're ordain in the Kairos moment you step out with power and authority, this time demons will come out for you because you've become a serious threat, but you'll destroy them all, because of the power and author of God life in you.

In the end, it is only to the faithful.
