Revelation - Series 38

The seven Spirits of God

[Isaiah 11:2 - 3]

- Spirit of the Lord
- Spirit of wisdom and of understanding
- Spirit of counsel and of power
- Spirit of knowledge and of fear of the Lord
- The spirit of the Lord
  The spirit of the Lord is the Lordship of God over one's life. A life of surrender, a life of death, a living sacrifice,

“No longer i but Christ Living in me.”

The spirit of the Lord [Lordship of Christ] resting in us, dominating us will determine the release and overflow of God's presence. Ask Peter and he'd tell you about the presence of God as he walked the streets.

The Lordship of Jesus, the spirit of the Lord dictates what happens in us, through us and around us in the power of the holy ghost as the will of man gives way for God's, affecting the world around us [seen and unseen].

- The spirit of wisdom
  The deep things of God. Wisdom consist of all heavenly, gracious thoughts of God embodied in Christ for the enlightenment of our soul. Ability to communicate the gift to others is the best and hight spiritual gift, communicate it to others
- The spirit of understanding
  Is the spirit of Revelation. To see clearly as God sees, to see what God sees.

- The spirit of counsel

  Is the spirit of divine guidance and direction from the Lord. Like Jesus; who does only what He sees the Father do. And the holy spirit; who speaks only what He hears the Father speaks. The spirit of counsel also guides us in love to use the power of God entrusted to us as a reward for our relationship with Jesus.

- The spirit of power [might]

  Anytime God wants to send us to our generation He sends us in might [power] like Gideon. As we walk with Him, might is released. Our reward for relationship is power. Christianity is in power of the holy ghost.

“Power” is God Himself. How much of God’s power in us will determine how much we can do in the name “Jesus.”

- Spirit of knowledge

  Is the spirit of intimacy, the spirit of Love. Knowledge is knowing, and knowing is to become, to become is “love.” If we know God, then we become God. Knowing is becoming and becoming is by intimacy [relationship, Love].

In all, the spirit of knowledge is the spirit of Love. The measure of our love will determine how much we’ll know God as we become more of Him.

- The spirit of the fear of the Lord.

  Requires;

  Regard for God’s holiness [not contaminating God’s holiness or purity with our darkness or impurities i.e. self or fallen nature]

We need a still heart, consciousness of God spirit who’s within and with us. The holy spirit is the light of God revealing darkness in us, He is the fire of God revealing and consuming impurities in us.

In all, it is consciousness of our heart to do only what will bear fruits of the spirit just as the holy spirit speaks only what He hears from God and do only what He sees God do. And also, to repent of the great darkness in us as it is revealed by God’s light.

The seven spirit of God. This is what Peter said;

“For if you possess these qualities in Increasing measure, they'll keep you from being ineffective and unproductive in your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For if you do these things, you'll never fall and you'll receive a rich welcome into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.”
[II Peter 1: 8,10 - 11]
